SHILOH

Doctor Hugo's Health Tablets

These tablets will cure all menstruation and uterine troubles even when chronic.

They take away the backache, constipation and dragging-down pains, which are symptoms of a run-down condition or some serious disorder.

As the weak and diseased organs (no matter which they may be) are made strong and well, that tired feeling, nervousness and irritability which come from a run-down condition, disappear.

Women are writing us every day testifying to their gain in health since taking these tablets. Improvement is noticed in a week's time.

No Names used without Written Consent. Cures Guaranteed.

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are annually swept to a premature grave through early abuse or later excesses. Chas. Anderson was one of the victims, but was rescued in time. He says: "I learned an evil habit. A change soon came over me. I could feel it; my friends noticed it. I became nervous, despondent, gloomy, had no ambition, easily tired, evil forebodings, poor circulation, pimples on face, back weak, dreams and drains at night, tired and weak mornings, burning sensations. To make matters worse, I became reckless and contracted a blood disease. I tried many doctors and medical firms—all failed till Drs. Kennedy & Kergan took my case. In one week I felt better, and in a few weeks was entirely cured. They are the only reliable and honest Specialists in the country."

More Bread in a Barrel.

That extra cost per barrel which your grocer asks you for doesn't go into anybody's pocket.

Ogilvie's Royal Household

It comes back to you.

It is the difference in money between flour you are sure of and flour you are not.

It covers the cost of inspecting the entire wheat crop of the country, and selecting the choicest grain.

It pays for advanced milling methods, for cleanliness, for purity and for scientific flour-making.

It comes back to you in the shape of light, wholesome, nourishing bread and pastry.

A barrel of Ogilvie's Royal Household Flour goes farther than a barrel of any other flour. It makes more bread and better bread.

You are not really spending that extra amount—you are investing it.

Do not let it stand between your family and good baking. Go to your grocer and say "Royal Household."

MINERAL WEALTH OF DOMINION IS YET UNKNOWN

Indications That the New Provinces and Far North Are—Territory Rich in Minerals—This Belt Extends From New Ontario to the Pacific Ocean—A Great Future is Assurred.

Special Correspondence.

Winnipeg, Man., Feb 24. — Western Canada is all yet practically an unknown quality as far as its mineral resources are concerned. Prospectors who have made trips into the northland tell of the wondrous richness to be found there, and the indications are that Western Canada is as rich in minerals, if not richer, than any other portion of the globe. Within its confines specimens of almost every mineral known to science have been found in small or large quantities. Forty years ago the settlement of the Canadian Northwest consisted of a little trading post known as Fort Garry, which stood on the present site of Winnipeg with its 100,000 people. Since then progress has made rapid strides, and as settlers and railways open up new territory mineral discoveries are made, and it is a noticeable fact that rich finds have seldom been recorded before the arrival of homesteaders. Here and there prospectors have come upon a rich mine in the far off wilds, but as a rule the richest claims have been struck by some settler digging a well or by a railway company grading its roadbed.

Silver in New Ontario.

In New Ontario, close to the boundary of Manitoba, the richest silver deposits in the world are supposed to exist. Millions of dollars worth of ore have already been shipped from the mines, despite the fact that they have been worked for barely a year. The distinction of discovering these mines belongs to a French-Canadian named La Rose, who was employed as a blacksmith on the construction of the Temiscamingue and Hudson Bay Railway. One Sunday less than two years ago he was idling in front of his shanty when a fox ran past. He seized the first weapon that was handy, a hammer, and threw it after the fox. The hammer missed the fox but scraped the moss off an outcropping of argetiferous ore. The apparent richness of the rock attracted La Rose, who secured dynamite and began blasting operations on a small scale. With samples of ore in his pocket he hurried to Haileybury and consulted a claims agent, who accepted an half interest in the claim for his services. Subsequently La Rose parted with half of his remaining property to some one who undertook to develop it, and in the end sold what he had left for $40,000. His original claim, now the La Rose mine, has since produced $30,000,000 in silver ore. Next spring these silver mines are expected to see the greatest rush of miners and prospectors ever recorded by any mining camp, and already sleeping accommodation at the little town of Cobalt, which has sprung up at the mines, is taxed to its utmost, and the Temiscamingue and Hudson Bay Railway is congested with the large shipments of machinery and freight being made to the northern mining camp.

Near Fort William a huge mountain of iron ore is being developed by a syndicate of capitalists, headed by Hugh Sutherland of Winnipeg, and work will be commenced on a smelter which will cost several hundred thousand dollars. It is the intention of a company to start a plant near that town for the manufacture of steel rails and steel goods generally. A few miles farther west is the Rainy River district, which is rich in many kinds of minerals. There silver, gold, copper, iron, and lead mines are being worked at the present time with more or less success, but to date no fortunes have been made in that district, although several have been lost. The Laurentian mine, which was abandoned as worthless several years ago, has now proved to be fabulously wealthy.

Diamonds in Canada.

From New York comes the astounding news that Dr. George F. Kunz, the mineralogist for Tiffany & Co., believes that somewhere in northern Canada a large diamond bed exists. He states that during the past half century over 300 diamonds ranging in size from that of a pin head to the size of a small hazel nut, have been found in various parts of the central states, and he is of the opinion that they have been deposited there by glaciers from the north. Moreover, around that district cases are on record where diamonds have been discovered by Indians, trappers and voyageurs who have had occasion to travel in the Rainy River district and several prospectors will leave in the spring for the purpose of seeking the precious stones.

Manitoba being almost entirely prairie the discoveries of minerals in that province have not been very great although a number of small finds have been recorded. Around Souris in the southwest corner of Manitoba soft coal has been mined for years and practically all the soft coal used in that province has been shipped from Souris. Years ago when the buffalo roamed the Souris plains the half-breed hunters were accustomed to build their camp fires of coal which they collected from the surface of the ground, but with the arrival of white men the coal was mined and put on the market at a comparatively low figure, owing to the facility with which it was mined.

While grading for the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, a small nugget of gold was discovered near Portage la Prairie, and several were dug up in other portions of the province last year. During the past summer, bog-iron was discovered in the Riding Mountains, but experts claim it was of small value. At Dauphin amber has been found on Cedar Lake, and a syndicate has been formed to work the deposit. On one of the Islands in Lake Winnipeg black manganese is said to exist in vast quantities, and others contain coal and iron ore, but owing to the great distance of these islands from civilization no attempt has yet been made to commence working these finds, but with the arrival of branch lines promised for the north country, doubtless capitalists will be found who are willing to find the necessary money for development.

In Keewatin, on the shores of the Hudson's Bay, mineral finds have been plentiful, if the accounts brought down by the Indians can be believed, but the several railways now being built to ports on this inland sea will do much to clear up that mysterious region which has been inhabited almost entirely by Hudson's Bay trappers for the past two centuries.

Minerals in New Territories.

With the strides of civilization in the newly formed provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, come reports of rich strikes of oil, gold, asbestos and many other treasures of the earth. Forty miles from McLeod, less than a dozen miles from the boundary of Montana, a rich underground oil lake has been discovered, and J. E. Williams, an oil expert, from Sunmerlands, Cal., is authority for the statement that it extends over an area of one thousand square miles.

Gold has been found in many places throughout Northern Saskatchewan. At North Battleford a nugget of gold weighing 147 grains is on view in one of the store windows; it was found by a homesteader while digging a well, and with it were several smaller nuggets. On the Saskatchewan River, near the town of Prince Albert, Dr. Roughsedge is having several immense dredges built which are for the purpose of securing the gold from the river bed, which has been deposited there for centuries by the waters from the north. Already one dredge has been completed and a trial shows it to be a profitable venture, and three other dredges are now under construction for operations which will be commenced as soon as the ice leaves the river in the spring.

On both sides of the Rocky Mountains minerals of every description are to be found, although the country immediately surrounding the mountains is but little known as yet. Recently a number of claims were taken up near Fort Wrangel on account of a mountain sheep which which was killed by L. C. Dimsma, which had gold-tipped teeth. This led to the discovery of an unknown gold field, which is paying some forty odd dollars in gold to the ton as well as good values in other minerals.

Kootenay Rich in Minerals.

The famous Kootenay country is known all over the world for its richness in gold, silver, copper, nickel, lead, tin, coal, iron and zinc. In it are situated the Lerol, Centre Star, War Eagle, Granby, and numerous other valuable properties which are paying big dividends to their fortunate stockholders. Fresh claims are being staked daily in British Columbia, and the mining experts there claim that the province is practically unknown, but for all this it is exceptionally rich.

In the far northwestern corner of the Dominion are the gold fields of Alaska which yearly produce from ten to twenty million dollars' worth of the precious shining metal. Gold was first discovered in Alaska on the Anauk River, a tributary of the Kuskewim, which joins the latter stream about twenty-five miles below the trading post of Kalamakoffsky. In 1862 the headquarters of the Russian-American Trading Co. were at Sitka, and supplies were transported from there to Lakeen's Fort by way of Tio-Chic, and it was while on one of these trips that the Russians discovered gold on the Anauk River, which, to-day, is known as the Yellow River of the Russians. It is not known whether they ever attempted any mining or even found the yellow metal in paying quantities. It was not until 1897 that the rush to Alaska began, but the trials and hardships of the miners and prospectors are too fresh in the minds of all to bear repetition. Durnngt he eight years that the Alaskan mines have been worked, they have proved so profitable that a railway company is now seeking incorporation to build a line from Vancouver to a point several hundred miles to the south of Dawson City, with power to build branches to all parts of that country.

There was much indignation at Durban, South Africa, a few months ago regarding coloured children being refused admission to ordinary government schools and being told to go to an Indian school. The colour line was so peculiarly drawn that those of lighter skins were admitted while sisters and brothers who happened to be darker were refused. The government has now acceded to the demand and a school is to be opened for these coloured children, many of whom are of very respectable parentage.

The South African School of Forestry is being established by the government of Cape Colony for the scientific training of forest officers and for research in South African forestry. The aim of the school is to provide a thorough course of instruction in forestry with special reference to South African conditions. In the first instance provision is being made for ten resident students at Tokai. Five of these will be candidates for two Cape forest vacancies in the upper grade of forest officers, and accommodation will be reserved for five students nominated by the governments of other colonies in South Africa.

Winners of Prizes

In the Great Diary Contest in which $200 in Gold was Awarded for the Best Record of Events kept during 1905 in

DR. CHASE'S ALMANAC

A Similar Contest for 1906 is Now Going On.

Thousands of persons who are keeping a record of events in Dr. Chase's Almanac will read with interest the list of prize-winners in the 1905 competition. Though this contest was not announced until late in the year, many people from all parts of this broad Dominion sent in their Almanacs and the greatest enthusiasm has been manifested.

If there was ever any doubt as to the popularity of the Diary feature of Dr. Chase's Almanac, it can certainly no longer exist, and judging by the nature of the entries in these books, they must prove of great value to persons keeping such records.

This is a copy of the report sent in by the committee of newspaper men who acted as judges:—

TORONTO, Feb. 10, 1906.

MESSRS. EDMANDSON, BATES & CO., Toronto:

Dear Sirs,—We, the undersigned, have carefully examined the Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanacs submitted for the Diary Contest for 1905, and take pleasure in announcing that we have awarded the prizes as follows:—

First,	$100	in gold,	Mr. Henry Burtis, Brooklin, Ont.
Second,	$50	"	Mrs. James Beatrate, Miscouche, P.E.I.
Third,	$25	"	Mrs. Robert Reddick, Winchester, Ont.
Fourth,	$5	"	Mrs. Alf. Stevens, Burgessville, Ont.
Fifth,	$5	"	Mrs. Richard Whyte, Lyons, Ont.
Sixth,	$5	"	Mr. Wilford Van Wart, Hampstead, N.B.
Seventh,	$5	"	Mr. Robert Robertson, North Georgetown, Que.
Eighth,	$5	"	Mr. James B. McLatchy, Windsor, N.S.
Ninth,	$5	"	Mrs. Sarah Jane Burroughs, Shallmouth, Man.

While the work of selecting the prize-winners has been rather difficult, we have favoured those who kept the most complete and most useful record of every-day events.

(Signed) J. F. MACKAY, Bus. Mgr. The Globe.
CHAS. C. NORRIS, Mail and Empire.
H. E. SMALLPIECE, Adv. Mgr. World.

The 1906 edition of Dr. Chase's Almanac has been placed in every home in Canada, as far as possible, and in it will be found full particulars about the Dairy Contest for 1906. If the Almanac has not reached you we shall be pleased to send you a copy on receipt of your name and address, if you mention this paper. Address Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Why Food You Eat To-day Doesn't Taste Like Your Mother's Did

St. Louis Post-Despatch.

When Mrs. Newlywed, of Westminster Place, orders honey for her husband, she orders by telephone from a grocer who makes a specialty of the best and of nothing but the best. As Mr. Newlywed deserves the best and also demands it in a mildly insistent way, she orders the honey in the comb. She knows a great deal, and has read an article on adulterated food.

When she gets the honey it is exactly as the bees put it in the comb. It is a beautiful comb, and Mr. Newlywed pronounces the honey delicious. So it is, and he eats it from the comb where the bees put it. What neither he nor Mrs. N. nor the grocer himself may never find out is that the honey is based on the best and healthiest article of St. Louis or East St. Louis glucose, made from Missouri or Illinois corn, and that natural the hives by some honest farmer so that his bees would not be obliged to overwork themselves flying over clover fields to get materials for honey.

And the New Orleans sugarhouse molasses, once a great delicacy in St. Louis, is also scientific for the most part at present. An entirely reliable St. Louisan tells of his surprise on finding in Louisiana carloads of glucose unloaded for the sugarhouse molasses makers. It came from Buffalo around the coast from St. Louis by rail or river. When it is put in a can or glass jar, with a beautiful label and of sugarhouse flavouring, everyone who enjoys sugarhouse molasses enjoys it. It is a product of modern science, however. Science, not nature, is to be thanked for it.

If Mrs. Newlywed turns from sweets to sours, she gets her cider, vinegar or her mixed pickle, with its quality of sourness supplied by science, from wood shavings, and its flavour added, perhaps, from apple flavouring, but very likely from a chemically identical flavouring which may be made from the "by-products" of coal tar.

The Newlyweds were giving a chafing-dish party to their bridal attendants. As a bachelor, Newlywed had been recognized as a master of chafing-dish mysteries. Therefore he would take no chances on disappointing his guests. He tested the brew for the rarebit, and his wife found him bending over the heated mess that would not melt, an expression of curiosity on his face.

"Did you call this cheese?" he inquired.

"Doesn't it look like cheese?" answered his wife, meekly.

"It looks and it smells like lard and skim milk, flavoured and coloured. It wouldn't melt in a thousand years, and Oscar himself could not make a rarebit from it. Why didn't you get the same kind we had last Sunday night?"

He tossed the whole package of cheese into the garbage pail. Mrs. Newlywed looked distressed.

"I got this at Blankley's for 18 cents a pound. The last two had cost 24 cents. I thought this would be just as good cooked—and Blankley gives you such pretty steins and jugs if you save your coupons."

"When you want cheese, buy it. When you want steins and jugs, pay for them in cash—not in profits on 'near-cheese.'"

Do you know that by food adulteration the people of the United States are robbed of more than two billions of dollars annually?

Do you know the difference between harmless and poisonous adulteration, between the adulteration that strikes at your purse and the adulteration that eats into the very heart of America's physical strength, digestion and nerves?

Do you know who are fighting for and against adulteration of foodstuffs?

The national storm centre in the fight for pure foods is in the Department of Agriculture at Washington, and the national fight is led by Dr. H. W. Wiley, Chief of the United States Bureau of Chemistry and Dr. W. D. Bigelow, Chief of the Division of Foods, United States Bureau of Chemistry.

The results of analyses made at Washington are supplied to the authorities in Missouri and St. Louis, so that the pure food crusade in Washington can be taken up locally wherever local ordinances or state laws have been passed to authorize it. Here are some of the results of these analyses:

The principal preservatives used to prevent food from spoiling and keep it marketable for the longest possible time are formaldehyde, a deadly poison; benzoic acid, boric acid and saltpeter, comparatively harmless; salicylic acid, sulphurous acid, borax and benzoate of soda.

While formaldehyde is considered the most dangerous of these preservatives, any of them taken into the system regularly will produce lassitude, headache, indigestion and nervousness.

Preservatives are used in several ways, but most generally in canned or smoked meats. When employed on fresh meat the flesh is immersed or dipped in the preservative, or the preservative is injected into the meat. Sometimes just enough is used by retail butchers to cover the outside of a piece of meat while it is hung in the show window or on the racks to make a pleasing display for the housewife on marketing bent. When meat looks stringy or colourless it is sometimes treated with colouring water to freshen it up.

The colouring matters on which the pure food advocates are making the principal war are the aniline dyes or coal tar products. These dyes are extracted from the refuse or residuum in the bottom of the retort, after the gas and the coke have been extracted from the coal. A clever man once said that you could secure from this refuse several headache cures, colouring matter enough to repaint the earth and 97 other things not fit to be mentioned in fastidious society. Coal tar products, like the rainbow, will give forth almost any hue if properly treated.

To bring these generalities down to the foodstuffs of everyday life, here are some of the ways in which they are employed:

Wood alcohol, a deadly poison, is substituted for the true alcohol as a foundation for flavouring extracts. Sulphurous acid is the preservative employed in cheap grades of white wine, salicylic acid in red wine. Coal tar dyes make your butter yellow, your cherry, strawberry, raspberry and currant preserves rosy, your sausage "tasty" in appearance, your cream the rich hue that you imagine will make your coffee a golden brown, your honey that never saw a beehive a delicate yellow, and your catsup the correct tomato scarlet.

Copperas turns canned peas and beans the delicate green which Dame Nature never meant they should be when preserved for future use, and it is responsible for the vivid green of your pickles.

And yet we all live. Why?

Because the harmful adulterants are administered in such infinitesimal quantities that results are not immediately apparent.

When you buy maple syrup, remember that every month in Chicago a concern is turning out enough "Vermont sugar bush," a substitute for the real article, to rival the entire output of the State of Vermont for a year. Pumpkin juice, properly extracted, makes a fair imitation of maple syrup also.

In cheap sausage, the telltale microscope has found 90 per cent. of horse meat to 10 per cent. of pork or beef.

In pate de foie gras you may be eating goose liver or hog's liver, or just plain, every-day veal — and neither will hurt you, provided you are kept in blissful ignorance. But is it fair to your purse on to your epicurean pride?

The lard which cuts so smoothly under the housewife's knife is more than likely a vegetable oil instead of hog fat—but it is all the better for your complexion.

The housewife who buys ground or pulverized coffee in packages instead of the whole grain, may serve her family with any of these adulterants: Chickory, carrots, caramel, date stones, peanut shells, damaged flour, crackers or cereals —all carefully coloured, of course.

If you wonder why the spice cake you make to-day is less tasty than your mother's baking was, you may safely guess that the spices you used were three-fourths cracker dust. Cracker dust is not harmful, but it does not add to the flavour of cake.

Your mustard lacks savour because part of it is flour, just common flour, coloured with tumeric.

California prunes may be preserved with sulphurous acid, and dried apples whitened with other and perhaps less dangerous chemicals.

CORRESPONDENCE ON CURRENT TOPICS

A LETTER TO THE "KICKERS."

To the Editor of the Examiner:

There seems to be lots of talk on the increased cost of living these days—but few facts. Fifteen years ago I started housekeeping by paying $13. What did I get? A sixroom cottage, no gas, no bath, no hot water. To-day I am paying $16. I have eight rooms and a nice bath, hot water, small cellar, and a few other small items. These two houses are just two blocks apart. Who is to blame for this increase? As to a man's clothes, it takes more to clothe the man because he wears them out in his work, and some have to make a fairly good appearance at their work. Same old $8, $9, $10, $12, $15 suits as you bought 10 or 15 years ago. Shoes—same thing, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4. You can buy a better hat to-day for $2 than you could 10 years ago for $2.50 or $3. Collars are less, neckties same old 25 cents, 50 cents and 75 cents. Same old $1 shirt —and so on down the line. You can pick out some things in the food line that are some higher, but not enough to offset the increase in wages. The trouble with us all is we want a great deal more these days than we did ten years ago.

When I started to learn my trade I got $4 per week the first year, $5 the second and $6 the third. To-day the boys get $9, $10.50 and $12 for eight hours. We worked ten hours. As a mechanic I got top notch, $2.50 day. To-day the boys are getting $1 a day. Ten years ago we never thought of taking a car to and from work and, mind you, it was after ten hours' work. To-day the average man won't walk a mile. Some of our friends think wife and I are freaks because we walk down town and back when we go to the show. Now, what's a mile and a half for two healthy people to walk? My father lives in the country and thinks nothing of walking to town, 71-2 miles, making 15 miles, and just to get the mail. He says it's too bad to take a horse out such bad weather (and father is 70 years old). So if you look down along the line you will find we are to blame for most of the increase. I like to see everybody live well, but don't kick all the time. I have yet to see any of your writers say anything about a raise in wages.

DID your rubbers give you satisfaction last season? If not, they couldn't have been "Canadian" Rubbers. Be sure of "the mark of quality" when buying—it is only on the genuine.

THE MARK OF QUALITY.

"CANADIAN" RUBBERS

THE HOW AND WHY OF IT.

"Fruit-a-tives" are the parts of the fruit that do you good. Apples, Oranges, Figs and Prunes are pressed—the juices separated from the tough, woody fibre—and concentrated. Then—(and this is the secret of "Fruit-a-tives")—one more atom of bitter principle from the orange peels is forced into the concentrated fruit juices. By this process —one of the most remarkable achievements of the age—the juices are made stronger, and many times more active medicinally. Finest tonics and internal antiseptics are added, and the whole evaporated and pressed into tablets. "Fruit-a-tives" are the greatest tonic, laxative and blood purifying medicine ever discovered.

Dummer Council.

The second meeting of the Dummer Council was held in the town hall on Saturday, Feb. 17, commencing at 10.30 a.m. The reeve and councillors were present.

Minutes of last meeting were read and signed.

Mr. John Finlay, M.P., addressed the council, requesting them to make a grant of $50 for the purpose of building a road from the 9th con. line across a part of Christopher Crowe's property to the new wharf at Crowe's Landing, Stony Lake.

Mr. Davidson, of the Norwood High School, also presented the claims of the cottagers in behalf of the same.

On motion of Councillors Martin and Miles the aforesaid grant was made, and a request will be made to the County Council for a grant of $100 for the same purpose.

On motion of Councillors Martin and Patterson, Samuel Bell was allowed $13 for care of Charles Parcels during his illness.

On motion of Councillors Martin and Miles, the reeve, Coun. Patterson and Mr. H. A. Moore were appointed to go to Toronto to endeavour to secure a grant of $600 from the Ontario Government to assist in rebuilding Buck's bridge on the 10th con., and a deputation was appointed, consisting of Councillors Miles, Martin and Payne, to go to Ottawa and interview the Minister of Railways and Canals and other members of the Dominion Government, and urge them to complete the Trent Valley Canal at an early date.

On motion of Councillors Patterson and Payne, the reeve and clerk were authorized to sign and forward to the honourable the Legislative Assembly the petition praying for the repeal of section 606 of the Municipal Act.

Coun. Miles paid over to the treasurer the sum of $5, the proceeds of sale of old timber from Crowe's bridge, and $1 for timber sold on the 12th con. line opposite lot 30 to Joseph Grant.

A bylaw to appoint pathmasters, fenceviewers and poundkeepers in the Township of Dummer for 1906, and a bylaw to make road appropriations and appoint commissioners to expend to the amount of $500, appropriated for roads in the municipality of Dummer, were given their necessary readings and passed.

On motion, the following accounts were passed for payment, and orders issued on the treasurer for the same, viz.:

Dr. Douglas, attendance on the late C. Parcels, $4.25.

John Clements, digging grave and burial of C. Parcels, $2.

Reg. Hendren, undertaker for C. Parcels, $18.

David Crowe, refund of arrears of taxes, $1.55.

F. W. Wilkins, P.L.S., for three days' surveying, $27.

R. Deen, registration of births, marriages and deaths, $13.60.

James Borland, salary, collector, $60.

On motion, Coun. Miles was appointed to have canal bridge repaired.

Council adjourned to meet on Saturday, April 7, 1906, at 10.30 a.m.

Kissing.

Gertrude F.

I was looking through a scientific book,
Wherein a man greatly learned affirms
That kissing should be suppressed,
For it surely carries germs.
"The man is right," I sadly cried,
"And let them stop it when they please,"
"For those kisses stolen last Wednesday night
Have given me heart disease."
But no, I would not have it stopped,
The cure's the worse of two mishaps:
In fact I think what I would like
Is nothing but a bad relapse.

Country Life

Ought, it would seem, to give exemption from the diseases which prey upon the residents of thickly populated cities. But there is no exemption from disease, and in the country, as in the city, one may see the cheeks grow hollow and the eyes grow dull while the frame wastes away with that terrible disease, consumption.

Weak lungs are made strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures obstinate and stubborn coughs, bronchitis, bleeding of the lungs and other symptoms which, if neglected or unskillfully treated, terminate fatally in consumption. The action of Golden Medical Discovery in the curing of wasting diseases is entirely philosophic. Emaciation, and consequent loss of weight, are among the most striking symptoms of what are known as wasting diseases. The body is not being adequately nourished, and the cause of this lack of nourishment is not lack of food but lack of ability in the stomach and the other organs of digestion and nutrition to prepare the food for the assimilation and nutrition of the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and the organs of digestion and nutrition, and so enables the body to be nourished back to strength in the only way by which strength can come; that is, by food perfectly digested and assimilated.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a temperance medicine. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine or any other narcotic.

Accept no substitute for "Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for you, though many things may pay the dealer a larger profit.

OAUGHT OOLD.

"The first day of this year," writes Mrs. Kate Schey, of 716 St. Paul Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis. "I caught a heavy cold, which settled on my lungs and brought on a hemorrhage. From that time on until the first of April I bled from my lungs five different times. I was so weak and undone I could only do the lightest work. The doctor told me I was going into consumption. My breath was short and at times I could hardly get my breath at all. This is the state I was in when I began to take Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After the first bottle I was much better, and I could walk two or three blocks without trouble. My breath was not so short and I was much improved. After taking four bottles I could work all day, and I never felt better in my life. I think your medicine the best in the world and I recommend it to all who are troubled as I was."

WILL MAKE AFFIDAVIT.

"I was sick for about three months, had chills fever, and coughed a great deal," writes Mr. W. L. Brown, of McLearman, Jackson Co. Tenn. "Most of my neighbors and friends thought I had consumption. I was reduced in flesh, and was very weak—only weighed 110 pounds; my physician thought there was little hope for my recovery.

"My wife went to the store to get some antifebrin, quinine, etc., for me and a friend of mine (Mr. W. W. McDearman), who had been taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery recommended this medicine for me. Finally I decided to use it, after my physician told me that it would be good for me. I sent and got one bottle, and before all was taken I weighed 149 pounds—a gain of 39 pounds. I am still taking the Golden Medical Discovery, have taken nearly two bottles, and now weigh 163 pounds, which is more than I ever weighed. I am still gaining strength and taking the 'Discovery.' I wish to say that this is a recent recovery, that only two months ago I only weighed about 110 pounds.

"I can and will make affidavit to this fact statement any time. If you wish to use this as a testimonial do so, and I will answer all letters from inquiring sufferers."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 pages, and over 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to defray expense of customs and mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 cents for the book in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Red Rose Tea is Clean Tea

CLEANLINESS is as necessary to tea quality as to any other food.

Tea rolled by hand, cured by hand, weighed, blended and packed by hand may or may not be clean.

Every operation of making Red Rose Tea, on the plantation and in the warehouse, is performed by machines, the rolling and curing, the blending and weighing are all done by scrupulously clean automatic machinery.

Red Rose Tea is never touched by human hands from the picking to your kitchen.

Red Rose Tea is always clean. It cannot be otherwise, because it has no possible chance of contamination.

Its "rich, fruity flavor" cannot be impaired by foreign substance of any sort whatever.

VERVILLE ELECTED.

A Great Victory For Labor In Maisonneuve— Prefontaine's Old Constituency Gives Him Majority.

Montreal, Feb. 24.—Labor obtained a distinct victory yesterday by electing to Parliament Mr. Alphonse Verville, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, and defeating the Liberal candidate, Mr. L. O. Grothe. The majority was about eleven hundred.

The Conservative party deemed it a wise policy not to place a man in the field, and at a convention resolved to support a straight Labor candidate. This combination might reasonably be set up as good reason for the defeat of the Liberal, but it is doubtful that the Conservatives played anything but a small hand in turning the scales.

The change from a majority of about two thousand for the late Hon. Raymond Prefontaine to a majority of half that much against the party he represented can be attributed to two things:

(1) The fact that the constituency is composed largely of laboring people, a condition that was observed to good advantage by the labor leaders in bringing out the president of their congress and securing the great influence and oratorical powers of the legal adviser of the congress, Mr. J. G. O'Donoghue, Toronto.

(2) The Liberal candidate's disadvantage in being an employer of labor and, therefore, a likely mark for anti-labor shots. Mr. O'Donoghue came down from Toronto twice and was hurried from one meeting to another all over the constituency, and as he had worked at Ottawa to promote legislation favorable to the working classes he was able to arouse a great deal of enthusiasm.

It is worth considering also that there is a vast difference between the candidature of Hon. Raymond Prefontaine, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and that of Mr. L. O. Grothe, cigar manufacturer; Mr. Grothe having as well the disadvantage of being unable, owing to illness, to appear at a single meeting held during the campaign.

There is, however, good consolation for the Liberals, and many of them who voted for the Labor candidate kept it in view, and that is that Mr. Verville can be counted on to give the Laurier Government what is known as an independent support. The victory for Labor was celebrated last night by a parade on St. Lawrence street.

The vote, follows, with three polls to hear from:

Verville, 5,819; Grothe, 4,725.
Majority for Verville, 1,094.
Last election:
Prefontaine, 5,967; Vaillieres, 3,795.
Majority for Prefontaine, 2,172.

Lee-Enfield Rifle Only.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—The council of the Dominion Rifle Association met Thursday night and decided not to admit the Ross rifle at the next matches of the association, as there has as yet been no general issue of this weapon to the Canadian militia. The Lee-Enfield rifle will, therefore, be used exclusively until the Ross rifle comes into more general use.

Dan O'Connor's Purchase.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—D. O'Connor of Temagami is in the city and has concluded the purchase of the timber limits on the White Fish Indian reserve. The limit embraces sixty-eight square miles in the Sudbury district, and it is covered, with tamarac, spruce and hemlock.

The merits of Ozone are well known, but in buying it one must be sure to get the purest form. Also, Ozone should always be taken along with "Celery King" the famous tonic laxative. The purest form in which Ozone is put up is "Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind) and each bottle of this brand contains a coupon entitling you to a package of "Celery King" free.

No other firm in the world can give "Celery King" with Ozone. We give because our Ozone thus brings the highest results. In addition, you get just about twice as much "Solution of Ozone" for your money as of other kinds, and you alsoget it in the purest and most-concentrated form. You also get "Celery King" free, instead of having to buy it which you would need to do in order to have full benefit from the use of Ozone

Your druggist should have "Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind). If not, write to the Public Drug Co Bridgeburg. Sold by W.B. Ware

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

While Business Is Being Got Ready Provincial Treasurer Will Bring Down the Estimates.

Toronto, Feb 24.—On the opening of the House yesterday, Mr. Rose enquired of the Provincial Treasurer when the House might expect the estimates and public accounts. They had already been there a week and while they were enjoying themselves would like to do some business.

Col. Matheson promised the public accounts on Monday or Tuesday. The estimates were not quite through council, but he hoped to bring them down the first of the week. With the consent of the leader of the Opposition the Government would follow the practice at Ottawa and bring down the estimates in advance of the budget speech, so that there would be something to discuss.

Mr. Ross. While business is being got ready.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt was also thirsting for information. When could they expect some of the promised measures on education?

Hon. Dr. Pyne said they were under consideration, and the time was rapidly approaching when they would be ready.

Mr. Thompson (Simcoe) introduced a bill providing for the holding of municipal elections every two years, instead of annually, as at present.

Col. Matheson reported for the committee to select the standing committees for the session.

The County Councils Bill.

A deputation of 200 from all over the province waited upon the Premier yesterday to ask that the present system of elective county councils be retained. A resolution of the Ontario Municipal Association in favor of having all councillors, reeves and mayors eligible for election as county councillors, and suggesting that a commission look into the question, was submitted.

Mr. Whitney said that public opinion seemed to favor the re-establishing of the old law, with some changes, and hinted that the county councils bill would probably go through.

Statement From Premier.

Premier Whitney handed out the following statement yesterday:

"The number of deputations calling upon the Government, since the opening of the Legislature, have been so many that the Ministers have been able to do but little of their departmental work. Consequently, the Cabinet has decided that outside of interviews already arranged for deputations will be received on Thursday of next week and thereafter on Wednesday of each week during the session and on no other days. The adoption of this course is absolutely necessary in order to allow the Ministers time to give even partial attention to their duties."

Six deputations were received by Hon. Dr. Pyne yesterday. Sarnia, Sault Ste. Marie, Cornwall, Guelph, Galt and Alliston eached asked for one of the normal schools to be established.

No Hesitancy in the Debate.

Washington, D.C., Feb. 24.—Preceded by a debate which indicated no hesitancy but rather a relish in taking action against alleged railroad combinations, the House agreed without opposition yesterday to the Tillman-Gillespie resolution directing the interstate commerce commission to make an immediate inquiry and report regarding alleged restraints of trade on the part of certain railroads in the handling of coal and oil. The resolution was not in the form which it passed the Senate, and will go back to that body for its second action.

Publisher Mitchell Dead.

Hanover, Feb. 24.—John Mitchell, publisher of The Hanover Post, died yesterday afternoon of pneumonia, after an illness of ten days. Deceased was born in the Village of Arthur fifty-three years ago, and about thirty-five years since became a resident of this town. In 1889 he purchased The Post. He is survived by his widow, one son, George H., editor of The Post, and two daughters, Mrs. W. G. Glendening of Chicago and Miss Edna, at home. W. J. Mitchell of The Clinton News-Record is a brother.

Another Independent Telephone.

Brockville, Feb. 24.—The citizens of the village and surrounding township of Lansdowne has organized a telephone company here to be known as the Lansdowne Rural Telephone Co. The shares are $50 each. Already there are thirty-eight shareholders subscribed, and good prospects of many more. The poles for the line are ordered, and the work of constructing the line will be proceeded with as soon as the spring opens. It is proposed to have it in operation by the first of May.

Young Prince Kills Himself.

Naples, Feb. 24.—Prince Pignatelli Strongoli, aged 19 years, son of a lady-in-waiting to Queen Helena, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself. He was to have been married in a few hours to a daughter of the Duke of Corigliano. He left a letter to his father saying he killed himself because he was sceptical about life, and another letter to his fiance saying she would have been unhappy with him.

Coal Strike Is Sure.

Pittsburg, Feb. 24.—Francis L. Robbins, chairman of the Pittsburg Coal Co. and leader of the bituminous coal operators, declared upon his arrival from New York yesterday that he could see no probability of averting a coal strike in the bituminous coal regions. Mr. Robbins said he had met President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America, in New York.

A Smart Season.

Montreal, Feb. 24.—Earl and Countess Grey and members of the vice-regal party who have been visiting this city for the past ten days returned to the capital yesterday afternoon. The short stay of Their Excellencies completes what is regarded as one of the smartest seasons in the history of the metropolis.

Despoil Indian Cemeteries.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 24.—Several Indians are under arrest at Fort Essington because of their vigorous designs against agents of eastern museums who, they declare, have despoiled the Indian cemeteries in their search for curios and skulls.

The Conservative Candidate.

$200.00 GIVEN FREE IN GOLD PRIZES

GRAND EDUCATIONAL CONTEST

We offer $200.00 in gold to those sending in the largest lists of correct words made from the twelve different letters used in spelling the four words

Armour's Extract of Beef

$100.00 in gold will be given as the first prize.
$25.00 in gold will be given as the second prize.
$10.00 in gold will be given as the third prize.
$5.00 in gold will be given to each of the next five.
$2.00 will be given to each of the next twenty.

CONDITIONS

Use only the following 12 letters:—A-R-M-O-U-R E-X-T-O F-B. No letter to appear in the same word twice.

Only such words may be used as are found in Webster's International Dictionary.

No proper names, foreign words or names of persons, towns or places are to be used.

Words spelled the same, but having different meanings, may be used but once.

All contestants must attach to their lists a metal cap taken from a jar of "Armour's Extract of Beef." Failure to do this puts the list out of competition.

The names of the winners of these prizes will be determined by judges whom we shall appoint.

No list will be accepted that reaches our office later than 5 o'clock, April 30th, 1906.

Write only on one side of the paper. After making out your list, state the number of words it contains, with your full name and address at the top of each piece of paper and mark on the outside of the envelope "Educational Contest Department," and mail to our address as below.

Armour's Extract of Beef is sold by all druggists and grocers. If yours cannot or will not supply you, a small jar will be mailed you, post paid, on receipt of 25 cents in cash or stamps.

BOYCOTT ALL RIGHT.

Wu Ting Fang, Former Chinese Minister to U. S., Does Not See Any Danger of Anti-Foreign Uprising.

Pekin, Feb. 24.—Wu Ting Fang, former Chinese Minister to the United States, when interviewed for the first time yesterday on the existing situation in China, spoke in support of the boycott. Wu Ting Fang is now living quietly in Pekin, devoting his time to codifying the laws of China, one of the numerous reforms under way. Speaking of present conditions, Wu Ting Fang said in the course of the interview:

"One thing upon which the majority of Chinese are agreed is that China has been deprived of many rights by concessions and territorial grants, and by the way her people have been treated by foreigners in China and foreign countries.

"These rumors of anti-foreign feeling are not well founded. Sensible men advise boycotters and agitators to be reasonable, and only to boycott goods and not to treat persons unkindly, but to continue their friendship as before."

Court Is Nervous.

London, Feb. 24.—The correspondent of The Tribune, at Pekin, says:

"The court is nervous over the possibility of trouble Feb. 24. The president of the Chinese foreign board appreciates the possibility of an anti-dynamite rising. The German legation last night doubled its sentries on account of posting of anti-foreign placards at Tientsin."

No Cause For Alarm.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 24.—The United States Secretary of State has received a cablegram from Mr. Rockhill, Minister to China, stating that he sees no cause for apprehension concerning the situation there. The published reports of uneasiness are believed to be without cause. Missionary troubles are not more frequent than usual, it is said, and are due, as was the Shanghai riots, to local causes.

Placard Meaning May Be Deep.

London, Feb. 24.—The Times' Tientsin correspondent says the placards which have aroused the apprehensions of foreigners here are appeals for "subscriptions to a patriotic fund to relieve the Boxer indemnity. It is supposed that the fund may be capable of use for other ends."

Woman Arrested For Abduction.

Windsor, Feb. 24.—Mrs. John Cook of Marion, Ohio, was taken from a Michigan Central train passing here Thursday night on a warrant sworn out by her former husband Peter Brant of Otterville, Ontario, charging her with abduction of their eight-year-old son.

State Fixes Price of Gas.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 24.—The state commission of gas and electricity yesterday filed an order fixing the maximum rate at which the Consolidated Gas Co. of New York, shall sell its gas to its consumers for three years from May 1, 1906, at 80 cents per 1,000 cubic feet.

THAT STAB-LIKE PAIN IN THE SMALL OF THE BACK COMES FROM THE KIDNEYS AND CAN BE CURED BY DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

It is not the back that is aching, but the kidneys which are situated beneath the small of the back.

Therefore, dull pain in the back, or sharp, quick twinges, are warnings of sick kidneys—warnings of kidney trouble. Plasters and liniments will not cure a bad back, for they cannot reach the kidneys which cause it. Doan's Kidney Pills reach the kidneys. That is what they are for and that only. So, if you would be free from backache, swelling of the feet and ankles, frequent or suppressed urine, painful sensation when urinating, specks floating before the eyes, frequent thirst, brick-dust deposit in the urine, or anything wrong with the urinary organs or bladder, you must keep your kidneys well. Help them to work freely, and help them to flush off all the body's waste and impurities.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made from the purest roots and herbs, and have a remarkable healing and toning effect on the kidneys. Mrs. Berling, 39 Locomotive Street, Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I had been troubled considerably with my kidneys, using many remedies, but finding no relief. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and found them to act directly on the kidneys, and making them strong again."

Price 50 cents per box, three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

IN FASHION'S REALM; OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO LADIES; PARIS STYLES

FACTS AND FANCIES.

The Latest Ideas For the Spring Blouse—Some Sleeve Wrinkles.

The new spring handkerchief linen shirt waists of Parisian design will be ornamented with a pair of wings embroidered across the whole front and another pair across the back. This is rather a startling decoration, but is thought to be very smart.

Braided lingerie blouses are among the fashionable new exhibits. The waist is of fine linen worked in an effective pattern with coronation braid. Small motifs of lace are introduced among the braidings.

The three-quarter sleeve is smarter than the elbow length and is seen on all the handsomest high necked dinner gowns. It must be cut off at the right angle and finished with a cuff.

The new coat sleeves are just large enough to comfortably accommodate the sleeves worn under them. They do not sag and are plaited, puffed or gathered to fit the outline of the upper arm.

From Paris come some charming satin hats. An elaborate model, known as the Huguenot, is made of gray or mauve satin trimmed with a trio of ostrich tips and gartered with old silver ribbon, a bow of similar ribbon being placed under the feathers.

Nothing more effective has been seen in the millinery world for some time than the flower toques, which are really a revival of the floral hats and bonnets worn years ago. These toques consist merely of a buckram shape covered entirely with tiny flowers set close together. White violets are the flowers most used, and the shape turns up slightly at the left side and is finished off with a large white osprey.

The evening bodice illustrated is of spotted net. The round neck is outlined with a tiny plaiting of net. A spray of chiffon flowers appliqued across the front is the only decoration. The puffed sleeves end with frillings of lace and net. JUDIC CHOLLET.

WHAT IS WORN.

Spring Skirts Are to Be Much Trimmed—Charming Button Effects.

The spring skirts will be very much trimmed and in so many ways that one style will not prevail. Some of these skirts show plain, graduated or wavy lines of applique in bias silk, satin or braid. Whatever it be, tuck or ribbon, it must be very much in evidence. Perpendicular trimmings are to be in vogue, and tunic or double skirt, flounces and occasional draperies and lower flounces assert themselves.

There are charming buttons in the shops, queer shaded ones, almost white at one end and deepening into all sorts of dark colorings in the center. They look for all the world like the semi-precious stones called tiger's eyes.

Heavy gold bangles are wonderfully popular as engagement bracelets with girls who have not announced the fact. A bracelet is much less telltale than the inevitable solitaire.

A number of the newest skirts have panels down the front and back.

Smart little business suits are made of dark green and blue plaids. When trimmed with black braid and a touch of red the effect is chic and attractive.

To have at least one big loose coat well made and trimmed has become almost a necessity in most wardrobes. Empire coats, loose effects, share honors with the big fur lined affairs with fur collars that turn up about the ears.

Cashmere, drap d'ete, henrietta and batiste wool are being used by the best tailors for suits.

The short waisted jacket seen in the cut is of quite the newest Parisian cult. The plaits are held in place with a band of the cloth braided to match the rest of the trimming on the jacket. The skirt is full and long.

QUAINT CONCEITS.

Old Time Bows of Black Velvet Worn In the Hair—Wee Tots' Costumes.

Always effective is a bow of black velvet in the hair, provided it suits the wearer. This bow is coming into vogue again and will be worn with the all black demitoilet.

Perfectly fascinating are the sets of coat, muff and bonnet designed for wee tots of three and four, either entirely of fur or combined with other materials. A set of gray squirrel is particularly effective.

One of the prettiest models in dark blue velvet has its full skirt arranged in a succession of box plaits that terminate a foot or two from the bottom of the skirt, where a deep hem makes a finish. Quite short is the plaited bolero, with its band of embroidered blver braid going around the edge and up the straight fronts. The bolero is without collar or revers, and the full short sleeves are box plaited above the elbow finish.

The craze for tinsel and glitter has resulted in moss rose buds of gold or silver cloth costing nearly $2 apiece.

Very up to date is the little tot's dress of tartan plaid herewith illustrated. Plaits are set in from the shoulders to the hem, and the cut out neck and faced cap sleeves are adorned with bands of dark red face cloth. The belt is of red kid. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Fashion is gentility running away from vulgarity and afraid of being overtaken by it. It is a sign the two things are not far asunder.—Hazlitt.

GET TO WORK.

If the skies look dull to you,
Get to work;
If the atmosphere is blue,
Get to work.
Fostering your discontent
Will not pay the landlord's rent—
Will not gain for you a cent;
Get to work.

Brooding doesn't help your cause,
Get to work:
Nothing gained by picking flaws,
Get to work.
Weak are trampled by the strong?
You a victim of man's wrong?
"Stand the storm; it won't be long"—
Get to work.

If success shall come you must
Get to work.
There's no other way but just
Get to work.
It may yield not wealth nor fame;
Much or little, just the same,
If you perish you'll die game—
Get to work.

WORRIED MOTHERS

Much of the worry which every mother of young children undergoes, would be spared if the mother kept Baby's Own Tablets on hand, and gave an occasional dose when the child was fretful, cross or feverish. Nearly all the ailments of childhood can be traced to the stomach, bowels or teething. For these troubles no medicine can equal Baby's Own Tablets, and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that this medicine is absolutely safe. Mrs. Kenneth McInnis, of Lakefield, Ont., says: "Baby's Own Tablets are a perfect medicine in every way. There will be no sickly children in the homes where they are used." Sold by all medicine dealers, or by mail at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

IN VANITY'S REALM.

Evening Gowns With Bolero and Train Cut in Two—High Collars.

Many of the evening dresses are made with a bolero and train cut in one. This is really a return to the old fashioned waterfall worn over different skirts. It makes a little change, but is not generally becoming like the princess lines.

Collars are very high, and when plain linen is becoming this style is preferable to any other. But many faces cannot stand the starchy stiffness and look better in a stock of lace or bright colored silk.

The popularity of the bolero, which some time ago was declared on the wane, is greater than ever. Some useful little jackets are made with short cape sleeves.

Veils have taken on new meshes and new ornamentations. Daring colors are among the newest and most expensive, but square meshes are the most liked and are coarser than have been shown before.

Tucked chiffon, with small rose sprays scattered over it, is among the prettiest of evening materials. It is quite expensive, but is exquisite for yokes and sleeves, waists or whole gowns.

The useful little bedroom wrapper shown in the cut is of spotted French flannel. The deep collar, the bands at the bottom of the skirt and the sleeve trimmings are of plain flannel.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Impossible to Pain.

A mother's love for her children is always being illustrated, not only in books, but in real life. A true story is told of a lady whose baby was very ill and who sat watching the child with absorbed attention, every instant fearing another convulsion and praying for deliverance from it. At her side stood an older child, who had stolen into the room unobserved and who was trying to prick the little black spots in mamma's muslin sleeve with a needle he had found. Presently the father came in, and the little child was seen and sent away.

"What is the matter with your arm?" whispered the gentleman to his wife when at last they turned to each other and smiled their thankfulness that the baby had fallen asleep.

"I don't know," said she. "Nothing that I am aware of."

She put up her hand and found that the thin muslin sleeve was soaked with blood. The little boy had become so absorbed in his sport that he had jabbed with all his might, and she in her terrible anxiety had not felt the thrusts.

What People You Know Say About Gin Pills

TORONTO, June 6th, 1905.

I take great satisfaction in writing to you and telling you of the splendid condition of health that I am now in, which was brought about entirely by taking your Gin Pills.

For years my kidneys have been my weak spot and kept me unhealthy, and although I knew the cause, I could not get relief. Six weeks ago I heard that Gin Pills were being widely sold in Ontario, and I concluded to try them, though I did not believe that they could entirely cure me, but they have, and I am now sure that my kidney trouble has disappeared.

I will always have some of the pills on hand, and will recommend them to my friends who are troubled with ailments due to the defective work of their kidneys.

Yours respectively,

Attractive Theater Gowns—Black and White Striped Gauze Dresses.

Chiffon and chiffon velvet are combined most attractively in theater toilets. One very dainty frock of this character made for a debutante is of all white with waist of velvet and lace, while the skirt is of chiffon bordered with velvet. The bodice is very simply made with deep transparent yoke of fine lace and the velvet loosely draped across the bust. The sleeves are slashed open down the center and filled in with lace, and a cuff of the satin finishes the elbow. There is no girdle.

Black and white striped gauze is being made up into fetching toilets over white silk foundations.

A pretty fashion has just arrived from Paris and is being adopted extensively in this country—that of harmonizing the hat with the coat or wrap.

Tiny round toques or caps of fur are among the newest millinery. A bunch of violets or other flowers is the only trimming.

Cashmere goes into the construction of the charming house gown illustrated. The front of the skirt forms a double box plait, held with handsome buttons. The bodice is gracefully draped over a deep yoke of Irish point lace. The sleeves have cuffs of the same lace. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Samaria Stopped His Drinking

A London Lady cures her husband permanently of the drink habit and without his knowledge.

"How glad I am that I overcame my hesitation about writing you for a Free Sample of Samaria. At that time my husband was drinking very hard, and I was in despair. The effect of your treatment was immediate, and now our home is entirely free from the Drink Curse. I gave my husband the tablets in his tea, and he never knew. As the taste for liquor left him, his general health improved and is now splendid—many, many thanks. I will be glad if you will tell others of my experience.

A STRONG ENDORSEMENT OF NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

"Having suffered for years with a very obstinate case of dandruff and falling hair, I had almost despaired, when a lady friend induced me to try Newbro's Herpicide. Now, after a thorough trial, I cannot say enough in praise of it. From a dull, lustreless head of hair I have now a beautiful head of glossy hair which I can only thank Herpicide for."

"As good as Herpicide" is the familiar claim that is made for many so-called germ-destroying hair remedies. Newbro's Herpicide is the ORIGINAL remedy that kills the dandruff germ, and its wonderful success and popularity account for the increasing number of imitations of it.

Why not get the original?
Substitutes are always disappointing.

Herpicide kills the germ that causes dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. Extraordinary results follow its use. Stops itching of scalp instantly. At Drug Stores. Send 10c in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Dept. N., Windsor, Ont., for a sample.

TO SPEND $15,000

—ON NEW BRIDGES AND PIERS—

AT YOUNG'S POINT

A Steel Bridge Over the Canal at That Village to be Erected This Summer—Concrete Piers, Too.

Government Said to Have Decided to Spend Considerable Money There During the Present Summer.

A Number of Canal Officials Visit Young's Point—Other News From That Progressive Community.

Special Wire to The Examiner.

Young's Point, Feb. 24.—It is understood here that this summer, the Dominion Government through the Department of Railways and Canals, will spend in the neighbourhood of $15,000 here, and the works which will be constructed will be a new steel bridge over the canal and a new cement pier.

On Wednesday last Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent of the Canal; Mr. D. Eason, C.E.; Mr. Clem. Gorham, of Peterborough, and Mr. W. Murphy, of Montreal, were in the village registered at the Lake View House, and it is stated that their visit was connected with the intention of the Government as indicated above.

To the Examiner correspondent Mr. McClellan stated that this summer the Government would erect here a new steel bridge and a concrete pier to extend above the bridge.

Last year considerable work was done by the Government here, and with that projected for the present summer, the locks and bridges will be in splendid condition and able to accommodate the rapidly increasing traffic through the canal.

Mr. Hall's efforts to secure for his town the expenditure of the money and the improvements to the public works here represented by that expenditure are appreciated by the citizens and particularly by those who use the canal, and who are in a position to realize the great benefit which will accrue.

There is no doubt that under Mr. McClellan's superintendency the work will be carried through successfully and satisfactorily.

News Notes.

Mr. Jas. Kearney and Miss Annie Kearney, of Emsmore, were visiting friends here.

Mr. Wm. Brooks is visiting friends in Emsmore.

Mr. Richard Heard put in his ice here on Tuesday. Navigation may be expected to soon open, as "Dick" always gets in his ice just before the general thaw in the spring.

Quite a number of villagers had sawing been this week and have a large supply of wood on hand.

There is good skating on the bays and lake here, and the young people are taking advantage of it.

ST. PETER'S SCHOOL

REV. FR. McCOLL
Superintendent of Separate Schools—Active in Securing New School Building.

Mr. N. P. Crafts Was Acquitted

Peterborough Man Secures An Honourable Acquittal at Belleville.

Norris P. Crafts, who was sent up for trail for securing by false representations, four promissory notes from one J. C. Moore, Monaghan Township, was honourably acquitted before Judge Fraelick, at Belleville, yesterday, there being no evidence to prove the charges. Fuller particulars will appear in Monday's issue. Mr. F. J. M. Anderson was present for the Crown; Mr. A. A. McDonald for private prosecutor; and Mr. E. Gus Porter, M.P., acted for the accused.

Brass Workers Hold Dance

The Brass Workers held a charming informal dance last night at the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street. About forty-five or fifty young couples were present. The Doris orchestra supplied splendid music, and the event was most enjoyable. The floor was in superb condition. The dancing commenced about nine o'clock, and continued until after midnight. The Brass Workers have been holding these pleasing social functions three times each winter for the past three or four years, and last night's dance was the second one of this winter. These dances are always well attended and in every instance have proven very attractive, their popularity being being attested to by the large numbers who attend. The committee in charge of last night's affair, and to whom its success was in no small degree due, were Messrs. J. Doris, A. H. Lehane and J. Moher.

A Lindsay Sensation; Young Man and Lady Assaulted On The Street

A Mysterious Case Reported From That Town—Mr. W. Heffernan and Miss Tufts Have an Experience.

Were Walking Along Street When Two Men Attacked Them—Mr. Heffernan Was Injured.

An Affair Which Has Aroused the Whole of the Town—The Guilty Persons Made Good Their Escape.

A Lindsay despatch says: A mysterious case of attempted assault occurred in the north ward on Wednesday night—a case in which certain evidence, yet to be obtained, may prove serious to certain individuals and of general benefit to the town. The facts are being unravelled by our police. There are various guesses as to the true inwardness of the case, and there is more than one story afloat.

On the night above mentioned—which was a very dark one—the streets seemed to be practically deserted, but shortly before 11 o'clock residents in the north ward, living on the streets north of Bond, were much alarmed at hearing shrieks and screams, and cries of "Murder!" and in less than five minutes the whole neighbourhood was out on the walks and headed in the direction of Francis street, near the north ward school.

It seems, according to the story of the gentleman and lady involved—Mr. W. Heffernan and Miss Katie Tuffs—that they were walking along the sidewalk, when a couple of men jumped over the fence, which is about four feet from the walk, and one of the two caught the young woman, while the other clinched with Heffernan, striking him twice on the head. The girl clung to a tree and started to yell, with the result that she could be heard blocks away. Mr. Johnston, a tailor, in Mr. Milne's shop, and Mr. Ben. Mapes, were the first upon the scene, with a lantern. They ran up and were confronted by the man who had attacked Heffernan, who stood in their way swinging a stick to keep them off. When Mapes stooped to get a stone the fellow took to his heels with his companion. The two men ran down the middle of the road around Albert street corner to Bond street, and down to Victoria avenue. Pedestrians standing on the corner of Bond and Albert streets inquired, "What is the matter?" and received the answer, "Wait until I get my breath and I'll tell you," but they didn't stop. Going down Bond street the men were pursued by Jack McDonald and some others, but the fugitives were lost track of.

Heffernan's collar and tie were torn off and his hat knocked into the ditch.

Mr. J. H. Burnham To Give Address

The gentleman who sat for the above picture more than a quarter of a century ago in Lindsay, is now residing in Peterborough, and has lived here for a number of years. He is known pretty well to everyone of you who read this. He is a most obliging gentleman and has a great many friends.

LAKEFIELD GETS HOUSE OF REFUGE

County Council Decides to Purchase the Preston Lot There.

An Important Meeting This Afternoon—The Tenders Opened.

The County House of Refuge will be built on the Preston property at Lakefield.

Such was the decision reached by the county council at a meeting held this afternoon to decide the question which has been occupying the attention of the council for the past months. For some time the location has rested between Lakefield and Norwood, but it was not until to-day that anything like a settlement could be reached in the matter.

Those present at this afternoon's meeting were Warden Johnston, and Councillors Garbutt, Stinson, Molenay, Webster, Menogue, Carey, Shaw, Andrews and Buck.

At the beginning of the meeting it looked as if no decision would be reached. The councillors discussed the question in a general manner and showed no signs of bringing the matter to a head.

Councillors Buck and Andrews agreed that Norwood should be se-

Will Prepare Plans For The Erection Of Big New Warehouse

Mr. E. W. Argus Designing the Plans for Messrs. Kinnear and Co.'s New Structure.

Will be Most Modern Building—Three Stories to be Built of Brick and Steel George Street.

Wholesale Grocery Firm Branches Out—New Warehouse Will be 30x75 Feet—An Evidence of Prosperity.

Readers of The Examiner will remember that it was announced in this journal some time ago that Messrs. T. Kinnear & Co., wholesale grocers, had purchased a lot in the southern part of the city for the purpose of erecting a large warehouse. Mr. E. W. Argus has been authorized to draw up plans and specifications for the new building, which will be modernly equipped in every detail and will be a creditable addition to the buildings of the city. The site selected is the lot on the southeast corner of Dalhousie and George streets, on which the residence of Mr. Teniece Guerin is situated. This will be moved away to make room for the warehouse.

The new structure will be of thoroughly modern design and will be equipped with a complete heating and elevator system. The building, which will be constructed of brick and steel, will be 75x30, and will be three storeys high. There will be two entrances on Dalhousie street, one for wagons receiving freight and the other for taking freight from the cars. The office of the company will, of course, be found in the new building, and it will also be equipped with up-to-date fittings and appointments. Work is expected to begin on the building as soon as the architect has finished his plans.

This building will fill an unsightly gap on George street and will be a very handsome and imposing structure.

Life Preservers For Cape Breton

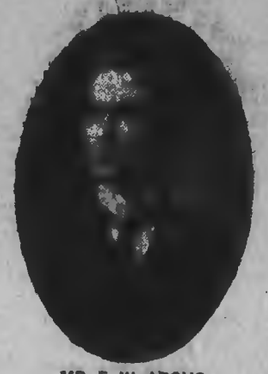
This morning Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons received an order from Sidney, C.B., for 650 life preservers. This order was placed by the Cape Breton Electric Company, and are for use on a steamer owned by this company. It is a tribute to the quality of this firm's goods that, while there are manufacturers of cork life preservers in Halifax, Montreal and other cities near Sidney, the local firm was given the order which will doubtless be followed by others in the near future.

MAKE EXTENSIONS

—TO THE COMPANY'S GAS PLANT—

TO SUPPLY DEMAND

ST. PETER'S SCHOOL



MR. E. W. ARGUS
The Architect who Designed the New School.

At Annual Meeting of Peterborough Light and Power Company This Decision Was Made.

This Company also Connected Up More Than 200 New Houses During the Year 1905.

Annual Meetings of Hydraulic Power Company, Radial Railway Company and Light and Power Company.

Annual meetings of three of the allied companies of the American Cereal Company, were held this week when the reports of the last year's business were presented, and officers elected for the year.

The companies which held these meetings were: the Peterborough Light and Power Company, Peterborough Radial Railway Company, and the Peterborough Hydraulic Power Company.

It is understood that the reports of these companies were very satisfactory. The Light and Power Company has made 200 new connections to houses during the year, which is an evidence of the fact that the city is growing rapidly.

The company intends to make extensive improvements and extensions to its gas plant this year, to meet the growing demands for gas. Mr. Larmonth states that during the past year the consumption of gas has increased enormously, and he looks for even greater increases in the future, and, with this in view, the extensions necessary to enable the company to produce a greater quantity, will be proceeded with.

The directors and officers of the Peterborough Light and Power Company, are as follows:

President—T. E. Bradburn.
Vice-President—John Stuart.
Manager—J. H. Larmonth.
Secretary—Robt. Gordon.
Asst. Sec.—W. L. Templeton.
Directors — T. E. Bradburn, John Stuart, J. H. Larmonth, H. P. Crowell, T. E. Wells, Robert Stuart, Robt. Gordon.

The officers and Board of Directors of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company, are:

President—Robert Stuart.
Vice-President—J. C. Shook.
Manager—J. H. Larmonth.
Secretary—Robt. Gordon.
Asst. Sec.—W. L. Templeton.
Directors—Messrs. Robert Stuart, J. C. Shook, J. H. Larmonth, T. E. Bradburn, H. P. Crowell, John Stuart, Robert Gordon.

The Peterborough Hydraulic Power Company, Limited, which, as is well known, owns the power plant supplying energy to the other companies, elected the following officers and Board of Directors.

President—Robert Stuart.
Vice-President—John Stuart.
Manager—J. H. Larmonth.
Secretary—Robt. Gordon.
Asst. Sec.—W. L. Templeton.
Directors — Messrs. Robert Stuart, John Stuart, J. H. Larmonth, Hon. George A. Cox, H. P. Crowell, W. H. Denham, Robert Gordon.

Wonderful Escape From Serious Injury

Runaway Accident in Which Two Men Were Remarkably Fortunate.

A runaway occurred near the corner of Aylmer and Hunter streets at about a quarter to three o'clock this afternoon, and although no one was injured the escape of Mr. Ernest Doyell, of Otonabee, and Mr. Percy Donaldson may be regarded as truly miraculous. Mr. Doyell's horse took fright on Hunter street, going west, and tore up the street in a mad gallop, turning north at the Aylmer street corner, and colliding with Mr. Donaldson, who was driving a team in a demorat. Both outfits were smashed almost to splinters and Mr. Donaldson was thrown clear out of his conveyance by the shock of the collision. The spectators of the accident who rushed to the assistance of the two men, expected that a fatality had occurred, but were greatly surprised to find beyond a rather severe shock and fright, neither of them were injured. Their escape from serious and even fatal injury was truly marvellous.

A Brilliant Social Function Enjoyed

The National Hotel parlours last night were the scene of one of the most delightful social functions in the history of Peterborough. It was the military euchre party given by Mrs. W. R. Morris and Mrs. Rubidge, and was attended by more than 100 ladies and gentlemen, who were most pleasantly entertained in a novel manner. Two large drawing-rooms and the reception room of the National were used, and these were elaborately, but appropriately decorated, the drawing-rooms with flags of all nations, by J. J. Turner, and flowers with their sweet perfume added to the delight of the guests. Carnations and roses were the floral decorations in the drawing-rooms, while in the dining-room, which was also hung with flags, American beauty roses adorned every table.

The hostess welcomed the guests at the entrance to the reception room. Mrs. Rubidge was dressed in black crepe de chine trimmed with white embroidered chiffon, and Mrs. Morris in black silk tulle, with sequin trimmings.

There were 28 tables which were covered with white cheese cloth, and in the centre a miniature fort surmounted by silk flags, representing different nationalities.

The prize-winners were: First prizes, Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. Dunsford, Mr. R. Edwards and Dr. Greer, and the winners of the consolation series were Mrs. (Dr.) Eastwood, Miss Poe, Mr. A. P. Pousette and Mr. T. F. Matthews.

After the games the ladies and gentlemen marched to the dining-room in pairs to the strains of a sprightly marched played by Mrs. Wallis.

The supper, which was prepared and served by the staff of the National, was a most delightful one. The waitresses were appropriately costumed.

The scene in the dining-room was a brilliant one, the whole 100 or more guests sitting at the tables at once, and their pretty costumes, with the many coloured decorations and brilliant lights, made a very pretty scene.

The guests made their farewells to Mr. and Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Rubidge at the dining-room door.

The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill, Dr. Boucher, Mrs. Boucher, Miss Boucher, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Morrow, Dr. Hammond, Mr. F. Wilson, Mr. S. T. Medd, Col. H. C. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hamilton, Mr. Robt. Fair, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Belcher and the Misses Belcher, Mr. W. H. Bradburn, Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P.; Mr. H. Ritchie, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Coulthard, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stratton, Mrs. Ormond, Mr. and Mrs. John Crane, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Pou-

The Ladies Punched Man Offering Insult

There was a lively little row on Aylmer street for a few minutes last night. It appears that two ladies were going home about 8.30, and near the corner of Hunter street were accosted by a man who made an insulting remark.

The ladies referred to, sizing up the situation, decided that they would take the question of punishment into their own hands, and instead of reporting the matter to the police, and running the risk of the culprit escaping.

Instead of answering him in words they proceeded to do it more effectively. Grabbing him by the neck they threw him to the sidewalk and gave him a pretty severe wigging.

When he was finally realeased he was glad to make his escape without any further conversation.

There are good grounds for believing that there will be nothing further heard of the affair, since the victim will doubtless be quite willing to "let bygones be bygones," and the ladies feel that the fellow was sufficiently punished.

NEW SEPARATE SCHOOL BUILDING IS A CREDIT TO THE ELECTRIC CITY

The new Separate School on Reid street is nearing completion and it is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy by March 10th. Contractors Carveth and Houlihan are making every effort to have the building finished in every detail by that time. They have a large staff of men at work at present and intend to keep them there until their contract is completed. The new building will be a credit to the citizens and has been pronounced by school inspectors as the finest structure of its kind in the province. They state that the architect, Mr. E. W. Argue, has done everything in his power to look after the interests of both pupils and teachers and that every convenience that could reasonably be expected has been supplied.

The construction of the new building was made necessary by the rapid growth in the number of Roman Catholic scholars in Peterborough. The increase has been so great that it has been found necessary to engage two new teachers to meet the requirements. The number of pupils now in the city is about 717, the figures being: Lake street school, 200; Convent, 267; Murray street school, 250. The new building will contain six class rooms, each 27x33, with accommodation for fifty pupils so that in all about 300 pupils may be provided for. The structure is 30x95 feet, and is three storeys in height. In the basement there is a large banquet hall as well as recreation rooms. The class rooms are on the first and second floor and the assembly hall on the top flat. The building is well ventilated, lighted and heated

Women Benefit The Human Race More Than Men

Last night in the Sunday school room of the Murray street Baptist church, was held the regular fortnightly meeting of the Murray street Literary and Debating Society. Mr. Walter Garbutt occupied the chair and introduced the debate ,the chief feature of the evening. The subject of the debate was, "Resolved — That women have done more for moulding the character of the human race than men."

The affirmative was ably contested by Mr. W. Stiner and Mr. R. Long; the negative by Miss A. Garbutt and Mr. L. Cross, who also demonstrated their ability to ably handle the subject.

The judges were Mr. C. Stevens, Miss L. Webber and Mr. H. McIlmoyle, who decided from the evidence that the affirmative was the winner.

Mr. Cecil Stevens during the evening gave a reading which proved an agreeable portion of the programme.

HE MEANT. EVERY WORD HE SAID

Ex-Reeve's Rheumatism Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Was so Crippled that He Could Hardly Get Around and Could Get No Relief from Doctors or Medicines.

Dresden, Ont., Feb. 23.—Special.—Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me of Rheumatism slick and clean." Mr. W. G. Cragg, the well-known merchant and ex-reeve of this place was the speaker and he evidently meant every word he said.

"It was the inflammatory kind of Rheumatism I had and it crippled me up so that I could hardly get around to do my wortk in my store. I had the best doctors and everything in the line of medicines I could hear of, but nothing even gave me relief.

"Then I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and six boxes cured me completely."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Rheumatism by curing the Kidneys. Rheumatism is caused by Uric Acid in the blood. If the Kidneys are right they will strain al the Uric Acid out of the blood and the Rheumatism will go with it.

Croup Absolutely Cured.

"There is no remedy in my opinion that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup, absolutely, in one night. We gave him a dose when he was black in the face with choking. It gave him instant relief and cure."—Mr. Wm. McGee, 49 Wright avenue, Toronto, Ont.

Don't Neglect a Cough or Cold

IT CAN HAVE BUT ONE RESULT. IT LEAVES THE THROAT or LUNGS, OR BOTH, AFFECTED.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP IS THE MEDICINE YOU NEED.

It is without an equal as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Pain in the Chest, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Quinsy and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

A single dose of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will stop the cough, soothe the throat, and if the cough or cold has become settled on the lungs, the healing properties of the Norway Pine Tree will proclaim its great virtue by promptly eradicating the bad effects, and a persistent use of the remedy cannot fail to bring about a complete cure.

Do not be humbugged into buying so-called Norway Pine Syrups, but be sure and insist on having Dr. Wood's. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and price 25 cts.

Mrs. Henry Seabrook, Hepworth, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup in our family for the past three years and I consider it the best remedy known for the cure of colds. It has cured all my children and myself."

PERTAINING TO SPORTING EVENTS

Neither the High Lifes nor Charlotte Street could not play the game as it should be played, in their match the Thursday night. While it was the general impression that the Methodists should have won on the general play at the same time there are many who would like to see the two teams meet on keen ice. A battle well worth witnessing would surely take place and and its just a toss up which team would win.

The City League this winter has done more to encourage good clean hockey in Peterborough and to develop good material than any other organization in the history of Peterborough has done.

• • • •

The work of the intermediate seven this winter has been surprisingly good. At the beginning of the season, the home seven met defeat at the hands of the crack Queen's seven, the team that will play Ottawa for the Stanley Cup, a trophy emblematic of the championship of Canada. The defeat was no disgrace, for the wearers of the blue and white had hadrily found their feet, so to speak. But now they are playing hockey of a senior calibre and the majority of the followers of the game in this city are of the opinion that the locals can now trim the Collegians and are just about as fast as anything they have in the senior O. H. A.

• • • •

Speaking about the aggregation that has represented the Quaker City this winter the attendance at the matches might be a timely topic to discuss. The crowds this year have been nothing at all compared to what they should have been and it painful to think that the Invincible-Peterborough game didn't attract as large a crowd as the City League match did the following night. The team has practised faithfully all season and played the game all the time and when they have to go to the expense of bringing a team from so great a distance as Brockville all true supporters should turn out and help the boys along. It wouldn't break them to buy a ticket anyway, even if they didn't intend to witness the contest.

• • • •

The game with Parry Sound on Monday night next will be the most important one seen here this season. The Parry Sound seven are practically an unknown quantity and may spring a big surprise on the home team. The Northerners have had a very successful season and are reported as playing a fast consistent game. To compare them with the homesters as to their playing ability would simply be a matteer of conjecture, but time will tell and in the meantime the local seven will take no chances on the outcome of the game and will be in the best of shape for the struggle.

Berlin papers accuse Hamber of being very rough in the Argo-Berlin game. In commenting upon his play the News says:—"His size and weight and strength give him the appearance of roughing it, but the fact that he has not been known to injure anyone throughout the season would seem to indicate that he has a long distance to travel yet before he becomes really objectionable.

Considering the success of the City Hockey League a city baseball league should be formed this summer. There are several teams in town who play snappy ball and a city baseball league should prove a winner.

As to the securing of a suitable trophy there will be no difficulty about that—one is always forthcoming.

lected, saying that the building could be constructed at $2000 less at Norwood than at Lakefield.

The question of water power was also much in Norwood's favour, according to the advocates of that town. Councillor Garbutt pointed out similar advantages that would be found in Lakefield.

The following sites were selected as the five most suitable:

At Lakefield—
Braden farm, 45 acres, $5000.
Strickland farm, 75 acres, $7500.
Preston property, 100 acres, $6500.

At Norwood—
Grover property, 100 acres, $5500
Robb property, 45 acres, $3600.

Councillor Carey suggested that the Norwood and Lakefield supporters should select the most suitable property in their respective towns. This was done.

The Lakefield delegation had trouble in selecting their site. Councillor Garbutt, Stinson and Webster were in favour of the Preston property, but Councillor Moloney made a strong plea for the Strickland farm.

It was moved by Councillor Buck, seconded by Councillor Andrews, that the new House of Refuge be built on the Grover farm at Norwood.

It was moved in amendment by Councillor Stinson, seconded by Councillor Moloney, that in the mind of this council it is advisable that the county House of Refuge be erected in the vicinity of Lakefield.

The Norwood supporters objected to this amendment saying that it was understood that each delegation should name the property they thought most advisable, and the Warden supported them in that regard.

Councillors Stinson and Moloney therefore changed their motion to read that it is advisable to erect the House of Refuge at Lakefield, on the Preston property.

The amendment was put first, and carried on the following vote:

Yeas — Councillors, Garbutt, Stinson, Webster, Moloney, Monague and Shaw.

Nays—Councillors Andrews, Buck and Carey.

Mr. J. Finlay of Norwood, waited on the council to urge that a grant be given to the road between the 9th line of Dummer and the Government wharf at Crowe's Landing.

In this connection it was moved by Councillors Moloney and Webster, that a grant of $50 be made to the road when it is properly established and that George Payne be made the commissioner.—Carried.

Literary Introduction To Browning's "Cleon"

The following is Mr. Barton Earle's introduction to the study of Browning's poem, "Cleon," at the regular meeting of the Browning Club on Monday night:

"The speculation of this poem may be compared with a picture in a magic lantern slowly dissolving into another view, and losing itself in that which is succeeding it."

The persons in the poem are characteristic, but not historic. At the period in which Cleon is placed, the old [illegible] were dying out before the advance of Rome's conquests, and the philosophers had come to discuss dispassionately the truth or falsity of their beliefs. A spirit of tolerance prevailed, which was due rather to indifference regarding all creeds than to the existence of a broader charity. Greek art had passed its culmination, and Greek thought was saddened by the despairing sense of helplessness which man's highest achievements were unable to dissipate. "Men had ceased to be original, and life and art had become darkened by the pain of the soul." Men began to ask, "Is there anything else?" "Is life worth living?" These questions have been many times asked—never, perhaps, more persistently than in Browning's own day. Besides this preparation of a negative character, there was a positive preparation for the great change that was about to be ushered in. Long before the Christian era, the Greeks, by their wars in Asia Minor, and by their constantly increasing intercourse with the east, had come in contact with the milder and more humanizing eastern philosophy, and had obtained clearer views of man's higher nature.

Cleon, a poet from the Grecian Isles, has received from his royal patron a letter accompanied by rich presents. He writes to thank the King and to answer his questions.

"It is as thou hast heard; in one short life
I, Cleon, have effected all those things
Thou wonderingly dost enumerate. . . .
. . . . In brief, all arts are mine"

Nor should this be a matter of wonder since men's minds in these latter days, being more composite, are greater than those of the olden time. Life should be viewed as a whole "not analyzed to parts." The designer of the checkered pavement did not superimpose the figures, putting the last design over the old and blotting it out.

"But laid them on a level in his work,

So mankind is a synthesis, a putting together of all the single men.

"I have not chanted verse like Homer, no—
Nor swept string like Terpander, no—nor carved
And painted like Phidias and his friend:
I am not great as they are, point by point,
But I have entered into sympathy
With these four, running the c
into one soul,
Who, separate, ignored each other's arts.
Say, is it nothing that I know them all?"

As to the King's assumption that increase of knowledge meant increase of joy, Cleon replies that if the King had been on the earth before the advent of man, and viewed all its tenantry "from worm to bird," he would have seen them perfect, and "deduced the perfectness of others yet unseen?"

Had Zeus then questioned him

"Shall I go on a step, improve on this Do more for visible creatures than is done," he would have answered

"Ay, by making each Grow conscious in himself."

let him learn how he lives.

"The more he gets to know
Of his own life's adaptabilities,
The more joy-giving will his life become."

But it would have been more reasonable to say

"Let progress end at once,—man make no step Beyond the natural man, the better beast."

Man seems the only failure. He can reach a height from which he may overlook the lower creatures, but he can advance no further, and must perish there. Man is incapable of joy as the soul sees it. He can use but man's joy while he sees God's. Most progress is most failure.

"Does, then, Zeus mock us? No, "Malice is not." Is it carelessness? Still, no. But where is the evidence of care?

"You ask, is joy not possible to one who will live in his work? Say rather that my condition is the worse in this that every day my sense of joy grows more acute with increase of knowledge, while the time is constantly drawing nearer when I shall know most and enjoy least. "I have sometimes thought that Zeus may intend for us some future state, where our capability to enjoy may match our present desire. But, no—Zeus has not revealed it. He would have done so were it possible."

Nothing could more faithfully portray the desolation of the soul, "without God and without hope in the world." The soul emanating from the Divine, refuses to be satisfied with anything short of God Himself.

Just at the time of writing, St. Paul had turned to the pagan world with the Gospel which the Jews had rejected.

WEDDING BELLS

COUGHLIN—KELLY.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, Feb 21st, at St. Cecelia Church, Toronto Junction, when Miss Ellen Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelly, of Maria street, was married to Mr. Ambrose Coughlin, son of Mr. Martin Coughlin of Lakefield. Rev. Father Gallagher performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Coughlin, sister of the groom, and the groom was supported by Mr. John Murphy of Toronto Junction. The bride looked charming in a suit of royal blue. The many beautiful presents gave evidence of the high esteem in which the young couple are held. The happy couple left on the evening C.P.R. train for Lakefield where they will take up their residence.

CRIME DECREASES
—SO GOVERNMENT REPORT SAYS—
IN PETERBOROUGH

Dr. R. Bruce Smith Gives in His Annual Report Facts Concerning the Maintenance and Operation of Goal—Daily Cost of Prisoners' Keep is 18 Cents Each—Total Goal Expenditure for the Year Was $1,816.54—Number of Prisoners Last Year Was 205—In 1904 Number Was 227—74 Were Married and 131 Single.

Dr. R. Bruce Smith, Inspector of prisons has submitted his annual report for the past year, and from it some interesting information is gained. The number of persons committed during 1905 was 11,035, as compared with 10,146 in 1904, an increase of 889. Of the increase 858 were men, 67 women, 7 girls under 16, while there was a decrease of 47 boys under 16 years of age.

There was a startling increase in the number of commitments for murder in 1905 over that of 1904, the figures being 1904 20, 1905, 52.

The fact that with a population of little over two millions there were over 11,000 persons during the past year committed to the gaols of the Province, may well call for both consideration and comment. That the question is a practical, not a sentimental one, is shown by the large expenditure of over $350,000 annually to maintain the prison system of Ontario.

Peterborough Figures.

In the Peterborough gaol in 1904, there were 227 prisoners commited, while in 1905, the number was but 205, which indicates that at least this county is improving. Another interesting fact is recorded in connection with the gaol here. In 1885 the number of commitments for drunkenness was 27, while in 1905 it was only 13. 1890 was a particularly bad year with this town, for 45 persons were commited that year for this offense.

Of the 205 persons in 1905, 74 were married, 131 single, 1 could neither read or write, 105 were temperate and 100 intemperate. 83 males and 3 females were reinstated during the year.

The total cost of gaol expenditure was $1,815.54, and for official salaries, $1,350.00. The cost of food, fuel and clothing was $1,143.77. The average cost per person for food, fuel, clothing and repairs was $210.85, for salaries and wages, $27.80 and the cost per head for entire gaol expenditure $38.65. The salaries are distributed as follows:—Gaoler, $700.00; turnkeys, $466.50; matrons, $150.00 and gaol surgeon $100.00.

No prisoners escaped from the gaol during the year, but two died. There are 18 cells in the building and the greatest number of prisoners confined to the gaol at any one time was 32. The lowest number at any one time during the year was six. The cost for rations for prisoners was 10.50 cents per day.

The total days' stay of prison during the year was 5,865, and average cost per day for each prisoner was 18 cents. Peterborough County supplied nine prisoners to the Central prison during the last year.

Rights Of Prisoners.

In his report, speaking generally, the Inspector says:—

The social environment is the culture medium of criminality. If there were no society, and no family, vice and crime could not exist. Crime and immorality presented themselves just as soon as communities were established. When social selfishness began to dominate, individual selfishness, crime and immorality became possible. So long as individual selfishness is not completely submerged, but struggles to the surface from time to time, crime and vice will continue. Each social system is directly responsible for its own criminals. They are the flotsam and jetsam of the social stream. They are the retrograde products of the social system in any country. The system of reformation that aims at the study and correction of the conditions at the source of those products is the only rational system. Instead of waiting until a human being becomes a menace to the safety, comfort and commercial interests of society it would surely be better to make an earlier and more rational attempt to prevent what we have afterwards to punish. Every country and every society have the criminals they deserve. The criminal has, therefore, some rights which society has a right to respect. He is a product of certain conditions of heredity and environment over which he has only limited control. Little is done to ameliorate his condition. Society does little to prevent him from becoming a criminal. The child of the honest poor is allowed to run the streets, contract evil habits and vicious associations. The result is eventually a criminal, a drunkard, or a prostitute in a large proportion of cases. The diseased or degenerated child, whose parents are unable to care for it, is allowed to be exposed to pernicious influences and vicissitudes which, unless he be fortunate enough to die young, eventually make him a burden upon the community. Fortunately we have in many places in Ontario local Children's Aid Societies which are doing excellent work for the redemption of children of vicious propensities with corrupting opportunities. My experience leads me to believe that money expended in that branch of the public service is likely to prove an investment of incalculable benefit to the Province.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT

Was Alarmingly Afflicted With La Grippe. Cured by Pe-ru-na.

The Grip is Properly Termed Epidemic Catarrh.

As Pe-ru-na Cures Every Form of Catarrh, It Has Relieved More Cases of Grip Than All Other Remedies Combined.

The Fear of Grip Makes People Nervous.

There is no remedy in the world that meets the conditions produced by the grip better than Peruna.

Peruna strengthens as it renovates, soothes while it stimulates, heals as it expurgates.

Peruna is not a purgative, or cathartic or sedative, or stimulant, nor a vegetable or mineral poison.

It reaches the source of all diseases of the mucous membranes by its action on the vaso-motor system of nerves.

After-Effects of the Grip.

Every person who has had la grippe during the last year should take a course of Peruna. No one need expect perfect recovery unless they do so.

The grip has produced catarrhal inflammation of the whole mucous membrane, and good health is impossible until these are restored to a normal condition. This Peruna will do.

A great many remedies have been suggested for this condition from time to time, but Peruna is the only remedy that has any substantial value in these cases.

It has never failed to give satisfaction during forty years' experience and still occupies the unique position of being the leading (if not the only) specific remedy for the after-effects of la grippe.

No Time Like the Present.

If you are suffering from the after-effects of la grippe—if you have become discouraged in your attempts to cure yourself with other treatments, take a bottle of Peruna now.

A bottle of Peruna taken during the beginning of the disease is worth more than a dozen bottles after the trouble has become deep-seated.

W. H. Parsons is Ex-State Senator and Ex-Special Judge of the Supreme Court of Texas, and was also Brigadier-General in Confederate Army. In a recent letter from 925 H street, N. W., Washington, D. C., this prominent gentleman says:

"Upon the recommendation of personal friends and many strong testimonials as to the efficacy of Peruna in the treatment of the numerous symptoms of the grippe with which I have been afflicted for four months past, I have been induced to undergo a treatment with this justly celebrated formula. I feel a decided change for the better after using it only one week.

"It is especially good in toning up the stomach and has had a decided effect upon my appetite. I therefore feel much encouraged that I am on the road to complete restoration.

"My numerous friends in Texas, where I have had the honor to command a brigade of her Veteran Cavalry in a four years' war, may accept this voluntary testimonial to the merits of Peruna as a sense of obligation on my part for its wonderful efficacy."—W. H. Parsons.

Miss Eugenie Lafortune of 110 Berrie street, Montreal, Can., writes:

"Peruna cured me of a severe case of la grippe when nothing else had any effect on me. Five bottles did the work and they were worth hundreds of dollars for the comfort and health restored to me. I therefore feel that the least I can do is to gratefully acknowledge its merits."—Eugenie Lafortune.

A reward of $10,000 has been deposited in the Market Exchange Bank, Columbus, Ohio, as a guarantee that the above testimonial is genuine; that we hold in our possession authentic letters certifying to the same. Every one of our testimonials are genuine and in the words of the one whose name is appended.

Pork and Eggs Fall in Price

To-Day's Market One Of Best Of The Season.

To-day's market was one of the best patronized of any this season. The bright spring day with its exhilarating effects, was the cause of so many of the people from the country coming to the market this morning, and bringing in a large amount of produce. Buyers were numerous, and much of the offerings was early disposed of.

The principal trend of thought among the farmers at the market was of course on the weather. "If this weather continue," said one, "I'll be out at my spring work before the middle of March."

The winter has been an exceedingly hard one for the fall grains, and many are predicting destruction to the fall wheat and rye crops.

Beef has for the last few months been the prominent feature of the outside market, but to-day it was succeeded by the notable presence of pork. The latter, as was prophesied last week, has fallen somewhat in price, and was offered to-day at 9 and 9 1-2 cents for fore and at 10 to 10 1-2 cents for hind quarters; some sold at 10 and 11c per lb.

Beef ranged in price from 5 to 7 1-2 cents for fore and hind quarters respectively.

Eggs are gradually decreasing in price on account of the increased quantity as spring approaches. They were the chief feature of the upstairs market, selling at 17 and 18c per dozen, 2c less than last week.

Chickens were the only poultry which were much in evidence, and were offered at the firm prices of 75, 80 and 90c per pair. Butter is still at the old reliable price of 25c per lb.

The following were to-day's prices on the market:

Butter, per lb	24	to	25
Eggs, per doz	17	to	18
Chickens, per pair	75	to	90

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND.

The advent of a Liberal Government to power in Great Britain, seems to give hope for the granting of some form of measure of Home Rule for Ireland. This is inevitable, for it is from Liberal principles that measures involving regard for the rights of man are to be expected to come. In all history Liberalism has been the source of popular liberty and reform. There is every reason to expect that during the present Imperial Parliament, Ireland will receive a more or less substantial measure of self government. It is self-government, and the possession of the privileges that self government yields that make Canada a prosperous, contented, happy and loyally attached members of the Empire. Though Ireland may not at once receive the full measure of self-government she desires—though it may not reach the extent of a parliament on College Green, yet it is pretty certain that some form of self government, as a beginning, will be given. The Anglo-Saxon way in the direction of reform is deliberate. The greatest, freest, and noblest constitution, was built up by slow degrees, and that is the reason why it is so solid and enduring—its texture is weakened by few mistakes, because every addition was well considered, well thought out, and well fought out.

HELPING JAPAN.

Famine is the frequent after-math of the red crop of war, and in Japan there is said to be a million starving. This call to the help of those who can help will not be neglected. The recent Anglo-Japanese entente makes the Japanese our neighbours, outside the claims of a common humanity, and the Government of Canada has not been slow to recognize this claim. The Government has decided to have its generosity take a form that will incidentally yield a return in the form of the value to be derived from making known the great wheat resources of this country, which it is proposed, and hoped, will develop an important trade in wheat and flour. The Government is using these gifts of some five hundred tons of flour to introduce more popularly the use of wheat flour—rice, at present, being the general diet of the Japanese; and when they use wheat it is in the form of a sort of maccaroni, not bread. The gift of flour the Canadian Government sends to Japan will be enclosed in sacks, each of which will contain printed directions in Japanese language, for making bread. Thus at the same time the starving will be fed and a knowledge of the proper use of flour will be imparted, which may create a demand for Canadian flour, and inaugurate a large trade with our new allies in the land of the rising sun, which our Government is striving in a way to make the land of the rising bread. The action of the Government is commendable, and there will be found few to mete out any blame for the action taken to help the starving Japanese.

A Song Sermon At Gospel Hall

At the Gospel Hall to-morrow night Mr. G. W. NEW SEPARATE SCHOOL BUILDING and the fittings throughout will be as modern as possible, and should in every way fill the demands made upon its capacity.

In connection with the formal opening of the assembly hall of the new school, which takes place on Monday night, a description of the room will not be out of place. The new hall fills a long felt want and furnishes an excellent place for holding entertainments and plays. It is capacious and modernly equipped in every respect and will be undoubtedly the finest in the city. Every arrangement has been made for the convenience and comfort of those patronizing the hall and it in every way should answer all the requirements made upon it as it has been planned on modern lines.

The hall, which is on the top flat of the building, occupies a floor space of 3,915 square feet. A fine stage is one of the features that will be much appreciated. Its dimensions are 33 feet by 26 feet, and large enough to allow a drama to be successfully staged and it is probable that many of these performances will be given there. It is equipped with two fine changes of scenery, painted by Mr. Fred Cook. In connection with the stage there are three large and well equipped dressing rooms. It is furnished with fire appliances such as stand pipes and hose, making it practically impossible for a fire to get a start. The hall throughout is of fire-proof construction. The plaster is composed of asbestos placed on expanded metal laths. Not one wooden lath has been used in the construction of the building.

The hall as has been said is equipped in a thoroughly modern manner. The best quality of opera chairs will be used. The room is well ventilated there being a large dome in the centre. The proscenium arch is beautifully decorated with many coloured lights. The lighting fixtures throughout the building are finished in antique copper to match the hardwood. The work was done by Mr. F. R. J. McPherson. The hall has an inclining floor so that the stage may be seen from all sections. It is well lighted for day entertainments as well as night as the windows are very large. A neat little box office has been constructed on the first floor landing, so that people may purchase their tickets before going up stairs. There are two entrances to the hall, one leading to the front stairway and the other to the rear.

The building is a credit to the architect, Mr. Argus, who prepared the plans, and he is to be congratulated upon having designed such a complete and well equipped school. Rev. Father McColl, the superintendent of Roman Catholic schools, also is deserving of great credit. He has been untiring in his efforts in connection with the new school and he must be to see the consummation of his labours in that direction.

NEW ST. PETER'S SCHOOL.

A Presentation To Mr. Jos. Ball For His Services

Faithful Sexton of St. Luke's Who Retires After Nineteen Years' Service Given Clock and Purse—An Address of Appreciation — A Delightful Social Evening Spent Last Night — Many Tributes Paid To Mr. Ball.

MUSICAL PROGRAMME WAS MUCH ENJOYED

The "At Home" arranged by the Men's Guild of St. Luke's church last night was in every way a success. The President, Mr. G. F. Warde, assisted by an efficient committee, welcomed the guests, who turned out in large numbers. The rooms were prettily decorated with flags and patriotic designs for which the Guild is indebted to Mr. J. J. Turner. The proceedings began with instrumental music, rendered by Miss English. Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, on behalf of the Guild, welcomed the guests in a few appropriate words. He said that the object of the meeting was two fold. First to acquaint the congregation with the Guild Rooms, and secondly, to honour Mr. Ball, who had retired from the office of Sexton, which he had held for nineteen years. He called upon the People's Warden, Mr. Frank Adams, to read the following address: Mr. Joseph Ball:

Dear Sir,—"Well done, good and faithful servant", very forcibly and aptly aptly expresses the feelings of the congregation of St. Luke's towards you on the occasion of your retirement from the position as Sexton, which you have occupied with such unswerving fidelity for nearly a score of years. It is no empty form when the rector and Congregation of St. Luke's assure you of their deep and heartfelt appreciation of the services you have rendered in the position you occupied with so much credit to yourself and so great satisfaction to all concerned for nineteen years. In this capacity you have not only done your duty in all its details with an effectiveness and courtesy that won the approval and respect of all, but you have gone beyond the letter of your duty, and in a larger spirit, have in a thousand ways shown your loyalty to the Church and all its interests, even rendered at a sacrifice of personal convenience to promote them. Every Rector of St. Luke's, every worshipper within its sacred walls has occasion to remember your unfailing kindness and courtesy, the outcome of a naturally kind heart and Christian spirit, reflected not only in these ways, but in your daily life.

We wish you many happy days to enjoy the leisure of your declining years and in earnest of our appreciation and good wishes we ask your acceptance of this clock and this purse of gold, symbols of the happy years of time we have spent together and of the gold of an honest heart and godly life, which we earnestly pray may long be spared in health and happiness.

On behalf of St. Luke's Church.

E. A. LANGFELDT, M.A., L. Th., Rector.

G. F. WARDE,
FRANK ADAMS,
Church Wardens.

Ashburnham, February 23rd, 1906.

Mr. Warde, Rector's Wardenn, then presented Mr. Ball with a beautiful and very valuable clock and a purse of gold. The clock is of mahogany wood, of elegant design, encased in glass and furnished with chimes. A silver plate bears the following inscription:—

"Presented to Mr. Joseph Ball by the Congregation of St. Luke's Church, in recognition of faithful service. Peterborough, February, 1906."

Mr. Ball had no idea of this presentation, and was very much moved by the kindness of his friends. He thanked them very heartily for their thoughtfulness.

The rector expressed his personal regard for Mr. Ball, whose retirement he sincerely regretted. He knew that ties of affection existed between Mr. Ball, and the congregation, who regretted very much to lose him from the office of Sexton.

He coupled the name of Mrs. Ball with that of her husband, for she likewise, had always shown great interest in the work of St. Luke's, and was a true helpmate of her husband.

Mr. J. J. Turner, Jr., as Lay Reader, of St. Luke's, being called upon by the rector, paid his respects to Mr. Ball.

A musical programme was then given, in which Miss Ruth Dawson, Mr. Wallis Wesley, and Mr. Haggie Sawers, took part. Miss English and Miss Daisy Sawers, acting as accompanists.

Refreshments were then served.

PROF. EDWARD SIMMONS

Professor of Music, Graduate O. S. M., Academy, Organist to Wolseley and Ellesboro Parishes, Pupil of Signor Garcia and Professor Thompson, speaks of the New Scale Williams Piano.

That the efforts of the Williams Piano Company in bringing out the New Scale Williams are appreciated by artistic music lovers everywhere, is shown by the numerous letters of congratulation they receive.

The following is an extract from a letter from Prof. Edward Simmons of Wolseley, N. W. T.

"After having tried allmakes of Canadian Pianos, I have decided upon the New Scale Williams Piano as being far superior to them all in tone, finish, action and all the requirements essential to a first class instrument. The tone is both rich and deep, with a rare singing quality. The action is the most responsive I ever played upon and the general workmanship all through is most perfect, finish beautiful. The New Scale Williams Piano is the one I have chosen for my own use, and I have no hesitation whatever in strongly recommending it to my friends and anyone desiring a first class instrument.

I wish to congratulate your Company upon so distinct a success in Piano construction."

Many Changes Have Been Made At Golden Lion

Popular Store Has Been Remodelled in Many Departments To Meet Ever-growing Trade.

During the past six weeks many renovations have been made in the Golden Lion Store, which greatly add to the comfort of the patrons of this popular establishment as well as facilitate the displaying and sale of goods. These improvements are the continuance of the system of changes outlined last summer, which it was impossible to complete before the winter. As soon as the rush of Christmas trade was over the work was resumed and the carpenters have just finished their contract.

A large part of the cellar has been excavated, floored and fitted up as a store room for linoleums. Hitherto Mr. Fair, who is a very large importer of these lines has been forced to store them in various parts of the city as there was not sufficient room for them in his establishment.

On the second floor a system of glass cases have been put in which effectively display ladies' ready-to-wear garments. The millinery room has also been fitted with cabinet fixtures, for the better displaying of a very fine line of millinery goods.

The carpet department has been thoroughly re-organized to meet the unequalled growth of this section of the store's business. A new floor has been laid and new fixtures arranged and the whole department remodeled and made ready for the rush of trade. Mr. Fair states that so many new houses are being furnished and there is so great a demand for carpets that it has been absolutely necessary to make these changes.

Asked as to the last year's trade, Mr. Fair said this morning that it had been remarkable, and every department had shown a great growth. The people of the city seem to realize that goods are a little better at the same price at Fair's.

Mr. Fair's intentions for the coming season are to make every effort to make it the banner one in connection with this store in which, while the prices are not high the goods are widely known as genuine and reliable. The expert buyers of the house visit New York in turn, and visit some of the best houses there. The best foreign firms have sufficient faith in the trade of the Golden Lion to be content to sell goods to them alone in Peterborough.

Miss Campbell has just returned from New York where she attended the openings. She has many new ideas gained there, which will be used in connection with her department.

HEAVY HEADACHE FOR FOUR YEARS

But Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured it—They are known by their works all over Canada.

"By their works ye shall know them," and if you know Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets by their works, you must admit that they are the greatest comfort producers of the age. Here is some of their work: Mrs. A. Waddell, of 31 Simcoe street, Hamilton, says:

"I was troubled with heavy headache for four years caused by Dyspepsia. I doctored with the best doctors, but they failed to help me. I got one box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and after taking part of them I found that I was cured. I can now eat in the morning; before I could not eat a bite."

Thousands of other Canadians relate similar experiences. In fact everybody who has used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets tells the same story — Indigestion and Dyspepsia cannot live in the same body with them.

Contributions Will be Received

Contributions will be received at the Examiner office for a woman who is in need of a sewing machine which will cost $18. This is a very deserving case and if all the circumstances were known contributors will be thoroughly satisfied that they could not offer relief in a better way.

Final Terms Given The Carpet People

Committee of the Whole Decides Definitely What They Will Offer Them to Locate Here—Terms Not as Favourable to Company as the Latter Asked For—Not Known Yet Whether the Offer Will be Accepted

The Committee of the Whole Council met last night in the City Clerk's office to give consideration to the question of the inducements to be offered to the carpet factory promoters to locate here.

Considerable discussion took place on the terms upon which they could be secured, and it was finally decided to confirm the offer originally made by the Manufacturers' Committee.

It should be mentioned that these terms are not as generous as the Company asked for, but are a compromise from the first proposal, and last night Ald. McWilliams communicated with Messrs. Brintin and Preen, in Toronto, giving them the decision of the Council in the matter.

It is not known yet, of course, whether the Company will accept the proposition as now submitted, but it is probable that within a few days it will be determined.

It is not considered in the public interest to publish the terms as offered to the carpet people, because while as far as the citizens are concerned, there is no objection to their publication, the other municipalities who are after this, might be placed in a better position than Peterborough, because they would then know this city's offer, as well as their own.

It may be said, however, that if the industry is secured on the terms proposed, it will be a good move on the part of the council, because there is every prospect that in the near future, the factory, wherever it is located, will be enlarged very much, and that it will develop into a very profitable industry for the city that secures it.

Demonstration Of Fire Alarm System Given

Local Council Were Shown the Manner in Which the Gamewell Apparatus Works—It is Manufactured by Northern Electric Company of Montreal.

The first step in the campaign for better fire protection was taken last night when a demonstration of the Gamewell Fire Alarm System was given before a meeting of the whole council called by Ald. Adams, the chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee. The demonstration was given by Mr. F. G. Webber, representing the Northern Electric Company, of Montreal, which firm is the only one manufacturing a fire alarm apparatus in Canada. The system is the one that will likely be adopted by the city and is the standard machine of its kind.

The arrangement is such that by pulling on one box all the alarms in the city are rung and the tower gong rings but the box number.

The local authorities have been very much impressed with the satisfactory manner in which it works, and it is not unlikely that it will be adopted here.

Big Shipment Just Arrived

Thos. Barrie & Co. have just received the largest single shipment of "Christy's" hats that has ever come to this city.

"Christy's of London", are the largest and most widely known hat makers in the world. Established over 150 years ago, to-day finds them as of yore, the leaders in all that is best in hat making and in hat styles for men the world over. In China, Japan, India, Australia, South Africa, Egypt, all the countries of Europe, in the South American Republics, the United States and Canada, you will find "Christy, London," stamped on the sweat-leather of all that's the best in men's headwear, in their respective styles for each nationality. Their name has been associated so indelibly with men's hats that the name "Christy" has become incorporated into our language and became a synonym for "a stiff hat." Ask any hatter for a "Christy" and he will show you a stiff hat.

Barrie's are the only people who can offer you the genuine "Christy, London," make in hats, as they have the sole agency for them here. The new spring styles in stiff and soft hats are now on sale. ldlw

Some More $16 A Week Letters

SOME ADVICE FOR MOTHERS.

The interest in the matrimonial problem aroused by the publication of the letters on the $16 a week question still continues, but it is evidently taking a somewhat new form. Two letters were received to-day. They are as follows:—

To the Editor of the Examiner:

I want to tell worried mothers my plan with my children. We came here a year ago from the country, and it was not long until I realized that something must be done. We have two boys, aged 8 and 9. They are healthy and as lively as boys usually are. They wanted to play in the street every evening until bedtime, and no place suited them so well as a corner not far away where a street car passed. As I have always insisted upon strict obedience from them, I could keep them in the house, but to keep them quiet was another thing. So I made up my mind to give them something to do. I taught them to sew, and whenever there is any mending about their own clothes, they can do it, also saw on buttons. I make them house shoes of heavy cloth, and when they come home from school, they put them on. It saves a good deal of wear and tear on the carpet, also on nerves, to say nothing of shoes. Lately they have been learning to sew on the machine, so they make these shoes themselves. They wash the dishes, fill the lamps, carry out the ashes, make their own bed, and do a number of things that few people would think boys could do, but I think boys can do such things as well as girls, if they are taught. They are very fond of games and play checkers, dominoes and flinch. They also like to read, and I keep them supplied with books suitable for their age. They like fairy tales best, and while I do not think it is the best reading matter, I do think fairy stories better companions than some they would find in the street.

They like The Youth's Companion, and they have their Sunday School papers, and often bring home books from their school mates. They often spend the evening in reading and are so quiet you would hardly think there was a boy in the house. As they grow older I hope to be able to direct them in the way of good reading matter and so prevent them acquiring a taste for the horrible stuff that is printed for boys.

"An idle brain is the devil's workshop", and the boys must be given something to do to keep them out of mischief. When my boys are sewing or washing dishes I never allow anyone to laugh at them and tell them it is girls' work, so they think it is all right. And I don't think they will be any the worse for knowing how to do such things when they grow up.

Mrs. Fay Of Royal Blood But A British Subject

The Clever Lady Who is the Centre of Attraction at the Opera House, Comes of Highest Caste in India--Last Night's Performance of the Fays Was, as Usual, Greeted by Full House--Some More Wonderful Answers Given--To-day Closes the Engagement.

Again did the Fays startle and mystify the audience which filled to the doors the Grand Opera House last night. Never in the history of local amusement has an attraction created such a furore and sensation as that offered by these remarkable people. Mrs. Fay's first experiments during which she is tightly bound head and foot by a committee selected from the audience, and enclosed in a cabinet, and immediately a guitar and other musical instruments placed on the floor beside her, give forth musical sounds, is mystifying and interesting but of course the great drawing card of the programme is the experiments in the last part of the programme in Thaumaturgy, and which have been thoroughly described in the columns of the Examiner, so that further description of them would be unnecessary. Suffice to say Mrs. Fay catches, or seems to catch the very thoughts of her audience and gives answers which are startlingly apropos. She has told the number of watches, dates of coins and dates of births with unfailing accuracy and the prophesies she has made as to the future, time alone will prove whether or not they are true. The things that she has foretold and have been acknowledged to be correct by her audience go to prove that she really possesses some power or marvellous attribute which is strange, because we do not comprehend it. The idea of calling Mrs. Fay a fake is thoroughly ridiculous. One goes to the theatre to witness a performance, on the programme one reads that they distinctly disclaim any supernatural power and states that the entertainment is given solely for the amusement of the public. Mr. Fay, the suave gentleman who does the talking, states distinctly many times, in fact this gentleman is wont to repeat himself, that there is no claim as to the possession of any power out of the ordinary and that the performance is given solely to amuse and entertain, nothing more. Without doubt they have captivated our audiences, as the Grand Opera House is taxed nightly to its capacity and inasmuch as the Fays claim nothing, there is no fake. One cannot be a fake unless one is imitating, and the Fays are certainly not imitating anything because they do not make any pretence. They certainly are original from what we have seen here prior in their line.

There is a certain class of individuals, whose petty, puny brains are so far beyond the conception of work of this character as the planet Jupiter is beyond the wiles of the seductive back agent, and anything they cannot comprehend, the easiest explanation is to dub it a fake. One thing which Mr. Fay deserves commendation for is the fact that private interviews are rigidly debarred. Indeed it takes nothing short of abject intimidation to get even a business card through to the manipulator of the destiny of man. In explanation as to why Mrs. Fay does not receive callers, Mr. Fay stated, "If I was in the business for the money only, I could make much more by granting private interviews, but Mrs. Fay is not a fortune teller, never was a fortune teller and never will be. Her work is on a more cultured plane and given for scientific principles. Again Mrs. Fay is a princess of royal blood and comes of a famous line of the greatest caste in all India, tracing back her ancestry until it is lost in the time of antiquity, and while we in America may scoff and hold our views regarding the royalty and their customs the fact remains that Mrs. Fay insists upon the dignity her birth entitles her to and refuses to meet the "great unwashed mass," as Kipling terms the public. It was not without the greatest amount of persuasion and force of argument that Mr. Fay induced his wife to appear in public at all.

The Fays certainly give a great show, the first of its kind that has ever appeared upon local boards. The vaudeville a one is par excellence and without exaggeration the cleverest ever witnessed here. They alone are well worth the price of admission to say nothing of the great work of the Fays. Whatever Mr. Fay pays them they are well worth the money. Therefore, inasmuch as Mr. Fay is simply giving the show as he states simply to amuse and entertain the public the people have no kick coming. One but makes himself ridiculous in trying to raise the question of fake and starting an argument. This afternoon is the ladies' matinee and to-night brings to a close the engagement of these remarkable people, who have startled and stirred Peterborough from centre to circumference with a sensation that will long be remembered. It is a good, clean and highly entertaining performance, so that is enough said.

Sunday Services At Murray Street

To-morrow morning at the Murray street Baptist church, the Rev. A. B. Reekie, a missionary from South America, will preach. In the evening the Rev. J. G. Lewis, of the Mark street Methodist, East City, will preach. In the afternoon there will be a special meeting of the officers of the church, at the Bible class, at which all are invited. Those who did not contribute to the Grande Ligne Mission last Sunday are kindly asked to do so to-morrow.

Epworth League At Mark Street

The topic this week, "Lessons from the Life of Christ", was ably handled in a paper by Mrs. W. K. Payne. The topic was taken in two parts, between which Mr. J. Miller gave an appropriate solo, at the conclusion of the paper Mrs. W. Tabister, also favoured the League with a pleasing vocal solo.

Next Monday evening will be devoted to a study of Missions and an address will be given by Mrs. (Rev.) Campbell. A cordial invitation to be present is extended to all.

LITTLE ONE ONE SOLID SORE

Covered With Scales and Scabs From Head to Foot—Doctors and All Other Remedies Had Failed—Skin Now Smooth and Clear.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

Mrs. Mattie Shaffer, of Cumberland, Miss., says: "Some time ago I used your Cuticura Remedies for my little afflicted babe with wonderful results. I had tried many other remedies without any benefit whatever, and Cuticura came to the rescue when my doctors and all other remedies had failed. One doctor pronounced it scrofula, the other eczema. The little one was one solid sore, with scales and scabs from head to foot, when I started using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The result was wonderful, and now my baby's face and body are smooth and clear." (signed) Mrs. Mattie Shaffer.

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS

At the First Sign of Disfiguring Humors Is to Use Cuticura the Great Skin Cure

Every child born into the world with an inherited tendency to torturing, disfiguring humours of the Skin and Scalp, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz.: the Cuticura Treatment, consisting of warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great Skin Cure, and purest and sweetest of emollients. Cures made in childhood are speedy, permanent, and economical.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Depots: London, 27 Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5 Rue de la Paix; Australia, R. Towns & Co., Sydney. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Sole Props. Send for "How to Cure Disfiguring Humours."

He Paid The Money Back

Brother of Deranzio Makes Good The Forty-two Dollars.

The brother of Fransisco Deranzio, the Italian who was charged at the police court yesterday morning with having stolen $43 from another Italian, De Napri by name, (it is alleged he wrongfully cashed a check for that amount) paid over the money to the complainant at the police station to-day and endeavoured to have the charge withdrawn. Acting Chief Adams, whom he first consulted, advised him to see His Worship P. M. Dumble, who, in turn, told him to interview County Crown Attorney Wood on the subject. Mr. Wood informed him that the charge would have to be dealt with at Monday's session of the police court, when the case of Deranzio comes up for hearing.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"GIRL OF THE STREETS"

The most startling and thrilling melodrama of recent years will be the attraction at the Grand Monday, February 27, when Lillian Mortimer's latest play, "Girl of the Streets," will be presented for the first time in this city. It is such a story that appeals to the masses on account of the tender spirit of suffering humanity, though surrounded with an atmosphere of vice, the working out of the redemption of a woman of the streets who is lost and who has a police record of a most virulent character, makes this drama one of intense interest. Edith Gray will appear as "Kit" in "Girl of the Streets." Prices 25, 35 and 50c; gallery, 15c.

"SIGN OF THE CROSS"

Wilson Barrett's great religious drama, "The Sign of the Cross," which will be seen in magnificent scenic and costume attire at the Grand on Wednesday, February 28, has for several years done notable missionary work in removing the barriers of prejudice against the stage among strict churchgoers and a large class known as non-theatre goers. The high purpose and noble story of "The Sign of the Cross" has attracted clergymen of all denominations and their congregations by the tens of thousands to be under the eloquent spell of the fervent story of early Christian endeavour, persecution and triumph. Prices, 50, 75c and $1.00.

"IT'S UP TO YOU, JOHN HERNY"

Lovers of tuneful music and clever comedy will be pleased to learn that "It's Up to You, John Henry," Geo. H. Vobart's masterpiece of fun, with Charles E. Grapewin in the titular role, will be presented at the Grand on Tuesday, February 27. The play is one of the unqualified and substantial successes of the season. Manager Frank Howe, jr., has surrounded Charles E. Grapewin, the principal funmaker, with an able company, which includes as special features Miss Anna Chance and the St. Cecilia Quartette. The play is more than a farce comedy. In addition to bright lines, witty repartee, humourous situations and laugh inspiring climaxes, it abounds with pretty girls, dashingly gowned, beautiful scenery, dazzling electrical effects and catchy songs galore. Surrounded as Grapewin is by a large and carefully selected company, he gives a performance that has been pronounced by the leading dramatic critics, one of the liveliest, best and cleanest on tour. Prices, 50, 75c and $1; gallery, 25c.

The Kingstonians Hot Over Removal

Do Not Want the Camp Brought to Peterborough—$50,000 Each Year Spent at Camp—Means Much for That City—Some of the Alleged Objections Met—Sir Richard Cartwright's Cottage in the Way.

A special despatch to the Toronto Sunday World from Kingston, says: "There is much feeling developing in this city regarding the prospective removal of the military camp to Cobourg or Peterborough. The camp has been here for many years, and may be considered as a part of our military establishment. Its presence means much to the city. The annual expenditure in connection with it will not fall much, if any, short of $50,000, most of which is expended in Kingston.

"The alleged reasons for its removal are that there is not sufficient area in the camp grounds for manoeuvring, and that there is not a long enough range for rifle practice. But both of these allegations have been met by stating that the area is sufficiently for the troops massed at this point, when the rallying ground is embraced. And there should be no objection to soldiers exercising on uneven ground, seeing that in actual warfare this must be done. As for the rifle range, the old range would be long enough provided Sir Richard Cartwright's summer cottage were out of the way. Even the Knight grounds are beyond the danger point, except in cases where a bullet might reach his place. He, however, is only a tenant of the Government, gives only $30 a year for the land he occupies for a short season in summer, and hence if anyone should remove in the premises it is he and not the military."

The Ice Supply Will Be Short This Year

The ice harvest is practically ended, and its close finds some of the users of this product very ill-prepared for the summer. It is understood that a number of firms who are large users of the cooling product have still their supply to get, and the present prospects are that they will have to go without ice this year. The ice men, because of the difficulties in harvesting, have raised their prices, and the cost of putting in the supply has about doubled. Some of the users of large quantities, in the belief that there would be more sleighing, and that it could be put in cheaper, refrained from making contracts, and the consequence is that a number now find themselves minus ice. The recent mild weather, too, has played havoc with the ice in Little Lake, and it is now so thin that it is impossible to drive a team over it, and the outlook is pretty blue. Two of the large ice users, who have not yet been able to get their supply are H. P. Kennedy and Wm. Scott.

It is understood that an effort is being made to get ice from the canal, where it is considerably thicker than in the Little Lake.

Samuel Beaver Disappeared Day After The Concert

Indian Case Was Not Cleared Up This Morning.

In answer to the summonses served to a number of the Indians of the Chemong reserve last week by County Constable Cochrane, there were this morning a dozen of the red men before Magistrate Edmison at the County Court House.

It will be remembered that these Indians were charged, some with causing disturbances at the concert held in the village on Friday, February 9, others with having liquor in their possession on the same date. Those who received summonses were Geo. Taylor, Jonas Jacobs, Edward Taylor, Isaac Johnson, jr., Samuel Beaver and Jas. Taylor, jr.

The latter was charged with causing a disturbance at the concert, but pleaded not guilty. As evidence pointed to his innocence the charge was withdrawn.

George Taylor admitted he had behaved rudely and that he had been drinking. He got the liquor, he said, from Samuel Beaver. Edward Taylor also swore he had a couple of drinks from a bottle in the possession of Beaver also.

Jonas Jacobs was called, but did not remember whether he caused a disturbance or not, and was too intoxicated, he thought. From the evidence of the temporary constables, Daniel Whetung, jr., and John Jacobs, it was found that he had been thrown out of the building two or three times, and was convicted.

The evidence given by the above men went to show that Samuel Beaver, a non-resident Indian, was the person who brought the fire-water into the reserve. Beaver, however, seems to have been afraid of the consequences, and left Chemong immediately. None of the accused know anything of his whereabouts or where he obtained the liquor.

Albert Copperwaite, although not summoned, was found to be in the broil and decided to stand his trial. He admitted of having drank a couple of "horns" and said he received it from Geo. Taylor to cancel a debt.

Isaac Johnson was summoned, but did not appear. He left last week for Parry Sound to join a lumber camp.

In view of these facts Magistrate Edmison deemed it necessary to reserve judgment until all might appear. The case was therefore enlarged for three months and will continue May 26.

Dr. Willoughby Once Lived Here

Rev. Dr. Willoughby, whose sudden death in Blenheim yesterday, is recorded in the Examiner's telegraph despatches, was a former pastor of the George street Methodist church, and will be well remembered by the attendants of that church.

A Hairbreadth Escape From Fatal Injury

Mr. Noyes, G. T. R. Gateman, Comes to Assistance of Venturesome Lady.

A lady had a very narrow escape from death on Saturday, and probably owes her life to Mr. Noyes, the G.T.R. gateman. On Saturday morning engine No. 151 backed into the coal siding on the west side of the track, where it cut off a car and came out again. Mr. Noyes, who was standing where the gates are operated, noticed two ladies coming down Charlotte street towards George. They approached the gate, not heeding that it was down, and, in spite of Mr. Noyes' warning cry, continued their progress and went through the opening at the end of the gate to cross the track. Mr. Noyes noticed that the lady in front was in danger of being run down by the engine, as it was coming back and not far from her. He stepped in front of her and blocked her passage, just as the engine shot by. The lady was naturally very much frightened, as was also her companion, and it is owing to Mr. Noyes' presence of mind that she was not struck by the engine and probably killed or fatally injured. The affair created quite a commotion for a time. It is a peculiar thing, but nevertheless true, that many people will risk their lives for the sake of saving a moment or two. When the gates are down it is a signal of danger, a warning that should prove just as effective as a red light that at night points out a dangerous or treacherous spot.

Bishop's Regulations For Lenten Season

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor Issues His Annual Letter to Parishes in the Diocese of Peterborough--The Meaning and Significance of Lent Explained--Rev. Father McColl Read Letter at St. Peter's Cathedral Yesterday.

In St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday at the two masses, Rev. Father McColl, the rector of the parish, read the annual Lenten letter, issued by His Lordship, Bishop O'Connor. It was also read in all the churches in the Peterborough Diocese yesterday.

The letter gives the regulations for the Lenten season which are as follows:—

1.—All days in Lent, Sundays excepted, are fastings days, on which only one meal is allowed, with a morsel in the morning, and a collation or light repast in the evening.

2.—Those exempted from fasting are all persons under twenty-one and those over sixty years of age; likewise the sick and infirm, women carrying or nursing infants, and all who are engaged in hard labour. These may take their usual number of meals every day in Lent.

3.—The law of abstinence from flesh meat, which forms part of the penitential discipline of Lent, obliges all who are over seven years of age.

4.—By virtue of powers granted us by Apostolic Indult, we permit the use of flesh meat at each meal on Sundays, and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, except the Saturday after the first Sunday of Lent, and Holy Saturday.

5.—Fish and flesh are not allowed at the same meal.

6.—The use of milk, butter, cheese and eggs is allowed on all days.

7.—The use of dripping or lard is allowed in the preparation of food on all days except Good Friday.

8.—All who are exempt from fasting should at least observe the abstinence from meat on the days prescribed, be more constant in prayer, give alms more abundantly, and attend to their religious duties with greater exactness, so as to live up to the spirit of penance and self-denial that should mark the holy season of Lent.

Should any further relaxation of the fast or abstinence be required by particular persons, they may obtain it from their respective pastors, who are hereby authorized to grant it, provided true and sufficient cause be assigned.

The significance of the season and the duty of all to imitate the Redeemer are referred to in the letter which states that though the church in these latter times has moderated the former severity of the fast and abstinence, on account of the weakness of her children and the changed conditions of human life in many ways, yet she expects that the faithful will observe with exact fidelity the few and small regulations of food now required of them. Greater self-denial and mortification in things that are lawful and that contribute to bodily pleasure or comfort, will tend to compensate for past transgressions of the commandments and will excite in the heart sincere sorrow for sin. "They that are Christ's have crucified their flesh with the vices and concupiscences" (Gal. V., 24.) Such voluntary acts of mortification are pleasing to Almighty God and are always productive of much grace to those who practice them. How numerous are the modern forms of pleasure and amusement! Some of them are innocent in themselves; others are more or less dangerous; all of them can be diminished or entirely avoided, especially during the penitential season of Lent. If we desire to take unto ourselves the true spirit of devout and earnest Christians. Let each one then resolve to pass the Lent with great profit to his spiritual welfare, by renouncing one or more of those unnecessary and perhaps dangerous enjoyments, to which he has been accustomed. Such self-denial will be acceptable to our Lord Jesus Christ as a voluntary penance and atonement for past sin, and it will, moreover, strengthen the soul for the time of temptation.

It is recommended in Missions, where people can conveniently attend, that special devotions be held on Wednesday and Friday evenings. These devotions may consist of the Beads, followed by an instruction, or the "Stations of the Cross", and concluded by Benediction of the Holy Sacrament.

During Lent, at night prayers each family should recite at least five decades of the Beads, as a powerful means of sanctifying the Christian home and bringing down abundant graces and blessings on those who unite in family prayer. "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I, in the midst of them", says our Divine Lord. Where parents and children assemble together in their happy homes to close the day with adoration and thanksgiving to God, with supplication for pardon for their offences, and petition for continuance of heaven's favours, most assuredly Christ will be in the midst of them and he will bless them most abundantly.

The time for fulfilling the Easter Duty extends from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday, and the religious exercises of Lent are intended to prepare the faithful for the worthy reception of the Sacrament of Penance and Holy Communion. We hope and pray that all the children of the Church, who are of proper age, will approach the tribunal of Penance and receive the Blessed Eucharist within the Paschal time, thereby proving their earnest and sincere desire to secure their salvation.

The letter is dated February 20th, and is signed by R. A. O'Connor Bishop of Peterborough and by M. J. O'Brien, D. D., secretary.

Annual Meeting Of Peterborough Cheese Board

Held on Saturday Afternoon—Election of Officers for Present Year—Mr. T. Young President --Lively Discussion on Method of Paying Instructor's Fees—Communication From Mr. Putnam, Dairy Director — Will Have an Instructor for 1906.

ANNUAL REPORTS WERE RECEIVED

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Cheese Board was held in the City Council Chambers on Saturday afternoon commencing at 1.30. There were about 40 representatives of the board and cheese-makers present, among whom were F. D. Young, vice-president, Smith; Jno. Riddel, secretary, Bensfort; Jas. Middleton, treasurer, Peterborough; D. A. Oakley, Norwood; G. Rancier, Indian River; R. Pickle, Graystock.; E. Hawthorne, Warsaw; E. Deyell, Otonabee Union; W. A. Anderson, Keene; J. W. Smith, Perrytown; W. J. Bullock, Pine Grove; A. Fairburn, Lakefield; G. A. Rennick, Wm. Hannah, Fleetwood; S. Edwards, Lakefield; Wm. Sharp, Cedar Dale; H. Crow, Buckhorn; S. R. Payne, Warsaw; A. L. Andress, Bensfort; J. P. Andress, Bensfort; J. W. Fotheringham, J. A. Woods, Cavanville; R. Bullock, Warminster; J. Kennedy, Buckhorn; Mr. Tudhope, Westwood.

Vice-President T. D. Young occupied the chair in the absence of the president, Wm. Anderson, who, for some time, has not been able to be present at the board meetings on account of illness.

The chairman, in calling the meeting to order, welcmoed all present to the annual meeting, and hoped that in the future more of the cheese-makers would be present as well as the salesmen at the meetings of the board.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and adopted without discussion.

Mr. Middleton then submitted the treasurer's report, the substance of which was as follows:

Total receipts for the year	$464 55
Disbursements to Prov. treasurer for instructors' fees	$435 00
Other disbursements	8 65
Total—	$443 65
Balance on hand	$20.90

In his report Mr. Middleton explained that there were a number of factories from which no instructor's fees had been received, but he considered that these had paid directly to the Provincial Treasurer, as no complaints from the Government had been received by him. This led to a spirited discussion as to whether all factories should pay the Government these fees through the treasurer of the Peterborough Board or pay direct to the Provincial Treasurer.

Mr. Kennedy thought that the board should take the matter up and see that all factories should pay these fees or not receive the benefit of the instructor. He advised that remuneration be first obtained by the board and then forwarded, so that it would be certain that all getting the advice of the instructor would make compensation for it.

The secretary, Mr. Riddel, said that last year the request was made that all factories pay individually these fees to the Government. He did not think the board had jurisdiction over the factories with regard to this matter. He considered it advisable that the board take the matter up and have all pay uniformly and so not mix things up. All, he thought, should have instructro's advice and pay for it.

Mr. Middleton did not think that this matter belonged to the board He had written the Provincial Treasurer and given him a statement of the receipts from the different factories, and as no remarks had been made by the Government he considered tthey had been satisfied and that therefore the board had nothing to say.

Mr. Kennedy thought that the board should look after all factories receiving instructions and collect the instructor's fees and then communicate with the Government It was not right, he said, for one to pay and another not, and if a factory did pay to headquarters it should notify the treasurer of the board to that effect.

The president considered it desirable for the secretary to write and find out whether the fees had been received from all or whether some had received the instruction gratis. Personally, he would be glad to give or receive any advice which would be effective in raising the standard of Canadian cheese. At the dairymen's convention was heard the remark that Peterborough Board was the best in Ontario, and he hoped that it would live up to its past reputation.

Mr. S. R. Payne considered it much handier to pay the fees to the treasurer of the board here.

The treasurer's report was then adopted.

The election of officers for the year 1906 then took place. Some difficulty was experienced in the election of the president. Messrs. Young, Kennedy, Riddel and Hannah were named, but finally the first was chosen. Mr. Middleton was named as treasurer, but on account of being overcrowded with other work, declined.

The following were elected:

President, Mr. T. D. Young, Smith.

Vice-President, Mr. Tudhope, Westwood.

Secretary, Mr. Jno. Riddel, Bensfort.

Treasurer, Mr. Edward Hawthorne, Warsaw.

Arbitrator, Mr. Jas. Ryan.

Auditors, Messrs. W. J. Bullock, Pine Grove, and A. Fairbairn, Lakefield.

Mr. Young on being chosen to the presidency, thanked the gentlemen for election. It was always a pleasure for him to be present at the board meetings. The salesmen, he thought, should bring in the patrons to the cheese board meetings and get them to take a greater interest in cheese matters. He hoped that the affairs of the board would be carried on satisfactorily in the future, and he would do his best to have them so.

It was decided that the first sale of cheese for 1906 be held on May 23.

The following communication from Mr. Geo. A. Putnam, director of dairy instruction, was read by the president:

Parliament Buildings,
Toronto, Feb. 12, 1906.

To the Proprietors and Secretaries of Cheese Factories:

Dear Sir.—At the recent annual conventions of the Dairymen's Associations, the work of dairy instruction as carried on during the past year was commended, and as you have no doubt seen, resolutions were passed asking that a system of sanitary inspection of cheese and butter factories be provided for. In order to make the work of instruction and the proposed work of sanitary inspection more thorough, it is desired that as many factories as possible be included in the syndicates to be formed for the coming season's instruction work. The department, as you are aware, is devoting a large sum of money to the work of instruction and are anxious to make it as effective as possible during the coming season. We would be glad, therefore, if you would notify Mr. G. G. Publow, chief instructor for the eastern portion of the Province, whether or not you intend to take advantage of instruction during the coming season.

Enclosed you will find a form of application. It is the wish of Mr. Publow that all applications be sent in not later than March 15, in order that he may have ample time to get the work well organized before the opening of the season. Another reason for an early reply is that the department wishes to be in a position to estimate the cost of the work for the season at an early date.

The fee for the coming season will be the same as in 1905, namely, $15. This should be sent to my address not later than September 15. Checks and postoffice orders must be made payable to the order of the "Treasurer of Ontario," not to my order.

Even though this work has been carried on throughout the Province for several seasons, there has been a misapprehension in some quarters as to the duties of the instructors. First, and foremost, their duty is to instruct, not only the cheese-makers and proprietors as to proper equipment, methods in manufacture, care of cheese, etc., but also to call upon the individual producer and advise with him as to the proper care of milk on the farm, to discuss sanitary conditions about the stables, proper location of milk stand, place for storing milk, best method of cooling, etc.

Trusting that you will notify Mr. Publow at an early date as to whether or not your factory will take instruction, I am,

Very truly yours,
GEO. A. PUTNAM,
Director of Dairy Instruction.

In consideration of the above communication, some discussion took place, the outcome of which was a resolution, moved by Mr. Hannal, "That the board make application to the Government for an instructor for the year 1906; the terms to be the same as in 1905, and that the application be filled in as soon as possible and sent to Mr. Publow."

The resolution was carried and the meeting adjourned.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Cheese Makers' Association was also to have been held on Saturday afternoon, but did not take place on account of a number not being able to be present.

STOP, WOMAN!

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman — a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it "I do not believe it will help me."

Burleigh Falls New Hotel Will Soon Be Ready

Will be One of the Finest Resorts on the Kawartha Chain of Lakes.

The new hotel at Burleigh Falls, which is being built by Mr. Thomas Darcy, to replace the one destroyed by fire last winter, is nearing completion. The plasterers have begun work and it is expected that the building will be ready for use in a short time. When finished it will be one of the finest hotels on the Kawartha Lakes, and in point of size and fittings will be unsurpassed.

It stands on the site of the old building, and contained twenty-six bed-rooms, which, with the cottages in connection with the hotel, will be able to accommodate a large number of guests. The dining room is very spacious; wide verandahs surround the building, which is two and a half storeys high. A furnace has been installed, and modern plumbing is found throughout the building. Bath rooms will be found on each floor, and every possible arrangement has been made for the comfort and convenience of the patrons who frequent this popular point, one of the finest on the whole chain of inland waters.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF RHEUMATISM

THE CAUSE An excess of uric acid and ureates are deposited in the tissues of the body and joints, causing aches and pains which are called rheumatic.

All the various causes of rheumatism, such as the acute, articular, muscular and gout, have the same common cause—Uric Acid.

To effect a satisfactory cure the uric acid must be removed. This can only be done by introducing into the circulation a remedy which will dissolve the uric acid and stimulate the action of the excretory organs.

No Case That Ferrozone Can't Cure

The remarkable success of Ferrozone is due to the fact that it attacks the disease in the blood. It goes right to the root and cause of the trouble.

Ferrozone is a perfect solvent for uric acid and quickly destroys its evil effect. It stimulates and quickens the sluggish circulation and drives every trace of rheumatic poison out of the system.

Rheumatism Can't Last If FERROZONE is Used.

We have conclusive proof of this. The strongest possible endorsements from people who have been cured after all else failed. If you suffer from rheumatism yourself, or in case you have a friend or relative subject to this disease, read the following—they tell their own tale.

LIFE-LONG CRIPPLE CURED

Mr. Louis Noll, 15 Fulton street, New York, N. Y., writes: "Ever since boyhood I have been a sufferer from rheumatism. My joints were twisted and swollen, and the pain at times was really intense. I used gallons of liniments, vapor baths, and other treatments, but was first noticeably relieved by Ferrozone. It cured me perfectly after taking twelve boxes."

Mr. Henry Heer, Pharmacist, 23 Eldridge Ave., New York, vouches for Mr. Noll's absolute cure. He says: "Mr. Noll has been freed from chronic rheumatism by Ferrozone. For years he has not been so well, and today shows no signs of rheumatic trouble. It is a pleasure to recommend Ferrozone."

The BEST remedy for rheumatism that science has produced is Ferrozone—it is unquestionably the only sure and lasting cure. Sold everywhere by druggists. Price 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50—by mail to any address if price is forwarded to N. C. POLSON & CO., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

Over 1000 Books Sold On Saturday

There were actually retailed at the Peterborough Bookstore on Saturday over one thousand paper bound books — a record of book sales that, it is safe to say, never occurred in Peterborough before. The Street & Smith novels at 5c each or 8 for 35c., are a marvel of cheapness, and the titles are all taking.

The phenomenal success of this sale furnishes additional proof of the value of advertising, to those who keep their eyes open. The balance of the 2500 volumes of these novels will be sold this week at the same sensational prices.

The Missionary Anniversary

Next Sunday the annual missionary services will be held in Charlotte street and George street Methodist churches. In the morning Rev. Dr. Cade will preach at George street, and Rev. Dr. Brechen at Charlotte street. These preachers will alternate at the evening service. It will be remembered that these services were announced to take place some time ago, but circumstances prevented, and they were postponed. Both these men are prominent preachers in the Methodist church.

A Church With No Liabilites Is Charlotte Street

Annual Reports Presented by Different Organizations of That Church Show Most Satisfactory State of Affairs—Great Progress Made During Pastorate of Rev. W. J. Jolliffe—Receipts Greater Than Ever Before in Church's History.

ANNAUAL MEETING TO BE HELD THURSDAY

A church with no liabilities. That's what Charlotte street Methodist church is. Such institutions are pretty scarce, too. Copies of the annual financial report of the Charlotte street church were presented yesterday to those who attended. In preparation for the annual business meeting of the church, which will be held on Thursday next, leaflets showing the state of the finances of the church were distributed throughout the church, and these reports were most encouraging indeed. The statement of assets and liabilities on December 31 must have been particularly so to those interested in the material progress of the church, for it showed that while the assets were $19,296.65, divided as follows: Church property $19,000 and cash on hand $296.65, there were no liabilities whatever, a statement which very few churches are able to make.

REV. W. J. JOLLIFFE, B. C. L., Pastor of Charlotte St. Church. Just Closed It's Most Prosperous Year.

The auditors' report, prepared by Messrs. A. B. Cunningham and Jas. McCreary, stated that the total receipts for the past year were $6,117, which was $300 in advance of the receipts in any previous year, and more than $900 in advance of the yearly income at the commencement of the present pastorate.

The general summary shows the receipts to be as follows:

Trustee Board, receipts for 1905	$1159 15
Quarterly Board, receipts for 1905	1872 93
Missionary—Regular Fund	429 76
" Woman's Auxiliary	86 12
" Olive Mission Band	92 49
Educational and Superannuation Coll.	131 88
Ladies' Aid	275 91
Y. M. Guild	57 98
Epworth League	53 78
Sunday School, regular receipts	652 00
Sunday School Building Fund	1005 00
Total—	$6117 00

Of the receipts of the Trustee Board, $1,396.15 were from pew rents, while in the receipts of the Quarterly Board, the Envelope Committee contributed $1,705.77. Mr. R. Neil is secretary-treasurer of the Trustee Board, and Mr. R. J. Kidd of the Quarterly Board.

Women's Missionary Society.

The report of this society, of which the officers are: President, Mrs. Kilgour; recording-secretary, Mrs. J. K. Moore, and treasurer, Mrs. Allen, shows that the total receipts were $86.12, of which $36 was from membership fees and $27.02 from Easter thank offering. The expenditures were $66.50 sent to the branch treasurer, and $3.98 for expenses, leaving a balance on hand of $15.64.

Young Men's Guild.

The report of this branch of the church's work shows that the receipts of the year, including a balance on hand at the first of 1905 of $5.52, were $57.98, and the expenditures $28.00, leaving a balance on hand to the credit of the general funds of the guild of $23.27, and in the furnishing fund of $7.71. The report is signed by Mr. Wm. Galbraith, president; Mrs. D. D. Moore, secretary, and Mr. E. T. Carr, treasurer.

"Olive" Mission Band.

This progressive society, named after the late Olive Kidd, who was a member, reported receipts of $92.49, $29.15 of which were the receipts at the Japanese social and $5 donated by Mr. and Mrs. Kidd. During the year $25 was donated towards the education of a pupil in Chentu school, China, and $10 were given to the Children's Aid Society. There were other incidental expenses, and the balance on the bank at the close of the year was $47.13. This report is signed by Mrs. Robt. Neil, president; Miss Lulu Bushnell, secretary, and Miss Marion Lyle, treasurer.

Sunday School.

The Charlotte street Sunday school is a very energetic and prosperous organization as the reports presented show. The receipts were $842.81, and expenses, $465.31 for supplies, and $200 paid to building fund. The credit balance is $157.47. The building fund receipts were $4.905, of which $1.005 was paid by subscription and $3,500 by loans. The expenditures on this account were $3,795.29 to the building and painting contractors, and $659.50 for furnishings, lighting and heating. The balance on hand is $50.15. The superintendent of the Sunday school is Mr. R. J. Kidd, and the secretary-treasurer, Mr. P. Hamilton.

Epworth League.

The Epworth League raised $30.50 during the year chiefly by missionary collections, which, with the balance on hand of $23.22, made the total receipts $53.78. The expenditures were $18.15, and the credit balance $35.58. The executive officers are: President, Mr. A. S. Armstrong; secretary, Miss L. Thomas; treasurer, Miss F. Wilson.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid Society last year had receipts of $275.90, the principal sources of revenue being $81 from bazaar and $110 from thank offering. They gave $200 to the Sunday school building fund, had a number of incidental expenses, and closed the year with $19.20 in the treasury. The president of the society is Mrs. W. H. Morris, the secretary Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, and the treasurer Mrs. M. B. Lyle.

At the annual congregational meeting, which will be held on Thursday, more detailed reports in reference to the progress of the different church organizations so far as increase of membership, and the details of the work accomplished outside of the financial aspect, will be presented, but inasmuch as the spiritual life of a church is generally considered to be indicated by the state of the finances, the reports of the work accomplished along that line, if this is a criterion, will be most satisfactory. The usual congregational tea will also be held on Thursday.

As will be seen by the report of the auditors, the church has made rapid progress under the pastorate of Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, who in June of this year closes his fourth year as pastor, and since the discipline of the Methodist church forbids a longer period, he will have to leave to take another church.

BOILS ALL OVER HIS FACE AND NECK

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS DID FOR HIM WHAT FOUR DOCTORS FAILED TO DO

KENNETT, Que., July 25th, 1905.

MESSRS. THE T. MILBURN CO., LTD., TORONTO, ONT.,

DEAR SIRS:—I am writing to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I am a young man, twenty years old, and a year ago last March I began to feel dull and sick, and was greatly troubled with boils coming out on my face and neck, mostly on the latter. I would no sooner get rid of one than I would have, perhaps, five or three more appear.

I had four doctors trying to cure me but they had very little success. They would stop them for a month or six weeks and then they would be as bad as ever again.

Almost every patent medicine advertised to cure boils, I could get hold of, I tried, but still without success. At last one day, last spring, someone happened to say: "why not try again, Burdock Blood Bitters for the blood?" I was willing to try anything and immediately sent for a bottle, but at the time was doubtful if it would be of any use. However, I used that bottle and while I was taking it I began to feel better, although I still kept having a few boils but not nearly such bad ones. I did not miss any work, while otherwise, I used to miss, sometimes a week out of every month. I kept on taking this medicine until I had taken six bottles, and needless to say, I was not sorry I did so when I tell you I have not had a boil appear for the past three months. Every body was surprised when they heard that Burdock Blood Bitters had done for me what four doctors failed to do. If any sufferers are afflicted with boils, I would strongly advise them to use B.B.B. It makes you feel like a new man. I always keep a bottle in the house, now, as I think it is a medicine that should be in every household.

Yours truly,
HENRY A. SMITH.

Rev. A. B. Reekie On Missionary Work in S. A.

Gave Two Comprehensive Discourses Yesterday—Interesting Facts Concerning Bolivia and its Inhabitants—Work is Being Carried on Very Earnestly—The Missions Are in Need of Both Men and Money to Successfully Carry Out the Work.

BAPTIST MISSIONS IN SOUTH AMERICA

Rev. A. B. Reekie, whose home is in Kincardine, Ont., and who, with Mr. Mitchell, of Pembroke, Ont., is conducting a Baptist mission station at Oruro, Bolivia, South America, gave two very interesting addresses yesterday on the progress of the work in that country. In the morning he spoke at the Murray street Baptist church, and in the evening at the Park street Baptist church, and while his addresses differed a little in detail, on both occasions they were essentially the same. He made an earnest appeal for carrying on the work. Men are needed, and money is needed. His listeners were deeply impressed with the force of his remarks, and it is likely when the special collection is taken, to be given to the furtherance of the work, it will be generous in character.

Mr. Reekie first described the route from New York to Bolivia. At New York a steamer is taken which pursues a course down the coast past the Isthmus of Panama to the coast of Chilli. From Chili rail is taken to Bolivia which is tapped by two railways from the coast. The great industry of Bolivia is the silver mining which is largely followed by foreigners. Tin and copper are also among the other minerals of the country. From an agricultural standpoint the Bolivia is practically undeveloped. There are no means of transportation from the agricultural districts although different companies are endeavouring to secure the privilege of constructing them and it is probable that in a short time when the roads are built that agriculture will be awakened from its present dormancy. The government of the country is now on a more stable basis than ever before the settlement effected between it and Chili, the neighbouring state, with regard to territory. As evidence of the increasing prosperity of Bolivia many new banks have been opened recently. The prevailing religion is Roman Catholicism, and was the only one sanctioned by the government until last September, when "all religious liberty was granted with an idea of securing a better class of foreigners. Some of the credit also is due to the splendid work of the missionaries whose campaign for the spread of the Gospel has been so conducive to good results that even the ruling element of a country that practically adheres to the one faith is not blind, but on the contrary sees and appreciates and is doing much to encourage the carrying on of the good work. The population of Bolivia is mixed and consists of Indians, half-breeds and upper class Bolivians. Foreigners intermingle very little with the natives socially, although, of course, it is necessary for them to have to do with the natives commercially. The climate in the mountainous region where Oruro is situated is good and is never higher than 90 in the shade, and never lower than zero.

The speaker referred to and described the school system of the country, and said that the boys in the national schools do not compare with the boys of our schools and the standard of national education is low. The missionaries have discovered, however, that if taken young the boys are good scholars and readily susceptible of mental training. Spanish is the official language of the country, although Indians and foreigners are freely spoken. The greatest difficulty is encountered in trying to Christianize the Indians who are to be found in Ecuador, Peru and Bolivia and it is estimated number 3,000,000.

Mr. Reekie has for some time past been speaking in Eastern Ontario and part of Quebec in the interests of the mission work. He leaves to-day to attend the student workers' congress at Nashville, Tenn. He will return to Canada before returning to Bolivia, but his visit, which will of course be in the interests of the work, will be short, as it is necessary for him to return to Oruro in the very near future and push forward the good work as quickly as possible. It is a most commendable cause and deserves the unanimous and hearty support of all true Baptists.

Flock Of Wild Geese Was Seen

Another Spring Story is at Hand —This Time From Dummer.

As an instance of the unusual mildness of the weather, it may be mentioned that a large flock of wild geese alighted on the property of Mr. Henry A. Moore, of Dummer on Saturday. It is only very rarely that those birds are found this early in the spring, and their advent has created much interest among residents of that neighbourhood.

BRAIN AND NERVE

DEPENDENT ON CERTAIN ELEMENTS OF NATURE, WHICH ARE FOUND IN

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

The Christian Scientists are right enough when they claim that the mind influences the body.

Worry, excessive mental toil and strong emotions consume nervous energy at an enormous rate.

Rest of mind and body is essential for the restoration of the exhausted nervous system.

But the mind is dependent on the brain, and the brain in turn is a bundle of nerve cells, which are nourished and sustained by pure, rich blood. Hence the absolute necessity of supplying the elements from which blood is made.

These elements of nature which go to form new rich blood and revitalize wasted and depleted nerve cells are found in splendid proportions in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

By using this great food cure you supply the material substances from which are found brain and nerve force.

By all means have a cheerful, hopeful mind, but do not depend on this to make you strong and well or you will be terribly disappointed when it is forever too late.

It may take weeks or even months to thoroughly restore your health with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, but you can be absolutely certain that every dose of the great food cure is at least of some benefit to you.

Mrs. J. B. Huffman, 266 Reid street Peterborough, Ont., and whose husband is employed at the Canadian General Electric Co., states:

"For over a year I suffered with nervous headache and feelings of weakness and dizziness would come over me. My nervous system seemed weak and exhausted, and hearing of the success of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I began using it. I am now pleased to state that the headaches do not bother me any more and my system is entirely built up and restored."

The healthful complexions, the well-rounded forms, the energy and elasticity of movements characteristic of persons who have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food are the strongest evidence of its wonderful restorative influence. 50 cents a box, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

Hon Mr. Whitney, Premier of Ontario, has, since his elevation to office, generally borne himself with dignity and reserve. But old habits cling to him. With all his ability, and with all his sense of his responsibility, some of these old habits crop out. During his years in opposition, one feature that marked Mr. Whitney, was extreme violence of language, leading to making extravagant statements, no doubt honestly uttered, but under the impulse of excitement, exaggerated to a point not warranted by the facts. A recent example of the recrudescence of this habit in Mr. Whitney's declaration, in relation to Mr. Hastings, the dismissed license inspector of Toronto — that he was a "Grit heeler," unfit to discharge the duties of license inspector. There is no evidence forthcoming, and those who profess to know, say that there is no evidence in existence to show that Mr. Hastings did not do his duty faithfully as license inspector, and there is therefore no grounds for the strong language of Hon. Mr. Whitney. Mr. Whitney is placed in a difficult position. He cannot personally know all that affects the conduct of officials, and he must get his information from the faithful members of the party. And when, as is too much the case, these have a personal interest in blackening the character of officials, with an eye to vacancies being created for "the boys," the information furnished is, to say the least, likely to be rather highly coloured. The spoils system which, if Mr. Whitney has not introduced, he has, in practice, encouraged, inevitably leads to just such conditions — clamour for office, and necessarily if the clamour for office is heeded, decapitation of the Liberal officials to make room for the faithful.

Canadas Trade; How It Is Growing

Will This Year Reach the Five Hundred Million Mark.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the Great Liberal banquet in Toronto on February 21st in the course of his great speech thus referred to the growing trade of Canada:—

This year our trade, I have reason to believe, will reach the $500,000,000 mark, (Applause). With such an increase before you I have the proud satisfaction of saying to you, my fellow-countrymen, that Canada occupies no mean place amongst the commercial nations of the world. I can say, and say with perfect truth and accuracy, that today the trade of Canada, judging by imports and exports and according to the figures of population, places Canada third of the nations of the world in the scale of trade. (Prolonged applause.) Canada comes third, immediately after Great Britain, which comes immediately after Belgium, which is the first. In the year which closed 31st December, 1904, the trade of Belgium, imports and exports, Was $966,-617,333. The population of the kingdom according to the last census, which was taken in 1900, was 6,693,548 souls or a total of $144.41 for every head of the population of Belgium, the highest record in the world. Let us incline ourselves in honour of little Belgium. Next to it comes Great Britain, and the trade of the United Kingdom for the year closing 31st December, 1904, was $4,145,181,718, and the population, according to the census of 1901, was 41,409,091, or a proportion per head of the population of total trade of $99.62. The trade of Canada for the year ending 30th June, 1905, was $452,-789,600, and the population of Canada, as you know, by the last census, was 5,371,315, or a total of trade per head of the population of $84.30. (Cheers.) Our place was the third of the nations of the earth in the commercial scale."

It is thus to be seen that the total trade of Canada has more than doubled in the ten years since the Laurier Government took power in 1896. That year the total trade of Canada was $239,025,360. This year Sir Wilfrid says it will reach $560,000,000.

A FAMILY PROBLEM.

In this matter of marrying and giving in marriage, I have struck an authentic as well as modern instance, which has rattled me as badly as "Punch, brothers, punch, punch with care," once got away with the mental equilibrium of a confiding public. Call it the marital labyrinth, Hymen's paradox, the "What-am-I-anyhow!" or anything else you please.

It has set my head going like a teetotum — you are welcome to it, hoping five minutes attention will find you enjoying the same blessing.

A father, son and grandson married three sisters.

That looks simple enough, doesn't it?

It hasn't dawned on you yet?

Well, see here:

1. Amos, the father, married Abigail.
2. Benjamin, son of Amos, married Betsy.
3. Charles, son of Benjamin, married Caroline.

What then?

Amos is brother to his son.
Amos is brother to his grandson.
Amos is grandfather to his daughter.
Amos is father to his wife.
Amos is father to his grandson.
Amos is his own grandfather, his own son, and brother-in-law to himself.
Benjamin is brother to his father.
Benjamin is brother to his son.
Benjamin is brother to his mother.
Benjamin is brother to his daughter.
Benjamin is the son of his sister.
Benjamin is the husband of his sister.
Charles is brother to his father.
Charles is brother to his grandfather.
Charles is brother to his mother.
Charles is brother to his grandmother.
Charles is grand-nephew to his mother.
Charles is grand-nephew to his wife.
Charles is the grandchild of his aunt.
Charles is married to another aunt.
Charles is the son of his aunt.
Charles is the husband of his sister.

There are several other things, which it would strain my intellect to think of.

Figure it out yourself, if you please. Go at it thoroughly, comprehensively and exhaustively. Don't give it up. But remember there still remains the relationship of the women to wrestle with.

When you get that all settled to your satisfaction, I will simply add that each of these couples are blessed with several children. Now, tackle that, and see where you will fetch up. And yet none of these people are idiots, not one is in a lunatic asylum. Perhaps the secret of their immunity is that they don't bother their heads about their double-and-twisted relationship at all. —Com.

A Citizen Of Prominence

The picture of the former military gentleman, in the Examiner of Saturday, fooled a good many people, and though there is considerable resemblance between Mr. John Nugent to-day and when the picture was taken, there were very few persons who named him correctly. Mr. Nugent himself did not know that his picture was to be published in this series, and he hardly recognized himself, so that the others who failed to do so may be pardoned.

Quite a number of persons had the idea that it looked like Mr. F. J. R. Mitchell, and the first message to be received, that of Mr. H. H. Hillier, was to the effect that the picture was one of Mr. Mitchell. It was 'phoned in from Mr. Mitchell's store, too.

Comparatively few persons guessed it correctly, the first to do so being Mr. W. B. Armstrong; and others were Mr. George Cochrane, Mr. D. Devine, Mr. D. H. Moore, Mr. Harry Phelan, Mr. J. P. Cunningham, Mr. John Kincaid, and Miss Mattie Robertson.

Watch the paper next Saturday, and see if your will recognize the gentleman whose picture will be published that day.

CORRESPONDENCE ON CURRENT TOPICS.

Another View Of The Investigation

To the Editor of the Examiner:

I have read with considerable interest several letters which have recently appeared in the Review, concerning the reported dismissal of Mr. R. B. Rogers from the office of Chief Engineer of the Trent Canal. Thinking that there might be some foundation for the statements made in these letters concerning the alleged unfair treatment displayed towards Mr. Rogers, I have inquired into the matter through independent channels and desire to make a few comments on the statements so published in the Review.

I shall be frank in my statements and admit that my political feelings are Liberal, and therefore I am not in sympathy with the policy generally known as the spoils system.

I may say that I am intensely amused at the letter signed by Dr. Gray, who so gallantly came forward to the assistance of Mr. Rogers. As there are very few statements of fact contained in the doctor's letter I should say that it would have very little weight with any person who is at all conversant with the facts concerning the recent investigation which was held in connection with the Trent Canal construction. However, in view of the wholesale slaughter of Grit officials by the Whitney Government, the doctor, no doubt feels that his head, too, may drop into the basket at anytime, but that a few letters such as that published in the Review a few nights ago, and signed by him, might have the effect of retaining him in the position of Coroner for a short while longer at least.

The doctor asserts with much indignation that it would be unjust to hold Mr. Rogers responsible for the work of his subordinates, it being a well known fact that many persons are given positions in the service, not for their ability or intelligence but purely for political reasons. The doctor will find a great many Conservatives agree with him on this point at the present time. The Tory party of the province at the present time is declaring that too many of the Justices of the Peace and Coroners were appointed by the late Provincial Government, not for their ability to fill their respective positions but by reason of their political put. On this point I will not argue with the doctor for he evidently knows what he is talking about when he makes this statement regarding appointments. He holds one and I do not.

Dr. Gray makes the statement that Mr. Rogers did not have a fair trial, and Mr. G. Garnette, who also writes a letter to the Review on the same subject asks, "Who is Mr. Holgate?" The facts in this particular connection are that there were certain public statements made in the daily press of the province to the effect that certain defects existed in the construction of the reaches to the lift lock at Peterborough, and that there were grave defects and carelessness in the construction of the works at Kirkfield, and that the Government should endeavour to find out who was responsible for the alleged faulty constructions. As the stories in circulation reflected on Mr. R. B. Rogers the Chief Engineer of the canal, that gentleman very promptly asked the Minister for an investigation by an engineer who would be unbiased. The Commissioner appointed was Mr. Henry Holgate, C.E., of Montreal, who is an engineer wholly devoid of anything like partizanship, either political or otherwise, and with no earthly intention but to give a true report of the facts as he found them. Whatever political leanings Mr. Holgate may have, are wholly Conservative, and Mr. Holgate's political leanings when in Peterborough some years ago were certainly not with the Liberal party. My inquiries have further lead me to understand that Mr. Holgate is one of the leading engineers of Canada, having had a large and varied experience in hydraulic works. In fact he has just completed a large power plant on the Spanish River for New York capitalists. This plant was built under his special supervision and designing at a cost of one million dollars. As to whether Mr. Holgate ever built a lift lock, I desire to state that he has not; neither had Mr. Rogers. However, this is not the question at issue. The question is as to the manner in which the approaches to the lift locks, both here and at Kirkfield were built.

To my mind there is no excuse for Dr. Gray's not knowing who Mr. Holgate is, whilst there is some excuse for Mr. Garnette who, I understand has not been a resident of this country for more than eight months, and having been in the personal employ of Mr. Rogers for a portion of that time it is quite natural that he would sympathise with a former employer.

Dr. Gray would lead us to believe that Mr. Rogers did not have a fair trial. Mr. Garnette says that he was not given a chance at all. Neither of these statements are correct. Mr. Rogers was not prosecuted in any sense of the term. The Commissioner made an inquiry into a certain reported state of affairs, to be determined by the evidence of the very men on the canal themselves. Consequently, the public can easily see the impropriety of entering into any controversy about the evidence taken—of what evidence?—evidence of statements made themselves. This is the true and exact position of the inquiry; there was no prosecution; there were no witnesses on behalf of the Government other than the men themselves, being questioned, and it was on their own statements that condemnation of their doings has taken place; and on the statements of the very individuals themselves five of them were asked to resign—Liberals and Conservatives alike. So that there is no excuse—only ignorance—for anyone to state that there was not a fair trial, since there was no trial. The evidence submitted to the Commissioner by the engineers themselves, these were the statements that caused their resignations to be asked for, and the Minister or Government, if you wish to say so, merely accepted the recommendation of the Commissioner appointed to obtain from the men in charge of the work such information as he could glean with regard to the manner of the construction of the work.

If Mr. Rogers desired, he had the right to have special counsel, but he stated himself he did not want any. If Mr. Rogers felt the investigation was being conducted in a biased manner, why did he not object? Why did he not say so? No one ever hinted, except the two gentlemen referred to, (who by the way have nothing whatever about it,) that the Commissioner was not acting impartially. Mr. Rogers, I believe, was quite satisfied with the appointment of Mr. Holgate. It was only after the report of the Commissioner had been made known that any dissatisfaction was said to exist with the appointment of Mr. Holgate. Mr. Rogers was present during the entire investigation; he heard all the evidence submitted, including the evidence of those of his own staff—the inspectors and contractors on the work. He was asked whether he had any evidence to offer in rebuttal, or anything to say in his own behalf, and he replied he had nothing further to offer.

It is alleged by Dr. Gray and Mr. Garnette that Mr. Rogers had incompetent men under him. If Mr. Rogers had incompetent men under him, that does not relieve him in any way from responsibility. Why did Mr. Rogers not report this matter to the Government? If incompetent men were submitted to him, it shows his absolute incompetency for the position of Chief Engineer if he accepted them and allowed them to act. He should then and there have fixed the responsibility. It is well known that a Chief Engineer is held responsible for work performed under him, and it is his duty to report to his employer when anyone recommended to him is incompetent; his own honour being at stake in the matter, he should not have tolerated for a moment any incompetent person under him.

That the report of the Commissioner was impartial is absolutely shown by the fact that the resignations of three Liberals have been asked for, and these have all admitted that the work was done in a slipshod manner, and I am told that the work shows a lack of serious appreciation of the importance of the great work in hand, and that, the results are entirely due to lax supervision. It is said the plans and specifications were not clear and adequate to secure first-class work, having regard to the service for which it was intended, which was very clearly shown at the investigation by the engineers themselves; it was also shown that the superintending engineer did not give the personal attention to the extent that the importance of such a work demanded, and that too much reliance was placed by him upon his staff and on the contractors. This matter will perhaps be better discussed when I have the report of the Commissioner before me, and I may have something more to say upon the subject when the report is obtainable. Dr. Gray and Mr. Garnette have great sympathy for Mr. Rogers; they say that he has not been fairly treated for political reasons; when, as a matter of fact, and I know whereof I speak, that many leading Liberals in Peterborough would have preferred to have seen the conditions such that the Commissioner appointed would not have had to report as he has done. I am not one of those who believe in the spoils system, I am very sorry that the Conservatives have introduced it in Peterborough. We have always got along, politically, agreeably in Peterborough, until the Whitney Government came into power. When a Liberal was appointed, he held office during good behaviour; when a Conservative was appointed, he did likewise. There was no clamouring for the scalp of anybody. It was a recognized fact that once appointed to a position, the one appointed held it during good behaviour, and there have been few deviations from this in Peterborough, until introduced recently by the Conservative Club. Has Dr. Gray any sympathy for Mr. D. H. Moore? Is he not as good a man as Mr. Maniece? Had he not more experience for the position? Is he not as competent? What about Mr. Geo. Elliott? Has anyone anything to say against him? Did he not do his work well? What about Mr. Quinn? All these gentlemen were refused re-appointment because of their Liberalism. Mr. Joseph Yelland was removed from the fisheries, Mr. Smith of Belleville, removed for Mr. George Fitzgerald, game warden. I merely mention these names, not that they have any reference whatever to the matter I commenced to discuss, but merely to show that Dr. Gray's large-heartedness, his magnificent physique, his great broad-mindedness and his tender heart called forth no tears over the political graves of these latter gentlemen referred to, but for some unaccountable reason (perhaps the Coronership,) he champions Mr. Rogers, perhaps more particularly with a view to saving his own scalp.

Mr. Garnette asks, "Was Mr. Rogers negligent of his duty?" The Commissioner reports, "Yes," and upon the evidence of the very gentlemen who themselves have been asked to resign for equal carelessness.

Yours truly,
"ONE WHO HAS READ THE PRESS."

HAPPY RESULTS OBTAINED

By the Use of the New Scalp Antiseptic

It wouldn't take long to number the hairs in the heads of some people, the reason being they haven't many to number. In most instances, however, the fault is their own. A germ at the root soon plays havoc with the most luxurious growth and causes it to fade and fall out. A remedy for this has recently been discovered, called Newbro's Herpicide; that acts by destroying the germ that does the damage, besides removing all impurities from the scalp. In addition it permits new life and vigour to enter the scalp, and happy results are sure to be obtained from its use. Try it. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, Special Agents.

BAILEY—DWYER

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Peter's Cathedral this morning at 8 o'clock, when Mr. Hugh Bailey, 203 Carlisle street, East City, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Dwyer, of Toronto, Rev. Father McColl officiating. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful watch and chain, while his gift to the bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Hogan, was a gold bracelet. The bride was gowned in beautiful heliotrope silk and the bridesmaid wore a pretty blue dress of lady's cloth trimmed with cream silk. After the wedding breakfast had been partaken of at the residence of Mr. P. Hogan, East City, who is a cousin of the bride, the happy couple left for Toronto, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Bailey has lived here for the last three years, and his bride has resided in the city since last Christmas. Both were highly esteemed by all who knew them.

The Preparations For Lent Are Being Made

Rectors of Anglican Churches Issue Letters Giving List of Services and Special Speakers--Some Suggestions as to Proper Observance of the Season--A Time for Self Denial.

In the three Anglican Churches yesterday the rectors made special reference to the approaching Lenten season and suggestions to their parishioners as to the proper way of observing Lent were made.

The usual special services will be held in each of these churches, announcements of their services being made yesterday.

Booklets were issued by the rectors of St. Luke's and All Saints' giving details of the programme for Lent, while in St. John's the rector gave verbal injunctions.

ST. LUKE'S.

The rector issued a letter in which some general observations on Lent are made and on answer to the question "What is Lent?" is given.

The letter in giving some suggestion for keeping Lent, refers to Repentance, Self-Examination, Self-Denial, Prayer and Bible Reading.

At the Sunday morning services special sermons will be preached as well as at night.

For the Wednesday evening services, which will be held in the Church, the following special preachers have been secured:—

Rev. C. J. James, M. A., Toronto; Rev. R. A. Armstrong, M. A., Orillia; Rev. Wm. Major, Peterborough; The Venerable J. F. Sweeny, D. D., The Venerable G. Warren, B. A., Rev. Wm. C. Allen, M. A.

Services on Ash Wednesday, Holy Communion at 10.30 a. m. and Evensong and address 8 p. m.

ALL SAINTS.

In his letter to his parishioners the rector says:—

Allow your religion to occupy the first place.

Elevate your standard of life, and strive, by Abstinence, Prayer and Study of God's Word, to attain to it.

Abstain from all social functions and entertainments of all kinds.

Fast from favourite foods, lay aside their value and offer it to God on Easter Day as an evidence of self-denial.

Pray much in secret, and attend if possible all the services in God's House.

Examine yourself in preparation for the Holy Communion, and partake at every opportunity.

Do not read novels, but study and meditate upon, God's Word, learn His will, and pray for grace to do it.

The following services will be held:—

Ash Wednesday.—Holy Communion, 10.30 a. m.; Evensong and Address, 8.00 p. m.

Week Days.—Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 5.00 p. m.; Tuesday, 8.00 p. m.; Thursday, 7.30 p. m.

Sundays.—Morning Prayer 11.00 a. m.; Evensong, 7.00 p. m.

Holy Communion.—First Sunday in month, 8.30 a. m.; Third Sunday in month, 11.00 a. m.

Good Friday.—Morning Prayer 10.30 a. m.; Evensong 8.00 p. m.

Easter Day.—Holy Communion 8.00 a. m. 11.00 a. m.; Morning Prayer 11.00 a. m.; Children's Service 3.00 p. m.; Evensong 7.00 p. m.

Special services will be held on Tuesday evenings each week, when illustrated lectures will be given.

ST. JOHN'S.

As is the annual custom a part of the observance of the Lenten season at St. John's will consist of midweek services with addresses appropriate to the occasion delivered by visiting clergymen.

On Ash Wednesday, Feb. 28th, the beginning of Lent, the services will be conducted by Rev. H. Caplan, of Havelock, at 11.00 a. m. and 7.00 p. m., the subject of the evening address being "Obedience".

The subsequent evening address will be given by the following clergymen:—

Wednesday, March 7th, Rev. Canon Baldwin, All Saints, Toronto.

Wednesday, March 14th, Rev. Canon Starr, M. A., St. George's Cathedral, Kingston.

Wednesday, March 21st, Rev. F. G. Plummer, St. Augustine's, Toronto.

Wednesday, March 28th, Rev. C. James, M. A., Church of the Redeemer, Toronto.

Wednesday, April 4th, Rev. E. L. King, M. A., St. Thomas, Toronto.

Wednesday, April 11th, Rev. Canon Davidson.

RUBY MORGAN

The death occurred on Saturday of Ruby Morgan, aged ten months, only child of Mr. Fred Morgan, of Buffalo. It will be remembered by residents of the city that the mother of the child, who was a sister of Mr. F. E. Walden, formerly of Peterborough it some time ago.

LILY REID CHOATE

In the death of Miss Lily Reid Choate, which occurred at Rochester yesterday, there passed away a lady who was a former resident of Peterborough, and who had many relatives in this city. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. J. Reid, of Burleigh, and was an adopted daughter of the late T. G. Choate, of Warsaw. She was about 35 years of age and had been ill for a long time with consumption. For some years she lived in Rochester, where her sister, Mrs. Emma Choate, still resides.

Mr. A. P. Choate is a brother by adoption, and Mrs. Payne and Mrs. (Rev.) McKnight, city, are half-sisters.

The remains will be brought to Peterborough for interment and are expected to arrive to-night. The time of the funeral has not been decided upon.

LIONEL STEWART

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. William John Stewart, lot 13, concession 15, Otonabee, will sympathise with them in the loss of their youngest son, Lionel, whose death occurred at 11.45 last night, aged eight years and four months.

The deceased had been ill for about six weeks with pneumonia. He was a bright little fellow and was a favourite with all who knew him. One brother, James Stewart, survives.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence of his parents, Otonabee, to the Little Lake cemetery.

JULIA ELEANOR DOHERTY.

The funeral of Julia Eleanor Doherty, the youngest child of Patrick Doherty, Otonabee, aged five months, will take place to-morrow morning to St. Peter's cemetery.

GEORGE STREET.

The Sunday School Board will meet on Wednesday night.

A meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be held on Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

ST. JOHN'S.

At both services at St. John's yesterday, the Rector, Rev. Canon Davidson, made special reference to the Lenten season which begins on Wednesday—Ash Wednesday. He referred especially to the duty of fasting and abstinence, or some form of self-denial, which the church and a recognition of the significance of the season impose, and to the necessity of members of the church showing the world by the manner of their observance of the solemn season that they were living up to their belief. An announcement was also made of the special mid-week services, and of the visiting clergymen who would deliver the special addresses, a list of which appears in another column.

Yesterday Mr. R. J. Devey, the newly appointed organist and choirmaster of St. John's, entered upon his Sunday duties, and the indications are, that so far as the choir is concerned, the efficiency of the musical portion of the services will be improved. The boy section, especially, yesterday showed a distinct improvement. At the morning service, Master Cyril Devey sang in excellent style, the solo in a hymn sung by the boys. At the evening service, the offertory anthem was "Conquering Kings," in which Mrs. Devey sang the solo with very pleasing effect.

THE "INVICTUS" SHOE

THE INVICTUS

A shoe for well-dressed men. Costs enough to insure a perfect shoe, but is as low as a shoe of this character can be sold. Seen beside a cheaper shoe, the difference is unmistakable.

Men who want appearance, satisfying wear, and solid comfort, should wear the "Invictus Shoe."

Stony Lake Ice Is 24 Inches Thick

Local people who have been making arrangements for the ice supply for their summer cottages at Stony Lake, report that the mild weather has not had much effect up there on the ice crop, and that the ice now being taken out of the lake is 24 inches thick.

An Insurance Inquiry By The Government

Dominion Government Appoints a Commission.

THE NAMES ARE WITHHELD

Commission's Report to Be Presented to Parliament During the Coming Session So That If Amendments to the Act Are Found to Be Necessary People's Representatives Will Have Fullest Information.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—(Globe Special)—The Government have determined to appoint a commission to investigate the whole question of insurance in Canada.

This announcement was made Friday evening by Hon. W. S. Fielding, who is still confined to his house owing to his recent accident. The gentlemen who are to act as commissioners have been chosen, but for the present the Finance Minister withholds their names. It is expected that their appointment will be approved at the next meeting of the Cabinet on Tuesday next, and that they will commence the investigation within a few days.

The commission's report will be presented to Parliament during the coming session in sufficient time to enable any necessary changes in the insurance act to be made forthwith.

The officials of the insurance branch of the Finance Department have been closely following the recently concluded inquiries that have been going on in the adjoining republic into the operations of United States companies, with the object of profiting by the experience of the States in amendments which it is proposed to make to the insurance act of Canada.

The department claims that the inspection of Canadian companies during the current year by the Superintendent of Insurance and his officials has been very rigid.

Information now at his disposal might be sufficient to enable the Minister of Finance to submit the amendments to Parliament at its approaching session, but Mr. Fielding is of opinion that in view of the widespread interest in the subject it is desirable, before Parliament is called upon to move, to have a more general investigation, which shall be perfectly free and open, so that all matters of interest to policyholders may be looked into.

It is not to be assumed that any irregularities exist in connection with Canadian life insurance, nevertheless in view of the unrest which naturally prevails as a result of the New York disclosures the public would like to be assured that the insurance system of the Dominion is sound, and that if there are any defects they will be promptly remedied by legislation.

FOUND A SKELETON.

Body of a Sailor Lies a Year Before Discovery at Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Feb. 26.—With the finding of the body of a man, believed to be that of Carl Machin, the police believe they have discovered evidence of a murder. The body was found in the gorge at the foot of the high cliff at the foot of Cleveland avenue, by two boys. It was a most inaccessible spot, and, from its condition, had lain there for almost a year.

A post-mortem examination disclosed a clean cut in the skull, extending from a point just over the eyes, up through the frontal bone, a distance of 21-2 inches.

It is the opinion of the coroner that the wound was made by the blade of an axe for, had the wound resulted from the fall, the fracture would have been more jagged. Other fractures of the skull were evidently caused by the drop of 75 feet to the rocks below.

A diary in his pocket gave the name, "Carl Machin," and showed him to be a sailor. He was discharged from the steamship Liverpool at Philadelphia in January, 1905.

There was no money on the body, which leads the police to believe that robbery was the motive for murder.

Negro Shot to Death.

Shreveport, La., Feb. 26.—A mob of 500 men Saturday shot to death Wilts Page, a negro, aged 30 years, and afterwards burned the body, near Bienville. The negro was suspected of being the person who attempted to assault Sarah Grant, 11 years old, Friday. Page was identified by the girl.

Destruction Of Car Works By Fire Saturday

Intercolonial Railway and Moncton Have $1,000,000 Loss.

ONE MAN LOSES HIS LIFE

Over One Thousand Men Out of Work, But Minister of Railways, Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Will See That Time Lost is as Short as Possible—Rumors That Fire Was of Incendiary Origin.

Moncton, N. B., Feb. 26.—The greatest conflagration in the history of Moncton and one of the costliest which the province has ever experienced, the splendid Intercolonial Railway shops, an immense establishment, which gives employment to over one thousand men, were entirely destroyed Saturday evening.

The loss is about one million dollars. The fire broke out about 9 o'clock, and in less than two hours everything was wiped out.

One life is known to be lost and other employes are missing.

The unfortunate man is Graham Jones, an employe of the paint shop, where the fire is believed to have originated.

The paint shop, the freight car shed, the old electric light station, the boiler room, the brick car shop, the boiler shop, the brass foundry, and the master mechanic's office were all burned.

In the car shops were a large number of passenger cars. Some were saved, but the dining car Yamaska, valued at $17,000; the Pullman car Carcapeda, $18,000; General Manager Pottinger's official car, worth $15,000, and three first-class cars, valued at $10,000 each, were totally destroyed, as well as six second-class, postal and colonist cars burned, valued at about $3,000.

Without the railway shops the City of Moncton would be but a hamlet, and great anxiety is expressed lest the Government will not rebuild here, although Hon. Mr. Emmerson, Minister of Railways, has wired that them en will be provided with work as soon as possible.

Several unmantelled locomotives in a shop nearby were saved with the greatest difficulty.

There are rumors that the fire was of an incendiary origin, but it is impossible to certify them.

One man says he saw a person sneaking away from the building shortly before the flames broke out.

CHAPMAN'S BLOOD MARKS.

Lead to Recovery of Trapper's Body After Shooting.

Gananoque, Feb. 26.—Arthur Chapman, while trapping on the Gananoque River, Friday, accidentaly shot himself.

Not returning home search was made for him, and blood marks were found on the ice, and further down the river, below the Grand Trunk Railway pump house, his boat was found with his cap and gun in it.

Further search was made, and grappling irons put in the water near where the blood marks were on the ice and his body was recovered.

Upon examination, it was found he had shot himself through the left side. The gun must have been close, as his coat was burned. Deceased was about 35 years of age, and leaves a wife and family of three children. His father is Joseph Chapman of Maple Grove, near Gananoque.

Cars Go Over Embankment.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 26.—Thirty-two people were injured, three fatally, Saturday evening in two street car wrecks on the Milvale and Etna division of the Pittsburg Railway Co. The cars went over embankments 45 and 15 feet respectively. Nearly all the passengers on both cars were hurt, but 32 are known to have sustained severe injuries, while three are expected to die. Spreading of rails is supposed to have caused the accident.

Twenty Passengers Hurt.

Peoria, Ills., Feb. 26.—A Toledo, Peoria and Western westbound passenger train Saturday night partly went into a ditch east of Crescent City, Ills., killing Engineer J. E. Welch of Peoria. Twenty passengers in the day coaches were bruised.

Hurt By Falling Tree.

Belleville, Feb. 26.—Daniel Vardy, an old and respected citizen of Dunganon was working in the woods when a lodged tree fell upon him, almost crushing out his life.

Fatal Panic During Fire.

Gambier, Ohio, Feb. 26.—The buildings of Kenyon Military Academy were burned at an early hour Saturday morning and are a total loss. Three cadets are missing and at least eight are injured, three of whom will probably die. The younger students forgot their military training and rushed about in a panic, striking and crying for help.

Three persons are dead, nine seriously injured and several others more or less hurt, as a result of the fire. The dead and injured are all students of the military academy.

COAL STRIKE OFF.

If Vice-President Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, Reads the Signs Aright.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 26.—In a statement issued last night to the Associated Press, Vice-President T. L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America, declares that there will be no strike of the mine workers on April 1, saying the operators will restore the reduction accepted by the miners two year ago, and perhaps more.

"You may accept one proposition as a fixed fact—that there will be no general strike in the mining industry April 1. The operators will restore the reduction accepted by the miners two years ago, and perhaps more. Mr. F. L. Robbins of Pennsylvania and Mr. Taylor of Illinois, leader of the operators, recognized their untenable position at Indianapolis, and have gracefully submitted to the inevitable and will pay an advance to the miners. A general strike will be averted. Business will not be paralyzed by industrial strife.

"The anthracite operators must now grant an advance in view of the action of the bituminous operators.

"The details will be worked out later, and probably through a special national convention of the mine workers."

Not So R-assuring.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 26.—Francis L. Robbins, chairman of the executive board of the Pittsburg Coal Co., was not in the city last night, but earlier in the day he said: "There has been no change in the situation. The dispute remains identically as it has been since the adjournment of the joint conference in Indianapolis."

SHOOTING AT WARSAW.

Democrats and Socialists In a Bloody Internecine Fight—One Killed and Fifteen Wounded.

Warsaw, Feb. 26.—Another encounter between the National Democrats and the Socialists, the latter being bent on breaking up campaign meetings held by the former, took place yesterday at Praga, a suburb of the city. One man was killed and 15 men were wounded. Troops surrounded the hall where the meeting was being held and many arrests were made and a large quantity of weapons confiscated.

Privy Councillor Ivanoff Shot.

Warsaw, Feb. 26.—Privy Councillor Ivanoff, director-general of the Vistula Railroad, was shot and killed on Bracka street Saturday by an unknown man.

M. Ivanoff was energetic in suppressing the recent railroad strike, and dismissed many employes for participating in it.

Socialists Kill Evictors.

Warsaw, Feb. 26.—A Socialist proclamation issued Saturday summons farm laborers and servants on estates to strike when work in the fields is resumed. The Socialists on Friday night shot and killed two agents of landlords for evicting tenants.

STRICKEN IN THE PULPIT.

Rev. Dr. Willoughby of Brantford Dies Suddenly in Blenheim.

Blenheim, Feb. 26.—Rev. Dr. Willoughby of Brantford, who had been assisting in special services in the Methodist Church here every evening since last Wednesday, collapsed in the pulpit yesterday morning at the conclusion of the service, which he had conducted. The physician was immediately summoned, but he was beyond human aid and passed away in a few hours.

Dr. Willoughby was one of the best known ministers in the Methodist Church in Canada and was about 70 years of age. He was stationed in Toronto twenty-five years ago as pastor of the Central Methodist Church. For one year before the union of Methodism he was president of conference and was chairman of districts for many years. He was superannuated several years ago after his charge at Elora. During his life, he occupied leading pulpits of the province, at different times being stationed at Barrie, Belleville, Guelph, Simcoe, Peterboro and Kingston.

He leaves four children, his wife having predeceased him.

HEALTH OF KING EDWARD.

Reports of Sensational Papers Get a Most Practical Denial.

London, Feb. 26.—With reference to the report that King Edward is in a serious conditions of health, published in a most sensational paper here yesterday, it can be said that his Majesty is fulfilling all public functions and that he gave several audiences on Saturday, followed by a dinner in the evening, to members of the new Government.

Hamilton Workers Hold Out.

Hamilton, Feb. 26.—The garment workers met Saturday night and turned down the proposition made by the contractors, who proposed to give holidays instead of shorter hours. The workers decided Saturday to hold out for a 49-hour week.

Gen. Recamier Is Arrested In Paris, France

French General Taken Into Custody Over Church Troubles.

CROWD INSULTS M. LOUBET

Cathedral Was the Storm Centre—Notre Dame the Scene of Much Excitement—At St. Thomas Aquinas Prefect of Police Had to Force His Way Into the Sacristy—Over Twenty Arrests Made.

Paris, Feb. 26.—The famous cathedral of Notre Dame was the centre of much excitement Saturday, which later took the form of a disorderly manifestation against former President Loubet. Crowds assembled in the Place Notre Dame expecting the authorities to come and take an inventory of the chapter house and a force of 150 policemen patrolled the surrounding streets expecting trouble within the edifice; but as the authorities did not attempt an inventory this did not occur.

The crowds outside gradually increased in numbers, however, and finally several hundred persons marched to the Rue Dante, where M. Loubet has taken up his residence. The manifestants passed before the house of the former president uttering insulting cries against him. The police then drove off the crowd, which, however, reassembled and returned only to be dispersed again. A slight affray occurred between the police and the manifestants as the latter sought to turn once more, and a dozen arrests were made. The explanation of the movement against M. Loubet is that the bill for the separation of the church and state became a law during his administration.

Inventories were made at several churches yesterday. At the aristocratic church of St. Thomas Aquinas, the prefect of police with a strong body of men had to force his way through a long passage into the sacristy owing to the resistance offered by a number of the parishioners. The priests then refused to hand over the keys and the prefect caused the safes to be broken open. An inventory of the property then was made.

Ten arrests were made, General Recamier being among those taken into custody.

A Test Will Tell

What Liquozone Can Do for You--and It Is Free.

You who are waiting—we ask you again to try Liquozone; to try it at our expense. You'll regret this delay when you learn what the product means to you.

Do as millions have done—stop doubting; give Liquozone a test. Then judge it by results. Germ diseases—and there are scores of them—call for a germicide. Those are the diseases to which Liquozone best applies. Don't cling blindly to old-time remedies, if you don't find them effective. Let us prove the power of the new.

What Liquozone Is.

The virtues of Liquozone are derived solely from gases. The formula is sent to each user. The process of making requires large apparatus, and from 8 to 14 days' time. It is directed by chemists of the highest class. The object is to so fix and combine the gases as to carry into the system a powerful tonic-germicide.

Contact with Liquozone kills any form of disease germ, because germs are of vegetable origin. Yet to the body Liquozone is not only harmless, but helpful in the extreme. That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poison when taken internally. That is why medicine has been so useless in a germ disease. Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalising, purifying; yet no disease germ can exist in it.

We purchased the American rights to Liquozone after thousands of tests had been made with it. Its power had been proved, again and again, in the most difficult germ diseases. Then we offered to supply the first bottle free in every disease that required it. And over one million dollars have been spent to announce and fulfill this offer.

The result is that 11,000,000 bottles have been used, mostly in the past two years. Today there are countless cured ones, scattered everywhere, to tell what Liquozone has done.

But so many others need it that this offer is published still. In late years, science has traced scores of diseases to germ attacks. Old remedies do not apply to them. We wish to show those sick ones—at our cost—what Liquozone can do.

Where It Applies.

These are the diseases in which Liquozone has been most employed. In these it has earned its widest reputation. In all of these troubles we supply the first bottle free. And in all—no matter how difficult—we offer each user a two months' further test without the risk of a penny.

Asthma	Goitre—Gout
Abscess—Anæmia	Gonorrhœa—Gleet
Bronchitis	Hay Fever—Influenza
Blood Poison	La Grippe
Bowel Troubles	Leucorrhœa
Coughs—Colds	Malaria—Neuralgia
Consumption	Piles—Quinsy
Contagious Diseases	Rheumatism
Catarrh—Catarrh	Scrofula—Syphilis
Dysentery—Diarrhœa	Skin Diseases
Dyspepsia—Dandruff	Tuberculosis
Eczema—Erysipelas	Tumors—Ulcers
Fevers—Gall Stones	Throat Troubles

Also most forms of the following:

Kidney Troubles	Liver Troubles
Stomach Troubles	Women's Diseases

Fever, inflammation or catarrh—impure or poisoned blood—usually indicate a germ attack.

In nervous debility Liquozone acts as a vitalizer, accomplishing remarkable results.

50c. Bottle Free.

If you need Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and will pay the druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to let the product itself show you what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it today, for it places you under no obligations whatever.

Liquozone costs 50c. and $1.

Peterborough Will Play With Parry Sound

A Fine Exhibition Billed to Take Place To-night at Brock Street Rink.

This sudden change in the weather will be welcomed by all the Peterborough enthusiasts, who have been looking forward eagerly for the Parry Sound Peterborough game and it is probable that the largest crowd of the season will witness to-night's game. The northerners are a husky aggregation that have trimmed all their opponents so far this year and the locals will endeavour to make a break in their string of victories. The home team is in better shape than ever before this year and the septette that defeats them will have to be pretty fast. The most interesting feature of to-night's game and one that will probably be the biggest incentive in drawing the crowd is that the calibre of the Parry Sound seven is unknown to any local hockey followers and for that reason they may be the championship team. They must have a pretty fast line-up as they have never been defeated this year and that's saying a great deal, because they play good fast hockey in the north. The people will by all indications be on hand in large numbers and a good game is assured.

Line-Up For To-night's Game

Goal, Wason.
Point, Glover.
Cover point, Crowley.
Rover, Whitcroft.
Centre, Morgan.
Right wing, Graham.

This is the line up up of the Peterborough team to-night with Parry Sound in the semi-finals for the Intermediate Championship.

The contest will be a fast one, and the game will start at nine o'clock.

Wonderful! Lost, But Didn't Kick

Lindsay Post referring to their defeat by Port Hope on Friday says:—"Lindsay are down and out, but have no kick coming, and are perfectly satisfied that Port Hope won on their merits. Now we would wish nothing better than to see the Ontarios win the championship, and we hope to be back again in the finals with Port Hope next year. This is the first year a Lindsay hockey team have ever entered the semi-finals, and the boys have done well."

Happy Thoughts vs. Furniture Men

The Furniture Kings the latest addition to Peterborough hockey teams will make their debut to-night when they will go up against the oft tried warriors, Neal's Happy Thoughts. The game will be played at the conclusion of the senior contest and should furnish lots of excitement. As will be seen from the line-up the Kings have selected their team from nearly every furniture store in the city. Following will be the line-up:—

Happy Thoughts.		Furniture Kings.
Archibald	Goal.	Galley
E M Best	Point.	W Bellegham
Weeks	Cover Point.	J. Comstock
McNiru	Rover.	McFadden
Reid	Centre.	M. Comstock
Foley	Right Wing.	Drysdale
R Best	Left Wing.	V. Craig

To-night's Game To Start At 9 O'clock

In order to give every chance to have good ice for to-night's game, the hockey club have decided not to begin the game until 9 o'clock, not 8.30 as previously announced.

Those who intend to take in the game will please notice that the rink will not be opened until 8.30 o'clock, and the game will start sharp at nine.

HOCKEY

Parry Sound will have to make a long trip to get here and what's more they'll have to travel some to defeat the wearers of the blue and white. They fully intend to do so, however, and the game will certainly be a hot one.

• • • •

Port Hope defeated Lindsay last Friday night in Port Hope by 4-0. The ice was in better condition than it was generally expected it would be. McWilliams who played with the local juniors last year was the star for the losers. F. C. Waghorne refereed very capably. The game was clean throughout. Several Peterborough enthusiasts witnessed the contest.

• • • •

The furniture men's team and Best's Happy Thoughts will play to-night after the Peterborough-Parry Sound game.

• • • •

To-night's game will be the most important of the season.

• • • •

The George Street Library hockey team hereby challenge a second time the puck chasers of Charlotte Street Library to a game of hockey to be played whenever convenient to both teams.

Played Baseball On Saturday

Number of Players Had a Workout on T.A.S. Grounds.

Baseball in February may be all right away down south but it sounds like a fairy tale when applied to Peterborough. Nevertheless a number of players had the initial practice of the season on the T. A. S. ground on Saturday afternoon. The diamond was pretty damp, but the atmosphere was balmy enough for May.

Deranzio Was Very Lucky

Suspended Sentence for Italian Who Stole Forty-three Dollars.

Francesco Deranzio, the young Italian who was charged with having stolen $43 from another Italian, De Napri by name, and whose brother paid De Napri the money last Saturday was, was allowed to go on suspended sentence at the police court this morning. Mr. D. O'Connell, who appeared for the prisoner, entered a plea of guilty upon the court advising him if he did so the accused would be allowed to go on suspended sentence. The costs of the case amounted to $14 and were paid forthwith by Deranzio's brother.

The magistrate told Deranzio that the sentence hung over him and said if he was ever again brought before any Canadian court it would be used against him. Deranzio's defence was that he tried to locate the man he stole the money from but the evidence showed that this was not the case.

Were Honoured By Their Friends

A number of friends gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McIver, of Ops, on Thursday evening last and presented them with a handsome parlour suite and a eulogistic address. Mr. and Mrs. McIver will shortly leave Ops to take up residence in Smith Township. Fuller particulars will be given to-morrow.

Sewing Machine Fund Donations

The Examiner has received two contributions to the sewing machine fund opened by this paper and referred to on Saturday. The contributions are: East Ward, $1, friend, 50c. Other contributions will be gratefully received.

WANT AND NEED.

There's a big difference between what a baby wants and what he needs. Deny him the one, give him the other. Most babies need Scott's Emulsion—it's the right thing for a baby. It contains a lot of strength-building qualities that their food may not contain. After a while they get to want it. Why? Because it makes them comfortable. Those dimples and round cheeks mean health and ease. Scott's Emulsion makes children easy; keeps them so, too.

GIVES HIMSELF UP.

Hammond, Whose Wife's Body Was Found in a Trunk, Has Made a Full Confession.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 26.—John Cross Hammond, whose wife's body was found in a trunk in their home in the south end of this city last November, nearly two weeks after she is supposed to have been murdered, and ten days after he himself had disappeared, walked into police headquarters here Saturday afternoon and surrendered himself.

Since his disappearance the authorities have traced Hammond to Canada, thence to Arizona, thence to Montana, where all trace of him was lost. Arthur Strong, Hammond's youthful cousin, accompanied him thus far, but deserted him in Montana and returned to his home in Rouse's Point.

When Hammond walked into police headquarters Saturday afternoon he was accompanied by John Mangini and his wife, Hammond's sister. He fully confessed the killing of his wife. He has been in Cohoes, eight miles from here, since Wednesday.

ARREST OF CAR DISPATCHER.

McGill of St. Catharines Held on a Manslaughter Charge.

St. Catharines, Feb. 26.—Despatcher McGill of the Niagara, St. Catharines & Toronto Railway Co. was Saturday arrested upon the charge of manslaughter by High Constable Boyle, acting under instructions from County Crown Attorney Brennan. He appeared before Police Magistrate Comfort Saturday afternoon and was indicted and admitted to $8,000 bail, $4,000 himself and $2,000 each on the part of Walter Hynes and Wm. Upper. He was then remanded till Tuesday next for hearing.

Lawyer Goes to Sing Sing.

Mineola, La., Feb. 26.—Benjamin E. Valentine, a wealthy Brooklyn lawyer, was Saturday sentenced to not less than one year nor more than five years and three months in Sing Sing Prison for forging his wife's name to a deed for property belonging to his mother.

Italian Fires Into Crowd.

Washington, Pa., Feb. 26.—Roland McLoud, a young man of this city, was shot and instantly killed Saturday night by Santo Paurero, an Italian, who narrowly escaped being lynched by an enraged crowd. The killing resulted from alleged insulting remarks addressed to the Italian, who was escorting his two sisters. The Italian turned and fired five shots.

SHOT CHILIAN SECRETARY.

Balmaceda, About to Break Engagement With Miss Waddington, Killed by Her Brother.

Brussels, Feb. 26.—Mr. Waddington, son of the Chilian charge d'affaires here, Saturday shot Secretary of the Consulate Balmaceda, killing him instantly.

Waddington took refuge in the Chilian legation, where the extra-territorial law prevents the police invading and arresting him. His father, however, telephoned the Foreign Minister that he would inform the foreign office later whether he would land him over to the police or to the Chilian authorities.

Balmaceda was engaged to be married to Waddington's sister, and the crime is understood to have been due to an intimation by Balmaceda of his intention to break off the engagement.

Woman Dies From Exposure.

Toronto, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Carrie Mason, 40 years of age, was found dead in a house at Simcoe Park, Fisherman's Island, last Saturday night. Coroner Orr will hold an inquest. Mrs. Mason arrived from Thessalon on Thursday night on a visit to Alexander Wright, who lived with his wife and children at No. 8 Simcoe Park. The arival was the occasion of a drinking bout with the above result.

Cargo Libelled.

Detroit, Feb. 26.—Because the Sarnia Reid Wrecking Co.'s Canadian tug Ottawa carried 45,000 feet of lumber from Munising to Marine City last November the United States marshal has seized the cargo on a libel for forfeiture.

Mount Pelee In Eruption.

New York, Feb. 26.—A Barbados despatch to The Herald, dated Friday, says that Mount Pelee, in Martinique, is again active, and the inhabitants of the island are in terror of a recurrence of the great eruptions of four years ago. Five persons are in the hospital in Fort de France who were struck by falling rocks thrown up by the volcano.

THREE TRYING TIMES IN A WOMAN'S LIFE

There are three periods of a woman's life when she is in need of the heart strengthening, nerve toning, blood enriching action of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

The first of these is when the young girl is entering the portals of womanhood. At this time she is very often pale, weak and nervous, and unless her health is built up and her system strengthened she may fall a prey to consumption or be a weak woman for life.

The second period is motherhood. The drain on the system is great and the exhausted nerve force and depleted blood require replenishing. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills supply the elements needed to do this.

The third period is "change of life" and this is the period when she is most liable to heart and nerve troubles.

A tremendous change is taking place in the system, and it is at this time many chronic diseases manifest themselves. Fortify the heart and nerve system by the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and thus tide over this dangerous period. Mrs. James King, Cornwall, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled very much with heart trouble—the cause being to a great extent due to "change of life." I have been taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for some time, and mean to continue doing so, for I can truthfully say they are the best remedy I have ever used for building up the system. You are at liberty to use this statement for the benefit of other sufferers."

Fays' "Mysteries" And An Explanation Of Their Performance

An Ottawa Man Tells How They Are Operated---Mysteries Which Are Not Mysteries--When You Know Them--Ottawa Journal Publishes Story Telling the Public Some Things About the Fays' Work--Not So Mysterious After All--The Handkerchief Trick--Levitation Act and Mind Reading.

The Ottawa Journal on Saturday had an article in reference to the Fay entertainment, which was seen for the last five days of the week here, and which will be read with deep interest by those who attended their performances. The Examiner publishes it without expressing any personal opinion, leaving the reader to draw his own conclusions. The Journal says:—

With the return of the Fays on Monday, the interest in their performances will be renewed. When they were here before many people wondered how they produced the various results. The few knowing ones smiled; but a great many people were really mystified. The Fays did not claim any supernatural agencies; they merely let people suggest how the various things were accomplished. In connection with the so-called thaumaturgy, however, the impression was clearly given by them that genuine mind-reading was exercised, and they challenged an explanation.

A gentleman who has made a study of such things as the Fays took up, has volunteered the following explanation of the various parts of the entertainment. The Journal gives it for what it is worth.

The explanation follows:

The Spirit Handkerchief.

Mrs. Fay ties a knot in a corner of a handkerchief; throws it upon the floor; the spirits pick it up and cause it to dance. This is what the audience sees.

What the audience does not see is a fine black thread stretched across the stage and about three feet above it. One end of the thread is attached behind the wings, the other end is held by an assistant, also behind the wings. In tying the knot in the handkerchief Mrs. Fay ties it around the thread, which, as explained, is at a convenient height. As she drops the handkerchief upon the floor the assistant slackens the thread and then by intermittently pulling upon it causes the handkerchief to dance. To conclude the trick the assistant drops his end of the thread, and as Mrs. Fay picks up the handkerchief and walks toward the front of the stage the thread slips easily through the knot.

Lifting Table By Placing Hand Upon Its Top.

Mrs. Fay places her hand flat upon the top of a small light table and the table rises from the floor attached to her hand, and held there apparently by the aid of spirits. What really occurs is as follows:

An ordinary black pin has previously been driven into the top of the table until its head projects above the table top. Mrs. Fay's ring has a small notch cut in its side. By placing her hand flat upon the top of the table the head of the pin slips into the notch in her ring and enables her to lift the table. The audience sees her place her hand flat upon the table and is given the impression that the table is lifted by the assistance of spirits.

The Levitation Trick.

Mr. Fay leads on to the stage a woman clad in Oriental dress, and by making some passes over her with his hands pretends to induce a mesmeric sleep. He then places her in a recumbent position upon a lounge at the back of the stage, and standing behind her resumes his waving of hands, and she rises in the air to the height of his waist. To prove that she is floating in mid air Mr. Fay passes a hoop around her several times.

This trick was performed by Herrman and has been explained and illustrated frequently. It was always performed by Herrman as a trick and as nothing else, and as such was of course harmless, his audiences being amused and mystified, but never left with the impression that they had witnessed a performance which was the result of supernatural aid.

The so-called levitation act is performed as follows:

Behind the sofa is a hole in the floor of the stage. A black iron rod is connected with gearing below the stage. During the performance of the trick the rod passes upwards through the hole and engages itself with a flat iron plate resting upon the sofa.

The woman, who is represented as an Oriental, and who pretends to fall into a sleep under Mr. Fay's alleged hypnotic passes, is placed upon the sofa and therefore upon the plate. Fay stands directly behind the middle of the sofa with his legs close together, and does not move from that position for a moment while the act is going on. The rod being black cannot be seen by the audience, as it rises in front of the black trousers of Mr. Fay, who during the trick keeps his legs close together.

After the woman has "floated" for a moment the man below the stage winds the gearing backward; the rod lowers; disengages itself from the plate and disappears through the hole in the floor. Then, and not before, Mr. Fay steps away. To have moved during the act would have removed the black background made by his clothing and would have exposed the rod.

"Yes," is asked, "but how did he pass the hoop around her while she was in mid air?"

He didn't. He appeared to do so. The simplest thing in any slight of hand trick is the appearing to do something that is not done.

Mr. Fay calls attention before he begins this trick to the fact that there are no black curtains at the back of the stage. Certainly not. His black trousers form quite sufficient background to prevent the rod being seen.

The Hand-Cuff Trick.

The so-called native of India, who appears with an oriental dress and wearing a false beard and a wig, is the thin faced assistant who carries messages to and from the box office during the question answering trick, as will be explained later on.

The hand-cuffs which are placed upon his wrists are trick hand-cuffs and can be purchased in any of the magic goods stores in New York and Chicago. They spring open at a touch in the right place. A pair of honest hand-cuffs from the police station or from the gaol would keep the so-called Oriental and his manager busy for a whole night.

Or take the cabinet six feet away from the trap door in the stage over which it stands, so that no one can come up and ring the bells and do the other tricks and there will be "nothin' doing."

The Cabinet Trick.

This trick is as old as the hills, and was so cleverly and fully exposed by Stuart Cumberland that to many Ottawa people it needs no explanation.

The secret, in fact the heart of this trick, is in the fact that a ring is placed in a post at the back of Mrs. Fay, and that after her wrists are tied together a bandage of cotton is tied to the bandage on the wrists. The latter bandage is then placed through the ring in the post, and by the play or looseness thus afforded all the freedom that is necessary is obtained to permit the performer's hands to reach the objects in her lap.

The members of the committee do as they are told by the performer's husband, and because the performer is a woman they cannot exercise the force of independence in tying her hands that they should.

Tied by the committee without instructions and without compassion, Mrs. Fay would find herself giving only one performance a week and that would be more interesting to her than to the audience.

The Question Answering Trick.

This is the most stupid feature of the Fays' performance, and is the boldest. That so many in an audience can so unwittingly lend themselves to become tools to deceive themselves seems almost incomprehensible.

The impression is conveyed by advertisement and otherwise that the act is performed by mind reading, spiritualism, second sight, etc.

The performance occupies two parts of the evening.

During the early part of the evening, Mr. Fay and a number of assistants pass pads throughout the audience, upon which questions are written upon the portion of the pad indicated, and the piece written upon is torn off and retained by the writer. The impression made by the hard pencil remains upon the next sheet of the pad beneath.

Others of the audience come with questions which they have written at home, and which they will afterwards assert were never removed from their pockets.

The second part of the performance consists in answering the questions, and occurs in the last part of the evening.

The trick was invented by the Baldwins, who were clever performers, and who for the past 25 years have mystified their audiences.

The Baldwins perform the trick as a trick. They perform it in an inoffensive way, and but for the answering of the questions, always in a polite manner, by Mrs. Baldwin, the act is performed in silence.

The Fays perform it in a bedlam of noise made by Mrs. Fay's rambling utterances from beneath the translucent cloth, mingled with the loud talking and the moving to and fro in the audience of Mr. Fay and his assistants.

The trick has a number of methods in its every night production, and every one of the methods is used.

Various Methods.

First there is the impression method, or the copies of the questions written in the audience and impressed upon the pads which Fay and his assistants gather up and take back to Mrs. Fay, who has the greater part of the evening to decipher them and to prepare suitable answers, which she does with the assistance of the theatre people, who have a knowledge of local conditions and of local matters of interest.

Second, there is the "sapper" method, which consists of a number of confederates who copy their neighbours' questions and hand them to the ushers who are moving to and fro.

Third, there is the straight out-and-out confederate method, consisting of the answering by Mrs. Fay of two or three star questions which are the sensation of the evening. These questions have been arranged beforehand.

Fourth, there is the answering of questions written at home, and brought to the theatre in the pocket of the writer.

The chair, or chairs, for one is placed on top of the other, upon which Mrs. Fay sits when answering the questions, is connected by telephone with the box office of the theatre. As the cloth is thrown over her as she has taken her seat, she picks up the small watch shaped telephone, holds it during the performance to her ear with her left hand, and ostentatiously displays her right hand upon the arm of the chair where she keeps it in motion for the purpose of distracting attention from the left hand.

There is a constant going to and from the box office, where the other telephone is placed, by Fay's assistants, who carry to the box office such information as they can glean, and which is in turn telephoned to Mrs. Fay in her chair on the stage.

Between the telephone messages and the copies of questions which she has in her lap, and which she can read by the aid of the light which reaches her through the cheesecloth covering thrown over her, she is enabled to keep things going for a considerable length of time. Many of her failures are glossed over by Mr. Fay talking rapidly and changing the subject to another questioner, or by reiterating "Yes, yes; that's right, that's right; the gentleman says it's right." When in fact the gentleman has said nothing of the kind.

"But how," the reader asks, "does she answer the questions that are written at home and kept in the questioner's pocket?"

She doesn't; not if the writer has told no one of his question, and if he has kept it in his pocket.

She does if the writer removes the question from his pocket in the theatre.

And he or she usually removes it.

And this is the bold, grossly bold, part of the trick.

A Case In Point.

The writer prefers to give a concrete case rather than to describe the general method.

On one of the nights of the Fays last appearance in Ottawa, the name of a well known gentleman was called out by Mrs. Fay, who said that he was sitting in the left hand aisle five rows from the front.

His name and location in the house had been telephoned to Mrs. Fay from the box office, as were all the names and locations of other prominent persons during the evening.

Stepping along the aisle to the seat in question Mr. Fay stopped before the gentleman and asked if he had written a question. He replied in the affirmative, and in a low voice, Mr Fay said: "Let me see if I can help you," at the same time extending his hand.

The gentleman handed his question to Mr. Fay, who read it himself, and handed it back.

In the meantime Mrs. Fay was talking incessantly in a rambling manner about other questions in other parts of the house.

The Sequel.

Now see what happened.

The gentleman's question had not been answered, his name only had been called; but as soon as Mr. Fay had committed the question to memory he left the gentleman's side, walked away from him, and deliberately wrote the question upon a small pad which he held in his hand. Tearing the writing from the pad he handed the slip to his assistant who took it up to the box office where it was telephoned to Mrs. Fay.

In a few minutes the initials of the gentleman's name was called out by Mrs. Fay, and she repeated the question word for word.

This incident was repeated again and again all over the house with variations suitable to the various circumstances as they arose. It is repeated every evening.

Another point those who were at the show will remember, viz., that the names of prominent citizens were often called, but their questions were not either mentioned or answered. That was done in this way: The local ushers take the names of prominent citizens and these names are given to Mrs. Fay. It often happens that the party has not asked a question or does not show it to Mr. Fay or his assistants. If he does not nothing more than his name is ever heard.

Had a Bad Leg.

"For twelve years I was a great sufferer from eczema on the inside of the leg. There was a raw patch of flesh about three inches square, and the itching was something dreadful. Dr. Chase's Ointment completely cured me, took away the itching, and healed up the sore." — Mr. Alex. McDougall, postmaster, Broad Cove Marsh, N. S.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

The Fays who so mystified all who saw them here last week, left on the midnight C.P.R. train for Ottawa on Saturday night, where they are booked for a return engagement.

"GIRL OF THE STREETS"

Miss Lillian Mortimer, authoress of "Girl of the Streets," which will appear to-night at the Grand Opera House, has proved that it is not necessary in writing a melodrama which is intended for the popular priced houses, that suggestive lines or situations be introduced in order to attract attention of the public. Her play is not written from the standpoint of a moralist, but it does present a true picture of life in the greatest metropolis of this continent, exposing to public gaze a social strata that has never been seen on the stage before, yet though depths of vice be disclosed, there is an undercurrent of human interest that must perforce by its very strength, make its impression felt. It is the most vitally human play written in years and will no doubt, when this season ends, be acclaimed as one of the best of the kind played for years.

Good Ice For To-night's Game

The cold weather of last night came at an opportune time. The ice at the Brock street rink is in splendid condition, as a result of the drop in temperature. It means now that the game to-night will be very fast, and there should be a good crowd out to witness the contest.

Mr. Coon Will Have New Store

Mr. E. W. Argus has just completed the plans for a very handsome store and dwelling house which will be erected by Mr. F. Coon, the grocer at 200 Stewart street. The building will be erected on the site of the store now occupied by Mr. Coon.

Fair's Dressmaking

Department Re-opens

Thursday, March 1st

The GOLDEN LION is beginning to blossom out in its new garb for Spring. Winter is already breaking up, and the first harbingers of the new season are appearing.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 1st, Miss Campbell will re-open the Dressmaking Department for spring. Under her supervision last year her artistic qualifications as a talented modiste were recognized by the most fashionable dressers of the city.

For the past few weeks Miss Campbell has been in New York and other cities, studying the latest ideas from Fashion's Centre, and is prepared to carry out the Newest Styles in vogue for Costumes, Suits, Gowns, etc., in a thorough manner.

Orders may be left as early as desired. Appointments can be made at any time, according to booking list.

SPRING'S SPRIGHTLY STYLES

Please accept our invitation to inspect our New Importations of Dress Goods and Dress Trimmings at their first reviewing. We have been eminently successful in our purchases this season, and a glance will show this.

P.S.—Phone saves personal visits. Call 138 for Dressmaking Department.

Ennismore Man's Narrow Escape From Drowning

John Riley Drove Into an Air Hole on Chemong Lake on Saturday Night--Saved Himself After a Hard Struggle.

Mr. John Riley, of Ennismore, had a very narrow escape from drowning while crossing Chemong Lake on his way home from the city on Saturday night. He was driving across on the ice, but wandered off the regular track and his horse went into an air hole. Mr. Riley had a terrible struggle to get out of the icy water, and his fingers were badly torn as a result of his efforts to save himself. It was a single-handed fight against death as there was no help forthcoming. Mr. Riley succeeded in drawing himself out of the water and walked across the ice to a farm house on the Ennismore side. It is said that the horse was drowned.

English Firm Agrees To Sell Canada Flakes

Negotiations Between Peterborough Cereal Company and Firm of Sutcliffe and Bingham Results in Important Agreement Being Reached.

An agreement that means a great deal for the Peterborough Cereal Company, was reached to-day between that company and the firm of Sutcliffe & Bingham, manufacturers of jelly and custard powders, Manchester, England.

Through this agreement the English company have taken charge of the Cereal Company's business in Great Britain, and will handle the sale of Canada Flakes in the Old Country. This will give the Cereal Company an outlet for their products, and in the hands of a big firm such as the manufacturers of the famous Kkovah Brands are, the sale should be largely increased. The agreement also makes provision for the Peterborough Cereal Company, taking charge of the sale of the English firm's products in Ontario.

For some time negotiations have been going on between the two firms. The English manufacturers were attracted by the advertisement of Canada Flakes in the Canadian Grocer, and began writing to the company here. After much correspondence the Manchester company decided to send a representative to Canada.

Mr. Arthur Sutcliffe, the head of the firm, was in the city to-day, and consulted with the local management. As a result the above agreement was reached.

Will The License Fees Be Increased?

A special despatch to the Toronto World from London says:—

Hon. Adam Beck's statement at the meeting in the city hall on Saturday night that the Government has under advisement legislation that will increase the revenues of the city by some four or five thousand dollars or more has created much speculation in municipal circles.

Asked if the reference was made to the License Act, Mr. Beck replied, "If we increased the license fees, that would increase the city's revenue, would it not?" Further than this Mr. Beck would not go.

The belief is gaining ground that the government, when the changes in the liquor license act are brought down, intend to introduce a marked advance in the liquor license fee.

In cities of one hundred thousand inhabitants or over the fee will be $800. Where the population is above fifty thousand the fee will be $500.

A Decision In Carpet Factory Matter Expected

To-night the Committee of the Whole Council will meet in the city clerk's office, when it is expected that the question of the location of the carpet factory will be finally settled. In view of the fact that Mr. Brintin offered to guarantee a larger number of hands than he first named, the situation appeared in a somewhat different light, and the Council may decide to be, more generous than they would be if the number of men to be employed was that first mentioned. It is understood that Mr. Brintin will not accept any less favourable terms than those suggested at the conference held in Toronto last week with the chairman of the Manufacturers' Committee, and if the Council will not agree to those terms it is understood that the factory will not be located here. There is no doubt that the question will be finally settled at the meeting to-night. There is good ground for believing that Mr. Brintin is anxious to locate in Peterborough if suitable terms can be secured, but will not do so unless the city agrees to give the consideration which he thinks should be given.

In view of this fact the meeting to-night will be one of special importance.

Thirteen Year Old Boy Drunk On George Street

Those who passed the corner of Charlotte and George street to-day at noon, witnessed a sight which should have made every man who saw it do some thinking. A boy not more than thirteen years old, was lying stretched on the sidewalk, in the state usually known as being dead drunk, and he was surrounded by a couple of dozen young men and boys, who evidently took considerable pleasure out of the condition in which the boy was in. At any rate a number of jests were made on the situation. There appeared to be no one who cared enough for him to lend a helping hand.

The matter was reported to the police, who, it is understood, are looking into it.

It is stated that a shack near the river bank has been made a rendezvous for boys about the age of the one referred to, and older, and it is further asserted that in this shack drinking, if not worse, is being done, and that the spectacle witnessed today is but one of the results of frequenting this disreputable shack, where boys, who are older than the one referred to, and who should know better, not only drink themselves, but assist in establishing a line of conduct which cannot help ruining the lives of younger boys who imitate them.

To Make The Demands On The City Council

The City Trust Commissioners are meeting to-day in the office of the chairman, Mr. W. H. Moore. The object of the meeting is to make the usual demand upon the City Council for the funds to meet the interest and sinking fund for the debentures issued by the city.

A very large percentage of the total amount of taxes collected by the city is handed over to the commissioners for the purpose of meeting these liabilities.

The Commissioners have at the present time about $35,000 to their credit in the bank.

Races Were Arranged For

Meeting of Peterborough Turf Club Held Yesterday Afternoon.

The Peterborough Turf Club met yesterday afternoon in the Ontario Bank Chambers and made arrangements for the races to be held under the auspices of the club on the 24th of May next. Two events will be pulled off, both in half-mile heats. They are 2.29 class and named race in which it is probable that horses owned by J. Keller, J. Godfrey, Dr. Johnson, McCollum Bros., Wm. Elmhirst, Chas. Fife and others will start. One hundred dollars will be the purse for the 2.29 class, and $50 for the named race. The dates claimed for the regular summer races are the 24th and 25th of July. The purses to be awarded for the summer meet will total $2,000.

Epworth League Union Meeting

Next Monday night a union meeting of the three Epworth Leagues of the city will be held in the Charlotte street Sunday school room. This meeting is called for the purpose of considering plans for the prosecution of the work. The meeting will be in the nature of a conference, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance of the members of the leagues of Charlotte street, George street and Mark street.

Was Buried In Warsaw To-day

Plymouth Brethren Buildings Burned

Further Particulars of the Nanchang Murder.

Special to The Examiner

London, February 27. — The latest from Shanghai in regard to the massacre of missionaries at Nanchang, China, on Sunday, state that the two Bingham children were not killed, as first reported. The older child, it now appears, was wounded, while the younger one was rescued. The buildings which were destroyed belonged to the Plymouth Brethren. The Catholics at Nanchang, foreseeing trouble, fired their own premises.

February Weather In The Year 1905

We all know what the weather for the month of February in the year 1906, has been like—a generous dash of April weather, with a sprinkling of Klondyke conditions here and there.

The weather of the month of February, 1905, was on the whole a month of steady cold weather, with some heavy snowfalls, the depth of snow on Feb. 26th being 30 inches. There was a strong thaw on the 27th, followed by a heavy snowfall the next day. February, 1905, was nearly as severe as the same month the previous winter. From the 20th of the month till the end of it, the weather was like the present month, fairly mild.

Truly Rural.

THE 17-YEAR OLD daughter of a certain Wall Street man recently visited for the first time the fine farm in Dutchess County for the past year owned by her father. The girl immediately became greatly interested in the prize cattle that are the especial pride of her parent, and she asked many questions relative to their breeding, etc. One evening, just at dusk, as the girl was standing on the verandah of the farm house, talking to the manager, there came the low, mournful mute of a cow.

"Just listen to that poor cow," said the girl to the manager, "mooning for her calf."

Norris P. Crafts Was Acquitted At Belleville

Case Came up Before Judge Fralick Last Week—Direct Report of the Proceedings—Dispute Was Due to a Misunderstanding—No Evidence Was Taken—Counsels Agreed on Settlement—Accused Honourably Acquitted.

CROWN ATTORNEY ANDERSON ACTED

A direct report of the proceedings in the case which was held last week at Belleville, of Norris P. Crafts, who was charged by fraudulent pretences with inducing John C. Moore, to make four promissory notes, payable to his order, has been received.

The report shows conclusively that there was a misunderstanding between the plaintiff and the defendant which caused the charge to be laid against Mr. Crafts, and shows that the defendant was honourably acquitted by the court.

County Crown Attorney P. J. M. Anderson, Esq., acted for the Crown, E. G. Porter, M.P., for the defendant, and Mr. MacDonald was counsel for the private prosecutor.

Mr. Porter in his preliminary address stated that it had appeared to both the counsel for the private prosecutor and himself, that the proceedings had arisen entirely through a bona fide misunderstanding between the parties of their respective rights under the contract, and really in regard to what was contracted for. It appears from the statements of all the parties interested that there was no intention on the part of the person accused to commit any crime or do any wrong, but there was, as frequenthly happens between parties contracting regarding the sale of merchandise, a bona fide dispute. In view of that fact they have approached one another with the view of seeing if these differences which exist between them, could not be so adjusted that the rights of all the immediate parties would be protected, and that the rights of the public should not be violated. Having consulted with the counsel for the prosecutor, Mr. Porter said that they had arrived at a conclusion which, if sanctioned by the court, would be adopted. With those facts under consideration, he thought it advisable, with the court's permission, to discontinue the prosecution, all parties being reinstated as if nothing had taken place between them; and, with the consent of the Crown, he asked the court that there be no evidence taken.

Crown Attorney Anderson, in his his remarks, said that if he could be assured that the complainant had received any additional light since he made the complaint, that would lead him to belive that the accused did not intend perpetrating a fraud and, secondly, that neither the complainant nor the defendant in the case had profitted pecuniarily by an arrangement for withdrawal or settlement, he would then be in a position to advise the Court to a settlement.

Mr. MacDonald, counsel for the private prosecutor, in reply to the suggestion made by the counsel for the Crown, in regard to a settlement, said that he was familiar with all the circumstances in connection with the case. That at first it did not appear that Mr. Crafts was trying to overreach the complainant, but on further investigation into Mr. Crafts' motives, Mr. Moore did not blame him. As regards any profits on the part of the private complainant, he said that he was considerably out of pocket. He was willing to do whatever the Crown and the Court saw fit to direct, and to rectify any injury done to Mr. Crafts' reputation, credit or honour, and allow the proceedings to be dropped, if thought proper by the Court.

Under these circumstances the Crown Attorney and Judge Fraelick deemed it advisable to dismiss the case without taking any evidence and Mr. Crafts was given honourable acquittal.

Mr. Macfarlane Honoured By His Many Friends

Former Peterboro' Man's Funeral in Winnipeg Very Largely Attended.

The Winnipeg Free Press of Friday has the following reference to the funeral of the late William G. Macfarlane, which took place on Thursday in that city:

The last respects were paid to the memory of the late W. G. Macfarlane, western manager of the Marshall, Wells Co., yesterday afternoon. The service was held in Knox church at 4 o'clock and was conducted by the Rev. Dr. DuVal. The appropriate opening hymn was "Nearer My God, to Thee." The church was filled, and the employees of the Marshall, Wells Co. attended in a body marching in the procession as far as Henry avenue, where they took the street car to Elmwood cemetery. Mr. H. C. Marshall, head of the firm of Marshall, Wells Co., Duluth, and Mr. Andrew Macfarlane, father of the deceased, of Peterborough, arrived in time to attend the funeral. The two brothers of the deceased, Charles and Ernest, of Port Arthur, were also present. Representatives of the Granite and Thistle Curling Clubs attended the funeral, and the Granite Rink was closed during the afternoon and evening out of respect for the deceased. There were also representatives of the large wholesale houses in the city present, and flags hung at half-mast on the Marshall, Wells Co., Ideal and Merrick, Anderson Co. stores.

The pall-bearers were C. F. Grundy, A. G. Carmichael, C. F. Schafter, J. W. Martin, A. C. Smith and E. B. Loucks. Profuse floral offerings were sent by friends of the deceased. The widow laid a beautiful scroll on the coffin, and the children, a spray of lilies of the valley. The parents of the deceased sent a pillow; the brothers and sisters a broken column. The different departments of the Marshall, Wells Co., Duluth, sent a pillow of roses. The employees of the company in Winnipeg sent a beautiful wreath, star and cross. The Granite curling club sent a large spray. Gordon, Alice, Jean and Willie Macfarlane, of Peterborough, sent a large spray of roses.

The Free Press also gives a long list of those who sent floral offerings in memory of the deceased.

Honoured by Their Ops Friends

Address and Presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McIvor.

The following address, accompanied by a handsome parlour suite, was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McIvor on Thursday night last on the occasion of their leaving Ops to take up residence in Smith Township:

It is with feelings of much sorrow and regret that we assemble here this evening to say farewell to our friends who are about to leave us.

Since taking up their residence in our midst some seven years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McIvor have endeared themselves to all around them in such a manner that, on their departing from us, they will be much missed. We trust, however, that our loss may be their gain, and that in their new field of labour they may be as prosperous and successful as they have been here.

Mr. McIvor has not only demonstrated to us that he is a good farmer, but he has proven himself a successful horseman. For years past he has been an enthusiastic exhibitor at Lindsay, Peterborough, Millbrook and other fairs, and on few occasions has he been outside of first prize money. He has bred and developed some of the highest class and highest priced driving horses that have left this section. Only a year ago he sold a fine Keswick mare for direct shipment to Scotland, where she and her buggy and harness sold for $1,000. We cannot but miss such men as these from our community.

We desire, in some small way, to express our feelings toward Mr. and Mrs. McIvor and family before they remove from us, and would therefore ask them to accept this parlour suite, not for its intrinsic value, but as a slight token of our esteem for them. In presenting it we wish them good-bye and God speed.

Signed on behalf of those present.

THOMAS HAWKINS.

"Pioneer Days" Was Subject Of An Able Paper

At the Fortnightly Meeting of St. Peter's T. A. S. Ladies' Literary Association—The Progress of Canada is Described—An Extremely Interesting Subject Intelligently Dealt With—A Good Musical Programme Was Rendered—Miss Donoghue's Paper Enjoyed.

FATHER RYAN THE SUBJECT OF PAPER

The Ladies' Literarry Association of St. Peter's T.A.S. held a most enjoyable meeting on Friday evening, when Miss Vivian Donoghue read a thoroughly interesting paper on "Pioneer Days in Canada." The essay showed much careful preparation and a wide knowledge of the subject and from start to finish was most entertaining and instructive.

In introducing her subject Miss Donoghue spoke of the feeling of pride and love with which every true Canadian looks at the growth and prosperity of our country, as year by year Canada is reaching the height of a great nation. Yet, it is very seldom, if ever, we go back to the time when the whole Dominion was one vast forest and think of the endurance and perseverance the pioneers must have possessed to overcome the multitudinous difficulties which they met at almost every step. Justly may we say that "Canada's success is due chiefly to the labour of the early settler and the unceasing zeal of the missionary Fathers who gave their lives to Christianize the cruel savage."

From 1534 when Jacques Cartier entered the gates of the St. Lawrence, the story of the French in Canada is is one of pathetic interest.

The continuous Indian raids, the severe climate and the many difficulties which were constantly presented to them, go to prove what they had to suffer.

Cartier visited the Indian villages of Stadacona, (now Quebec,) and Hochelaga, (now Montreal,) spending the winter at Stadacona, where many of his men, being unused to such severe weather, perished. He returned to France in the spring, but came back to Canada in 1641 with de Roberval. Their efforts to form a colony were in vain.

It was almost fifty years after that another expedition was sent out. In 1603 Samuel de Champlain, accompanied by de Pontegrave, came to the "New World," to open up a fur trade with the Indians. The villages which Cartier discovered had disappeared and they returned to France. Champlain again visited Canada five years later, founded Quebec and explored the Richelieu River and Lake Champlain; made his way up the Ottawa, across to Georgian Bay and thence down to Lake Ontario.

He made one fearful mistake which brought endless trouble to himself and the early settlers, that was his joining forces with the Hurons and Algonquins against the Iroquois.

The labours of the pioneer of religion, the Jesuit Fathers, were unceasing to convert the savages. No self-sacrifice was too great, no suffering too painful, if but one savage child were baptized into the faith. The names of Fathers Daniel, Brebeuf, Lalemont and Garnier, who met their death at the hands of those whom they were trying to convert, are written across the pages of history in letters illumined by the light of a great sacrifice. The continuous warfare with the Indians and the failure of the company of one thousand associates to fulfill their promise of having 6,000 colonists sent out, were great drawbacks to the country, and in 1663 the company lost its charter and Canada was placed under Royal Government.

The essayist briefly sketched the careers of the different governors who held power while Canada was so governed and reviewed the almost constant warfare which was waged between the French and Indian allies of each nation, until the battle of the Plains of Abraham finally decided that the English were to hold away.

Thus the rule of the French in Canada ceased, and in spite of the wars and conflicts at this time, who can deny that the early French Canadian has laid the foundation of the Dominion in religion, commerce and education, and has helped to make Canada what it is to-day, one of the most free and independendent countries in the world.

Miss Donoghue well merited the many congratulations she received at the conclusion of her paper.

Miss Eva Tangney occupied the chair.

The exceedingly well rendered programme consisted of an instrumental duet played with much skill by two clever little girls, the Misses Olive and Clara Tangney; a recitation given with much elocutionary power by Miss Mary Tierney; little Miss Marguerite Merrill's song was very much enjoyed; an instrumental solo played with much expression by Miss Ruby Fitzgerald completed the programme.

At the next meeting on March 9th, Miss Anna Hurley will read a paper on "Father Ryan."

A WOMAN'S BACK IS THE MAINSPRING OF HER PHYSICAL SYSTEM. The Slightest Backache, if Neglected, is Liable to Cause Years of Terrible Suffering.

No woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well, and regular in their action. When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to have filtered out of the blood are left in the system.

The female constitution is naturally more subject to kidney disease than a man's; and what is more, a woman's work is never done—her whole life is one continuous strain.

How many women have you heard say: "My, how my back aches!" Do you know that backache is one of the first signs of kidney trouble? It is, and should be attended to immediately. Other symptoms are frequent thirst, scanty, thick, cloudy or highly colored urine, burning sensation when urinating, frequent urination, puffing under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, floating specks before the eyes, etc.

These symptoms if not taken in time and cured at once, will cause years of terrible kidney suffering. All these symptoms, and in fact, these diseases may be cured by the use of

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

They act directly on the kidneys, and make them strong and healthy.

Mrs. Mary Galley, Amherst, N.S., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with a lame back and was unable to turn in bed without help. I was induced by a friend to try Doan's Kidney Pills. After using two-thirds of a box my back was as well as ever."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or sent direct on receipt of price. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

The Lumbermen Were Successful

Season Just Closing Has Been Satisfactory—Lasswade News.

Special to The Examiner.

Lasswade, Feby. 26th.—Owing to the recent rain and mild weather the snow is nearly all gone from the fieldds.

The Crosby lumber camps broke up last Tuesday morning, after a successful work. Mr. Crosby succeeded in landing all the timber he had cut. Unless cold weather and more snow comes directly, no more lumber will be cut this winter.

Mr. J. R. Owen has gone to his home in Ridgetown, to visit his family for a few days before taking up again the work of constructing his saw mill.

The Huff school is closed for a few weeks' vacation.

The winter has been a very mild one in these parts. The old people say it is the mildest in thirty years.

Mr. James Hubble is drawing lumber to Coe Hill for Mr. S. T. Purdy.

Mr. Arthur Woodbeck has been home for a few days from Jack's lake, where he has spent the winter lumbering for the Rathbun Company.

Miss Viola Prouty was the guest of Mrs. M. Woodbeck this week.

Mr. Charlie Rousuw and family have moved from the camp on Loon Lake, where they have been employed as cooks.

Mr. B. Whitly is the guest of Mr. Wheeler.

Mrs. F. Wheeler has returned from a long visit among her friends in Rawdon.

Messrs. Wease have returned home from Scany's camp where they have been drawing logs.

McColl Bros., have a fine lot of logs at their mill. Owing to the roads break up drawing will be suspended for a time. Mr. Cassan lost a very valuable horse; Mr. A. Wilson also lost a good horse.

SUN AND SNOW

Sometimes Help the Hair to Go

In any changeable climate the hair is apt to become brittle and to break off stubby here and there. This makes a hair dressing almost a necessity especially to ladies. In using a hair dressing, why not get the best, one that combines with it the efficiency in killing the dandruff germ, the germ that eats the hair off at the roots, causing what is called falling hair, and in time, baldness. Newbro's "Herpicide" is that kind of a hair dressing. You have no idea how delightful your scalp will feel, and how stylish your hair will appear, after an application or two of Herpicide. It is certainly a wonderful innovation as a scalp antiseptic and hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Robt. Roddy Gets Ten Days

Charge of Trespass Preferred Against Robt. Baker and A. Ross.

Robt. Roddy was charged, with having caused a disturbance at his home last night, at the police court this morning. He pleaded not guilty. His son Nelson Roddy, gave evidence to the effect that the prisoner was drunk and used very loud, abusive language. He was creating a disturbance, generally and even said that his wife would have to leave the house. All efforts to pacify him proved unavailing.

P. C. Miller, who made the arrest, said that he could hear the noise as he approached Roddy's residence. Bad language was being used by the prisoner. The magistrate imposed a fine of $2 and costs, amounting in all to $5.75. As the prisoner didn't have the money which was ordered to be paid forthwith, he had to take 10 days in gaol. He pleaded with the police to be allowed his liberty till he got the money after he had been locked up, but they advised him that would have to go by the judgment of the court.

Alex. Ross and Robt. Baker were charged with trespassing on the property of Louisa Harrell, 64 McDonell street. They pleaded not guilty and the case was enlarged until to-morrow morning.

An Assembly At Bethany

Successful Event Under Auspices of Citizens of That Place.

The citizens of Bethany held their second delightful assembly of this winter at the Bethany town hall on Friday evening last.

The affair was a brilliant success, about one hundred couples being in attendance and the dancing was continued until four o'clock in the morning.

Mr. Archie Moore officiated as master of ceremonies and the Wilson orchestra furnished excellent music for dancing. At 12.30 a sumptuous supper was partaken of by the guests. The floor was in excellent condition, and the function was in every particular a decided success. The surrounding villages were well represented and many Peterborough persons were also present.

Is $500 Enough To Furnish Home?

A new line of controversy has been suggested by the series of letters on the $16 a week question, and this new line would almost indicate that the controversy which began in these columns some weeks ago has had a good effect for the letter which follows indicates that someone has decided to try the matrimonial state.

The letter is a genuine one, and as an evidence of good faith the writer furnishes his name.

It is to be hoped that someone will reply, giving "Pete" the information he desires. The letter is as follows:

To the Editor,—

Dear Sir, — I have read with interest the various letters in your valuable paper on the $16-a-week question, but what I would like to know is: Can a man furnish a house, say, three bedrooms, parlour, dining room, kitchen and halls, comfortably, for $500 -not taking into consideration a piano? Kindly express your opinion, and oblige, yours truly,

PETE.

Sunday At The Y.M.C.A. A Notable Day

Men's Meeting and Strangers' Tea Were Much Enjoyed.

"This is one of the best days in the building" said a prominent worker of the Y.M.C.A. yesterday at the close of the work on Sunday—and he was right.

The men's meeting was very largely attended and the enthusiasm which has been growing during the past five or six weeks, Sunday reached an even higher point.

The inspiring song service led by earnest workers has been a large factor in increasing the attendance.

On Sunday two laymen gave the addresses, these being being Messrs. R. E. Harding and Alex. Haddaw.

They spoke with marked effect from the incident of the Young Ruler, who asked the question of Christ about eternal life.

At the close of the meeting two young men expressed their desire to begin the Christian life.

The monthly strangers' tea followed the meeting which was attended by 25 men mostly strangers.

The following points were represented. Lakefield, Montreal, Lancaster, Almonte, Smith, Kingston, Owen Sound, also Deen. Eng.; Perthshire, Scotland, and Ireland was also represented.

All the men told of how the Y.M.C.A. had welcomed them to the city and of the benefits they had found thus far in the building.

The Board of Directors was represented by Col. E. B. Edwards, and Mr. R. E. Harding, president of the Fellowship Club.

The tea was provided by a committee of George Street Methodist Church ladies of which Mrs. John Nugent was convenor.

Salvationists Said Farewell

Special Services of Much Interest Held in Barracks Sunday Night.

A special service was held in the Salvation Army Barracks Sunday night, when farewell was said to two soldiers who are leaving the city. Miss Olive Boorman leaves in a short time for the army training school in Toronto, and Lieut. Meeks, who has been resting on forlough for the last four months, and who has been promoted to the rank of captain, will go to Meaford on Wednesday. Both have made many friends and their services will be greatly missed by the local branch of the army.

At last night's meeting many appreciative references were made to the departing soldiers, Staff Captain McAmmond spoke a few words of encouragement, and Bandsman Richardson also addressed the meeting. Mrs. Boorman spoke briefly on behalf of her daughter, who, during the evening, sang the Torrey-Alexander hymn, "I will go where You want me to go." The band played "God be with you till we meet again." Three persons sought salvation during the evening.

Brigadier Turner, of Montreal, will pay his quarterly visit to the local corps a week from next Saturday and Sunday, when special services will be held.

Intoxicated Man Forgot His Home

Was Upset From His Buggy and Received Injuries.

With a badly deranged mind, and a dozen state appearance, a northend resident of the city was on his way home on Saturday night, via the Little Lake cemetery and the Locks bridge, when he was suddenly brought to a sudden halt by a collision between his own buggy and one driven by an Otonabee farmer who was coming into the city. The intoxicated man was driving along Crescent street when the accident happened which threw him out of his conveyance, injuring him slightly and smashing the buggy. The horse attempted to run away, but the reins became entangled, and he was easily stopped.

The police were informed of the affair and P. C. McGinty soon had the lost man behind the bars. Yesterday morning he was fined $2.00 by Police Magistrate Dumble for being drunk in a public place.

It's Different This Season

Bancroft, Feb. 22. — One year ago to-day a train on the C. O. R. succeeded in getting into Bancroft after being cancelled for nine days, and every citizen was hugging an armful of mail. To-day there is hardly enough snow on the ground to make sleighing.

Are Your Nerves In Health?

STUDY HERE THE INDICATION OF A FAILING NERVOUS SYSTEM

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

It is surprising what hosts of people are suffering as the result of an exhausted nervous system and do not know the nature of their ailment.

They cannot sleep at nights — are restless and fidgety in the daytime—their tempers are easily irritated—little things worry them—they cannot concentrate their minds, and find their memories failing — there are spells of nervous headache—the digestion is impaired—pains and aches of a neuralgic nature afflict them—feelings of discouragement and despondency come over them at times, and they get in the way of looking at the dark side of things.

If this describes your experience you will be interested in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, for this great food cure gets at the very foundation of nervous troubles and cures in the only natural way, by enriching the blood, revitalizing the wasted nerve cells, and building up the system generally.

Diseases of the nerves take different forms in different people, but they slowly and surely lead to nervous prostration, locomotor ataxia or paralysis — to weakness and helplessness of mind and body.

Mrs. F. Turner, 636 Aylmer street, Peterborough, Ont., and whose husband is employed at the Hamilton Foundry, writes:—

"For some months past I found myself growing nervous, and gradually becoming a victim of sleeplessness and subject to frequent attacks of nervous headaches. About six weeks ago I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and cannot speak too highly of this medicine. I can sleep well now, the headaches have entirely disappeared, and I believe that my system, generally, has been improved greatly by the use of this treatment."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food acts strictly in accordance with the laws of nature in creating nerve force in the body, and you can use it with positive assurance that every dose is at least of some benefit to you. Prove this by noting your increase in weight. 50 cts. a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Neither Indian nor Ceylon tea alone produces the Red Rose flavor

TO produce a tea with the "rich fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea from either Ceylon or Indian alone is impossible.

Neither Indian nor Ceylon in itself possesses the Red Rose flavor, but combined in proper proportions they produce the "rich fruity flavor" that has made Red Rose Tea famous—that makes Red Rose Tea the only tea used in any home where it is once tried.

Red Rose Tea is good Tea

SINFUL HABITS IN YOUTH

MAKE NERVOUS, WEAK, DISEASED MEN.

THE RESULT of ignorance and folly in youth, overexertion of mind and body hastened by lust and exposure are constantly wrecking the lives and future happiness of thousands of promising young men. Some fade and wither at the early age, at the blossom of manhood, while others are forced to drag out a weary, fruitless and melancholy existence. Others rush into matrimony but find no solace or comfort there. The victims are found in all stations of life—the farm, the office, the workshop, the pulpit, the trades and the professions. Nervous Debility and Sexual Weakness are guaranteed cured by our New Method Treatment or No Pay. You run no risk. 25 years in Detroit. Bank security.

Clarke's a Reliable Fur Store

WE ARE BUSY SELLING FURS, ALTHOUGH THE WEATHER HAS BEEN FIGHTING US HARD

There are just as many people buying Fur now as there were early in the season. The reason is easily explained—Our Fur Stock is twice as large as it should be—the season is against us—we need money to buy our summer stock with. Our Fur Stock Must be Sacrificed to Get This Money. To sacrifice your stock means to put prices on the goods that will make them move out, and make people come and buy. The public are wise, they know Furs are cheap, and by buying now can save lots of money.

WATER STEALING.

We are sometimes inclined to think that our municipal affairs are rather loosely administered, but what mistakes are made are generally mistakes and not intentional acts of corruption. We can hardly conceive the rottenness that must exist in New York where through collusion of dishonest officials and aldermen the city is robbed by the million. A report in the New York World states that the thefts of water represent a loss of revenue of something like ten million dollars a year. Water meters are removed from dwellings, stores and factories and for a year at a time the water is largely used without any check and of course without any revenue being obtained. Such large water-using concerns as Havermeyer's Sugar Refinery are said to be supplied with water from secret pipes without a cent being paid for the service. With such a state of things generally prevalent it is no surprise that the loss of revenue runs into the millions. Our Yankee cousins, boast of their superiority in enterprise over us slow Canadians, but in the matter of "graft" and crookedness we are quite willing to let them have the lead. We manage our water systems a little better in Canada especially in Peterborough, and it would be a surprise if our Water Commissioners and superintendent, permitted the waste of only a few gallons of city water. There don't seem to be any leaks in our water works except such as may exist in the dam and an occasional leak in the water mains which were laid down before the system came under its present superintendent's constructive oversight.

LABOUR AND ITS FRIENDS.

The recent election of a labour candidate, Mr. Verville, by a tremendous majority, to fill the vacancy caused in the representation of Maisonneuve by the death of Hon. Raymond Prefontaine, emphasizes the growing power of organized labour, especially in conjunction with British election results. There seems to be little party significance in the result, but there is a great deal of political significance, showing the development of a new force in politics. The result is by no means to be taken as a discouragement to the party in power or an encouragement to the Opposition which did not put a candidate in the field, but joined hands to defeat the Government candidate, Grothe, who was not personally popular. The Conservatives join with the labour party to defeat a Government candidate, not because they love labour interests more than they hate Liberalism. The Conservatives have never shown any disposition to co-operate with labour in obtaining its rights, only when a chance presents to strike at a Liberal Government which has done practically all that has been done by legislation and administration to extend to the working classes their natural rights. The election of Mr. Verville, the labour candidate for Maisonneuve gives what seems to be a paradoxical result. He is elected in the interests of labour in opposition to a Government which is the only Government of Canada that has done anything tangible or important in the interests of labour.

Mr. Borden the chief leader of the Conservative Opposition, says that the eighteen-year term of office of the Conservatives was too long. And the people in 1896 were heartily of his opinion. If the people had been of Mr. Borden's opinion in 1903 that seven years was too long a term for the Liberal Government he would now be enjoying the sweets of office.

Some Conservative papers deny that the Whitney Government has introduced the spoils system. One Conservative journal, however, has a contrary opinion. The Toronto News, which was friendly to the Government as long as possible, says "it knows that many Liberals have been dismissed for party reasons, at the demand of office-hungry Conservatives." If that does not mean the spoils system a new definition will have to be devised. And the good work goes merrily on.

Successful Concert

MARKED OPENING OF

New St. Peter's Hall

A Delightful Gathering Last Night in New Hall in St. Peter's School--Many Members of the Clergy Present --Programme Given by Pupils of City's Separate Schools Was a Credit--Some of the Details--New Hall Promises to be Very Popular.

The formal opening of the new Separate school took place last night the occasion being marked by the holding of a grand concert in the Assembly Hall of the school. The function was a greater success than even the most sanguine expected, and too much credit cannot be given those in charge of the arrangements.

The hall was crowded, standing room being at a premium, and those who attended were well repaid, for the programme was of a high order of merit. When the age of those taking part is taken into consideration it seems wonderful that children of such tender years could furnish such an excellent entertainment.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP O'CONNOR,
Who Attended Opening of New St. Peter's Hall Last Night.

The different numbers on the programme were rendered in a manner that evidenced conscientious and capable instruction. The singing of the little tots, some of them only four or five years old, was beautiful, and they went through their part in a manner that would be envied by much older people.

A word as to the Assembly Hall. It is spacious, and artistically finished, and seats over five hundred people. The accoustic properties are all that could be desired, the children's voices being heard clearly in the most distant corners. The stage is an exceedingly handsome one, the embellishments and scenery being very pretty. Coloured electric globes are used in the lighting, which gives a very pretty effect. The concert last night was graced by some of the leading clergy in the district, among them being His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, (Ven. Archdeacon Casey, Lindsay, Rev. Fr. Bretherton, o Keating, Rev. Father McGuire, of Downeyville. Rev. Father Fitzpatrick of Douro, Rev. Father McColl, Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Rev Father Galvin and Rev. Father Kelly.

The programme was a lengthy one, including sixteen numbers, every one of which was highly enjoyable. Unfortunately the order was not of the best owing to the crush but the ushers handled the crowd well.

The programme opened with a chorus, "Long live the King," by the boys of the Murray street school. In their bright uniforms and carrying small Union Jacks, they presented a pretty picture as they went through the different movements neces ary to give a proper interpretation to the chorus which was rendered with snap and vigour, yet very harmoniously.

The second number was one of the best of the evening. It was an operatta. "Triumph of Humility," and was given in four scenes. There are several pretty vocal numbers in the piece, all of which were excellently rendered. About thirty little girls took part in the presentation, and everyone acquitted herself with honour. Their costumes, emblematic of different flowers, were beautiful, especially that of the Queen of the Flowers. This number was most enthusiastically received, and well merited the generous applause bestowed.

A recitation, "The Voice and the Pen," was exceedingly well rendered by Master Herman Giroux, who displayed excellent elocutionary ability. Another very pleasing number was the fairy cantata by a number of the convent girls. Their costumes were pretty and greatly enhanced the presentation. The performers showed themselves to be clever little people, going through their parts unaffectedly and with much skill.

A trio, "The Red, White and Blue," by Masters F. Heffernan, S. Lewis and E. Collins, made a great hit. Each boy carried a bouquet of flowers, one red, one white and the other blue, and their suits were of a corresponding colour. The singing was excellent and won round after round of applause.

An instrumental duet by (1) Misses Lynch and Fife; and (2) Misses M. Sullivan and E. Connor, showed these young ladies to be accomplished pianoforte players. The number was rendered with much artistic skill and many regretted that an encore was not forthcoming.

In the minds of many of those present the Scotch drill which was next given, was among the best numbers on the programme. Ten boys dressed in natty Highland suits looked every inch like Scottish lads, and their spirited rendering of the Scottish song, "We' a hundred pipers and a'," stirred the blood of the sons of Scotia who were present. A exhibition of club swinging was introduced in this number. This item was not announced on the printed programme and came as an agreeable surprise.

A chorus in costume was then given by the boys of the Lake street school, followed by a duet, "Boys of the Old Brigade," by Masters Geo. Henry and Willie Moher. Both these numbers showed rare skill on the part of the performers.

Another chorus, "Morning Invitation," by the Convent pupils was well up to the standard of those that had gone before.

A newsboys' drill by the boys of the Murray street school, made a decided hit. In their white trousers and red sweaters, with the word 'News" written acro s the front they made a pretty picture as they lined up for the vocal part, or went through the intricate movements of the drill. An equal favourite was a song and pantomime by the girls of the Lake street school. The young ladies were dressed in green and the centre one held a large Irish harp. Another little girl rendered very sweetly Moore's well known Irish song, "The Harp that Once Through Tara's Hall."

Master Jimmie O'Brien who has a clear strong voice, was heard to excellent advantage in the solo, "Mother's Boy." This was followed by an instrumental duet, consisting of Irish airs, by (1) Misses Holland and Hattrick, and (2) Misses Sullivan and Rudkins. The audience signified its pleasure at hearing the familiar old Irish airs by hearty applause. Master Stewart Hayes' recitation, "One Horse Shay," was well received, and was followed by a laughable Dutch drill by seven boys of the Murray street school. Their costumes were somewhat grotesque and were well in keeping with the song which was sung. The National Anthem brought the programme to a close about 11.30.

The same programme will be rendered again to-night, when it is expected that the hall will be packed. The concert is a rare treat and well deserves the excellent patronage given.

In view of the large number taking part in the different choruses and drills it is not possible to single out anyone for special reference. The work throughout is of such general excellence that it would be impossible to particularize.

Shrove Tuesday; Its Significance

To-day, February 27th, is Shrove Tuesday, a day of pleasure and carnivals. Several Shrovetide carnivals have become historic, and are given with so much splendour that they attract crowds of visitors from distant parts of the world. The carnival at Nice is perhaps the most sumptuous procession shown anywhere in the world; the Mardi-Gras in New Orleans surpasses anything of the kind given in the United States, while the ancient Marked Procession of Imst in the Tyrol, is older than either and has attractions that are unique. There are, too, processions in many parts of Spain, and Italy, during the week preceding Lent, which are full of beauty.

Shrove Tuesday represents a sort of "farewell to flesh" — carnival — and typifies the beginning of the two score days of Lenten abstinence which follow, beginning to-morrow —Ash Wednesday.

To-night, pancakes, popularly in evidence on Shrove Tuesday, will make their appearance at a Pancake Social in the school house of All Saints, under the auspices of the ladies of the congregation, as well as at St. Luke's.

Have Reached An Agreement With Architect

Board of Education Made Offer to Mr. Belcher Which Was Accepted—A Meeting Called Last Night to Consider Public School Question—Not Much Business Was Done—Special Committee Have Not Secured a Site.

THEIR POWERS WILL BE ENLARGED

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Education was held last night in the secretary's office to consider the question of public school accommodation. Very little business was done as the special committee reported that not much progress had been made in the matter of securing lots. As a result of the meeting, however, the powers of the committee were enlarged. There were present Messrs. W. G. Ferguson, chairman; D. W. Dumble, B. E. Ackerman, Wm. Pringle, Dr. Morrison, Robt. Fair and John Crane.

The Collegiate Institute Building Committee presented the following report, which was adopted without discussion:

Your Collegiate Institute Building Committee beg leave to report as follows:

That we have submitted an offer to Mr. John E. Belcher for services in connection with plans, specifications, etc., for the Collegiate Institute building, and the offer is incorporated in an agreement hereto attached, and that Mr. Belcher has signified his willingness to accept this offer. We therefore recommend that the board ratify the agreement and authorize the chairman of the board to have the same properly signed and sealed.

M. A. MORRISON,
Chairman.

The agreement was practically that Mr. Belcher is to receive for professional fees for preparing plans and specifications for a Collegiate Institute, the cost of the latter not to exceed $40,000, and for all work usually done by architects, five per cent. of the actual cost of the building. The architect is to receive $500 forthwith on account of professional services and work already done for the board, on the understanding that such sum of $500 should cover all work already done on the Collegiate Institute building up to the present time.

Mr. Pringle, chairman of the special committee, reported verbally that they had not made much progress and had not yet secured a site. The owner of the property near the corner of Park and Chamberlen streets was prepared to give an option on it, but the owner of the lots south of George street not only refused an option, but refused to sell. This lot had impressed the committee very favourably as it was understood that George street would be extended south this year.

Mr. Pringle stated that Mr. Duncan Walker, Public School Inspector, Mr. Wm. Blackwell and himself were in Toronto on Saturday and inspected the Winchester avenue and Queen Alexandra schools, both of which had favourably impressed the delegation.

Dr. Morrison expressed the opinion that the committee should be given more power and suggested that they might be authorized to expropriate land if they could not buy a suitable site.

A motion to that effect, moved by Dr. Morrison and seconded by Mr. Dumble, was carried.

The board then adjourned.

Was Fined For Public Offense

This morning before County Magistrate Edmison, a Dummer resident was charged with indecent exposure in a public place. The evidence given showed that the offence was committed in the township of Douro and was strong enough to convict the accused. However as the Magistrate thought that the offence was thoughtlessly committed, and as his record was a good one, he was only fined ten dollars and costs. The full penalty is not less than fifty dollars if the offence is committed wilfully.

Faith

You cannot be expected to have faith in Shiloh's Consumption Cure, the Lung Tonic, as a cure for Colds, Coughs and all diseases of the air passages, if you have not tried it. We have faith in it, and we guarantee it. If it doesn't cure you it costs you nothing. If it does it costs you 25c. That's fair. Try it to-day.

Shiloh has cured many thousands of the most obstinate cases, and we do not hesitate to say that it will cure any Cold, Cough, Throat or Lung trouble. If we did not believe this we would not guarantee it. Shiloh has had an unbroken record of success for thirty years. It has stood every possible test without failure. Further is found in the many testimonials of those who have tried Shiloh and been cured. Mrs. Archie Taylor, Aasph, Pa., writes:—"I bought a bottle of Shiloh's Consumption Cure and found it very beneficial. I have two children, and they had a terrible cough. I gave them everything I could think of, but they got no relief until one evening my husband brought a bottle of Shiloh. We gave it to the children when they went to bed, and they slept all night. It cured them completely. I shall always keep it in the house." 603

Presented With A Clock On Eve Of Departure

C. G. E. Angling Club Honours Bro. Gilbert Scott--Leaves for Northwest Next Week--Received a Eulogistic Address --His Response--Bro. David Carlyle Fills Vacancy as Secretary.

DELIGHTFUL TIME WAS THE RESULT

At a special meeting of the C.G.E. Angling Club in the Y.M.C.A. parlours last night, about twenty of the members of the club assembled to appoint a secretary for the the remainder of the year to fill the vacancy left by Angler Gilbert Scott who leaves shortly for the Northwest, and incidentally to say good bye to Mr. Scott and make a presentation to him.

Commodore R. H. Shepherd occupied the chair and in his opening remarks mentioned the coming departure of Bro. Scott, whom he had always found a genial member of the Angling Club, and a good sport and was very sorry to see his departure from the city. Angler A. W. Patterson was then called upon and responded by reading a eulogistic and ornamental address, accompanied by a presentation by Angler J. Wilson, of a handsome clock to Brother Scott, as a mark of the high favour in which he was held by the Angling Club. The following was the address presented to the departing member:—

Bro. J. Gilbert Scott:

Dear Disciple of Izak Walton, and a member of the C.G.E. Angling Club,—On the eve of your departure from our midst to become a resident of the North-western Territories—as a Rancher—allow us to express our regret that (one who has endeared himself to our hearts by his affability, generous soul and good fellowship) you are about to sever the tie that makes all men akin, and although absent in the body yet we trust always with us in the spirit, may we wish you all the happiness, wealth, health and prosperity that man is heir to on this terrestrial sphere. May your melodious voice be long spared to you, and in your new home may you sometimes sing of the days of Auld Lang Syne. Permit us to present you with this slight token of our esteem and regard and as a timer of days gone by.

Signed on behalf of the C. G. E. AAngling Club:

R. H. Shepherd, A. W. Patterson, J. G. M. Wilson, T. Molden, P. L. Allison, F. Pope, E. Dercosher, J. J. McCabe, F. A. Taylor, D. Carlyle, P. White, P. Byshe, J. B. Cunnannon, H. Latimer, T. Glover, G. J. Tovey, H. Millard, F. Shannon, H. W. Christie, B. Fortune, J. Trombley, G. Grinnell, J. Williams, W. H. Smith, J. A. Brown, J. A. Sharpe.

Mr. Scott, who was taken unawares, made a brief reply thanking the members for their kind expression of their esteem and regretted leaving the Angling Club with whom he had spent so many delightful hours.

The members responded by the hearty singing of "For he's a Jolly, Good Fellow."

Angler D. Carlyle was appointed secretary of the Club until the annual meeting in April.

Mr. G. H. Williamson was given a unanimous vote of thanks for his kindness in loaning the parlours.

Mr. Scott will leave next Monday for the Northwest where he intends to reside and take up the business of ranching.

Last Tribute Of Respect Paid

The funeral of the late Mrs. Andrews, which took place from her late residence, 110 Gilmour street, yesterday, represented the last tribute of respect to a most estimable lady who had by her many sterling qualities of character endeared herself to a large circle of friends. She was a faithful member in her days of health, of St. John's congregation and on Sunday the Rector referred in warm terms to the fidelity of her relations to the church and its interests and spoke of the great loss which her death occasions.

"Cleon" Subject At Browning Class

Much Interest is Shown in These Lessons.

The Browning Class last night at the Y.M.C.A. was one of the most gratifying which has met there since its commencement. Mr. Earle led the class in the study of the poem "Cleon," and the interest shown was very encouraging to him. At the next lesson Mr. Earle will commence a series of poems dealing with the love of Browning for his wife. These will be, respectively, "By the Fireside," "One Word More," and "Prospice." The lesson will be on Monday night next and will begin at 7.30 o'clock.

May Be Six Dead As Result Of a Chinese Riot

Chinese Murder English Missionary and Family.

FOURTEEN ESCAPE IN BOAT

Cause of the Riot on Sunday Said to Have Been the Intervention of Missionaries in Chinese Local Politics —Magistrate Cut His Throat, and the Missionaries Were Charged With His Murder.

Pekin, Feb. 27.—The British legation here has received notice that four English missionaries, a man, his wife, and their two children, have been massacred at Nanchang, in the Province of Kiangsi.

The city is the prefectural capital, and with the troops there foreigners should be assured of protection.

No details have been received.

May Be Six Killed.

Shanghai, Feb. 27.—Somewhat confused reports have reached here of a massacre of missionaries at Nanchang, Province of Kiangsi. As nearly as can be ascertained, six missionaries were killed and one child of an English missionary was wounded.

It is alleged that after long-continued disputes between the Catholic priests and the Chinese magistrate of Nanchang, the priests invited the magistrate to a banquet, where they tried to compel him to sign an agreement for the payment of a large indemnity for the destruction of Catholic mission property. According to one report, the magistrate became indignant and committed suicide, but the Chinese assert that a priest attacked and killed him. The officials fearing to arrest the priest called a public meeting, whereupon the Catholics, according to the Chinese version of the trouble, set fire to their own premises. The public meeting of Chinese developed into a riot, which, according to one story, six of the Catholics were killed, though a later account says the number of Catholics killed was four.

Fourteen Escaped.

H. C. Kingman, a Protestant missionary, and his wife, also were killed, and one of their two children was wounded, the other being rescued. The only Protestant mission building destroyed were those of the Plymouth Brethren. Fourteen Americans escaped in a boat.

Report Conflicting.

Washington, Feb. 27.—A later cablegram from Mr. Rodgers says that the reports of the Nanchang trouble are conflicting.

In the riot which occurred Sunday six Jesuits and two members of the Kingman family were killed. Chinese troops were protecting. The refugees are going to Kukiang. The American mission building is understood to have been saved and order is now restored. Mr. Rodgers adds that all is quiet in Shanghai.

THE ONLY CHOICE.

Lord Elgin Favors Responsible Government For the Transvaal.

London, Feb. 27.—In advocating self-government for the Transvaal, Lord Elgin said: "As between responsible government and representative government we had no hesitation in choosing in favor of responsible government. Seventy years ago a similar question arose when the principles of responsible government were advocated and put in force by my grandfather and my father. It is an encouragement to me in taking the view which I have ventured to express, that I am following the principles which they thus professed, and which have resulted in the prosperous and loyal Dominion of Canada."

Death of Dr. George Stewart.

Quebec, Feb. 27.—Dr. Geo. Stewart died suddenly about 7 o'clock yesterday morning, aged 56. Born in New York, he came with his parents to Canada in 1851, living in London, Ont., till 1859, when he removed to St. John, N. B. Becoming a chemist he gave up that occupation to devote himself entirely to journalism. In 1865 he founded The Stamp Collectors' Monthly Gazette, and Stewart's Literary Quarterly Magazine. He was thereafter successively city editor of The St. John, N.B., Daily News; literary editor and dramatic critic of The Weekly Watchman, and editor in chief of Rose Belford's Monthly (Toronto). In 1897 he removed to Quebec, and until 1896 was chief editor of The Chronicle. He was a frequent contributor to the leading magazines.

May 10th Date Of Meeting Of The Assembly

Russian National Assembly Called By Imperial Ukase.

GOVERNMENT'S INTENTIONS

Will Hold Elections In Over Half the Districts—Evidence That Interior Minister Durnovo's Power Is Waning—Urgent Need For Speedy Convocation of New Parliament —The Second Ukase.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—Reports from the interior showing it is possible to hold the elections in over half of the districts and open the national assembly May 10, with a working majority, the Cabinet has recommended that the first meeting of the Russian Parliament be held and the long expected Imperial ukase to that effect was promulgated yesterday.

This definite argument, against the statement that the Government had no intention of convoking the national assembly is expected to do far more towards completing the tranquillization of the country than all the repressive measures of Interior Minister Durnovo, of whose waning power the ukase is but one of several indications.

Many of the members, including representatives of the Caucasus, Siberia, parts of Poland, the Baltic Provinces, and even of important cities like Kieff, will probably not be chosen in time to participate in the organization of the assembly. But the urgent need for a speedy convocation of the new Parliament in order to reassure the country regarding the intentions of the Government overweighed the disadvantages of incomplete representation.

A second ukase annuls the requirement of a simultaneous election throughout the Empire.

The place for the convocation of the national assembly is the historic Kuride Palace here, built by Catherine II. for her favorite, Prince Potemkine. Accommodations have been provided for the press for the first time in the history of Russian public architecture.

Willing to Remain If Pressed.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—M. Timireaseff, the Minister of Commerce, who resigned Feb. 19, said yesterday that no decision regarding the withdrawal of his resignation had been taken, but if he is given assurances of a sufficient change in policy M. Timireaseff is willing to remain in the Cabinet.

Ten Men Rob Russian Bank.

Helsingfors, Finland, Feb. 27.—Ten men forced an entrance into the Russian State Bank Sunday night, shot the guardian and secured $37,500. The robbers have not been captured.

POSITION OF MRS. BANWELL.

Thought She Was Just Eloping—She Is Not Under Arrest.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 27.—Owing to a heavy fog which has existed for two days, the Boston has not yet arrived. The mail steamer, Corinthian, is also two days overdue.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—The trial of young Banwell will come on immediately he reaches the city. He will be represented by E. E. A. DuVernet, K. C.

Mrs. Banwell, immediately on her arrival, will go to her parent's home in Erindale. She is not under arrest.

In a letter to her mother, Mrs. Hector, after Banwell's arrest in Jamaica, she states that she knew nothing whatever of her husband's doings. She suspected nothing. She thought that it was just an elopment case. She was not aware of the truth until they were far south. Banwell had promised her that they would have their Christmas dinner at home.

Had she known in time, she protests that her influence over Banwell would have averted the deed.

WILL ARBITRATE.

G. T. R. and its Engineers Can't Agree on the Wage Question.

Montreal, Feb. 27.—The G. T. R. and the engineers having failed to agree, the matter of an increase in wages will be submitted to arbitration. The company will name one man, the men one and the two thus named will choose a third. They will meet on March 3.

It is said that the company have offered an advance equal to four per cent., but the men want as much as the C. P. R. engineers.

Wil Rebuild at Moncton.

Moncton, N. B., Feb. 27.—Hon. Mr. Emmerson and his Deputy Minister, Butler, arrived here yesterday and looked over the ruins caused by fire. The Minister said plans for permanent shops were already under way. They will be built in Moncton, but there may be some little change in the site, with the view of preventing too close grouping of the buildings. Temporary shops, he said, will be put up at once.

Rev. Richard Johnstone Found Dead.

Port Huron, Mich., Feb. 27.—Rev. Richard Johnstone, a retired minister of the Church of England, was found dead in his room by his wife. Mr. Johnstone was 71 years of age. He was in Sandwich thirty years, and was said to be one of the best Latin and Greek scholars in Canada.

London Ice Condemned.

London, Feb. 27.—The local Board of Health have been notified by the Provincial Board that every pound of ice harvested from London waters is impure and unfit for use for domestic purposes.

Commission Of Enquiry Has Been Announced

Judge MacTavish, Mr. T. W. Langmuir, Mr. A. L. Kent.

AN EARLY INVESTIGATION

The Commissions Will Probably Issue To-day—Sketches of the Qualifications of the Government's Appointees to Investigate Insurance in Canada—Mr. W. E. Knowles and Chisholm to Move Address.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—The commission to investigate the insurance situation in Canada will consist of Judge McTavish, Ottawa, senior judge of the county of Carleton; Mr. J. W. Langmuir, managing director of the Toronto General Trusts Corporation, and Mr. A. L. Kent, of Kent & Turcotte, accountants, Montreal.

Judge McTavish is a jurist of high standing, who has already served on important Government commissions. He was for many years city solicitor in Ottawa.

Mr. Langmuir is one of the best-known financiers in Canada whose name needs only to be mentioned to inspire confidence.

Mr. Kent is a leading accountant and actuary in Montreal, whose long experience and skill in dealing with complex financial problems will be invaluable at the present juncture.

The commissions to the gentlemen named will probably issue to-day, and they will be expected to start the investigation as soon as possible.

To Move the Address.

It has been settled that Mr. W. E. Knowles, who was recently elected to succeed Hon. Walter Scott in West Assiniboia, will move the address in reply to the speech from the throne the day after Parliament opens, on March 9. Mr. Chisholm, who was elected for Antigonish, N. S., upon the appointment of Mr. Colin McIsaac to the Transcontinental Railway Commission, will second the address.

Pleads Self-Hypnotism.

London, Feb. 27.—William Canton, who flim-flammed a farmer named William Marsh of $800 in a property deal, was yesterday morning sentenced to two years in Kingston Penitentiary. He addressed a plea to the magistrate in the form of a letter stating that he had hypnotized himself to do the deed.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed tenders, addressed to the undersigned, marked on the envelope, "Tenders for Construction," will be received at the office of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway at Ottawa, until 12 o'clock noon, on Monday, the 19th day of March, 1906, for the work required for the construction, in accordance with the plans, profiles and specifications of said Commissioners, for the following sections of the Transcontinental Railway, for said work to be completed on or before the first day of September, 1907, viz:—

(1) District "F".—From a point designated on the plans of the said Commissioners at or near the City of Winnipeg, to a point known as Peninsula Crossing, near the junction point of the Fort William branch of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, a distance of about 245 miles.

(2) District "B".—From a point designated on the plans of the said Commissioners, at the north end of the Quebec Bridge and Railway Company's bridge in the vicinity of the City of Quebec, to a point near Lac Tuque, a distance of about 130 miles.

(3) A steel viaduct about 3,000 feet long across the Cap Rouge Valley, in said District "B", in the vicinity of the City of Quebec, the work to be performed in accordance with the General Specifications of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, and the General Specifications for steel bridges and viaducts of the Department of Railways and Canals of Canada, 1903.

Plans, profiles and specifications may be seen in the office of the Chief Engineer of the Commissioners at Ottawa, also in the office of the District Engineer at Kenora, Ontario, for the section of District "F", and for the section of District "B" in the office of the District Engineer at Quebec.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made in duplicate, and on the printed forms supplied by the Commissioners.

Separate tenders must be submitted for the work in each District.

Tenderers shall not be in any way entitled to rely upon the classification or any other information given by any person on behalf of the Commissioners and before submitting any tender parties should make a careful examination of the plans, profiles, drawings and specifications, and read the forms to be executed, and fully inform themselves as to the quantity and quality of materials and character of workmanship required; and are understood to accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions contained in the form of contract, specifications, etc., annexed to the form of tender.

Each tender must be signed and sealed by all the parties to the tender and witnessed, and be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank of the Dominion of Canada, payable to the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, for the sum of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) for District "F", two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000) for District "B" and thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) for steel viaduct in said District "B". Any person whose tender is accepted shall within ten days after the acceptance thereof furnish the security required by the Commissioners for the due and faithful performance of the contract according to its terms, sign the contract, specifications and other documents required to be signed by said Commissioners; and in any case of refusal or failure on the part of the party whose tender is accepted to complete and execute a contract with the said Commissioners and to furnish the approved security within ten days after the acceptance of the tender, the said cheque shall be forfeited to the Commissioners as liquidated damages for such refusal or failure, and all contract rights acquired by the acceptance of the tender shall be forfeited. Cheques deposited by parties whose tenders are rejected will be returned within ten days after the signing of the contract.

Attention is called to the following clauses in the form of contract:—

"All mechanics, labourers or other persons who perform labour for the purposes of the construction of the works hereby contracted for shall be paid such wages as are generally accepted as current for competent workmen in the District in which the work is being performed, and, if there is no current rate in such District, then a fair and reasonable rate; and, in the event of a dispute arising as to what is the current or a fair and reasonable rate, it shall be determined by the Commissioners whose decision shall be final."

"This agreement is subject to the regulations now in force, or which may at any time hereafter be in force during the construction of the works hereby contracted for, made under the authority of the Department of Labour and which are or shall be applicable to such works."

I have much pleasure in thanking the public for their liberal patronage in the past and to state that I am now in a better position than ever to attend to all orders for Pumps, etc., cleaning Wells, etc.

I have been appointed Agent in Peterborough for the Ontario Wind Engine and Pump Co., and will keep a stock of their various Pumps on hand, both wood and iron. The heads of the Wood Pumps are made of British Columbia Cedar, which will not split, check nor rot in the water, and last twice as long as pine.

Be wise and don't buy a cheap Pump when you can get something better.

Peterborough Doubles Score

ON THE AGGRESSIVE SEVEN

Representing Parry Sound

The Score Was 8-4 at Full Time and 5-2 at Half—The Locals Were Not Up to Their Usual Standard—The Game Was Rough and the Referee Unable to Cope With the Situation—Form Showed by the Northerners Was Rather Surprising.

Peterborough didn't display anything like championship hockey last night when they trimmed Parry Sound by a score of 8-4. The score does not indicate the play as the local forwards had their men beaten at every stage of the game but the spectacular work of Patterson in goal saved the northerners' citadel time and again when it appeared as if scores would surely result. But before going further it would be well to comment on the work of referee Burns. While he certainly seemed to try to be fair and impartial he was very inadequate to handle the game and his decisions met with general disfavour. Right from the first the players seemed to know that they could take advantage of him and his repeated two minute penalties for each offence whether serious or trifling encouraged the men to do dirty work, and dirty work there was too, the dirtiest work by far that has been seen in Peterborough this winter. The referee was kept busy penalizing men all the night and the way the crowd hooted his decisions at various times showed they did not meet with popular favour. The game did not commence until ten minutes to ten and the crowd was pretty restless when the puck was first faced. The attendance was not as large as it should have been. Considering the mildness of the past week the ice was in good condition although it was very rough in spots. The audience at first seemed to view the contest as if it were more or less of a joke and as if the homesiders were very sure and easy winners, but as the game progressed they changed their opinion and realized that Peterborough was up against a proposition that would make them work all the time. The locals displayed practically no combination and when it came to individual playing Whitcroft of course, was easily the fastest. Graham, Morgan and Cavanah all seemed to be off colour and none of them put up their usual games. Graham held his wing in good style and played a clean game, but he did not seem to get really into the game at all and his playing was not up to his usual standard. Cavanah was not in form at all and Morgan who hitherto this winter has been playing the game of his life was away below par. Crowley at cover showed up at times and Glover at point did particularly well. He played a clean heady game throughout and started many dangerous rushes. Wasson in goal appeared to have a night off. While he made many clever stops, a couple of easy ones beat him out. For the losers Patterson in goal played the game and kept the score against them as low as it was. He made innumerable remarkably clever stops and showed up to splendid advantage. He gave the best exhibition of goal tending by long odds, seen here this winter and considering the poor support he received from the rest of the defence did particularly well. His work last night stamped him as a net guarder pretty nearly good enough for any company. Mason and Thomas at point and cover respectively made a poor showing. Bragg and Prebbles the wings were the only ones of the visiting forwards who played well. The former was particularly effective. Prebbles is a hard worker and has speed to burn though in this respect Whitcroft had them all discounted. When the players once began to go to the fence it became a regular procession. In the second half Parrot, the visitors' centre received a clip on the nose from Wasson with the result that that organ was badly broken. The two became mixed up in the nets and Wasson struck Parrot. Wasson's reputation as a player is too well known for anyone to accuse him of being deliberately dirty and a natural inference is very clear that he accidentally inflicted the blow that broke Parrot's nose.

The teams were:—

Parry Sound.		Peterborough.
	Goal.
Patterson		Wasson
	Point.
Mason		Glover
	Cover Point.
Thomas		Crowley
	Rover.
Merrick		Whitcroft
	Centre.
Parrott		Morgan
	Left Wing.
Bragg		Cavanah
	Right Wing.
Prebbles		Graham

Referee—Lou Burns.
Timekeepers—Waig and McCabe.
Penalty time-keeper—Dr. Wightman.
Goal Umpires—E. Hurtubise and Jebb.

THE GAME.

The game began with a rush on the Peterborough goal. It was quickly transferred to the other end, however. Patterson in clearing his goal lifted the puck into the crowd and struck a young lady, among the spectators, in the eye. Crowley was given two minutes for bodying Prebbles. Parrott received two minutes for slashing. Cavanah rushed and shot, but Patterson made a nice stop, but went to his knees and was warned by the referee. The Sounders carried the puck down the ice in a combination rush. Peterborough retaliated. Cavanah bored in a hot one but is skimmed by the post into the corner. Whitcroft was penalized for two minutes. Wasson stopped a nasty looking one. Cavanah was sided two minutes for tripping. Morgan sent a bad looking one to the Sound nets but it went wide. Whitcroft raked out the puck from behind the visitors' goal and tried to poke it through but the Parry Sound men blocked the goal and a hot mix-up ensued. The rubber travelled to Peterborough's end and Wasson got one in his cheat that saved a score. Whitcroft scored Peterborough's first in 14 minutes, 1-0.

Whitcroft, Graham and Morgan broke away on an encouraging looking run, but there was nothing doing. Bragg rushed and shot on goal, Wasson blocking cleverly. Glover was boarded two minutes for tripping. Morgan sent one in to the nets, but Patterson as usual was in the way. Bragg and Parrott broke away on a clear rush, but were offside. Cavanah rushed and passed to Whitcroft who shot but failed to tally. Prebbles went away on a rush that looked good till he struck Crowley and then he lost the rubber. Cavanah sent one to the nets that Patterson handled. He passed to Whitcroft a little later and the latter notched a point. 2-0. Time 5 minutes. Whitcroft made a spectacular dash. Bragg delivered a sure thing from the wing and got the first one for the Northerners. 2-1.

The Parry Sound timer had a dispute with McCabe and rushed on to the ice to see the referee about the trouble. That official told him to take the timbers again and also instructed him to keep off the ice in the future. McCabe's version of the matter was right. Wasson interfered with a well-meant one of the shooting star variety. Crowley was awarded two minutes for a trip. Graham, Whitcroft and Morgan uncorked a nice combination and Whitcroft shot. Patterson stopped, but Morgan batted it through. 3-1. Time three minutes. Morgan looked good to score but was offside. Cavanah was too strenuous with his body and was chased for two minutes.

Whitcroft shot wild. Cavanah passed to Morgan who shoved it through. Time four minutes. It looked like easy money for Peterborough. Cavanah tripped the left wing over and was boarded for two minutes. Mason followed him soon with the same length of time for tripping Whitcroft. Crowley and Morgan rushed. The latter tried to locate the nets but failed. Graham came to the rescue and shot but the goalkeeper prevented a score. Whitcroft was penalized two minutes for, loafing. Bragg scored again for the visitors. 31-2 minutes. 4-2. A face-off took place near the Peterborough goal. Whitcroft started a rush and Cavanah scored in one minute. 5-2. This ended the scoring in the first half.

SECOND HALF.

Morgan opened this period with a wide shot on goal. Whitcroft banged one into the nets that Patterson sent to the corner. Morgan scored. 3-4 minutes 6-2. There was a mix-up right in Parry Sound goal and it looked as though the locals would score. Bragg got the next in one minute. 5-3. The next went to the locals in two minutes. 6-3. Bragg shot and scored from near centre. 6-4. Time one minute. Cavanah tore down the boards and sent one that flew in front of the goaltender. The referee called an offside on the locals on what looked like a straight pass. Morgan hit Prebbles over the hand and took the roost for two minutes. While the referee was chasing him around to advise him of his displeasure he scored but the goal was not allowed. Bragg shot and Wasson banged it to the side. Graham tried a long shot but failed to connect. Whitcroft rushed and passed but it went into the corner. The next point was obtained on a pass from Whitcroft to Cavanah. Time, seven minutes. 7-4.

Glover tore off a nice rush. Whitcroft had to take three minutes for chopping the goal tender on the head after Morgan had bowled him over with a heavy body. The injured man had to retire for repairs. Morgan hit Prebbles over the arm after he was down and had to take a minute. Prebbles rushed till he got as far as Crowley who stopped him like a timekeeper would a stop watch. Cavanah shot but Patterson blocked. Parrott was given two minutes for loafing. Morgan was given five minutes for tripping. Whitcroft rushed but did not pass. The puck went into the corner on his shot. Parrott rushed on to Wasson and hit him in goal, the latter struck back and his stick unfortunately hit Parrot on the nose, breaking that organ. Parrot bled profusely and had to retire for the rest of the game Graham going off to even up. Whitcroft scored from a face off in front of Parry Sound goal but it was not allowed. Glover and Cavanah rushed. The former had a grand opening, but shot wide. Patterson was benched for lying down in his goal and while he was off Whitcroft notched Peterborough's last. Time eleven minutes. Final score 8-4.

NETLETS.

For some unaccountable reason Chris. Graham did not display his usual form. It is in a close hard game that he usually shines. But when he plays in Parry Sound he will probably do much better. His effective work away from home in strenuous games was shown by the games he has played on outside ice most notably in Belleville and Galt.

• • • •

An unbroken record so far and there seems no reason why it should be different when the team returns from Parry Sound.

• • • •

More combination work is needed. It was pretty nearly all individual play last night.

• • • •

Crowley will probably be unable to accompany the team. Moore who fills his position is a good substitute.

• • • •

If Wasson shows his usual form in the return game the Sounders will be suppressed considerably with the way he handles the shots.

• • • •

The visitors were close hard checkers and didn't quit at any stage.

• • • •

"It's up to you, Lou Burns" to get after the players a little better than you did last night. Two minute penalties for everything from loafing offside to manslaughter doesn't tend to discourage rough tactics.

• • • •

"The boys will beat them in Parry Sound" predicted Mr. W. Breen to-day.

Charlotte Street And Suburbs Next Thursday

Methodists and Lakefield Seven Will Play Off In Final Game.

The city league game next Thursday night between the Charlotte street seven and the Suburbs, will decide the championship of the league.

Each team has only sustained one defeat so far this season, and one is equally as confident as the other. The game is a very important one, and F. C. Waghorne, who probably gives more satisfaction than any other referee in the O.H.A., has been chosen to referee. The crowd will doubtless be particularly large.

From the showing of both teams in the past it is almost impossible to forecast a winner.

Happy Thoughts Still Unbeaten

Put Away the Furniture Kings Last Night by Score of 3--2.

Best's Happy Thoughts still bear on high the banner of victory. Last night they hung up another victory, when they put the frayed edges on the Furniture Kings, to the tune of 3—2, in the Brock street rink. At that the new aggregation made it very close and it was anybody's game until the final dong of the bell. The furniture men started off at a dizzy pace that made the Happy Thoughs peddle backwards, and at half time had the score 2—0 in their favour. Back in the nets Bill Galley was singing: "What chance has anyone got with the furniture man!" and that two looked as big as a house to the Happy Thoughts. The Kings could not stay in the whirl, however, and blew up at the stretch. Beats romping home with three goals. For the winners Week, Ernie Beat and Foley were all to the Seltzer, while Roy, Lech and Comstock did some dizzy stunts for the small end of the score team.

Following is the line up:

Happy Thoughts.		Furniture Kings.
	Goal.
Archibald		Galley
	Point.
E. M. Best		J. Comstock
	Cover point.
Weeks		W. Bellegbem
	Rover.
McNirn		Ray

Reid		McFadden
	Right wing.
R. Best		Lech
	Left wing.

HOCKEY

It was stated last week in connection with the report of the Pill Pounder-Cressman game that the score was 2-1 in favour of the former, The Pill men say that was an erroneous report as the game at the finish stood 2-0 in their favour.

The Examiner-Review match, that has aroused so much interest in the Examiner and Review offices, will be played after the big game. F. C. Waghorne will not referee. The match is a very important one, and it is thought that the above official is hardly competent to look after the game.

Skating At The Brock Street Rink

The ice in the Brock street rink to-day is as good as it has been at any time this season, and the prospects for a few days' skating are good. The rink will be open to skaters to-night and to-morrow night, and the 57th band will be in attendance. The pleasure of skating has been denied the last few days and no doubt many will take advantage of it.

Peterboro' Woman Seeking Alimony

Mrs. Perry Takes Steps to Realize on Her Absent Husband's Land.

The Toronto Mail and Empire says: "Claiming that her husband had contributed a total of only $220 during the past eight years to the support of herself and eight children, Mrs. Mary Eleanor Perry, of Peterborough, filed a petition at Osgoode Hall yesterday for alimony. The lady asks for an order directing the sale of some land belonging to her husband, Robert Scott Perry, situated in Thomasburg, Hastings County, the proceeds to be applied to the payment of alimony. Some time ago Mrs. Perry sued for and obtained an order allowing her $5 weekly, but Robert Perry is in Alberta and no remittances are forthcoming. The parties were married in 1868 and lived together for 22 years, till 1890."

LENDRUM

Unique Social Held By Girls' Guild of St. John's

Ye Olde Tyme Entertainment Last Night Was an Unqualified Success.

Despite numerous counter attractions, "ye olde time" social, held under the auspices of the Girls' Guild in St. John's school room last night, was largely attended, and as usual was an unqualified success. The guild has attained a well-deserved reputation in connection with this annual event, and as a result there is never any difficulty in securing a good attendance.

Many of those present last night were the quaint garb of "ye olden days," and the effect was unique and charming. The school room was artistically adorned with flags and bunting, while over the entrance hung a red and white banner bearing the magic world, "welcome."

A place possessing great attraction for many people was the candy booth which occupied a prominent position near the platform. The home-made candy on sale was much in demand and not a box was left. The booth was in charge of Mrs. Caniff, assisted by Miss Ruth Dawson and Miss Lottie Whitcroft.

During the evening Mr. D. Hughes Charles, who occupied the chair in his usual efficient manner, made appreciative references to the work being done by the Girls' Guild. The following programme was rendered:

Instrumental trio, march, Mrs. Halpany and Masters Carl and Frank.

Recitation, "Little Mary," Miss Bessie Ray.

Reading, "The Enchanted Shirt," Mr. K. Bradley-Wilmot.

Violin duet, Miss Burnett and Miss Wallis.

Recitation, "Sister Mollie's Beau," Miss Annie Christie.

Vocal duet, "The Country Courtship," Mr. and Mrs. Devy.

Vocal solo, "Just Because I Love You So," Mr. Thos. Dawson.

Dialogue, "A Slight Misunderstanding," Miss Pratt and Mr. Matt. Drysdale.

Vocal solo, "An Awful Little Scrub," Master Cyril Devy.

Recitation, "The Kiss Good-night," Miss Annie Christie.

Vocal duet, "Coming Through the Rye," Miss Josie Callander and Harry Thornton.

Vocal solo, "The Harp That Once Through Tara's Hall," Miss Ruth Dawsone.

Tableaux in three scenes, (a) A five o'clock tea; (b) Hunting for the burglar; (c) The only man in town.

After the programme the young ladies serve refreshments such as seed cake and pumpkin pie like mother used to make, and a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close with "The National Anthem."

57th Band at Brock St. Rink to-morrow (Wednesday) night. Ice in splendid condition.

Epworth League To Discuss Work

The meeting of the Epworth League of Charlotte street Methodist church last night was one of special interest. A paper was read by Miss Florence Wilson on "Pioneer Missionaries in Canada." The paper was most interesting and was much enjoyed by the audience. Mr. Latimer presided, and there was the usual good attendance.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"GIRL OF THE STREETS"

George F. Driscoll's "Girl of the Streets" was played to a small but receptive audience last night at the Grand Opera House. The play was not up to the class that has been seen in Peterborough. It opens with a scene of Nan Meadow's home, where dwell Nan Meadows and her little niece "Pot." Martin A. Somers, as Dan Green, the villain, intercedes and attempts to force Nan to wed him, during the absence of her true lover, Bab Davis. He succeeds in abducting Nan and the little one, and drags them into a New York den, where Nan is once more rescued. "Kit" who plays a leading part of the role, and who was once in love with Dan Green, ends his career at a point of a revolver after he has struck Nan, who refused to accompany him to the hotel. At the trial "Kit is pardoned by the Governor for the shooting, and Nan is once more set at liberty.

"IT'S UP TO YOU, JOHN HERNY"

The reputation of the comedy "It's up to you, John Henry," appears to have preceded its production at the Grand to-night, and many have been availing themselves by the early purchase of tickets of the opportunity of witnessing the best of Charles E. Grapewin's plays.

"It's up to You John Henry," is the mirthful musical masterpiece of George V. Hobart, in which Charles E. Grapewin is the star. It has proven one of the most successful of American farce comedies, its tour having been a succession of triumphs ever since its beginning. There is more to the play than is contained in the average musical hodge-podge. It is based on a clearly defined plot, which holds the attention of the audience from the rise to the final fall of the curtain. The star has been surrounded by a carefully selected and evenly balanced company, which includes Miss Anna Chance and the St. Cecelia Quartette. The play abounds in catchy songs, beautiful ensemble numbers, clever comedy and all else that goes to make up an excellent presentation of an excellent production. The costumes and scenery are all new and bright and the chorus of pretty girls is a winning one.

"SIGN OF THE CROSS"

Entirely new costumes, historically correct and of the richest textures have been made for Fred G. Berger and R. G. Craselin's great production of "The Sign of the Cross," which will be given at the Grand on Wednesday, Feb. 28. All the elaborate scenery and massive effects representing Rome at the time of Nero, used in the original London production of Wilson Barrett's marvellously impressive religious drama have been repainted by the noted artist, Matt Morgan, and will be admired here as a resplendent spectacular dramatic offering.

Epworth League Entertains Friends

The members of the Epworth League of George street church last night gave an enjoyable social evening to the young people of the church in the church parlours. Tea was served by the young ladies from 6.30 to 8 o'clock, and a large number of the young people of the church accepted the invitation of league and spent a very pleasant evening. After the tea a programme, in which Miss Todd, Miss Gumpricht, Miss Parnell and the Misses Hill took part, was rendered. Rev. Dr. Crothers gave an address on the work of the league. The affair was most successful.

Mr. John T. Fay Makes A Reply To Explanation

An Interesting Answer to the Alleged Exposure of His Methods of Entertaining the Public---He Asserts Further That the Claims Made Are Genuine---Challenges Further Tests by Committee---Some Additional Reports Given.

DENIES TRUTH OF THE EXPLANATION

Yesterday's Ottawa Journal contained a letter from Mr. John T. Fay, in which he replies to the "Explanations" published in that paper on Saturday, and reproduced in the Examiner yesterday.

Since the subject is one of much interest in Peterborough, Mr. Fay's letter is published below:

Editor Journal—Having perused with some care the burlesque attempt at a display of so-called knowledge by one who does not sign his name, and is not worthy of consideration, except that in a way it is an attack on some of Ottawa's best citizens and bon-ton element, which strikes me as a pretty tough proposition to brand Mrs. Fay's patrons as bare-brained imbeciles. I also consider that Mrs. Fay has been described unjustly and without regard for the truth, for they have attacked that on which there is no ground for attack. Anyone attending the entertainment given by Mrs. Fay knows well that I have stated time and time again that the entertainment was given solely to amuse and entertain the public, and that no claim was made, but the audience might draw their own conclusions. In fact I am wont to repeat this, and inasmuch as no claim was made there could be no criticism. Now, why a man should rush to the daily papers with such a silly lot of rot and flaunt his opinions with such audacity, and what his object is, one cannot conceive.

No attention was paid throughout this entire concoction of gibbering idiocy to the fact that dozens of people comprising the aristocracy of Ottawa had their questions answered by Mrs. Fay, they claiming that they did not even write anything, but were simply concentrating their thoughts upon the subject mentioned by Mrs. Fay. Mrs. Fay has been accused of ballyragging and rambling. If the writer of this great conception of literary genius was possessed of one-thousandth part of a grain of intelligence that percolates the cranium of Mrs. Fay, he would not speak to ordinary individuals. His article is as base a satire on the King's English as it has been my lot to read for many a day. In my opinion his limited ability should be confined to writing obituary notices for pet poodle dogs.

It is seldom I have witnessed such a spasmodic outbreak as this and the writer's conception of work of this character is as far beyond his scope of knowledge as the planet Jupiter is beyond the wiles of a three shell worker. This is the same class of moral hyenas, human vultures and scavengers, (who would tear the laurels of success from Mrs. Fay's brow), as did long ago his ancestors imprison Galileo when he said that the earth was round, when everybody knew it was flat, so why should I expect any different treatment for the Fays?

A Denial.

To commence with, Mrs. Fay does not tie a knot in the handkerchief, and if a fine black thread was stretched across the stage the handkerchief would necessarily have to travel across from left to right or vice versa. As it is, you will note to-night that the handkerchief follows Mrs. Fay down to the very footlights. Strange that the committee on the stage does not discover this thread. Then about the black rod supporting my illusion and hidden by the background formed by my trousers. To-night I will don white overalls to show the fallacy of this statement, and give the audience a chance to note the absence of any such agency. I did not pass a hoop about her form, did I? Well, I did, and will again. The handcuffs are faked, are they? I remember well that I offered $100 reward to anyone who could show they were a fake, and the offer still holds good. I should like to lock them on the writer's wrists, and if he proves they are a fake and opens them I will present $100 in cash to any local charity organization named by The Journal, he to do the same. I will allow a committee to move the cabinet anywhere upon the stage to-night, and instead of there being nothing doing, as was expressed in my learned friend's article, there will be things doing just the same. As to this accusation of confederates and telephonic connection from the stage to the boxoffice, what a great brain to conceive of this. I am but an imitation of the famous Baldwin. Indeed, Mr. Baldwin, with all due respect to him, happened to be one of my father's employees 40 years ago, and if Mr. Baldwin ever gave such a finished performance as is given by Mrs. Fay, he would be so proud he wouldn't speak to anyone. It is not my intention to belittle the attempts of others, but I offer my receipts here when I was here before if they could offer proof that I used confederates, and inasmuch as my receipts run into the thousands of dollars in this delightful city it would have paid the writer if he had busied himself and found these confederates and thus copped the coin of the realm, which is so seductive to comfort on this mundane sphere.

About the Telephone.

In conclusion, as confederates are used, and it is positive that no telephone could be placed from the stage to the boxoffice without the employees about the theatre knowing it, and certainly such a reputable citizen as Mr. Gorman would not have allowed this. I consider that an attack has been made against Mr. Gorman as a representative citizen, respected throughout the community, and it is a slanderous piece of business which is a stench to the nostrils of the honest-minded public. The whole argument is out of place. Were I trying to gull the people or ask them to believe in some theory in regard to my performance, had I said it was mind reading or some ism or theory, I might have laid myself liable to criticism, but inasmuch as I have said so very distinctly and many times repeated myself, that there was no claim made, and my sole object was to amuse and entertain the public, there should be no kick coming.

However, I am inclined to be charitable, and will say that the writer of this article can post an offer of anything, $1,000 to $5,000, or if the figures do not suit his purse we will make it 10 cents to $10, and the audience can appoint a committee of ladies to examine Mrs. Fay's clothing, and should they discover the presence of any wires or mechanical contrivances I would gladly donate whatever sum I should put up, provided the party in question donated a like amount in the event of nothing being discovered.

It is but a fresh exhibition of one seeking the notoriety for himself by endeavouring to force his presence upon the attention of the public. The use of thousands of dollars I have spent in an endeavour to perfect my company should result in profit or loss to myself and myself alone, and my entertainment be run the same as any other. If this party wishes notoriety let him hire a hall and go to the expense I have, for I doubt if he could get a theatre, and tell to the public or flaunt his views as to my entertainment and the use of confederates.

Terms Of Agreement
--WITH THE CARPET MANUFACTURERS--
Are Now Made Public

If the Electors Approve They Will Get Fifteen Acres of Land and Fixed Assessment for Twenty-one Years--Committee of the Whole Discussed the Question Last Night--Responsibility Now Rests With the People--A Vote Will be Taken Shortly--Agree to Employ 125 Hands by End of 1907.

The carpet factory proposition is now in shape to present to the public. At the meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council held last night to discuss the question, a decision was arrived at, and the matter will be submitted to the electors in the form of a bylaw, upon which they will be asked to vote.

The terms of the agreement by which the industry may be secured, are briefly these:—The city is to give the company fifteen acres of land, the location of which has not yet been decided upon, and a fixed assessment of twenty-one years upon the purchase price of the land; and in return the company will erect buildings to cost not less than $50,000, exclusive of machinery, and before January 1, 1907, employ fifty hands, that number to be increased to 125 inside of a year from that date.

This is the proposition which the people will be asked to vote on in the near future, and it is the best possible terms upon which the industry can be secured.

Now, that the terms of the agreement are published there can be no harm in reviewing the negotiations which have led up to this agreement being reached. In the first place the difference between what the company asked and what the city was prepared to give was considerable. The council offered ten acres and ten years' fixed assessment, and the company proposed twenty-four acres, and twenty-one years' fixed assessment. Later the company agreed to accept 20 acres, and at a further conference, 15 acres, and the fixed assessment, as suggested, 21 years, was mentioned as the very least they would accept, and assent to the agreement.

At the conference on Saturday in answer to Mayor Best Mr. Brinton stated positively that unless those terms were agreed upon the deal was off and they would not locate in Peterborough.

The members of the council last night did not feel like taking the responsibility of saying they would agree to pass a bylaw ratifying this agreement, unless the electors sanctioned it, and, as a result, at the next meeting of the council a bylaw along lines as suggested will be given its first reading, and a condition of its being effective will be its assent to by the electors.

There is another condition to the agreement, too, and that is that the Legislature pass the city's private

Will Board Of Health Demand Isolation Hospital?

St. Joseph's Hospital Has Notified Council it Cannot Accept Contagious Disease Patients—Nicholls Hospital Will do Same—Question Now Is: "What Will City Do?"—Board of Health May Demand Hospital.

The question of the Isolation Hospital has reached a new stage now. At the meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council which was held last night, a letter was read from the Mother Superior of St. Joseph's Hospital, advising the council that, after consultation with Dr. R. Bruce Smith, Inspector of Hospitals, it has been decided that in future no more contagious disease patients would be accepted at that hospital.

It is understood that, while the council has received no official notice of such intention, the Nicholls Hospital Board has decided upon the same course of action.

It will be remembered that some time ago the Hospitals took similar action, but afterwards an arrangement was made by which the Nicholls Hospital would accept scarlet fever patiocnts upon payment of $1 a day for each patient, and the St. Joseph's Hospital would accept diphtheria patients at the same rate.

It appears that the Inspector has notified the two hospitals that they must not accept any more contagious diseases cases, and one hospital has advised the council to this effect.

The question was discussed informally at the meeting of the Committee of the Whole last night, and a consideration of what was the best course to pursue was given, but nothing was decided upon.

Ald. Hall said that medical men were now of the opinion that the best place to treat contagious diseases was in the place where the patient was, and that by removing him danger of spreading the disease was incurred.

If that were the case there would be no need for an isolation hospital.

It was pointed out that the law gave the Board of Health the power to demand of the council enough money to erect an isolation hospital, should they decide that one was necessary, but it was not anticipated that this Board would take such radical measures.

As a consequence nothing was done with the question last night.

Drafting Agreement With Carpet Factory

Mr. Preen is in the City To-day Closing the Deal to Bring the Factory Here in Case the Electors Support the Proposal--He Will Also Manage the Factory When Completed.

Mr. Preen, one of the representatives of Messrs. Brinton, Limited, the Carpet manufacturers, who want to locate here, arrived in the city today from Toronto, accompanied by his solicitor. After the meeting last night, Ald. McWilliams communicated with Mr. Preen, advising him of the decision reached, and the purpose of his visit to the city to-day is to enter into an agreement with the city embodying the terms as settled last night.

If the agreement is satisfactory it is understood that the company will proceed at once with the preliminary arrangements for the erection of the buildings.

After the details are completed, Mr. Bristin will return to England, and Mr. Preen will remain here to superintend the construction of the buildings, and he will manage the factory after its completion.

This afternoon Mr. E. H. D. Hall, the city solicitor, Ald. McWilliams, Mr. Preen and his solicitor, are engaged in arranging the details of the agreement.

Brantford Wants The 57th Regiment

The 57th Regiment will in all probability go to Brantford this year, and that such a visit would be enjoyed by the regiment is not doubted. The Brantford people, too, are evidently anxious that the 57th should go there that day, and there is a project on foot to hold a big military demonstration. The Expositor referring to it, says:

There is a strong possibility that Brantford will have a military day on July 1st. A meeting of the officers of the Dufferin Rifles is being held to-night in their quarters at the armoury to discuss the idea and talk over possible plans.

The idea just started when an intimation was received that the 57th of Peterborough were planning to visit some Western Ontario city on Dominion Day, and would prefer to come to Brantford. The 57th is a crack regiment of red-coats with one of the best military bands in Canada, and they would without doubt prove a big drawing card here. It is practically certain that if the local regiment extends an invitation the Peterborough men will decide to come to Brantford. The officers will consider the matter to-night, and will probably decide to extend an invitation.

Many Questions On Love And Marriage Were Asked Mrs. Fay

Hundreds of Letters Daily Were Received by Mrs. Fay While She Was in This City—The Examiner Publishes a Few of the Letters To-day—Confidence Reposed Was Evidently Not Very Highly Respected—Scores of Letters Written by Local Persons Thrown Out on Street.

The Fays during their stay in Peterborough had probably the largest mail going out of the local post office to any one person or firm in the city. Letters simply poured in to them by the bushel, and it appears that they did not always take special pains to respect the confidence reposed in them. At least it would not appear so, from the disposition made of some of the letters.

There were two conditions upon which Mrs. Fay undertook to answer letters, the first being that the coupon given with the book, which was purchased at 25 cents, must be enclosed, and the second was that a stamped envelope should be enclosed. In a great many cases the writers failed to comply with one or both of both of these conditions, and the consequence was that the letters were simply pitched aside. Other letters, the writers of which did fulfil the conditions, might have met a similar fate, but, at any rate, there were scores of enquiries thrown out-doors from the Fays' room at the Oriental, and these letters, not by design or negligence on the part of anyone connected with the hotel, but because of the manner in which they were thrown away by the Fays, have passed into hands where the writers never intended that they should go. A great many of them have been handed to the Examiner, and are now in this office. These letters indicate the implicit confidence which the public, particularly the ladies, placed in the Fays, for all sorts of questions were asked, and the great majority of letters are from ladies, and their questions are very largely confined to matrimonial matters. To give the public a general idea of the kind of letters the people have been writing, the Examiner publishes a few of the many which it has received. The names of the writers, which, in the case of all those published to-day except one, are signed, are, of course, withheld from the public, and the Examiner considers them as strictly confidential, and those who have written letters to the Fays and whose inquiries have fallen into the hands of this paper, need have no fear that they will be exposed. The publication of the names of the writers of some of the letters would cause trouble which would take years to remedy, and for this reason the Examiner will keep its counsel as to the writers of the letters. The refusal to publish the names of the writers does not, however, indicate that the letters which are given below are not genuine. Every single letter published, as well as those in possession of the Examiner, and which are not published to-day is the identical letter written to Mrs. Fay, and those who wrote the letters published to-day may have them on application to this office.

A few of these letters are as follows:

Peterborough, Feb. 22.

Dear Madam,—I received one of your books at the opera house last night, so will you please tell me.

First, If I am going to be successful with my trade as a baker, and if not, what will I do best at?

Second, Am I to marry the girl I am going with. If not, who am I to marry?

Third, How much money am I to get when I come of age?

Fourth, How long am I to stay in Peterborough?

So, hoping you will help me out, I am, yours truly,

JAMES L. ——

Kingston, Feb. 21, 1906.

Dear Madam,—Will you kindly answer those few questions, and oblige

ANNIE.

How long will I remain working where I am at present?

How long will it be before I am married?

What sort of a husband will I marry?

Will the marriage be advantageous?

What is his situation, and what is his name? Where will I meet him?

Peterborough, Feb. 21.

Dear Mrs. Fay,—I have a sick baby. She was born healthy and took indigestion at two months. I have tried all kind of foods and doctors, till I am nearly discouraged, now, will you please tell what will agree with her. I will be seriously waiting to hear from you.

LILLIE.

Peterborough, Feb.

Mrs. Fay,—Would I be successful in the land deal I am contemplating in the West, if I should complete it?

JAMES H.

Peterborough, Feb. 22.

Dear Madam,—Having bought one of your books last night, I am glad to have the privilege of asking you a question. What trade does my future husband follow, and have I met him yet?

Yours sincerely,

BEATRICE.

Peterborough, Feb. 22.

Mrs. Eva Fay,—Will you kindly tell me the complexion of my future husband, and where he lives?

Would you please tell me what I am adapted to do, and who I am going to marry, and how long until I am married?

AGGIE ——.

Dear Madam,—I wish to ask and hope to receive answers to the following:

1st. Will I hold the job I have now for a long time; if not, how long?

2nd. I have a desire to go to Cuba.—would I do well if I went there?

3rd. Will I ever be any wealthier than I am now; if I will be how long will it be till I am, and how am I to proceed?

Please excuse me for being so plain and please answer as soon as possible, and oblige, yours,

JAMES ——.

Peterborough, Feb. 21.

Kingston, Feb. 18.

Dear Mrs. Fay,—

I had the pleasure of hearing and seeing you on the 17th Feb, and as you said you would answer any question sent you I have taken the privilege to write you. I wrote you a little over a year ago to Toronto, and you answered me but I have forgotten what you wrote me, as I left shortly after for three months in England; had forgotten all about it till you came here.

Will you tell me if I am always to live in Kingston: if I shall ever marry; and how long am I to continue living as I am?

Thanking you in anticipation, I remain, yours sincerely,

KATE ——.

Kingston, Ont.

THE TELEGRAPH operator, seizing a favourable lull, said:

"In my business a man has strange experiences. It was only yesterday that I sent a message to a White Mountain hotel: 'Hold room for self and wife. Ten days.' My message it seems, had been incorrectly transmitted as: 'Hold room for self and wife. Ten dogs.'"

A Few Facts for Women

About Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets

These tablets are the prescription of a distinguished specialist in women's diseases.

They are compounded for the special needs of women alone.

They embody the results of the very latest medical discoveries.

They contain ingredients recently discovered that no other remedy contains.

They are a compound remedy, that is, they contain something for every organ of the female system.

They are purely vegetable, and unlike the liquid preparations contain neither alcohol nor opium.

There are six dozen tablets in one box, enough for an extended treatment.

They Make Healthy Women.

Tired, Nervous Mothers

Make Unhappy Homes—Their Condition Irritates Both Husband and Children—How Thousands of Mothers Have Been Saved From Nervous Prostration and Made Strong and Well.

Mrs Albert Mann Mrs Chester Curry

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children: it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly.

The ills of women act like a firebrand upon the nerves, consequently nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues" sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability? Are your spirits easily affected, so that one minute you laugh, and the next minute you feel like crying?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the abdominal region, and between the shoulders; bearing-down pains; nervous dyspepsia, and almost continually cross and snappy?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous prostration than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact.

Mrs. Chester Curry, Leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra, 42 Saratoga St., East Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I was troubled with extreme nervousness and hysteria brought on by irregularities. I could neither enjoy life nor sleep nights. I was very irritable, nervous and despondent.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and proved to be the only remedy that helped me. I have daily improved in health until I am now strong and well and all nervousness has disappeared."

The following letter is from Mrs. Albert Mann, 154 Gore Vale Ave., Toronto, Ont:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered a long time with serious female trouble having intense pains in the back and abdomen and very sick headaches every month. I was tired and nervous all the time and life looked very dreary to me and I had no desire to live until I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to get some relief. My recovery was slow but it was sure and I have never regretted the money spent for the Compound as it brought back my good health."

Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine that holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of female ills, and take no substitute.

Free Advice to Women.

Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write to her for advice. Mrs. Pinkham's vast experience with female troubles enables her to advise you wisely, and she will charge you nothing for her advice.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

The Fays Are Still A Wonder To Ottawans

They Opened Another Week's Engagement There on Monday and Changed the Details of Their Performance Somewhat—Absence of Silk Cloth Makes no Difference to Questions—Genuine Handcuffs Were Used—Still Bells Rang.

WHITE TROUSERS FOR LEVITATION ACT

Last night's Ottawa papers contain reports of the first performance of the return visit of the Fays to that city, and, in view of the statements published in reference to the manner in which some of the acts were performed, they varied the programme considerably from that given there on the previous visit, and from that given in Peterborough. The papers state that the opera house was again crowded. In view of the interest worked up in the visit of these people to this city, the following reprint from the Ottawa Journal is given:—

Apart from the thaumaturgical exhibition, perhaps the most interesting part of the show was the hand-cuff trick—interesting not merely from the way the thing was done, but from the fact that last night certainly not any trick variety of hand-cuffs but the genuine article, was used. On the commencement of this part of the show Mr. John T. Fay announced that if any one in the audience had a pair of hand-cuffs they would be as acceptable for use as the pair employed by himself. Mr. Walter Dicks, chief detective of the Ottawa police department, was present and on this announcement he stepped briskly upon the stage, at the same time producing a pair of hand-cuffs that have often served him in good stead. After smilingly locking them on the wrists of Ahba Humidruz, the Oriental, and seemingly locking them tightly, he replaced the key in his pocket. All this naturally raised the attention of the spectators to a pitch somewhat higher than the ordinary. The Oriental then sat within the cabinet and in spite of his unaccustomed fetters, "the mysteries of the enchanted tapestries," as the act is called, were performed with the usual results, the tambourines and the hand-bells tumbling forth in their accustomed manner from the apertures in the cloth curtains. But when Ahba Humidruz stepped forth and presented his wrists to be freed of the fetters an unexpected delay was experienced, for Mr. Dicks, accustomed and all as he is to manipulating the cuffs, was unable to easily unlock them. One hand was freed comparatively quickly, but the other cuffs refused to be opened. The key was tried once, a second time, and yet a third time, but still the cuff stayed on. Detective and Oriental finally had to retire within the wings to complete the unlocking operation. Members of the audience then considered more than ever that the hand-cuffs must have been genuine, and big white dints in the Oriental's wrists afterwards gave proof that the locks were put on tightly.

Levitation Feature.

In the mid-air levitation feature, Mr. Fay officiated, not in his usual black trousers, but in an immaculate pair of white duck overalls, in evidence, as he explained, of no black cord being used in the act. But all through the act he stood behind the sofa with his legs immoveable. Just as Orris, the subject of the levitation, was being wafted by Mr. Fay's fingers back to the couch, Mr. P. Valiquette cried out from his seat in the theatre, "Come to the front of the stage," but Mr. Fay made no reply to this request, and still kept his legs immoveable. The hoops as usual, was passed around the subject's body while she was suspended in mid-air, and during this Mr. Fay took occasion to be a bit sarcastic as to the doubt which had been thrown on the genuineness of the performance.

Nor was his sarcasm confined to this feature alone. In the lifting the table item for instance, Mr. Fay bid the committee on the stage make sure there were no black-headed pins projecting from the table, and in the spirit handkerchief business he admonished Mrs. Fay to tie no knots in the handkerchief.

But to come to the question-answering feature.

The method in which this was performed was radically different from the way in which it had been given before. The shawl that has usually been used in covering Mrs. Fay during the performance of the act was entirely dispensed with, Mrs. Fay sitting in free view of the audience. Nor did she occupy a raised platform or a fancy couch, for her seat appeared to be nothing but an ordinary every-day kitchen chair, resting on the floor of the stage. Apart from a white handkerchief across her eyes, she showed no difference from her regular stage appearance. Mr. Fay explained that the use of the shawl saved Mrs. Fay physically, but he would dispense with it for this occasion, and becoming sarcastic again he remarked that he had moved her head from side to side to show there were no telephones.

The Journal also gives a list of questions asked and their answers. There appeared to be no inconvenience caused by the loss of the silk covering.

The Pancakes Were Enjoyed

A Successful Social Held at St. Luke's Last Night.

The reputation of the members of St. Luke's Mothers' Guild for providing excellent entertainments was well sustained last night by the annual Pancake Social, which was attended by a large number of friends and members of St. Luke's church. The pancakes were like those "mother used to make," and were enjoyed by all. The fishpond was a place much patronized by the young, as was also the candy table, at which Miss Edna Rogers and Miss Vivian Bennett sold the sweets. Mrs. Clitherow and Mrs. Long were in charge of the sales. After all had done justice to the inner man the Rector gave an interesting lecture on St. Petersburg and Moscow, illustrated by 70 lime light views. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all and the social proved the ability of the Mothers' Guild for providing pleasant social functions. The officers of the Guild are:

President—Mrs. H. Bennett.
Vice-President—Mrs. R. B. Rogers.
Treasurer—Mrs. A. Waterman.
Secretary—Mrs. John Strain.

The proceeds of the social amounted to about $40.

Start Repairs On Dams In North

Mr. Clem Gordon Makes First Trip of Inspection.

—The Lindsay Post says: Mr. C. Gordon, Peterborough, overseer of the Trent Canal, made his first trip north to-day in connection with the dams recently transferred from Provincial to Dominion control. He was on his way to Eagle Lake to arrange for the building of a new dam on Hall's Lake and the repair of one on Hawk Lake. Mr. Gordon engaged Mr. John Brooks as foreman, and was accompanied north by Mr. Peter Grozelle, who for years has been in charge of the reservoir dams in that region.

Old Resident Of Galway Dead

Late Alexander Barr Was Most Highly Respected.

The funeral of the late Alexander Barr, of Galway, took place recently. The deceased was born in Lanark, and came to Galway in 1861, where he resided until his death. He leave a wife and nine children. Three of these reside in Oregon, Alexander, Robert and James. Mrs. J. Gilchrist resides in Bancroft, Herbert in the township of Somerville, Bertha, who has been attending school in Lindsay, Oliver, Ethel and Mossom, who reside at home.

He was among the first settlers that came to Galway, and took up lots on the tenth concession, where by his industry he established a very comfortable home. The deceased was 72 years old and was a highly respected citizen. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. France of Kinmount. IMPROVED machinery will not, of itself, produce good flour.

You may be an excellent cook, but you cannot produce light, wholesome baking unless the flour you use be the kind that permits such results.

So in the milling; machinery alone cannot produce

Royal Household Flour

out of the wrong kind of wheat any more than you can make the right kind of bread or pastry out of the wrong kind of flour.

Ogilvie's Royal Household Flour is made from hard spring wheat—a wheat that is rich in nutriment, that grinds fine and white, and produces bread and pastry that are wholesome and nourishing as well as light and crisp—it's a flour that begins to be good in the wheat fields, not in the mills.

Your grocer prefers to sell you Ogilvie's Royal Household Flour because he knows the value of a pleased customer.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

(INCORPORATED BY THE STATE OF NEW YORK)

JOHN R. HEGEMAN, President

The Company OF the People, BY the People, FOR the People of its plans and of faith in its management may be fairly claimed in the number of Metropolitan policies in force. It is not only greater than that of any other company in America, but greater than that of all the other regular companies combined, less one. It exceeds by two millions the entire population of the Dominion of Canada. Nearly 300,000 Canadians, of all classes, are policy-holders in the Metropolitan. It has on deposit with the Government of the Dominion of Canada, in Canadian securities, dollar for dollar of its Canadian liabilities. In 1905 it here in Canada wrote as much new insurance as any two other Life Insurance Companies, Canadian, English or American.

A REASONABLE INDICATION OF THE DESERVED POPULARITY

SIGNIFICANT FACTS

The Company's policy claims paid in 1905 averaged in number one for each minute and a quarter of each business day of 8 hours, and in amount $105.83 a minute the year through.

The value and timeliness of these payments may be gleaned from the fact that of the claims paid during the year, 4,326 were under policies less than 3 months old, 8,391 were on policies which had run under 6 months and 15,148 were within the first year of insurance.

THE DAILY AVERAGE OF THE COMPANY'S BUSINESS DURING 1905 WAS:

395 per day in Number of Claims Paid.
6,972 per day in Number of Policies Issued.
$1,302,484.00 per day in New Insurance written.
$123,788.29 per day in Payments to Policy-holders and Addition to Reserve.
$77,275.94 per day in Increase of Assets.

Paid Policy-holders in 1905 for Death Claims, Endowments, Paid-up Policies, Dividends, etc., with amount set aside on their behalf as increased reserve—

$37,755,428.59

Paid Policy-holders since the organization of the Company, plus the amount invested and now on hand for their security—

$318,264,084.12

COMPARISONS, ETC.

Income in 1905	$61,531,909.49

Increase in Assets during 1905	23,56v,162.05
Gain in Insurance in force	126,085,438.00
The total number of Policies in force Dec. 31, 1905, was	8,596,705
The total amt. of outstanding insurance Dec. 31, 1905	$1,596,589,769.00
Number of persons in the service of the Company, over	19,000

THE TWO DEPARTMENTS

In the Ordinary Department policies are issued for from $1,000 to $1,000,000 on individual lives, premiums payable annually, semi-annually, or quarterly. In its Industrial Department (which is family insurance) policies are issued on all the insurable members of the household with premiums payable weekly.

The Metropolitan gained in insurance in force on which premiums are still being paid MORE THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Metropolitan wrote more business in the Industrial Department in 1905 than ever before in any one year.

The Metropolitan wrote more business in the Ordinary Department in 1905 than ever before in any one year,

The Metropolitan wrote more business in 1905 than any other Company in the world. And this for the 12th consecutive year.

The Metropolitan has more premium paying business in force in the United States than any other company.

The Metropolitan has in force one-third of all the legal reserve policies in force in the United States. Its Industrial policies in force equal in number all the Industrial policies of all the other companies in the United States.

THE RATIO OF EXPENSE TO PREMIUM INCOME IN 1905 WAS THE LOWEST IN THE COMPANY'S HISTORY.

This Company issues no TONTINE or other forms of deferred dividend policies, in which the amount to be paid to the insured must largely be a matter of ESTIMATE at the inception of the contract, and of DISAPPOINTMENT at its maturity.

Its policies are plain business contracts which tell their whole story on their face; leave nothing to the imagination; borrow nothing from hope; require definite conditions; and make definite promises in dollars and cents.

Is not the fact that, notwithstanding the agitation in life insurance, the Metropolitan wrote more insurance in its Ordinary Department in 1905 than it ever wrote in any preceding year, proof that GUARANTEED BENEFITS for a fixed premium are what people want?

In its Industrial Department policies no obligation to pay dividends is either expressed or implied, the premiums being at stock rates, without the "loading" designed for dividends; nevertheless the Company for years past, as a pure act of grace, has returned a part of its surplus, annually, to the holders of its policies. The total amount so paid, including the amount set aside for 1906, is

OVER FIVE AND A HALF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN CASH

The Auxiliary Adopts Policy

Of Soliciting Donations Instead of Holding Teas and Lectures.

The last regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. was held last Thursday, when the financial position of the Auxiliary was again considered. Although the result of the annual concert of December last was very gratifying, the Auxiliary realizing a larger sum than ever ever before, there is still a balance due arising from the furnishing of the new dormitories, and the re-decorating that was done last spring, and as spring again approaches there will be renewed expense.

In past years the ladies have supplemented their income from the concert by occasional teas, lectures and small affairs of this kind to which the ladies of the city have been asked to contribute. It has been decided that instead of doing this again this year the members of the Auxiliary will call on the ladies early in March, soliciting in small donations of money what has been contributed otherwise in past years.

As the Y.M.C.A. is a non-denominational association, and one that should be of common interest, not only to the Auxiliary but to all citizens, the ladies hope to be kindly received when they call on this occasion.

Is The Guest Of Brother-in-Law, Mr. D. Sullivan

Senator J. M. Kennedy, of Butte Montana, Visits the City.

Senator J. W. Kennedy of Butte, Mon., is the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. D. Sullivan, corner George and Edinburgh streets. He is the proprietor of the Butte Evening News, an independant journal which is widely read. His foreman is Mr. Jas. Sullivan, formerly of Peterborough, and a brother of Mr. D. Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan learned the business in Wallaceburg when the Senator was proprietor of a newspaper there. He has not been in Peterborough for about eighteen years, the same length of time since Senator Kennedy's last visit. Mr. Sullivan going away with his present employer at the time. He was then a mere youth. The Senator says that he is doing remarkably well in Butte and that he is very much impressed with that city as a place of residence. Senator Kennedy has noticed the wonderful change that this city has undergone since his last visit and considers it the finest town in Canada. Mining is a large industry around Butte although it is also a very fair farming country. He says that it is a fine place for a young man and that pretty nearly everyone is well well paid, no matter what his occupation may be. Senator Kennedy, when he lived in Canada, besides conducting a newspaper in Wallaceburg was also the proprietor of a Whitby journal. He will return to his home in Butte in the course of a few days.

Omemee Citizens Want Railway

A Deputation Waited on Mr. Leonard of the C. P. R.

Omemee, Feb. 28th. — Omemee citizens are much agitated over the railway situation, and are making strong efforts to have the new branch of the C. P. R. pass through this village. A deputation from this place waited on Mr. Leonard of the C. P. R. to-day to urge that the line from Mount Pleasant to Peterborough should connect with Omemee instead of south-east of the village as is said to be the intention.

A Rare Treat Was Lecture

Mr. J. H. Burnham at 5th Y. M. C. A. "Pop."

A rare historical treat very properly characterizes the lecture given by Mr. J. H. Burnham at the 5th Pop in the Y.M.C.A. Hall on Saturday evening. The attendance was only fair, yet those who were present listened with wrapt attention to the eloquent and forceful speaker of the evening.

Rev. D. C. Crothers is the right man in the right place when he is chairman of a gathering where such a patriotic subject is the theme. He introduced Mr. Burnham as one who had made his mark in the literary world and Peterborough had good reason to feel proud of him.

Mr. Burnham began by a survey of the history of the great nations of the world, and their successors in the present powers of Europe.

The causes that led to the French Revolution were very carefully traced and a comprehensive sketch given of the triumphs of Napoleon Bonaparte. The different engagements in which Nelson triumphed were graphically described, the climax being reached in which Nelson lost his life.

At the close of the lecture Sheriff Hall made a few appropriate remarks and moved a vote of thanks to the lecturer which was seconded by Mr. R. Lees and carried with hearty applause.

Prior to the programme Mr. W. H. Barry rendered several piano selections showing himself a master of that instrument.

The 6th Pop will be a chalk talk given by Mr. Elsden J. Bengough, of Toronto, a newphew of the great cartoonist. Miss Clara Belleghem, soprano, Miss Gumpricht, pianist, will also part. Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., will preside. Admission 10 cents. Reserved seats, 15 cents. Plan opens at Y.M.C.A. Wednesday at 10 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1906.

IT IS COMING.

Canada, as our French neighbours would say, is arriving, if it has not arrived; that is, the realization of its undoubted resources, and of its undoubted destiny in commercial greatness and national eminence, if not pre-eminence. The Examiner has always maintained, and still maintains, that it is highly probable that there is not one acre of the millions of acres that comprise the immense expanse of Canada, that cannot, under proper conditions, be converted to commercial or industrial use. The general truth of this statement has been verified from time to time. We now see vast areas which a few years ago would not have been regarded as possessing any value, forming the raw resources of industrial operations of immense magnitude, employing millions of capital with corresponding employment of labour, increase of population and stimulation of demand upon industrial and commercial centres. We have only to speak of the Soo and the great enterprises now in operation there. In the Temiscamingue district, where a man would have been considered mad to offer a dollar an acre for wild land, a few years ago, a disputed claim over the ownership of forty acres of mineral land involves a million of dollars. We have in many parts of the country great and extensive deposits of magnetic iron ore, which have been practically valueless because of their impracticable distance from a cheap and abundant supply of coal. Now that the solution of the problem of smelting iron ore by electricity has been solved and that this process is declared to be available for commercial uses, the stock of our native beds of iron advances in value by a leap and a bound. In the following the Globe directs attention to the conditions created by the development of the commercial applicability of electricity to smelting purposes, under the head of "Our Iron Age at Hand":—

> The success of the electric smelting experiments at Sault Ste. Marie spells great things for that region of Canada where extensive bodies of magnetite or nickel occur in proximity to large water powers. Dr. Haanel's telegram to Hon. Mr. Oliver, Minister of the Interior, is an assurance of a development whose magnitude can scarcely be overrated. Electric smelting is being successfully conducted at several places in Europe, but the mineral treated is hematite, not the dark magnetite which is the prevailing iron ore deposit of Ontario and Quebec. It was necessary to find out therefore whether Canadian magnetite could be smelted at a cost which would make it commercially profitable. The services of Dr. Heroult of La Praz, France, were secured, and the experiments carried out on a large scale at Sault Ste. Marie. Dr. Haanel, Dominion Superintendent of Mines, who investigated the process of electric smelting in Europe, and has been associated with Dr. Heroult in the experiments at Sault Ste. Marie, reports that the "process admits of immediate commercial application."
> The full meaning of this demonstration may not be at once appreciated, but the two facts that no country in the world is so richly dowered with water powers as the two Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, and that within comparatively easy reach of them are deposits of millions of tons of magnetic iron ore, justify the highest expectations. Hitherto the absence of a cheap fuel has rendered these magnetite deposits of comparatively little value, but the work of Dr. Heroult and Dr. Haanel has suddenly opened up a prospect that is fairly dazzling in its possibilities. That we are only in the kindergarten stage of the knowledge of our country is evidenced by the fact that the geographies of a few years ago represented the minerals of Ontario as of little account. Since that time it has become the great nickel producer of the world. The Cobalt deposits alone promise to put her in the leading rank among the Provinces as a silver producer, and there can be little doubt that in iron and steel this generation will see an enormous evolution and expansion.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. Whitney is vexed with the members of deputations which bother him. He can abate the nuisance to a very large extent by announcing the selection of Peterborough as a site for one of the Normal Schools.

The immediate business of the Labour party, says the London Times, is to understand that new force which will grow even stronger than it is at present, and to settle the general relations of Unionism with the Labour party. The beginning of wisdom in present conditions is to recognize and practically admit that a new cleavage has been effected in English politics, and that everything to which we have been accustomed in the past thereby assumes a new form and presents itself in a new light.

The Conservative journals show a very kindly solicitude for the future of Hon. G. W. Ross, leader of the little band of Oppositionists in the Ontario Legislature. They have transplanted him to the Senate, and nominated him successor in the Leadership. But Mr. Ross obstinately insists on taking his own way. He will remain in Toronto as leader of the Opposition, and having still a good deal of fight left in him he prefers the activities of a useful leadership. Conservatives may sneer at the insignificance of the Opposition forces in the Legislature, but a tribute to its strength is found in the desire to weaken it by the removal of its leader.

The investigation now going on in Toronto in regard to the construction of the city hall, reveals a complicated story of "graft" and petty robbery—petty in detail but aggregating large sums. It is no wonder that the building cost about twice as much as the Parliament buildings in Queens Park. In regard to the Parliament buildings, constructed under a Liberal Government, full value was received in structural solidity for every dollar expended. In respect of the City Hall, Toronto, built under the government of the representatives of the most Conservative city in Canada, a large proportion of the money spent instead of going into brick and stone, went into the pockets of private individuals and contractors. In view of the facts developed by the inquiry now going on in Toronto, Toronto the Good is not called upon to throw many stones at New York Tammany.

Terms Of Agreement Now Made Public

bill giving it the authority to purchase the land for the purposes mentioned. An application has already been made, and included in the city's bill to allow the city to buy land for purposes as indicated, but no particular industry is specified.

The Mayor was decidedly opposed to the agreement, unless a condition was inserted to the effect that it should first be presented to the people, and asserted that he would refuse to sign any document or agreement in reference to the matter unless this were one of the conditions. A number of the aldermen also took the same view of the matter.

The Stove Factory, Too.

At the time that the people vote on this proposal they will also vote on the proposal to grant six acres of land to Mr. Howard for the purpose of erecting a stove factory upon it. The proposition in reference to this matter is that Mr. Howard shall also be given the old walls of the Sugar Company, providing the city is able to secure the property. At the meeting last night a letter from Mr. Howard was read stating that he was prepared to go ahead with the erection of a building, and manufacture the goods, in case the agreement was entered into. He stated that he already had patterns prepared, and that in addition to the stove factory he felt sure that he would be able to induce other iron masters to locate here. He suggested, however, that the price of power at present asked by the companies was somewhat excessive, and stated that, in his opinion, the council should take up the question of securing independent power to offer to manufacturers for long terms and at reasonable rates.

Those present at the meeting last night were Mayor Best, Ald. Tovey, McWilliams, McIntyre, Duncan, Graham, Ball, Adams, Johnston, and Mason.

The Mayor explained the object of the meeting, which was to re-consider the propositions submitted to the carpet manufacturers who were thinking of locating here. It appeared, he said, that the proposal as submitted by the city was not satisfactory, since they wished to have more land. Ald. McWilliams wished to know why they wanted so much land, and he also explained the situation as has already been reported in substance.

The proposed terms were compared with those offered other industries to locate here and those given the Canadian General Electric Company and the Canadian Cordage Company were referred to in this connection. Ald. McWilliams was convinced that it would be a very desirable industry to have located in Peterborough, in view of the fact, particularly that within the next 10 years, a large number of English manufacturers would locate in Canada because they would find it necessary to do so to obtain their share of the Canadian trade, and if one representative concern were secured for Peterborough it might influence others to come here. The Mayor referred to the carpet industry in Canada. The Toronto factory employed 500 hands, but the buildings covered only about two acres. This concern was given fixed assessment in the Toronto Council. In Guelph there was a small factory employing about 65 hands, and Sherbrooke had another. The Mayor doubted if the industry would develop into a very large one, in view of the fact that there was a limited market.

He doubted if the people would be inclined to vote in favour of granting the company 15 acres, but they might give 10 acres. Considerable discussion took place on the different phases of the question, and finally Ald. McWilliams moved, seconded by Ald. Adams, that this committee recommend to the Council that an agreement be entered into with Messrs. Brintin, Limited, Kidderminster, England, for the establishment of a carpet factory here upon the following terms: The company shall, before the first day of January, 1907, erect and equip buildings for the manufacture of carpets, to cost not less than $50,000 exclusive of machinery, and shall employ therein by said date not less than 50 hands, and shall employ therein by the first day of January, 1908, not less than 125 hands.

In consideration thereof the corporation shall grant to the said company a free site of 15 acres of land to be part of the sugar company property, if secured, or instead thereof other equivalent property; a fixed assessment for a term of 21 years at the purchase price thereof, including buildings used for manufacturing purposes, the right to connect with the sewers free of charge, the right to connect with and the use of a railway siding; in the event of the city undertaking the supply of electric power, a supply at the same rates as other manufacturers; the conveyance of said lands to be on terms similar to those of the lands granted to the Cordage Co.

The above agreement to be subject to ratification or modification by the Legislature of Ontario, and to be submitted to a majority vote of the qualified electors.

A motion instructing the solicitor to prepare bylaws embodying this agreement, and also one for the Howard proposition and providing for the submission of the question to the electors, was passed, also on motion of Ald. McWilliams and Adams.

This bylaw will be prepared and submitted at the next meeting of the Council, which will be held on Monday night next, and the probabilities are that the question will be submitted to the people in the course of a short time, probably inside of a month.

Mr. Sutcliffe Was Much Impressed

Noted English Manufacturer Delighted With City and Its People.

Mr. Arthur Sutcliffe of the firm of Sutcliffe & Bingham, Manchester, England, manufacturers of the famous Kkovah brand of jelly and custard powders, who was in the city yesterday consulting with the management of the Peterborough Cereal Company, to the Examiner expressed himself as being delighted with Peterborough.

"I only wish that I had time to see more of the place," he said, "but from what I have seen I am very favourably impressed. It must be a beautiful city in the summer."

It was Mr. Sutcliffe's first visit to Peterborough, and also his first visit to Canada in the winter season, although he has been in Montreal twice in the summer. He is very much pleased with the Canadian winter. Peterborough's fine stores were also spoken of complimentarily by Mr. Sutcliffe.

"As for the people, you may say that I like you," said Mr. Sutcliffe, in concluding his remarks.

Over Eight Million Policy Holders

Living Figures in the Annual Statement of the Metropolitan Life.

The yearly compilation of statistics published by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, is never dry reading. A summary of that company's business for the year 1905, just issued, tabulates astounding figures in the concise manner approved by the accountants, and following the custom of former years, supplements them with a clear and lucid analysis for the people who are not accountants.

Few persons are sufficiently familiar with great financial operations to grasp immediately the full significance of a balance sheet in which totals and grand totals are expressed in hundreds of millions, but the purpose of a life insurance statement is doubtless to inform and enlighten its multitude of policy-holders, and this purpose the Metropolitan accomplishes with signal success. Following closely upon a period of agitation in the life insurance field, such a statement is timely and specially interesting.

After placing before us a comprehensive statement of the company's general condition, and presenting a series of comparative items, the Metropolitan reminds us again that the number of its policy holders (now increased to eight and a half million) equals the combined population of our eight largest cities. In other words, if the company's policies now in force were all placed in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Cincinnati, and Milwaukee, every man, woman and child in these communities would possess one.

Men now living remember when the whole United States could hardly have supplied so vast a number of insurable persons. Even at this day there are twenty-four states and Territories, whose combined population does not equal the number of people carrying insurance in this one great company.

We are informed that nineteen thousand persons were in the company's service at the end of 1905. If one adult bread-winner represents five individuals in the total population, we must conclude that nearly a hundred thousand persons draw subsistence from this institution — not in insurance benefits but in direct payment for service to the company.

This army of nineteen thousand employees evidently includes no drones. During the year just closed it handled a daily average of one and a half million dollars in new business alone. The company issued on the average nearly seven thousand new policies every business day during the same twelve months.

A single item which illustrates graphically the real meaning and purpose of all this tremendous business is that relating to insurance claims paid during the year. These amounted to more than $15,000,000. This means that some one received from the Metropolitan Life in benefits one hundred and six dollars every minute of every business day of eight hours throughout the year.

Again, the uncertainty of life and health, and the universal need of life insurance are most impressively emphasised in the statement that 15,148 policies paid within the year 1905 had been in force less than twelve months; and that 4,328 of these policies were paid in less than three months from the time that were issued.

The Metropolitan Life began the year 1906 with assets of more than one hundred and fifty million dollars, showing an increase of more than twenty-three million dollars over the preceding twelve months. This evidence of ample and increasing strength is a most satisfactory thing for policy holders to contemplate, and it is a further cause for satisfaction that the largest year's business in the company's history was transacted at a lower ratio of expense than has ever been reached in previous years.

The company directs particular attention to the fact that it does not issue Tontine, or "deferred dividend" policies, nor any form of contract which fails to specify in exact terms what the insured is to pay in premiums and what he is to receive in benefits. That the simplicity of its contract agreements is a popular feature will not be questioned in the light of facts above noted.

Many items in the company's summary have not been touched upon for lack of space, but the document itself will be widely circulated, and one's time can hardly be utilized to better purpose than in the careful and reflective reading of its entire contents from beginning to end.

Choir Were Guests Of The Ladies Of St. John's

A Very Pleasant Evening Was Spent Last Night.

The ladies of St. John's church very pleasantly entertained the members of the choir last night and the evening was one of unmitigated enjoyment. A delightful repast was served in the school house, to which some 35 people sat down. After ample justice had been done to the array of good things provided, many happy speeches were made. Rev. Canon Davidson took advantage of the opportunity to present Miss Stephens, the retiring organist, with a handsome framed picture of St. John's church on behalf of himself and the wardens. In doing so he made appreciative references to the services rendered by Miss Stephens. The wardens, Messrs. W. H. Clinton and K. Eardley-Wilmot, also eulogized Miss Stephens for her work in connection with the choir.

Mr. D. Hughes Charles, on behalf of the congregation, praised the choir for their services, and Mr. H. Morphet replied for the choir, thanking the people for the interest displayed. Other members of the choir also spoke briefly.

Mr. R. J. Devey, the new choirmaster and organist, was present, and several members of the choir and other guests expressed their pleasure at his taking charge of the choir. Mr. Devey made an appropriate reply.

The gathering enjoyed some music before dispersing.

Pancake Social At All Saint's

Delightful Entertainment Under Auspices of Young Men's Guild.

The Pancake Social and concert held last night under the auspices of the Men's Guild of All Saints' church, in celebration of Shrove Tuesday, was a decided success.

The attendance was large, the Sunday school apartments being well filled. There were many strangers present and every visitor was accorded a warm welcome. The rooms were elaborately decorated with flags, bunting and signal flags in honour of the occasion, and presented an attractive appearance. Mr Frank Wise, president of the Men's Guild, made an acceptable chairman.

The programme opened with a lively pianoforte duet, "At Full Tilt," by the Misses Ida and Rose Mulholland, which was enthusiastically applauded. Mr. G. W. Allen sang in good voice, "The Village Blacksmith." Miss Pearl Lundy rendered in a pleasing manner that quaint selection, "Slumber Boat.' Miss Ruth Dawson gave with good expression, "Little Boy Blue," after which Messrs. G. W. Allen and W. H. Barrie contributed a duet, "Excelsior," which was applauded. Miss Mabel Rickey sang "Starlight,' in a bright impressive manner, and as an encore furnished "In Dear Old Georgia." Mr. Maurice Van der Water's tenor voice was heard to good advantage in "Jessamy Town," and in his encore number, "Dawn." The Misses Mulholland next gave another cleverly played pianoforte duet, "In Fatal Array," after which Miss Pearl Lundy sang "My Garden Had a Rose," in excellent taste, and was heartily applauded. Miss R. Dawson's "Happy Song" came next and was thoroughly appreciated. Mr. Van der Water again delighted the audience with "Absence," and "Celeste," which was his encore number. Miss Rickey favoured the audience with another admirable vocal selection, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep."

Miss Marion Elliott was particularly happy and pleasing in her numbers, "Barcarolle," "Forgotten," and "Dreamy June," which were well received. Mr. Jas. Runnett furnished two readings with much ability. His "Lost in the Bush" was a splendid descriptive piece.

The efficient accompanists of the evening were Mr. W. R. Barrie, Miss Ida Mulholland and Miss Eva Bradd. The chairman thanked all those who had so kindly and so capably participated in the programme, and at the close an adjournment was made for pancakes, maple syrup, cake, coffee and other palatable delicacies which were served in generous quantities.

Rev. Wm. Major was present, and along with the concert committee, from the Men's Guild, Messrs. F. Wise, T. H. Hooper and G. W. Allen, extended greetings to all. The men of All Saints' church are to be congratulated on providing such an enjoyable concert as the one held last evening.

Will Address Lenten Meetings At St. Louis

Rev. Canon Davidson Leaves Tomorrow to Assist in Important Services—Some of the Most Distinguished Anglican Clergymen in the United States Will be Present—Meetings Are Very Well Known and Largely Attended.

GREAT HONOUR FOR LOCAL CLERGYMAN

Rev. Canon Davidson leaves for St. Louis to-morrow to assist in the noon-day Lenten services which begin in the Garrick theatre in that city to-day and continue until April 14th.

Rev. Canon Davidson expects to be away about two weeks and will give addresses daily from March 5th to 10th. Some of the most distinguished clergymen of the Anglican church in America, will be present at these meetings, which are very well known.

Following is the programme of the meetings to be held from 12 to 12.30 daily throughout the week :

Feb. 28th to March 3rd — Right Rev. Edward Fawcett, D. D., Bishop of Quincy.

March 5th to 10th — Rev. Canon Davidson, rector of Peterborough, Ont.

March 12th to 14th — Right Rev. T. V. Morrison, D.D., Bishop of Iowa.

March 17th to 31st — Rev. J. O. S. Huntingdon, O. H. C.

April 2nd to 9th — Right Rev. Edward Osborne, D. D., Bishop Coadjutor of Springfield.

April 9th to 14th — Right Rev. D. S. Tuttle, Bishop of Missouri.

The list includes two speakers who have visited Peterborough, and will no doubt be remembered by many of the citizens. Rev. J. O. S. Huntingdon, delivered a lecture here once in aid of the Single Tax Association. Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, has also visited Peterborough, accompanied by Mrs. Tuttle, and addressed a very largely attended men's meeting in the old opera house.

GROWING BOYS.

Need an Occasional Tonic to Maintain Strength and Keep the Skin Clear.

On every side one sees young men and growing boys with pale, pasty complexions, their faces covered with pimples and their gate shambling and listless. Such a condition is extremely dangerous—the blood is out of order—a complete breakdown may result. To put matters right; to give that spring to the step; that clearness to the skin, and that glow of active health to the face, a tonic is needed—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are needed. As proof of this, Mr. Charles Diefenthal, 12 St. Ursule street, Quebec, says:—"Frequently my studies necessitated my remaining up until a late hour. The result was that my system gradually weakened, and in December, 1903, I seemed to collapse. I was completely run down and went under the care of a doctor, but instead of gaining strength, I seemed to grow weaker. I could not take solid food, did not sleep well, and weakening night sweats gave me further cause for alarm. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were brought to my notice and I began their use. Almost from the outset they seemed to help me, but it was some weeks before there was a material change for the better. From that on, however, recovery was rapid, and in a couple of months I was as well as ever I had been, and able to resume my studies."

Every dose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, rich, red blood; every drop of pure blood gives strength and vitality to the whole system, and this strength brings health. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure such cases as anaemia, all stomach and kidney troubles, St. Vitus' dance, heart palpitation, the afflictions known only to growing girls and women, and a host of other ailments from which both young and old suffer through bad blood. Sold by dealers in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Anniversary Of Twelfth Wedding Day Celebrated

The occasion of the formal opening of Mr. Archie Moore's new residence on Aylmer street, was celebrated last night with a progressive euchre party and dancing. It was also the twelfth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Moore's wedding day, and they were "at home" to about 70 guests who assisted appropriately in the celebration of the happy event.

The winners of the euchre prize were Mrs. William Gilbo and Mr. A. Lockington. After a few pleasant hours at cards dancing reigned supreme until the early hours of the morn'.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore were the grateful recipients of a number of beautiful presents showing the high favour in which the host and hostess are held. Wishes for continued happiness in the future were heartily given by the company, which were neatly responded to by the host who thanked them for their many kind words and tokens of friendship. Altogether the evening was a very delightful one.

WHAT CAUSES HEADACHES?

Blood Poisoning, Always!

The blood is poisoned by retained tissue waste, due to defective action of the bowels, kidneys or skin. The tissue waste, or dead cells, circulating in the blood, irritates the nerves and brain, and headaches and neuralgia are bound to arise. Headache powders and opiates of any kind do harm, by aiding the retention of the blood poison in the system. To cure headaches, purify the blood by opening the bowels, and by stimulating the kidneys and skin to increased action.

Testimonial of Mr. Bert. Cornell, Taylorville, Ont.

Chronic Headaches Cured by Fruit-a-tives

To Fruit-a-tives Limited,
OTTAWA, Ont.

"I was a sufferer from frightful headaches for over two years, sometimes they were so bad I was unable to work for days at a time. I took all kinds of medicines, was treated by physicians, and yet the headaches persisted. A short time ago I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I did so with, I must confess, very little faith, but after I had taken them for three days my headaches were easier and in a week they left me. After I had taken a box of the tablets my headaches were quite cured. My appetite was also poor and my stomach was bad and now my appetite is splendid and my digestion is excellent. I have been taken in all three boxes of "Fruit-a-tives," an exceedingly grateful to "Fruit-a-tives" for curing me and I give this unsolicited testimonial with great pleasure.

(Sgd.) BERT. CORNELL.

"Fruit-a-tives" cure headaches and neuralgia because they purify the blood by their splendid action on the liver, kidneys, bowels and skin, and thus remove all poisonous material from the system.

With these eliminating organs all active and working as nature intends them to work, there can be no poisons in the blood, and there can be no headaches or neuralgia.

A week's treatment will PROVE how thoroughly and quickly "Fruit-a-tives"

The Defaulting Bank Teller Has Reached Halifax

Crown Bank Teller Banwell Returning to Toronto.

HIS YOUNG WIFE WITH HIM

Story of Their Capture at Kingston, Jamaica—Banwell Admits That He Took the Money—$41,000 Accounted For—Will Plead Guilty, But Expects Short Sentence—Neither Realizes Their Position.

Halifax, Feb. 28.—Exactly 30 days after Edwin St. George Banwell bade good-bye to Canada, as he no doubt hoped for the last time, he landed back again on Dominion soil in custody of Detective Black of the Toronto detective department. Banwell is credited with having been clever and smooth enough to take away some $40,000 from the financiers who control the Crown Bank. When he left Toronto there went with him Norah Hector, who is now Mrs. Banwell.

Don't Realize Position.

As soon as possible Deputy Chief Stark of Toronto boarded the ship and took charge of affairs as far as Banwell and his wife were concerned. Mr. Stark had thoughtfully arranged before hand that the young couple remain in their stateroom until it was time for them to leave for the 4 o'clock I. C. R. train. From the boat they were driven to the depot in a closed carriage. The couple are looking well, although if he ever had any color in his face he has lost most of it. She was looking bright and cheerful. In the cabin he was busy turning over the leaves of a book, but Mrs. Banwell gazed around with rather an amused expression at the customs officers, as if she wondered what the men in the gold braid and buttons meant by asking their destination and business. She seemed to think they should have known. They don't seem to realize their position.

Will Plead Guilty.

Banwell admits taking the money, and will plead guilty. He is in hopes of getting a light sentence.

It was on Dec. 9 he saw his opportunity, and he says he could not let it get by him. If he had had a valise, he says, he could have filled it, but having no valise he simply filled his pockets. When leaving the bank with his pockets stuffed full of money, he met and passed the accountant. He went over to McConkey's and met Miss Hector by appointment. He told her he was now in a position to pay his debts and would get out of the city. She replied, "If you are going, I am going with you." After lunching at McConkey's they strolled up Yonge street, and went into Ryrie Bros.', Ambrose Kent's and Kent Bros.', where they purchased $3,500 worth of jewellery, consisting of a large single stone diamond ring, valued at $700, four ladies' 3-stone diamond rings, and one diamond brooch, and a diamond brooch and ring, which Detective Black recovered from Mrs. Banwell three days before they left Kingston.

Married at Buffalo.

They left on the 5 p. m. train for Buffalo, where they were married that evening. From there they went to New York. Their flying trip from New York to Santiago, and from there to Kingston, has already been told. The principal means of tracing them was by the little black valise which Mrs. Banwell always insisted on carrying, and which contained the money and jewellery.

The First Clue.

The real clue, and the one that led to the arrest, was found at the Passage Hotel, Havana, where a signature on the register attracted the attention of Mr. O'Grady, Jr., who had been accompanying the detectives. Detective Dubane later at Kingston, Jamaica, accosted Banwell by saying: "Hello, Ban."

"I don't know you," was the reply.

"Yes, you do, I am a Pinkerton detective; the jig is up; we want that money." The officers went to Banwell's room and got it.

Banwell was arrested, and while in charge of the local police at Kingston his meals were furnished by Detective Black. Mrs. Banwell has been stopping at the Myrtle Bank Hotel, her bill having been paid at the rate of $3 per day by Detective Black. After the necessary legal proceedings had been complied with they left Kingston for Canada. The trip over was uneventful. Banwell and his wife were in good humor and cheerful.

Why He Did It.

Banwell gave as one reason for committing the robbery, that he was sore at O'Grady and thought that he had not received the promotion he thought was due him, according to Capt. Hoelsadt of the steamer.

Detective Black brought back with him $20,000 in unsigned bills $7,000 in fifties, 6,000 in twenties, currency amounting to $1,500, diamonds $4,000, money sent home $1,000, and $1,500 spent by Banwell, making a total of $41,000.

Mrs. Banwell will, according to present intention, be locked up when the party arrives in Toronto Thursday morning.

Valencia Disaster Report.

Victoria, Feb. 28.—An interim report has been presented to Hon. Wm. Templeman by the commissioners investigating the Valencia disaster, declaring the available evidence insufficient to prove whether the calamity was due to inadequate lighting of the coast. The commission urges several recommendations re. lights and fog alarms.

Operators Call Conference.

Pittsburg, Feb. 28.—Francis L. Robbins, leader of the bituminous operators, has called a conference in this city to-day of the operators' committee to consider the question of holding another conference with the miners in an endeavor to prevent a strike.

Public Accounts Of The Province Show a Surplus

Provincial Receipts and Expenditures For Last Year.

A SUBSTANTIAL SURPLUS

International Commission and Inquiry Suggested by the Queen Victoria Park Commissioners in Their Report to the Legislature — Two Other Companies With Unlimited Powers Hold Franchises.

Toronto, Feb. 28.—The expenditure of the Province of Ontario for the year ending Dec. 31 last, was $5,396,016.74, and the revenue $6,016,176.42, leaving a balance on the right side of the ledger of $620,159.68. These figures are from the public accounts, which were presented in the Legislature yesterday afternoon. The estimated receipts for the year were $5,515,269.52. The expenditure in 1904 was $5,267,453.02, according to the public accounts of that year. In almost every department there was an increase in the expenditure compared with 1904.

The expenditures on account of the Temiskaming Railway are given as follows: Treasury bills issued, $5,840,004; advanced by the province to railway commission, $1,530,164.27; a total of $7,376,168.27.

Answers to Questions.

Toronto, Feb. 28.—Hon. Col. Matheson, replying in the House yesterday to Mr. Smith of the Soo, said the Government had received no intimation that the province would be relieved by May 1 of the guarantee given in connection with the $2,000,000 loan to the Soo industries.

Hon. Mr. Hanna informed Mr. McDougall of Ottawa that the license inspector at Mattawa was in the business of butchering before his appointment; that he still continues in the business; that the Government has no information that he employs laborers for the Temiskaming Railway; and that he has supplied beef or other commodities to the Government or the Railway Commissioners.

A couple of returns showing the number of J. P.'s and issuers of marriage licenses, moved for by ex-Premier Ross, will be brought down.

Thirteen private bills were introduced and read a first time.

Power Report Recommendations.

The instituting of an international commission to decide upon an equitable distribution of the source of electrical power contained in Niagara Falls, and a careful inquiry by the Ontario Government into the charters granted to Ontario power companies; these were the important recommendations made in the annual report of the Niagara Falls Park commissioners submitted to Legislature yesterday, in the following form:

1. That the whole subject involving the further diversion of water from Niagara River for power development in excess of the charters now being exercised be referred to an international commission appointed by the Governments directly interested, territorially or otherwise, in order that an agreement may be arrived at between such Governments as to further withdrawals of water on both sides of the river.

2. That a careful inquiry be made by the Government indicated respecting the charters already granted, but in regard to which no works whatever have been commenced, with a view to cancellation of the same.

Ten Additional Charters.

There had been charters issued for six more American power companies and four more Canadian, so that it was important that all rights to be granted should be kept in view. Of the ten non-developing companies that had got authority to use Niagara power on both sides, none had been limited as to the quantity, and "should their undertakings be carried out upon anything like the scale, adopted by the companies whose works were now in course of construction, there could be no question but that the falls of Niagara as a scenic spectacle would be most seriously impaired, if not entirely destroyed.

The Financial Statement.

The financial statement showed receipts of $76,099.30, the larger items being rentals of $30,000 from the Ontario Power Co.; $15,000 Canadian Niagara Power Co.; $10,000 International Railway Co.; $7,500 Electrical Development Co., and, $9,000, Zybach & Co. The expenditures were: $22,460.50, on an overdraft; $28,552.94, on capital account; $26,544.69, in maintenance, and $25,276.28 in interest on bonds and its bank charges leaving an overdraft of $26,734.21.

Application For Increased Privilege.

Chairman J. W. Langmuir submitted a memo. re. the application of the International Railway Co., to be allowed to increase its electrical output. It was recommended that the company pay $2,000 in addition to the present $10,000 for the privilege of generating a maximum of 4,000 horse-power, and that, by paying an added $1 per horse-power per annum, the company might generate up to 10,000 horse-power, and that the power be used exclusively for operating and lighting railways.

Park Commissioner James Wilson reported strongly against the building of a dam across the Niagara River, near Fort Erie, as recommended by the United States deep waterways commission in 1900. It was asserted that the main object to be served would be the lessening by $1,375,000 of the cost of a 21-foot channel through from Buffalo to Lake Huron.

Toronto University Report.

Toronto, Feb. 28.—The annual report of President Loudon of Toronto University, shows that at the end of June, 1905, the staff of professors, associate professors, lecturers and assistants in Victoria University and Toronto colleges was: Arts, 120; medium, 96; and applied science, 27. There were 3,408 students in the affiliated colleges. In the arts' department there was a revenue for the year of $174,597.44 and an outlay of $213,720.12, the deficit having been covered by Government grants. The revenue in the department of medicine was $61,240.83, with $60,118.44 expended; in applied science and engineering receipts and expenditures were about equal at $73,475.24. It was estimated it would cost $38,717 to build the new science school.

NOT JUST AS GOOD

Did you ever inquire at a store for certain articles and get for a reply "We have something just as good"? Did it ever occur to you that "Something just as good" is something the dealer has been able to buy much cheaper than the articles you inquire for? This is true in drugs, fabrics, groceries, hardware, and in fact every line, including silver-plated ware. If you inquire for 1847 Rogers Bros.' Knives, Forks or Spoons, don't accept any bogus Rogers' stamp because your dealer tells you it's just as good.

Latest News Of Winter Sports

Should Win In Parry Sound

Peterborough Team Is Confident of Victory in the North.

The intermediate seven left for Parry Sound this morning on the 8.20 G.T.R. The boys are full of confidence in their ability to spring a big surprise on the northerners and defeat them right on their own ice. And there seems no reason why they should not do so. In the game here the local aggregation individually and as a team were away off colour and if they play their usual good game and indulge in a little more combination there seems no reason why they shouldn't beat the red and white on their own battle grounds. The home team is just about as good away from home as at home and their supporters expect them to return with another scalp added to their belt.

The following line-up will represent Peterborough in the match.

Goal—Watson.
Point—Glover.
Cover Point—Moore.
Rover—Whitcroft.
Centre—Morgan.

It Will Be A Great Struggle

Match for City League Supremacy To-morrow Night.

The ice for to-morrow night's contest between Charlotte Street and the Suburbs will be in splendid shape in as good condition in fact as zero weather and skilful attention can put it. The fact that the ice will be good will increase the interest in the match fifty per cent. Both sevens are noted for playing good fast hockey and with the ice in good shape the team that wins will certainly be the best one. The fact that a good man will referee is an assurance that nothing but hockey—with no shinny variations—will be tolerated. Those who attend are assured of game free from any objectionable features—the best and by all means most important game that has been played in the city league this year.

Great Press Game To-morrow Night

Review and Examiner Sevens to Meet at Last on the Icy Antics.

Fast ice is assured for to-morrow night's great struggle between the Review and Examiner sevens. No event in recent years has aroused such excitement and it is probable that the S. R. O. sign will be hung out long before the whistle blows.

Although we don't want to be considered in the Mrs. Fay class, we seem to see the Review's future putting on the mitts and getting ready to hand them one. However, the game will be a spectacular one and although the result seems to be assured yet there be enough excitement to make the contest more than exciting. The game will be called at the conclusion of the Suburb-Charlotte Street match.

Alert-Arrow Game To-night

The third game in the series of basketball competitions between the Arrows and Alerts will be played to-night at the Y.M.C.A. commencing at 7 o'clock. The first of the three was won by the Alerts, the second was a tie between them, so that if the Alerts win to-night, the intermediate city championship will be decided. If the Arrows carry off the laurels another game will be called to make the important decision. Both teams are therefore determined to do their utmost for the victory as the championship practically depends on the issue. The chosen quintettes for to-night's game are all basketball players of considerable repute and the most interesting of games is prophesied. The winners of to-night's contest will arrange for a game with Belleville in the near future. All are welcome to attend the game this evening and admission is free.

The following will be the line-up :—

Arrows.	Backs.	Alerts.

The Examiner team will have a group photograph taken if they win the championship of the press league to-morrow night. Conspicuous in the noteworthy gathering will be Jerry, the bull terrier, mascot.

• • • • •

When the weatherman heard that the Review-Examiner game had been called off he sent the warm weather and sunshine and gave the birds a chance to sing, the trees a chance to bud and the grass a chance to grow, but as the time of the big event draws near he sends weather cold enough to delight the heart of an Eskimo whale chaser.

• • • • •

The press team have no stand in with the weatherman the sudden change of weather is simply due to the fact that he realizes the forthcoming struggle.

Curlers Are At The Game Again

With the recent sudden drop of the thermometer comes a renewal of the curling game at the Charlotte street rink. Last night a couple of rinks were in operation and the games were keenly and closely contested. Mr. Angus McIntosh has the ice in a superb condition again and six rinks were ready for curling.

From present indications there will be more competitions this year. In all probability some of the local curlers will go to Keene and Bobcaygeon to play some games which were promised in the early part of the season. The following were the games played at the Charlotte street rink last night :—

TURF.

The celebrated horse "Eclipse" died at Canons, Middlesex, on February 28th, 1789, England, at the very advanced age of twenty-five years. The horse had received its name from being born during an eclipse, and it became curiously significant and appropriate when in mature life it was found to surpass all contemporary horses in speed. It was bred by the Duke of Cumberland, younger brother of George III. For many years "Eclipse" lived in retirement from the turf, but was still a source of income to his master by the number of curious strangers who went to see it. The secret of the immense success in the racing of "Eclipse" was revealed after death in the unusual size of its heart, which weighed thirteen pounds.

USED UP AND TIRED OUT

MEN AT THE OFFICE
WOMEN IN THE HOME
CHILDREN AT SCHOOL

Every day in the week and every week in the year men, women and children feel all used up and tired out.

The strain of business, the cares of home and social life and the task of study cause terrible suffering from heart and nerve troubles. The efforts put forth to keep up to the modern "high pressure" mode of life in this age soon wears out the strongest system, shatters the nerves and weakens the heart.

Thousands find life a burden and others an early grave. The strain on the system causes nervousness, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, faint and dizzy spells, skip beats, weak and irregular pulse, smothering and sinking spells, etc. The blood becomes weak and watery and eventually causes decline.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

are indicated for all diseases arising from a weak and debilitated condition of the heart or of the nerve centres. Mrs. Thos. Hall, Keldon, Ont., writes : "For the past two or three years I have been troubled with nervousness and heart failure, and the doctors failed to give me any relief. I decided at last to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and I would not now be without them if they cost twice as much. I have recommended them to my neighbors and friends.

The Deputation About March 20

About This Date Trent Canal Deputation Will go to Ottawa.

The deputation to go to Ottawa for the purpose of interviewing the Government in reference to the completion of the Trent Canal, will probably go about March 20. The date will not be definitely decided until after Mr. R. R. Hall's return from the West, which will be in about a week.

Ald. Mason is completing the arrangements for the deputation, which will probably be one of the largest in the history of the Province.

At the home of Mrs. Robt. Wright, Albert street, the Birthday of the Dorcas Society, of the Park Street Baptist Church, was celebrated and it was a most enjoyable affair. The ladies were well repaid for the toil in preparation. The crowds filled every corner and it was evident they had discovered the secret of happiness. A programme was placed in the hands of the pastor and about ten o'clock he broke in upon their hilarity and introduced Wilton Tranter for a solo. This was followed by phonograph selections by Mr. Jewett after which Miss L. Smith contributed a pleasing recitation. Mr. and Mrs. John Rome favoured the assembly with a duett which was well received. The pastor in a short address congratulated the Dorcas Ladies on their past record and heartily commended the object now in hand, the furnishing of the new church. Mrs. Goheen and Mrs. Jas. Tranter each sang a solo in good form after which refreshments were served and "The Glory Song" ended the pleasant evening.—Com.

Crippled by Kidney Disease.

"I was troubled for years with kidney disease and Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have entirely cured me. When I began the use of these pills I could only walk from my bed to a chair . Now I can go to the field, and work like any other man."—Mr. W. H. Mosher, South Augusta, Grenville, county, Ont. This statement is certified to by Rev E. H. Emmet, Baptist minister of Brockville, Ont.

The Installation Was Postponed

The installation of officers in connection with the Royal Templars, which was to have taken place last night was postponed until the next meeting, March 12. So much other business had to be transacted last night that it was impossible to have the installation. The next meeting will be an open one.

Something More About The Work Of The Fays

Correspondent Takes Exception to Some of the Statements Made by Writer in Ottawa Journal—Another Explanation of the Handkerchief Trick—Said to be Done Through Static Electricity—Science of Telepathy.

LEVITATION ACT DONE WITH MAGNET

The following letter has been received by the Examiner in reference to the demonstrations given by the Fays here last week. It explains itself:

The correspondent of The Ottawa Journal, who endeavoured to manufacture explanations of the Fays' performance certainly displayed remarkable ignorance. The article is an insult to the intelligence of the public who attend the various demonstrations.

It appears quite evident that the Ottawa chap known so little of elementary science and the fundamental principles of electricity that a public school boy could teach him many things. His education was surely sadly neglected.

So cumbersome are the theories advanced in the article that all appear quite ridiculous. The actual agent employed in several of the "illusions" is so simple that no difficulty is found in arriving at a lucid explanation.

The Silk Handkerchief—By plaising a knot in one corner a little pocket is formed whereby a "pithball" may be concealed. Any schoolboy will demonstrate the rest. By "static" electricity the ball with its silk covering is made to dance about in lively shape. There is no need of any thread.

The Cabinet Tricks were tricks, pure and simple, and I do not remember that the Fays claimed any spiritual agency in the matter. A good pair of binoculars, coupled with the observations of various members of "the committee," disclosed the following: In Mrs. Fay's acts she might just as well have been a post, she never moved even a finger. In the Hindoo feat the hands that appeared in the openings of the curtains were about one-half the size of his. If a second person was employed in this case, why not in the other?

The Levitation Act has been performed by means of an extending mechanism. In the trick of the Fays not even a thread was visible under the search of the binoculars again. The girl rested upon a flat metal plate, and it is quite possible to believe the entire weight of 80 or 90 pounds was controlled perfectly by a system of powerful magnets. The hoop was passed twice over the body in succession, not back and forth as necessary when a suspending rod is used.

Thaumaturgy.

The Ottawa correspondent will never make a spiritualist when a telephone system is necessary to connect his mind with the "medium." His brain must be out of cog. sure.

No intelligent student of psychology would think of disputing the fact of thought transmission. It is in evidence daily in our own lives. Mrs. Fay has simply developed to a marvellous degree a faculty we all possess, that of "telepathy." The conclusions she makes, her prophecies, etc., are features of her own imagination.

Thought transmission has become a recognized science, and only a few weeks since a convention assembled in France on this very subject. Such men as Maxim, Kelvin, Crooks, etc., occupied the foremost places. These men are not dupes. The name they chose for the new science was metapsychics.

Hundreds of people in Peterborough will take their oath that no one saw their question which was answered by Mrs. Fay. Probably the majority of answers were as correct as could be expected. But the feature was not the answer so much as the reading of the mind to grasp the thought. For instance, Mr. Collier, of the Peterborough Cereal Co., questioned her one evening re the number of cases of Canada Flakes now on order. He told me frankly that no person in the house could have given the correct answer to this, and it was not until she thought of the number that Mrs. Fay could give the correct answer, viz., "445."

Another simple test occurred with Mr. Menzies. "How old am I?" brought the request of Mrs. Fay for him to think of his age. He did so, and she promptly repeated the thought. But, strange to say, he made a slight error in the number, and thought of age in excess of the reality, and of course she did also.

Hundreds of other examples can be found to prove the genuineness of the mind-reading by Mrs. Fay. She certainly makes the best use of the faculty which she has developed so marvellously, and does not hesitate to make prophecies of an astounding nature. Her power of telepathy is undoubtedly genuine. The use made of the power is probably somewhat extended.

Yours,
A Student of Psychics.

COD LIVER OIL.

It almost makes you sick to think of it, but it isn't nearly as bad as it used to be. The improved method of refining it makes it much easier to take, and when made into Scott's Emulsion almost every one can take it. Most children like it and all children that are not robust are benefited by it. When the doctor says "Take cod liver oil," he generally means Scott's Emulsion; ask him if he doesn't. They know it is more easily digested and better than the plain oil.

From Itching and Bleeding Eczema—Pain Terrible—Body and Face Covered with Sores—Doctors and Medicines Failed.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"No tongue can tell how I suffered for five years with itching and bleeding eczema, until cured by Cuticura, and I am so grateful I want the world to know, for what helped me will help others. My body and face were covered with sores. One day it would seem to be better, and then break out again with the most terrible pain and itching. I have been sick several times, but never in my life did I experience such awful suffering as with this eczema. I felt that death was near, and longed for that time when I would be at rest. I had tried many different doctors and medicines without success, when my mother insisted that I try Cuticura. I felt better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment. I continued with the Soap and Ointment, and have taken four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and consider myself well. Any person having any doubt about this wonderful cure can write to my address. Mrs. Altie Etson, Bellevue, Mich."

Prof. Milner's Organ Recital A Charming Event

Was Honoured by a Large and Appreciative Audience—A Master Musician—Fifteen Numbers Delightfully Rendered—Excelled in "Cuckoo and Nightingale Concerto"—Was Assisted by Three Talented Soloists and Choir.

RECITAL WAS A DECIDED SUCCESS.

The organ recital given by Prof. Chas. E. Milner, Associate Royal College of Organists, London, England, in the George street Methodist church last evening was one of the most delightful musical events of the season. Prof. Milner was assisted by the three soloists, Miss Gertrude Kendry, Mrs. Duncan MacGregor and Miss Clara Bellegham, and succeeded in attracting a large audience of the elite of musical circles.

Although the programme was lengthy, yet the cultured artists were heard with admiration from beginning to end, and were always encouragingly applauded.

Deep tributes of approval were always manifested for the masterly manner in which Mr. Milner revealed the impressiveness and the beauty of his different numbers. Nothing but the love and enthusiasm for the work could have produced such a convincing result as the culmination of last night's recital. Prof. Milner created great interest and enthusiasm among the musicians present by showing a remarkable reverence for the composer's music. He accomplished this by virtue of his uncontrained expression supplemented by a wonderful resource of technique.

As an artistic interpreter he commands respect, for there is nothing in his renderings which appears inappropriate or out of proportion, and all of his selections were given with such wondrous grace and power as to completely captivate the audience, who visibly appreciated the efforts of the artist.

Mr. Milner was heard in fifteen numbers, and in everyone he elicited much applause. His first number, Overture to "Saul," by Handel, to which he gave brilliancy and inspiring force, alternating with impressive softness, made it one of the most appreciated of all. Batiste's "Offertoire in C" was also a favourite. Probably the greatest success of all, if any one may be considered so, was the excellent rendering of the "Cuckoo and Nightingale Concerto," by Handel. The artist's descriptive power in this was well illustrated and was so heartily applauded that he responded to an encore.

The "Offertoire in D" was chiefly remarkable for the delightful delicacy in tone power with which it was delivered, and for the stirring contrast of the strenuous passages. The "March of the Magi," by Dubois, a very difficult composition, was pleasingly rendered. The high note throughout representing the guiding star of the wise men supplemented greatly its delightful character.

Soderman's "Swedish Wedding March" was given by request, and was very highly appreciated. The agitated character of "Fanfare" was illustrated with wonderful power, and yet with a great balance of contrast and made a beautiful conclusion to Mr. Milner's excellent efforts.

"Thy Will Be Done," sacred song, was rendered with a dainty grace by the talented singer, Miss Kendry, in a voice that charmed the audience. Mrs. MacGregor sang "Resurrection," by Shelley, in excellent voice, receiving the merited approbation from the auditorium. "O Divine Redeemer," rendered very impressively by Miss Bellegham, was sung with clear-cut execution and a rare beauty of tone and was very heartily applauded, though she was suffering from a rather distressing cold.

The choir was present also, and sang an anthem with its accustomed unanimity of ensemble and its usual distinction.

Altogether, a delightful evening was spent, and Mr. Milner is to be congratulated for presenting such a high class musical recital as that given by him last night.

Was Related To Mr. Rich. Martin

Mr. Nelson Hall, Who Was Killed in Toronto Yesterday.

Toronto, Feb. 28.—His curiosity about the condition of the elevator in John Kay, Son & Co.'s building at 36 West King street, caused the death of Nelson Hall, a foreman carpenter, about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He put his head through one of the small holes still left unglazed with the intention of looking at the condition of the slides. The elevator was going up, and the weight coming down struck him on top of the head. His jaw was jammed against the bottom of the sash and broken. The skull was also badly fractured. With as little delay as possible he was extricated, but only lived a few minutes after being taken out. He was married, and was 55 years old.

Mr. Richard Martin, Hunter street, is a brother-in-law of the deceased, and left to-day to attend the funeral of Mr. Hall.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"IT'S UP TO YOU, JOHN HENRY"

"It's up to You, John Henry," last night's attraction at the Grand more than delighted the large audience that for two hours and one half laughed at the breezy dialogue and amusing climaxes of George V. Hobart's farce comedy with Charles E. Grapewin, the well known comedian in the title role. It was one of the most satisfactory of the season's offerings at the Grand. The production has a more definite plot than is usually the case with musical comedies, and the opportunities for humourous situations were numerous.

The action centres on the doings of John Henry, a gentleman with the slang habit and a happy contempt for the truth which leads him into some very funny mix-ups. John presents his sweetheart with a country home that does not belong to him and this is the beginning of all the trouble. The fun fast and furious all through and there is not a dull moment.

Charles Grapewin, as John Henry, made a tremendous hit and fully acted up to his advance notices as one of the best comedians on the American stage. He was ably supported by a large and efficient cast, including Anna Chance, as Clara J., who occupies the only furnished room in John's heart, was most happy in her acting. Edward C. Gillespie, as Bunch Jefferson, John's pal and fellow sufferer, in all the trouble that came upon him, was fully up to the standard and the whole cast was strong.

The musical numbers while not numerous were of more than usual merit. "The duet Strolling," by Anna Chance and Charles Grapewin was perhaps the choicest little bit in the play. It has one of those catchy airs which stick in one's memory, and its tunefulness was fully brought out. Another choice number was "My Lonesome Little Louisiana Lady," by Miss Chance.

The production is well staged and the costumes and the girls that wear them, pretty. Although "Its up to You, John Henry" has all the elements of an evening's mirthful entertainment.

"SIGN OF THE CROSS"

Wilson Barrett's powerful, religious and historical drama, "The Sign of the Cross," which will be presented at the Grand to-night, will doubtless draw as it does everywhere, churchgoers and those who usually disapprove of the theatre as well as those who are regular attendants at theatrical performances. It is a well and long known fact that no play has such a strong hold upon theatre-goers and at the same time draws so largely upon that section of the community classed as non-theatre goers. The attitude of the church towards "The Sign of the Cross," which has been emphasized by the wide endorsement of its purifying and ennobling qualities by the clergy, is due to the beautiful pictures of the patient, devout and devoted Christians in their sufferings in the dark days of Rome under the cruel and licentious reign of Nero. The love of Marcus Superbus, a noble patrician, for Mercia, a lovely Christian maiden, is the central idea around which the intensely interesting and sympathetic story of "The Sign of the Cross" is constructed, and which tells with the most graphic details of the gradual winning over of the man to the faith of the woman whose beauty alone at first attracted him. While teaching a strong lesson and presenting a faithful picture of the life in Rome during the reign of Nero, the production is essentially spectacular, presenting rich and beautiful scenes with the luxurious wealth of the sumptuous appointments of the Roman Court and the grace of the Roman draperies.

The spectacular qualities of the production will have the brilliancy of newness, for all the costumes have been made expressly for this season. They are historically correct in reproducing the costumes: armour, togas draperies of Rome in the days of Nero, and are exact copies of the original costumes of the London production. Messrs. Berger and Craerin will give the play strong dramatic treatment. That forceful actor, F. W. Smith, will appear as Marcus Superbus, and many members of William Greet's London company will be welcomed in their original characters. Several noted American players will also be on the strong cast of over forty artists.

TRUSTWORTHY DRY GOODS UNIFORMLY RIGHT PRICES

The Commissioners DEMANDING $41,063.27 From The City Council

This Amount is Required to Met Interest and Sinking Fund on Debentures--Debenture Debt Increased by $78,309.08 Last Year--Some of the Increases--Total Debt is Now Over $735,000.00.

On Wednesday afternoon the City Trust Commissioners meet in the office of the chairman, Mr. W. H. Moore, for the purpose of considering the demand which they will make on the city this year for funds to provide for the interest and sinking fund for the various debentures issued by the corporation.

The amount this year required for these purposes is $41,063.27, which is an increase of $3,563.27 over 1905, when the demand was $37,500.

The total debenture debt of the city at the present time is $735,465.73. Deducting from this amount the local improvement frontage debt of $107,113.27 and the waterworks debt, $292,000, making a total of $399,113.27, leaves a net general purpose debt of $336,352.46.

From this, however, should be deducted $124,768.62, the amount which the Commissioners have on hand, at the present time, so that the actual debt is only $211,583.84.

The details of the demands which will be made on the city by the commissioners are as follows:

For public school purposes—

Interest	$3,100 00
Sinking Fund	459 13
Total—	$3,559 31
Public school debt $64,900.

For general city purposes—

Interest	$9,171 00
Sinking Fund	4,168 28
Total—	$13,314 28
General purpose debt $216,200.
For local improvements, general—
Interest	$2,628 99
Sinking Fund	1,678 82
Total—	$4,705,81
Local improvement general debt, $55,252.46.
For local improvement frontage—
Interest	$3,972 11
Sinking Fund	3,013 23
Total—	$6,985 34
Local improvement frontage debt, $107,113.27.
For waterworks—
Interest	$11,105 00
Sinking Fund	6,090 36
Total—	$17,195 36
Waterworks debt $292,000.

This makes the gross debt of the city $735,465 73.

During 1905 there was an increase in the gross debt of the city of $78,309.08, divided as follows:

Schools	$ 3,000 00
General city purposes	22,000 00
Local improvement, general	7,797 65
Local improvement frontage	15,511 43
Waterworks	30,000 00

Customs Returns Show Big Increase

Amount Collected in February of This Year $6,849.07 Greater Than Last Year.

The customs returns at the local Custom House for the month of February, show the customary increase. The figures indicate that the increase is $6,,849.07, which is a strong proof that the trade of the city is developing in a manner that is highly satisfactory, to say the least.

The figures are:

Feb., 1906	$34,380.54
Feb 1905	27,531.47
	$ 6,849.07

South Beach Hotel To Be Enlarged

Mr. W. E. Brooks, of "South Beach Hotel," Young's Point, was in the city to-day to make arrangements, if possible, for placing a frontage to the already spacious building at South Beach. Mr. Brooks states that if the addition is constructed it will be 100 feet in length, and will be built three stories high.

Mr. Brooks has found it expedient in consideration of the extensive summer trade of last year, and in anticipation of an increase during nineteen hundred and six.

The building, if the present projects are carried out, will be a large and spacious one, commanding a view of Clear Lake, and will be adequate to fill the increased demand for tourist accommodation.

A Successful Insurance Man

Mr. S. G. Faulkner a Former Peterborough Man.

The January number of Office and Field, a journal devoted to life insurance interests, contains a half-tone portrait of Mr. S. G. Faulkner, manager for the State of Washington of the North American Life Assurance Co. In reference to the portrait the paper says:

Our readers are this week presented with a portrait of Mr. S. G. Faulkner, of Seattle, Wash. Mr. Faulkner is the manager for the State of Washington for the North American Life. He first became associated with the company some years ago, as district agent at Peterborough, Ont., his agency at that time comprising several counties. In 1895 he resigned the position and took up his residence in Vancouver, B.C., where he was appointed manager for that province. At the time of his appointment the agency covered only the province, but it was subsequently enlarged to include the Yukon Territory. Mr. Faulkner continued to administer the duties called on by that position until 1904, when he resigned to assume the management of the company for the State of Washington.

Mr. Faulkner is a successful life insurance man, and has been one of the big producers for his company.

Fays' Work Will Be Referred To

Evangelist John Gilchrist will be present at the meeting in the Gospel Hall, to-morrrow night, and will take part in the discussion on the Spirit of Divination in which the work of the Fays will be referred to. The public is invited to be present, and if they desire, to also join in the discussion on the question.

Will See Demonstration OF STONE CRUSHER BEFORE Purchasing Machine

Board of Works Decide to Send a Deputation to Hamilton for That Purpose--Will Buy a New Water Cart--No Action Will be Taken in Claims for Damages--Bogue Matter Will be Left on the Hands of the Solicitor.

The Board of Works Committee of the City Council, at an adjourned meeting last night, cleaned up a large number of small matters, as well as dealing with one or two more important questions.

It was decided to purchase another watering cart, to cost about $380, and also a scavenger cart for use in cleaning the catch basins.

The purchase of a stone crusher was again discussed, and although the matter was not definitely settled, it was decided to accept either the Champion or the Sawyer-Massey machine, and a committee will go to Hamilton to see a practical demonstration.

No action will be taken in regard to several claims for damages, the city solicitor having reported that the council was in no way liable.

The Bogue matter also came up and was left in the hands of the solicitor to investigate.

There were present:—Ald. Hicks in the chair, Ald. Johnston, McIntyre, Graham, Adams and Mayor Best.

New Water Cart.

On motion of Mayor Best, seconded by Ald. Graham, the Street Commissioner was empowered to have the water carts repainted and repaired in preparation for the season.

Ald. Hicks in this connection brought up the matter of buying a new watering cart. He pointed out that when a cart was now disabled there was none to take its place.

Street Commissioner Evans also suggested that a scavenger cart be purchased to be used in cleaning out manholes, etc.

On motion of the Mayor, seconded by Ald. Johnston, the chairman was authorized to purchase a watering cart and a scavenger wagon.

The Stone Crusher.

The stone crusher question was next dealt with.

The chairman asked if it were the intention of the Board to deal only with new machines, or consider the offers made of second-hand

Port Hope Man Died From Cut

Guy Grant Met With a Fatal Accident Yesterday.

Special to The Examiner.

Port Hope, March 1.—Guy Grant, about 16 years old, accidentally cut himself in the right thigh yesterday afternoon while killing a calf for a farmer near Port Britain. The sharp blade entered the network of arteries about the knee. Dr. G. A. Dickenson, assisted by other local surgeons, performed the operation of binding the arteries, but the young man died about 5 o'clock this morning from a clot of blood entering the heart.

Have Appointed New Organist

Mr. Wm. E. McCann, of London, Ont., Has Been Selected for George Street Church.

Last night at a special meeting of the Trustee Board of the George street Methodist church, after the evening prayer meeting, Mr. Wm. E. McCann, of London, Ont., was given a unanimous invitation to fill the vacancy as organist and choir leader left by the resignations of Prof. Milner and Prof. Gliddon. The appointment was made on recommendation of the Music Committee who selected Mr. McCann as organist and choir instructor from about thirty applications received by them.

Mr. McCann arrived in the city last night on invitation to be present at the meeting of the Board who are well pleased with the personal appearance of the new organist. The testimonials in the hands of the Music Committee represent Mr. McCann as a capable musician and choir leader and one who should give perfect satisfaction in his new appointment.

Mr. McCann is a son of a Methodist minister, and comes well recommended from a Methodist church in South London. He will commence his duties on April first and promises to give good satisfaction as organist and choir master.

Edwin S. Banwell Travels In State

Defaulting Bank Teller Passed Through Peterborough To-day on His Way to Toronto—Had Stateroom in Pullman Sleeper—Was in Good Spirits—Told Circumstances of the Embezzlement.

This morning the 5.15 C. P. R. train carried as a passengor Edwin Banwell, the defaulting teller of the Crown Bank, who was captured in Jamaica on a charge of stealing unsigned bank notes and gold.

Banwell, who was in the custody of Detective Black, was, of course, in his berth when the train passed through Peterborough, so that conversation with him was denied. He and Detective Black occupied the same berth, while Mrs. Banwell, who left Toronto a few months ago, she alleges, on an innocent elopement, an adjoining berth to that of her husband.

The Banwells came from Halifax, where they arrived on Tuesday by the steamer Boston. The only passengers besides Detective Black were Edwin St. George Banwell, brought back from Jamaica for robbing the Crown Bank in Toronto, and his bride, nee Nora Hector. When Deputy Chief Stark, of Toronto, boarded the Boston shortly after her arrival he was ushered into the cabin, where Banwell was seated on a lounge, his wife close beside him. They were reading a novel together, and though apparently unconcerned, were somewhat noticeably making more or less of an effort to maintain their composure and conceal their nervousness. Both looked a little tired. The voyage had been very rough, and the steamer was two days overdue. Off Cape Hatteras a hurricane was encountered, and during February 23 and 24, while it lasted, the wind buffeted all round the compass, making a tremendous sea, and only one hundred miles of progress on the voyage was accomplished during the period. Mrs. Banwell was very seasick during this storm, and, indeed, at intervals during the whole trip she was more or less affected by mal de mer, which doubtless partially accounted for her rather worn-out appearance.

Singing and Reading.

Banwell, on the other hand, proved a good sailor. The young man did not appear to at all suffer from depression of spirits on the trip up, and his buoyancy of disposition was not lost on his wife, so the captain stated, for, except when she was confined to her bed by seasickness, they passed the time in singing, reading, and promenading the ship. Captain Holmsted's wife always travels with him, and was a constant companion of Mrs. Banwell.

The fact that Banwell was a prisoner was never alluded to by any of the ship's officers. Detective Black never spoke of it, and the crew probably did not know anything about it. The fact was intentionally kept from them.

Comparative Freedom.

The two passengers were free to come and go as they liked, except that at night they occupied separate rooms. Detective Black remaining with Banwell. Thus the days passed till the steamer arrived off the harbour Tuesday night, where she remained till Wednesday afternoon, waiting for the thick weather, that had prevailed, to break away and allow the steamer to make her way up the harbour.

Banwell chatted pleasantly with Deputy Chief Stark during the hour that was spent on board after the steamer docked, and before he and his wife started for the railway station. "Mrs. Banwell was expecting some letters from her mother," said the young man to the Deputy Chief. "Are there none for her?" "I have two letters for Mrs. Banwell at the hotel," the Deputy Chief replied, "and will get them for you." Then the young man asked about the departure of the train. He was told when Montreal would be reached, and the hour at which the express was due in Toronto, shortly after 7 o'clock Thursday morning. "Then we will have several hours' wait at Montreal," Banwell rather regretfully remarked, and he further said, in a depreciating tone, "And there will be two nights on the road—a long journey."

Deputy Chief Stark asked Banwell about young O'Grady, of the Crown Bank, saying that he had expected him on the Boston, but Banwell explained that he had returned via New York, his father, having written, ordering him to come back direct.

It was a long hour the couple spent in the cabin till the baggage had passed the Customs and arrangements were completed for their departure for the Intercolonial train, which left at 4 o'clock.

Every Consideration Shown.

The crowd was kept back from the steamer, but a number of curious people managed to get through, anxious for a glimpse within the cabin at its occupants. Deputy Chief Stark and the Halifax police took every precaution to make the landing at and departure from Halifax as little unpleasant as possible for Banwell and his wife. A closed carriage was at the ship's side, into which, nearly an hour before the train left, they entered for the drive of a mile to the railway station. As they left the ship Banwell wore a light felt hat and carried a basket, his wife coming after him a minute later, well costumed and wearing a pretty hat. In the carriage with the couple were Deputy Chief Stark and Detective Black.

Detective Black displayed a handsome cane, which he assured the Customs officer he had won in a tug-of-war in Kingston and should not pay duty on.

When he was asked if he had "beaht he coone" both the Banwells laughed heartily.

May Plead Guilty.

It is said Banwell admits taking the money and will plead guilty. He is in hopes of getting a light sentence.

It was on December 9 he saw his opportunity, and he says he could not let it get by him. If he had had a valise, he says, he could have filled it, but, having no valise, he simply filled his pockets. When leaving the bank with his pockets stuffed full of money he met and passed the accountant. He went over to McConkey's and met Miss Hector by appointment. He told her he was now in a position to pay his debts and would get out of the city. She replied, "If you are going I am going with you." After luncheon at McConkey's they strolled up Yonge street and went into Ryrie Bros.', Ambros Kent's, and Kent Bros.', where they purchased $3,500 worth of jewellery, consisting of a large single stone diamond ring valued at $700, four ladies' 3-stone diamond rings, three pair of screw diamond earrings and one diamond brooch, and a diamond brooch and ring, which Detective Black recovered from Mrs. Banwell three days before they left Kingston.

The trip from Jamaica was uneventful. Banwell and his wife were in good humour and cheerful. They and Mr. Black, with the captain and his wife, played muggins in the evenings.

Banwell Was Sore.

Banwell gave as one reason for committing the robbery that he was sore at O'Grady and thought that he had not received the promotion he thought was due him, according to Captain Holmsted of the steamer.

Detective Black brought back with him $20,000 in unsigned bills, $7,000 in fifties, $6,000 in twenties, currency amounting to $1,500, diamonds $4,000, money sent home $1,000, and $1,500 spent by Banwell, making a total of $41,000.

The collection amounted to over $18.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Bert, McIntyre, who has been suffering from a severe cold, is recovering.

The funeral of the late William Walker, whose death occurred on Tuesday, was held from the family residence Thursday afternoon. Rev. D. D. McDonald, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Keene, conducted the funeral services. Interment took place at Westwood cemetery. The attendance at the funeral was very large, it being one of the largest funerals held in this vicinity for some time. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas Borland, John Dickson, John Hope, Sidney Smithson and Frank Redpath. A number of friends from Peterborough attended the funeral.

Mr. Harry Noyes is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

A masquerade ball will be held in the town hall Friday evening, March 2, under the auspices of the skating rink management. Prizes will be awarded for the best dressed ladies and gentlemen. Those in costume only will be allowed to dance from 8 till 10 o'clock. Afterwards spectators will be allowed to dance also.

A Counter Blast To The Cigarette

A Priest Commends Proposed Legislation Suppressing the Nuisance.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 29.—The evil effects of cigarette smoking by boys were graphically pictured in the course of a sermon preached yesterday by Rev. M. J. Riordan, of St. Charles church, Pikesville, the priest's remarks being based on bills that will come before the State Senate.

"Thoughtful persons will approve the proposed legislation of Annapolis for the suppression of cigarette smoking among boys," said Father Riordan. "To prohibit a thing because it is abused by the few is an unwarrantable interference with personal rights, but to suppress what is a curse to the many, is very easily defensible. Much is to be said in favour of the moderate use of tobacco by grown persons, medical science is unanimous in forbidding it for boys. Many of the foremost educators and physicians have declared the cigarette an insidious poison, sapping the mental and physical strength of our youth.

"With ills of mind and body the moralist is not directly concerned, but the mental and physical deterioration caused by cigarettes produces a corresponding moral degeneration by weakening the will and the capacity to resist evil. A man's moral fibre is only as strong as his will power, which is the backbone of morality. Weaken or destroy that and you make man a prey to every allurement — a puppet in the hands of Satan. Strengthen it and man becomes a king, greater than he who maketh a city.

"The great master of the spiritual life—St. Ignatius Loyola — makes the resolve to do right contingent upon strong conviction or clearness of mental vision; and if he lived in our era of nerve-destroying agencies he would, with modern psychologists, point out one other condition — a sound and well-poised nervous system. Moral degenerates are always nervous wrecks, and a nervous breakdown means enfeebled will power. The cigarette habit, owing to its deadly influence upon the nerves and will, dulls the clear-cut vision of right and wrong, blunts the fine edge of moral accountability and weakens the many resolve to do right at any cost. It is, therefore, the foe of good morals, and antagonistic to the development of the spiritual sense.

"With mind, body, and will stunted, the cigarette victim finds his power to resist temptation weakened, and must needs grow less honest, less truthful and less pure. A craving so abnormal naturally creates appetite for other and graver vices.

"Is it any wonder that good judges of character have no confidence in youths who smoke cigarettes?"

The Reports To Be Presented

The annual congregational meeting of Charlotte street Methodist church will be held to-night, when the reports of the different societies will be presented. The usual tea will also take place.

The past year has been so successful that the members of this congregation should, and doubtless do, feel like congratulating themselves on the excellent showing made during 1905.

More Emigrants Will Be Sent

Salvation Army Will Probably Send 15,000 to 20,000 Men.

Ottawa, Feb. 28. — Commissioner Coombs, of the Salvation Army, in company with Brigadier Howell, who has charge of the Army's immigration work in Canada, met the Premier and Minister of the Interior to-day regarding the adjustment of their claim for Government bonus on the settlers that they brought to Canada last season. They want also a definite understanding as to the settlers they are bringing out this year, so that no question will be raised concerning the payment of the $3 per capita bonus on every domestic servant and on every man, whatever his employment may have been in the Old Country, that they induce to take up farming in Canada.

The original purpose of the Salvation Army was to bring out 10,000 selected settlers this season, but by reason of the large number anxious to come under their auspices it is quite possible that the number will be increased to 15,000 or 20,000.

Lorimer 'Phones Coming To Front

Illustrated London News Contains Following Reference.

The Brantford Expositor says:—

Brantford and the Lorimer 'phone come in for a very creditable notice in the last edition of The London Illustrated News. The article is illustrated profusely with splendid views of the whole Lorimer system. The article states:

"A mechanical telephone girl has been invented by two Canadians, G.W. and J. H. Lorimer, who hail from the 'Telephone' city of Brantford. It was at Brantford that the Scotchman, Alexander Graham Bell, first demonstrated the practical utility of the telephone; and by a curious coincidence it is this colonial town that is destined to be associated with an invention that may prove to be the greatest since that of Professor Bell's."

The article was published on February 24th.

57th To Brantford For Dominion Day

An Invitation Will be Extended by Dufferin Rifles to Local Regiment—A Big Programme is Being Arranged for First of July—Trip Will be a Popular One With the Men.

The Brantford Expositor was quoted yesterday to the effect that the 57th Regiment would probably be invited to Brantford on Dominion Day, as guests of the Dufferin Rifles. The Expositor of yesterday confirmed this, the article being as follows:

"The officers of the Dufferin Rifles met last night and considered the matter of holding a military day on July 1st. It was decided unanimously to extend an invitation to the 57th of Peterborough to come here for that day.

"As intimated in last night's Expositor, the Peterborough Regiment is practically certain to accept the invitation, so that the citizens of Brantford can look forward to a military demonstration on Dominion Day. The 57th will stay in the city for two days and will probably camp at the Agricultural Park while here.

"The question of holding a military tattoo on the same date was not gone into but will be taken up at an early date.

"The Dufferin Rifles can expect to meet with every support in their efforts to provide for a big day's celebration. Already there is some talk of arranging for a programme at the park in the afternoon, to consist of military manoeuvres, lacrosse and baseball games and other amusements. If the tattoo is arranged for the evening the day's programme will be one of the best for some years."

This makes it practically certain that the local regiment will go to Brantford this year. As was stated in these columns some days ago, the officers of the regiment, in considering the objective point for their trip this year, decided that they would like to go to the Telephone City, and as soon as this was learned by the officers of the Dufferin Rifles they took the matter up enthusiastically, and the result is that an invitation has been extended to Lieut.-Colonel Miller and the officers of the 57th to bring their men to Brantford on Dominion Day.

There is little doubt that the trip to Brantford would be very popular with the men as well as the officers, and the prospects are that one of the most enjoyable trips in the history of the regiment is in store for it this summer.

Demonstration of Stone Crusher

machines. It was decided not to consider second hand crushers at all.

In the discussion that followed it was pointed out that if the lowest tender were accepted the Board would have to take the Sawyer-Massey crusher.

Ald. McIntyre expressed himself as not being in favour of accepting the lowest tender.

Mayor Best though it advisable that a committee should go to Hamilton and see the machines in operation, and then use their judgment as to which they thought best suited to the Board's purpose.

The personnel of the committee caused a little discussion. The Mayor thought that the chairman and Street Commissioner Evans were sufficient, but the aldermen were of the opinion that His Worship should go.

At length it was moved by Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. McIntyre, that the committee be composed of thee Mayor, chairman, City Engineer Hay, and Street Commissioner Evans, and that they go to Hamilton, and inspect the machines with power to purchase a stone-crusher, with a revolving screen and elevator.—Carried.

Mayor Best and other members present expressed themselves as being opposed to the Climax crusher, as it was manufactured by an American firm, and they thought that Canadian industries should be encouraged. The choice will therefore be between the Sawyer-Massey and the Champion.

Requests Made.

Walter Stocker asked that a pipe crossing be constructed on Homewood avenue, and that another crossing on the same street which was begun last fall, be completed.

The Street Commissioner reported favourably, and it was moved by Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. McIntyre that the request be granted, work to be done when the weather permits.—Carried.

A communication was received from Rev. Canon Davidson, pointing out the necessity of a sewer being constructed on Hunter street from Water street to the river. No action was taken in the matter, the City Engineer reporting that he had informed Mr. Davidson that it would not be possible to construct such a sewer until the system is extended.

The request of the C.P.R. to do away with one of their two crossings at the corner of Romaine street and the Monaghan road was next considered. The Board had previously visited the locality. It was moved by Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. Graham, that the C. P. R. be permitted to make the change asked, provided that they arrange for the water course.—Carried.

No Action Taken.

City Solicitor Hall reported that the city was not liable in the claims for damages made by Coleman Blewett and H. Edmondson. It will be remembered that the latter drove into an embankment on Rubidge street, and his horse fell, breaking the shafts and injuring the harness. He claimed damages of $2.50. Blewett met with an almost similar accident, driving into a sewer.

In this connection it was moved by Ald. McIntyre, seconded by Ald. Graham that no action be taken.

A similar claim for damages for $6.50 was made by Mrs. Wm. Robson who's horse broke through a plank on the Dalhousie street bridge and broke the harness.

On motion of Ald. McIntyre, seconded by Ald. Johnston, the matter was referred to the City Solicitor.

Permission Granted.

John T. Smyth applied for permission to erect an illuminated sign over his new pool and billiard room on Water street, to extend 24 inches over the pavement. The Board felt that as permission had been given in other cases Mr. Smyth should be similarly treated and the request was granted on motion of Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. McIntyre.

Jos. Johnston and H. Jewett stated that they were going to erect two new houses on Park street, and asked the Board to have the ditch in front of their property cribbed, and covered over. The question of putting in a pipe drain and covering it over with gravel was discussed, but as this work could not be done at once, and the parties wish to begin operations immediately, it was moved by Ald. Graham, seconded by Ald. McIntyre, that a temporary wooden approach be built.—Carried.

Alex. Fitzgerald was ordered to be paid for one and a half day's work he did for the Board in January in connection with the break in the Trent Canal.

Joseph Redmond offered the Board 15 or more cords of stone for crushing purposes at $3 per cord. As the Board has more than enough stone on hand now, no action was taken in the matter.

Water Street Sewer.

The Water street sewer was the next business dealt with. The City Engineer had reported that difficulty would be experienced in laying the sewer from Smith street to Hillier street, as the space on the west side of the car tracks, where the sewer is most needed, was too narrow, and there was also a danger of becoming mixed up with the gas pipes. To lay the sewer in the middle of the street would mean that the Radial Railway Company would have to pull up their tracks while the work was going on, and the Board did not think it advisable to ask them to do so.

It was moved that the work should be gone on with, the same to be constructed on the west side of the street.

The claim of Mr. Bogue that he should be paid 95 per cent. for the work he completed on the Fifth Ward outfall sewer was discussed for a short time but nothing new was brought out. It was moved by Ald. Graham that the matter be left to the City Solicitor.

The Board then adjourned.

Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—I was an enchanted listener at an organ recital given by Prof. Chas. E. Milner in the George Street Methodist Church last night. I hear that the Methodists are allowing him to leave their church as organist and that he was charged ten dollars for the use of the church last night (which was sparingly heated). Is all this true?

If the Methodists do not appreciate him surely the music-loving people of Peterborough do.

Yours truly,

Miss C. Calder, of Campbellford, spent Sunday at her home here.

The trustees of the Norwood Methodist church presented Mrs. D. A. Fraser with the following address on the last evening that she presided as organist:

To Mrs. D. A. Fraser:

Dear Mrs. Fraser,—On this, the last evening you will occupy your accustomed place as our organist and choir leader, we desire on behalf of the church and congregation here assembled, to express our high estimate of your work and worth; to assure you of our deep regret at your departure from among us, and to offer you our hearty, best wishes for your happiness and prosperity in your new home.

Your constancy, loyalty and genuinity will long be held in fragrant remembrance by us, and will enter into the traditions of this historic church, which is enshrined in the holiest affections of so many, whom duty has called to distant parts of the Dominion.

While thus reluctantly taking leave of you, we find some measure of gratification in the thought that others will gain through our loss, and that they in turn will be helped, as we have been, by your ministry of music and song.

We unite in reverently invoking upon you and yours that blessing of our God, which "maketh rich and addeth no sorrow," and remain, dear Mrs. Fraser,

Yours very faithfully,

W. H. ADAMS, Minister.

Owing to bad roads and soft weather there is a very limited number of logs coming into the mill.

Mr. John Read, of Keene, spent a couple of days in our village last week.

The Services At St. John's Church

Rev. H. Caplain, of Havelock, Spoke on the Subject of "Obedience."

There was a large attendance at all the Ash Wednesday services at St. John's church yesterday.

At the 8 o'clock service the rector, Rev. Canon Davidson, said evening prayer, and the Rev. H. Caplain, of Havelock, gave the address on the subject of "Obedience."

He chose his text from St. John vii., 7: "The world cannot hate you; but Me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil."

Business College Held An At-Home

A Delightful Evening Spent at Havelock Recently.

Special to The Examiner.

Havelock, Feb. 28th — The Federal Reading Club of town, (the branch of the Federal Business College) gave an at home in the town hall on Monday evening, Feb. 26th, for the benefit of the above reading club, and also the Free Hospital for Consumptives in Muskoka. Invitations were issued by the club, which explained the purpose of the at home, which turned out to be a brilliant success, about 75 couples being present. Those who did not dance had the option of playing all kinds of games which were provided. The refreshments were served by the ladies and their friends of the club. The 40th Regiment orchestra of Campbellford furnished the music. A number of persons attended from Norwood, Campbellford, Marmora, Peterborough and Hastings. Mr. J. Houstan, principal, and Miss N. Campbell, are to be congratulated on the way the whole affair was carried out. The ladies and gentlemen of the college acted as ushers and waiters for the supper.

Miss A. Houston of Lindsay, daughter of Mr. Houston, principal of the Federal College, attended the at home on Monday evening.

Miss N. Montgomery of Peterborough is the guest of Mrs. S. J. Cross, town.

Miss L. Cameron of Indian River is the guest of Miss E. Lancaster.

Mr. S. Smith Is In The City

Receiving Tenders in Connection With the Improvements to Oriental.

Mr. Sanford Smith, architect, of the firm of Bond and Smith, Toronto, was in the city yesterday receiving tenders for the plumbing, installation of baths and fixtures, for the improvements to be made to the Oriental. The work will be commenced at once, and after the improvements are made to the Oriental, it will present a greatly improved condition.

THE PHYSIC HABIT

THE RESULT OF USING SALTS, CASTOR OIL, ETC., INSTEAD OF THOROUGHLY CURING CONSTIPATION BY

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

"Oh, a dose of salts will fix me up all right," you say, when the bowels become constipated and the liver and kidney sluggish and congested.

And the temporary relief you obtain in this way deceives you for a time, but you are soon in distress again, and must increase the dose and resort more frequently to the use of this weakening and debilitating treatment.

Constipation and intestinal indigestion cannot possibly be cured until the liver is made active in its work of filtering bile from the blood and pouring it into the intestines, where it acts as a natural cathartic, hastening the process of digestion, and the removal of waste matter from the body.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have a direct and specific action on the liver. They not only afford prompt relief, but positively strengthen and invigorate the kidneys, liver and bowels. Instead of encouraging the physic habit, they thoroughly cure constipation, liver complaint, biliousness and kidney disease.

If you would like to regain your old-time vigour, and feel strong and well again, use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. The backaches and body pains will disappear, your appetite and digestion will be good, you will escape sickness and disease, because the filtering and excretory organs will keep the body cleansed from poisonous waste matter.

Mrs. Thomas Covent, Highland Grove, Peterborough Co., Ont., writes: "I was a sufferer for years with stomach trouble and terrible headaches and spent a good many dollars in medicine without receiving any benefit. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills highly recommended I determined to give them a trial and did so with satisfactory results, as I was very greatly benefitted and do not hesitate to recommend this treatment as the best obtainable for such ailments."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Backache Plaster drives and all pains and aches. 7

Clarke's a Reliable Fur Store

WE ARE BUSY SELLING FURS, ALTHOUGH THE WEATHER HAS BEEN FIGHTING US HARD

There are just as many people buying Fur now as there were early in the season. The reason is easily explained—Our Fur Stock is twice as large as it should be—the season is against us—we need money to buy our summer stock with. Our Fur Stock Must be Sacrificed to Get This Money. To sacrifice your stock means to put prices on the goods that will make them move out, and make people come and buy. The public are wise, they know Furs are cheap, and by buying now can save lots of money.

LICENSE REDUCTION.

What about the question of license reduction? This can well be asked in view of the fact of the deadly deadness of the issue, so far as the general public is aware. It might be recalled that the Ministerial Association was at one time very much alive in regard to license reduction. The president of the A sociation had called the attention of his colleagues to the importance of the subject, and, in due course, the Association waited upon the council, in the interests of license reduction, and, of course, the Licensed Victuallers' interests were not neglected, and the result of the subsequent action of both interests, was that many of the aldermanic candidates were placed on both the reduction and anti-reduction tickets, having presumably committed themselves to both the hotelkeepers and the temperance people, in order to secure the support of both sides at the municipal elections.

Under the circumstances, the gentlemen elected to the council could consistently take no action in bringing about license reduction by civic legislation. They were in the position that they could either act or decline to act, without breaking faith (on the average, so to speak.) with the interests that helped their election. The Ministerial A sociation, which was so anxious to strengthen the hands of the Commissioners, through the City Council's action, have, so far as known, taken not the first step to have a reduction bylaw passed before March 1st, which must be done, if the reduction thereby to be effected, is to have effect this year. Therefore, so far as the assistance of the City Council, which was considered of such paramount importance last December, is concerned, the present members of the Ministerial A sociation have thrown away their opportunities, and failed to use the power the people placed in their hands, of having the Council declare for a reduction of license. Though a considerable number of the aldermen promised to serve two masters, it does not seem probable that the council could have declined to pass a reduction bylaw in view of the strong mandate given them by the vote of the people, who, by a majority of 250, commanded them to pass a license reduction bylaw.

It is a little difficult to understand the attitude and action of the Ministerial A sociation, in regard to the matter. If they were justified in the course they took before and during the municipal elections, then there is no other conclusion to be arrived at than that they have most gravely neglected their duty in failing to urge upon the council to carry out the will of the people. It is hardly to be thought that the As ociation wanted only to stir up strife in the community in regard to a domestic matter, with no intention of making use of the power given by the emphatic vote of the people

The License Commissioners have the power, strengthened by the vote of the people, to reduce licenses, but they may be influenced by the refusal of the council to carry out the will of the people — if aldermen ignore it, why not the commissioners?—and the failure of the Ministerial As ociation to urge the council to respect the popular will, even to the extent of declining to assume the full burden of the responsibility of license reduction, which was to be made the easier by the support of the popular will, of the city council, and of the Ministerial A sociation. If the Commissioners decline to act in the way of license reduction, they can quote the precedent of all these influences in justification.

It would be interesting to have the explanation of the Ministerial As ociation. We need expect no explanation from the city council, because a large number of its members represent, in virtue of the influences which contributed to their election, both reduction and anti-reduction interests. But, to the average mind the action of the Ministerial As ociation seems to be inconsistent. If the Association is to have any influence in Peterborough, it would be wise to explain — if there is any explanation possible — the cause of their difference in attitude before and after the January elections. The A sociation helped elect Aldermen who had pledged themselves to both parties, the people commanded the council to pass a reduction bylaw, and the Ministerial As ociation has permitted the council to evade and ignore this mandate, and thus have shown future councillors that it is possible to make themselves superior to the expressed will of the people.

It is now said that there was an understanding to the effect that if the Council would submit the question of license reduction to the people, and if the decision was in its favour, the incoming Council would not be asked to embarass themselves by being asked to give effect to the people's will. Whether this is the case or not, we have no means of knowing, but the attitude of the Ministerial Association to the City Council seems to be prima facie evidence of its correctness: If it is true, then the Ministerial Association stands convicted of playing fast and loose with a great moral question and of imperilling the interests they professed to be so anxious to serve. If they had insisted upon the Council carrying out the will of the people by passing a bylaw to reduce the number of licenses that could be granted, the commissioners would have been compelled to act accordingly. Now, the commissioners, in whom the Ministerial Association voted want of confidence by manipulating a popular vote, with the understanding that it placed no responsibility on the Council, can do as they like about reducing licenses. If the Council, directly responsible to the people, are not held to action by the Ministerial Association, will the commissioners who hold their office from the Government feel a greater or more direct responsibility? If the Ministerial Association had urged the Council to the action which the popular vote bound them to take, the license reduction question would now be settled. As matters stand, it is still an open question, and in practically the same position it was last December. Whether license reduction is desirable is itself a question which is fairly debatable; but those who favour it have reason to feel that their interests have been trifled with, and those opposed to reduction have still a fighting chance to prevent its consummation.

THE INSURANCE INQUIRY.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, Minister of Finance, in appointing a commission of inquiry into the methods and management of Canadian Insurance Companies, is anticipating more perhaps a popular desire than a popular demand for such an investigation. No doubt considerable public unrest has arisen on account of the revelations made in regard to insurance methods in the United States. We are all affected by our environments, and while the undesirable conditions that have been revealed in the United States may not prevail to a very great extent, if any, in connection with Canadian insurance companies, yet there is a bare possibility that the temptation to immitate United States methods in connection with the administration of insurance may not have been in all cases entirely resisted. Even if the proposed investigation into Canadian insurance companies does not reveal anything objectionable, it will have the effect of steadying the public mind, developing a more friendly and confident attitude towards insurance corporations and ultimately result in their benefit. It does not appear that Mr. Fielding or the Government in appointing a commission has acted upon the knowledge or suspicion of any wrong-doing in connection with Canadian companies, but, as suggested, have simply been moved by a desire to adopt means to allay the uneasiness which is held to be likely to exist in the public mind on account of the mismanagement of American companies, and to supply information upon which to base intelligent legislation dealing with the subject. Mr. Fielding is quoted as asserting that the officials of his department have been following closely the recent enquiries in the United States with the objects of profitting by the experience therein gained for possible amendments to the Insurance Act of Canada. It is added that the inspection of the affairs of the Canadian Companies during the current year by the Dominion Superintendent of Insurance and his officials has been rigid. The information thus gained, it is said, might be sufficient to enable the Minister to prepare the necessary legislation for the coming session of the Dominion Parliament. Mr. Fielding, however, is of opinion that "before legislation is submitted to Parliament there should be a more general investigation, which should be of an open and public character, so that opportunity may be afforded for an enquiry into any matterrs in which policyholders may be interested.

Much Real Estate Is Now Changing Hands

And Prospects for the Future Are Bright—Messrs. A. Brown and Company Have Closed a Large Number of Deals Recently—Another Man Added to the Staff.

The prospects this year are that there will be an even greater quantity of building done during the coming season than in any previous year in the city's history. One of the indications of this fact is the unusual activity in real estate which prevails in the city at present. The real estate agents in the city report that during the last few weeks considerable property has changed hands, and the prospects are that in the near future there will be a number of other changes.

Messrs. A. Brown & Company are particularly busy these days and have added another man to their staff in the person of Mr. Coleman Blewett, who joins the staff to-day. A few of the recent transfers of property effected by Messrs. Brown & Co., since January 22nd, of the present year are:—

Twenty acres, belonging to Mr. Yelland, south of the exhibition grounds, to which reference has already been made in these columns.

Exchange of property whereby Mr. Wesley Fallis secures Mr. Robert Stenton's park lot west of the exhibition grounds and Mr. Stenton acquires Mr. Fallis' house on King street.

Mr. J. J. Hartley's two housed on Westcott street sold to Mr. Charles Edwards.

F. Doughty'b house on Westcott street sold to Miss Graham.

Mr. Morrison's double house, Aylmer street, disposed of to Mrs. Nelson of Water street.

Mr. Robert Stenton's dwelling on King street, west of Park street, sold to Mr. Tremaym, barber, of George street.

Mrs. W. J. Doughty, purchase of house and lot from William Closson at the corner of Bethune and Wolfe streets.

Mr. Sheridan, clothing merchant, who is opening up a store in the market building, has bought one of the new houses erected by the Toronto Savings & Loan Co., on the north side of Weller street.

Mr. Rocque Brion has bought a lot on Gilmour street from James Taylor, of Ottawa, and intends building on it. Mr. Rock Gordon has also bought a lot from Mr. Taylor on Gilmour street and will build in the spring.

Mr. W. H. Collier, of the Peterborough Cereal Company, has acquired possession of the fine new house, owned by Mr. J. McIlmoyle on Weller street.

Mr. Dalton, of the Peterborough Canoe Company, has purchased a house and lot from Mr. P. W. Reynolds on Chamberlen street.

Further Decreases To The Water Consumers

It is understood that the Water Commissioners will in a short time announce a discount of 30 per cent. off the water rates for prompt payment. The present rate of discount is 25 per cent., but the increased earnings of the waterworks and the good prospects for the future have, it is understood, influenced the Commissioners in their decision to give the consumers the benefit by decreasing the amount which they have to pay. This is a move which the consumers will no doubt appreciate.

Since the waterworks were taken over by the commissioners the consumers have been required to pay considerably less for their water and with this further contemplated reduction the consumers will be placed in a still better position.

An announcement to the effect that the reduction has been decided upon will be awaited with interest.

SHREDDED WHEAT.

The Imperial Chinese Commission Visit the Plant at Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls is entertaining a notable company of visitors, imperial envoys from His Highness the Emperor of China.

The Chinese commission, which consists of two heads, one a prince of the royal blood, and the other the governor of two great provinces of the Chinese Empire, and a large retinue of secretaries and attendants, attracted a lot of attention.

The "home of Shredded Wheat" has entertained many notable visitors from this and foreign lands, but it has probably never been honoured by more distinguished company than the gentlemen from the Celestial Empire who passed through the building to-day.

After going through the Shredded Wheat plant to-day the envoys from the Emperor of China were unanimous in their declaration that it was the most interesting thing they had seen in their entire tour and that the building itself, its cleanliness, its beautifully lighted floors and the arrangements for conserving the health and comfort of employees were a revelation to them.

The Ladies Are Also Invited

Some ladies have received the impression that the Y.M.C.A. Saturday night "Pops" are not open to them. This is a mistake. A large number have attended every night thus far and all are welcome.

The chalkalogue by E. J. Beaugough on Saturday night will be highly entertaining. Miss Bellegbem will sing and Miss Gumpricht will give a piano solo. Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., will preside.

Band at Street Railway Rink To-night.

The Inquiry Will Be Thorough

That is How J. W. Langmuir Understands Scope of Insurance Commission.

Mr. J. W. Langmuir, speaking in regard to his understanding of the scope of the insurance commission:—

"Until we know the exact scope of the inquiry as defined in the commission," he said yesterday, "it is impossible to say what our plans will be, but I take it for granted that it will be a thorough inquiry involving everything connected with life insurance. I expect to give all the time necessary to make the investigation thorough.

"I do not care how strong you make this statement: With me it will be a question of principle and not a question of men. I believe the matter of life insurance and the investment of insurance moneys is quite as sacred a thing as the trust I have to deal with here—the trusts of the widow and the orphan. What is to be done is for the policyholders to say."

The life insurance investigation at Ottawa will be a matter of considerable importance to the Province in connection with such companies as hold Provincial charters, or which do business in Ontario under license or by Dominion charter, practically all the companies doing business. The suggestion that the Provincial Government should be represented at the investigation by counsel was referred to the Attorney-General, Hon. J. J. Foy, by the Globe. He replied:—"The subject has not come before the Council at all and has not been discussed. The suggestion, however, is well worthy of consideration."

$50.00 PROFIT

ONLY $25.00 INVESTED

Do you want to make $50 profit by investing only $25 in a lot in beautiful Summit Park, Port Arthur, the great lake port town of N. W. Ontario.

Port Arthur is the County Seat of all Thunder Bay District, and is the lake terminal town of the three great transcontinental railroads, which empty their immense quantities of Western freight on ships bound for the East and Europe.

Port Arthur is the only real municipal ownership town in America, and made last year over $28,000 net profit out of its Street Railway, Electric Light and Power, and Telephone Franchises.

Port Arthur has the largest grain elevator in the world.

Port Arthur doubled its population in the last 2 years and we believe it will double again in the next 5 years.

Port Arthur is the gateway between the East and the extensive West, and can have no competitor.

Summit Park is a high level plateau, furnishing a beautiful view of Thunder Bay, and lots purchased in this park at present prices will bring big profits before many months.

WEDDING BELLS

McCLELLAND—WINDRIM.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated in Emily on Wednesday, 28th Feb., 1906, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Windrum, when Wm. McClelland, of South Monaghan, brother of Dr McClelland, of Peterborough, led to the hymeneal altar, Letitia Ann Windrum, of Emily. The beautiful marriage ceremony arranged after Dr. Hodge, was performed by the Rev. J. M. Whitelaw, B.D., of Omemee. After a bountiful wedding supper, served in the most delicate style, the happy couple amidst showers of rice and old slippers and loaded with joyous felicitations left by the evening train for Peterborough. They will reside in the groom's beautiful home in South Monaghan. The bride will be much missed here as she was very popular, especially in Presbyterian church circles. The Examiner joins in congratulations.

Youth Was Pulled From Brink Of Watery Grave

Children Were Playing on the Bay When One Broke Through—Action of Ten Year Old Boy Highly Commendable—Pulled Out Sinking Boy With Pole—Great Consternation Among the Group.

The waters of Lake Katchewanooka almost added another victim to its long list of the past. On Saturday last at Young's Point, a number of boys and girls were romping on the ice on the School Bay, which is the customary skating rink in the village when consternation quickly spread among the youthful company by the sudden disappearance through the ice of Aubrey Darcy, the nine-year-old son of Mr. Fred Darcy, proprietor of the Temperance House there.

Most of the children were so much frightened that they stood speechless in view of the drowning boy. One or two hastened to inform Mr. A. Wilson, the nearest resident to the bay, but had it not been for the commendable action of Oswald Brooks, the ten-year-old son of Mr. W. E. Brooks, proprietor of the South Beach Hotel, at Young's Point, the accident would undoubtedly have proven fatal.

Oswald, with unusual presence of mind for a youth of his age, quickly hurried to the shore and secured a pole, with which he ventured as near as possible to the treacherous spot and reached to the sinking boy, pulling him from the brink of a watery grave. Had he been but a moment later young Darcy would certainly have sunk from exhaustion in the icy waters.

Such a courageous act on the part of one so young cannot be too highly praised and young Brooks is receiving congratulations for his brave and timely action as an example of presence of mind in such predicaments should be encouraged.

OBITUARY.

MARGARET SMYTH.

An old resident of Fraserville passed away yesterday in the person of Margaret Smyth, wife of Mr. Henry Neitlercut. The deceased was 72 years of age and had lived in Fraserville all her life. She was a daughter of the late David Smyth. Death was caused by heart disease and the deceased had only been seriously ill since Sunday. She was widely known and respected. Her husband and two brothers survive, John, of Fraserville, and Rev. Wm. Smyth, of St. Catharines. Mrs. R. M. Matchett of Fifth Ward, is a sister-in-law.

The funeral will take place to-morrow at 2 o'clock, to Fraserville Cemetery.

ELIZA TERRY.

This morning Mrs. Eliza Terry died at the residence of her nephew, Mr. C. Clements, No. 7 Walton street, after a short illness from pleurisy. The deceased came from Mount Albert, near Toronto, to reside with her nephew about a year and a half ago. Mrs. Terry leaves behind her four brothers, Messrs. Thomas, Richard, Joseph and James Ough, living in different parts of the United States. The remains will be removed from the late residence of deceased on Saturday morning, and interment will take place in Mount Albert on Sunday.

Invitation Has Been Received

To-day Lt.-Col. Miller, Commanding Office of the 57th Regiment, received a formal invitation from Lt.-Col. Cameron, of the 37th Dufferin Rifles, Brantford, for the local Regiment to visit that city on July 1st.

A meeting of the officers will be called in the near future, and the matter will be discussed then. There is every probability that the invitation will be accepted.

Lenten Services Well Attended

The services in the three Anglican churches last night, for the opening of the Lenten season, were all well attended. In St. Luke's and All Saints' churches, the rectors, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt and Rev. William Major presided, while in St. John's, Rev. H. Caplin of Havelock, was the speaker.

The sermons were appropriate to the season, and the speakers referred to the duties of church members during Lent.

These special services will be continued during Lent.

DOES YOUR SCALP ITCH?

Are Your Hairs Dropping One by One?

If your scalp itches you are doubtless suffering from dandruff. The dandruff germ is digging up your scalp in little flakes, called dandruff, and sapping the life of the hair bulb. No hair preparation that is a mere hair stimulant and tonic will cure dandruff, because it won't kill the germ that causes the trouble. Newbro's Herpicide is the latest scientific discovery; and it will kill the dandruff germ. Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect; kill the germ and you will have no more dandruff, falling hair or baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, Special Agents.

Russian Czar Wants Peace In Morocco Matter

Communications Pass Between His Majesty and the Kaiser.

WERE ABOUT ALGECIRAS

Paris Correspondent of the London Times on the Conference—German Trade Has Been Injuriously Affected by Her Moroccan Policy and Easily Accounts for Conciliatory Feeling If It Does Exist.

London, March 1.—The Times' Paris correspondent cables:—I may mention that communications respecting the conference at Algeciras have taken place between Emperor William and the Czar. Without pretending to know the precise nature of the communication, I have reason to believe that they could scarcely fail to have impressed the Kaiser with the Czar's earnest desire to see the strained relations between France and Germany come to an end. It must be borne in mind that so long as they continue Russia, who is in urgent need of money, has no chance of raising it in France. No doubt Russia is anxious to stand by her ally in Algeciras, just as England has stood by her friend, but considerations of a less sentimental nature require not only that Russia should restore order in her own house, but that she should see that other powers do not fall out among themselves.

German Trade Affected.

If by taking account of some slight influence that has been exercised on the German Government by the Czar, and that trade and finance in Germany itself have been heavy losers by the Moroccan policy adopted at Berlin, there will be no difficulty in accounting for the more conciliatory disposition on the part of Germany, if indeed it really exists.

Millions to Japanese.

St. Petersburg, March 1.—According to The Russe the financial embarrassments of Russia are aggravated by the necessity of the payment of millions to Japan for the maintenance of prisoners. The Boerse was again weak yesterday. Fours fell to 79. The new general tariff and conventional tariffs with Germany, France and Austria-Hungary come into effect to-day. British trade will suffer in regard to certain kinds of machinery not specified in the conventional tariff, and therefore not covered by the most-favored-nation clause. Russia also suffers from the increase in the German tariff on cereals, and especially oats.

SWEPT OVER THE DAM.

Two London Mill Workers Attempt to Fix Splashboard and Lose Lives.

London, March 1.—Hugh McDougal and Scott Dexter were drowned below the dam on the north branch of the river at 2.30 p. m. yesterday.

The men were employes of the Dexter Mills. They went out on the dangerous ice above the dam to fix the splash boards. The ice gave way and the men were thrown into the swift water and swept over the dam. The two men struggled for a moment in the icy whirlpool below.

Dexter was the first to disappear. McDougal made a brave fight for it, but went under in a few seconds.

McDougal is survived by his widow and several children. Dexter was unmarried.

Twelve Drowned.

Bilbao, Spain, March 1.—An overloaded ferry boat sank here yesterday. Twelve persons were drowned.

CONFERENCE OF OPERATORS.

Will Meet March 19.—In Meantime, There's Nothing Doing.

Pittsburg, March 1.—The conference of bituminous coal operators of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, called in response to President Roosevelt's letter urging Francis L. Robbins to make another effort to avert the threatened general strike on April 1, was held here yesterday and decided to issue a call for a general conference of the operators of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania, to be held in Indianapolis on Monday, March 19.

A statement issued by the joint committee says that no settlement is possible on any terms until after the meeting has been held and the individual views of all of the operators of the four states have been obtained. It declares that no operator has made any agreement [illegible] a settlement.

Negroes Homes Were Burned After a Riot

State Troops Called Out For Duty At Springfield, Ohio.

RIOTS AFTER A SHOOTING

Mob of 1,000 Persons Form and March to "The Jungle," a Locality Inhabited by Colored Residents, With the Announced Purpose of Burning the Section—Militiamen Protect "The Flickers' Nest" From Mob.

Springfield, O., March 1.—With eight companies of state troops on guard here, as a result of Tuesday night's mob violence, in which six houses were burned in the colored residence district, more incendiary fires were started early last night in various parts of the city. In every instance the houses were occupied by negroes or negroes and whites. One house was stoned, but the occupants are believed to have escaped.

The Flickers' Nest, which is inhabited by negroes, and which figured in the Dixon mob and subsequent race war two years ago, was attacked last night and several attempts made to fire it, but as it is guarded by militiamen the effort has so far failed.

The riots followed a shooting affray Tuesday in which William Davis, a railroad brakeman, was perhaps fatally shot by two negroes, Preston Ladd and Edward Dean. A mob of 1,000 persons formed and marched to "The Jungle," a locality inhabited by colored folk, with the announced purpose of burning that section. On hearing of the occurrence, Mayor Todd asked that two companies of the National Guard be called out.

DISTURBANCES IN FRANCE.

Gendarmes and Troops and People Clash In Church Inventory Tangle.

Le Puy, March 1.—Serious disturbances occurred on Tuesday during the taking of the inventory of a village church near Saugues, Department of Haute-Loire. An enormous crowd, armed with sticks and stones, surrounded the gendarmes, many of whom were beaten or pelted with heavy stones.

The gendarmes, in order to extricate themselves, fired their revolvers, wounding fifteen of the manifestants, two of whom were mortally hurt. The officer commanding the gendarmes and the Government Commissioner were both badly injured by the rioters. The gendarmes retired with difficulty.

At Masamet yesterday, a detachment of troops charged a mob of manifestants outside the Church of St. Sauveur, where the Government officials were taking an inventory under the law providing for the separation of church and state. Col. Berge, in command of the soldiers, was struck by a stone and seriously hurt, and a number of men were wounded.

Croup Absolutely Cured.

"There is no remedy in my opinion that can act more promptly than Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup, absolutely, in one night. We gave him a dose when he was black in the face with choking. It gave him instant relief and cure."—Mr. Wm. McGee, 49 Wright avenue, Toronto, Ont.

DEATH OF MRS. BROWN.

Aged Picton Lady Who Was Shot by Frank Nelson Succumbs.

Picton, March 1.—Mrs. Sarah Brown, the aged lady shot through the lungs on Saturday afternoon last, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock. Frank Nelson, the 17-year-old lad arrested in connection with the affair, will come before Magistrate Curry on Monday.

Cheque For Millions.

Montreal, March 1.—Yesterday morning the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. despatched a cheque for seven million dollars to Hon. J. C. McCorkill, Treasurer of the Province, to pay for the company's road from Quebec to Ottawa. In 1882 the Chapleau Government sold this line to the C. P. R. for $7,000,000 and in lieu of payment the interest was to be five per cent. per annum. Some time since the C. P. R. informed the Quebec Government that they wanted to wipe off the debt, hence the big cheque that went down to the ancient capital.

February's Unique Weather.

Toronto, March 1.—February was a remarkable month in the matter of weather, although the mean temperature was 22.4, or only one-tenth of a degree above the average. This February the lowest temperature was 12.1 below zero, on the 2nd, and the highest was 53.3 on the 24th. The rainfall was only 0.44 of an inch, and the snowfall 3.6 inches. There has only been one February in which there has been less snow than this year. That was in 1851, when the fall was 2.4 inches.

English Syndicate Is In It.

St. John, N. B., March 1.—A cablegram received yesterday from Senator Domville announces that he has been successful in his mission to England, and that a large and powerful syndicate has been floated to undertake the construction of the Canada Central Railroad, formerly known as the Ottawa Valley road. The line will run from Montreal to Ottawa, thence on to the great lakes, and the new road will be operated entirely by electricity.

Canadian Guns To Be Biggest In Existence

Sir Frederick Borden Talks Plainly At Artillery Meeting.

ALLEGED POOR TRAINING

Minister Will Institute Investigation to See That the People of the Dominion Get Value For the Million Dollars Spent Yearly on the Permanent Corps at Kingston—Col. Hendrie of Hamilton is President.

Ottawa, March 1.—The annual meeting of the Dominion Artillery Association was held yesterday forenoon in one of the committee rooms of the House of Commons, Lieut.-Col. King of St. Catharines, president, presiding. The president spoke briefly of the work of the association during the past year.

Lord Grey replied briefly to a vote of thanks.

Sir Frederick Borden, replying to a vote of thanks, said that the artillery was one of the most important arms of the service. The department was endeavoring to secure the very best guns that could be produced. Within the next two years Canada would have a considerable number of the best guns in the world. But the guns were not of much use if the officers were not competent to handle them.

Serious Allegations.

Gen. Lake suggested that a school of gunnery should be established.

Lieut. Gregory said he had just come from Kingston, and therefore could speak of the inadequacy of the appliances for giving artillery instruction. He had been taught the working of the new mark four guns from diagrams of the old mark one guns.

Sir Frederick Borden said this was strong indictment against the permanent artillery, which had been organized as a teaching staff. If the artillery was not doing this, it was time it was known. There was no excuse for this, and it indicated that the officers at Kingston in charge were not taking the proper interest in their work. It showed the people of Canada were not getting the value of their money, and would warrant a permanent force being swept away and replaced by something else.

Minister Will Investigate.

The Minister said he would have an investigation started at once, and if things were found as represented he would see that a change was at once made.

Lieut. Gregory said that the reason the mark four gun was taught from a mark one diagram was because that was the only diagram they had.

Sir Frederick answered that this was no excuse. The Kingston authorities should have had them. The Canadian people were paying a million a year to have a first-class school at Kingston and they ought to have it.

Col. J. S. Hendrie of Hamilton was elected president in succession to Col King. The other officers of last year were all re-elected.

"HAMLET" AND "THE GHOST."

Referred to by Mr. Asquith In Postponing Fiscal Debate.

London, March 1.—In consequence of the illness of both Arthur J. Balfour and Joseph Chamberlain, the latter being confined to his bed by an attack of influenza, Chancellor of the Exchequer Asquith agreed in the House of Commons yesterday to an adjournment of the fiscal debate fixed for to-day.

Mr. Asquith amid shouts of laughter remarked that the debate in their absence would be equivalent to a performance of "Hamlet" in the absence of not only the Prince of Denmark, but also of the ghost. He would not presume to allocate the parts between them.

KING NEVER IN BETTER HEALTH

So Declares Dr. Ott—Contrary Rumor Are Malicious Inventions.

Vienna, March 1.—Dr. Ott, King Edward's Marienbad physician, has taken the occasion of his return from his visit to England to publicly deny the rumor of His Majesty's ill-health.

These, Dr. Ott declares, are malicious inventions, possible traceable to political motives.

He says King Edward was never in better health than at present.

"IT'S ONLY A COLD, A TRIFLING COUGH"

Thousands have said this when they caught cold. Thousands have neglected to cure the cold. Thousands have filled a Consumptives grave through neglect. Never neglect a cough or cold. It can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

is the medicine you need. It strikes at the very foundation of all throat or lung complaints, relieving or curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Sore Throat, and preventing Pneumonia and Consumption.

It has stood the test for many years, and is now more generally used than ever. It contains all the lung healing virtues of the pine tree combined with Wild Cherry Bark and other pectoral remedies. It stimulates the weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation and subdues inflammation, soothes and heals the irritated parts, loosens the phlegm and mucous, and aids nature to easily dislodge the morbid accumulations. Don't be humbugged into accepting an imitation of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and price 25 cts.

Mr. Julian J. LeBlanc, Belle Cote, N.S., writes: "I was troubled with a bad cold and severe cough, which assumed such an attitude as to keep me confined to my house. I tried several remedies advertised but they were of no avail. As a last resort I tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and one bottle cured me completely."

RATED AS SAWN LUMBER.

Decision of Appraisers on Lumber Shipments Entered at Port Huron.

New York, March 1.—The Journal of Commerce says: A decision of importance to the lumber trade was handed down yesterday by General Appraiser McClelland for the board of general appraisers in the case of Cleveland & Sarnia Sawmills Co. The company's protest was against the assessment of duty by the collector at Port Huron, Mich., on an importation invoiced as lumber at 20 per cent. ad valorem under paragraph 198 of the present tariff act for wood manufactured not specially provided for. It was returned by the collector as pine timber 6 by 8, 6 by 10 and 6 by 12 inches in cross-sections 26 to 28 feet in length. The importers claimed that duty should have been assessed at the rate of $1 to $2 per 1,000 feet, board measure, under paragraph 195, or at 1 cent per cubic foot under paragraph 194 of said act. The decision finds that the merchandise is sawn lumber, dutiable at $2 per 1,000 feet, board measure.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed tenders, addressed to the undersigned, marked on the envelope, "Tenders for Construction," will be received at the office of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway at Ottawa, until 12 o'clock noon, on Monday, the 19th day of March, 1906, for the work required for the construction, in accordance with the plans, profiles and specifications of said Commissioners, for the following sections of the Transcontinental Railway, for said work to be completed on or before the first day of September, 1907, viz:—

(1) District "F". — From a point designated on the plans of the said Commissioners at or near the City of Winnipeg, to a point known as Peninsula Crossing, near the junction point of the Fort William branch of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, a distance of about 245 miles.

(2) District "B". — From a point designated on the plans of the said Commissioners, at the north end of the Quebec Bridge and Railway Company's bridge in the vicinity of the City of Quebec, to a point near La Tuque, a distance of about 150 miles.

(3) A steel viaduct about 3,000 feet long across the Cap Rouge Valley, in said District "B", in the vicinity of the City of Quebec, the work to be performed in accordance with the General Specifications of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, and the General Specifications for steel bridges and viaducts of the Department of Railways and Canals of Canada, 1905.

Plans, profiles and specifications may be seen in the office of the Chief Engineer of the Commissioners at Ottawa, also in the office of the District Engineer at Kenora, Ontario, for the section of District "F", and for the section of District "B" in the office of the District Engineer at Quebec.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made in duplicate, and on the printed forms supplied by the Commissioners.

Separate tenders must be submitted for the work in each District.

Tenderers shall not be in any way entitled to rely upon the classification or any other information given by any person on behalf of the Commissioners, and before submitting any tender bidders should make a careful examination of the plans, profiles, drawings and specifications, and read the forms to be executed, and fully inform themselves as to the quantity and quality of materials and character of workmanship required; and are understood to accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions contained in the form of contract, specifications, etc., annexed to the form of tender.

Each tender must be signed and sealed by all the parties to the tender and witnessed, and be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank of the Dominion of Canada, payable to the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, for the sum of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) for District "F", and two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000) for District "B" and thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) for steel viaduct in said District "B". Any person whose tender is accepted shall within ten days after the acceptance thereof furnish the security required by the Commissioners for the due and faithful performance of the contract according to its terms, sign the contract, specifications and other documents required to be signed by said Commissioners, and in case of refusal or failure on the part of the party whose tender is accepted to complete and execute a contract with the said Commissioners and to furnish the approved security within ten days after the acceptance of the tender, the said cheque shall be forfeited to the Commissioners as liquidated damages for such refusal or failure and all contract rights acquired by the acceptance of the tender shall be forfeited. Cheques deposited by parties whose tenders are rejected will be returned within ten days after the signing of the contract.

Attention is called to the following clauses in the form of contract:—

"All mechanics, labourers or other persons who perform labour for the purposes of the construction of the works hereby contracted for shall be paid such wages as are generally accepted as current for competent workmen in the District in which the work is being performed, and, if there is no current rate in such District, then a fair and reasonable rate; and, in the event of a dispute arising as to what is the current or a fair and reasonable rate, it shall be determined by the Commissioners whose decision shall be final."

"This agreement is subject to the regulations now in force or which may at any time hereafter be in force during the construction of the works hereby contracted for, made under the authority of the Department of Labour and which are or shall be applicable to such works."

"The contractor shall in connection with the whole of the said work, as far as practicable, use only material, machinery plant, supplies and rolling stock manufactured or produced in Canada, provided the same can be obtained as cheaply and upon as good terms in Canada as elsewhere, having regard to quality and price."

The contractor shall conform to the Fire Regulations adopted by the Commissioners, and also to the Laws and Regulations respecting fire in the different Provinces wherein the work is being performed.

The right is reserved to reject any or all tenders.

By order,

P. E. RYAN, Secretary.

The Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, Ottawa, February 8, 1906.

Newspapers inserting this advertisement without authority from the Commissioners will not be paid for it.

Peterborough Won The Both Games; Now For The Finals

Defeated Parry Sound Last Night by 9-8—Game Was Fastest Ever Seen in That Town—Checking Close and Seventeen Penalties Handed Out—Half-Time Score 4-2 in Favour of Peterborough.

Special to The Examiner.

Parry Sound, March 1.—In the fastest game of hockey seen yet in Parry Sound, the local septette were defeated by Peterborough in the O.H.A. semi-finals last night by the score of 9 to 8. The game was as close as the score would indicate, and the second half developed brilliant hockey indeed. The half-time score was 4 to 2 in favour of Peterborough, but Parry Sound then woke up and scored 5 to the visitors' 4. The checking was close and referee Waghorne had his hands full. 18 penalties in all being handed out. Merrick and Prebble played the star game for the losers, and for Peterborough Graham played his usual close and careful game.

The line-up was as follows:

Parry Sound — Goal, Patterson; point, Mason; cover, Thomas; rover, Merrick; centre, Panrotte; left wing, Prebble; right wing, Bregg.

Timekeepers—J. Campbell, Parry Sound, and E. Ford, Peterborough.

Penalty timekeeper—S. E. Stork.

Referee—Waghorne.

Charlotte Street And THE SUBURBS OF LAKEFIELD Play For Championship

The City League Final Will be Decided To-night—Both Teams are in Fine Condition—F. C. Waghorne, the Well Known O. H. A. Referee, Will Officiate.

The game to-night will be the final city league match seen here this winter, and by all means the most important and interesting. The team that wins will be rewarded with the Stratton trophy, a beautiful cup, emblematic of the city league championship. The games in the league this winter have been characterized by very fast hockey throughout — hockey that has proved a revelation to many who expected juvenile exhibitions of Canada's favourite winter pastime before the season opened.

The Suburbs and the Charlotte street are two teams that play much the same game, and the closest kind of contest should result. F. C. Waghorne, who refereed the Parry Sound - Peterborough game last night, and who, it is generally conceded, is about the most efficient official, handling the bell in the O. H. A., will referee. The very fact that he will officiate is an assurance that the game will be clean and fast. As he will be unable to reach the city to act between 8 and 9, the hours of the two games have been changed, the city league match being between 9 and 10, preceded by the Examiner - Review contest. The ice is in perfect condition, and both the Suburbs and the Charlotte street are in great shape. The Methodists displayed fine form at their final work out at the rink last night from 7 to 8. It is a toss-up on the showing of both teams in the former matches which will land the silver; neither seems to be over-confident. The crowd that will attend will probably be one of the largest that has witnessed any game this season.

With perfect ice, a referee that can't be beaten, two teams in the pink of condition and determined to do or die, a struggle that merits a packed house will be witnessed.

The city league games have attracted a great deal of attention this winter, and the attendance has been larger than even the most sanguine optimists predicted when the league was organized.

The affairs in connection with the league's management have been conducted without a hitch, and the merited success it has achieved cannot but be gratifying to the energetic officials at its head. There is a comfortable balance on the right side of the ledger, and everything seems to forecast a successful season next year.

The teams that play to-night will line up as follows:

Suburbs.		Charlotte street.
	Goal.
Moore		Lang
	Point.
Hurl		Roddy
	Cover point.
Blomfield		Moore
	Rover.
Quinn		Nicholls
	Centre.
Simpson		Miller
	Left wing.
Morin		Dusty
	Right wing.
Quigley		Grose

Referee, E. Wasson.

Review Versus Examiner Game

Most Spectacular Event of the Season Will be Played.

After weeks of negotiations between the two teams the great Examiner-Review game will be played to-night at the conclusion of the city league contest. Both teams are trained to the minute and the struggle should be a terrific one replete with sensational features and brilliant scenic effects. It will undoubtedly be the best drawing attraction of the season and is causing great excitement throughout the city. The Examiner team are favourites in the betting but the Hunter street aggregation have several horses of a dark complexion on their line-up and may spring a big surprise.

A glance at the array of talent will be sufficient to show that the game is bound to be a spectacular exhibition from start to finish and no one who enjoys good hockey (?) should fail to be on hand to see the greatest game of the season.

Mr. E. M. Best has been agreed upon as referee and has kindly consented to take his chances and officiate. This means that the team will have to play clean hockey.

The all-star cast is as follows —

Examiner		Review
	Goal.
Craig		Wilson
	Point.
Hutchinson		Metheral
	Cover Point.
Reid		Smith
	Rover.
Gilman		Cresswell
	Centre.
Yokome		Hunter
	Right Wing.
Long		McCrae
	Left Wing.
Richea		Thompson

The spectators are asked to observe the following rules:—

Do not laugh too hilariously when the players fall. It hurts their feelings and may give the rink a bad name.

Don't go home in disgust when the Review team strikes the ice. They may be better than they look.

Remember that the referee is but human and may make mistakes. He is sure to do the Best he can.

Don't show your admiration for the Examiner team by hurling bouquets at them. It might seriously impede the progress of the game.

All spectators will be searched at the door to see that there are no bombs or other weapons about their person.

Profane language is strictly prohibited except on the part of the players who are asked to swear under their breath.

Always bear in mind that the Review team is playing their hardest although they may not look the part.

Ladies are requested not to flirt with Uncle Pike McCrae. He is a bashful young bachelor from Glengarry and such actions would be sure to embarass him.

Ladies are not requested to take off their hats although they should not abuse the privilege by leaning over the railings.

A RIGHT WAY and A WRONG WAY

Many people have many ways to bring about the same result. Most of them are mistaken ways, but this is not known until the test of time points plainly to the error. Practically there are but two ways to accomplish anything; a right way and a wrong way. Take, for instance, a man with a bad back, there are lots of them, and of various kinds, some with stiches and twitches, others with cricks and twinges; then there's the dull, heavy continuous kind that lasts all day and doesn't sleep at night. They're all bad enough, they're all hard enough to get rid of. Some people rub the back with liniment, others cover it with plasters, either or both means often bring relief, but the pain comes back—it's the wrong way to cure the trouble.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

have a way to cure backache, a way that's all their own—the right way. They're made for the kidneys only. When the kidneys fail in their work of filtering the blood the back aches because they are situated in the small of the back; backache is the kidney's warning of trouble, and every day you let the warning go it brings you nearer to urinary disorders, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, etc.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure every form of kidney ills and that's why they bring such quick relief from backache. Mr. Fred Gray, Good Corner, N.B., writes: "I was greatly troubled with pain across my back. I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, and received so much benefit from them that I consider them the best remedy for kidney trouble there is. I would not be without them in my house."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

The Alerts Won Championship

Defeated Arrows Last Night in Close Game of Basket Ball.

For the second time this season victory has perchased on the banners of the Alert basketball team in their games with the Arrows. Together with winning their game by the score of 26 to 22 last night they emerged Intermediate champions of basketball in Peterborough, with the reputation of defeating the Arrows twice and tieing them in the other game.

A large number assembled in the balcony of the Y.M.C.A. last night to witness the game and cheer the winners to victory. The Arrow's nevertheless are a well-balanced team and at half time they looked like victors leading by the score of 13 to 11. However, in the latter half the Alerts were on the alert and succeeded in blocking effectively shots which appeared to be sure baskets. The Arrows also made numerous fouls which told heavily against them.

For the winners, Fitzgerald, on the back line, checked his man admirably and kept down the score. All the men on the forward line were in excellent condition and did effective shooting. Cressman, of the Arrows was most prominent, making five baskets during the game. John Lang made a very successful referee and good ball was played.

The following was the line-up of the teams:—

Arrows.		Alerts.
	Backs.
Dobson		Green
Loomis		Fitzgerald
	Centre.
Richardson		Downing Forwards.
Cressman		Yelland
Darling		Emmerson

Referee—John Lang.

TURF.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 27.—Another chapter was added to the sensational turf scandal in which Bookmaker William Rabb and Owner U. S. Wishard, father of Jockey Wishard, were ruled off for conspiracy to fix a race at City Park several weeks ago, when Rabb to-day filed suit for $25,000 damages against the City Park Jockey Club, Presiding Judge Francis Treselyan, Associate Judge Joseph A. Murphy, Directors Ed. Corrigan, D. H. Barnes, Louis La Gardel, S. F. Heasilp and five local newspapers which printed accounts of the ruling.

The stewards assert that evidence was submitted to them that Rabb agreed with Wishard to lay against certain horses to be ridden to lose by young Wishard. The judges were inclined to excuse Jockey Wishard on the ground of undue influence brought to bear by his father. Rabb asserted his innocence and threatened to sue, but the stewards ruled him off all the same.

Jockey Wishard was suspended until he could be put in charge of some reputable owner who would stand sponsor for the boy's good behaviour.

Fastest Game In Team's History Was Last Night's Contest

The Peterborough Team Won a Hard Game From Parry Sound by Score of 9-8—Forward Line Worked Well—Half-Time Was 4-2—Great excitement in the Town Last Night.

(Special Staff Correspondence)

Orillia, March 1. — (With the Peterborough Hockey Team.)—Parry Sound has never seen such a hockey game as that played last night, when the second Intermediate Semi-Final Game with Peterborough was played. The crowd was the largest in the history of hockey in that town, the rink being packed with one thousand wildly cheering spectators. The greatest excitement prevailed, and although the result of the game was most unpopular with the crowd they accepted it with the best grace possible, and the admission was freely made that the better team won.

The game was played in the middle of the night. In the first place the train carrying the team was an hour late, and did not arrive in Parry Sound until 10 o'clock. The teams were ont he ice at 10.15, but there was some difficulty with the goal nets, and the puck was not faced off until 10.45, and the game was not concluded until 12.45.

The game was pretty strenuous, as was to be expected in a semi-final contest, and was marked by close checking, but little roughness. The referee kept the players well in hand and was quite satisfactory in his rulings. Nine men on each side were penalized. The half-time score was 4—2 in favour of Peterborough.

A summary of the goals scored is as follows:—

First Half.
1—Peterborough, Morgan.
2—Peterborough, Cavanah.
3—Parry Sound, Thomas.
4—Peterborough, Graham.
5—Parry Sound, Prebbles.
6—Peterborough, Morgan.

Second Half.
7—Parry Sound, Mason.
8—Peterborough, Whitcroft.
9—Parry Sound, Prebbles.
10—Peterborough, Whitcroft.
11—Peterborough, Whitcroft.
12—Peterborough, Whitcroft.
13—Parry Sound, Thomas.
14—Parry Sound, Mason.
15—Peterborough, Moore.
16—Parry Sound, Prebbles.
17—Parry Sound, Parrott.

The last three goals for Parry Sound were scored when the Peterborough team was playing six men to seven.

The forward line worked exceptionally well last night, every man being in splendid form.

The team feels somewhat disappointed that the final games have been ordered so quickly. After travelling two whole days on the train, and playing a hard game, they will not be in good condition to play again to-morrow night.

Port Hope Team Now The Junior Champions

Defeated Woodstock Last Night in Finals by Score of 7-1—Game Was Played in Mutual Street Rink, Toronto

Toronto, March 1.—Port Hope and Woodstock came together last night at the Mutual street rink in the final game for the Junior O. H. A. championship, and Port Hope won by a score of 7 to 1. At half-time the score stood 4 to 1 in favour of the eastern youngsters. Both aggregations showed their nervousness at the start. In fact, Woodstock never quite got over their stage fright, and, although outclassed by Port Hope, as the game was played, hardly showed their true form. The eastern juniors outskated, outchecked and outshot the westerners. So far as combination went it was practically at cas-up, with the new junior champions having a bit the best of it.

Goderich Here To-morrow Night

Sailors and Locals Meet Here in First Game in Finals.

The first game in the intermediate O.H.A. finals will be played here to-morrow night, when the fast Goderich seven, who defeated the fast intermediate Berlin septette by four goals on the round, meet the locals. Goderich has a team that plays hockey all the time, and although it was thought at the first the locals would have little difficulty in landing the intermediate silver, the hard proposition they encountered in the Parry Sound team proved conclusively that there are other teams in the O.H.A. that play fighting hockey. The Sailors are a well balanced, husky bunch, and may prove the biggest proposition that the boys have run up against this season. That an overwhelming crowd will witness the contest goes without saying. Peterborough will be represented by the same line-up that played against Parry Sound, and seem pretty nearly booked for a victory, although it is yet simply a matter of conjecture as to which team will win. The Goderich crowd it is rumoured, will come here with a lot of long green and swis back their favourites to a finish. They will have no difficulty in getting their money covered. The home seven will be considerably handicapped on account of their long trip to Parry Sound and their hard game with the Northerners, but despite this drawback, hope to win.

FOOTBALL

The meeting which will be held to-morrow night at the Y.M.C.A. to organize an association football team will commence at 7.15 sharp.

LACROSSE

The Hastings Star says:—"There are some prospects of a lacrosse team being organized in Hastings this year and if so the same will be placed in the junior series of the C.L.A. A meeting will likely be held in the course of a few weeks."

The Otonabee Council Met

The Otonabee Council met on the 19th Feb., all the members being ing present.

The following communications were received:—

From the Ontario Municipal Association, requesting the council to petition the Legislature asking for relief of municipalities from liability for non-repair of highways. On motion the reeve and clerk were authorized to sign and forward petition.

From B. H. McMullen, clerk of Tarentorous township, asking the council to endorse and sign a petition to the Dominion Government asking for a greater tariff protection for farmers and market gardeners. The reeve and clerk were authorized to sign and forward petition.

From Daniel O'Connell, on behalf of Mr. McNamara, demanding payment for excavating Beaver Mead ditch. The clerk was instructed to say in reply that the township can make no further payments in the matter until they receive a proper certificate from the engineer, or until he procures from the parties interested a consent to pass the drain without such certificate.

The auditor's report for 1905 was received. On motion it was adopted and the accounts finally audited, and 200 copies ordered to be printed for distribution.

H. P. Kennedy applied for grant for wire fence. On motion it was left in Mr. Stewart's hands.

James Henderson applied for a grant for a flag pole to be erected on the town hall and agricultural grounds.—Granted.

Bell Company Is Purely Canadian

Its General Manager Before Manitoba Committee.

In the examination of Mr. L. B. McFarlane before the Special Telephone Committee of the Manitoba Legislature, now in session at Winnipeg, many facts were elicited which should go a long way towards correcting misconceptions which prevail with regard to the Bell Telephone Company of Canada.

As Mr. McFarlane, who is general manager of the company, pointed out, the concern is purely Canadian. Of its 1123 shareholders only 104 reside outside the Dominion of Canada. The capital stock of the company on the 31st of December, 1905, amounted to $8,004,240.00.

"In this connection," said Mr. McFarlane, "may I refer to the statement of Francis Dagger, a witness examined by this Committee. From the statement of Mr. Dagger it would appear that the Bell Telephone Company of Canada pays to the American Company interest, not only upon the stock held by the latter company, but interest upon one-third of its present capitalization.

"In order to avoid any possible misconstruction I may state that the only returns which the American Telephone and Telegraph Company receives from the Bell Telephone Company consists in the dividends declared upon the stock held by it. Mr. Dagger also stated that there was an agreement which had never been cancelled under which the Bell Company was to allot one-third of its stock for all future issues to the American Company. Mr. Dagger must have either been misquoted or misinformed. No such agreement exists. When new stock is issued by the Bell Telephone Company, the American Company has simply the same right as any other shareholder to take if they so desire their proportion of the new stock at the price at which it is offered to all shareholders alike.

"The interest of the American Company is purely that of a minority shareholder, which in no way directs or controls the policy of the Canadian Company. As a matter of fact the Canadian Company derives very great advantage from its connection with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, as it is supplied by the latter company with all the benefits of its experimental and engineering departments without charge, and also has the right to have any patents taken out or acquired by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in the United States, patented in Canada for its own use."

On subject of patents, Mr. McFarlane said further:—

"The Bell Telephone Company of Canada pays no royalties to any other company. Its telephonic apparatus and instruments are manufactured in Canada and are not subject in any way to license or royalty conditions.

"It may be inferred from the evidence given that this company held basic patents which gave it a virtual monopoly of telephone business in Canada up to 1897, which the American company held until that date in the United States. On the contrary, the Canadian field was open to competitors as early as 1885 when the transmitter and telephone patents were voided. Competition immediately arose, and competitors have been in the field practically ever since; and in justification of the reasonable rates charged by this company it is to be noted that none of these competitors have made any substantial growth.

"The demand for farmers' telephones," concluded Mr. McFarlane, "has sprung up only within the last two or three years, previous to which the company spent a great deal of money and time endeavouring to educate farmers in the use of the telephone, but without material results. The company has done and is doing everything physically and financially possible to meet the recent demands, not only by offering to lease telephones to farmers, the company supplying the line and apparatus, but also by inducing them where possible, to build their own lines and make connection with the company's system. Not only has the company endeavoured to develop along these lines, but it has encouraged others to do so also, giving them connection with our system, the company realizing that such small lines furnish feeders to its larger system."

It is impossible, Mr. McFarlane pointed out, to separate the cost of management of long distance and local systems, the two services being so closely connected and interwoven. For example, for every long distance message transmitted over telephone wires there is used first the subscriber's local equipment, the wires and conduits, cables and poles reaching to the exchange office, the local switchboard and toll board to the limits of the city—all parts of the local exchange equipment. The message then goes on to what is commonly known as long distance wires, using those wires and poles until it reaches the city limits of the receiving exchange. From this point the message again makes use of the local exchange equipment, the wires and cables, poles, conduits and switchboards and the subscribers' instruments, all of which are classified as local equipment. In addition to the use of the investment in this local equipment the services of the exchange operators, as well as the long distance operators must be employed. The close inter-connection and interdependence of the local and long distance equipment and the service, prevents a separation as to cost of management, and no telephone company has undertaken to make the separation.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"SIGN OF THE CROSS"

Lovers of the drama who attended the superb production of the "Sign of the Cross," at the Grand last night were not disappointed. The "Sign of the Cross" is an historical and religious drama in four acts, dealing with the persecution of the Christians in Rome at the time of the cruel and licentious Emperor Nero. The spectacular qualities of the drama produced a most brilliant effect and together with the rich and beautiful costumes lent a forceful tinge to the weight of the production. In dealing with the life in Rome at the time of the persecution under Nero's commands, the author lays a skillful plot in which Marcus Superbus, prefect of Rome becomes fascinated with a poor but lovely Christian maiden, Mercia, whom he chanced to meet on the public highway. This is the prominent feature around which the intensely interesting and pathetic story is constructed. Mercia being a Christian, is captured by order of Caesar and thrown into prison. Marcus, on peril of his life, seeks to protect her from torture and death by attempting her conversion to the faith in the gods, but by her unselfishness and love for her suffering friends, he, at last, is won to the Christian faith by the woman whose beauty alone had first attracted him and death from the wrath of Nero is met together.

Mr. Frank Smith, as Marcus Superbus played the leading role and with his commanding presence and his powerful and mellow voice, demonstrated his efficiency as a first-class dramatist. Miss Caroline Eckert played a graceful role as "Mercia" particularly in the sympathetic portions. "Glaucio," a patrician, was played excellently by Mr. Henry E. Hamboro, and as an intoxicated lumpenproletaire is probably unrivalled. Miss Katherine Neefe appeared in two bright and attractive songs which won merited admiration from the audience.

Altogether "The Sign of the Cross" is a greatly staged drama, played by a well-balanced company and will doubtless leave some forcible impressions on many who were fortunate enough to hear it.

• • • •

Mr. J. W. Cone, business manager for the "Sign of the Cross, Company," commenced his career in the theatrical business as a boy selling peanuts. His steady rise shows what energy and integrity can accomplish.

Were Acquitted On Charge Of Trespassing

Young Man Allowed to go on Suspended Sentence on Charge of Abusing Horse.

Robert Baker and Alex. Ross, who were charged with trespassing on the property of Mrs. Louisa Howell, 64 McDonel street, and who were arrested by P. C. McGinty early Tuesday morning, pleaded not guilty to the charge and were discharged at the police court yesterday. Mrs. Howell did not put in an appearance to give evidence. Baker, in giving evidence, said that he and Ross had encountered Mrs. Howell on Water street. They escorted her to 64 McDonel street, for which she had a key, although she had lost the key when they encountered her. Baker found the key. Baker and Ross went upstairs and went to bed, both being under the influence of liquor. Mrs. Howell, Baker said, had never ordered them from the place. While Baker was giving evidence Ross continually gave supplementary evidence from his seat in the prisoner's box, till the magistrate advised him to discontinue. "Easy, Bob," said Ross, as Baker went into the box. The magistrate remarked that Ross was rather drunk, and asked if he would like to be locked up until he sobered up. Ross demurred on this point, however, and both prisoners were told they were discharged.

"We would have been to work this morning Your Worship," said Baker, "if it hadn't been for this case."

A young man was charged with cruelty to a horse and his case occupied considerable time. He pleaded not guilty and was allowed to go on suspended sentence. The charge was preferred against him by the Peterborough Humane Society. Mr. R. F. McWilliams appeared for the defence, and Mr. F. D. Kerr, for the prosecution. The evidence for the prosecution went to show that the horse was in an emaciated and totally exhausted condition and not fit for use. It fell down in front of the Munro House yard yesterday morning between 10 and 11, and it took several men with the assistance of a blanket to raise the animal to its feet. In defence the accused said that the horse was well fed, and this weak condition was owing to the fact that it had been practically starved for months before he purchased it. As the animal was only taken out on an emergency trip the magistrate allowed the accused to go on suspended sentence.

Hockey Club Ball and Other Interesting Keene News.

Special to the Examiner

Keene, Feb. 27th. — Mr. Thomas Nixon of Iowa, is the guest of Dr. W. T. Harrison.

Mrs. Dr. McWilliams, who has been visiting her parents in Toronto, returned home on Wednesday.

The annual hockey club ball was held on Friday evening, Feb. 23. In spite of the bad roads the attendance was large, about 75 couples being present, and a very pleasant evening was spent. Messrs. Miller and McFarlane supplied the music, and Mr. D. Kennedy acted as floor manager.

The skaters' ball will be held in the town hall on March 17th. Tickets will be issued to all those holding rink tickets.

It is the intention of the management of the skating rink to hold a masquerade ball in the town hall on Friday evening March 2nd. Prizes will be given for the best costumes present.

Mr. Frank Birdsall is in Toronto, attending the Faire Association.

Miss Nellie McGregor is in Toronto, visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. McEwan.

Mr. William Miller, and John Lang, Esq., M.P., attended the Laurier banquet in Toronto on Wednesday.

On account of the bad weather, and the soft ice the hockey match Norwood Midgets vs. the Keene Juniors, which was to have been played on Friday evening, Feb. 23, was called of.

Mr. Robert McCamus was in Roseneath on business last Wednesday.

Miss Mabel Harrison, who has been visiting friends in Toronto, has returned home.

Mr. Harris, of Alnwick, had the misfortune to have his team break through the ice on Rice Lake, near Curtis' Point, one day last week, and it was with great difficulty that a rescue was effected.

Owing to the mild weather last week, the carnival which was to be held in the skating rink had to be postponed until Monday, Feb. 26.

The skating rink was only open two nights last week, Monday and Thursday.

Has The Local Team Been Treated Fairly?

A General Belief That the O. H. A. Has Not Given the Peterborough Hockey Team a Square Deal—The Team Accepts it and Says Nothing, But an Injustice Seems to Have Been Done.

To-night the last O.H.A. game of the season in Peterborough will be played. The teams contesting this game will be Peterborough and Goderich, and the team that wins the round will hold the title of Intermediate O.H.A. champions for 1905-06.

As to the outcome of the game, nothing can be said. That the members of the team are not in a condition to do themselves justice, no one who gives any thought to the situation can deny.

In the first place this will be the third game the local team will have played this week, and none of them have been easy ones. Added to this they have been travelling two whole days, and went without sleep for 36 hours. To expect that under these circumstances the team would be able to put up as good a game as they would under more favourable conditions, is hardly reasonable from the standpoint of the citizens alone, who are naturally anxious that the team should make a creditable showing, not to speak of the attitude of the team themselves.

The Examiner is not writing at the request or at the solicitation of the management of the team, but solely because the belief is held that an injustice has been done.

To ask the team, after travelling 500 hundred miles, and playing a game under the hardest possible conditions, to jump into another hard game less than twenty-four hours after their return will appeal to any fair-minded person as most unfair.

The team in the past has never made any protest against any of the O.H.A. rulings—they have accepted everything and said nothing—and it may just be possible that this fact may have been responsible for the present situation. If they had done a little more protesting in the past perhaps they would not have been dealt with in the present high-handed manner.

Perhaps the team would have been consulted with before the game was ordered, and the rink engaged, which as a matter of fact, was done even before the team left for Parry Sound and the team was not advised of the decision until yesterday. As soon as they knew of the order they communicated with Secretary Hewett of the O.H.A., and asked to have it changed. They were willing to play a sudden death game in Toronto on Saturday or Monday, but held that it was unfair to ask them to play on such short notice, particularly in view of the circumstances.

The Peterborough team is an aggregation of which this city, or any city might be proud. They have played the game consistently, have taken what was given them, and said nothing about it, and now that they have an opportunity under ordinary circumstances, of winning out, they should be given what courtesy, and the desire to play fair demands, a fighting chance.

An Invitation To Rev. Manning

Charlotte Street Church Asks Him to Accept Pastorate.

At a meeting of the Quarterly Board of the Charlotte street Methodist church held last evening, a unanimous invitation was given to Rev. H. M. Manning, of Wesley church, Clinton, to become their pastor at the next conference.

Rev. Mr. Manning has been stationed in this conference before, and is spoken of very highly. He has been in the London Conference now for some years and has occupied some of the best pulpits there.

It will be some days yet before a reply can be received from Mr. Manning, and his acceptance will, of course, be governed by the action of the stationing committee of the conference.

Peterboro' Corps Wins Third Prize

For Selling Copies of the Christmas War Cry.

The Peterborough Corps of the Salvation Army has been awarded third prize for selling the Christmas number of the War Cry. The number sold by the local officers and soldiers was 1,350, which is considered as a most creditable showing. The prizes were awarded to the corps selling the largest number of Christmas numbers, taking into consideration the number of Crys sold weekly, the population, etc., so that every corps had the same opportunity to win a prize.

The the local corps, in competition with those from all parts of the Dominion, has won the third prize of $15, is an honour which is appreciated. The number of Christmas War Crys sold in Peterborough last Christmas was very much larger than that of any previous year.

Mr. Howard Satisfied With Six Acres For Site

Stove Foundry Promoter Will Agree to This With Ten Years Fixed Assessment—Satisfied to Have Matter Submitted to the Ratepayers—Works Would Employ, When Running at Full Capacity, 300 Hands—All Would Earn Good Wages.

Mr. Howard, the promoter of the stove works, is prepared to establish the works in Peterborough, according to his statement, and is prepared to run his chances of having the proposition voted on by the ratepayers. He does not, however, want to conflict in any way, with any other proposal. A reporter of the Examiner interviewed Mr. Howard regarding the stove and heater works which he proposes to establish. He said that he is not asking for more than five or six acres of land, and a fixed assessment for ten years for his works. He is willing to locate in Peterborough, if he can get the site as agreed with the council, and would have no objection to the decision of the council being ratified by a vote of the ratepayers of the city of Peterborough, if put before them on its merits, as he believes that the ratepayers would vote for an industry of this kind, which will when running at full capacity turn out about one hundred stoves per day, besides a large quantity of boilers and radiators, for which there is almost an unlimited demand. The works would employ about 300 hands, the majority of them being skilled workmen earning good wages. But he objects to having his proposition put before the ratepayers to vote on coupled with any other industry, and would rather than have it treated in that way withdraw his proposal to locate in Peterborough, as he wants to get his works established ready to supply the fall trade.

At the meeting of the council on Monday night the bylaw providing for submitting the proposition of Mr. Howard as well as that of Messrs. Brintin, Limited, to the electors, will be introduced, and the probabilities are that it will be passed at that meeting.

The matter will probably be voted on by the electors in the course of a few weeks.

Mr. Howard is very confident of the future of the stove industry in Canada and he believes that if it were established here it would flourish.

There is a strong probability, too, that this industry would be followed by other iron industries, and with the success of the electric smelting process assured, there is good reason to believe that Peterborough will shortly become the centre of a prosperous iron industry region.

Satisfactory Reports Given

At the Annual Meeting of Charlotte Street Church.

The annual congregational meeting of the Charlotte street Methodist church was held last night and was very largely attended. It was in fact, the largest in the history of the church, and the most successful. The reports, summaries of which have already been published, were presented, that of the Trustee Board by Mr. R. Neill; the Quarterly Board by Dr. M. A. Morrison; the Sunday School by Mr. R. J. Kidd; Ladies' Aid by Mrs. A. B. Cunningham; the Women's Missionary Society by Mrs. J. K. Moore, and Mrs. Kilgour; the "Olive" Mission Band by Miss L. Bushnell, and the Epworth League and Young Men's Guild by Mr. A. L. Tremeer.

Solos were delivered by Mr. Jos. Legge and Mr. Van der Water, and Rev. Mr. Jolliffee spoke briefly of the spiritual condition of the church, which was very satisfactory.

Refreshments were served by the ladies of the congregation, and a delightful social evening was spent.

OBITUARY.

RICHARD McCONKEY.

One of the oldest residents of Smith township in the person of Richard McConkey, died at his home at Selwyn last week. Though he was 83 years of age he has been in comparatively good health up to within two days of his death. His sudden demise came as a shock to a large number of relatives and friends. Mr. McConkey was a native of Smith township and had lived at Selwyn for over 60 years. He was one of the pioneer residents and was well posted on the early settlement of the county. Besides his wife deceased is survived by eleven children, seven daughters and four sons. The daughters are Mrs. G. Nichols, Bobcaygeon; Mrs. T. Nichols, Harvey; Mrs. Portsmith, Peterborough; Mrs. N. Galbraith, Peterborough; Mrs. T. Bell, Selwyn; Mrs. J. McIlmoyle, Peterborough; and Mrs. A. R. Nichols, Peterborough. The sons are Messrs. A. R. McConkey, Rochester, N.Y.; Herbert and Silas, of Peterborough; and J. C. McConkey of Smithson. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, at 2.30, from his late residence to the Lakefield cemetery.

SARAH MORRISON.

Bensfort lost one of her oldest residents in the death of Sarah Morrison, relict of the late Walter Riddell, who passed away yesterday morning after a long illness, with anaemia. The deceased was a daughter of the late Wm. Morrison, and resided in Bensfort nearly all her life. She was 63 years of age and was widely known and respected. One daughter, Miss Bertha Riddell, survives.

The funeral will take place on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock from her late residence, Bensfort, and proceed to the Little Lake Cemetery for interment.

Fellow Workers Show Honour To Gilbert Scott

Pattern Makers of C. G. E. Present Him With Carving Set.

Last night the employees of the pattern shop of the C. G. E. Works waited on Mr. Gilbert Scott at his home, and presented him with a handsome carving set, prior to his departure for the Northwest, where he will reside in future.

Mr. Scott was very popular with his associates and proof of this fact is furnished by the large number of them who joined the deputation which waited on him last night. On behalf of the members of the staff the presentation was made accompanied by the following address:

J. G. Scott, Esq.—

Dear Sir,—We, your shopmates hearing of your intended departure, to take up your home in the golden West, cannot let you go without showing some of our appreciation of the many happy hours we spent together and the kind feelings that always existed between you and us.

We, hearing of your intention of quitting the carving of wood, would ask you to accept this small case of tools, for the carving of beef, or some prairie fowl that may be so unfortunate as to stray your way.

Wishing you and your intended partner a pleasant trip and future happiness. Signed—

J. Y. Gerard, P. McFadden, P. Gilbert, G. Galley, J. Hanna, Wm. Hill, D. Carlyle, Geo. Scott, S. Lang, C. Barrie, C. Stewart, H. Latimer, J. Houston, J. O'Brien, J. Panter, A. Seward.

Mr. Scott, acknowledged the gift in suitable terms, expressing his deep appreciation of the honour shown him, and assuring them that his associations with the members of the staff had been most pleasant. He would always entertain only the most kindly feelings for the men with he had been connected in his work, and the memory of the time spent with them would always remain very pleasant to him.

Attempt To Burn A Smith Residence

A Dastardly Deed Performed—Mr. Webster Blewett's Residence Had Narrow Escape From Destruction—Burning Paper Thrust into the House Through Window Which Had Been Broken.

The Lakefield News says:—

On Friday night a dastardly attempt was made to burn the dwelling of Mr. Webster Blewett, who resides in Smith a few miles from Lakefield. Mr. and Mrs. Blewett were in Lakefield that evening attending a social gathering and on their return home in the early morning found startling evidences that an attempt had been made to burn their home. The storm and inside windows on the east side of the house had been smashed and a paper rolled tightly together and saturated with coal oil had been lighted and then thrust inside the window. The curtains and blinds were completely burned off. A sofa which sat in front of the window had one end badly burned while four cushions were completely destroyed. The carpet and floor around the windows were also considerably damaged by fire. A window on the west side of the house was also smashed. The fire was still smouldering when discovered, and Mr. and Mrs. Blewett's arrival home was in the nick of time. When daylight arrived an examination was made of the premises when footprints were discovered in the snow leading from the road to the house, and were traced to each window that had been smashed. When they reached the road further trace was lost.

Mr. Blewett entertains a strong suspicion as to the perpetrators of the deed, and every effort will be made to bring them to justice.

Has Taken a Thousand

Zutoo

Always Cured Headache. Never Affected her Heart.

Here is a testimonial from the wife of Doctor W. L. Shurtleff, K.C., of Coaticook, Que., who has taken a thousand Zutoo Tablets (the Japanese Vegetable Headache remedy.)

It should convince any doubting one, that while the tablets cure headache, they do not, like the drug cures, affect the heart, nerves or stomach. No one would or could take such a number if they were not perfectly harmless. Mrs. Shurtleff herself had to discard the drug cures.

Here is what she says:

I have always been a great sufferer from headache, and have taken a great many headache cures. I found that after taking them for a time they caused palpitation of the heart. Three years ago I began using Zutoo. I have likely taken over a thousand tablets. I have never yet felt the least ill-effect from using them and they cure my headaches as quickly as any remedy I ever took.

They are Harmless as Soda.

Are Permanent Corps Serving Their Purpose

Are They Useful Schools of Military Instruction?

MINISTER WILL FIND OUT

Col. Pinault, Deputy Minister of Militia, and Gen. Lake to Be Members of the Commission of Investigation, Which Will Be of the Most Thorough Character — Wisdom of Sir Frederick Borden's Course.

Ottawa, March 2.—Sir Frederick Borden has made up his mind to appoint a commission of inquiry to ascertain the extent to which the permanent corps answer the purpose of schools of military instruction, and whether they are really as efficient as intended. The Minister of Militia so announced last night.

He said that Colonel Pinault, Deputy Minister of Militia, will be a member of the commission and General Lake another. The Minister intends to select a third member from among the officers of the rural militia. He will look for some officer who has manifested special zeal and aptitude.

There is no question that Sir Frederick's course is wise. If the permanent corps are incapable of performing the instructional duties demanded of them or are neglecting their work the fact should be demonstrated and the necessary remedies applied.

Sir Frederick has the strength of will to adopt remedial measures, no matter how much cauterizing is involved.

MR. LEMIEUX DECORATED.

French Government Bestows Cross of Knight of Legion of Honor.

Ottawa, March 2.—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Solicitor-General, who was with the late Hon. Mr. Prefontaine in the latter's ill-fated visit to England and France, yesterday received from the French Government the decoration of the Knight of the Legion of Honor.

The Legion of Honor was instituted by Napoleon when First Consul of France, in May, 1802, and was intended as a reward for military and civil services. The constitution was remodeled by Napoleon III. in 1832. The president of the republic is the Grand Master of the Order.

BRITAIN TENDERS BARGAIN.

Imperial Authorities Offer to Turn Over Halifax Property.

Ottawa, March 2.—The Imperial Government has offered to transfer the property of the admiralty at Halifax, including the dock, to the Canadian Government on the condition that £2,000 be paid yearly for five years.

This amount is part of an obligation which the Imperial Government took in hand to pay to a private company. It was to be paid for a certain number of years and there is five years of the time to run.

Besides the dock there is valuable property, including residences for the officers.

Dangerous Naval Growth.

London, March 2.—In introducing the navy estimates in the House of Commons yesterday Financial Secretary of the Admiralty Robertson commented on the fact that since The Hague peace conference the naval expenditure of the great powers had increased 50 per cent., reaching the enormous total of $50,000,000. He regarded this influx of expenditure as a menace to the peace of the world, and thought that a league of peace was desirable.

More Money For Roosevelt.

Washington, March 2.—Senator Gallinger has introduced a bill to readjust the salaries of the general officers of the Government, to take effect March 4, 1909. The bills proposes the following salaries: The President, $75,000; Vice-President, $15,000; Speaker of the House of Representatives, $12,000; members of the Cabinet, $15,000; Senators and Representatives, $7,500.

Praying Him Out of Office.

Windsor, March 2.—The Flying Roll colony here, with those of the same sect in Detroit, are praying for the removal from office of Magistrate Bartlet, because he will not, so they allege, give them justice. The magistrate laughs at the matter. He has turned the letter he received from Prince Michael of the Israelites over to Chief of Police Wills.

Keep Veterans Within Call.

London, March 2.—(C. A. P.)—Mr. Preston yesterday had an interview at the War Office, where he explained what it was necessary to do to fit discharged soldiers for agricultural life in Canada. Sir Edward Ward said they were anxious to provide work for discharged soldiers by sending them to the colonies, and so keep them in the empire.

Pleads Guilty to Forgery.

Montreal, March 2.—Henri Bonneville, alias Quenneville, a clerk, 19 years of age, appeared before Judge Lafontaine yesterday and pleaded guilty to charges of theft and forgery. He attempted to pass a cheque to which he had forged the name of his employer.

Not Guilty of Corruption.

Toronto, March 2.—E. J. Lennox, before the civic inquiry yesterday, said that he was not guilty of corruption in any shape or form, in connection with the erection of the City Hall.

"No alderman has ever approached me for money," he said.

"My intention was to put every alderman in the box and make them speak for themselves. I am not going to stand for these slurs the press are trying to throw on me."

He denied that any account against him had been "written off." He characterized Michael Turnbull as a monumental liar and stated that Purdy, Rogers and Dinnis were in the same class.

TUMORS CONQUERED

SERIOUS OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so sly that frequently its presence is not suspected until it is far advanced.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by profuse monthly periods, accompanied by unusual pain, from the abdomen through the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice if you will write her about yourself. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen months ago my periods stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly that I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician and was told that I had a tumor and would have to undergo an operation.

"Soon after I read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After trying five bottles as directed the tumor is entirely gone. I have been examined by a physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my period around once more, and I am entirely well."—Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chesnut Street Bradford, Pa.

30 WENT DOWN TO DEATH.

Only Three of the Crew of Norwegian Steamer Tor Saved.

Haugesund, Norway, March 2.—Thirty men were drowned Wednesday night by the wreck between Haugesund and Bergen, of the Norwegian coasting steamer Tor. The vessel's cable broke during a hurricane and she was blown ashore and sank. Only three of her crew were saved.

Gasoline Stove Explodes.

Windsor, March 2.—The tailoring shop of William Francis was gutted by fire yesterday afternoon. The fire was started by the explosion of a gasoline stove upon which Mrs. Francis was cooking dinner. Mrs. Francis ran screaming into the street, her dress a mass of flames. Two men passing by rolled her in a blanket, and smothered the fire, but not until the woman had been severely burned. She will recover.

Butcher Badly Injured.

Hamilton, March 2.—Jas. Black, Elfrida, a wholesale butcher, was very badly injured last evening. About a mile back of Cotter's Hotel his horses ran away, throwing him out. He was picked up unconscious and taken to St. Joseph's Hospital. At a late hour last night he had not shown any signs of consciousness.

Man Found Half-Frozen.

Ottawa, March 2.—Harry Nevins, a railroader, returning to the city from Gatineau Point Wednesday night, sat down at Rockliffe to await a car. He was found early yesterday morning unconscious and nearly frozen to death, having sat for hours in a temperature 7 below zero.

Powder Keg Explodes.

Ayton, March 2.—A serious explosion occurred last evening when the large general store of Aaron Wenger was almost completely destroyed by the accidental explosion of a keg of powder from which Alex. Wender, a clerk, was weighing some out. Wender is seriously hurt.

Murderer Shoots Himself.

Griswold, Man., March 2.—Woley Bear, the murderer of the Indian, Wambidiska, has been caught at his mother's place, near Pipestone. He has shot himself, but it is not known yet if it is fatal.

To Work Full Time Saturdays.

Shamokin, Pa., March 2.—At the collieries controlled by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., notices were posted yesterday announcing that hereafter until further order all collieries would be worked full time on Saturdays. Heretofore the mines closed at noon Saturday. Many of the workmen threaten to go on strike if the order is enforced.

Greenhouses Burned.

Ingersoll, March 2.—Fire broke out about 11 o'clock Wednesday night in H. Neal's greenhouses, a short distance from the corporation lane and completely destroyed six greenhouses along with the stock. Loss, $4,000; insurance, $1,200.

BANWELL SAYS NOT GUILTY.

Bail For Mrs. Banwell—Case Remanded Till Monday Next.

Toronto, March 2.—"Not guilty" was the plea entered on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Banwell by Mr. DuVernet when the young couple appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning. Mr. Curry asked a remand until Monday. Mrs. Banwell was released on $7,500 bail in three sureties of $2,500 each, furnished by A. F. McMichael, Mrs. Mary Harris and Mrs. Banwell herself.

The charge as read in court declares that the two prisoners "wrongfully converted to their own use a total sum of $40,350.33, being the property of the Crown Bank of Canada and capable of being stolen and with the intent to deprive the said Crown Bank of Canada absolutely of their property and interest therein, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided."

Will Fight Conviction.

"I suppose you just pleaded not guilty to cover your election and a trial by jury?" Mr. DuVernet was asked. "You have no serious intention of combatting the charge?"

"Haven't we?" was the reply. "Well, just you wait and see. Some lawyers might tell you just what we should do or what we intend doing, but at present I am not going to say exactly what our defence will be or how we will plead when we get before the other court."

Prisoners In Good Spirits.

The Banwells arrived at the Don station a little after 7 o'clock yesterday morning, and were driven to police headquarters, where they awaited the opening of the court. On the way from the station Mrs. Banwell was informed that she, too, was under arrest. Both seemed in good spirits.

At Halifax, Banwell made a declaration to the customs officials that the diamonds they had were bought in Toronto at a cost of about $3,500.

THE JAPANESE FAMINE.

"Families Once Proud and Comfortable Now Reduced to Want."

Seattle, Wn., March 2.—The steamship Dakota bring advices from Nagasaki that the famine situation in the northern provinces of Japan is steadily growing graver.

A second appeal has been issued by W. E. Lampe, Chairman of the Foreign Committee of Relief, in which he says: "When we issued our first appeal to the foreign communities in Japan in December, we estimated that 680,000 persons out of a population of 2,821,000 persons were on the verge of starvation.

"Since then members of our committee have personally visited 26 counties and as many towns in the Provinces of Miyagi and Fukuushima and have distributed 9,000 yen. Our first figures estimating those effected by the famine are too weak to describe the actual suffering.

"Able-bodied men, ragged and hungry, are facing the snow and icy winds to bring wood from the mountains in the hope of earning enough through its sale to keep their starving families. Women are covering babies with their own clothing to keep them warm and such conditions as these can only mean death in the end.

"Families once proud and comfortable, are now reduced to want."

FATALLY CUT HIMSELF.

Youth Dies as Result of Accident While Killing a Calf.

Port Hope, March 2.—Guy Grant, about 16 years old, accidentally cut himself in the right thigh Wednesday afternoon while killing a calf for a farmer near Port Britain. The sharp blade entered the net-work of the arteries above the knee.

Dr. G. A. Dickinson, assisted by other local surgeons, performed successfully the operation of binding the arteries, but the young man died about 5 o'clock yesterday morning from a clot of blood entering the heart.

Death of F. W. Fearman.

Hamilton, March 2.—F. W. Fearman, head of the Fearman Pork Packing Co., and one of Hamilton's leading citizens, died yesterday morning, after a long illness. He was 80 years of age, and had lived here over half a century.

Fractures His Skull.

Centralia, March 2.—Richard Sandow a farmer of Centralia, met with perhaps fatal accident yesterday. While drawing hay his load upset, and in falling Sandow struck on his head, fracturing the skull.

$50.00 PROFIT

ONLY $25.00 INVESTED

Do you want to make $50 profit by investing only $25 in a lot in beautiful Summit Park, Port Arthur, the great lake port town of N. W. Ontario.

Port Arthur is the County Seat of all Thunder Bay District, and is the lake terminal town of the three great transcontinental railroads, which empty their immense quantities of Western freight on ships bound for the East and Europe.

Port Arthur is the only real municipal ownership town in America, and made last year over $28,000 net profit out of its Street Railway, Electric Light and Power, and Telephone Franchises.

Port Arthur has the largest grain elevator in the world.

Port Arthur doubled its population in the last 2 years and we believe it will double again in the next 3 years.

Port Arthur is the gateway between the East and the extensive West, and can have no competitor.

Summit Park is a high, level plateau, furnishing a beautiful view of Thunder Bay, and lots purchased in this park at present prices will bring big profits before many months.

Engineer's Report On Grover Lot At Norwood

Mr. Belcher Estimates the Cost of the Dam on the Property at $2,500—The Lots That Were Considered.

The following lots were considered by the County Council in connection with the selection of the site for the House of Refuge.

Prices or options presented to the County Council re sites for House of Refuge:—

T. Braden, Lakefield, 45 acres, $5,-000.00.

Strickland, Lakefield, 75 acres, $7,-500.00.

Preston, Lakefield, 100 acres, $5,-500.00.

Grover, Norwood, 100 acres, $5,-500.00.

Robb, Norwood, 35 acres, $3,500.00.

Referring to the water power in connection with the Grover property, Norwood, the following was submitted to the council:—

To the Warden of the County of Peterborough:—

Sir,—In accordance with instructions of the 20th inst., I made measurements and levels of the creek which passes through lot No. 16 in the 9th concession of Asphodel for the purpose of report on its possible utilization for the required water and light supply to the proposed House of Refuge, which it was thought might be erected on the lot referred to; each of the following data are but approximations, but sufficiently accurate for the object of the report but not for the actual development of the water power or machinery for which more closely made measurements will be taken with the necessary survey and contours.

I found, in making flying levels of the creek from the old mill site to the bridge on the boundary road, there is a fall of close on 9 feet; this by forming a pond of about some 5 or 6 acres in area by means of the dam will give supply for a 17 inch diameter Sampson Turbine wheel under a 9 foot head. This gives say about 15 horse power,—sufficient to run an electric generator capable of giving 150 incandescent 16 candle power lamps; also run a pump for the water supply of the buildings and a wood saw. The dam and penstock would be formed of concrete with abutments, central pier, and stop-logs built of a simple but substantial construction, and provided with the necessary sluice, penstock, shafting, gearing, and pulleys, with the wiring, switches and pole line for the electric power, with pump complete, this I estimate will cost about $2,500.00. The sewerage will be an important matter for your consideration, if allowed to have septic tank, and discharge effluent on the land by means of drain tiling and gravity it can be easily accomplished but at some cost; this I have not considered; not knowing the approximate location of the proposed building, I could not estimate. The site is admirably situate for the intended purpose.

All of which is most respectfully submitted.

JOHN E. BELCHER, C.S., C.E.,
County Engineer.

The above report of the Engineer refers to the Grover property near Norwood.

Poor Pat Crowe Wants To Reform

Famous Robber's Record Keeps Him in the Ranks of the Truly Bad.

Omaha, Mar. 2.—"Pat" Crowe, acquitted the other day when tried for kidnapping Edward Cudahy, jr., five years ago, wants to reform, and can't because his record is against him, and the authorities are determined to get him for something sometime and make him a permanent or long time lodger in prison.

"Pat" Crowe became famous, nationally, December 18, 1900, when "Eddie" Cudahy was abducted and $25,000 reward was demanded of his millionaire father for his safe return. It was paid. Crowe was charged with the kidnapping, but wasn't taught. While the chase was on Crowe taunted the officers officially. Once he hinted that young Cudahy himself connected the kidnapping plot on the "go halves" plan.

October 2, 1905, "Pat" Crowe was caught in Butte, Mont., and taken to Omaha, where he declared "Eddie" got $6,000 of the $25,000 extorted from his father. "Eddie" denied the imputation once, twice, and a number of times. The respectable newspapers and all other respectability scouted the idea, called Crowe a liar, and demanded an incarceration so long and so secure that he would never have another chance for such devilish pranks or such outrageous fabrications.

When Crowe was acquitted there was a row in Omaha. Business men were indignant, it was said. They declared the verdict was as it was because of the prejudice against the beef trust. They and the jurymen had a cordage against Cudahy.

Crowe is a professional robber. In Denver he looted a pawnshop of $18,000 in diamonds. Four times he has robbed trains in Missouri. Once he robbed an actress of 20,000 dollars in real jewels.

Now he owns to qualms of conscience and religious impulses. He says he wants to turn over several new leaves, reform, and be a truly good citizen. But the authorities won't believe him. They keep eyes on him watching his every blink. For "Pat" Crowe is slippery.

A TWO-FOR-ONE-SHOT.

When you use Ozone use "Celery King" with it. Whatever kind of Ozone you buy you will need to use "Celery King" which is a companion remedy to Ozone.

The purest form of Ozone is "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind.)" Each bottle contains about twice as much for your money as other brands, besides which each bottle contains a coupon entitling you to a package of 'Celery King' free. This is a great advantage as you save money on the Ozone and also get the "Celery King" which you would otherwise have to buy.

No other brand of Ozone contains these coupons. 'Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)' is fifty cents and one dollar at your drug store including the coupon for the package of "Celery King." Take no other kind and if your druggist does not carry it write to the Public Drug Co., Bridgeburg, Ont. Sold by W. B. WARNE. 11

We do not need your prescription to replace a broken lens. Bring the pieces. We analyze them and exactly duplicate. Or we can make up your present prescription in any of our popular style of mounts. Either our STA-ZON or FINCH would please you. They are secure, neat and comfortable.

Omemee Wants Canadian Pacific

Sends a Deputation to Toronto to See Officials.

A deputation from the town of Omemee, composed of Reeve Healy and Councillor Dr. Rogers, waited upon the C. P. R. officials yesterday to try and induce that company to locate a station at their town. The proposed new line will run about three miles from the town, and the people are very anxious to have the trains stop. The company, although not stating positively that the request would be conceded, gave the deputation a cheering answer.

MASQUERADE BALL A GREAT SUCCESS

Special to The Examiner.

Lakefield, February 25th.—Mrs. and Senator Kennedy, of Butte, Montana, was the guest of Mrs. Kennedy's sister, Mrs. Wm. Leahy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Spencer, of Dummer, guests of Mrs. Wm. Rowe.

Mr. Walter R. Strickland, of Toronto, the guest of E. R. Tate.

Miss Florence Madill has returned to her home from Peterborough.

Mrs. Walter Madill and Master Lorne spent a couple of days in Peterborough.

Mrs. Warren spent a couple days in Peterborough last week.

Mrs. A. K. Blackadar, of Ottawa, was in the village the guest of Mrs. Wm. Graham last week.

Miss Josephine Strickland spent a few days in Peterborough last week.

Mrs. Hubble, of Havelock, who has been the guest of Mrs. Short has returned home.

A public meeting of the citizens was held in the town hall on Monday evening to discuss the advisability of the municipal ownership of the electric light plant. After considerable discussion on the subject, it was moved by E. A. Tanner, seconded by R. C. Strickland that the matter of buying the electric light plant be laid over for two or three months in order that more information be obtained on the subject.

W. M. Graham moved an amendment, seconded by J. H. Davis, that our council go ahead and buy the electric light plant and that the fifth clause in agreement be eliminated. The amendment was carried.

At the close of a public meeting called to discuss the electric light proposition on Monday evening in the town hall all those present who were interested in hunting and fishing were asked to remain.

Mr. R. C. Strickland explained the purpose for which the meeting was called and Dr. J. R. Fraser was voted to the chair with Mr. C. S. Tanner as secretary pro tem.

Moved by Mr. R. C. Strickland, seconded by Mr. A. J. Kidd, that this association be formed and called The Ontario Game and Fish Protective Association.

The following officers were elected:—

President—Dr. J. R. Fraser.

1st Vice-President—Mr. R. C. Strickland.

2nd Vice-President—Mr. F. J. Lillycrap.

3rd Vice-President—Mr. A. J. Kidd.

Secretary-Treasurer—Mr. C. S. Tanner.

Executive Committee—Messrs. W. J. Battle, E. R. Tate, Gilbert Gordon, W. Shetin, F. A. Kilbourne.

There was a good number of persons interested in sport present and a very enthusiastic meeting held. The meeting adjourned to meet within a month and discuss matters further.

Rose Scott, of Lindsay, spent a few days the guest of Miss Quinlan.

Mrs. and Miss Elsdell have returned to the village after a very pleasant visit in Toronto.

Dr. Gibson spent a couple days in Apsley this week.

Mr. Chas. Comble, of Toronto, is the guest of Mrs. E. K. Tate.

A masquerade ball was held at Harbourne, on Monday evening, when a most enjoyable evening was spent, those present from a distance were Mr. Chas. Comble, of Toronto, and Messrs. H. Clixton and Hampton Buckham, Peterborough.

Demonstration For Norwood

Arrangements are on foot for holding a grand celebration in Norwood on May 24th. The band together with a number of citizens, have taken the matter up, and committees are organizing to prepare an attractive programme of games and sports. The committee will get to work at once, and with ample time at its disposal, there should be nothing lacking to make the day a great success.—Register.

The new minister from Peru at Washington, Senor Barreda, speaks English and several other languages fluently, is a lover of horses and interested in outdoor sports.

Campbellford To Be A Town

Wants Incorporation as a Town and Other Things.

Toronto, March 2. — Campbellford has reached the point when it feels that it can ask to have its status raised from that of a village to a town. It long ago had enough people to secure incorporation, but a money matter stood in the way. An Act passed many years ago relieved villages of the duty of maintaining bridges over 100 feet in length, and placed the care of them on the county.

There is a long bridge over the Trent at Campbellford, which the village thus got out of maintaining, and it does not feel like doing so even now. Had it become a town without some agreement with the county it would have had to assume a large annual expenditure. That agreement it has never been able to reach.

Now a special bill is to be introduced by Mr. Preston, Durham, elevating the village to the dignity of a town but providing that the care of the bridge shall fall in the hands of the county.

School Board's Demand Is Met

At the meeting of the Finance Committee of the City Council held last night, the demand of the Board of Education for $31,500 to meet the expenses of the year, was considered, and it was decided to recommend to the council that the demand be met.

The amount of money asked by the Board this year is somewhat larger than that of 1905.

The only other business transacted by the Committee last night, was to pass the accounts and recommend their payment to the Council on Monday night.

Shot Black Fox Near Havelock

Mr. Frank Spinks of Havelock, was fortunate on Tuesday in shooting a black fox some two miles north of the village. He has been offered one hundred dollars for the skin, but considers that it is worth more than that amount. It is reported that other specimens of this rare species of the fox family have been seen about three miles east of Havelock.

The largest horse in the United States is Royal Prince, who was raised in Crawford County, Pa. He is a dapple gray, stands nearly 7 feet high at the shoulder, weighs 2,800 pounds when fat, wears a No. 30 collar and a No. 9 shoe, and is very finely proportioned.

WOMAN'S NEED

AT THE CRITICAL PERIODS OF HER LIFE AND HOW IT IS BEST SUPPLIED BY

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

We are sometimes asked why Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is so successful in curing the ailments peculiar to women, and this is the explanation:

The feminine organism is a regular network of nerves, and consequently requires an enormous quantity of rich, nourishing blood.

At the critical times such as the dawn of womanhood, the child-bearing and nursing age, and the change of life, nerve force is consumed at a tremendous rate.

The blood is drawn away from other parts of the body, and the result is neuralgic pains and aches, failure of the digestive system, and a run-down condition of the body generally.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food supplies exactly what is most needed at these times—the very elements from which rich blood and vital nerve force are made.

Women who suffer from weakness and irregularities from painful periods and distressing headaches, from tired, worn-out feelings, and the disorders of the digestion, will be surprised at the benefits obtained from the use of the great food cure of Dr. Chase.

Mrs. Chas. Keeling, Sr., Owen Sound, Ont., writes:—"It is a pleasure to tell what great benefits I have derived from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I am fifty five years of age, and for about five years my life was one of great suffering from nervousness, weakness, and extreme physical exhaustion. I could not sleep, and hot flashes would pass through my body from feet to head. I consulted our family physician and two other doctors, but they told me about my time of life I was likely to be troubled that way. I continually grew worse, and despaired of ever being cured. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food came to my notice, and as we have Dr. Chase's Receipt Book, I had confidence in the doctor. I was so surprised at the help I received from the first box that I brought three more. They built me right up, and made me feel healthy and strong again. They have proven a great blessing to me, and I hope this testimonial will be of help to some weak, nervous woman suffering as I did."

It is well worth your while to put and, while the blood and nerves are being revitalized and the form rounded out, note your increase in weight, so that you may have positive proof of the blood-forming value of this great medicine. 50 cts. a box, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, on every box.

Clarke's a Reliable Fur Store

WE ARE BUSY SELLING FURS, ALTHOUGH THE WEATHER HAS BEEN FIGHTING US HARD

There are just as many people buying Fur now as there were early in the season. The reason is easily explained. Our Fur Stock is twice as large as it should be—the season is against us—we need money to buy our summer stock with. Our Fur Stock Must be Sacrificed to Get This Money. To sacrifice your stock means to put prices on the goods that will make them move out, and make people come and buy. The public are wise, they know Furs are cheap, and by buying now can save lots of money.

MODERATION

Toronto clergymen are memorializing the Ontario Government not to legalize horse racing at county fairs. The Ontario Association of Fall Fairs and Exhibitions has already asked the Government to permit them. "Evidently," say the Hamilton Times, "the farmers want the 'hoss trot,' which is a harmless amusement in itself, apart from any betting it may cause. And it is not on record that the farmers are given to 'plunging.' The farmers' life is dull enough, and a little amusement now and then should not be denied them. Now if it was the Woodbine the ministers were after, we could understand it." The Times strikes a chord that will find sympathetic response in many a breast. We must be moral but we need not be puritanic. We must have relaxation. The bow perpetually bent will lose its spring. As the Times points out, the farmers' life, while not, perhaps, being "dull," is rather full of monotony, especially to those living at a distance from urban centres. To many of the latter the county or township show is the one great holiday of the year, and the speeding tests, the great events of the great day. The object of agricultural exhibitions is to develop the rivalry that will result in the best quality of farm products. The horse is the noblest product of the farm, and the man whose heart does not warm towards a horse is "fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils." Apart from his more prosaic qualities the horse is valued for his speed. No man, according to the accepted idea, loves a speedy horse better than a parson. The object of speed contests at fairs is to test the relative speed qualities of horses with a view of awarding prizes to the most successful breeder and trainer, on the same principle that the grower of the most successful turnips is rewarded. If the speeding events are fairly and squarely conducted it is difficult to see the evil of them unless, according to Mr. President Hughes Charles' theory, one has an evil mind—prone to detect subjective evil. "Of course there is the betting evil to be reckoned with. Horse races are not the only things that men lay wagers upon. There is nothing to prevent a man addicted to laying wagers from betting upon the length of a sermon, any more than the outcome of a speed test at a fall fair. This does not go to excuse betting, but to show that evil men are never at loss for opportunities to indulge their propensities. To exclaim the intrinsically innocent past-time of speeding contests, because some men may use them as a vehicle for evil practices, seems to be taking an extreme position. An old Roman literary character said that "in medio tutissimus ibis"—the middle way is the safest. The moderate view to take of the question of speeding at fall fairs is the advisable one—neither reduce the fall fair to the level of a "best milch cow" and "best sugar beet" symposium nor degrade the speeding events to the crooked level of Toronto City Hall contractors. By way of application—the Toronto ministerrs might postpone their purification of the fall fair speed ring till they have succeeded in disinfecting the rottenness at the city hall, Toronto, remaining from its construction methods.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Speaking in reference to the satisfactory condition of the Provincial finances, the Toronto News says: "It cannot be denied that on the whole the finances of the Province have been wisely handled. The sources of revenue were established by former treasurers, and it is altogether likely that Col. Matheson and his colleagues would not be disposed at present to criticize too severely the legislation which made the budget statement of to-day so favourable."

Rev. W. J. Jolliffe Is Invited To Clinton

Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, a few days ago received an invitation from the Quarterly Board of Wesley Methochurch, Clinton, to become the pastor of that church after the next conference.

Clinton is in the London Conferference and there are two large Methodist churches in that town, Wesley church being practically a new structure.

Rev. H. M. Manning, who will be invited to the Charlotte street church, is at present the pastor of this church.

Rev. W. J. Jolliffee will in June complete his fourth year as pastor of the Charlotte street church, the longest period allowed by the General conference.

During these four years the church has made greater progress than ever before in its history, the reports presented last night at the annual meeting showing that the last year has been by far the most successful.

Rev. Mr. Jolliffe has not yet replied to the invitation but he is considering it and will probably reach a decision in a few days.

Naughty Flim-Flammers Do The Flim-Flam Again

Yesterday afternoon Acting Chief Adams received the following telegram:

Kaladar, Ont., March 1.
Chief of Police,
Peterborough, Ont.

Meet No. 3 train to Toronto, prepared to arrest three supposed crooks, one on train and two now in Peterborough, one under name of Studebaker. If possible shadow them. Will likely try to leave there on some train. Say nothing. I will be on No. 3.

M. STAFFORD.

As will be seen from the above message, the police were instructed to be on hand to arrest a crook and his two pals who were expected to join him on the train for Toronto, and by whom Stafford's friend had been flim-flammed in Toronto by three crooks on the old check game that has fooled others many times before. The game is worked in this manner: A man presents a check to another, always, of course, a stranger, and shows him a bill of invoice or something equivalent that he has for some goods. He says that he needs the money, and, as the banks are closed, cannot get it, and in security gives his victim a check that is often twice the value of the amount of the invoice and represents twice as much money as the amount borrowed. When the bunco man gets the money he clears out. His victim attempts to cash the check the next day, but the bank on which it is drawn always says it is worthless. Then, of course, the prosecution begins, but by the time the police are informed the wily flim-flammer is generally many miles away. It is this game or one similar that Stafford's friend was victimized on. Acting Chief Adams, P. C.'s Stewart, McGinty and Miller went down to the C.P.R. train yesterday afternoon to arrest the man Studebaker, and while Stafford was on the train the crook had apparently jumped some place along the line, for Stafford was unable to find him anywhere, and, as can be seen from the telegram, the police had no description of the alleged crook. The other two were not at the station to meet their friend, at least Stafford didn't identify them. The whole thing amounted to a wild goose chase, and the flim-flammers got away with the money.

Choir Boys Were Entertained

By Ladies of St. John's Last Night.

The choir boys of St. John's were very pleasantly entertained by the ladies of the church last evening. A delightful tea was served in the school house, some sixteen of the choir boys sitting down. Ample justice was done to the repast and the boys are grateful to the ladies for their kind hospitality.

Mr. Dewey, the new choir leader, was present and made an appropriate speech.

CHANGES IN COMPANY

(Montreal Witness,
Feb. 27, 1906.)

The announcement is made that Mr. C. M. Johnson, who at one time was managing director of the Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, 200 Mountain street, Montreal, Que., but who was succeeded some time ago by Mr. Thomas Brady, is not now connected with this company in any way, and that Mr. A. E. Richardson, who was a former stockholder in the above-named company, and also in the Wells & Richardson Company, of Burlington, Vermont, is not now connected in any form or capacity with either company, both of the above gentlemen having disposed of their holdings of stock. The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, of Montreal, are the sole proprietors, among other articles, of the well-known Diamond Dyes, Improved Butter Colouring, Laotated Food, and Paine's Celery Compound, and at the present time, under the very able management of Mr. Brady, are doing the largest business in the history of the Canadian Company.

Preservation Of The Day Of Rest

A Petition Will be Presented to the Dominion Parliament.

Mr. R. Harrison is circulating a petition which will be presented to the Dominion Parliament and the Senate, asking that the sanctity of the Sunday be preserved. This petition is being circulated throughout the whole Dominion, and a very large number of signatures are being secured.

Considerably over a hundred names have been signed to that circulated by Mr. Harrison. The petition is as follows:

To the Honourable the House of Commons of the Dominion of Canada in Parliament assembled:

"The petition of the undersigned electors humble sheweth that in view of the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada, and of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, on the question of Sunday legislation, and in view of the paramount importance of securing to everyone the rights and privileges of the national day of rest, we respectfully pray that such legislation be enacted at the ensuing session of Parliament as will adequately protect everyone in the enjoyment of the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, and prevent the doing on that day of labour, business or work, except the work of necessity and mercy.

Special Meetings In Gospel Hall

Ma. John Gilchrist Will Conduct a Series.

At a meeting held last night in the Gospel Hall it was decided to have Mr. John Gilchrist, the evangelist, remain in the city for a week and conduct a series of evangelistic meetings, commencing with a street meeting to-morrow night on the corner of George and Brock streets. Prior to the preaching on Saturday night, Mr. G. W. Mulligan will sing from the balcony of the hall a number of gospel hymns, after which Mr. Gilchrist will speak. As a rule, when we see a man on the street preaching, we at once conclude he must be crazy, but look at the great Wesley and Calvin, and, in our day, Mr. Moody, Mr. Marshal and many others of giant intellects, men who have started an empire—we often find them on the street. This style of meeting was very common during the great revival in Wales.—Com.

North Harvey Again Contributes

The Officers of the Children's Aid Society once more acknowledge gratefully, a remittance from North Harvey, which has been forwarded by Mrs. Nathan E. Crowe. The amount is $8.00 and is the proceeds of an entertainment given for this good object. The people of North Harvey have frequently shown their interest in the work of child saving, and in this respect they show an example to the other districts of our county. Mrs. Nathan E. Crowe has been a good friend to the Society, and it is hoped that other ladies will follow her example, and try to stir up interest in this work.

Women's Auxiliary Annual Meeting

A Most Successful Year's Work Concluded.

The annual meeting of St. Luke's Woman's Auxiliary was held yesterday afternoon and a large number of members were present. The Sunnyside branch was also represented. The President, Mrs. Boswell, was in the chair, and opened the meeting with devotional exercises. Reports were presented from the various officers which were most interesting, and proved the W. A. to have done much progressive work during the year. The treasurer, Mrs. T. Gaskins, reported to have spent about $155 for purely missionary objects. A bale valued at $72 was sent to the mission field. Mrs. A. O. Sawyer reported on behalf of the juniors of having spent about $56 for missionary work. The convenor of the P. M. C. will be able to send about $100 this year to the missionary work.

Regrets were expressed at the inability of Mrs. J. J. Turner, jr., of being present on account of the sickness of her little girl. It was also decided that the W. A. attend Holy Communion in a body on Sunday morning next.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

Hon. President, Mrs. E. A. Peck, acclamation.
President, Mrs. Walter Boswell.
First Vice-President, Mrs. E. A. Langfeldt.
Second Vice-President, Mrs. J. Phillips.
Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. John Butcher.
Recording Secretary, Mrs. Henry Butcher.
Dorcas Secretary, Mrs. F. J. Jameson.
Treasurer, Mrs. T. Gaskins.
Convenor of P.M.C., Mrs. L. Turner.
President of Girls' Auxiliary, Mrs. J. Launderville.
Superintendent of Juniors, Mrs. A. O. Sawyer.
Organist, Mrs. Graham.
Delegates to the annual meeting Mrs. John Heap, Mrs. Wm. Gibbs. Substitutes, Mrs. L. Turner, Mrs. S. Gaskins.
Representatives at Board of Management appointed by the rector—Mrs. T. H. G. Deane, Miss Strickland.

After the routine business refreshments were served.

A WOMAN'S GRATIDUDE

A Mountain Woman Writes in Praise of Newbro's Herpicide.

"For several years I have been troubled with dandruff, causing me much annoyance, and my hair became very thin. I have used Newbro's Herpicide for a month and the dandruff has entirely disappeared and my hair is becoming much heavier than formerly. New hair is growing where there was none, and I am very thankful to you for the benefit I have received from Newbro's Herpicide. Very truly yours,

A Sioux City Alderman Here

Mr. J. S. Lynch Visiting Friends in the City.

Mr. J. S. Lynch, of Sioux City, Iowa, is the guest of his sister-in-law, Mrs. John Lynch, 860 George street. He is inspector of Public Works, of that city, also alderman of the city. It is 19 years since Mr. Lynch visited Peterborough last and has noticed a wonderful change. He says the city is growing rapidly and thinks it a very prosperous place. Mr. Lynch will visit his old home before returning, and will also call at this brother's place in Grey County on his return home.

GOOD TOOLS are a necessity. Poor Tools never pay in the long run, and that's the reason we are selling Atkins' Saws, Plumbs, Hammers, Irwin's Augur Bits, Warnock's Chisels, Stanley Planes

CORRESPONDENCE ON CURRENT TOPICS.

THE COMMISSIONERS DEMAND.

The Editor of The Daily Examiner.

Sir.—The statement published in the last evening's papers of the City Trust Commissioners' demand on the Council for sinking fund and interest required for the current year, was confusing and inaccurate. I submit a correct summary as follows:

Required for public school purposes—
Interest	$ 3,100 00
Sinking fund	459 13
	$3,559 13
Required for general city purposes—
Interest	$ 9,171 00
Sinking fund	4,164 28
	$13,334 28
Less estimated receipts	$3,716 65
	$9,617 63
Required for local improvements — General—
Interest	$2,028 99
Sinking fund	1,676 82
	$3,705 81
Required for local improvements — Frontage—
Interest	$3,972 11
Sinking fund	3,013 23
	$6,985 34
Required for waterworks—
Interest	$11,105 00
Sinking fund	6,090 36
	$17,195 36
Total demand of Commissioners	$41,063 27
Gross debt of the city is	$735,465 73
From which deduct local improvement,
Frontage Debt	$107,113 27
Also waterworks	292,000 00
Also sinking funds in Commissioners' hands	124,768 62
	$523,881 89
Net debt—	$211,583 84

This does not include the Market block, the Hilliard farm, and other properties in charge of the Commissioners.

I would also refer to the statement that appeared in a local paper last night, and copied from it to a morning paper, that the Commissioners would shortly announce a further discount equal to five per cent. on the water rates. As a Commissioner I would say that the matter of a further discount to water consumers has never been considered by the Commissioners, and that I do not believe there is the least probability of action being taken in that direction in the near future.

Yours,
W. H. MOORE.

Mr. Gilbert Scott Banquetted By St. Andrews's Guild

Long's Parlours Scene of Delightful Time Last Night—Departing Member Honoured —Was Prominent in Musical Circles—Toasts and Songs Order of the Evening—Mr. W. S. Campbell Was the Toast Master.

LEAVES ON MONDAY FOR DIDSBURY

Previous to his departure for the West on Monday next, Mr. J. Gilbert Scott was the guest of honour at a banquet last night in Long's Palm Parlours, given by the members of St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild. Mr. Scott has been a distinguished member of the Guild for almost four years and was always aggressive in all work in connection with the Guild and particularly in the musical portion.

The event was celebrated by a dainty spread provided by the genial host, toasts, impromptu speeches and comic songs and altogether a most delightful evening was spent.

After the refreshments were partaken of, a lengthy line of toasts were proposed and were appropriately responded to.

Mr. W. S. Campbell, treasurer of the Guild, presnted the toasts in his usual affable manner. The toast to the King was heartily drunk, after which "Our Guest" was proposed by Mr. P. A. Kerr, who, in his eulogizing remarks in reference to Mr. Scott, referred to his long acquaintance with the Guild and expressed his sorrow for his early departure. He sincerely hoped that Mr. Scott would have the same success in the future as he had met with in the past, and that his life in the Golden West would be a happy one.

Mr. Scott in reply thanked the members of the Guild for the great honour they had given him in tendering such a delightful banquet. He always had spent an enjoyable time while in Peterborough due, in a great deal, to the friendliness of the Guild, and anything he had done in return he considered it a pleasure.

A comic song "The Train That Goes To-morrow" the next number of the programme, was excellently rendered ed by Mr. C. H. Campbell, and was heartily applauded.

"Western Canada," the future home of the guest, was proposed by the Rev. J. G. Potter, and responded to by Mr. H. H. Edmison. "The Ladies' were appropriately honoured by Messrs. E. R. Shirley and F. E. Kerr.

Mr. Campbell again favoured the company with another of his humourous songs which elicited the customery applause. Mr. Scott also was heard with much pleasure in two farewell songs which completed a most delightful evening.

Mr. Scott leaves next Monday for Didsbury, Alberta, a few miles north of Calgary where he intends to follow the ranching business.

Together with his Guild friends the Examiner wishes him all success in his new sphere of life and hope that his new home will be a happy one.

Straight Salary Will Be Paid The Ontario Officials

Perquisites of Ontario Officials Are to Be Cut Off.

FOLLOW OLD GOVERNMENT

Principle Adopted by the Late Administration—Mr. Harcourt Would Be Glad If an Admittedly Evil System Was Wiped Out With Gain to the Province — Mr. Graham Favors a Straight Salary.

Toronto, March 2.—The salaries of officials in the public institutions and the perquisites they receive were discussed in the Legislature yesterday on a motion of Mr. Dunlop, asking for a return showing these amounts.

Speaking to the motion, Hon. W. J. Hanna said he was glad to avail himself of the opportunity of making an explanation so that when the estimates were brought down the members would understand why the increases were made. In some of the institutions there were officials who appeared to be earning a salary of $500 or even less, and with a view to finding out what perquisites they were receiving, the department sent instructions to the superintendents to supply the information. He was not sure that the return would not appear to be unfair to some individuals. In one case the salary was put down as $450, but this employe had six or seven adult members of the family not in the institution who were living out of the supplies. This man had free coal, light and house, the perquisities amounting to $600 or $700. In attempting to cut out the perquisites, the department had found some difficulty in respect to the superintendents, but from the superintendents down the perquisites were cut off, and a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof made to the officer. While these items would appear in the estimates as increases, in reality they were not so. In the case of the nurses there was a real advance.

Province Would Gain.

Mr. Harcourt said that the former Government had given considerable attention to this question, and had reached the conclusion that the province would be the gainer by the retention of this perquisite system. The very capable men at the heads of the institutions had, however, made it clear that the abolition of the perquisite system would result in financial loss to the province. His hon. friend if he looked through the mass of correspondence in the department of which Mr. Harcourt was once in charge, would find that in each and every case the superintendents approved of the system. He would be glad, however, if the result of the present plan was a financial saving, if the admitted evil of the perquisite system could be obviated. Few cases would be found, he thought, such as the one referred to in which adult members of a family not engaged in an institution, but whose head was, lived on its supplies. This had been strictly prohibited under instructions sent out by the former Government. There had also been strict injunctions against what he might term the "visiting evil." Officials or their wives might invite relatives to spend a week or longer periods with them, and it was sought to place limits on even the times of such visits, so that there might not be cases in which visitors lived on the supplies of institutions. He would be glad if the perquisite system should be narrowed down to the smallest point, not only at the asylums, but at Osgoode Hall, in the Parliament buildings and elsewhere.

The Premier—The trouble is no limit is possible.

Hon. Mr. Hanna said that, without an exception that he could recall, the abolition of the perquisite system had the endorsement of the superintendents.

Mr. Harcourt thought it clear to every medical and lay man in the House that $2,000 of salary for superintendents of one of these institutions was from every point of view inadequate.

Hon. Mr. Hanna—I have no thought of such salaries.

Mr. Harcourt—Quite so, and they must be supplemented in other ways. For that reason perquisites were given. Such officials, he urged, should be well paid; the difference in the loss of perquisites must be made up.

Mr. Graham Approves.

Mr. Graham thought that the question of perquisites became a source of difficulty by causing jealousy between officials. The idea that one got more than another was a basis of friction. He was strongly of the opinion that it would be better to have salaries straight, without any perquisites whatever. The difference in salaries in institutions in different towns was equalized by allowing perquisites. Some assistants lived in the institution buildings and others did not, while getting no compensating perquisites. While he would not say that superintendents should not be supreme, and while he agreed that they should be well paid, he made a strong plea for the better payment of bursars. The business management of the institutions devolved upon those men. Officials capable of successfully managing the public institutions of Ontario, many of them containing populations as large as good-sized villages and doing as much business, should receive fitting compensation.

Hon. Mr. Ross asked if the return would be printed, and Hon. Mr. Hanna replied in the affirmative.

Answering a question by Hon. Mr. Ross, Hon. Mr. Matheson said he hoped the estimates would be brought down on Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Answers to Questions.

Mr. May of Ottawa asked for a return showing the changes in the Normal school staff of the province. Hon. Dr. Pyne replied that Miss Agnes McKenzie of the London Normal School resigned, and Miss Jean Laidlaw was appointed. Miss B. Livingston of the Normal School, Ottawa, resigned, and Miss Helen Holland was appointed, but owning to ill-health she feared she could not fill the position, and Miss Alicia Robertson was appointed. At the same school Miss L. Cumming was relieved of her duties at the request of the principal, and Miss Livingston was appointed in her place.

Prof. Guy de Leskard was appointed French teacher at the Toronto Normal School in place of Eugene Masoon, who died; and Mrs. Mirian Brown was appointed instructor in reading at the same school.

A number of private bills were introduced.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Matheson and Hon. G. P. Graham, J. A. McMillan, Glengarry, was added to the municipal committee.

The Temiskaming Railway Report.

The annual report of the Temiskaming Railway Commission was laid on the table of the Legislature by the Provincial Secretary yesterday. The cost of the road and equipment to Dec. 31, 1905, was $7,475,473.84, less proceeds from sale of road, car rental and interests on deposits, $38,870.45, leaving $7,436,603.39. There was expended on the James' Bay appropriation $4,461.25; chief engineer's account, $2,771; cash in bank, $32,605.71. Total expenditures, $7,476,441.35. The liabilities are given as follows: Loan from province, $5,840,004; advances from province, $1,636,164.27; unclaimed wages, $273.08; a total of $7,476,441.35.

The revenue was: Passenger earnings, $108,681.76; mails and express, $7,804.85; freight earnings, $121,530.46; telegraph earnings, $4,697.07; miscellaneous, $11,006.41; gross earnings, $253,720.55.

Operating expenses: Maintenance of way and structures, $25,072.89; maintenance of equipment, $12,533.68; conducting transportation, $88,823.52; general expenses, $13,823.52; total operating expenses, $139,772.50.

Net earnings, $113,948.05.

Percentage of operating expenses to gross earnings, 55 per cent.

Carried 86,648 Passengers.

The passenger train mileage was 45,535; freight trains, 21,080; mixed, 52,197; total of 118,815. Passengers carried numbered 86,648. Average amount received from passengers, $1.25. Tons of freight carried, 99,192; average haul, 48 miles. Of freight carried, lumber and square timber amounted to 27,882.

At the end of the year the Boston Creek trestle was being erected at the forty-first mile of the second division. Track-laying will proceed rapidly northward, and should reach the Black River, seventy-five miles north of New Liskeard, by June 1. From that point to the end of the present contract the grading should be completed in time to allow the laying of track to the junction of the Black and Abitibbi Rivers next fall. Preparations are being made to establish a train service over the first thirty miles of the second division. A telegraph line is erected and two stations partially constructed.

A second report on the electrification of the road has been prepared by an expert and laid before the Government for final consideration.

Coming of the Prince.

Col. Hanbury Williams and Under Secretary of State Pope, made a social call on the Premier and his colleagues at the Parliament Buildings yesterday. They are in the city to arrange for the visit of Prince Arthur of Connaught from April 21 to 26.

They also called on the Lieutenant-Governor yesterday.

The Premier said the Government would wait till the Lieutenant-Governor's plans were announced before deciding what steps would be taken to entertain Prince Arthur.

Gatling Guns Stationed At Court House and Jail.

MILITIAMAN FATALLY HURT

Struck In the Head by a Brick Said to Have Been Thrown by a Rioter—Affrays Become Less Owing to the Depressing Effect of the Distribution of Guns and Troops Over the City of Springfield.

Springfield, O., March 2.—After a day of peace succeeding the rioting of the past two nights, it was evident that more deprecations against the colored population of the city had been planned for last night.

Anticipating that the attack, if made, would be in the vicinity of Section street, Col. Ammel sent a squad of soldiers to that locality at 7.30 o'clock. Just before they arrived a band of rioters left the house of Pearl Howard, against which threats had been made. The house had been set fire to, but the troops sent in an alarm and the place was only slightly damaged. The rioters escaped.

As a precautionary measure, Col. Ammel has posted two machine guns and a company of troops at the Court House and jail and the entire square is cut off.

The distribution of the guns and troops over the city had a depressing effect on the rioters and, with the exception of little affrays, but little out of the ordinary happened up to 11 o'clock.

Arthur Ancil, a member of the military company, was struck on the head by a brick, said to have been thrown by a rioter, and fatally hurt last night.

Two more companies of state troops from Piqua are held in readiness for service.

TAKEN BY HEART DISEASE.

Sudden Demise of the Collector of Customs At London.

London, March 2.—George Burns, collector of customs here since May, 1900, died suddenly yesterday morning.

He was sorting papers on his desk when Victor Short, a messenger, went to him to secure car tickets. The boy noticed the collector sitting in his chair and staring vacantly, as though looking into a mirror on the wall. Then a deep groan startled him so that he ran from the room to notify some of the clerks, who at once sent for medical aid. Dr. J. D. Wilson arrived in a few minutes and found Mr. Burns still alive, but he could do nothing for him.

Mr. Burns had been troubled with his heart for over two years. At times his condition was regarded as dangerous, and two weeks ago he suffered a most severe spell. Yesterday morning he was not feeling well, but decided to go to the office.

He was born in Scotland July 28, 1842, and came to London when a young man of twenty, since which time he had made his residence here. He was in the clothing business for many years.

Public Ownership Successful.

St. John's Nfld., March 2.—The colonial Legislature was opened yesterday, the speech of the governor, Sir Wm MacGregor, announcing the year to be one of unexampled prosperity. Governor MacGregor intimated that the public ownership of the colonial telegraph lines was proving highly satisfactory.

No One to Blame.

Guelph, March 2.—The inquest touching the deaths of Conductor Timothy Mahoney and Section Boss David McKenzie in the accident at Grand River Bridge on Jan. 31, was resumed last night after an intermission of three weeks. The evidence did not show anyone to blame.

Big British Fleet.

Algeciras, Spain, March 2.—A division of British cruisers due at Gibraltar yesterday and two divisions of battleships will arrive there to-day.

Mayor of Quebec.

Quebec, March 2.—Geo. Garneau has been elected Mayor of Quebec.

The Wornout Nerves, The Weak Heart, The Tired Brain, The Wasted Strength.

What a multitude of women there are who feel that these words exactly suit their case. From early morn until late at night they have been on the go, year in and year out, attending to the daily household duties, looking after the wants of her children and spending the rest of her time attending to social and church work. Is it any wonder then that sooner or later there comes a general collapse? The action of the heart becomes weak and palpitating, the nerves become unstrung, the brain feels in a whirl half the time and the usual force of vitality is lacking.

It is at this time a woman should look after herself. If she does not, serious female disorders may set in and often cause weary months and years of helplessness and miserable suffering. What she wants is something to build up her system. For this purpose there is nothing to equal

They are the women's friend in every sense of the word.

They will strengthen the weak heart, tone up the shaky, starved nerves, make the brain clear, and restore the lost vitality.

Mrs. George Lohnes, Stanley Section, N.S., writes: "I was greatly troubled with weak and dizzy spells and was so run down I could not attend to my household duties. I bought two boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after taking them I found that my trouble had all passed away. I am now strong and healthy again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 for $1.25. If your dealer does not handle them, send direct to The Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

MAY LEAD TO FATAL RESULTS.

Lord Curzon's Disapproval of Secretary Morley's Decision.

London, March 2.—Lord Curzon of Kedleston, former viceroy to India, has written a long letter to The Times, expressing his strong disapproval of the decision of John Morley, Secretary for India, in the matter of the supremacy of military or civil authority in India.

Lord Curzon contends that Mr. Morley only over-ruled the military party on a small and relatively unimportant issue, and that Mr. Morley's solution is substantially the same as that of Mr. Brodrick, the former Secretary for India, in protest against which Lord Curzon resigned, and that it "creates a military autocracy and irresponsibility of the military element in India, which may lead to fatal results."

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed tenders, addressed to the undersigned, marked on the envelope, "Tenders for Construction," will be received at the office of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway at Ottawa, until 12 o'clock noon, on Monday, the 19th day of March, 1906, for the work required for the construction, in accordance with the plans, profiles and specifications of said Commissioners, for the following sections of the Transcontinental Railway, for said work to be completed on or before the first day of September, 1907, viz:—

(1) District "F". — From a point designated on the plans of the said Commissioners at or near the City of Winnipeg, to a point known as Peninsula Crossing, near the junction point of the Fort William branch of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, a distance of about 245 miles.

(2) District "B". — From a point designated on the plans of the said Commissioners, at the north end of the Quebec Bridge and Railway Company's bridge in the vicinity of the City of Quebec, to a point near La Tuque, a distance of about 150 miles.

(3) A steel viaduct about 3,000 feet long across the Cap Rouge Valley, in said District "B", in the vicinity of the City of Quebec, the work to be performed in accordance with the General specifications of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, and the General Specifications for steel bridges and viaducts of the Department of Railways and Canals of Canada, 1906.

Plans, profiles and specifications may be seen in the office of the Chief Engineer of the Commissioners at Ottawa, also in the office of the District Engineer at Kenora, Ontario, for the section of District "F", and for the section of District "D" in the office of the District Engineer at Quebec.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made in duplicate, and on the printed forms supplied by the Commissioners.

Separate tenders must be submitted for the work in each District.

Tenderers shall not be in any way entitled to rely upon the classification or any other information given by any person on behalf of the Commissioners, and before submitting any tender bidders shall make a careful examination of the plans, profiles, drawings and specifications, and read the forms to be executed, and fully inform themselves as to the quantity and quality of materials and character of workmanship required; and are understood to accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions contained in the form of contract, specifications, etc., annexed to the form of tender.

Each tender must be signed and sealed by all the parties to the tender and witnessed, and be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank of the Dominion of Canada, payable to the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, for the sum of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) for District "F", and two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000) for District "B" and thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) for steel viaduct in said District "B". Any person whose tender is accepted shall within ten days after the acceptance thereof furnish the security required by the Commissioners for the due and faithful performance of the contract according to its terms, sign the contract, specifications and other documents required to be signed by said Commissioners; and in any case of refusal or failure on the part of the party whose tender is accepted to complete and execute a contract with the said Commissioners and to furnish the approved security within ten days after the acceptance of the tender, the said cheque shall be forfeited to the Commissioners as liquidated damages for such refusal or failure, and all contract rights acquired by the acceptance of the tender shall be forfeited. Cheques deposited by parties whose tenders are rejected will be returned within ten days after the signing of the contract.

Attention is called to the following clauses in the form of contract:—

"All mechanics, labourers or other persons who perform labour for the purposes of the construction of the works hereby contracted for shall be paid such wages as are generally accepted as current for competent workmen in the District in which the work is being performed, and, if there be no current rate in such District, then a fair and reasonable rate; and, in the event of a dispute arising as to what is the current or a fair and reasonable rate, it shall be determined by the Commissioners whose decision shall be final."

"This agreement is subject to the regulations now in force, or which may at any time hereafter be in force during the construction of the works hereby contracted for, made under the authority of the Department of Labour, and which are or shall be applicable to such works."

"The contractor shall in connection with the whole of the said work, as far as practicable, use only material, machinery plant, supplies and rolling stock manufactured or produced in Canada, provided the same can be obtained as cheaply and upon as good terms in Canada as elsewhere, having regard to quality and price."

The contractor shall conform to the Fire Regulations adopted by the Commissioners, and also to the Laws and Regulations respecting fire in the different Provinces wherein the work is being performed.

The right is reserved to reject any or all tenders.

By order,
P. E. RYAN, Secretary.

The Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, Ottawa, February 8, 1906.

DEFEATED SUBURBS LAST NIGHT AND Won The Championship

Methodists Whitewashed Lakefield Seven, Scoring Three Goals to Their Opponents Nil—The Winners Deserved the Victory on Form Displayed—The Game Was a Good Exhibition, Free From Roughness—The Half Time Tally Was 1-0.

CHARLOTTE STREET TEAM

Goal, Lang.
Point, Roddy.
Cover point, Moore.
Rover, Nicholls.
Centre, Miller.

The above seven represents the team that last night vanquished in decisive style the fast Suburb team of Lakefield, by 3—0, thereby winning the championship of the City League for 1906, and the Stratton Trophy. The largest crowd that has attended a hockey game this year attended last night, nearly one thousand persons being on hand to see the teams go. That the better team won in the play is beyond dispute. The Methodists had the better of the play all the time, although the Lakefields made several dangerous looking onslaughts on the Charlotte street nets.

The score at half time stood 1—0. As the play in the initial period was fairly even many were of the opinion that the Suburbs might pull out and win. But in the second half they were outclassed throughout, and the puck was in the vicinity of their goal nearly all the time. The enthusiasm of the crowd knew no bounds, and there was a continual uproar during the great battle. While Charlotte street had the majority of supporters, the Suburbs were the favourites with many others than the sixty enthusiasts that came to see the game, and who were confident of their septette's ability to land the silver. The Suburbs took their defeat like men, and although beaten they were by no means disgraced, and, win or lose, they are true sports, as has been shown by the way they conducted themselves this winter. There has probably never been seen a team in Peterborough that played cleaner or more gentlemanly hockey than they do, and owing to their sportsmanlike conduct in all their matches they have won the respect of all followers of the game in Peterborough. They have done extremely well, and deserve credit for the way they have played the game.

As for Charlotte street, it may be said that they have won the championship on their merits, and nobody who takes a rational view of City League hockey will dispute that, for they never played better this season than last night, and every man from goal sentry to the forwards seemed to be playing the game of their lives.

Lang, in goal, played the best game he ever did, and was simply impregnable. His work was a revelation to the fans, and he surprised everybody who saw the game. Roddy played his usual effective game at point, while Moore at cover was better than ever. It is particularly hard to distinguish any one forward on the winning team. They all did great work and kept the Lakefield defence busy all the time. Dusty played very effectively at left wing, and did better than he usually does. Miller at centre had barrels of speed and was one of the smoothest stick handlers on the ice. Nicholls was very fast and aggressive, and played a very consistent game. Grose on the right wing played the game all the time. Quigley and Simpson were probably the most effective for the winners. The other members of the team acquitted themselves admirably, although they did not play in their usual form.

Referee Waghorne didn't turn up in time to officiate in the first half and Mr. Fred A. Clarke, the president of the League, handled the bell during the initial period to the utmost satisfaction of both teams. "Wag" acted in the second half, however, in a manner that was beyond criticism. He had his eye on everything and promptly discouraged anything like rough play.

STRATTON TROPHY.
Emblematic of the City Hockey League Championship, Won by Charlotte Street Team Last Night.

First Half.

There was considerable delay in starting and the puck was not faced until five minutes to ten. Both teams seemed to be equal at the commencement of the play. They each broke away for short runs, but were closely checked, and for a long time neither seemed to have any marked advantage. Miller opened the penalty procession by being awarded two minutes for tripping. Roddy put Simpson to the fence on a hard body. Bloomfield lifted the puck the rubber hitting Dusty on the head and knocking him out. Some dangerous looking scrimmaging was done near the Lakefield goal. Roddy was given two minutes for attempted tripping. Lakefield came pretty close to notching a point. Dusty executed a nice run. Simpson rushed and looked good for a shot on goal anyway, but Grose cut short his ambitious flight by a heavy body into the boards for which he was rested two minutes. Nicholls rushed but Hurl got the rubber away from him and counter rushed and shot wide. Miller made a pretty individual run and shot dead on goal, Grey stopping cleverly. Dusty, Grose and Miller started a fine three-man com. going and went right through to the Lakefield goal, but couldn't score. Nicholls was penalized two minutes for tripping. Simpson rushed well and had a good opening but shot wild. Dusty sent in one right on goal from about centre ice that Gray had his eye on. Dusty and Hurl got into a little fistic difficulty and were ruled off by the referee for the remainder of the half, the time of which was up all but five minutes. Laing got in the way of a corker. Grose rushed and Bloomfield chased him into the corner. Moore scored Charlotte street's first on a splendid individual rush after 10 minutes' play. Quigley lifted one or the nets that Laing barely got.

Second Half.

Bloomfield lifted the rubber and it whizzed narrowly past the Methodist goal. Roddy cut Simpson short in a well meant dash. Nicholls scored the first in the second half for Charlotte street in 4 1-2 minutes. 2—0.

Simpson shot on a pass from Quigley and the umpire put up his hand. The goal was disputed and was eventually not allowed. Bloomfield was benched one minute for bodying. Roddy followed him to the side with two minutes for tripping. Bloomfield rushed and the puck was carried into the Methodist's territory, a score nearly resulting. Gray was called upon to stop an easy one. Miller broke away on another of his spectacular rushes and came pretty close to finding the nets. Gray passed offside from his goal and there was a face off right in the Suburb's nets. For a time there was a mixup in front of the goal, but no score resulted. Bloomfield slipped while making a good dodging run. Moore rushed and passed to Nicholls who sent one close upon the Suburb's flags. Lakefield picked up some and for a short time the play was in Charlotte street's territory. Miller was boarded two minutes for slashing. Quinn rushed well but didn't get near enough to shoot. Nicholls was hit in the digestion and hurt. Dusty scored the last for Charlotte street on the best rush of the game. Final score, Charlotte street 3; Lakefield 0.

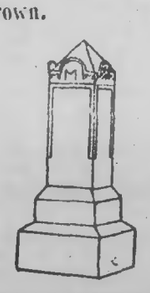
Review Team Hopelessly

OUTCLASSED BY FAST Examiner Aggregation

10—2 Were the Figures That Put the Tory Bunch in Dreamland—Spectacular Contest Witnessed by 800 People—The Best Team Won, Said Manager Buster Brown.



DIED,

On Thursday, March 1, the Review Hockey team.

Funeral private. No flowers.

Requiescat in Pace.

Morning Times please copy.

Hello, Review! Is that you? Yes. Then say.
Can you think of any other game that you can't play?
—Old Poem.

10-2. Those were the fatal figures that dazzled the eyes of the Review hockey team as they crawled off the ice last night after having been sent away to the Bad Lands in a most decisive manner by the Examiner seven. It was a slaughter of the innocents pure and simple and the score doesn't indicate the play. Of the two lone some little goals credited to the Review, one was a free grant made to them by Hutchinson out of generosity of heart. The Tory ink-slingers turned out to be the worst lot of fawn coloured four-flushes that ever stepped on the Brock street rink and that's saying a good deal when it is remembered that Lindsay has been here several times. They did not hang out the slightest sign of being in the Examiner class and the chief interest in the game centred in the desperate attempts of the Review aggregation to hold the Examiner express to the tune of 10-2. It is now up to the public to judge the Review on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. For weeks they have been predicting all the disasters that were to be handed out to the Examiner. According to the Tory sheet there was only one great hockey team in the world and that was the Review team. They were great, all right, but not in the way they thought. As a hockey team they were a bad fizzle. As a fun producer they were all to the chocolate and the funniness of their work lost nothing by being unintentional for the greater part.

The game was witnessed by 800 wildly excited and enthusiastic spectators the majority of whom put up the goods in the shape of long distance shouting for the Examiner. The game was little more than a procession with the Review trailing in the rear, hopelessly outclassed in every department. The struggle was replete with comedy effects of a high order varied with occasional vaudeville stunts by the Review. No more spectacular exhibition has been seen this winter. There was somebody falling all the time and generally two or three went down together. In this department of the game the Review had their opponents backed into a siding. They could fall oftener and more scientifically than any bunch that ever went on the ice with the idea that they were a hockey team. The scenic effects were brilliant and the costumes decidedly picturesque to say the least.

The Examiner team won the game because they played 99 and 3-4 per cent. better hockey than the Review and made them look like Seagram cast offs in the Suburban. There was no comparison between the two outfits. The Review, despite their weeks of careful practice under the watchful eye of Manager Buster Brown, showed lack of knowledge of the fine points that was surprising. Their speed was of the stage coach variety and they handled the puck as if they had never seen one before.

The brand of hockey displayed by the Examiner team surprised even their most ardent admirers. They were out with the goods in all sizes and quantities and their fast playing had the Review going down the line with John Henry at all stages. The forward line were all the saccharine. They played good combination and shot well and the Review forwards looked about as much at home as a knot-hole in a barb-wire fence. Gilman was easily the bright and shining star of the game. He scored most of the Examiner goals and could have had a dozen more if he had not been held back by the Examiner management. He made the Review defence look like a joke turned upside down. Richea, Long and Yokome all stickhandled well and their combination had the Review beat a mile. The defence was almost superfluous as the puck rarely came past centre ice and as a result, to keep warm the rear guard had to move up on the attack and in the last half the whole outfit including the goal-keeper were playing forward. It was the easiest possible victory.

It would be impossible to pick the Review stars. There were no stars or else they were all stars, which ever way you want to look at it. They may have known something about hockey once but they had forgotten all they knew and their playing was of the shinny variety. They had a beautiful offside combination which beat the referee, but which was easier than sleeping to the Examiner defence. Uncle Pike McCrae made a great hit every time he struck the ice, which was about once a minute. His beautiful stickhandling and graceful skating caught the eye of the crowd. W. Alfy. Smith clad in a demure little white sweater essayed to play rover and "he rambled until Hutchinson cut him down". Alfy made a great effort to win out although it was a forlorn hope. The other forwards were on the ice all the time, although they seemed to have a marked aversion to touching the puck. The defence was a dream. Big Chief Metheral at cover point was so easy that the Examiner forwards felt ashamed to pass him so often.

SICK HEADACHE

Many varieties of headache exist, those most prevalent being sick or bilious headache, nervous headache, headache from constipation, etc.

Headache is an effect of disease, the cry of the suffering body for relief from some oppressing disorder.

Undoubtedly the cause must be removed in order to cure the headache permanently. Wrong action of the stomach, liver or bowels is responsible for nine out of ten cases of headache.

In sick headache (a very common form) there is sometimes nausea and vomiting and usually constipation.

In nearly all forms of headache

Burdock Blood Bitters

has proved itself a specific—a medicine that has cured where all others failed.

Keep the stomach, liver and bowels in perfect working order by the use of nature's regulator and tonic, Burdock Blood Bitters, which cures all forms of headache by removing the cause.

Miss L. Smith, Morrisburg, Ont., writes: "I desire to let you know how much good Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I was troubled with headaches all the time, and could get no relief, until a friend told me of your Burdock Blood Bitters. After taking two bottles of it, I can say that I am completely cured."

B.B.B. is for sale at all druggists and general stores. Do not accept something "just as good."

BARGAINS IN MEDICINE.

A woman once wrote us that she was not going to buy Scott's Emulsion any more because it cost too much. Said she could get some other emulsion for less money. Penny wise and pound foolish. Scott's Emulsion costs more because it is worth more—costs more to make. We could make Scott's Emulsion cost less by using less oil. Could take less care in making it, too. If we did, however, Scott's Emulsion wouldn't be the standard preparation of cod liver oil as it is to-day.

THE LATEST SPORTS

Review Team Were Outclassed

He was there with his little axe, too, and with a strict referee would have spent most of his time at the ring side. Wilson was handicapped by a sore hand and did not play in his usual form.

It would be impossible to describe the play as it was just a series of rushes by the Examiner team varied with an occasional balloon ascension by Uncle Pike McCrae. The teams were:—

Since on the part of the Review, the game was more poetry than prose, the line-up of the Review team is put in verse and to be consistent the Examiner is treated similarly.

REVIEW LINE-UP.

There were Wilson and Hunter, big
Chief Metheral
There was Smith, the bold rover, who could skate to a fall
With the pivotal Hunter and the rovin'
McCrae,
With Jones the Welshman, to complete the array.

EXAMINER LINE-UP.

There were Hutchinson, Craig and the comp., Charlie Reid,
With Gilman the star, with woodyards
of speed;
There were Yokome and Long, with half Nelsons in play,
And the man in the swing, the swift
Rich-e-ay.

P. S.—

With pitiless skill they thrust the puck through
And they gave the Review team its worst Waterloo.

But who refereed? What do you suppose
The press would have less than attar of Rose?
Bert Huston the scribe, had his eye on the watch
While Wilson and Sawle caught the goals "we" would notch.

Notes of the Fray.

Some one yelled Egypt and Ikey Metheral was seen making a dash to the audience, calling "Mame, I love I love thee for ever more. If you will only open that door for the Examiner has got the big end of the score.

• • • •

One of the most despicable things recorded against the Review in connection with the overwhelming and ignominious defeat at the hands of the brilliant and aggressive Examiner aggregation was the fact that the juvenile hockeyists who so splendidly upheld the unsullied reputation of the notorious Tory rag failed to even mention the enticing name of oysters at the conclusion of the stupendous, and as far as the Examiner is concerned, decidedly clever exposition of Canada's unrivalled winter pastime. Defeated and disgraced the blush of shame being brought to their haughty countenances after succumbing in such a ridiculously easy manner after so much self praise, they decided the most expedient course to pursue after last night's game, after the Examiner's laurel earning triumph that called forth the unstinted and vociferously enthusiastic recognition of the spectators, was to hide themselves in the obscurity of their own indescribable shame and intensely bitter grief for which there is no solace but the company of the tall and ever mournful and solitary needle trees.

• • • •

From the latest despatches it is learned that the man from Glengarry who drifted into the city a short time and posed as a dark horse and who upheld himself as a wonder and dubbed it into the Examiner seven in a shameful manner was never a hockey player at all. The only thing he ever distinguished himself at was carrying the coarse towels for the "pride of the woods" team an aggregation that came last with a total of .00 per cent. in the Polsaken League. He tried to play once on a lake away up among the Northern Ontario Mountains, but he was such a frost that the people there said he was about as useful as a thermometer that registered forty degrees below zero on the 12th of July. Last night he looked not unlike a forty-cent alarm clock. So it may be seen that many false alarms are sprung but are invariably found out. The moral of the story is:—Don't blow your own horn too much or your lips may become swollen.

• • • •

Did anyone say oysters?

• • • •

The referee rose to the spirit of the occasion.

• • • •

"That's Sawle ringht," said the Review goal umpire at half time.

• • • •

The Review had better Hunter round and get some more players.

• • • •

This is worse than Mrs. Fay said it would be, said Uncle Pike McCrae, as he tried the mid-air levitation act and lit gracefully on his back.

• • • •

The Review had a Van at the game to carry off the spoils.

Craig got so lonesome in the nets for the Examiner that he decided to take a hand in the fray and during the last half the citadel was unguarded. His rushes were decidedly picturesque.

• • • •

Hutchinson was court martialed by the Examiner team for scoring for the Review. He was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

• • • •

There is no truth in the rumour that the game is to be played over again. The Review know when they have enough.

• • • •

The Review combination was like clockwork in a dollar watch with the main spring gone wrong.

• • • •

In spite of the fact that Alfie Smith claimed the game when the water froze around Noah's ark, he couldn't pass Hutchinson.

• • • •

After the game was over, Sawle, the Review goal umpire, looked as cheap as a non-union label on a two-for-five cigar.

• • • •

Big Chief Metheral certainly had his tomahawk with him.

• • • •

Every time McCrae touched the puck the crowd went wild. He was given two distinct ovations.

• • • •

The Review team claim they were off colour, but the spectators think they should have been off the ice.

• • • •

Wilson, the Suicide goal-tender, who has played such a great game in the City League this year, said the reason he let so many in was because The Examiner shots burned his hands.

• • • •

If the oysters are never forth-coming, the Examiner has the consolation of knowing that they "eat up" the lobsters.

• • • •

The Review alleged hockeyists do not seem do pay any better than they play. The have lost 17—more or less—games for the oysters, but they have won something—they have made the Examiner team also lose the supper.

• • • •

It was such a cinch for the Examiner that Craig stood in goal taking notes on the game.

• • • •

The appearance of "Lady" Craig in goal was enhanced by the addition of "pads."

The Toronto Telegram says:—And now that one championship has gone east and one west, it would be nice to see the third take up a summer residence in the far north. However, this is almost hoping too much. Peterborough goes to Parry Sound with a lead of four goals, and moreover, those who saw the game in Peterborough claim the home team were away better than the Parry Sounders when they settled right down to playing hockey. Of course, Goderich Sailors are in the running too, but when the finals come on they won't go to the post favourites.

FOOTBALL

All interested in association football are invited to be present at the organization meeting at the Y.M.C.A. to-night at 8 o'clock.

Prospects Are Bright

FOR ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL During Coming Season

Organization to be Held This Evening — Over Fifty Players in the City—An Increased Enthusiasm Shown in the Game—Last Year's Record—A Fair Future Prophesied in Football for Peterborough.

With the advent of spring close at hand, it is opportune time to commence the consideration of the coming season's sports. Not the least of these is Association Football and the interest which is manifested in this old time game is increasing remarkably. A few years ago football was on the decline and only a few teams in this district, and these were mostly in country localities, took any aggressive action in keeping the game above the surface and in the advancement of this manly sport.

Football has been for many years and is at the present time the Old Country's prominent game and the noticeable enthusiasm shown there is gradually becoming infectious all over the world. There are very few Englishmen who go abroad without some knowledge of the game.

No one will doubt that the exercise derived from football is most beneficial both physically and intellectually, as skill and system play an important part in the scientific points of the game. In the Association game roughness is almost totally excluded and there are very few reports depicting injuries or fatalities on the Association football fields.

For the past three years the sport has been on the up-hill march in Peterborough and many of the neighbouring towns and villages, and, judging from the growing enthusiasm it is bound to continue towards the top. In the last two years there were no less than three Association teams in the city and all of them displayed themselves worthily.

The Old Country Wanderers were a creditable aggregation and succeeded in leaving a favourable impression among the lovers of the game. Their style of playing was indeed commendable inasmuch as rough play was almost eliminated as checking in the Old Country game is not allowable.

Last season the Peterborough Business College had an excellent team. Although most of the members were youthful in age, they proved to be veterans in the game as shown by the fact that they were not once defeated in their many contests of last year.

The Midland league was represented last season in Peterborough by the Quakers. They were an aggregation well fit to play in senior company and with their full line-up were a hard proposition to contend with. Probably their greatest game was played in Norwood where they defeated on their own grounds the crack eleven of that town. They made an admirable showing against the celebrated champions of Galt and succeeded in winning the city championship and tieing Bridgenorth for the county laurels.

In Peterborough last year there were over fifty enthusiasts of the great game and although a number of them have since left, yet, others with renowned reputations have come to reside in the city. Therefore with half a hundred to choose from, Peterborough should this year be represented in the league by a creditable team and one which will not disappoint the lovers of the game.

It would doubtless be an excellent idea if junior teams could be organized in the Midland league, as there are many more places throughout teh different districts which would be represented. This, too, is the only method of producing players who will in the future be able to take the places of their predecessors and so be the means of propogating the Association game.

There have been many optimistic opinions expressed by local players with regard to the coming football season in the city and the present prospects indicate that Peterborough has the material which is capable of fulfilling these prophecies.

Organization Meeting.

An organization meeting will be held on Friday evening next in the Y.M.C.A. parlours where all taking any interest in the game are invited to attend and discuss the many points which will be brought up before the meeting. The success of the game during the coming season greatly depends on the interest shown in the organization meeting so that all who wish to see the best of football seasons in the present year should attend on Friday evening and lend their assistance to its advancement.

Rinks Played For Pail Of "Water"

It is quite an unusual affair for curlers to do any belting to their sociable evening games but last night was an exception. A pail of water as the stakes produced one of the most ludicrous, but interesting games of the season, but unfortunately the score was a draw and neither rink had the pleasure of partaking of the other's hospitality.

The following were the scores of last night's games. The first being the all important one.

M McBrien	F Perry
J Bogue	J Watson
D Hall	R Kerr
Webb, sk. 8.	McTooley, sk. 8.
P Laing	J McPherson
H Hiland	W Smith
C E Frost	J Stanger
T Brightman, sk 8.	R M Waddell, sk 15
G Stafford	A Craig
W Isaacs	R Carlton
E Clegg	T Rutherford
W G Ferguson, 14.	Fitzgerald, 10.

CURLING

The North End Curlers have issued a challenge to the ice sweepers of the South End. Hunter street, to be the dividing line and the game to be played at Charlotte street rink at the earliest opportunity.

Two rinks of Peterborough curlers left this afternoon for Keene where they will play this evening a like number in the native home of the wide spread game. The following are the rinks who visited Keene to-day:—

A. P. McDonald, D. H. D. Hall, T. Brightman, C. N. Brown, skip.

D. Hall, — ——, D. Davidson, W. G. Ferguson, skip.

Don't Smoke In Brock St. Rink

The management of the hockey team, through the Examiner, makes a request to the gentlemen spectators at the game to-night, which is a reasonable one, and which should be complied with: that is that they refrain from smoking in the rink. The circumstances under which the team have to play are unfavourable enough without making them any more so, and it is to be hoped that this request, which is a reasonable one, will be complied with.

"Riverside Fan" Wants Ball Team

Peterborough,
March 1, 1906.

Sporting Editor of Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I noticed in your issue of the 28th you spoke of it being time to do something in the way of organizing a City Baseball League and I share your views in this matter, and now that the hockey season is drawing to a close I think it time the Peterborough Midland League team were holding a meeting.

Last season the boys did very well but in a City where there are five times as many ball teams as any other town in the league it should be possible to turn out a pennant winning team.

Directors Of Exhibition Met

Mr. D. Hughes Charles Read Report of Toronto Meeting

At a meeting of the directors of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition last night in the President's office, deputations were appointed to wait on the City and County Councils with regard to the giving of grants in connection with the Fall Fair. The date of the Exhibition was fixed for three successive days, commencing Sept. 24. Mr. D. Hughes Charles who was a delegate attending meeting of fairs, in Toronto, presented his report in which he stated that under the new Agricultural Act the grant to the County Fairs must be in proportion to the prize money given for the purposes of agriculture.

In reference to horse racing at the fair there were only six, he said, in the large assembly of over 250, who voted against the resolution to allow horse racing at the County Fairs at the discretion of the directors.

Personally Mr. Charles said that he would not be surprised if racing would be altogether prohibited in the near future at the Fall Fairs.

WARSAW MAN'S LUCK

—FATHER DIED IN SCOTLAND—

AN HEIR TO $40,000

Leonard McPherson has Been Bereft of a Father But Falls Heir to $40,000 in Old Country.

A Scotchman Who Has Lived in This Country for Short Time Receives Word of Fortune.

Will Come at Opportune Time —Mr. McPherson Had Feet Frozen and Was Ill for Some Time.

Special Wire to The Examiner.

Warsaw, March 2nd. — Mr. Leonard McPherson, of this place, has received notice from his solicitor in Glasgow, Scotland, acquainting him of the death of his father, and that he is a beneficiary to the extent of eight thousand pounds, besides valuable property.

The news of his father's death greatly affected the young man, who was a favourite son, and without a relative in this country. However, as Mr. McPherson has not been very successful in monetary matters, and has not accumulated any very large amount of this world's goods, by the kindness and thoughtfulness of his father he will be able to live more comfortably in the future. He is a native of Glasgow, having emigrated to this country about four years ago. For three years he served in the militia, being stationed at Stanley Barracks, Toronto.

About a year ago Mr. McPherson took unto himself a wife, and his three years' term at the barracks being completed, he moved here, where he has been employed as a farm labourer. During a cold snap in January last he had his feet badly frozen while chopping wood, and but for the assistance of the villagers and the municipal council would have surely been reduced to serious straits.

The property to which he has been made heir is situated a few miles from Glasgow ,and is a favourite watering place. An hotel which his father conducted, is situated on the property.

Mr, and Mrs. McPherson will leave shortly for Scotland, where they will take charge of the estate.

Notable Case Of Longevity

Mrs. Fennell, Grand Aunt of Mr. Robt. Fair, Died at 101 Years.

The Montreal Dail Star contains the announcement of the death of Martha McCamus, relict of the late Simon Fennell, formerly of Cobourg, Ont. The death took place at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. G. O. Stanton, 496 St. Urban street, on Thursday, March 1st. Mrs. Fennell had reached the remarkable age of 101 years and 2 months and was born at Shercock, County Cavan, Ireland, on Dec. 26th, 1804, and came to this country with her parents at the age of 16 years. She is survived by two sons, Rev. Jos. Fennell, of Hamilton, and Mr. John Fennell, wholesale hardware merchant, Berlin, and Mrs. G. O. Stanton, with whom she resided.

Mr. Robt, Fair was present at the funeral services in Montreal on Friday which were conducted by Bishop Baldwin , an intimate friend of the deceased. Mr. Fair is a grand nephew of the late Mrs. Fennell, and Mr. Thos. McCamus, who resides near Baillieboro, is a nephew.

Interment took place at Cobourg to-day, whither the remains were brought from Montreal.

The Missionary Anniversary

Special Sermons to be Preached in Methodist Churches.

To-morrow in the Charlotte and George street Methodist churches Missionary anniversary services will be held. The special preachers for the day will be Rev. Dr. Brecken and Rev. D. Cade, both of Toronto. In the morning the former will preach in Charlotte street church and the latter in George street, alternating in the evening.

These preachers are among the most prominent in the Methodist church and they will be able to present the claims of the Missionary Society to the congregation.

Superintendent Was Appointed For Hospital

Miss De LaMater, of Toronto, Will Enter Upon Her Duties at Once.

At the regular meeting of the Trustee Board of Nicholls Hospital held in the Ontario Bank Chambers, yesterday afternoon, the appointment of a successor to Miss S. M. Coleman, who tendered her resignation recently, was considered. The Board had received a large number of applications and after considerable discussion decided to engage Miss Franc De La Mater, of Toronto, to fill the vacancy.

The new superintendent is a Canadian and a graduate of Sarnia General Hospital, and has had considerable experience in Detroit, Toronto, and other places.

The appointment of Miss De La Mater was made by the unanimous consent of the Board, and she will arrive in the city on Monday next and enter upon the discharge of her duties.

An Otonabee Man Injured In West

Horse Stepped on His Head Causing Almost Fatal Injury.

Mr. Jas. Drummond, an Otonabee farmer, who resides near Keene, received information this week from Indian Head in the Northwest, of an almost fatal accident to his son, Wm. Drummond.

Young Drummond was driving a spirited horse, attached to a stone-boat, when the animal became frightened and made a break for liberty. The driver in attempting to stop him, got entangled in the reins and the horse stepped on his head, bruising it badly. Although he received many injuries, from latest reports his recovery is assured. Mr. Drummond is getting along very successfully in the West and his many friends here regret very much to hear of this lamentable accident.

Animal Weighed Over 2000 Pounds

In the shipment of cattle to Montreal yesterday by the stockmen, Morris & Brown, was included a large bull weighing 2,010 lbs. It was obtained from Mr. Herbert McKee, Smith, and was one of the weightiest ever seen in this district. The above shippers also report that a similar animal was also included in the car load and was bought near Cavanville.

PETERBOROUGH NOW HAS A LEAD

---OF SEVEN GOALS ON GODERICH SAILORS---

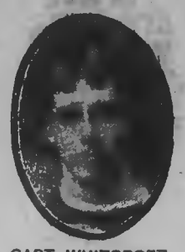
IN THE FIRST FINAL O. H. A. GAME

Score Last Night Was 10-3 —The Most Brilliant Game of Hockey Played This Season Won by the Local Team —More Than 2000 Persons Saw a Splendid Exhibition of Hockey—Local Players Covered Themselves With Glory.

Half-Time Score Was 1-1 —In Second Period the Locals Swept Everything Before Them—Team Has a Good Lead to Go Up Against Goderich in Second Game—Most Exciting Game This Season Was That of Last Night.

Before the biggest crowd of the season, and in one of the fastest and cleanest contests ever seen in Peterborough, the locals defeated Goderich last night in the first game in the O.H.A. semi-finals by 10 goals to 3. Peterborough's victory, although the defeat of the visitors was as decisive as the score indicates, was not of an easy nature, and the boys in blue and white had to let themselves out to the last notch to carry off the honours. The sailors looked very dangerous during the first half. They were playing a beautiful defence game, and it seemed impossible for Peterborough to find the nets, although their shots rained in on the Goderich citadel.

At half time, with the score a tie, one to one, it looked as if Peterborough had encountered the real thing. In the second half, however, the Peterborough team was able to draw out the visitors' defence, and then swooping down on the nets with their pretty combination, managed to score nine goals.



CAPT. WHITCROFT,
The Brilliant Rover of Peterboro' Team Who Distinguished Himself by His Great Work Last Night.

The crowd reminded one of the days when Belleville and Peterborough were the opposing teams. Every point of vantage was eagerly seized, and the rink was packed to the doors with a wildly enthusiastic crowd. Even the rafters were made use of, and several small boys witnessed the game from that elevated position. About 2,000 persons saw the game.

The game was one of the speediest and, at the same time, cleanest, games, ever seen on the local ice, and it is not wonderful that the crowd was half-delirious with excitement. Beautiful stick handling, fast skating and neat combination, were always in evidence. The pace was terrific from the start, and there was no slackening at any stage. Both teams played hockey until the bell sounded for the last time, and the result was that the match was a most brilliant exhibition of the national winter sport. The players seemed to be in the finest possible condition, and were always on the puck. As has been said, the game was clean, considering the importance of the struggle. Nine men were penalized but their offences were not serious. Both teams seemed to understand that with Referee Waghorne holding the bell, they would have to play hockey, and no rough tactics were cut out entirely.

As was natural under the circumstances, the plans of campaign adopted by the teams were widely different. The Goderich team went on the ice to play a defence game, and in the first half they were successful in their objects. Playing a double cover point and double goal keeper the Goderich team were able to stave off the rushes of the local forwards for the first half, and although they had the puck three-fourths of the time they were unable to get in on the defence. The first half was made up of rush after rush on the Goderich goals, with the Sailors' defence working desperately and successfully, at least for a while.

In the second half the play was

Will be Held on Tuesday, March 6th--Reports Will be Presented and the Officers Will be Elected—The Work of the Board During the Past Year—Much Good Has Been Accomplished by This Organization.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trade will be held on Tuesday, March 6, in the Council Chambers. The reports of the president, Mr. D. Hughes Charles, and secretary T. Q. Quartermaine, will be presented and the officers for the year elected.

During the past year the Board has dealt with a number of matters of much importance to the material progress and prosperity of the city, and much good has been accomplished. The regular meetings of the Board have not been attended as well as might have been hoped for, but the special meetings, which were called for the purpose of considering specific questions of interest to the city, were attended by larger numbers, and deep interest was manifested.

The Board of Trade has taken a leading part in the agitation for the completion of the Trent Canal and other questions, including that of the extension of the C.P.R. to Victoria Harbour from Peterborough have been dealt with by the Board of Trade.

The prospect is that the officers will be selected practically by nomination, and there is little doubt that the majority of the present officers, if not all, will be re-elected.

A PROMINENT CITIZEN

The above picture represents a gentleman who is still young, but the picture was taken when he was considerably younger than he is now. He is practically a native of the city, having lived here some years ago, but his calling in life is such that he does not remain many years in one place. He has, however, lived in Peterborough now for some years, and previous to entering his present profession was a school teacher. The picture above was taken about 20 years ago, when he was in educational work.

Conference On Sunday Schools

Thursday next, March 8th, the City Sunday School Association annual conference will be held in Y.M.C.A. hall. Afternoon session at 3.30; evening session at 8 o'clock. E. A. Hardy, B. A., Provincial Teachers' Training Secretary, and Mr. Thos. Yellowlees, Assistant Provincial Secretary, will speak at both sessions. Teachers, officers and all interested in S. S. work are especially invited to be present. Collection at evening session.

Will Speak To The Men Only

Mr. A. M. Hunt, late of Owen Sound, will speak to men only at the Y.M.C.A. on Sunday at 4 o'clock, on "The Climax of Love." Mr. J. F. Thornton will lead the Song Service. The hall was well filled last Sunday, and it should be crowded to-morrow. All men are welcome.

An Offer Of $1000

---FROM CANADIAN FIRE ENGINE CO.---

For Old Fire Engine

Mr. Pritchard, on Behalf of His Company, Makes This Offer—Tenders for Engine Were Opened Last Night —Chairman and Chief Rutherford Authorized to Make Purchase—The New Fire Hall Plans Submitted.

Last night the Fire, Water and Light Committee met in the City Clerk's office and opened the tenders for the new fire engine. There were only two tenders received, one from the Hugh Cameron & Co., selling agents for the Waterous Engine Company, and one from the Canadian Fire Engine Company, of London. There was a difference in the price of the 1,000 gallon (U.S. measure) engines of $800 in favour of the London people.

Those present at the meeting, were, Chairman Adams, Ald Elliott, Dineen, Mason, Ball, Graham and Mayor Best.

Chief of the Fire Brigade, Thos. Rutherford, and Architect Wm. Blackwell, were also present.

The first business taken up was the letter from Market Clerk Jas. B. Brown, in reference to the market fees which he bought the right to collect. Mr. Brown was present and said that when he put in his tender he thought that he was the only one in the city who collect fees for weighing. He now finds that other parties are weighing and he asked the committee to cancel his last month's dues which amounts to $110.

This the council refused to do, at any rate until the Committee hears from the city solicitor, to whom the matter has already been referred. Ald. Mason and Ball moved to that effect and the motion was carried.

---IN MIX-UP IN CONNECTION---

With Wedding Dance

Result is a Police Court Case—An Interesting Session at Newcastle—It Was All Caused Over a Disagreement at a Dance—Kendal Couple's Wedding the Occasion for the Gathering Which Developed Into a Prize Fight.

Newcastle Independent — Immense was the gathering from Northeastern Clarke and the adjacent part of Manvers last Thursday in our court house to hear the tripple assault charge against James Curtis, of the latter township, tried by F. B. Lovekin, J.P.

The salient features of what may be termed to have been a social function at Kendal as brought out at the trial, seem to be that in honour of the marriage of Dave McMullen last month a dancing party was gotten up among his friends and at the home of Mrs. Armstrong in that village on the night of the 16th ult. The whole countryside was invited except those who had been left out, and perhaps for no particular reason, and among the excepted ones were Jim Curtis and one or two of his associates, who, however, after consultation, decided to go; and possibly to make themselves welcome in the face of this breach of etiquette, and knowing from experience that the Kendalites seldom touch, taste or handle anything stronger than cider, they took a bottle along filled with liquid fire to drink to the health of the guests of the evening—the newly married couple.

Well, for a time the dance seems to have gone along merrily, until a little of the hard stuff got mixed with a lot of the soft stuff, and the assembly hall being altogether too small to accommodate a gathering of such proportions, the heated atmosphere without, coupled with the increased temperature within,

THE GRAND TRUNK

—PURCHASES SOME LAND FOR—

ENLARGING YARDS

A Statement to the Effect That This Company Has Big Plans for This City—The Details.

Belief That in the Near Future Some Extensive Improvements Will be Effected to Property Here.

In Connection With the Increase of Efficiency of Midland Line, Land East of Present Property Bought.

There is little doubt that Peterborough is destined, in the very near future to become an important railway centre—everything points that way.

It is stated upon good authority that the Grand Trunk Railway System has recently purchased a considerable plot of land adjoining their present property, and that a large extension of their yards, which at present are too small to accommodate the rapidly growing traffic, will be made. The prospects are that the G.T.R. has plans in view which will necessitate the material enlargement of the yards here, and in order to make this enlargement the land east of the present tracks and south of Sherbrooke street, has, it is understood, been purchased, and the occupants of the houses on the property have been notified that they will have to vacate the houses, within a short time, to allow the Company to carry out their plans. What their plans are, in detail, has not yet been divulged, but it is learned, from a source generally considered reliable, that they are of a nature which will mean very much for this city.

It is well known that the G.T.R. have plans to greatly increase the efficiency of the Midland branch of their road, in order to provide for the rapidly growing grain trade from the west, and it is stated that these plans have something to do with the improvements which will be made at Peterborough.

Three Horses Drowned; More Narrow Escapes

Mild Weather Results in Number of Accidents.

A Haliburton correspondent to the Bobcaygeon Independent says: Mr. Wm. Laken sustained a serious loss last Saturday by the drowning of his best team in Mud Lake. His team was drawing tan bark to the village, and all had got safely over except the last team, and it was within a rod of landing when the ice gave way and the horses fell in the lake, and the weight of the sleighs and tan bark pushed the team under the ice. Mr. John Lakon, who heard the shouting of the teamster, imagined something was wrong, and sent one of the other teams back, but it was too late as the horses were dead. A number of men with teams went to the place on Sunday and pulled the horses out. The horses were imported stock and cost over $1,000, one being a fine heavy stallion and a splendid horse for drawing, and the other a Brood mare in foal.

A despatch from Fenelon Falls to the same paper says: Many persons were startled by loud calling proceeding from Lake Cameron on Sunday evening. The noise seemed to come from the rear of the Chemical works and upon the arrival of help was found to come from Mr. R. Swanton, who had, with his horse and rig, broken through the ice. The man was extricated, but the horse, a valuable one, met a watery grave.

Carpenters Want Higher Wages

Rate To Be 25c. Per Hour After April 2nd.

In to-day's issue of the Examiner a notice appears advising all employers of carpenters and joiners, that, commencing April 2nd, the minimum rate of wages for men employed in these trades, will be 25 cents per hour, instead of 22 1-2 cents as at present.

This decision was reached at the last meeting of Local Union No. 672, Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, and it was unanimously decided that the rate of wages asked for was not too high.

The carpenters believe that since they perform the most important work in connection with the construction of a house, they should receive higher wages. They point out that while the minimum rate of wages for bricklayers is 40 cents an hour, they receive as high as 50 cents, and is, according to their opinion, altogether out of proportion to the wages paid carpenters.

Two years ago the rate of wages paid carpenters was 20 cents, and at that time it was increased to 22 1-2 cents, which was the lowest rate paid, the majority receiving more than that.

The great majority of the Carpenters of the city are members of the Union, and the action as outlined above is unanimous. It is not anticipated that there will be any trouble experienced.

Fell Down Stairs With Oil Lamp

On Tuesday night Miss Mary Junkin, daughter of Mr. Lancelot Junkin, of Verulam, tripped at the top of a flight of 16 stairs in her own home, and fell headlong to the bottom. As she was carrying a lighted lamp, which was broken by the fall, it is a wonder that she escaped with but a severe shaking up and a few bruises.

Lower Prices For Our Bread

On Monday the bakers of the city will reduce the price of bread to the consumers. Hitherto the prices have been 10 cents for the three-pound and 13 cents for four-pound loaves, but commencing on Monday the prices will be reduced one cent each, making them 9 and 12 cents. The reason for this decrease in price is the fact that the price of flour has been lowering and the bakers wish to give the public the benefit of it.

School Committee Will Make Report

The Special Committee appointed by the Board of Education to consider the question of a new public school in the south end of the city held a meeting this afternoon. They discussed the report which they will present to the Board meeting on Monday.

Narrow Escape From Poisoning

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Little and their seven children, of Campbellford, had a narrow escape from death by being poisoned. Mrs. Little baked some cookies in which she had used some poisonous compound in mistake for baking amonia. All were taken violently sick and two doctors were immediately summoned to the home. After some hours' treatment all were out of danger and nothing fatal resulted from the mistake.

Peterborough Has Big Lead

more open and much faster. The Goderich defence allowed themselves to be drawn out, and this fact, coupled with the aggressive combination of the local forwards, was the cause of their defeat.

Although playing under disadadvantageous circumstances the Peterborough team never played better hockey than they did last night. After two hard games already played this week, and after two days travel, with no sleep for 36 hours, they set a pace that surprised even the most ardent of their supporters. They kept it up all the time, and were going their fastest when the bell rang for time. They had the best of the argument with the visitors at every stage of the game and in the second half decisively defeated them. Their long trip seemed to have little effect on the locals, and they played hockey from start to finish. What's more, they stayed on the ice too, and only very few of their men were penalized.

In all departments the blue and white septette made a brilliant showing. The forwards combined beautifully together, and not many passes were wasted. They passed quickly and accurately and carried the puck right in on the nets before shooting with the result that there were few lost opportunities to score. Their stickhandling was brilliant and every man on the line shot hard and effectively. The defence was almost impregnable and it was only very rarely that the puck was carried past Crowley and Glover.

The star of the game was undoubtedly Whitcroft, who displayed speed and stick-handling ability that had his opponents dizzy. Time after time he carried the rubber through three or four Goderich men and his corkscrew rushes were of a sensational nature. His work especially in the second half, was brilliant in the extreme. Cavanah put up a great game. He handled his stick and skated beautifully and fitted into the combination most effectively. Morgan played fine hockey at centre and was mixed up in every assault on the Goderich goal. His shooting was of his usual deadly variety. Chris. Graham played a grand game on the boards. He was always in his place and made many beautiful rushes along the side.

Glover was the star of the defence and it is doubtful if he ever played more brilliantly than last night. He broke up many dangerous rushes and started many himself, several of which resulted in scores. He checked well and his lifting was instrumental in securing one of Peterborough's goals. Crowley was also most effective and the Goderich forwards found him a bad obstacle in their way. He rushed well and played a cool steady game.

The sailors were a very likely looking team. They were heavier and bigger than the locals, but had not the speed or stick-handling ability that makes the local forward line so dangerous. They did not seem to have a very effective combination although the size of the rink might have been the cause of that. Their defence game worked well for a time, but when the team loosened up a little in the second half it was all over with Goderich then.

McIvor, in goal for the visitors, did not live up to his press notices, although he made some pretty stops. Campbell at point spent the greater part of the game in the nets with McIvor, and he stopped more than the goal keeper. The redoubtable Carrr-Harris was not so formidable after all. He had lots of speed and could handle his stick well but the Peterborough team looked after him all right.

On the forward line H. McGaw was easily the shining light, and made many pretty, although ineffectual, rushes. McDonald at left wing also uncorked a fine bunch of speed, and handled himself nicely.

Referee T. C. Waghorne gave the greatest satisfaction both to the teams and to the public. He caught every offside and the few attempts at rough play were quickly nipped in the bud.

THE GAME

First Half.

Soon after the face-off Morgan sent a long one on the nets that Campbell stopped. Carr-Harris was the first man benched, and was given one minute for bodying Graham. Cavanah shot and the rubber glided by the post. The play was transferred from the Goderich to the Peterborough goal. Glover relieved, lifting the puck into the corner, and it bounded over the boards. Graham broke away on a pass from Whitcroft, but was called back as the pass was offside. Glover rushed and passed to Graham, who passed back to Glover, the latter shooting wide. Morgan shot and Carr-Harris stopped. Whitcroft found the nets, but was offside. Wasson stopped a hot one. McDonald scored the visitors' first; time 9 minutes. Score 1-0.

Crowley was timbered a minute for tripping. Whitcroft and Morgan started a good rush, but lost the puck near the Goderich goal. Cavanah shot and McIvor stopped well. Morgan was given a minute for tripping. McIvor was again called upon to distinguish himself. Cavanah lifted, and Whitcroft followed up, nearly sending the puck between the posts. Wiggins and McDonald worked in a nice two-man combination, but nothing resulted from it. Glover, Morgan and Whitcroft figured in a good combination rush. Morgan got two minutes for tripping. H. McGaw rushed, but didn't get far. Whitcroft rushed, the puck hitting Campbell's stick and caromming into the corner. There was a face-off right in front of the Goderich goal. Glover started a rush and Morgan scored; time 12 minutes. Score 1-1.

Whitcroft passed to Graham, who shot wide. Carr-Harris rushed and passed when checked. Whitcroft intercepted the pass and counter-rushed, coming within a hair's breadth of scoring. Wiggins rushed and passed to McDonald, who had the rubber taken from him by Graham. The latter was hurt and the play stopped for a minute or two. Cavanah bored one in that Campbell turned aside. McDonald made a likely looking run. When he shot the puck hit Glover on the chest. Whitcroft was given two minutes' rest for slashing Carr-Harris. F. McGaw shot wide on goal. Campbell was given two minutes for bodying Whitcroft. Cavanah and Carr-Harris mixed it up and were given two minutes just five minutes before half-time. The half-time score stood 1-1, with Peterborough having all the better of the play.

Second Half.

Glover and Morgan rushed, but there was nothing doing. Morgan scored the first for Peterborough in the second period, amid an air-splitting uproar. Peterborough 2, Goderich 1. Time 4 min.

Cavanah made a great rush and shot, the puck going wild. Carr-Harrris relieved nicely. Glover rushed and lost the puck H. McGaw getting it. Cavanah had a fine opening to score, but missed a pass. McDonald made a short rush. Glover lifted from over half way and netted the rubber. Time 2 min. Score 3-1.

Whitcroft made a magnificent individual rush and scored in half a minute. 4—1. Cavanah sent one on the nets that barely grazed thee post, from a mixup around the Goderich goal. Crowley stopped Carr-Harris when the latter was endeavouring to uncork one of his hurdle dashes. Cavanah scored on a pretty shot. 5—1. 2 min.

Whitcroft forked the puck out from a mixup near the home goal and made an end to end rush. The puck was returned to Peterborough territory. Glover rushed and passed to Whitcroft, who shot but failed to score. Carr-Harris lifted the rubber and F. McGaw followed up and collared. He rushed and passed to Wiggins, who put it through. Time, 11-2 min. Score 5—2.

Glover made a run down the east side of the rink right from point to the Goderich cover. Cavanah got it when it was passed out and shot, but couldn't locate the nets. Graham checked Carrr-Harris when the latter was rushing and relieved him of the puck. Graham passed to Morgan who came close to scoring. The play was in favour of Peterborough all the time. Whitcroft passed to Graham who shot into the corner. Morgan got two minutes for tripping. McDonald started a likely-looking rush but passed offside. F. McGaw shot and Whitcroft interefered, carrying the puck down the ice himself. He passed to Cavanah near the Goderich citadel and the latter scored. 6—2. Time 7 min.

There seemed to be a little more delay then necessary over trivial matters. Goderich wasn't having a look-in, the puck being confined to their territory all the time. Morgan scored in 3 min. 7—2. Goderich made an onslaught on the Peterborough goal. Whitcroft obtained the puck and tore off a spectacular rush. Graham was penalized 1 minute for a trip. Carr-Harris shoved Whitcroft over and had to take the fence for a minute. Wasson made an excellent stop. Morgan passed to Whitcroft who had a good chance to score but the pass was too swift and the puck went up against the boards. Goderich broke away on a nice three-man combination and McDonald scored. 7—3. Time 4 min.

Cavanah was rested a minute forr slugging Carr-Harris over the boot. Wiggins sent a wide one towards the nets. F. McGaw was given one minute for bodying. Whitcroft scored for Peterborough. 8—3. 31-4 min. Carr-Harris rushed and passed to McDonald who shot but failed to accomplish the necessary. Peterborough claimed to have sent a goal through in a mix-up but the umpire didn't put up his hand and the tally was not registered. Graham scored for Peterborough. 9—3. 4 min. Crowley was penalized 3 minutes for bodying. Graham rushed and passed to Cavanah who notched Peterborough's last. 10—3. 3 minutes.

Glover made another of his long rushes. Whitcroft shot and McIvor stopped cleverly. The bell rang for time with puck in the Goderich territory.

Following is the line up:

GODERICH.
McIvor.
Campbell.
Carr-Harris.
H. McGaw.
F. McGaw, Wiggins, McDonald,
Cavanah, Morgan. Graham,
Whitcroft,
Crowley,
Glover,
Wasson.

gan to set things crossways on the thin and ill-tempered edge of nothing. By agreement, Dave was to keep the place in the next dance for Jim, but as soon as the dance was called, and perhaps just an ace ahead of Jim, another gent and his lady filled the gap, and a dispute occurring, young Armstrong, as director, perhaps from heredity, jumped out and asserted that the place should be given to the one who first got it, and as Jim was evidently not that one, further words were passed and roses thrown, until the sturdy Manversite doubled up his fist, which, from the evidence, seemed to make Armstrong believe he saw and felt one of the posterior pedal extremities of Barnum's famous Jumbo.—Assault No. 1.

Unhaunted by apparitions, and undaunted by phantoms, the mistress of the mansion and mother of the young dictator, rushed forward, bringing to the son's assistance a potato masher, an heirloom descending, in the first instance, with the family from the Emerald Isle, and on the second instance upon the cranium of the intruder, who, to save himself, threw up his arms, whereupon the heroine, from her glimpse of the renowned Jumbo's proboscis, fell back in a swoon, smote or smitten no witness could clearly testify. —Assault No. 2.

It was preceding or succeeding this drama that Hawthorne ran up the side of his head against Curtis' ponderous claw which is said to have rebounded with such force and elasticity as to fill the assembled multitude with awe so great as to make the evidence so indisputable that Curtis pleaded guilty to assault No. 3.

Having carefully examined the Irish potato masher which his Worship should preserve as a memento of his first case, and having, with equal care, transcribed all the evidence, and with equal deliberation weighed all the arguments of Solicitors Ruddy and McLean for and against the accused, the court imposed a fine of $1 for assault No. 3, and another dollar for assaults Nos. 2 and 1, with costs.

THE BEGINNING OF THE TROUBLE

Is the Time to Stop It—And the means of Stopping it are Provided by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Have your meals become of interest to you, simply because of the trouble they bring? Is your appetite gone? Do you get up in the morning with a dark brown taste in your mouth? Is your head muddled and sort of half aching? Is your day's work a burden? Do trifles worry you?

If you have any of these symptoms it is time to pay attention to your stomach. It has been overworked and needs help. Attend to it at once, or you will drift into Indigestion and from that to Dyspepsia. Help your stomach with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They never fail to tone up the stomach and bring it back to a healthy condition.

Maria Ann Bujold, of Marie Cap, Bonaventure county, Que., says:—"For two years my life was a burden. I could not take the simplest food without having a pain across my stomach. One box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured me and I have had no return of the trouble."

A competition for spring wheel devices, pneumatic hubs and shock absorbers may be held in Paris in the spring; a preliminary meeting of interested manufacturers has already been held.

$50.00 PROFIT

ONLY $25.00 INVESTED

Do you want to make $50 profit by investing only $25 in a lot in beautiful Summit Park, Port Arthur, the great lake port town of N. W. Ontario.

Port Arthur is the County Seat of all Thunder Bay District, and is the lake terminal town of the three great transcontinental railroads, which empty their immense quantities of Western freight on ships bound for the East and Europe.

Port Arthur is the only real municipal ownership town in America, and made last year over $28,000 net profit out of its Street Railway, Electric Light and Power, and Telephone Franchises.

Port Arthur has the largest grain elevator in the world.

Port Arthur doubled its population in the last 2 years and we believe it will double again in the next 3 years.

Port Arthur is the gateway between the East and the extensive West, and can have no competitor.

Summit Park is a high, level plateau, furnishing a beautiful view of Thunder Bay, and lots purchased in this park at present prices will bring big profits before many months.

Bovril at Luncheon

The luncheon menu puzzles the cook more than that of any other meal. BOVRIL is a wonderful help in solving the difficulty. It gives a delicious flavor to any luncheon dish by adding to it the strengthening essence of prime beef.

BOVRIL

Eight pounds of prime beef is concentrated in four ounces of BOVRIL.

BACON AND RICE WITTERS.—To half a pound of rice boiled as for curry, add two tablespoonfuls of flour, a pinch of cayenne and white pepper, salt to a few ounces of boiled bacon (streaky) in small dice; dissolve a full saltspoonful of Bovril in a tablespoonful of hot water, and add together with a beaten egg. To Fry.—See that the fat is smoking, dip the spoons in the fat each time, then the mixture will slip out easily. As soon as golden brown they are done.

Offer of $1000 For Old Fire Engine

advisable to make preparations for advertising for new tenders.

It was moved by Ald. Graham and Elliott, that this committee be authorized to advertise for sale the privilege of collecting market fees.—Carried.

Fire Hall Plans.

City Architect Wm. Blackwell was present and had with him the plans for the new fire hall. Plans were first prepared by the city engineer, but they have been slightly altered in an endeavour to keep down the cost, and make it come within the estimates. The plans were examined by the committee and Chief Rutherford, Ald. Graham and Ald. McIntyre, a building contractors, discussed details with the architect. As a result a few more minor alterations will be made.

Mr. Blackwell is now engaged in preparing the specifications to have them ready to present to the Council at the meeting on Monday night.

Fire Engine.

Ald. Adams said that the next thing to consider was the purchase of a new fire engine. Mr. Pritchard, President of the Canadian Fire Engine Company, of London, was present, and the chairman asked him if he had his tender with him.

Mr. Pritchard said that the tender he put in before still stood good. But if the city wishes to dispose of the old fire engine and are willing to sell it at a reasonable valuation, he was prepared, on behalf of his company, to purchase it, providing the city accepted their tender for a new engine. Mr. Pritchard then asked what the city valued the old engine at.

Ald. Adams said that the Chief of the Fire Department had placed the value of the engine at $1,000.

"Well," said Mr. Pritchard, if the engine is in as good shape as I expect it is, I think $1,000 is a fair price, and I will agree to give that for it."

He further stated that his company was anxious to equip Peterborough with all the fire-fighting apparatus that was required, such as a combined hose and chemical wagon, hook and ladder truck, etc.

Ald. Adams promised Mr. Pritchard that if the committee decided to accept the tender of the Canadian Fire Engine Company and the company would take the old engine at $1,000, the committee would, when purchasing the other equipments give the Canadian Fire Engine Company the preference, providing other things were equal.

Mr. Pritchard then retired while the committee opened the tenders.

Hugh Cameron Company.

Hugh Cameron Company offered a 1,000 gallon (U. S.) steam fire engine, full nickel plate boiler for $6,000; with a black boiler $5,900.

If the tender is accepted the company would agree to allow $500 for the old engine.

Canadian Fire Engine Company.

The Canadian Fire Engine Company offered a 1,000 gallon (U. S.) steam fire engine for $5,500 and if accepted will allow $1,000 for the old engine.

The two tenders were carefully gone into by the committee and all the Aldermen expressed their opinion.

Mayor Best moved, seconded by Ald. Graham, that the purchase of the fire engine be left in the hands of the Chief of the Fire Department and the Chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, with power to purchase.—Carried.

As there was no other business before the Committee the meeting adjourned.

Safeguard the Children

AGAINST CROUP AND COLDS BY ALWAYS KEEPING AT HAND

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

There are many reasons why Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is the most suitable treatment obtainable for children.

It is pleasant to the taste, and children like to take it.

It is composed of simple ingredients of proven value in the cure of throat and lung troubles.

It is positively free from anything of an injurious nature, and can be used with perfect safety with the smallest child, so long as directions are followed.

It is wonderfully successful in the prevention and cure of croup.

It promptly relieves even the most severe chest colds and brings about a thorough cure.

You are not experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, for it is the standby in thousands of homes, where time and again it has proven its exceptional worth.

When you make up your mind to safeguard your children by keeping Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house, do not allow your dealer to persuade you into taking something on which he has a larger profit.

Mrs. Wm. Ball, Bracebridge, Ont., writes:—"I can recommend Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine most heartily for all forms of colds, and I think if every family would use it for their little ones it would save lots of worry and expense as I find it prompt and lasting in its effects.

"My three youngest boys had whooping cough this winter and we could get nothing to help them until we sent for Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It arrested the coughs at once and they kept on improving until they were cured at the cost of one dollar. That was not a large bill for so dangerous and distressing an ailment."

In the hour of emergency, when croup or colds seize your child, the cheap substitutes will fail you, but Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine never disappoints. 25 cts. a bottle, at all dealers.

The City's Loneliness And Country's Neighbourliness

From Eastern Ontario—Renfrew, we think—comes a story of misfortune and of neighbourly kindness that deserves special notice. Mr. Phillips of Cobden lost heavily by the bursting of a mill-dam. "Three horses, two of which were very good animals, were swept away and drowned; everything in the shape of a vehicle was swept away and destroyed; all his hens were drowned; his supply of wood was taken away, and the most of it he will not be able to recover. The water getting into his house also caused losses. In the cellar a supply of vegetables was soaked and will be worthless in a short time, and in the rooms down stairs many little articles of furniture and adornment were destroyed. This mishap occurring not a year after Mr. Phillips spent several weeks in an Ottawa hospital, and was operated on for appendicitis, has caused his friends to feel that he is having an undue share of hard luck, and prompted them to come to his aid."

We quote this, says the Toronto Evening Star, from the correspondence of an Eastern paper verbatim, so as to lose none of the little homely details which add so much to the human interest of the story. Toronto editors are sometimes accused of ridiculing these items, which usually appear in the correspondence of weekly papers. In fact, as was pointed out in The Star some months ago, they attract attention because they restore that touch with humanity which can be felt in all its force only in a small community. It is not that there is less goodness of heart in a city. But the presence of a large mass of people—anywhere from 100,000 to 1,000,000—has a chilling effect on human intercourse. You may love your brethren in the mass, but that is not quite the same thing as considering the case of Phillips, who had such hard luck with appendicitis and the flood. The city man is obliged to turn away fellows with hard luck stories—such as tramps who had a college education, and can even now repeat such Latin phrases as "pro bono publico." Their wives complain that their pockets are filled with shoe laces in needless abundance, purchased at high prices from distressed brethren and reduced gentlemen. Such experiences are hardening. We are afraid that if a man came into a carpeted office and reclined to a roll-top desk and a swinging chair such a story as we have reprinted, he would be regarded as a humourous and ingenious liar.

Good neighbourhood, too is apt to suffer in a city. They tell a story of a farmer who visited his son in the city and asked him who lived next door. The son did not know—thought his name was James. How long had he lived next door? About ten years. What business was he in? Did not know. The farmer sat for several minutes silent, astonished, plunged in thought. At night he returned with a full account of the family next door. The business, the troubles, the ambitions of the head of the family, the ailments of the younger children, and the college career of the oldest boy. He also introduced his son to Jones, and laid the foundations of a lifelong friendship. Next morning they read in the paper an article showing how to mitigate the Loneliness of the Farmer's Life.

Disaster May Be A Blessing

Moncton Hopeful for Future of Intercolonial Shops.

Moncton, N. B., March 1.—The Transcript has the following to say relative to the disastrous fire there on Saturday last:

The awful suddenness with which the major portion of the I.C.R. work shops were wiped out of existence within comparatively a few minutes on Saturday night, cast a gloom over the city of Moncton with whose welfare and interests the successful operation of the shops are so closely identified. Naturally, the workmen who were themselves so suddenly deprived of employment continuously and permanently for the present, felt a natural gloom upon the occasion, and in this thoughtful business men and every onlooker fully shared. Sometimes at fires like that of Saturday night, there is merriment or flippant talk, but as the present conflagration there was manifest nothing of the kind. It might prove serious to the welfare of the city, but there was hope in the knowledge that there was a friendly feeling towards the city of Moncton by the present Government of Canada, and naturally by the present Minister of Railways. When Mr. Emmerson's message of encouragement and hope was bulletined a feeling of relief passed over the city. All regret the enormous loss which has fallen upon the I.C.R., and at a moment which Mr. Emmerson has described as "inopportunely." His use of the word "inopportunely" was fitting because the disaster came at a moment when he had succeeded in changing the aspect of affairs of the I.C.R. and demonstrated that the railway could be made to pay after a serious setback. Those who are well informed and competent judges of modern industrial development are convinced that the erection of new shops on a modern plan will result in such an economic improvement in the operation of the I.C.R. work shops as to actually pay for the re-construction by improved conditions within a very few years.

Cobourg Looks For 1906 Camp

The Cobourg Sentinel-Star says: The matter of having the camp seems to rest between Cobourg and Peterborough, and as Cobourg has the rifle range it looks like Cobourg for 1906, provided other necessities pertaining to the camp are furnished by the town. Cobourg has the better location of the two places, and things seem to be pointing our way.

Market Prices Remain Firm

Disagreeable Weather Prevented a Large Market.

The disagreeable weather this morning again had the satisfaction of preventing a large number of the regular marketers from attending, especially those who bring produce for the outside market. The hall, however, was comparatively well filled with buyers and sellers, and butter and eggs rapidly exchanged ownership. There were no particular changes in to-day's quotations, prices all remaining firm.

Eggs were quoted at 17 cents all over the market to-day and they seemed to sell well at that price.

Butter still remains at the reliable price of 25 cents, some, however, sold at 26 cents per lb.

Chickens were rather plentiful this morning, ranging in price from 90 cents to $1 per pair. A few turkeys were visible, but no ducks or geese. Pork was quoted at 9 cents for fore and 10 cents for hind quarters. Beef was offered for 5 1-2 cents and 6 1-2 cents per lb. for front and hind quarters respectively.

Vegetables were very scarce at the market, only a couple of loads being present.

Hay and wood were not plentiful, either, and the small quantities were quickly disposed of.

The following were the general quotations at to-day's market:

Butter, per lb	25	to	28
Eggs, per doz	17	to	18
Chickens, per pair	75	to	1 00
Geese, each	1 00	to	1 60

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

Thousands of women suffer untold miseries every day with aching backs that really have no business to ache. A woman's back wasn't made to ache. Under ordinary conditions it ought to be strong and ready to help her bear the burdens of life.

It is hard to do housework with an aching back. Hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause in the world.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it's not to be wondered that they get out of order. Backache is simply their cry for help.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

will help you. They're helping sick, overworked kidneys—all over the world—making them strong, healthy and vigorous. Mrs. P. Ryan, Douglas, Ont., writes: "For over five months I was troubled with lame back and was unable to move without help. I tried all kinds of plasters and liniments but they were no use. At last I heard tell of Doan's Kidney Pills and after I had used three-quarters of the box my back was as strong and well as ever."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

The New Scale Williams Piano Another Prominent Westerner.

"Universal Admiration" are the only words to use describing what people think of the New Scale Williams Piano. Mr. E. Taylor, General Manager of the Hudson's Bay Co., Winnipeg, writes as follows.

"I am pleased to tell you that my wife is entirely satisfied with the New Scale Williams Piano I purchased from you during exhibition last summer. The instrument has been the subject of much admiration on the part of our friends, both from a musical and artistic standpoint. The instrument is undoubtedly perfected to a very high degree of excellence, owing to its rich powerful tone, is an admirable substitute for the 'Baby Grand,' which you will remember I thought of purchasing."

E. TAYLOR, General Manager of the Hudson's Bay Co., Winnipeg, Man.

The Hudson's Bay Co., of which Mr. Taylor is General Manager, is the oldest Commercial Institution in America, having been established since Prince Rupert's time.

Rev. Wm. Burn's Lenten Address

Speaker at the Services in St. Luke's Last Night.

The Rev. William Burns, of St. George's church, Hastings, was the special preacher at last night's Lenten service. The Rector read the prayers.

Mr. Burns preached from Jonah iii; 1:—"Yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown;" together with St. Matthew xii; 41:—"The people of Nineveh repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold a greater than Jonah is here."

The reverend gentleman began with referring to the contrast between the Ninevites in their heathenly darkness and the Jews of our Lord's days and the Christians of to-day, upon whom were shed abroad the revelations of God. The Ninnivites repented, and believed God through the one call given them by Jonah, while the Jews with all their privileges crucified the Lord of Glory. Is Nineveh a reproach to Christians of our day, with our greater privileges, as it was to the Jews of our Lord's days?

Mr. Burns spoke of the many calls God gave to the people, many warnings designed to bring them to repentence, and of the opportunities the church gives during the sacred season of Lent in particular, and yet very few people avail themselves of spiritual privileges, very few people prefer an hour spent in the House of God to the pleasures of the world.

The preacher mentioned the period of forty days frequently given in Scripture for special preparation and probation. So the church has ordered that all her children during the forty days of Lent should abstain from worldly pleasures and practice self-denial, and draw nearer to God.

The special services during this season are an opportunity for the people to enjoy these privileges, not only to improve their spiritual life, but also to be blessed with the favour and approbation of God, who honours and owns every effort of His children to worship Him.

An Explanation Is Asked For

Editor Examiner.

Dear Sir,—In your report of the meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council, 27th ult., at which meeting the question of an isolation hospital was discussed, Ald. Ball is quoted as saying: "Medical men were now of the opinion that the best place to treat contagious diseases was in the place where the patient was, and that by removing him, danger of spreading the disease was incurred."

This is an appalling statement, especially from an alderman of a city, and is no less unjust to the medical fraternity than it is mischievous to the public. Will Ald. Ball kindly explain?

INTERESTED.

Peterborough Is In The Lead

The St. Thomas Times has this, of local interest, to say about street lighting:—"Berlin has 111 arc lights on its streets; Stratford 100; Peterborough 144; Woodstock, 84; St. Catharines, 87; Brockville, 75; and St. Thomas, 68. We ought not to be behind the best of them in street lighting. We are ahead of Windsor, Guelph and Belleville, but that is not good enough for us. Street lights are better preservers of peace and safety to the citizens than policemen, and come cheaper.

James Wilson Gets 20 Days

Jas Wilson appeared at the police court this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly. He pleaded guilty.

"Do you want to go to gaol?" asked His Worship.

"I would rather go to the hospital, replied Wilson, "I'm pretty badly crippled up with rheumatism."

"Five dollars and $4.50 costs to be paid forthwith," was the judgment of teh court, "and in default of payment, 20 days in gaol."

The Magistrate explained to Wilson that he simply sentenced him in order that he might have protection.

Wilson is a young man, only thirty-five years of age, but is as decrepit as a man of 70. He carries a cane and finds walking difficult. His trouble is chiefly due to exposure brought on through drink.

The New Pastor Much Beloved

Rev. H. M. Manning Very Highly Respected in Clinton.

The Clinton New Era this week says: Rev. H. M. Manning, who has very acceptably filled the pulpit of this church for nearly four years, has received an invitation from the First Methodist Church of Peterborough to become its pastor next year, and the official board of this church has extended an invitation to Rev. Mr. Jolliffe, of Peterborough. Rev. Mr. Manning has proved himself one of the best pastors this congregation has been favoured with. Exceptionally sincere and faithful in his pulpit work, his ministration has been most helpful, and the congregation will be fortunate if it secures a successor who is his equal in this respect. He makes no pretence to eloquence from the oratorical standpoint, yet his very earnestness is eloquence of a better type. When, by the inevitable decree of Conference, he moves at the end of June, he will carry away the esteem and respect of many beside those in his own church and congregation.

The military budget of the French Republic foots up to a total of 29,000 officers, whose pay alone amounts to nearly twenty million dollars. Italy, under the same head, has 14,000 officers, drawing seven and a quarter millions annually. Spain pays on account of 23,000 officers, the sum of thirteen and three-quarter millions.

WIND PUMPS

I have much pleasure in thanking the public for their liberal patronage in the past and to state that I am now in a better position than ever to attend to all orders for Pumps, etc., cleaning Wells, etc.

I have been appointed agent for the sale of pumps in Peterborough and vicinity for the Ontario Wind Engine and Pump Co., and will keep in stock of their various Pumps on hand, both wood and iron. The heads of the Wood Pumps are made of British Columbia Cedar, which will not split, check nor taint the water, and last twice as long as pine.

Be wise and don't buy a cheap Pump when you can get something better.

WELLS CLEANED and REPAIRED. CISTERNS CEMENTED. Also Platforms Cemented when desired.

My success in Repairing Pumps where others have failed, should be a guarantee that I am prepared to give satisfaction. References desired.

WE ARE BUSY SELLING FURS, ALTHOUGH THE WEATHER HAS BEEN FIGHTING US HARD

There are just as many people buying Fur now as there were early in the season. The reason is easily explained—Our Fur Stock is twice as large as it should be—the season is against us—we need money to buy our summer stock with. Our Fur Stock Must be Sacrificed to Get This Money. To sacrifice your stock means to put prices on the goods that will make them move out, and make people come and buy. The public are wise, they know Furs are cheap, and by buying now can save lots of money.

ALLOCATING THE CREDIT.

The Mail and Empire naturally — naturally, because rather unwarrantably — gloats over the fact of a surplus in provincial finances. The Mail says:

Colonel Matheson produces, as a consequence of his first year's administration, the magnificent surplus over expenditure of $620,160.

We are all pleased with the excellent condition of the provincial finances, but at the same time we can't quite concede that this condition, as represented by the surplus mentioned, comes "as a consequence of Hon. Mr. Matheson's first year of administration." As a matter of fact it may be stated, with no desire to detract from the Provincial Treasurer's efficiency of financial administration, that there is a surplus, not "in consequence," but in spite of, Mr. Matheson's administration or, rather, policy. When Mr. Matheson was directing the financial affairs of the province from the Opposition benches, he was in deadly opposition, to the succession duties, which he denounced and described, as "robbery of the dead." Yet Mr. Matheson owes the whole of his boasted surplus - this "consequence of his first year's administration," to the revenue derived from Succession Duties. The surplus is $620,160, while last year's revenue from Succession Duties, amounted to $568,178, or $64,000 more than the surplus; so that, if Mr. Matheson, who now claims credit for a surplus had not had the benefit of the Succession Duties revenue which he had tried to abolish, he would have had a deficit of $64,000, or, as the curb-stone financier would say, would have been $64,000 "in the hole." If one takes also into consideration the fact that Mr. Matheson's surplus was contributed to, to the extent of $245,695, by "the supplementary revenue," which both Mr. Matheson and his party bitterly opposed, something follows. Take this amount and add it to the deficit resulting from subtracting the Succession Duties, and we have a total deficit of $309,000, which would have resulted if, other things being as they are, the Conservative Provincial Treasurer had not had the help of the revenue which the prudence and foresight of a Liberal Government had provided. So that the fact of having so large a surplus is due, so far as they affect the situation to the sums derived from the sources of revenue provided by a Liberal Government, and which would not have been in existence if Mr. Matheson, and his Conservative allies, had had their way. This is not saying that Mr. Matheson has not shown care in his financial administration, but he deserves very little of the credit of a surplus created, or, as good as created, by revenues provided by a Liberal Administration, and opposed tooth and nail by Mr. Matheson and his Conservative allies. We shall be well pleased if Mr. Matheson does half as well in managing the provincial finances as did his Liberal predecessors.

AN UNWORTHY CANADIAN.

Among the Canadians who have been elected to the new British parliament is Charles Day Rose, the Liberal candidate for the Newmarket division, of Cambridge. He is a son of the late Sir John Rose, who was the second finance minister in the Dominion Government. Charles doesn't know as much about Canada as his father did, although he ought to know more, there being so much more now to know. Charles' ignorance of his native land was revealed in a recent address to his constituents, of which address the following is an extract:

"It was the greatest absurdity in the world for his opponents to say that in a few years our colonies would be able to supply us with three or four times the amount of corn we required. He did not believe that a duty of two shillings on corn would stop there. They had a very peculiar climate in Canada, and a very severe one; for seven months they could see the ground, and during the other five it was covered with snow. If we relied upon Canada for our corn we should be leaning on a very broken reed indeed."

There is no denying that we grow a good deal of snow in this Dominion, though it is hardly true that his native soil would be hidden from Charles' inquiring eyes for five months in the year if he cared to come back and look for it. But even if all that he said about the snow were true, it would be very unsatisfactory evidence against Canada as a wheat producing country. If Charles were to take the trouble to call upon that genuine old Canadian Lord Strathcona, he could learn that the best wheat in the world is grown in those settled portions of Canada where the climate is the severest, and where the snow lasts longest—and not only the best wheat but more abundant crops than can be grown in any other unfertilized soil. Charley should know that snow, and plenty of it, is no deterrent to wheat growing, but it is the wheat grower's best friend.—Hamilton Herald.

A Prominent Liberal Dead

Late Mr. W. H. Austin was Uncle of Col. H. C. Rogers.

A prominent Ontario Liberal and business man has been removed by death in the person of Mr. William Henry Austin, of Trenton, who passed away early yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bidwell N. Davis, 391 Carlton street, Toronto, after an illness of only three weeks.

Mr. Austin was in his 79th year, having been born on the 20th of October, 1827, at Picton, Prince Edward county. He was the son of Dr. Andrew Austin, a prominent physician of that town. His mother's maiden name was Mary M. Rogers; she was of United Empire Stock, and belonged to the large family connection of that name in that part of the province. Mr. Austin was a cousin of Col. Henry Rogers of Peterborough, and of Col. Robert Rogers of Grafton.

Mr. Rogers was very prominent as a worker in Liberal politics. He was often urged to represent Hastings and Northumberland in the House of Commons, but declined that honour. He was a most public spirited as well as a broad minded and well-read man, and was highly esteemed by his fellow citizens. He was a member of the Methodist church, a leading official, and had several times been a delegate to the General Conference.

The body was taken last night to Trenton, where service was held this morning, interment being in the family burying ground at Picton.

IT IS FOR LADIES. TOO

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out and thicken the growth with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensible toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, Special Agents.

OBITUARY.

JOHN R. DARLING.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Darling, 4th line of Smith, will be grieved to learn that their third son, John Roland, passed away yesterday afternoon. He had been ill for some time with scarlet fever followed by heart disease. He was three years of age. The funeral took place this afternoon to Little Lake Cemetery.

The Work Will Commence On The New Building

Sandstone Brick Company Building to be Erected at Once --Will be 74x97 Feet and Two Stories High--The Machinery Ordered--Messrs. Hartley and Brown in Toronto Yesterday for That Purpose.

Mr. J. J. Hartley, vice-president, and Mr. A. Brown, director, of the Peterborough Sandstone Brick Co., were in Toronto yesterday, and selected the engine and boiler for the plant of the company. The work on the construction of the building will be commenced next week, and Mr. Hartley will have the supervision of the work, which will be done by day labour.

The building will be 74 x 97 feet, and will be two stories high. The walls will be of brick.

The machinery will be on hand in about ten days, and as soon as possible it will be installed.

It is expected that by May 1st the company will be turning out brick.

The prospects for the company are of the best. There is every probability that there will be a very large number of new buildings erected this year, and that the demand for the sandstone brick will be good, the company have no doubt.

Epworth League Of Mark Street

At this week's regular meeting of Mark street Epworth League, a very instructive and helpful address was given by Mrs. (Rev.) Campbell, in regard to the work of the W. M. S. of the Methodist church, celebrating its silver anniversary. Besides the regular exercises of the evening, a vocal solo was rendered by Mr. J. Miller in his usual pleasing manner, and an appropriate trio was given by Messrs. Rightmyer, Speer and Miller, adding much to the evening's enjoyment.

The regular meeting for Monday evening, March 5th, has been withdrawn, to enable the members to attend the Union Epworth League service, to be held at Charlotte street, to which all Leaguers and others interested are invited.

THE BEST STOVE CO

Future Citizen Of Peterboro' Honoured

Mr. John Riddell Banquetted at Baillieboro Last Night—More Than One Hundred Residents of South Monaghan Gather to Show Honour on Eve of His Departure for Peterborough to Live—A Highly Respected Citizen.

Special to The Examiner.

Bensfort, March 3rd. — Last night one of the most highly respected residents of this township was honoured on the occasion of his intended departure to Peterborough, from the township in which he was born, and has lived, for more than 65 years.

Mr. John Riddell was the guest at a banquet given in his honour last night at Baillieboro, at. which one hundred persons sat down to a supper in the town hall.

It was one of the largest and most enjoyable functions in the history of the township, and all classes joined heartily in the effort to show him honour.

The toastmaster was Mr. L. Byers, and after the excellent spread which had been provided was disposed of, a number of toasts were honoured, the first being that to the King, after which the guest of the evening was made the subject of a toast, and in connection with it, addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Mackenzie, Centreville; Rev. Mr. Robeson, Fraserville; Reeve J. W. Dawson, County Councillor Davidson, and a number of others.

Mr. Riddell in responding made a suitable reply. He expressed his personal regret at leaving South Monaghan, and said that he entertained nothing but the most kindly feelings for all the residents of the township.

Mr. Riddell was born in this township and has lived here ever since. He has occupied a number of public positions, having been Councillor and Reeve for a number of years, and has for years been superintendent of the Bensfort Sunday school. He has made a success of farming and intends to leave shortly for Peterborough where he will reside in future.

Bible Classes Social Hour

The Y.M.C.A. Boys' Bible Classes, taught by Messrs. Morrow and Trebilcwey, spent a very pleasant social hour at the Y.M.C.A. last night.

A game competition was held in which Harold Lees proved the champion croquet player.

"Togo," a new game was introduced and Vernon Miller won.

Steropticon views were shown of the lift lock, and of Old London; the latter were explained by Mr. Baker.

A committee consisting of H. Heap, W. Yelland, S. Kerneghan and C. Miller were appointed to arrange the next event.

ASTONISHED THE DOCTOR

Mrs. Eaton Recovering, Although Her Physician Said She Might Drop Dead at Any Time.

MRS. ROBT. EATON

"The Doctor told me I had heart disease and was liable to drop on the street at any time," says Mrs. Robt. Eaton, of Buffalo, Ont.

"My trouble began four years ago with a weak heart. I was often afraid to draw my breath, it pained me so. I was bothered with nervousness, shortness of breath, dizziness, loss of appetite, smothering and sinking spells, and I could not sleep.

"Sometimes a great weakness would seize me and I would have to lie down to keep from falling. My hands and feet would seem to go to sleep and a sort of numbness would come all over me and perhaps immediately after the blood would rush to my head and a series of hot flashes would envelop me.

"I took all kinds of medicines, but kept gradually growing worse until about eight weeks ago, when I began using Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill. From the start I improved, until now my appetite has returned, I can sleep well, and have no nervousness, dizziness, palpitation, faintness or any of my other troubles. They They have all entirely disappeared. I feel much stronger, look better, and altogether Anti-Pill has made a new woman of me.

"I am entirely cured and cannot say too much for this wonderful remedy. I would most heartily recommend Anti-Pill to anyone suffering as I did."

"Peterborough Quakers" Name Of This Season's Team

Large Number Present at Organization Meeting—Election of Officers Postponed Until Next Thursday—Team Will Enter Midland League—Desirability of Having Junior Team Discussed—Some New Players in the City.

That interest has been aroused in Association Football so early in the season, was shown by the large number of the lovers of the game turning out to the reorganization meeting last night at the Y.M.C.A.

It was unanimously decided to enter an Association team in the Midland League during the coming season under the name of the "Peterborough Quakers."

Mr. "Jack" Sullivan, the popular manager of last year's Quakers, was in the chair, and considerable business was transacted.

The question of advising the Midland League to include a Junior Series, came up for discussion, and also of the desirability of forming a junior or second team in Peterborough this year. These questions, however were left over until the next meeting.

Owing to a number of the prominent players being absent on account of the hockey game the election of officers was postponed also until week, giving an opportunity for all enthusiasts to attend. It was decided to adjourn the meeting until next Thursday evening, commencing at 7.45 in the Y.M.C.A.

Representatives from last year's Old Country Wanderers and the Business College teams were present at last night's meeting and signified their intention of joining the Peterborough Quakers, and having one good Association team. Therefore all players who expect to gain a position on the team will have to commence at once and assist in the organization and propagation of the welfare of the team.

Most of those present last night are on the still hunt for men for 1906, and many new comers have already been located. It is expected that next Thursday night's meeting the majority of the players of the city will be present and take part in the election of officers and lend their assistance to the discussion which will naturally arise from the hints thrown out in last night's assembly.

Local Curlers Won From Keene

The two rinks of curlers that went to Keene yesterday afternoon overwhelmed the sweepers of that village by a total score of 16 up. The Keene curlers as the visitors who outclassed their opponents at almost every shot. The rinks returned home last night delighted with their trip and report a good reception by their friends in Keene.

The following were the rinks and scores:—

Peterborough.	Keene.
A P McDonald	Moore
E H D Hall	Skinner
T Brightman	McIntyre

CURLING

Mr. T. Brightman on behalf of the South End Curlers accepts the North End Challenge for a six rink game to be played as early as possible next week.

* * * *

Three rinks were in operation at the Charlotte street curling rink last night and the games were keenly contested. To add to the interest in the play two visitors, Mr. Blackwood and Mr. McIntyre, who arrived a few days ago from Scotland on the way to the North West, lent their assistance to the game and are very enthusiastic over curling. They are good curlers and were very much pleased with their first games on Canadian ice. The following were the scores:—

A Webb	Blackwood
W Isaac	McIntyre
H Foote	C Rutherford
R Neill, sk 7.	W G Morrow, sk 12.
T B Yates	P Laing

HOCKEY

The game last night between Adamson and Dobbin's Perfect Ideas and Cressman's Counter Hoppers resulted in a victory for the latter by the score of 7-2. The following was the lineup of the Perfect Ideas:—

Goal, Mitchell; point, Thoop; rover, Thornton; centre, Miller; right wing, Gunn; left wing, Gillespie.

* * * *

Peterborough's record is now eleven games won with a total score of 114 to their opponents' 37. That's scoring some.

* * * *

The local team have scored an average of ten goals per game during the season while the average score of their opponents is 3.

* * * *

The Oriole hockey team challenge the Junior All Saints' to a game of hockey in Brock street rink at the earliest opportunity. Arrangements may be made with E. Fox, of the Orioles.

The Toronto Telegram hands out this dope:—

The intermediate final is on between Peterborough and Goderich, and it looks like the former to win, though the sailors are said to be capable of doing terrible execution on their own ice. The teams meet for the first game at Peterborough to-night, when the home team are expected to pile up a long lead. If they don't it's all off with them.

Was Arrested For Indecency

This morning at the conclusion of the police court P. C. Stewart arrested a youth about the age of 20 for committing an act of indecency in front of the Bank of Montreal. The man, who says his name is Edward Ramsay Henderson, was badly intoxicated, and this afternoon couldn't remember where he lived. He is a Scotchman, but didn't know how long he had been a resident in Canada. When asked where his home was he replied, in his native tongue, "Hoots! mon, hoots! ma home's ma home." He was tried before Police Magistrate Dumble this afternoon.

Presbytery Will Meet In Cobourg

The Presbytery of Peterborough will meet in St. Andrew's church, Cobourg, on Monday evening, March 5, to which meeting the general public are cordially invited. Dr. Milligan, of St. Andrew's church, Toronto, ex-Moderator of the General Assembly, will be present and give an address on the subject, "What Constitutes Special Religious Services." Dr. Milligan is known as one of the brightest and wittiest speakers in the Presbyterian church and the committee in charge feel that a treat is in store for all who attend. The Presbytery will continue in session on Tuesday for the conducting of regular business.

St. Andrew's Concert Was Grand Success

Delightful Entertainment Under Auspices of Daughters of Erin.

A most successful and highly interesting concert was held in St. Andrew's church Sunday school hall last night under the auspices of the Daughters of England.

The hall was comfortably filled in spite of the counter-attractions and those who furnished the vocal and elocutionary numbers acquitted themselves with credit. Rev. J. G. Potter made an admirable chairman.

The concert of the Daughters of Erin is usually held on St. Patrick's Day, but this year it was given earlier in order to accomodate Miss Adelaide Heath, instructor of the Toronto School of Expression, who also conducts a large and progressive class in elocution in connection with the Peterborough Conservatory of Music. Last night was the first public appearance of Miss Heath in Peterborough and she at once won the esteem of her auditors. She was compelled to respond to several encores. Her appearance is attractive, her articulation clear, her voice pleasing and her expression excellent.

Her first number was "The Darby Funeral," and as an encore she gave "The Two Bootblacks." Other splendid contributed numbers were a pas age from Lover's "Handy Andy," a poem of the late Archibald Lampman, "The Sweetness of Life," Eugene Field's "Seein' Things at Night," "A Chappie's View of Life," and "A Grizzly Bear Story." Each number was received with appreciative applause.

Mr. J. Gilbert Scott, who leaves next week for the west, sang in a catchy manner, "My Little Girl," and in answer to a recall gave by request that comic selection, "Delaney's Chicken."

Miss Mary Rush was never heard to better advantage than last night. She sang with splendid taste and expression "Flight of Ages," and when encored contributed "Time will bring you Rose.," in a pleasing manner. Her Irish selection, "Come back to Erin," was loudly applauded.

Mr. Gilbert Markle of the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, in his violin number, evidenced a mastery over that instrument which was delightful.

Miss Pearl Lundy, contralto, sang with commendable sweetness and in a well modulated tone "An Irish Love Song," and so delighted her hearers that they demanded another vocal contribution. Miss Lundy gave "Slumber Boat," with splendid effect.

Miss Maud Titterson, a bright young pupil of Miss Heath's, showed rare promise of a bright future in "Hulda 'Spects her Beau." As an encore she gave "Christmas Gifts," in a manner that was highly creditable.

The accompanists of the evening were Mrs. Mrs. P. A. Kerr, and Miss Eva Bradd and they performed their respective tasks faithfully and efficiently.

Women Angrily Aroused
ALL OVER THE DOMINION

Information from various Provinces of Canada points to the fact that many women have been deceived and induced to use the weak and adulterated package dyes put up by unskilled and unscrupulous manufacturers to imitate the popular DIAMOND DYES.

Our Canadian women, thoroughly aroused, after loss of time and money, and valuable materials, through the use of muddy, blotchy and weak dyes, have directly laid the blame for their losses on the retail merchants who sold them the deceptive dyes.

This action of indignant women, has caused many of our retail and wholesale dealers to back up and return to the manufacturers responsible their worthless and dangerous dyes.

Moral — When ladies decide to do home dyeing work it pays to use the celebrated and popular DIAMOND DYES, which have been the home friends of the ladies for over 25 years. When buying see that each package handed to you bears the words DIAMOND PACKAGE DYES. Users of DIAMOND DYES soon become experts in the fascinating work of home colouring and find that a ten cent package will renew the life of any faded and dingy suit, dress, skirt, blouse, jacket, cape or husband's or son's coat, vest or trousers. Allow no dealer to offer you the something he calls "JUST AS GOOD." No other dyes equal the DIAMOND DYES.

Send your name and address to Wells and Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, P.Q., and you will receive free of cost a new Dye Book, Card of Cloth, Dyed Samples and Booklet in verse entitled "The Longjohn's Trip to the Klondike."

Peterborough Represented

Miss M. A. Hamilton, B.A., of this city, who is attending the Normal School, at Hamilton, was, last week, selected as a delegate to the Students Volunteer Convention now in session Via Nashville, Tenn. The Canadian delegates number nearly 200, and it is complimentary to Peterborough as well as to the young lady herself, that she has been privileged to take part in this important gathering. Miss Hamilton, in a letter to her relatives here, states that the trip to Nashville was delightful, and that bright, balmy spring weather already prevails in that southern city.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

MR. JOLLIFFE'S RECITAL.

The Cobourg World, referring to a recent recital given in that town by R. Norman Jolliffe, says: On Monday evening at a concert given under the auspices of the Musical Committee of the Epworth League, Mr. R. Norman Jolliffe, of Toronto, assisted by proficient local talent, gave a recital that proved a rare treat, and his many friends here prophecy for him a brilliant future. His artistic work was intensely satisfying. He possesses a voice of rich, resonant quality, of splendid compass and timbre. It is flexible and pliant, yet of rich volume, and in view of the artistic progress that he has already made it is safe to predict that Mr. Jolliffe will eventually reach the high levels of vocalism and rank as one of our great Canadian singers. His singing throughout was a rare and rich treat, and he will be accorded a most hearty welcome should he again return to Cobourg, which we hope he may, and at an early date.

Trustees Gave Church Free

Mr. Millner Replies to "Listener" In Reference to Church.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Sir,—My attention has been drawn to a little letter in Thursday evening's paper signed by "Listener", in which the writer makes complimentary remarks about my organ recital. I thank him for his appreciative words, but the writer leaves the impression that I have not been dealt with kindly by the George Street Methodist Church.

I cannot let this impression go abroad as it is far from the fact, for I have received only kindness from them. Listener says he "heard" the Trustees charged me $10 for the use of the church. This I am told, is usual, and is the actual cost for heat, light etc., in winter, but in my case they cheerfully gave it to me free and gave me the full benefit of the recital.

The church was not cold, but so well heated that ladies took off their outer wraps.

I take this opportunity of publicly acknowledging my obligation to the Trustees and to the people who so kindly came out to my recital.

I am, sir,

Your obedient servant,

CHAS. E. MILLNER.

Missouri Town Swept By a Great Cyclone

Meridian City, Miss., Scene of Desolation and Ruin.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY DIE

Fire Broke Out In the Ruins and Rescuers Search the Piled Up Debris With Candles—Cyclone Did Severe Damage to Other Places Adjacent to Meridian—Wires Are Down and Communications Cut Off.

Mobile, Ala., March 3.—A long distance telephone message to The Item, from Meridian, Miss., says a cyclone, accompanied by heavy rain, struck that city last evening at 6.30 o'clock. The storm centre was in the southern portion of the city, and particularly heavy along Front street, one of the principal streets of the town.

Nearly every house on Front street is reported to have been demolished. The Armour packing plant, from which this message was received by long distance telephone, is the only building left standing, and the roof of this is gone. Fire broke out in the ruins, and the rescuers are working by candle light. The city is in total darkness, the lighting plants being put out of business

Cut Off Communications.

The cyclone did severe damage at other points adjacent to Meridian, and all trains entering Meridian are delayed indefinitely. The Western Union Telegraph Co. reported having lost fifteen miles of wire, and the Postal Telegraph Co. also suffered great damage.

The wires are down between Atlanta, Birmingham, Memphis and other points, and it is impossible to secure communication with the stricken city.

150 Dead.

A private long distance message received at 9.30 p. m., says the fire is raging in the devastated district. The work of rescuers is going bravely on, but owing to all lights being out, lanterns and candles are being used, and the work is necessarily slow.

It is thought that 150 bodies are in the wreckage.

77 Miles an Hour.

A long distance message from J. D. Breaux, serviceman of the Cumberland Telephone Co. at Meridian, Miss., gives these details of the cyclone: During a heavy rain storm at 6.40 o'clock, a storm cloud developed in the south and moved quickly over the city, striking Front street, the business centre, with full force. The wind was probably blowing 77 miles an hour. The cyclone passed over in about two minutes, and during that period three or four whole squares were devastated. A conservative estimate places the number of buildings down at between 30,000 and 40,000.

Meridian has a population of about 15,000. It is 96 miles east of Jackson and its industries include railway repair shops, cotton, furniture, fertilizer and sash factories, packing plant, foundries and machine shops.

Heavy Loss of Life.

Birmingham, Ala., March 3.—A report received at the local office of the Postal Telegraph Co. said the loss of life in the disaster at Meridian is very heavy.

Tariff Bill Refused.

Washington, March 3.—The Senate committee on the Philippines yesterday refused to report the Philippine tariff bill. This effectually disposes of the measure.

Kent County Fall Wheat.

Chatham, March 3.—Reports from various parts of Kent County indicate that the wheat crop this season will be the heaviest for many years.

Mr. McNaught Would Stop The Treating System

Day Devoted Principally to Answering Members' Queries.

THE INSURANCE INQUIRY

Premier Whitney's Replies to Mr. McDougall's Question—Hon. Mr. Cochrane Admits Government Sold Timber Plot Without Advertisement of Intention to Sell—Railways and Forest Fires.

Toronto, March 3.—"The Government has no knowledge except from the newspapers that a commission will be appointed by the Dominion Government to investigate insurance and, therefore, we can give no answer," said Premier Whitney in replying to Mr. McDougall's query in the Legislature yesterday, as to whether the Government intended to be represented before the commission appointed by the Dominion Government.

"At present it is impossible to say, but the matter will be carefully considered," was the Premier's rejoinder re. the further question as to whether the Government proposed to take any independent action to investigate insurance.

Preserve the Falls.

The Ontario Government has under its serious consideration the matter of taking steps to preserve Niagara Falls, was the Premier reply to a question of Mr. Preston of Brant. No representations had been made to the Dominion Government regarding possible injury to Niagara Falls through the development of electric energy there, nor had any suggestion come from Ottawa of international action to guard against such injury.

Hon. Mr. Cochrane replied to another question of Mr. McDougall, asking if any action was being taken as to mining rights in the right of way of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway that the Government had conveyed to the Temiskaming Commission the minerals under the right of way of the road.

License Law in Ottawa.

Mr. Hanna supplied Mr. May with the information that no complaints against Ottawa's inspector or license commissioner had been received, but complaints had come to the department that the law was being violated in Ottawa. A special officer had been sent there on receipt of the complaints.

Mr. Cochrane told Mr. McDougall that L. Laughrin had acted as chief fireranger in Temagami Park, by the season, the appointment not having been permanent. He wasn't employed last year, and there was nothing to investigate. W. H. Evans was appointed last season, but the position was at present unfilled, and would be till the fire ranging season began.

Also to Mr. McDougall's question, the Minister stated that some pine timber of the old town plot of Rolph had been sold to Finlay Watts of North Renfrew. It was estimated by the Government rangers at 250,000 feet board measure, and the price to be paid was $3.25 per 1,000 feet for whatever quantity might be cut. This was done under an order-in-council on Dec. 29, 1905, without advertisement of intention to sell.

Gave Verbal Rtport.

For the satisfaction of Mr. Gamey the Attorney-General stated that Aemilius Irving had given a verbal report to the then Attorney-General on June 12, 1903, respecting his investigation into irregularities in North Grey polling booths in the election of May, 1902.

Mr. Gamey: Considering the report was verbal, could we have a report made to the House?

Mr. Whitney: It would require a man having stronger confidence in his own powers than I to do that, but we might endeavor to do so.

Mr. Thompson of Centre Simcoe introduced a bill to amend the Municipal Act.

Forest Fires.

Hon. Frank Cochrane introduced a bill to amend the act to preserve forests from destruction by fire. It provides that during the construction of a railway through any public forest the Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines may appoint as many fire rangers as he may see fit to enforce the act along and adjacent to the line, the railway companies to pay the expenses.

The second reading of Mr. Crawford's bill to relieve towns and cities of the burden of having to pay 80 per cent. of the cost of maintaining pupils attending high schools in municipalities adjoining was deferred. Hon. Dr. Pyne saying that there were a number of other bills dealing with the matter.

Mr. Ross wanted information as to the date when the hydro-power and university commissions might be expected to report. The Premier said that no date could be fixed yet. The commissioners themselves were not in a position to be specific.

Hotel Accommodation.

A deputation representing the London and Toronto Commercial Travelers' Association waited on Provincial Secretary Hanna yesterday and asked for an amendment to the Local Option Act looking to the improvement of hotel accommodation in local option municipalities. They want a provision inserted that wherever and whenever a local option bylaw is passed the municipality enacting it must provide accommodation for the traveling public. The travelers also wish to have Government inspection of hotel as to their cleanliness, sanitary conditions, food, etc.

Mr. Pense Holds His Seat.

Kingston, March 3.—The time agreed upon by the two political parties in the recent bye-election for filing charges with the purity tribunal has expired. The limit was thirty days. No charges have been filed, and Mr. Pense will retain his seat in the Legislature.

The two new provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta will have 275,000 square miles each.

Four Year Old Child Burned And It May Die

Mrs. Pirnick, His Mother, In Serious Condition.

BURNED WITH BENZINE TORCH

Little Fellow Was Trying to Extinguish the Flames When He Was Enveloped in Fire—His Frantic Mother in Endeavoring to Save Her Child and House Was Seriously Burned—Decorator Dropped a Torch.

Toronto, March 3.—As the result of the ignition of a benzine torch, which had been placed in close proximity to a stove in the home of Noah Pirnick, 71 Huron street, his four-year-old son, Louis, died at Grace Hospital last night at 8 o'clock, and his wife, Annie, is in the same institution in a critical condition.

The torch was being used by decorators engaged in the house. One of the men, seeing that the torch had ignited from the heat of the stove, picked it up, but when some burning liquid fell on his hand, dropped it. The boy also tried to extinguish the fire, but was enveloped in flames.

His mother rushed to his assistance and carried him to the street, screaming for aid. By this time her own clothes had caught fire.

A workman on the street, Dave O'Brien, seemed to be the only person about who had presence of mind, and he immediately discarded his overcoat and threw it about the woman.

Both the victims were hurried across the street to the home of a neighbor who sent for Drs. Moorehouse and Cotton, and also the police ambulance.

By the time Dr. Moorehouse arrived the boy was suffering untold agonies, and his shrieks from pain could be heard a block away. The child had inhaled the flame, his mouth and throat being terribly scorched

Mrs. Pirnick was burned on the arms, face and legs.

An inquest will be held by Dr. McConnell.

The husband, Noah Pirnick, is a country pedlar, and has heard nothing of his misfortune. The fire loss was only $30.

One of the painters, whose hand was burned, gave his name as Shaia Peltman, 152 Centre avenue, and explained at the hospital that the pain of the burn demoralised him and he had hurried away to have his hurt dressed.

Burned by Benzine.

Stratford, March 3.—Wilson Webb and William Pepper, boilermakers, were burned about the face and hands as a result of the explosion of benzine at the G. T. R. car shops. Both will recover.

Woman Seriously Burned.

Mrs. Aramintha Wiley, 353 West King street, while retiring for the night fell to the oor, upsetting a lighted lamp. Her clothes ignited and her breast, arms and lower limbs were badly burned before the flames could be extinguished. She was taken to St. Michael's Hospital. Mrs. Wiley is about 64 years of age.

THE POWDER RESPONDED.

Clerk Blown Over Eighteen Foot Embankment and Will Die.

Ayton, March 3.—It appears that when Wenger's store was wrecked Thursday evening by the explosion of a keg of powder, A. Wagner, one of the clerks, had opened the keg to weigh some out, and after doing so he placed the lid on the keg. Then some grains lying on top of the lid were lit by a match at the suggestion of an onlooker to try some of the powder.

Wagner lit a match, but it did not work on the instant, and they were in the act of applying another when the whole keg exploded.

Wagner, who was frightfully burned, was found lying over the eighteen foot embankment at the rear of the building with his clothes on fire. There is little hope for his recovery. Widmeyer, Votier and Hoemings, the onlookers, are also badly burned about the hands and face.

Drs. Eaton and Brown were hurriedly on the scene and dressed their wounds. The force of the explosion shattered the walls, ceilings, and swept the windows and sashes out of the building. Fire started, but was quickly extinguished with damage to stock by smoke and water estimated at two thousand dollars.

The force of the explosion was felt all through the town.

Smothered in Barn.

Stayner, March 3.—At 10.30 Thursday evening, while Dr. Jakeway was feeding his horse, his lantern exploded, igniting the hay and straw and smothering him in the loft. The body was recovered shortly after, the hands and face being only slightly burned. The barn, which was brick, was damaged to the extent of $250.

Breaks Through Ice.

Kingston, March 3.—A 15-year-old son of Thomas Rush, Simcoe Island, skated into a hole in the ice near that place and was drowned before help could reach him.

Boy is Drowned.

Belleville, March 3.—A drowning accident took place in Strathcona, by which a six-year-old boy named Sidney Hillman lost his life. He was playing on the river, broke through the ice, and the swift current carried him under. The body has not been recovered.

James Irven of the 9th concession of Sidney, 80 years of age, fell down the cellar stairs and received such injuries that he died.

Another Trolley Victim.

Toronto, March 3.—While looking for work yesterday morning James E. Bloor, a laborer, was struck by a Market and Arthur street car at the corner of Bay and Front streets. He was dragged for about 200 feet and was dead when picked up. The body was taken to the morgue awaiting identification. There it lay until about eight o'clock when the wife and his sister identified the body.

Smashed Black Maria.

Montreal, March 3.—A prison van was run down yesterday by a street car while approaching the City Hall, and upset with nine prisoners and three policemen in it. None of the prisoners were hurt, but two of the constables were badly hurt, as also was the driver, while the "Black Maria" was smashed to pieces. None of the prisoners escaped.

12-SCORE FISHING BOATS MISSING

Great Disaster May Have Befallen Norwegian Fleet.

Trondhjem, Norway, March 3.—Of 300 boats which recently went out fishing only 60 have returned, and it is feared that disaster has befallen the others.

A Winnipeg Suicide.

Winnipeg, March 3.—Jas. D. Mawdsley, aged 26 years, only son of James Mawdsley, ex-Mayor of Liverpool, and head of the printing firm of Mawdsley & Co., committed suicide in the lavatory of the Leland Hotel yesterday by shooting. He went through an annuity of £2,500 since the fall of 1904.

Suicide Once Lived in Toronto.

New York, March 3.—Lillian Anna Peabody Williams of Toronto, was found dead in her room yesterday. She had placed a gas tube in her mouth and turned on the deadly vapor. Death came many hours before the body was found. From the records of a marriage found in the room it appeared that Lillian Anna Peabody was married to Morgan Leslie Williams at Toronto on Oct. 7, 1897. At the end of her resources, it is believed the woman chose suicide as the only solution of her difficulties.

TRAVELING INCOGNITO.

King Edward Goes On Tour, Taking Two Months' Holiday.

London, March 3.—King Edward started last night on a two months' holiday in France and the Mediterranean, traveling incognito as Duke of Lancaster, and arriving in Paris Saturday evening.

He will stay at the British embassy until Tuesday, and during his visit to the French capital will see President Falliers, whom he has not yet met. From Paris the King goes to Biarrits, France, and will stay there until the end of March, afterwards joining the royal yacht Victoria and Albert in the Mediterranean, where, it is said, he will meet Emperor William.

During his stay at Biarrits, King Edward will see King Alfonso and discuss the details of the latter's marriage to Princess Ena of Battenberg.

Alfonso and Edward.

Madrid, March 3.—King Alfonso goes to San Sebastian Monday, where, during the week, he will receive King Edward. Later King Alfonso will go to Biarritz to return King Edward's visit.

KEEP UP CATTLE EMBARGO.

Two More British Agricultural Societies on Record Against Removal.

London, March. 3.—(C. A. P.)—At a meeting of the Holderness Agricultural Club at Hull it was moved that English ports be opened to Canadian cattle. Another speaker said the demand for Canadian cattle was confined to graziers. They were not wanted by breeders. He moved in amendment that the restrictions remain. The amendment carried by 39 to 7.

At a meeting of the Cleveland Agriculturists at Gainsborough, a resolution was passed protesting against any relaxation of the restrictions on the importation of Canadian cattle.

TO FEED POOR PUPILS.

Labor Party Successful With First Bill of the Season.

London, March 3.—In the House of Common yesterday the members of the Labor party scored a success with their first bill of the session empowering local educational authorities to provide meals for underfed school children.

The Government, through Augustine Birrell, president of the Board of Education, and John Burns, president of the local Government board, said the Ministers would endeavor to secure the passage of the measure at this session.

Acted in Good Faith.

Woodstock, March 3.—Mrs. John Cook, formerly the wife of Peter Bradt, now of Otterville, who was arrested in a Michigan Central train at Windsor last Thursday, charged with the abduction of her eight-year-old boy, was acquitted by Judge Finkle yesterday morning. His honor held that the woman acted in good faith, believing that she had a right to the child under the decree of divorce, which, however, had not been sufficiently proved, and under the circumstances he could not commit her.

Ex-Banker Walsh Arrested.

Chicago, Ill., March 3.—John R. Walsh, president of the defunct Chicago National Bank, which closed its doors Dec. 19, 1905, yesterday was taken into custody on a federal warrant charging violation of the national banking laws in making false returns to the comptroller of the currency, and asserting that he converted to his own use, without proper authority, bank funds amounting to $2,000,000. He was released in $50,000 bonds.

Oculist to Examine Pilots

Quebec, March 3.—Dr. Page has been appointed chief medical inspector in connection with immigration at this port, and his salary raised to $3,500 per annum. The same physician has been named the Government oculist to examine the eyesight of the Quebec Corporation of Pilots.

Another Adjournment.

Toronto, March 3.—The case of conspiracy against Joseph Phillips, late manager of the York County Loan, will be proceeded with before Magistrate Denison next Thursday, although his worship declared yesterday he would not try, but only investigate, the case.

Red Rose Tea Uniformity

A TEA that is good to-day and poor to-morrow is unreliable.

Have you ever noticed variations in the quality of the tea you use? One package good, the next bitter, herby, perhaps weak and insipid.

A lack of expert knowledge by the tasters and blenders of that tea produced that result. There was a failure at a vital point, an ignorance of combining qualities in teas, poor judgment in the blending of that maker's teas, a weakness which invariably gives just such results as your poor tea.

Every chest of Red Rose Tea is tested at the gardens, again by the Eastern Red Rose shippers, then at the Red Rose warehouse upon its arrival before blending; after that an experimental blend is tested, and the final or actual blend is also tested before being packed.

Nothing is left to chance.

That is why that "rich fruity flavor" is always present in Red Rose Tea.

Why Red Rose Tea is always uniform, why

Red Rose Tea is good Tea

The Adventurers

By H. B. MARRIOTT WATSON

COPYRIGHT, 1898, BY HARPER & BROTHERS

"That is very well indeed," said I, "for a party, numbers unknown, against one man.

"If I have gathered any impression of your character, Mr. Greatorex," ob-

"I give you three minutes to be free of the castle."

served the captain dryly, "during a few days' acquaintance, you will be prompt to destroy that inequality. I put no embargo upon your numbers."

"That is good of you," said I sarcastically.

"Secondly," continued he, unmoved and counting on his fingers, "there is no reason why this campaign should breed ill will. I like you, and off duty there is room for exchange of friendly courtesies."

"You forget," I said sharply, "in what relation I find you. There can be no peace between your profession and mine."

He smiled.

"The incident was an unpleasant necessity," said he airily. "But come, Mr. Greatorex, this attitude of high morals would be very well in you were you the proper heir. But what are we but both upon the same level? Robbers, bandits, what you will, certainly with no great reason for pride, and at least I face the position and would ask you to do the same."

The words of the man completely abashed me. And when I considered, he spoke no more than the truth. He said truly when he described us as upon the same level. We were conspiring each in his way against the laws of the country and risking our liberties in an illegal attempt to steal what the custom of the kingdom had claimed as the spoils of the crown. I will admit that the captain's reasoning confounded me, and I was left staring hopelessly at the situation in a kind of humiliation against which I kicked in vain. Yet I was not for his seeing so much as a wink or a blink in me.

"You must not misunderstand me," said I after a pause in which I digested these reflections. "I put my value on my own situation, and I am willing to agree to these terms, so far, at least, as they consort with my own inclinations. You will not look for a greater consideration than I would bestow upon you apart from this struggle in which we are involved?"

"Why, certainly not!" said he gayly and as one who had gained his point.

"Very well," said I, rising. "And that commits us to very little."

"Then, Mr. Greatorex," said he, "we have concluded, and we know where we stand."

At this I pulled myself up short, and, fetching my watch out of my pocket, I said:

"I know this, Captain Sercombe, that I give you three minutes to be free of the castle and outside the gate. After that time I will take what steps I choose against burglars."

The smile vanished from his face and was succeeded by a nasty frown. "You forget," he said, "that I am here as an invited guest."

"What, in my chamber?" said I hotly. "The devil take your invitation That I reserve for myself!"

He came into the passage. "I believe," said he as amiably as ever, "that I am now within the precincts of my right and within the rights of hospitality."

"As you choose," said I sullenly. "And that being so, I will trouble you to awaken your host from a drunken slumber, concocted I know not how."

"My dear sir," said the captain, laughing now quite cheerfully, "there is no concoction necessary, I assure you. A bottle of whisky or Burgundy to his elbow and my young friend Montgomery asks nothing better. And I trust that you will give me credit for this, that I do not trespass upon another gentleman's cellars."

"No," said I. "You keep sober, I grant you," and stalked somewhat angrily down the stairs.

Montgomery lay where I had left him, but lifted his head upon our entrance, glaring with a stupid and miserable eye upon us.

"Ah," said the captain pleasantly, "my young friend is himself again, or at least wants but a bucket of cold water!" And he clapped him on the back in a friendly fashion.

"You had better take him away," said I curtly, but at that remark and after glancing from one to the other the boy's eyes rested upon my face with a look of consternation, and suddenly he buried his face in his arms with a sort of sob.

"Faith, I am in the way here," said the captain merrily, and without more ado he shuffled out of the house, leaving me alone with the wretched youth.

I stood for a time regarding him with indifference, but presently another mood overtook me. He was honest and leal, I could swear, but he was an arrant fool and had a very sorry vice.

"Montgomery," said I, "you have been guilty of a grave breach of faith. But so far we are not the losers by it, and I think if you will take the advice of your friend, the captain, we shall be in a better condition to discuss this presently."

He took the hint, turned from me a blotchy face of shame and hurried with little dignity from the room. It was half an hour ere he returned and presented me an air of determination which I could guess had been assumed with difficulty. It was then that, without referring to his own conduct, I explained in a general way the harm he had done me.

"You have said hard words to me, Mr. Greatorex," he said, "none the less hard because they are true."

I appreciated the struggle which had been contested in the silly head.

"As it turned out, you have done me less mischief than you think," I replied.

"That is no excuse," he retorted hotly. "I have acted like a cad, but I will ask you to believe that I have the best will in the world to be your friend."

"You could be a very good friend to me," I answered, "if you would obey orders. A good soldier, Montgomery, has a scrupulous conscience while on duty. Outside that he may be what he will."

"I have done what I would all my life," he said moodily. "And I am all the worse for it."

"That is very likely," said I dryly. "But now you have the chance to amend."

He looked up eagerly. "Do you give me another chance?" he asked earnestly. "Mr. Greatorex, I will ask no questions. I don't pretend to understand the position. But you are free to use me."

"I am going to trust you," I answered him, "and in proof of my resolve I will leave you in charge here tomorrow."

An expression of satisfaction lit up his features.

"You will not regret it," he said. "And as for that scoundrel Sercombe"—he paused, with a savage look of dislike—"I will catch him and break his bottles over his head."

CHAPTER VII.

I HAD already resolved that it would be folly to depend upon Montgomery alone. Now that he was aroused and upon his guard I had no doubt of his constancy for a few days. But there was no saying how soon he might relapse. And in any case I needed a wiser head than his to oppose the cunning of the enemy, not to say that we should welcome two more strong arms should it come to the fact of war. That the captain and his friends, whoever they were, were in deep earnest and would stick at little I was by this time fully convinced. It was very plain that we were none of us in a position to demand assistance from the law. We were adventurers all, and now that I had had time to face the thought I confessed it with out a blush, resolved, if anything, that it was a virtuous action to baffle such a pack of hardened scoundrels. But several duties importuned me greatly—of which one was to determine how far this plot had run and the particulars and persons of our enemies. Sercombe himself was one, and I had no doubt that he was co-operating cordially with Hood, that sleek and impassive scamp. Questions upon Barnett also flickered in my mind, and for the rest I must keep my senses brisk and my wits awake.

But the most instant task lay before me that morning and had been decided ere I went to bed the previous evening I must have Sheppard or Rogers to help me against these odds, and that forthright. Here again I was confronted with a third necessity and luckily saw a means to conjoin both These rascals were after my piece of parchment, without which their own fragment was useless. I must dispose of this at once and get rid of so much peril at the least. It was true that I might possibly drag Sheppard down by the telegraph, but then again this was most uncertain in a man of his temperament. He would want the persuasion of a sudden impulse and above all a stirring narrative to thrill his pulses such as might be presented to him in a personal interview.

Moreover, if I went to London my paper should go with me. And what was easier than to persuade Sheppard and secure my document at one throw? These considerations pointed to a journey to town, and that I must take at once and before either Montgomery's ardor had failed or the enemy had prepared a blow. I reckoned upon an interval of time after the recent exchanges between myself and the captain. What quickened my intentions was an incident which occurred shortly after breakfast and while I was still debating the dangers of the situation. I went to my room at 11 and began to pack a valise methodically in the manner of a man who has all his life been used to his own labors. The last and the most important particular in this work was to put up my writing case securely. To make sure of my precious paper I unlocked the case and took out the sheet. I was upon the point of replacing it when I suddenly decided to put it in my pocket, which accomplished I buttoned my coat tightly.

At this moment I heard the noise of a snapping bough and hastily looked forth by the window. The lowermost branch of a sycamore that stood upon the edge of the moat hung swinging in the air and showing a great gap of naked white wood. I sprang up, put my head out of the window and could just catch a sight of some one vanishing round the corner of the building. This news of the enemy came very sharply upon me, and without stopping to complete my packing I ran out of the door and took the stairs three steps at a time. But no stranger was visible when I emerged upon the park, and I was driven back upon Mrs. Main. Here I had a clew, for certainly a stranger had come up to the castle by the gates half an hour before; but, according to the housekeeper, no mystery enveloped him. He had rung manfully at the bell and demanded Mr. Williams, and had been sent on to the farm buildings by Mrs. Main herself, who had overseen his interview with the housemaid.

"What was this man like?" I asked.

"He was a short, dark young fellow, sir," said she, "and something odd about him." But what that oddness was she could not tell, and completed the picture by ascribing to him "a squint and somethink funny-like in his walk," adding again and with a sudden elation, "Like what a sailor might be."

I strode off to find Williams at the stables. The stranger had been there. Of that there was no question. Williams, a sharp, undersized and black avised Welshman, with a passion of sentiment in his meager body, confirmed the description given by Mrs. Main. The man had inquired if there was any chance of a job, but seemed (so thought Williams) inconsiderably concerned as to whether there was or was not. He added that the intruder was a foreigner, but to this statement I paid no attention, as to the Welsh and indeed to all country people the word implies little more than stranger. It was plain, however, that the fellow was my arboreal spy, and that was all I wanted, as, in fact, it was more than enough. I admit that I was disconcerted, but the more resolute to go forward with my London expedition. I have said that I reckoned upon an interval of truce. My ideas were destined to a rude subversal.

It was upon 3 when I started to ride into Raymond, for upon second thought I decided to leave my valise behind and put up with the provision of my own chambers in the Temple. As I reached the Woodman the thin figure of Hood was discernible smoking in front of his door. From the distance I saw that he was talking with a companion, but when I drew level with the inn the second man had disappeared. Hood straightened himself on the sight of me, took his pipe from his mouth and touched his hat with his habitual respectfulness. I had been wondering how the man would demean himself, aware as I was of his connection in some way with the plot against me. But not a trace of discomfort or confusion showed in his face, which was as grave as ever. He was clothed in a suit of very dark tweed, his brown face, cut very clean and without an ounce of waste flesh, cool as a statue's, the thin smoke rising from the pipe which he held behind his back. If a valet could wear this face of indifference, why, certainly so could I, and, to make a point better than himself, I pulled in the nag and addressed him.

"Captain Sercombe in?" I asked as if in the most cordial manner.

"No, sir," replied Hood. "He's fishing, sir, I believe, down the valley."

"Have you received your legacy yet?" I asked.

"Yes, sir; thank you, sir," said Hood. "Very acceptable, sir, from my poor master."

"I wonder what made him leave you that?" I asked.

"I have wondered myself, sir," he said. "But he was a kind master, and he seems to have been pretty eccentric, as you might say, in his manner of leaving."

"Look here, my man," said I, "what were you doing that Tuesday afternoon by the stream yonder when your master met with his accident?"

Hood's luminous eyes rested on mine for an instant, but he never moved a muscle. "I was with my poor master," he said.

I laughed. "Assisting him no doubt." I said dryly.

"No, sir; struggling with him," came the answer, pat as you please. I stared at him in amazement at the effrontery of the admission.

"Upon my soul," said I, "I am not sure but I ought to give you in charge! You admit you were robbing your master."

"No, sir," said Hood quietly. "You came too soon, sir."

I shook my reins with an oath. I could make nothing of the fellow. Hood stepped back as the horse shied.

"Thank you, sir; good afternoon, sir," said he civilly, and I struck my whip into the flanks of the animal and rode off without so much as a nod.

I was utterly confounded by this genteel, civil spoken scoundrel, with his impassive audacity. It began to dawn upon me now in what relations these men had stood. The legacy I attributed, as no doubt did the recipient, to a piece of eccentricity on Kesteven's part. But I had more than an inkling now of the plan of treatment which he had adopted. Hood knew too much, and he was bound to keep up appearances with him. Kesteven had a good idea of the danger with which he was threatened, had probably discharged the man with that knowledge, and yet up to the close he must needs keep his secret by a feint of his former kindly relations. I remarked several occasions upon which Hood had made an appearance in our conversation, and I now recognized the way in which his name was treated.

I rode into the reach of forest beyond Llanellan and presently came out upon a more open spot, where the trees hemmed in a piece of ground tufted with bush and bracken. At a turn of the road beyond me I saw a figure, seemingly that of a clergyman, walking to meet me. As I made this mental observation and without a note of warning there came the crack of a gun, and a bullet plowed a ridge in the grass before the horse's belly. The beast reared and came down upon his haunches, nearly throwing me, and I was aware that the man in front was running toward me, shouting. As I steadied the horse my eyes went in another direction and lit upon Sercombe stalking easily toward me, with a gun upon his arm. The two men came up to me about the same time.

"I hope there is no accident," gasped the clergyman. Sercombe put out his hand.

"Good afternoon, Mr. Morgan," said he. "How do you do, Greatorex?" he continued coolly. "No, I am glad to say there's no harm done, is there, Greatorex? But it's all my fault. This infernal undergrowth diverted the shot. I hope it did not scare you too much?" he asked, smiling at me.

I was too much astounded and far too indignant for words. "I thought I'd got the hare all right," he resumed amiably to the clergyman. "Lucky for you, Greatorex, as well as for me." And then turning to me, "Do you know Mr. Morgan, the vicar of Llanellan? My friend, Mr. Greatorex, you know—lately succeeded to the castle yonder. A fine property. I envy him."

CATARRH

The true Cause and the true Cure.

How and why "Fruit-a-tives" completely eradicate this disease from the system.

Catarrh means inflammation. Ordinary catarrh is inflammation of the nose cavity opening into the throat. This cavity receives all the air going to and from the lungs. Food and drink passes through it to the stomach. And the prime cause of catarrh is indigestion.

Because indigestion means an irritated stomach. This irritation spreads to the throat and nose. Belching gas keeps up the inflammation. The blood is impure and badly nourished. And nine times in ten, there is Constipation and poor skin action.

The only way to cure Catarrh is to cure the cause of catarrh. Digestion must be improved — inflammation in stomach soothed—blood purified—and the liver strengthened so it will give up enough bile to make the bowels move regularly every day.

Fruit-a-tives or Fruit Liver Tablets will always cure Catarrh of the throat and nose because these marvellous fruit tablets cure indigestion—sweeten the stomach—and eradicate all impurities from the blood by its stimulating and invigorating action on liver, bowels, kidneys and skin.

Leave sprays, atomisers, powders and snuffs alone. Take "Fruit-a-tives" regularly—be careful of your diet—and catarrh will soon be a thing of the past.

One 50c. box of "Fruit-a-tives" will prove how effectively these tablets relieve catarrh—and will do you so much good that you will gladly continue the treatment until cured.

50c. a box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Sent prepaid on receipt of price, if your druggist should not have them.

That pain in the Back is Kidney Trouble

GIN PILLS WILL CURE IT

A strain or severe cold, or a dozen other causes may have started it—but the Kidneys are at the bottom of it. Backache (especially in the "small" of the back) means Kidney Disease. Plasters and liniments give some relief but they never cure. Lots of people with swollen hands and feet, are treating themselves for rheumatism, when, in fact, their sick kidneys are causing the pain and swelling. GIN PILLS cure that pain in the Back every time, because they cure the Kidneys.

OTTAWA, March 17th, 1905.

I had the honor of being appointed assistant artist to the chief artist of London "Black and White" to accompany him three years ago to China to help him get pictures of the Boxer Uprising. That is a hard country on the kidneys. I came back very much troubled, and have been so ever since. My attention was called to Gin Pills. I have taken two boxes, and can positively say that I have never felt better in my life.

H. MANLEY.

If you have tried plasters, liniments and doctors, save your money and try GIN PILLS, FREE. Write us your name and address, and in what paper you saw this offer, and we will send you a free sample box of GIN PILLS. These famous Pills for Sick Kidneys are sold by all druggists at 50c a box, or 5 boxes for $2.50.

Enormous Activity In Railway Building

Armies of Men and Vast Sums of Money Employed in Canada This Year.

At least 2,000 miles of railway will be tracked or graded in Canada during the year 1906. This will be almost double the amount that has been laid in any previous year, and means that all the big railway companies, the Grand Trunk Pacific, the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian Northern, have most important plans. Almost all the largest railway construction companies in the United States, more especially those that have been identified with the Great Northern Railway and the Northern Pacific Railway, will be directly or indirectly interested in some portions of the new lines, and by the plans made by different railways, it is evident that not a single day will be lost.

Grand Trunk Pacific Plans.

The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company, with its heart set on getting a line through to the Pacific Coast, will naturally be the largest builders of new railway lines. Their plans call for the construction of almost 1,000 miles of road. Already contracts have been awarded for two sections, one 210 miles long, from Fort William to the junction of the transcontinental line, that is to be built by the Government, and another 250 miles long from Portage la Prairie, in a northwesterly direction, towards Touch Wood Hills. On the 22nd of this month tenders were opened for another section 550 miles in length, which will be a continuation of the Portage la Prairie section on towards Edmonton.

Almost 1,000 miles in a year by only one company! At first sight the thing looks like an impossibility, but a leading official of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway stated to The Herald that, as a result of the various big machines that had been invented, they had every reason to expect it would be accomplished.

And then, there is the tremendous number of men that will be required if the work is to be completed. The official of the company, who is close to General Manager Morse, said the statement that between 4,000 and 5,000 men would be employed by the different construction companies at work on the proposed G.T.P. lines would be a conservative one.

In anticipation of the work the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway has $25,000,000 to its credit in the Bank of Montreal, while Mr. C. M. Hays, the president of the company, who has just reached London, will complete arrangements for a further issue of bonds, by which all necessary money will be on deposit in Canadian banks when it is needed next fall.

C.P.R. Very Active.

The Canadian Pacific Railway, notwithstanding the fact that it has over 9,500 miles of its own lines, and with its two subsidiary companies the Soo Railway and Duluth South Shore and Atlantic, over 11,000 miles, will lay between 400 and 500 miles of new lines during the coming year.

The three most important branches on which track will be laid are the Toronto and Sudbury line, the Guelph and Goderich line, and the second track which the company intends having all the way from Fort William to Winnipeg. In addition to these, an addition is to be made to various lines throughout the prairie section of the West, and of which the company says as little as possible until they are practically completed. How fast the company is pushing its construction work may be gathered from the fact that at the present time the contractors have over 2,000 men at work on the Toronto and Sudbury line, and General Manager McNicholl is hopeful of having it in operation by the beginning of the month of September next. Owing to the particular nature of the country, it has been found that a great deal more work could be accomplished during the winter months in the way of grading. Owing to the very large number of bridges, it has been necessary to build, this section line has been a very expensive one, and when completed will have cost the company closer to $3,000,000, or over $30,000 a mile.

The slogan in C. P.R. regarding the Guelph and Goderich line is get to Goderich as fast as you can. The company is devoting special attention to the securing of new business throughout the Province of Ontario, aiming apparently at paying back the Grand Trunk Railway in full for invading what was almost regarded as C.P.R. exclusive territory in the West.

In the West, the most important work by the company will be the laying of the double track from Winnipeg to the head of the lakes, with a view of finally doing away with grain blockades, like the Toronto-Sudbury line. This section, while somewhat less than 500 miles, will also be a particularly expensive one, owing to the very large amount of blasting that will have to be done. Further west a great deal of work will be done in the way of grading on the proposed new line the C.P.R. intends to have from Winnipeg to Edmonton, but it is not expected that any track will be laid on this important branch till the following year. Almost the entire Calgary and Edmonton line will be relaid with heavier rails.

A leading official of the Canadian Pacific Railway, discussing the plan which the company would carry out during the year 1906, said it would result in the expenditure of close to $25,000,000 for the construction of new lines and securing equipment for them.

The Canadian Northern.

In the West, just as much activity exists on the lines of the Canadian Northern as in the East. The James Bay extension will be finished by the first of June, and communication for passengers between that place and Parry Sound will then be open. Amongst the more important things the Mackenzie and Mann interests have in contemplation is work on the line west of Edmonton. Large delegations have recently waited on the Premier of Manitoba and asked for extensive branch line work, and he has promised that they shall be built during the coming year. Construction work on the Hudson's Bay line may also be commenced. Both in Alberta and Saskatchewan branch lines are on the way.

In the Province of Quebec a new line on the Great Northern Railway will be built by Mackenzie and Mann from Shawinigan to Quebec, while a considerable amount of work will also be done on the new line in Nova Scotia. Communication is to be established between Halifax and Yarmouth this year.

With so much railway construction work in sight, it means that the steel rail mills at the Soo and at Sydney will be run to their fullest capacity, while the Canada Car Company, the Locomotive and Machine Company, the Canadian Locomotive Works, and the Simplex Railway Appliance Company claim they have more business on hand for the various lines than they can possibly fill within the year.

WOMEN FROM ALL PARTS OF CANADA

GAIN NEW LIFE AND STRENGTH THROUGH THE USE OF PSYCHINE.

Every day, in fact every mail, tells of the splendid help Psychine is giving to suffering women everywhere. By strengthening the blood making organs, helping the stomach and clearing out any tendency to throat, chest and lung troubles, it is giving a new lease of life to thousands of Canadian women who have not known for years what it means to be really well. Listen to what some of them say:

MRS. ANDREW CAMPBELL, Coltonwood, N.W.T.

"I caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs and gradually led to consumption. I could not sleep, was subject to night sweats, my lungs were so diseased my doctor considered me incurable. Rev. Mr. Mahaffy, of Port Elgin, Ont., Presbyterian Church, recommended Psychine, and I started to use it, with the result that the night sweats and cough ceased. I am now perfectly restored to health. Psychine has been a god-send to me."

MISS ETHEL M. WOOD, Brownsville, Ont.

"Two years ago I was going into a decline. I could hardly drag myself across the floor. My father got me to use Psychine, and people soon began to remark my improvement. I am now full of life, while a few months ago I could not struggle to church, 40 rods from my home. Psychine did it."

MRS. GEO. VOGART, Gananoque, Ont.

"I cannot speak too highly of Psychine. I was feeling nervous, trembling and run down, and had a bad cough. Psychine helped me more than anything I ever tried, and I give it all the praise."

MRS. D. McKINNON, Ingonish, C. B.

"La Grippe left my lungs and whole system weak. After dragging along and growing steadily worse on other treatments, I tried Psychine, and found a complete cure."

MRS. E. V. BLAISDELL, Arnprior, Ont.

"I had felt miserable for a long time, had no appetite, couldn't get any sleep, and was unable to work or enjoy life. People said I was so old my constitution was breaking up, but by using Psychine I have proved this false. I am now well, and have been for the past five or six years."

These are only a few of the many, only a small part of the great volume of proof that Psychine is the greatest builder-up, tonic and germ killer of the age. It is doing a great work for the women of Canada. It cures consumption and all those conditions that lead to consumption. Psychine is 50c Per Bottle, Large size $1.00 and $2.00 Per Bottle, at all druggists.

Prevention Is The Surest WAY TO STAY WORK Of The White Plague

Prophylectic Measures Preferableto a Mitigatory or Curative Treatment—To Prevent a Preventible Evil, Better Than Trying to Cure The Incurable.

G. E. Marshall, M.D., Hunter-st. east, has placed at the disposal of The Examiner the following paper dealing with the importance and effectiveness of preventive measures to minimize, if not destroy, the danger of tubercular infection, and thus lessen the terrible mortality from consumption, which has, with terrible aptness, been termed the "White Plague." When one reflects that a number nearly, if not quite, equal to one-third of the population of Peterborough die in Canada every year from consumption, the importance of considering every means possible of dealing with the disease with a view to reducing the sad death rate it compiles, cannot be over-estimated. If, in dealing with sociological questions the principle that prevention is better than attempts to cure, is employed, than in dealing with the disease mention, it is plain that prevention of what is preventible, is likely to be infinitely more effective and inexpensive, than attempts to cure what so stubbornly and successfully resists cure. Therefore Dr. Marshall's paper, as given below on the Prevention of Tuberculosis

will be read with interest, and, if read heedfully, with profit.:

Tuberculosis, phthisis pulmonalis or consumption, is now recognized as a transmissible disease to which some individuals are more susceptible than others. This disease was well known to the ancients, and Hippocrates, "the father of scientific medicine," recognized its contagiousness. In the middle ages, 1550, A.D., Montano declared consumption to be one of the most dangerously contagious and most easily contracted of diseases. In Naples a royal decree, dated Sept. 20, 1782, ordered the isolation of consumptives, and the disinfection of their apartments, personal effects, furniture, etc., by means of vinegar, brandy, lemon juice, sea water or fumigation, and any infraction of this order was punished by a fine, imprisonment, or both. From this date little attention was paid to the infectiousness of tuberculosis till 1865, when Villamil, the celebrated French physician, demonstrated beyond a doubt that it could be transmitted from one individual to another. In 1882, Robert Koch discovered the specific germ—"bacillus tuberculosis"—without which there can be no consumption. This germ is a minute vegetable organism, only visible under a high power microscope and after certain colouring reagents have been applied to it. The parasite not only destroys the lung substance through ulcerative processes, but produces certain poisonous substances called toxins, which give rise to various and often serious symptoms.

Some idea of the prevalence of this terrible "white plague" may be formed when we consider that each year, the world yields up 1,095,000, each day 3,000 and each minute two of its people, as a sacrifice to this dread disease. Of the 6,000,000 people now in Canada, more than 750,000 must inevitably die from consumption if the present ratio is kept up. In the Province of Ontario alone over 2,000 die annually from this disease, besides a great many more that are never reported. Again this disease does not select the old and decrepit as its victims, but in nine cases out of ten it is young men and women in the first blush of adolescence.

Symptoms.

The important symptoms of consumption are cough, expectoration, fever—especially in the evening hours—difficulty in breathing, pains in the chest, night sweats, loss of appetite, hemorrhages and emaciation. There are three methods whereby the germ may enter the system, namely, by inhalation, ingestion and inoculation.

Let us consider the first method of propagation of tuberculosis. A consumptive patient may expectorate enormous numbers of bacilli, and by careful observers it has been estimated in some individuals to be 7,000,000,000 per day.

Now, if this enormous number of bacilli is deposited here and there, and allowed to dry, the least motion of the air may cause them to mingle with the dust of the atmosphere, and the individual inhaling them will be very apt to contract the disease, if the condition of the lungs offers a favourable soil for the growth of the bacillus.

Besides the danger from carelessly deposited sputum, the inhalation of small particles of saliva which may be expelled by the consumptive during coughing or sneezing, may lead to infection with the disease.

The second most frequent method of contracting the disease is through the ingestion of the bacilli with the food we eat.

The third, and least frequent method is by direct contagion of the bacilli through the skin.

Measures of Prevention.

We shall now suggest a means of preventing the first method of disseminating the bacillus. A patient suffering from pulmonary consumption should know that his expectoration may spread the germ if the matter expectorated is not rendered innocuous before it has a chance to dry, and become pulverized. The patient should therefore always spit into some receptacle intended for that purpose. It is best to have the vessel made of metal, so it will not break. It should be half filled with water or some disinfecting fluid, the main thing being to make it impossible for the expectoration to dry.

In schools, factories, stores, railway cars, waiting rooms, court rooms, restaurants, in short, wherever many people congregate, there should be a sufficient number of cuspidors, well kept, and regularly cleaned. They should be made of unbreakable material, and have wide openings. If such measures are carried out there will be no excuse for anyone to expectorate on the floor, and thus endanger the health of his fellowmen. When out of doors the patient should use a pocket flask of metal, glass or strong pasteboard. A handkerchief should never be used as a receptacle for sputum. Patients who are too sick to make use of porcelain or aluminum cups, should have a number of moist rags within easy reach, and these should be burned before they have time to dry.

All soiled linens used by the consumptive should not be handled more than necessary, but should be placed in water as soon as possible after removal from the bed or body. It is better to wash these articles separately, and only after being thoroughly boiled should they be put with the common laundry.

Danger of Infection.

Concerning the danger from infection through tuberculous food, I would say that whenever one is not reasonably certain that the meat he eats is not free from disease germs it should be thoroughly cooked. Our milk supply may be good in Peterborough, but there is nothing to prevent its being very bad, as from what I can learn, neither the cows furnishing the milk, nor the barns where they are housed, are subject to any inspection.

Milk delivered at a cheese factory or creamery, is only worth about two cents a quart, yet we, who pay six cents a quart, must put up with whatever kind of milk the dairyman sees fit to deliver. Now it seems to me that a portion of the license fee paid by the milk men might very profitably be devoted to paying a good veterinary as an inspector, not only of the quality of the milk but the health of the animals from which the milk is got, the condition of the barns, etc.

As to whether tuberculosis is transmitted from cows to man, it is still a disputed question, but, till we get absolute proof that it is not transmissable let us be on the safe side and drink no milk from tubercular cows or cows suffering from a disease of any kind.

A Pertinent Inquiry.

Realizing the enormous mortality from tuberculosis, its cause, "the tubercle bacillus," and its infectiousness, how are we going to stop its ravages? Shall we build a free hospital for consumptives in each county, and place all the patients in together, where each man will be surrounded by not only his own microbes but millions of those belonging to his fellow sufferers.

It is clear to me that while Sanitoria are good in their place as a means of educating consumptives how to live so as not to re-infect themselves, or expose others to dangers, unfortunately for the public at large, they are too expensive in the first place, and in the second place, the great majority of patients are beyond recovery before they enter such an institution, and have possibly infected a dozen healthy individuals before they are educated to the use of moist rags, disinfectants, spitting bottles, etc.

Begin at the Beginning.

In order to restrict this disease we must begin at the beginning and educate the public, not only those who are afflicted, but those who are well. They must be taught that consumption is caused by a germ, and that this germ is found chiefly in the sputum of consumptive patients; that when this sputum becomes dry the germs mingle with the dust of the atmosphere and are inhaled by healthy individuals, and other victims are added to the list. Teach them that it is dangerous to spit on the street or any place where it will become dry. Teach the public the use of disinfectants, such as boiling water, five per cent. solutions of carbolic acid, etc.

Having shown the need of education in regard to tuberculosis, how are we going to do it? It is the duty of every physician when he is called to see a suspected case of consumption, to give a nice plain talk to those in attendance, on the dangers to those who are exposed to the infection. Every clergyman, teacher, lawyer, or person who is able to either write or talk, should use his influence to disseminate a knowledge of this dread disease. The press is open to everyone, and they are only too glad to publish anything that will benefit the public. The Provincial Board of Health should publish literature and send a copy to the head of every house in the Province. The cost of this would be trifling compared to what it costs for consumptive hospitals, and the benefits proportionately great. If, by such measures, we can reduce the number of cases five per cent. per annum we would be doing a great work, and I see no reason why it can not be done.

A Few Rules.

In conclusion, I shall give you a few rules that may be applied every day in the week.

Do not eat meat that is tainted in any way, or that came from an animal afflicted with tuberculosis, lump jaw, or any other disease.

Do not drink milk unless you have good assurance that the dairyman is all right, and that his cows are healthy, and their food and surroundings sanitary.

Inspect every can of vegetables, meats, etc., as soon as opened, and if they look or smell suspicious, burn them.

Do not spit except in a spitoon or damp cloth used for that purpose, and on your return home have the cloth burned.

Do not put your fingers in your mouth.

Do not wet your fingers in your mouth when turning the leaves of a book.

Do not (wot lead pencils in the mouth.

Do not put anything in your mouth except food or drink.

Do not swap apple cores, candy, chewing gum, or anything that is put in the mouth.

Peel or wash fruit before eating it.

Never cough or sneeze in another's face.

Wash hands with soap and water before eating.

Keep your houses clean and light, and remember that fresh air and sunlight are the best disinfectants available, and they are within the reach of everybody.

The British export tax on coal is apparently slated for removal in the Chancellor of the Exchequer's forthcoming budget. Mr. Asquith informed a deputation that while he declined to make any declaration in regard to taxation, until he presented the budget, he considered the coal tax to be vicious and unnecessarily injurious to an important industry, adding that when an opportunity offered the members of the deputation would find him anxious to remove it.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

is better than other Soaps but is best when used in the Sunlight way. Follow directions.

SUNLIGHT
WAY OF WASHING

FIRST.—Dip the article to be washed in a tub of lukewarm water, draw it out on a washboard and rub the soap lightly over it. Be particular not to miss soaping all over. THEN roll it in a tight roll, lay in the tub under the water, and go on the same way until all the pieces have the soap rubbed on, and are rolled up.

Then go away for thirty minutes to one hour and let the "Sunlight" Soap do its work.

NEXT.—After soaking the full time rub the clothes lightly out on a wash board, and the dirt will drop out; turn the garment inside out to get at the seams, but don't use any more soap; don't scald or boil a single piece, and don't wash through two suds. If the water gets too dirty, pour a little out and add fresh. If a streak is hard to wash, rub some more soap on it, and throw the piece back into the suds for a few minutes.

LASTLY COMES THE RINSING, which is to be done in lukewarm water, taking special care to get all the dirty suds away, then wring out and hang up to dry.

For Woolens and Flannels proceed as follows:—Shake the articles free from dust. Cut a tablet of SUNLIGHT SOAP into shavings, pour into a gallon of boiling water and whisk into a lather. When just lukewarm, work articles in the lather without rubbing. Squeeze out dirty water without twisting and rinse in roughly in two relays of lukewarm water. Squeeze out water without twisting and hang in the open air.

The most delicate colors may be safely washed in the "Sunlight" way.

SAVE THIS—IT'S WORTH MONEY
PREMIUM COUPON
FOR SUNLIGHT SOAP PREMIUMS

$5,000 REWARD will be paid to any person who proves that Sunlight Soap contains any injurious chemicals or any form of adulteration.

HOW THE LAITY HELPS PASTORS IN DOING WORK OF THE CHURCH

The Many Auxiliary Agencies in Peterborough in Organic Co-operation in the Promotion of Church Interests.

We are wont to regard church organizations as consisting essentially of a place of public worship, and a congregation presided over by a pastor, aided possibly by a curate or associate pastor. A little reflection, however, and inquiry will reveal the fact that these constitute only the citadel and commanding officers of the forces and that under them there is a little army of auxiliary workers, divided into organized corps, under proper heads, whose share in the battles and triumphs of the church militant is no small one and whose aid in these modern days is humanly indispensable to effective and successful performance of what is broadly characterized as church work.

In days not long bygone a clergyman and his clerk or a minister and his precentor constituted the essential church equipment. Now, in addition to those or their counterparts we have in connection with every church or congregation a small army of lay workers, divided into thoroughly organized entities but all acting in co-operation with the head or heads of the congregation in carrying on the work the church is conceded to do.

No person except those actually in the activities kept in motion by these auxiliary bodies can realize the extent, and only ministers can realize the effectiveness—of the work carried on by them. It is usual for those who do not sufficiently reflect to give the credit of the success of a church's work to the ability, eloquence, energy or faithfulness and zeal of the pastor apart, of course, from the divine favour; but no one knows better than the pastor, himself or will acknowledge more readily, the inestimable help he receives from the auxiliary organization, which, in these modern days of energetic lay co-operation, uphold the hands of a minister as the hands of Moses were stayed by Aaron and Hur while he prayed.

To give an idea of the extent to which the lay element of the church in Peterboough is brought into co-operation with the clergy and does the work required to be done in the church in connection with complex modern conditions, the Examiner gives below a pretty complete list of the one hundred or more auxiliary organizations in connection with the various churches and church organizations in the city. The names of the several societies and their presidents are given below:—

ST. PAUL'S PRESBYTERIAN.

Pastor — Rev. Dr. Torrance.
Women's Foreign Missionary Society — President, Miss Dickson.
Fraser Mission Band — President, Mrs. Torrance.
Faithful Workers' Mission Band — Miss Laura Davidson.
Ladies' Aid Society — President, Mrs. Robert Hall.
Young Men's Guild — President, Mr. R. F. McWilliams.
Sunday School — Superintendent, Mr. Wm. Madill.
Presbyterian Guild — President, Rev. W. MacD. MacKay.

ST. ANDREW'S, PRESBYTERIAN.

Senior Corps — President, Sg. Major Brooks.
Band — Leader, Bandmaster J. M. Greene.
Pastor — Rev. A. E. Steurnagel.

BETHANY TABERNACLE, CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE.

No greater tribute can be paid to the usefulness of these organizations than the admission by pastors that their existence is absolutely necessary. Assuming that clergymen and ministers do all they can in their sphere, it follows that but for the societies mentioned the great, the important, and, under modern conditions, indespensible, work they do would have to be left undone to the great loss of the church influences in the moral betterment of the world.

ST. PETER'S ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Mystery Of The Drunken Boy Is Now Solved

Explanation of How Young Lad Got the Liquor.

The mystery of the boy who was seen lying drunk on the street a few days ago has been cleared up through inquiries pursued by P. C. Stewart. In the first place the bottle was stolen from the bar of a local hotel by a young lad who hid it in a pig pen till such time came when a proposed carousal could be fittingly observed.

On the day of the juvenile debauch the young Bacchanalian, in company with three other young friends went to the house of one of the party's parents and imbibed very freely of the dizzy draught. The result was that its effect soon began to tell on the youngsters. The one that was found on the street later was particularly sensitive to the subtle influence of the intoxicant and while lighting a cigarette, of which the young revellers had plenty, set on fire his coat and also a sofa. A neighbour rushed in and extinguished the flames otherwise there would probably have been a very disastrous fire. The boy was pretty nearly what is generally termed 'paralyzed drunk," at the time that the blaze occurred, and his companions kept him in the house until such time as they thought he had recovered pretty well from the effects of the whisky, which had made him very sick as well as drunk. He left the residence when he thought he was able to walk away all right but he was overcome with a fit of dizziness while he was on the street, and in this condition was found.

Cured of Drunkenness

How a Montreal lady cured her husband of drunkenness with a secret home remedy.

"I want to tell you that tasteless Samaria Prescription has entirely cured my husband of drunkenness so quickly and simply that I am astonished. How glad I am that I confided in you and wrote for your free sample package. The sample tablets I got from you checked his drinking, and before I had used the full treatment he was permanently cured. I gave him the remedy in his tea, and as it had no taste or smell, he never knew he was taking it. I want others to know; so you can use this letter, but please not my name yet. I may say that my husband's health is better in every way than for years."

DRS. KENNEDY & KERGAN

The Leading Specialists of America. 25 Years in Detroit. Bank Security.

Nine out of every ten men have been guilty of transgression against nature in their youth. Nature never excuses, no matter how young, thoughtless or ignorant he may be. The punishment and suffering corresponds with the crime. The only escape from its ruinous results is proper scientific treatment to counteract its effects.

The DRAINS, either by nightly losses, or secretly through the urine, must be stopped—the NERVES must be built up and invigorated, the blood must be purified, the SEXUAL ORGANS must be vitalized and developed, the BRAIN must be nourished. Our New Method Treatment provides all these requirements. Under its influence the brain becomes active, the blood purified so that all pimples, blotches and ulcers disappear; the nerves become strong as steel, so that nervousness, bashfulness and despondency disappear; the eyes become bright, the face full and clear, energy returns to the body, and the moral, physical and sexual systems are invigorated; all drains cease—no more vital waste from the system. The Vim of youth returns, and manly power is restored. The various organs become natural and manly. We invite all the afflicted to call and consult us confidentially and free of charge. Cures Guaranteed or no Pay. We treat and cure: Varicocele, Blood Diseases, Stricture, Gleet, Emissions, Urinary Drains, Spermatorrhoea, Unnatural Discharges, Kidney and Bladder Diseases.

CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE.

INSURANCE COMPANIES LOOK ASKANCE

AT A MAN IF HE CANNOT ANSWER THE QUESTION, "HAVE YOU EVER HAD RHEUMATISM?" WITH A GOOD HONEST "NO!"

So you see how it bars happiness and comfort if you neglect the means to prevent and cure—the great is the effective means, and while lack of provision for your "loved ones" from such a cause may be counted secondary to a life of suffering to oneself, it is one of the many sides in the study of health that we should take in dead earnest. Every disease has its symptoms—every ailment that flesh is heir to has its note of warning, and it's for us to heed or suffer the consequences; and who does not know the signs by experience or observation?—fever, chills, sweating, shooting pains, numbness, aching muscles, stiffened and swelled joints.

The great South American Rheumatic Cure gives ease from the first dose and it gently and effectually eradicates the trouble from the system. It gets at the root of the evil and it gets there quickly—most stubborn cases cured in one to three days. Influential physicians prescribe it as the best and surest cure they know of.

ALL DRUGGISTS AND MEDICINE DEALERS SELL IT.

Hon. Adam Beck's Speech On Niagara Falls and Other Water Powers As Electrical Developers.

Galt, March 3.—The Imperial Hotel was last night the scene of the annual banquet of the Galt Board of Trade, and 150 guests sat down. Ald. Fryer, president, had the chair. Hon. Adam Beck and Hon. J. W. St. John were guests of honor. At this table also were Mr. Pattinson, M.P.P.; Geo. Goldie, Ayr; J. Detweiler, Berlin; Dr. Moyer, Preston, and J. Sanderson, Brantford. Several other guests from a distance were present, and the gathering also embraced the representative men of the community. The toast list was brief—"The King," Power and Public Utilities," responded to my Mr. Beck; "Canada," responded to by Mr. St. John and Mr. Pattinson; "Sister Boards of Trade," and a few local toasts. The Manchester Quartette sang.

Benefits Nearly All.

The speech of Hon. Adam Beck on the water-powers of Ontario was a general review of the possibilities of industrial development, if this wealth is to be conserved for the benefit of the people. He made the statement, based on the figures of experts, that of the 2,200,000 people of Ontario, 1,800,000 will be benefited by the great development in progress at Niagara Falls. The people therefore, are vitally interested in this great question. It was also stated that the three transcontinental railways will eventually be operated by electricity, at least within the electric belt, which Hon. Adam Beck describes as that portion of New Ontario in touch with the water-powers.

George Pattinson, M.P.P., introduced the speaker. Hon. J. W. St. John spoke eloquently of the resources of the Dominion.

Banquet At Woodstock.

Woodstock, March 3.—Attended by 100 guests, the annual banquet of the board of trade, given in the Oxford Hotel last night, was a marked success. Hon. Mr. Hanna, Provincial Secretary, was the chief speaker, responding to the toast to the Parliament and Legislatures.

GUARANTEES OF LIBERTY.

Manifesto Issued Following Series of Russian Special Councils.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—As the result of a series of special councils held at the Tsarskoe-Selo and composed of forty high dignitaries, ministers and members of the Council of the Empire, under the presidency of the Emperor, the main guarantees of liberty have been ordered to be coded and incorporated in the fundamental laws of the Empire.

The main points are as follows:

No law will hereafter be effective without the approval of the National Assembly and Council of the Empire. The latter body will consist of an equal number of appointed and elected members taken from the clergy, nobility, Zemstvos and Academy of Science, universities, trade and industry.

There will be two Houses, both of which will have power to initiate legislation which does not affect the fundamental laws of the Empire, the question of succession, etc.

The annual sessions will be convoked and closed by Imperial ukase.

Both the Council of the Empire and the National Assembly will enjoy the right to interpellate Ministers for alleged unlawful acts.

The sessions will be public.

Attempt to Assassinate Kaulbars.

Odessa, March 3.—An unsuccessful attempt was made on the life of Governor-General Kaulbars yesterday. Renewed revolutionary activity is noticeable and serious disorders are expected about Easter.

Vegetarians Are Responsible.

Chicago, March 3.—Vegetarians are largely responsible for the increasing price of shoe leather, is the belief of August H. Vogel of Milwaukee, Wis., the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the Shoe and Leather Association of Chicago.

"The world's visible supply of hides," said Mr. Vogel, "is every year becoming less in proportion to the increase in population. The hide industry is dependent on the consumption of meat. People are eating less meat than formerly."

Buffalo Elevator Burns.

Buffalo, March 3.—The Wheeler elevator on Buffalo River, near the corner of Michigan and Ganson streets, was destroyed by fire last night. The loss on the building and its contents is estimated at $175,000.

More Terrible Than War!

More terrible than war, famine or pestilence is that awful destroyer, that hydra-headed monster, Consumption, that annually sweeps away more of earth's inhabitants than any other single disease known to the human race.

"It is only a cold, a trifling cough," say the careless, as the irritation upon the delicate mucous membrane causes them to hack away with an irritable tickling of the throat. When the irritation settles on the mucous surface of the throat, a cough is the result. To prevent Bronchitis or Consumption of the Lungs, do not neglect a cough however slight as the irritation spreading throughout the delicate lining of the sensitive air passages soon leads to fatal results. If on the first appearance of a cough or cold you would take a few doses of you would save yourself a great deal of unnecessary suffering. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains all the life-giving properties of the pine trees of Norway, and for Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough and all Throat and Lung affections it is a specific. Be sure when you ask for Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to get it. Don't be humbugged into taking something else. Price 25 cts.

Miss Lena Johnston, Toledo, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for throat troubles after taking numerous other remedies, and I must say that nothing can take the place of it. I would not be without a bottle of it in the house."

BARRISTER CHARGED.

Champarty Is Alleged Against F. C. Griffiths By Robert Forsyth.

Toronto, March 3.—"Champarty" is charged against F. C. Griffiths of Niagara Falls, solicitor for William Casselman, in the latter's suit against Barry and McMordie, contractors. The charge was made in an affidavit filed yesterday by Robert Forsyth, solicitor for the defence.

It is an offence against the oath taken by every barrister before being admitted to the bar. Griffiths is alleged to have agreed to take the case on a basis of one-half the amount of the judgment as payment for his services.

Casselman received a verdict of $6,500 by the trial judge, which was sustained by the Divisional Court. He lost both eyes while blasting.

Chancellor Boyd says that either barrister may apply to the Law Society for an investigation.

POLICEMEN HURT; ARREST MADE

In Taking of Inventory at a Church In Paris.

Paris, March 3.—Prefect Lepine and a large force of police assisted yesterday in taking the inventory of the Church of St. John and St. Francis under the church and state separation law.

A number of manifests made a lively resistance.

Three policemen were injured, and many arrests were made.

Canadian Consulates Abolished.

Washington, March 3.—The House committee on foreign affairs yesterday abolished the following twelve Canadian consulates:

Ontario — Amherstburg, Brockville, Chatham, Goderich, Guelph, London, Peterboro, Stratford, Wallaceburg, St. Thomas.

Quebec — Strandbridge and Greenville.

HE FEELS AS YOUNG AS EVER

Mr. Chester Loomis Took Dood's Kidney Pills.

And From a Used Up Man He Became as Smart as a Boy.

Orland, Ont., March 2. — (Special) —Mr. Chester Loomis, an old and respected farmer living in this section, is spreading broadcast the good news that Dodd's Kidney Pills are a sure cure for the Lame Back and Kidney Disease so common among old people. Mr. Loomis says:

"I am 76 years of age and hale and active as a boy, and I give Dodd's Kidney Pills all the credit for it.

"Before I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills I was so used up that I could hardly ride in a buggy, and I could not do any work of any kind. Everybody thought that I would not live long. Dodd's Kidney Pills are a wonderful remedy."

The Kidneys of the young may be wrong but the Kidneys of the old man is wrong. Dodd's Kidney Pills make all wrong Kidneys right. That is why they are the old folk's great.

LENNOX V. HUNTER.

His Pay Slip Was Padded to Oblige the Architect.

Toronto, March 3.—Thomas Hunter was called before the civic inquiry yesterday to explain his transactions with Architect Lennox when clerk of the works on the civic buildings.

He said: "When I went to Mr. Lennox to get the certificate for my salary for the first period of my services at the Court House he mentioned to me as far as my recollection goes at the time, that he had paid the previous inspector some seven or eight months' salary, and had not received anything from the city, and that he would now, as he was writing me out a certificate for the clerk of works, put the extra in."

"He would do what?"

"He would put some extra in that certificate, and when I drew the cheque I returned him a cheque for $100, the difference between my salary and what he put in."

"Did it happen at all after those two first occasions?"

"No. I said he had better attend—It would be better for him to draw his own money, and that it would be more business-like, I thought."

The story was directly contradictory to Mr. Lennox's evidence. Mr. Blackstock said that his client would be able to explain any seeming discrepancies.

The inquiry will not meet again until the 20th. A thorough examination of the letter books will be made by the judge. It involves going over the copies of between 8,000 and 9,000 letters.

Vice-Royalty Ice-Boating.

Kingston, March 3.—With a spanking southwest breeze yesterday His Excellency Earl Grey and Countess Grey were given a taste of ice-boating at about a mile a minute. They came into the city yesterday on their private car, and are the guests of John Bell Carruthers.

Premier Roblin Banquetted.

Carman, Man., March 3.—Premier Roblin was banquetted here Thursday by the Conservative Association. The gathering was a large one, over 300 guests, including most distinguished men in the party, being present.

Plans Approved.

Ottawa, March 3.—The Minister of Railways has approved the route map of the proposed line of the Coast-Kootenay Railway from Vancouver through by way of Sumas and the Coquitham Pass to a point near Nicola.

True Bill For Murder.

Three Rivers, Que.—March 3.—The grand jury yesterday brought in a true bill against Mrs. Sclater and Wallace McGraw, for the murder of Percy Howard Sclater. The trial will begin Monday.

Probs May Move to Ottawa.

Ottawa, March 3.—R. F. Stupart of the Observatory in Toronto was here yesterday. It is said that he is on business in connection with the removal of the Observatory to Ottawa.

French Deputies to Duel.

Paris, March 3.—During the discussion of a resolution requesting the war Minister to allow officers to bring actions in the civil courts, M. Auffrey, Nationalist, and M. Jaures, Socialist, exchanged abuse and the sitting was suspended. Later M. Jaures sent his seconds to meet the seconds of M. Auffrey and make arrangements for a duel.

Reprieve For Patrick.

New York, March 3.—The hearing upon the motion for a new trial in the case of Albert T. Patrick, convicted of the murder of William Marsh Rice, an aged millionaire, was adjourned yesterday until April 3. This will make necessary a further reprieve by Governor Higgins, as Patrick is now under sentence to be executed on March 19.

Chose a Cold Birthday.

Toronto, March 3.—March not only came in like a lion, but the lions came in with March. Quite appropriately, the lioness at Riverdale Zoo chose March 1st as the occasion for presenting the city with another addition to the menagerie in the shape of three lion cubs. This is the second lot of three cubs which have been born in the Zoo.

Where Did the Money Go?

Ottawa, March 3.—The brothers of Bernard Peterson, who committed suicide a few days ago, are in town, and have asked the County Crown Attorney to hold an investigation. Revolution Against Venezuela.

Paris, March 3.—According to information which has reached official quarters here a revolutionary movement against Venezuela is on foot. The revolutionists are concentrating on the Island of Trinidad, where they are awaiting arrangements and supplies, previous to landing on the Venezuelan

THE REALM OF MODES

Black For Demiseason Gowns—Chinese Blue Combined With Buff.

Black gowns are coming in again for street wear, and some most attractive ones are being made up at the present moment. They are all in lightweight and brightened by a color in the trimming. No well dressed Frenchwoman considers her wardrobe complete without at least one frock of all black, and with the lingerie blouse the black costume is certainly very charming.

Chinese blue liberty broadcloth trimmed with continental buff—which is really a chamois color—is the smart combination for spring. Worn with a chamois toned Continental hat adorned with a bow of blue velvet in front, slipped through a long gold buckle and further supplemented with a bunch of blue tips at one side, the costume is stunning.

BLACK CHIP HAT.

Millinery becomes less eccentric as the season advances. Conspicuous shapes and trimmings are much modified in the latest models. Large hats will not be so prominent, the becoming small toque in a number of instances replacing picture effects. Feathers are to be used galore.

New lingerie shirt waists show frills and ruffles with bolero jacket effect. In one advanced model two wide embroidered ruffles go from the waist over the shoulders, giving a broad effect—most desirable for a thin person. Another model that is particularly pretty has an Eton jacket, the line being defined just above the belt line by a frill of lace two inches wide that is carried up the fronts to the shoulders.

The hat in the picture is of black chip. Around the crown of silk is a band of jet beads. The brim rolls over, envelope fashion, in the back, where it is trimmed with a bunch of black ostrich feathers. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Edible Serpents.

About the year B. C. 220 edible serpents were sold at the rate of 20 to 40 cents in the Egyptian markets. They were shipped to Rome. Italian vipers were cheaper—twenty for 15 cents.

WHAT TO WEAR.

The New Swiss Belts Most Attractive. Empire Colors in Vogue.

The new Swiss belts are alluringly attractive with their delicate traceries of silver and their quaint rows of tiny buckles running from right to left across the front. The most successful of these waistbands are made on a foundation of silk or elastic, and the glove kid or suede leather is cut on the cross and stretched over the lining. A belt of this kind must be made by a professional and not attempted by the amateur.

WHITE LACE HAT.

The empire wave is hourly increasing, both in form and color, but happily there are plenty of women who refuse absolutely such colors as grass green and magenta. In the days of the great Napoleon the latter color must have been known by some other name, for it was beloved by the Empress Josephine, and as a color magenta did not exist until after the famous battle of 1859.

For evening the mantle or cloak shape as opposed to the coat with sleeves is rapidly gaining ground and is often made still more attractive with a lace or fur lined hood.

Lots of three-quarter coats are in cutaway style.

Elbow gloves of heavy kid in ox blood red attract a good deal of attention.

The "pork pie" hat is the latest atrocity.

She is an original woman who has not a bit of gold or silver on her hat.

The hat in the cut is exceedingly chic. It is of white lace with a wide fold of cloth of gold edging the brim and a band of the same encircling the crown. A paradise aigret is caught in the bow with an oval rhinestone buckle, and a mass of white tulle fills in under the brim at the back.

Train Ran Into Switch.

Brantford, March 2.—The regular passenger train from Hamilton, on the T., H. and B. Railway, ran into an open switch going at full speed just outside of this city at noon yesterday. Engineer McNamara promptly reversed the lever and jumped with the fireman, both sustaining serious injuries. Nothing but the engineer's prompt action saved the train from smashing into several freight cars standing on the side track. No passengers were hurt.

Queen's Life in Danger.

New. York, March 2.—According to a despatch from Rome, it is officially announced that Queen Margherita has abandoned her projected trip to the United States. At Washington it was reported that the sudden change in the plan for a tour by the dowager Queen of Italy in the United States is due to disclosure of a plot to kill her majesty conceived by the anarchist group, whose headquarters are at Patterson, N. J.

Why Actresses Are Beautiful.

When we are in search of really handsome women we look to the stage and wonder why we find them there. A beautiful actress gives as the reason: "Women on the stage make it their business to become beautiful, which they consider as important as dramatic talent. They do not attempt the footlights unless they have some looks and a good carriage. They improve their beauty by careful exercise, diet, study, a desire to please and the pleasure they get from their work."

VANITY'S VISIONS.

The Costume Must Harmonize in Every Part, Says Dame Fashion.

So great is the craze for having every part of the costume harmonize with every other part that whole gowns are often built around a particularly stunning hat.

There is an odd shade of old rose, rather bright, but nothing like cerise. It is exquisite trimmed with lace and a touch of silver.

The summer materials are lovelier than ever. Silk and linen mixtures are to be favorites. They are pretty, but have the disadvantage of mussing easily.

Heavy linens are to the fore again and will be made up in the skirt and coat styles so popular last summer. They will be trimmed with lace and bands of the linen in real tailor fashion.

GIRL'S EMPIRE DRESS.

The caraco short coat will exploit itself in linen and silk next summer and is a mannish little jacket for either material.

Gray is to be the fashionable color of the summer in wool, silk and cotton fabrics.

Monotone effects will be more seen than floral designs, although the new organdies are showing charming patterns in blossoms and foliage.

The girl's empire dress in the cut is of gray cloth. The skirt is full and plain save for the stitched band a short distance from the foot line. The jacket is of gray velvet, fastened with silver buttons. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Full Door Mirrors.

When a girl has scant space in her boudoir she may economize in room by putting away her cheval glass and having her closet door inlaid with a mirror reaching from the top to the floor. It makes a wonderfully attractive feature, reflecting all the knick-knacks and oddities. The girl finds it much more convenient—and certainly more useful than the cheval glass, which had to be tilted and turned to see the hang of the skirt or to catch a glimpse of the slippers. When a girl can afford it, nothing is more effective than to have all her doors made with mirrors and draped with soft silk that harmonizes with the upholstering.

Primitive Lighting.

In 1300 splinters dipped in oil were used in England and France to furnish light for guests retiring to their rooms.

In Diocletian's Time.

By Diocletian's scale of prices, published by Imperial edict in A. D. 303, a pint of Falernian wine cost 30 cents, Sorrento and Sabine the same. Common wine was 20 cents, and "country folks' wine" was 8 cents.

A Lady of Pompeii.

On the skeleton of a lady who died at Pompeii were found two golden bracelets, six of silver, four golden anklets, four earrings, thirty finger rings, a golden collar, a golden belt and a golden band on her head, while by her lay a purse containing 197 silver coins.

MILLINERY NEWS.

Hats to Wear Until the Spring Styles Appear—A New Glove.

The latest hats from Paris for day wear are of black taffeta and satin. The satin is stretched plain over the shapes, but the taffeta models are shirred, plaited and fancifully treated. Some of the sauciest little shapes are made up in these materials, but the satin ones are just a trifle more dressy than the silk hats.

Smart evening hats are made of fine gold tulle, to be worn with costumes in which gold trimmings play a prominent part, or they may be donned with equally good effect with a gown innocent of these adornments.

Possibly the prettiest demiseason hats being displayed just now are in a harmony of two shades in one color, or two well contrasted colors are used.

Toques entirely of gold galloons, with heavy gold embroidery around the upturned brim, are favorites for evening. White ostrich plumes continue to be much worn on hats, while gold braid rolled around a small crown and tied in a little bow and ends suffices for the top trimming of many hats.

CLOTH COSTUME.

The costume pictured is of beige cloth trimmed with stitched bands of the same. Straps of the material fastened with cloth buttons ornament the jacket and the front skirt panel. The hat is of tan straw trimmed with quillings of brown silk.

FRIBBLES OF FASHION.

How the Spring Sleeve Will Disport Itself—Petticoat Flouncings.

It is not considered smart for the top fullness of the sleeve to incline toward the front or toward the back. It should be so tacked to the sleeve lining that it falls directly down the center of the arm.

The spring sleeves will be of moderate size, and radical changes in shape and style are not looked for.

Petticoat flouncings are to be procured of silk, lace, chiffon or lawn, all ready for adjusting to any plain foundation. These are supplied with buttons so that they may be easily varied at will. One silk foundation can by this means be induced to serve many ends.

PEAU DE CYGNE WAIST.

From an economical point of view it pays to get a dress of voile or similar fabric to tide over the intermediate season. It will be found useful, too, for early spring street wear.

Coat and skirt suits in pastel shades of cloth such as crushed raspberry, mauve, Parma violet, lettuce green and Chinese blue are to be high in favor. These suits are severely tailored and usually made with a short semifitting jacket trimmed with braid military fashion and rows of small bullet buttons. The skirts are circular, with a seam down the front and the fullness at the waist put into tiny tucks. The long skirt is either plain or trimmed with a circular ruffle eight inches deep above a wide hem.

The waist pictured is of peau de cygne silk. A yoke trimming is formed of Irish lace headed top and bottom with bias bands of the silk. This yoke is crossed in front and adorned with buttons. The sleeves have similar bands.

BABY TODD'S CURE OF SORE EYES

Over Two Years of Awful Suffering—Eyes Stuck Together and Would Bleed When Washed Open in the Morning—Every Lash Fell Out.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I feel it my duty to tell of two most wonderful cures of sore eyes by Cuticura Ointment. My little son had an attack of measles which left the eyes in a shockingly bad state. The lids became inflamed and sore and every lash fell out. For two years and ten months I tried many eye ointments and lotions, besides following every advice given me, but nothing seemed to do them any good. They would be stuck in the morning, and I had to bathe them in warm milk and water, which was a very trying duty, as the eyelids would always bleed, causing the child untold suffering.

"I had heard a lot about Cuticura Ointment, so I thought I would try it, and from the first application I have had cause to be thankful. Before I had used one box of Ointment the lashes showed signs of growing, and at the end of a few months he had a crop of lashes of which any person might be proud.

"I recommended Cuticura to a Mrs. Phillips for her child, who also had sore eyes, and her little one was cured with less than one box. I have advised dozens of people to use Cuticura Ointment, often stopping them in the street, as I did Mrs. Phillips, who was a total stranger to me. I have such implicit faith in it that I have written to relatives in England and Ireland telling them of its wonderful virtues.

"I am sending you this testimonial of my own free will, in the hope that others may be benefited as we have been. (signed) Mrs. C. Todd, Old South Head Road, Waverly, Sydney, N. S. W." Reference, Messrs. R. Towns & Co., Sydney.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Depots: London, 27 Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5 Rue de la Paix; Australia, R. Towns & Co., Sydney. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Sole Props.

"Baby Health and Skin and Scalp."

ROSY-CHEEKED BABIES.

Nothing in the world is such a comfort and joy as a healthy, hearty, rosy-cheeked, happy baby. But the price of baby's health and happine s is constant vigilance on the mother's part. The little ills of babyhood come suddenly, and the wise mother will always be in a position to treat them at once. In promptly relieving and curing the ills of babyhood and childhood no other medicine can equal Baby's Own Tablets, and they are guaranteed absolutely free from opiates and harmful drugs. Mrs. Wm. Sinclair, Hebron, N. B., says: says: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I know of for curing the ills of young children. I always keep the Tablets in the house, and do not know how I could get along without them." Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box, from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Mighty Desert Wind.

The samiel is a hot, noxious electrical wind which passes over the sandy deserts of Arabia and Africa. It moves with the quickness of lightning and passes in narrow currents for a few minutes at a time. It deals instant death to every man or beast happening to face it, and it is said that it so decomposes them that their limbs fall asunder. The approach of it is indicated by thick haze in the horizon, and travelers, if they have time, throw themselves on their faces, with their feet toward it, till it has passed. The sirocco is another blighting wind, which prevails in Italy and adjoining districts about April. The West Indian hurricanes are of a totally different description, being simply vortexes of great force, and they have been known to blow heavy cannon out of a battery and carry a man over a ten foot wall.

Pretty Hair Ornaments—Modish Accessories—Velvet Costumes.

Very pretty are the hair ornaments of the moment, and they are getting almost as high as the hats. Great tufts of ostrich feathers and upstanding jeweled aigrets are favorite ornaments at present. Those who cannot afford jewels are wearing silver and gold sequined bows and silvered ospreys. The single rose of deep, glorious red for preference is really more effective, for with the high headdressing it is a simple matter to adjust it becomingly.

The fur stole has a decided rival in the neck piece of marabou. The feather boa and muff are also among the fashionable girl's accessories. Clipped marabou is generally used and is not as perishable as one would think. A boa in shaded gray feathers, with a large soft muff to match, gives a smart finishing touch to a gray costume.

Panne costumes for afternoon wear are very much in favor just now. Generally speaking, the skirts are characterized by plainness, while the bodices are somewhat elaborate. A striking model was lately shown made with high lace collar cut in one with the yoke, on which the velvet corsage appeared to be buttoned by means of a series of small tabs.

The mushroom shaped hat seen in the cut is a revived fashion of early Victorian days. It is carried out in white chip. A puting of green silk is about the crown, and a large pink rose holds in position a panache of white ostrich feathers.

In Far Counties.

When the shower came up the artist, who was walking through New Hampshire on a sketching tour, sought shelter under a tree, where he was soon joined by another wayfarer, a man of middle age, who looked a sort of better class tramp, and indeed was one.

The two entered into conversation, and it came out that the wayfarer was a harness maker by vocation, but a rover by predilection.

"Yes," he said, "I'm a rolling stone. I'm never happy in one place. I'm here today and gone tomorrow. There ain't any fossil about me. I'm on the move all the time. The world is made to see, I say, and I'm bound to see all I can of it."

The artist began to think that he had fallen in with a modern Marco Polo, and by way of leading up to some interesting anecdotes of the antipodes he remarked:

"You must have been quite a traveler."

"Well, that's about so," the man modestly replied. "I reckon I could find my way over New Hampshire with my eyes shut, and I was once two months in Vermont."

Twenty-five years ago it was difficult to sell spring wheat flour for pastry at any price.

People didn't want it—they were using soft, winter wheat flour, and saw no reason for changing.

But hard wheat flour was persistently pushed and prejudice has been overcome. The women tried it, succeeded with it and appreciated it.—To-day hard wheat flour is the favorite for pastry as well as for bread.

The flour that is doing the most for the reputation of hard wheat flour is the brand known as

Ogilvie's Royal Household

It is hard wheat flour at its best—milled by modern methods, retaining all of the good of the wheat and none of the bad—it is without an equal for every kind of baking in which flour is used.

Talk to your grocer about it—if he isn't enthusiastic it's only because he isn't informed.

A Mile-A-Minute Train Is Proposed

C. P. R. Said to be Considering Establishing a Fast Run From Montreal to Detroit—Peterborough Would be One of Ten Stops Between These Two Cities--A Local Run From Tweed to Toronto Would Also be Inaugurated--A Much improved Service to be Given.

A despatch from Toronto and one which has a special significance to Peterborough since undoubtedly this would be one of the ten stops referred to, says:—"It is rumoured that the C.P.R. contemplates putting on a fast express between Montreal and Detroit, which would have only about ten stops between the two points and would break the running record of the line. Between Montreal and Toronto the speed would average about 66 miles an hour. Nothing definite has been settled yet, but in about three weeks a meeting of the heads will be held to discuss the matter."

Mr. W. Mellroy, the city passenger agent was interviewed to-day in reference to the above despatch, and stated that while he was not in a position to say that the new service had been actually decided upon, or when it would be inaugurated, he had seen the proposed time-table, and the service would be of the very best. The fast train referred to would take the place of the express which at present leaves Toronto at 9.15 a.m., and reaches here at 11.38. On the westbound trip it would replace the 5.15 p.m. train. Between Peterborough and Toronto, only one stop would be made, that at Myrtle, and the time between these two cities would be cut down considerably.

In connection with the inauguration of this fast train, another local would be run. This proposal has been made before, it will be remembered, but was not carried into effect. The prospects for its accomplishment at the present time, seem to be much brighter than ever before.

This local would, according to the time-table already proposed, leave Toronto about 8 a.m., and reach Peterborough shortly after 10 o'clock. It would carry the morning papers and express, but not the mail. Returning to Toronto, it would leave early in the afternoon, between one and two o'clock.

With this service established the C.P.R. would be giving a service which would be almost perfect. There seems good reason to believe that this time it will be accomplished. In any event it will not be started until later in the spring.

Another Coal Firm Will Start

Messrs. McIntyre and Weir Will Erect Coal Sheds in East City.

Peterborough is to have a new coal business in East City. Messrs. A. Weir and Malcolm McIntyre have entered into partnership and will soon be ready to enter into business. They have leased a tract of land from the G.T.R. along their Ashburnham siding and south of the Stevens' storehouse. Here the coal yard will be situated, and work on the sheds is expected to commence in a short time. The office of the new firm will be situated on the lot at the corner of Mark and Hunter streets, opposite the East City town hall. Work on this building was commenced last week, and it will soon be ready for occupancy. It is probable that this lot will also used as a wood yard.

Both members of the new firm are citizens of Peterborough, and well known throughout the city, and should prosper in their undertaking.

A Citizen Of Prominence

There were not many persons in the city who recognized in the youthful picture in the Examiner on Saturday, Rev. J. G. Lewis, the pastor of Mark street Methodist Church. But it was he, and some of the readers recognized him, among them being, Mr. T. E. Pratt, who was the first to telephone to the office; Ald. A. A. McIntyre, E. Alexander, Capt. Copperthwaite, W. J. Walton, J. T. Thornton, Mrs. (Dr.) Morrison, Mrs. Cameron and Mr. Oscar Matchett. The chances are that Rev. Mr. Lewis was the most surprised man in the city Saturday, when he saw his picture in the paper, because he did not know that it was in the possession of the Examiner. There may be some others who are in the same position. Look at next Saturday's paper, and see if you know the man who will be pictured there. It will surprise you.

Eight Men Will Go To Goderich

To Play Final O. H. A. Game To-morrow Night.

To-night on the 5.15 C. P. R. train the Peterborough Hockey Team will leave for Goderich. They will remain in Toronto to-night, and will make an early start for Goderich in the morning.

Eight men will be taken, including Wasson, Glover, Crowley, Moore, Whiteroft, Morgan, Cavanah and Graham.

A few of the supporters of the team will accompany them. The Goderich team is confident of its ability to win out on home ice, but there are others who have a different opinion, but to-morrow night will tell the tale.

The local team will be in better shape to-morrow to play the game than they were in on Friday, and their supporters here are confident that the result will be satisfactory.

Goderich, however, has in the past been well nigh impregnable on their own ice. In Berlin the visiting team was defeated by 8—4, and in Goderich the home team won by 13—5, so that it will be seen that it is no easy proposition the locals are going up against.

Prepare Plans For Two Bridges

County Bridges Will be Erected This Year.

The Special Committee of the County Council which met on Saturday afternoon decided to authorize the County Engineer, Mr. J. E. Belcher, to prepare plans and specifications for the construction of the Keene and Evans' Bridges; and as soon as these plans are prepared, tenders will be asked for.

These bridges will be of stone or concrete piers and steel superstructure. The construction of these bridges will be proceeded with during the spring and early summer, and be completed this year.

Melodramatic Story Of Two Shantymen and a Girl

Illiterate Norwood Lover Loses His Fiancee—Employed Faithless Companion to Write His Letters—He Was Reported to Have Changed His Affections—Reception on His Return a Cold One—He Seeks Revenge.

The free and careless life of the shantyman, though presenting many inducements and much that is attractive does not always culminate desirably to the lumberman. Friends are separated from friends and bonds of love are often severed in the interval during which the shantyman spends the winter among the murmuring pines and the hemlocks of the north. The following lamentable episode of estrangement of lover and sweetheart was reported to an Examiner representative the other day by a companion of the sorrowing man who had been duped by a supposed friend.

The story which is somewhat of a melodramatic character, concerns a Mr. McMasters, a young lumberman from Norwood, who spent the past winter among the timbers of the north in the camp of foreman Long, an employee of the McDonald lumber property.

This youth, like most of the shanty boys, had a particular lady friend who resides near the southern termini of George street of this city with whom he corresponded. McMasters, being somewhat deficient in penmanship, employed a supposedly trustworthy friend, a Mr. Job, also a resident of Peterborough, as his scribe in penning his billet-doux to his fiancee. The latter gentleman, it appears had been wedded some time ago, but did not enjoy the connubial state for any length of time so he and his wife dissolved partnership. Taking advantage of his illiterate friend, in place of writing as dictated, he concocted a scheme by which to win over the young girl in question. His companion's love-missive was changed into a statement of his own superior resources which he explained would be very worthy of her consideration.

In contrast to young McMaster's chaotic state with regard to monetary affairs he possessed a house and lot in the city and also had a considerable sum of money in the bank. He also stated that McMaster's attentions were centred elsewhere and that his previous admiration for her had degenerated. After promising faithfulness if she consented to become his bride, Job despatched the letter with his name subscribed and in the course of a few days it arrived at its intended destination.

When the waster camp disbanded last week, McMasters came down to the city and as may be expected, paid a visit to his fiancee. He was met with an inexplicably cold reception and was at a loss to discover the cause. Finally, however, the fateful missive was read and the faithlessness of his friend dawned upon him for the first time.

Although protesting his innocence he was unable to become reconciled and was forced to leave with almost a broken heart.

McMasters is now on the hunt for revenge and should his enemy be encountered, the little drama may terminate in a tragedy.

Many Persons Going To West

The prospects are that there will be the greatest rush to the west this spring ever experienced. Mr. W. McIlroy states to the Examiner that he has already sold a great many tickets for the west, and to-morrow morning will probably see the greatest spring exodus ever recorded.

Sad News For Miss Scissons

Miss Sissons, who was to conduct the free art embroidery class in embroidery at Harry Adams' store this week, received the sad intelligence this morning that her father was dying. She accordingly left on the noon train, for her home in London. The class has, in consequence, been indefinitely postponed.

Crewman's

The Press Club Held Meeting

A meeting of the Press Club was held at Long's palm parlours Saturday night, when in addition to the business meeting a dainty supper was enjoyed.

The constitution of the club was adopted and considerable business transacted. It was decided that in future when the members of the editorial staffs are not furnished with complimentary tickets of admission to concerts, entertainments, etc., at which a charge is made, it will be taken as an indication that no report of the function is desired.

There has, it appears, been some misconception on this point in the past, some persons thinking that the reporters are glad to pay their way into half a dozen or more concerts each week for the purpose of reporting them. This is not the case now. They go, not because they want to, but because it is part of their duty, and the omission to supply tickets of admission will be taken as an indication that the presence of a reporter in that capacity, is not desired.

Band and Reports At Brock St. Rink

At the Brock street rink to-morrow night the 57th Band will be present, and an additional attraction will be the reception of telegraphic reports of the game in Goderich, which will be bulletined every 10 minutes, each goal being reported as it is scored.

The prospects for good ice are excellent, and that there will be a good crowd is assured. Spectators will be charged admission to-morrow night.

$50.00 PROFIT
ONLY $25.00 INVESTED

Do you want to make $50 profit by investing only $25 in a lot in beautiful Summit Park, Port Arthur, the great lake port town of N. W. Ontario.

Port Arthur is the County Seat of all Thunder Bay District, and is the lake terminal town of the three great transcontinental railroads, which empty their immense quantities of Western freight on ships bound for the East and Europe.

Port Arthur is the only real municipal ownership town in America, and made last year over $24,000 net profit out of its Street Railway, Electric Light and Power, and Telephone Franchises.

Port Arthur has the largest grain elevator in the world.

Port Arthur doubled its population in the last 2 years and we believe it will double again in the next 3 years.

Port Arthur is the gateway between the East and the extensive West, and can have no competitor.

Summit Park is a high, level plateau, furnishing a beautiful view of Thunder Bay, and lots purchased in this park at present prices will bring big profits before many months.

WEDDING BELLS

SCOTT—WOODS.

A quiet wedding took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. George Woods, 132 Park street, when her daughter, Annie Louise, was united in marriage to Mr. James Gilbert Scott. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. Major, and the bride and groom were unattended. After the wedding the usual dejeuner was served, partaken of by the immediate friends of the bride and groom, who attended the wedding, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott left for a trip to Toronto, and Brantford, where they will visit for a week, before starting for the Northwest, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott are both quite well known in the city and are very popular. Their very many friends will join in wishing them every happiness in their new home in the west.

Silver Wedding Was Celebrated
An Enjoyable Event at Residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. James Booth, of Chamberlen street, celebrated their silver wedding on Friday last. The parlours were beautifully decorated, and no pains were spared by the bride and groom, of 25 years ago, to make their guests happy. A very pleasant evening was spent. Mrs. Samuel Thomas presided at the organ. The congratulations were hearty and well timed, for the years are getting lightly on their brow, and they have much joy in their family growing up around them good trees.

The friends from a distance were well represented by suitable presents of silver. At ten o'clock the Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Brace led the way to the dining room, and took their places at the head of the feast table, which was richly laden and to which the happy crowd did ample justice.

The presents were many and valuable and were displayed on two tables. A most pleasant and enjoyable time was spent, and Mr. and Mrs. Booth begin their 26th year of married life under most favourable circumstances.

Out of 1,548,654 votes polled in the recent election in Mexico, only 92,172 were against Diaz.

CONCERNING LABOUR MATTERS

Change Of Wages And The Hours Of Work In 1905
An Interesting Comparison of the Rates of Wages Paid in Canada Prior to 1905 and the Changes Affected During That Year—Many Trades Received Higher Wages—Shorter Hours Were Also Secured.

THE LABOUR GAZETTE MAKES A SUMMARY

The February number of "The Labour Gazette" contains an article in which the changes in rates of wages and hours of labour in Canada during 1905 are given. The information contained in this article is very interesting and is worthy of reproduction. It follows:—

The total number of changes in rates of wages and hours of labour reported to the Department during 1905, and affecting in each case a number of workpeople, was 140. Of these, 118 were increases in wages, accompanied in 4 instances by decreases in hours of labour; 14 were decreases in hours; 4 were decreases in wages, and the remainder were increases in hours accompanied by a corresponding increase in earnings.

Changes by Months.

The following table shows the months of the year in which the above changes were carried out:—

Month.	No. of changes.
January	11
February	4
March	9
April	17
May	30
June	19
July	12
August	9
September	10
October	6
November	7
December	6
Total	140

From the above it will be seen that the largest number of changes occurred in the months of May and June, in which 30 and 19 changes respectively went into effect, followed by April and July, with 17 and 12 changes respectively. The opening month of the year was the fifth most active in this respect, the least active month being February.

The General Result.

The general result of the changes in wages and hours, reported during 190, was a substantial increase in the amount of remuneration received by labour, together with a considerable decrease in working hours per day for a number of individuals. The most important change of the year, with respect to the number of men affected, was a general increase in wages of farm labour, which went into effect in the Provinces of Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta. Definite information relating to the number of men and the average amount of the increase was not obtained by the Department, but an estimate of the probable number engaged in the western harvest who profitted by the increase placed the total at upwards of 75,000 and the average amount of the increase at 25 cents per day. Wages paid to farm labourers for annual and short term engagements were on a considerably higher level than in 1904, owing largely to the prevailing scarcity of workmen of this class, especially in the Province of Ontario.

In the remaining industries individual earnings during 1905 were on the whole considerably above those of 1904. The smallness of the catch of fish, which was complained of in several branches of the fisheries of the Maritime Provinces, was accompanied by an enhancement in general prices. In British Columbia the earnings of fishermen during the sock-eye season were estimated to have been fully double those of the preceding year, the number of men benefitting by the increase being also approximately double. In the lumbering industry, though conditions varied according to locality, the tendency was upward as compared with 1904, and in the mining and smelting industry the several changes reported to the Department were all of the nature of increases in wages or decreases in hours, prominent among the changes of the year being the new schedules obtained by the employees of the Dominion Coal Company and the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company by which wages were only slightly affected, and the adoption of three shifts instead of two in several smelters in British Columbia during the closing month of the year. Employees engaged in transportation also received in certain cases substantial increases during 1905, the new schedule granted by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to carmen throughout the system being one of the most important changes. Other increases under the heading of transport were among telegraphers, yardmen and switchmen on the Grand Trunk Railway system east of the St. Clair River, among railway clerks (963) on the Intercolonial Railway and among maintenance-of-way employees on the Quebec Southern Railway, while important negotiations looking to a re-arrangement of the wages scale for other classes were reported in progress during the closing month of the year. Among street railway employees increases went into effect at St. John, N. B., Hull, Que., Ottawa, Ont., Peterborough, Ont., St. Thomas, Ont., affecting a total of 427 employees. Among unskilled labourers the year was exceptionally profitable, general employment being unprecedentedly active and rates of wages remaining firm, with an upward tendency, especially during the third quarter of the year.

It will be seen that the most important changes of the year, from the standpoint of aggregate numbers affected and aggregate increases in weekly earnings, took place in the building trades and among civic employees. From the standpoint of aggregate decreases in hours of employment per week, the most important changes were in the building and printing trades respectively.

Among the more important individual changes contributing to the total results set forth in the table, reference may be made, in the case of the building trades, to the increases which went into effect on May 1 among bricklayers and masons at Montreal, Que., and among carpenters at London, Ont., on the same date. In the metal trades, an increase granted to sheet metal workers at Toronto, Ont., on May 1, affected 275 employees, and an increase to the same class at Winnipeg, Man., on August 1, affected 150. Up to the end of the year printers at Halifax, N. S., St. John, N. B., Ottawa, Ont., Peterborough, Ont., Hamilton, Ont., Brantford, Ont., and Calgary, Alta., and to a partial degree at Winnipeg, Man., and Quebec, Que., had obtained the 8-hour day. At several other points, including St. Catherines, Guelph and Stratford, Ont., a schedule of 81-2 hours per day was obtained, with an agreement that the 9-hour day would come into effect on Jan 1, 1907. In the clothing trades, the most important changes were among garment pressers at Toronto, Ont., who obtained an increase of 5 cents per hour during August, and among journeymen tailors at Hamilton, Ont., who had their wages increased by 71-2 per cent. during October. The changes affecting civic employees were all in the way of increases, the more important bodies affected being civic firemen at St. Hyacinthe, Que., Montreal, Que., Toronto, Ont., Hamilton, Ont., Brantford, Ont., and London, Ont.; and policemen at St. John, N. B., Ottawa, Ont., Brantford, Ont., Hamilton, Ont., Niagara Falls, Ont., and New Westminster, B. C. Other points at which civic employees received increases were Sherbrooke, Que., Kingston, Ont., Brandon, Man., Vancouver, B. C. and Victoria, B. C. The more important changes tabulated under the heading of "Miscellaneous", were an increase affecting a number of barbers at Toronto, Ont., an attempt having been made during August in that city, with only partial success, to increase the price charged for haircutting from 20 to 25 cents.

An early-closing by-law was passed by the City of Montreal, Que., during the month of March, 1905, by which all stores, excepting tobacco, news, confectionery, fruit, etc., and saloons, were compelled to close at 7 p. m. on Wednesdays and Thursdays of each week, except during December, and on days preceding public holidays. The by-law affected from about 8,000 to 10,000 employees.

Early closing arrangements went into effect in a large number of cities and towns throughout Canada, during the summer months, the chief classes affected being retail clerks, barbers, factory employees, etc.

The Masquerade Ball in Keene Was A Success
A Brilliant Social Event Took Place Last Night in That Village—Under Auspices of the Skating and Curling Rink Company—Many Dancers in Costume—A Delightful Evening Was Spent—Peterboro' Persons Attended.

BRILLIANT SUCCESS OF SOCIAL FUNCTION

Special to the Examiner

Keene, March 3. — The masquerade ball held Friday evening in the town hall under the auspices of the management of the skating and curling rink was a grand success. Although hurriedly gotten up and not well advertised, a large crowd attended and a very pleasant evening was spent. The hall was beautifully decorated and the many attractive costumes made a beautiful picture. The ladies' prize, a beautiful jewel case, was awarded to Miss Agnes Fife, who represented Queen Mary I., of England, while Dr. V. McWilliams, who represented "The Count of Monte Cristo" won the gentleman's a very handsome watch guard and locket. Messrs. Moore and Marfarlane supplied the music and Mr. Dennis Kennealy acted as floor manager. Only those in costume were allowed to dance till after ten o'clock.

Mr. J. R. McIntyre, manager of the skating rink, is to be congratulated on the success of the affair which was one of the best dances of the winter.

Following is a partial list of those in costume with the costumes represented.

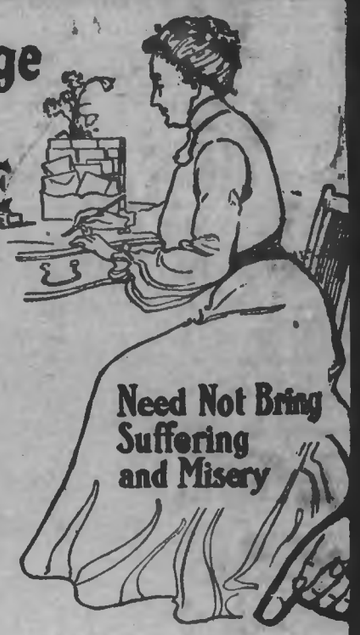
Change of LIFE



Need Not Bring Suffering and Misery

This perfectly natural change in a woman's life is too often accompanied by painful, distressing symptoms due to female troubles and slight irregularities in her delicate organism.

The woman who passes this change without the development of tumors, cancers, or chronic invalidism enters a new field of happiness and usefulness in the domestic circle and in social activity. Her physical system should receive the necessary assistance at this critical period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is exactly suited to woman's needs at this time. It strengthens and cures all derangements of the female organism, it overcomes the hot flashes and dizzy fainting spells, and all other distressing symptoms.

Woman's Friend During Change of Life

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I owe my splendid health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am the mother of three children, have safely passed the change of life, and feel as young and strong as I did twenty years ago, and this is all due to your friend of women, Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it before my children were born, and it greatly assisted nature and saved me much pain, and during change of life I took it off and on for four years, and had but little trouble and sickness such as most women have to endure. MRS. JAMES K. MANN, 806 Bathhurst Street, Toronto, Canada.

The whole secret of safety at this time of life is thorough preparation before the change begins. Fortify the system with a course of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This wonderful medicine has carried thousands of women through this danger period.

No such helpful advice to women who are sick can be had anywhere as will be received free by addressing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Widespread Desire For A Moral Reform

This is the Belief of the Bishop of Toronto, Expressed in His Annual Lenten Letter to the Dioceses—Unbelief of Last Century Has Had Result—People Are Now Being Awakened, However—Some Admonitions for the Lenten Season.

In the Anglican churches in this city yesterday, as well as in those throughout the Diocese of Toronto, copies of the following letter from the Bishop of Toronto, was distributed:

Bishop's Room.
Merchants Bank Chambers,
Toronto, February 22, 1906.

To the Members of the Church of England:—

My Dear People, — There seems to be at the present time a wide-spread desire for religious revival and moral reform. The unbelief prevalent during the last quarter of the Nineteenth Century has had its inevitable results in religious apathy and moral failure, results which are apparent in politics, in business, and in private life. The minds of thousands in the city and Diocese of Toronto, have been recently turned to a consideration of these things.

Lent is the Church's yearly season of revival, and is therefore an especially opportune time for Church people to bind themselves together in a united effort for the revival of religion and improvement of moral tone in the community. Our modern society is losing the taste for simplicity and appetite for righteousness, which are indispensable conditions of moral health. The Lenten sea on not only offers us the opportunity for reform, but its peculiar discipline also supplies us with just those medicines which a wise physician would prescribe for the prevalent moral sickness.

As your chief pastor, I appeal to you, therefore, individually to help the church to make the effort of which I speak. And as a means towards this end I earnestly press upon you the following suggestions to be carried out in the sphere of home, in the society of which you form a part, and the Church of which you are members.

1. In the Home. Let there be regular family Prayer. If this has not been your practice hitherto, nevertheless begin it now this Lent. Let there be also some special, serious, sustained, and prayerful effort to study the Word of God. The Bible is not known, as once it was, and the moral slackness which is so common is undoubtedly attributable in large measure to the neglect of the Holy Scriptures. There there be also time given to increased devotion in private prayer, to self-examination, and the discipline of fasting or abstinence in some form.

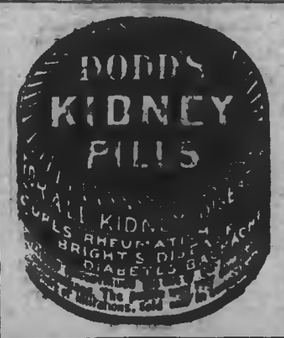
2. Society. I urge you most earnestly to abandon during this season the too usual round of gaiety, pleasures and entertainments. The theatre, card parties, dances, and similar things are distracting and disturbing to all who wish to use Lent as a time of retirement, and spiritual refreshment.

3. In the Church. The hours saved from these social occupations might most profitably be spent in attendance at some week-day service, and in doing some definite missionary or philanthropic work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth. And especially I urge upon you regular attendance at God's House on His own day, and the devout reception of the Holy Communion.

A Lent observed in this way will help to lay again the foundation for a more religious habit of life to be persevered in, not abandoned, after Lent is over. It will tend towards the building up of the Christian character, a process which is never to cease until that day when we shall have become like Him who is our great Example. God grant that His Holy Spirit, Who, it was promised, should convict the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment, may help us as good soldiers of the Cross to stand loyally by one another in the conflict against worldliness, self-indulgence and evil in all its forms.

Brethren, I commend you to God, and to the Word of His grace, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

I am,
Your Faithful Friend and Bishop,
ARTHUR TORONTO.



Mission Sermons Were Preached At George St.

Special Services in Support of Missions---Collections and Subscriptions Were Taken Up—Rev. Dr. Cade and Rev. R. Brecken Were the Speaker of the Day—Collectors Have Done Grand Work During the Year.

CONGREGATIONS WERE VERY LARGE

Yesterday (was missionary Sunday in the George street Methodist church, and special sermons on mission work were preached. There were large congregations present at both services and deep interest was manifested in this important branch of the church work. Collections and subscriptions for mission work were taken during the day. At the morning service Rev. Dr. Cade, D.D., of Toronto, occupied the pulpit, while the preacher in the evening was Rev. R. Brecken, D.D., late of Nova Scotia, and now residing in Toronto.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. Dr. Crothers, thanked the collectors for their faithful services during the year. $782 had been collected for support of missions. The collectors who did such good work last year were Mrs. Parnell, Mrs. H. P. Lindsay, Mrs. A. Parker, Mrs. Goheen, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Northey, Mrs. Sayer and Miss Faint. Mrs. Parnell has completed her fortieth year as collector, a record that has doubtless never been equalled.

Rev. Dr. Cade preached a very interesting and appropriate sermon from the text, I. Corinthians, ix., 19-23,—"For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all that I might gain the more. And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law. To them that are without law as without law (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ) that I might gain them that are without law. To the weak became I as weak that I might gain the weak. I am made all things to all men that I might by all means save some, and this I do for the gospel's sake.

In commencing, Rev. Dr. Cade spoke of the missionary (work of Paul, whom he characterized as being the greatest missionary next to Jesus Christ. He was well fitted for the purpose. In race he was a Jew, in citizenship a Roman, in scholarship a Greek, in religion a Pharisee, in morals a Puritan, and in oratory a master. He lifted the banner of Jesus Christ above all race cards. In the words of the text Paul established a grand missionary thesis.

Paul saw all the wonders of Rome, Persia and Egypt. He saw the architecture, the paintings, and statuary that put to despair the imitation of all succeeding ages. He saw also that these countries were filled with immorality and he studied their languages and read their books (that he might be able to save them. To those who were without law he was as without law to save them also. He felt that it was his privilege do be a human torch in that great darkness like the shadow of death and where the light was as darkness. When Paul saw the masses being trampled under foot, as masses always are, and the weak being crowded to the wall, he went and suffered with them. He was all things to all men, but not in the worldly sense. The audacity, the tenacity and flexibility of his ministry were wonderful.

Every converted man or woman must save some by their example, by earnest, vehement prayer, by visiting the sick, by going to the death chamber and comforting the bereaved.

Passing on, Rev. Dr. Cade, speaking of missionaries, said that the world called them fools. If so, they were fools of Christ, glorious fools, risking all and losing all save Heaven.

The late Rev. Geo. McDougall was referred to. Thirty years ago he had gone into the Northwest and had settled 1,000 miles from a saw-mill, where he was teacher, farmer, trader, carpenter and boat builder. His circuit was immense. He lived on pemmican and was in peril of his life from Indians and disease. He met his death there at last, having been found dead in the snow.

The speaker referred to the vastness of the West, which was one of the grandest empires under God's heaven. It was not like a ribbon, long and narrow, but was almost as broad as long. There was need for missionaries there. Forty young men had been sent out from England but did not begin to fill the need. The Northwest was the best asset Canada had, both materially and spiritually. A mission established there this year would be self-sustaining next year, and would be soon a missionary centre in itself. The speaker closed with an earnest appeal for the support of missions.

OBITUARY.

JOHN CONROY.

John E. Conroy, one of the best known residents of Peterborough County, passed away last Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock, at his home, ninth concession of Douro. The deceased, who was 51 years of age, had lived in Douro all his life. He was well known to lumbermen, as for many years he held the position of foreman with several companies. He was ill with congestion of the lungs for some time.

His mother, Mrs. Edward Conroy, Douro, survives, as does his wife and six children. Four brothers, Daniel, East City; Michael and Patrick, Peterborough, and Edward, Minnesota, and three sisters, Mrs. Robt. Horan, and Mrs. Dennis Meiler, Minnesota, and Mrs. C. Quinlan also survive.

The funeral took place on Friday morning at 8.30 o'clock, from his late residence, Douro, to St. Peter's Cathedral, and thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

Send Settlers To Dominion

The committee of the East End Emigration Fund and the Self Help Emigration Society of England, of which the Right Hon. Lord Brassy and the Right Hon. the Earl of Aberdeen are the respective presidents, have notified Mr. E. Marquette, Provincial Immigration Agent at Montreal, that they intend to send over early in the season a very large number of people who desire to settle in different parts of the Dominion. These societies have for many years sent out out a very large number of people, who have proved to be respectable, sober and industrious, all tending to show that the greatest care is exercised in their selection. Any individuals or firms in need of help can obtain it by applying, giving full particulars, to Mr. Marquette at Montreal.

Say "Yes"

To This Offer, and See the Good You Will Get.

Write us if you are ready to try Liquozone. Let us buy the first bottle for you. Let the product itself prove the good it can do.

You who are waiting don't know what you miss. There are plenty to tell you if you would ask; for millions have already used it. Some use it to get well; some to keep well. Some to cure germ diseases; some as a tonic. You will use it as they do, when you learn what the product does. And you will then regret that you delayed so long.

What Liquozone Is.

The virtues of Liquozone are derived solely from gases. The formula is sent to each user. The process of making requires large apparatus, and from 8 to 14 days' time. It is directed by chemists of the highest class. The object is to so fix and combine the gases as to carry into the system a powerful tonic-germicide.

Contact with Liquozone kills any form of disease germ, because germs are of vegetable origin. Yet to the body Liquozone is not only harmless, but helpful in the extreme. That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poison when taken internally. That is why medicine has been so helpless in a germ disease. Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying; yet no disease germ can exist in it.

We purchased the American rights to Liquozone after thousands of tests had been made with it. Its power had been proved, again and again, in the most difficult germ diseases. Then we offered to supply the first bottle free in every disease that required it. And over one million dollars have been spent to announce and fulfill this offer.

The result is that 11,000,000 bottles have been used, mostly in the past two years. Today there are countless cured ones, scattered everywhere, to tell what Liquozone has done.

But so many others need it that this offer is published still. In late years, science has traced scores of diseases to germ attacks. Old remedies do not apply to them. We wish to show those sick ones—at our cost—what Liquozone can do.

Where It Applies.

These are the diseases in which Liquozone has been most employed. In these it has earned its widest reputation. In all of these troubles we supply the first bottle free. And in all—no matter how difficult—we offer each user a two months' further test without the risk of a penny.

Epworth League Union Meeting

At the Charlotte street church tonight a meeting of more than usual importance will be held. It will be a union gathering of the Epworth Leagues in the city, the members of which will gather, not so much for social purposes, as to discuss plans of work and to consider the prosecution of the aims of the society in the future.

A number of addresses by members of the Leagues will be given.

Terribly Distressing.

The Attendance A Record Breaker

The Men's Meeting Yesterday Was One of the Best.

There was a record breaking attendance of men at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon. The interest manifest and the impression made also more marked. Mr. J. F. Thornton led the Song Service, and was ported by a strong male choir. Several popular selections from Torrey-Alexander collection were sung as solos including "Oh What a Change." The lesson was read by Mr. Elvan J. Bengough, B.A., of Toronto. Mr. A. M. Bunt gave a very impressive address on the "Climax of Love," basing his remarks on the five words on the Cross. He received very earnest attention, and many were noticeably moved by his straight appeal to lead a Christian life.

Rev. J. G. Potter will give the address on Sunday next.

Canon Baldwin Will Be Preacher

The special preacher on Wednesday at St. John's church will be the Rev. Canon Baldwin of All Saints' church, Toronto. Canon Baldwin is one of the foremost orators of the church in Canada, and a large congregation should welcome him. It was with difficulty that he was secured for this date.

WELCOME THE CARPET FACTORY.

The negotiations of the Manufacers' Committee, with Brintons, Limited, for the establishment of a carpet manufactory in Peterborough, have reached a stage when the proposed agreement arrived at, will form the subject of legislation at tonight's meeting of the city council. A bylaw will, it is expected, be submitted, and passed its readings, preliminary to being submitted to the people for their approval, and in that event it will be further confirmed by Act of the Legislature. "Brintons, Limited," will establish in Peterborough a big branch of their immense Kidderminster, England, business, if the conditions of the provisional agreement are carried out.

What Brintons ask does not seem to be unreasonable in view of what we have given other industries; nor in view of the solid and substantial standing the well known firm of Brintons occupy in regard to capital and financial strength, a position similar in this regard to that of the American Cereal Company.

The buildings of Brintons, Limited, in Kidderminster, England, cover 14 acres, and the works employ 14,000 hands, and their carpets are known wherever carpets are used. What the Brintons want to induce them to establish a large carpet factory here is 15 acres of land — the plot in view being a part of the Sugar Company's lands — with a fixed assessment of the property, at its cost, which at $100 an acre, would be $6,000. This land is now outside of the corporation, it adds nothing to either Peterborough's treasury or prosperity, and if bought for the Brintons will come under city assessment. The company also wishes to erect cottages for the workmen. There will also, according to the terms of the bylaw, be assessed on the same basis as any other city dwellings.

This proposition represents one of the most favourable and promising propositions ever presented to the public for approval. We made what was, by some, thought to be a risky bargain with the Electric Company it has turned out to be a tremendous success in promoting the prosperity and industrial importance of the city.

We gave the Cordage Company $4,500 on the conditions of that company undertaking to employ 65 hands. They have done this and almost fourfold better—employing today about 250 hands. The Brintons, for one-third more financial outlay, agree to employ at the beginning nearly twice the number of hands—125. The Brintons want 15 acres at $400 an acre, which makes $6,000. The tax on this at 18 1-2 mills will pay the interest at 4 per cent. on almost half of this, leaving the net amount advanced to the Brintons about $3,000 to be further reduced by the taxes on the cottages that may be erected for operatives.

We are well pleased with the price we paid, so to speak, for the Cereal Company, and in regard to the aid we have given manufacturing industries generally, we have good reason to believe that we have invested wisely.

Judges and those who know, say that Brintons' is one of the best propositions we have received—an old well established and solid firm—no matter of experiment, but a grandly "going concern," an industry of approved standing, which will be a great addition to the industrial forces that are so potently swinging the pendulum that marks Peterborough's progress.

TEACHERS' SALARIES.

The efficiency of our Public Schools depends upon the efficiency of the teaching, and the efficiency of teachers depends — well, it doesn't depend upon a general rate of salaries that drives the most capable teachers from the profession, to be succeeded by inexperienced teachers, who, in turn, are starved out. This lack of permanence is fatal to the best work on the part of teachers. This is so self-evident that it is useless to waste time in proving what can so easily be proven. This brings to the fore another self-evident fact, that teachers' salaries are discouragingly and, in relation to other occupations, disproportionately inadequate. Reasoning from this generally prevalent condition, it is no wonder that the teachers of the city feel justified in suggesting an increase of salary, especially in view of the recently greatly increased cost of living, upon which grounds Ingersoll and Hamilton have advanced the salaries of their teachers.

SPEAKING EVIL OF DIGNITIES.

"No rogue e'er felt the halter draw, with good opinion of the law," and we have had instances of where political "rogues" have taken their fling at the judges of the law because the latter, making a finding on facts, have dislocated the political schemes of these so-called victims. We have seen such things before where pin-head newspapers and politicians have outrageously abused the judges of the land from purely political spite. And recently the Conservative press and Conservative leaders of Manitoba have been assailing the judges because the latter have given judgments that disappointed the political ambitions or schemes of Conservatives in the West. A certain element of Conservatives can't stand adversity. Nothing but an unbroken political success, which virtually means an unbroken tenure of office, will make them happy. So long as things go smoothly they are the greatest patriots; the greatest respecters of the dignity of the bench, but the minute the bench, in the discharge of its duty—in making findings on evidence—crosses their purposes, revolt comes and the bench is abused, and even royalty does not escape censure. This condition of a certain class of Conservatives seems to amount to a mental infirmity, as has been shown in our history. About half a century ago there was party disappointment over certain legislation, and, as a result of disappointed party ambition, the Parliament Buildings of the country were burned, and disappointed "grafters" organized a movement for annexation to the United States — the rule or ruin spirit in full play. There have always, it seems, been such elements in the Conservative party, but the influence of the respectable element serves to repress any more dangerous manifestation of the rule or ruin spirit than mouthy abuse of any power—whether royal or judicial, or otherwise— which interferes with, or fails to promote, their political schemes and "graft" ambitions.

Yesterday In City's Churches

ST JOHN'S.

Rev. E. W. Pickford of Norwood, was the preacher at St. Johns' yesterday, and preached two powerful sermons to the large congregations assembled. In the morning his text was II Cor. vi, 7, "By the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left."

At night his text was St. Matt. iv. 1, "Then was Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil."

Both sermons were much enjoyed and Rev. Mr. Pickford will be warmly welcomed by St. John's congregation should he again visit that church.

ST. PAUL'S.

The Presbyterian Guild will meet to-nibt at 8 o'clock.

The prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening.

On Friday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society will be held.

There will be a concert under the auspices of the Presbyterian Guild on Friday night.

GEORGE STREET METHODIST.

The Ladies' Aid Society of George street church will entertain the ladies of the church between 4 and 6 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments will be served.

The regular prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday night, and at its conclusion the Trustee Board will meet.

MURRAY STREET BAPTIST.

Week's Meetings.

To-night the Murray street Baptist church will hold the first consecration meeting in the year at 8 o'clock. To-morrow at 8.30 p.m. the Women's Mission Circle meets. Mrs. (Rev.) R. L. Sharp, of St. Peter's Reserve, Man., and Mrs. Reilly, of Lindsay, will give addresses. All ladies invited. Special collections in aid of foreign missions at 7 p.m.

At 8 p.m. Tuesday the Ladies' Aid Society will meet, also the "Willing Workers." Wednesday night prayer meeting.

ALL SAINT'S.

Lenten services will be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5 p.m. An illustrated lecture on Tuesday at 8 o'clock, "History of the Church," will be given by the rector, assisted by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt. On Thursday, service at 7.30.

PARK STREET.

Yesterday was a busy day at the Park street Baptist church. The subject of Divine Illuminants, was the theme of the morning sermon. The text was from John xii, 46. "I am come as a light." The sermon was followed by the reception of new members and the communion service.

The first of the March series of sermons was given at night to a crowded church and overflow in the School Room.

Mr. Jas. Tranter rendered the solo "Tell Mother, I'll be There," the congregation taking up the refrain. The effect was marked.

The week will be very full. The B.Y.P.U. meets to-night; a violin orchestra will assist in the service. Two papers will be read.

Wednesday a public service which is full of inspiration and several evenings given up to rehearsal for the Sunday school entertainment on the 16th.

The second subject in the series will be given next Sunday. "Is there any chance of salvation after death?"

A Modern Establishment

Some Facts About Semi-Ready New Shops in Montreal.

(From The Gazette, Montreal, 21st Feb., 1906.)

The Semi-Ready Company has been strengthened by the addition to its directorate of two well-known business men. Mr. Charles H. Nelson, who was for many years head of the wholesale house of H. & A. Nelson, Montreal and Toronto, has purchased a large interrest in the company and is now Vice-President. Mr. Alfred Wood, the newspaper publisher, who recently disposed of the Ottawa Free Press to a group of Ottawa contractors, has also joined forces with the company, and he will be added to the directorate.

The Semi-Ready Tailoring shops in Montreal are models of the modern establishment. A new factory of five floors with a system which ensures high-class workmanship is surrounded by every sanitary arrangement. The greater part of one floor is devoted to a dining-room where the 350 employees may take their mid-day luncheons in comfort. A kitchen and lunch counter can be managed by the co-operation of the whole working staff.

Built according to plans prepared by Mr. Beatty, the Semi-Ready Tallorey is situate in Montreal far away from the notorious factory district. It is on Guy street, near Sherbrooke, on one of the plateaus from where Mount Royal begins its steep ascent.

The officers of the Semi-Ready Limited, elected at the annual meeting held a few weeks ago are: President, Andrew Mercer; Vice-President, Chas. H. Nelson; Managing Director, Herbert A. Beatty; Secretary-Treasurer, H. A. Nelson; Director, A. S. Laing.

President Mercer was for many years a successful merchant tailor in Peterborough. He was one of the first business men to recognise the possibilities of the Semi-Ready system, and how surely it must displace the cruder custom tailoring methods just as the Goodyear process revolutionized the shoemaking industry.

Badly Injured In Hotel Row

Pat Murphy Roughly Used by Jack and Jim McManus.

A fight, in which the odds were two to one and the weaker party totally vanquished, took place this afternoon at the Royal Hotel. Pat. Murphy, East City, was the loser, and his assailants were Jim and Jack McManus. There has been bad blood between the two parties for some time, it is said, and it is also alleged that several fights have taken place. Murphy, who was under the influence of liquor, was very badly used. His face was severely cut and he received many bruises.

Acting Chief Adams and P. C. McGinty were called, but before they arrived the McManus brothers had made their escape, and no trace of them could be found. One of them is said to live above Auburn and the other near Bridgenorth. A police court case will be the result of the scrap.

The "Water Lily" Has Changed Ownership

Will be Operated by Captain White, of Lakefield, This Year--He Has Bought the Boat From Calcutt Company--Will be Enlarged and Re-built.

The steamer "Water Lily," which has been one of the fleet of the Calcutt Steamship Line, has been sold, and will be operated this season by Captain White, of Lakefield, the new owner. The deal was completed a few days ago, and Capt. White has now a staff of men at work on the "Lily" fitting her up. She will be broadened by about [illegible] which will make her much more commodious, and comfortable.

Capt. White will run the boat on the Otonabee and Stony Lake waters, and will, no doubt, do a good trade. Capt. White has been in the steamboat business for years. He owned the steamer "Alert" until her destruction by fire and last year had her engines placed in a new hull, naming the boat the "Lakefield," which he operated as a tug. This boat was burned, too, and now Mr. White is starting another enterprise. As to the operation of the other boat in the Calcutt fleet this season, it is understood that plans are not completed yet.

Citizens Object To PROPOSED LOCATIION Of The New School

Considerable Opposition to the Action of the Committee in Recommending That the Ontario Bank Lot be Purchased---Claim That it is Too Much in Corner of the City---Within Stone's Throw of Boundary Line.

The Special Committee appointed by the Board of Education to report on the question of a new Public school for the South Ward, met on Saturday afternoon in the office of the chairman, Mr. W. Pringle. It is understood that at the meeting of the Board of Education to-night, the committee will recommend that the school be erected on a lot, the property of the Ontario Bank, east of the proposed extension of George street to the Exhibition grounds.

To-night the committee will interview the council in reference to the extension of the street, and, it is said, the location of the school there will depend upon the council's decision to proceed with this extension.

Mr. Pringle, the chairman of the committee was interviewed to-day by the Examiner, in reference to the matter, but refused to either confirm or deny the report that the committee would recommend that this particular lot be purchased, and that the school be erected there. He stated however that they would wait on the council to-night, and the inference is that it is for the purpose of ascertaining the will of that body in reference to the opening of the street.

It is understood that there will be some considerable opposition to the proposal to erect a school on the lot referred to. It is claimed that it is located at the extreme corner of the city, and that the children who live in the south-western and north-western parts of the ward will have altogether too far to walk.

The opinion seems to be general that the new school should not be located east of Aylmer street, if it is intended to place it in a position easily accessible from all parts of the district. The school should be located in a section of the city which could be reached easily by the children from all parts of the ward, which would not be the case if it were built in the place proposed, in one corner of the city, within a stone's throw of the southern boundary, and a short distance from the river.

If the intention of the committee is carried out there will be some pretty strenuous objections from the residents of that ward.

Plans For New Fire Hall Have Been Completed

The plans and specifications for the new fire hall have now been completed by Architect Wm. Blackwell and will this evening be submitted to the City Council.

The building will be made of brick with a stone foundation, the floors and ceilings, etc., to be finished in wood. The estimated cost of the hall will be about $10,000 and will undoubtedly meet with the unanimous approval of the citizens, as it will be modern in every respect.

The main building will be 79 feet in length by 40 feet in width and three stories in height, with stables and tower to the rear built the full length of the main structure and continued 18 feet further to the rear.

The ground floor, which will be finished in the most modern style, will contain two large rooms at either side, each 37 x 29 feet with 13 feet ceilings for the engines, conveyances, etc. Between these rooms is situated the Chief's office, an apartment 15 x 13 feet, with a stairway at the rear leading to the second flat.

At the rear of the main building there will be two stables with room for eight horses, only one to be completed now. Between these stables and to the back of the Chief's office stands the tower 17 feet square and 60 feet in height from the ground floor. The tower will be large enough for the hose waggon to drive through and unload and load up the hose. This is an improvement over most towers as room for this purpose is generally deficient.

The second floor will be fitted up at the present with six bedrooms and a bath room 13 x 8 feet, with 10 feet ceiling, on one side of the building. On the other side will be a large room 40 x 29 feet, which will also be fitted up as bedrooms, though not at the present time.

At the rear of the second floor two hay lofts, each 29 x 16 feet, will be situated over the stables.

The cellar floor will contain furnaces, fuel, etc., and the attic will be utilized as a storage department.

In the front of the structure and above the Chief's office the roof will be raised with a dome-shaped top.

Altogether the new fire hall will be one of the most up-to-date and will be worthy of the progressive city of Peterborough.

South Monaghan Man Honoured

Tendered Banquet Before Departure for the West.

A number of the residents of South Monaghan gathered together on Saturday evening last in the Foresters' Hall, and honoured Mr. Isaac L. Kerr to a sardine banquet, and presented him with a purse containing a handsome cheque.

Mr. Kerr leaves on March 13th, for the Northwest, where he intends to reside in the future. He has been a life long resident of South Monaghan, and no farmer in that section has been more respected than he.

After luncheon was partaken of, Mr. William Waterman, the chairman, called upon several gentlemen present for addresses. Those who responded were: Messrs. Geo. Smithson, Wallace Morrison, Harry Kerr, Wm. Pammett, Wm. Reid, R. J. O'Heir and Wilbert Wood. All spoke in eulogistic terms of Mr. Kerr's life in South Monaghan, and although regretting his departure from amongst them, they wished him life-long success, and happiness in the Golden West.

Mr. Russell Morrison read an address to the guest of honour and Mr. Robert Borland presented him with the purse.

Mr. Kerr made an appropriate reply, thanking those present for the great honour they had done him in tendering such a delightful banquet, and for the many kindnesses to him in the past.

During the evening, Mr. William Thompson sang a comic song, which added greatly to the pleasant evening. The enjoyable banquet closed with the singing of "God Save the King."

Drooping—Tired—Weary

You Feel Depressed, Dragged Out, and Sort of "All Gone" —Shake Off That Tired Feeling, Get Well and Strong, Fortify Your Nerves, Nourish Your Blood.

FERROZONE

You are getting pale and thin. You're dragged down with a "don't care" feeling that makes life most unhappy. Your strength is fleeting away, and weakness is creeping in. Every day your chances for cure becomes smaller.

Trouble is you don't assimilate your food, consequently the body is poorly nourished. The blood is thin, lacks those red corpuscles that denote health.

You can only prevent a total collapse by building up all the powers of the body with Ferrozone, which will surely make you well. Ferrozone creates tremendous appetite, increases the power of digestion, and insures perfect assimilation. Everything you eat is at once converted into nourishment.

FERROZONE makes rich, pure blood, a surplus of energy, new life for the nerves and all over-strained organs. Robust health will glow on the cheeks, jovial spirits, increased weight, and a clear, active brain will evidence a few of the benefits that follow Ferrozone.

The effect of Ferrozone is instant, yet permanent. For upbuilding and invigorating the listless and depressed it has no equal. It's the concentrated nourishment in Ferrozone that makes it so beneficial. We guarantee it contains no opiates, no alcohol, nothing but the most strengthening qualities known in medicine. Won't you use Ferrozone; it will surely make you well.

GAINED 15 POUNDS.

Mr. H. A. Thurston, of 228 Vermont St. E., Indianapolis, Restored by Ferrozone.

"A year ago I took the grippe. I was as weak as a child. I was no longer able to eat. My blood was thin. My cheeks were white and hollow. Doctors gave me all kinds of medicine, but none of them brought me strength. My friends said I was wasting away with some slow disease, and I bade them good-bye. Then I heard of the wonderful Ferrozone. After three days it gave me an appetite. I gained strength and became cheerful. Under Ferrozone I improved steadily. I am well to-day. I weigh fifteen pounds heavier than ever before, and feel like a new man.

(Signed) "H. A. THURSTON."

Editor McInnis Found Guilty Of Criminal Libel

The Regina Editor Fined One Hundred Dollars.

CRIMINAL LIBEL CHARGED

Hon. Walter Scott, Premier of Saskatchewan, the Prosecutor—Mr. McInnes' Statements Contradicted by Mr. Scott and Mr. J. M. Young—Mr. Scott Gave Emphatic Denial to Charge of Attempted Bribery.

Regina, March 5.—The Scott v. McInnes libel suit was concluded Saturday afternoon, the defendant being found guilty. At the request of the prosecution the penalty was made very light, they desiring conviction, not punishment. McInnes was fined $100, each party paying their own costs.

Rev. W. T. McKenzie testified that when J. K. McInnes first made the charge at Fillmore he stated that he had a letter from Premier Scott in his pocket containing the offer of a bribe.

Hon. J. A. Calder gave corroborative evidence, the latter recounting the circumstances of how he had taken McInnis to task for it. The statements of these two witnesses were in direct contradiction to McInnis, who swore that he never made such an assertion at Fillmore.

McInnis Again Contradicted.

J. W. Young, President of Regina & Hudson Bay Railway, swore to receiving a letter from Walter Cummings, Winnipeg, a director of the road, in which a proposition for the purchase of the charter at a valuation of $100,000 was made. This letter he had taken to McInnis, another director and secretary of the company, to ascertain his opinion of it. McInnis read this letter, and suggested calling the directorate together. Other members were, however, absent from the city, and, as an immediate reply was desired, he asked Mr. McInnis to draft a telegram in reply, as he (Young) did not care to take the responsibility of refusing such an offer.

Mr. McInnes swore Saturday that he had never seen this letter. I had never heard of the $100,000 offer, although he admitted that Mr. Young discussed the matter with him.

Premier Scott Called.

Mr. Scott was next called. He gave the most positive and emphatic denial to the charge that he had in any way, shape or form attempted to bribe Mr. McInnis. He told of his past relations with McInnes, and how he had regarded him as a close personal friend. Reciting the gist of a conversation with McInnes on the school question, he showed how the latter had in April last said, having in mind the past criticism of the autonomy schools clause by The Standard, "You have heard the last word from me (Scott) on this." He (Scott) believed right up to the middle of October last, that McInnes would support him. McInnes had boasted to him how he had gone to a public meeting held at Regina to protest against autonomy, with the object of preventing condemnation of the bills. He (McInnes) boasted how he had divided the Conservatives into two factions, and got them into two irreconcilable positions, and had then moved the adjournment of the meeting and prevented the condemnation of the Government on trial.

Object of the Meeting.

Coming to the time of the meeting at which it is alleged he made the improper offer to McInnes, Mr. Scott said he had no recollection of putting out the light, as alleged by McInnes, nor of standing on a chair in order to do so. If he did do it, then he did it upon the suggestion of McInnes, as he certainly would not extinguish the light in another's man building. His object in asking for the meeting with McInnes was to have a good talk with the latter on political subjects in order to ascertain how the latter stood, and as much as he possibly could as to the plans and tactics of the Opposition party. He used the railway charter matter as a pretext for asking for the meeting.

Standard Falsified Evidence.

In his cross-examination Premier Scott drew attention very forcibly to the fact that Mr. McInnes' paper, The Standard, had falsified the evidence he (Scott) had given at the preliminary trial. At that time he had testified to an offer of $10,000 for the whole charter, while The Standard falsified the evidence to read $10,000 for each shareholder. The official sworn evidence and the files of The Standard were both produced, and sustained Mr. Scott's statement.

FIGHTING WAS SEVERE.

Turkish Troops Active In Suppressing Albanian Uprising.

London, March 5.—The correspondent at Constantinople of The Daily Telegraph, reports severe fighting in the neighborhood of Ipek, in the Vilayat of Kossovo, where eight Turkish battalions suppressed an Albanian rising.

Four other battalions dispersed 3,000 Albanians at Dobroshevske, near Mitrovista.

Memorial to Prof. Graham Bell.

Brantford, March 5.—The committee in charge of the erection of a memorial to Prof. Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, in this city, has issued circulars appealing for funds. Three thousand dollars has already been subscribed, and it is expected a large sum will be raised without difficulty.

Tutela Heights, the home of the inventor, where the invention was achieved, will be purchased and maintained, and also, a monument to Prof. Bell will be erected.

He will visit Brantford next Friday at the annual meeting of the board of trade.

U. S. Transport Ashore.

Manila, March 5.—The inter-island transport steamer Ingalls is ashore on Raporapo reef, off the southern coast of the Island of Luson. She will probably be a total wreck. A battalion of the 20th infantry en route to Manila, where they were to transfer to the transport Sheridan for the United States, were aboard the Ingalls. They were rescued by a coast guard cutter.

Hundred And Twenty Mile An Hour Wind

Terrific Cyclone Sweeps the Society Islands.

LOSS OF LIFE PUT AT 10,000

Many Islands Inundated—Loss Estimated at From One to Five Millions —Settlement of Cook Islanders, British Subjects, Destroyed—Some Islands Said to Have Disappeared—Much Distress.

Papeete, Tahiti, Feb. 15, via San Francisco, March 5.—The most destructive cyclone ever experienced in the Society and Tuamotu Islands, occurred on Feb. 7 and 8. The damage in Tahiti is estimated at $1,000,000 and presumably a similar amount of property was destroyed on the Tuamotu Islands. The city of Papeete was inundated and about 75 buildings destroyed, including the American consulate and the French Government building. The shipping in the harbor of Papeete escaped injury, owing to the direction of the wind, but fears are entertained for vessels which were cruising near the Tuamotu Islands.

It is feared that there has been a heavy loss of life in the lagoons of Tuamotu Islands.

Waves 65 Feet High.

The schooner Papeete was submerged for an hour near Anes, Tuamotu. Her captain, Philip Michaello, estimated that the waves were 65 feet high. It was impossible to see 20 feet away at 8 p. m., and the sailors had to be lashed to the vessel. M. Marcadi, a French resident at Faharan, Tuamotu Islands, abandoned the place in a small cutter after all the buildings and dwellings houses and the Catholic church were swept away. Many of the natives climbed cocoanut trees or put out to sea in small boats.

Bridges and roads were damaged on the Island of Tahiti. Breadfruit, cocoanut, banana and plantation trees were blown down in great numbers, which will result in hardships to the natives, and will materially affect commerce during the next two or three years. The French gunboat Zelee has gone to the Tuamotu Islands with supplies of food and fresh water. The British consul has appealed to his Government for aid for 500 British subjects.

Terrible Velocity.

The cyclone reached the velocity of 120 miles an hour. It struck the islands about midnight on Feb. 7, and continued until about 4 o'clock on the next afternoon. The Island of Anes, Tuamotu group, is believed to have been the centre of the storm.

The Village of Tarona, near the arsenal, was completely swept away. It consisted of the mission buildings and homes of native converts of the Reorganized Latter Day Saints' mission.

British Village Destroyed.

A settlement nearby, composed of dwellings of several hundred Cook Islanders (British subjects), was completely destroyed. One American named Seefeldt, living near that community, had to take to an adjacent swamp, which became inundated, and he was compelled to battle with the waves for many hours. Further east, on the beach road, all the houses were swept away for about a half mile.

At Taunoa, the American consulate collapsed. In the absence of the American consul, his mother, Mrs. Doty, supervised the removal of the archives, aided by several missionaries. Mrs. Doty was in serious jeopardy several times. The archives were temporarily stored at the Latter Day Saints' mission house. Mrs. Doty's family also accepted their hospitality.

The Insurance Inquiry And It's Function

Commission to Meet At Ottawa to Arrange Matters.

THE COMMISSION'S POWERS

May Employ Expert Assistance and Take Evidence on Oath—Life Insurance Systems In Canada to Be Subject to a General Inquiry—Also the Laws of Canada as They Relate to the Business.

Ottawa, March 5.—The order-in-council appointing the insurance commission clothes the board with the following powers:

1. To inquire into (a) the general subject of life insurance systems in Canada; (b) the operations of the various companies chartered by the Parliament of Canada, or of any province, and licensed under the Insurance Act, transacting life insurance in Canada, including expenses of management, investment of funds and other allied questions.

2. To make the like inquiry, so far as deemed necessary, into the operations of companies, other than those chartered by the Dominion or provinces, transacting in Canada the business of life insurance.

3. To inquire into the operation of the laws of the Parliament of Canada relating to and governing the business of life insurance, both as regards Canadian companies and companies other than Canadian, and to consider and report upon any amendments thereto that may be deemed necessary.

4. That the commissioners so appointed have power to employ expert assistance, to summon before them witnesses and require them to give evidence, on oath, orally or in writing, or on solemn affirmation, if they are persons entitled to affirm in civil matters, and to produce such documents and things as such commissioners deem requisite to the full investigation of matters hereinbefore referred to, and generally to exercise all the powers conferred by the said act.

Commission's First Meeting.

This morning the first meeting of members of the Royal Commission on Insurance will be held in the office of the chairman, Judge McTavish, at the Court House, when the scope of the investigation, as laid down in the order in council making the appointments, will be considered, and an effort made to decide upon some part of the future program.

Ample notice of any meetings fixed will be given.

Judge MacTavish expressed the opinion last night that, Ottawa being a central point, it might be convenient to hold as many meetings as possible here, but added that the matter was one for the commission as a whole to decide.

Mr. Ross of Bridgewater, N. S. secretary of the commission, arrived Saturday and introduced himself to the chairman.

Counsel For Ontario.

Toronto, March 5.—"The Ontario Government expects to appoint counsel to appear before the Insurance Commission in the interests of the policyholders of Ontario," was the statement of Premier Whitney on Saturday.

Castro's Leniency.

Caracas, March 5.—President Castro has released Gen. Guerra, who was formerly Minister of War, and was imprisoned by President Castro in November, 1901, because of his alleged participation in a conspiracy against Castro. Several other political prisoners have been released.

B. C. to Spend $2,837,916.31.

Victoria, B. C., March 5.—In the Legislature Saturday afternoon Finance Minister Tatlow presented his third budget, showing an estimated revenue of $2,647,966.66, with expenditures of $2,837,916.31. The increase in expenditure is owing to public works, for which $300,000 more is provided this year than last. The difference between the estimates and expenditures and that of receipts is made up in a present surplus in the bank of over a quarter of a million.

A MILLION NEEDLES

COULD NOT INFLICT THE TORTURE WOMEN SUFFER FROM HEADACHES

Headache is not in itself a disease, but a symptom or accompaniment of other diseases, principally those of the stomach, liver and bowels, such as Constipation, Dyspepsia, Liver Trouble, Bad Blood, Female Complaints, General Debility and Weakness. Headache is common to both sexes, but more frequently affects females.

The varieties of headache most common are sick or bilious headache, nervous headache, headache from constipation, debility or indigestion, periodical and spasmodic headache. Undoubtedly the cause must be removed before permanent relief can be had.

Burdock Blood Bitters

removes the cause of the headache, and not only does this but it also restores the entire system to healthy action and buoyant vigor.

"I was troubled with headache for a number of years, but could get nothing to help me. I procured a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and finding it was doing me so much good, I got two more. I am now fully cured and think there is nothing in the world like Burdock Blood Bitters for headache."

Purity of The Blood

THE BEST PROTECTION AGAINST DISEASE — OBTAINED BY USING

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

If you enquire into the cause of sickness, pain and suffering, you will find that fully nine-tenths of it result from derangements of the liver, kidneys and bowels.

This was the truth arrived at by Dr. Chase when he began experiments which led to the discovery of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The liver and kidneys are intimately related as filterers of the blood, and the regularity of the bowels depends on the healthful action of the liver.

Hence it happens that when the liver and kidneys are made healthy and vigorous by the influence of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, such diseases as biliousness, liver complaint, kidney disease, indigestion and constipation soon entirely disappear.

With the liver and kidneys in healthful working order, the purity of the blood is ensured and you are protected against colds, fevers and contagious and infectious diseases.

As a family medicine to promptly cure the most common ills of life, there is no preparation that can be compared with Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. In every neighbourhood there are people who have proven merits of this great medicine. Ask them.

Mr. Jos. Lutton, Belleville, Ont., writes: "I was troubled very much with kidney disease for a long time and was unable to obtain relief. A friend advised me to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and they have proven of very great benefit to me. I have used a number of boxes of this excellent medicine and feel it a duty to recommend it to other sufferers.

"My mother thinks that there is no better tonic than Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and others of my friends have used this food cure with splendid results."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box; at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto. Pain cannot exist where Dr. Chase's Backache Plaster is applied.

Latest News Of Winter Sports

Friday's Game As Seen By Toronto Journals

W. J. Morrison and W. A. Hewitt Give Their Opinions of the Struggle Between Goderich and Peterborough.

The Toronto News and Star both had representatives at the game here on Friday and their issues of Saturday night contain a report of the contest.

W. J. Morrison, in the News says: "It was a first-class exhibition of hockey and both teams played an entirely different style of game.

Peterborough were doing their best to pile up a score, while Goderich, on the other hand, played a strictly defensive game, doing their best to hold the score down, to enable them to win out in the return game on their own ice on Tuesday night.

In comparing the two sevens it can be said that there was no decided advantage, and the one-sided score in no way indicates the play, as Goderich did not seem to let themselves out, being satisfied to keep the tally down as much as possible.

They played two cover points and had only three men up on the line throughout the hour's play.

The match was not particularly rough, although many men decorated the fence. The penalties were administered for offences such as tripping and slashing at one another's stick. There was not the usual amount of body checking indulged in that is seen so frequently in intermediate games.

The ice was in perfect shape and the play was well handled by Referee Waghorne, who was most strict and impartial in his rulings.

Either one of these teams, fit for senior company, could hold their own in either the Eastern or Western districts. The forwards are fast and good shots. Those on the locals played better combination and shooting at closer range, while the men on the Goderich line took chances and shot from a longer distance in the hopes of finding the nets.

Some of Mr. Morrison's views of the game seem rather peculiar. For instance he says that in comparing the sevens there was no decided advantage, and that the one-sided score did not indicate the play. It is true that in the first half Goderich played a defence game to keep the score down, as the News says, and that they succeeded is shown by the fact that Peterborough scored only one goal. In the second half Goderich loosened up a bit and their forwards instead of defending began to attack. In the open play Peterborough were clearly the best team. They had more speed, vastly better combination and shot far more accurately than the sailors.

Billy Hewitt in the Star, has the following complimentary reference to the Peterborough team:—

The Peterborough team, though still suffering from the effects of their long trip to Parry Sound, played lightning last hookey, especially in the second half. They have a big, heavy-looking team, but they are all very speedy, and their team play is very effective. Goderich puzzled them somewhat in the first half. Campbell, the point player, divided the goal with McIver, and the rover played a sorta of a sub-cover-point. This proved a very strong defence, especially as the Peterborough forwards found difficulty in getting away from their checks.

In the second half Peterborough started off with a rush and scored four goals in the first eight minutes by very fast work. Crowley and Glover went up with the forwards and the attack on the Goderich goal was simply furious. Peterborough defence seldom lifted, but rushed into the enemy's territory, although Glover scored the fourth goal on a lift from centre ice. Whitcroft was a host in himself. He hogged the puck in the early stages of the game, but in the second half he played unselfishly, and usually started the rushes that resulted in scores. He is a very brilliant player, but there are others on the Peterborough team. Glover, at point, did some remarkably fine work, his speedy flights up the ice providing some of the spectacular features of the game. Crowley did effective work in breaking up rushes, and had a lot of speed himself. Graham, Morgan and Cavanah were in the midst of the trouble all the time, and were always factors in the game. Wasson, in goal, hadn't much to do, being chiefly a spectator.

Peterborough raised some stiff objections to the order to play Goderich in the first of the finals last night at Peterborough. They claimed that the notice was too short, and the games were being piled on them too fast. They threatened default, but, knowing that bluffs don't go with the O.H.A. they went on and played. Not much danger of Peterborough defaulting. They are after the championship and look as if they would carry it east.—Lindsay Post.

From all accounts Peterborough gave Parry Sound a pretty rough time of it in the game at Peterborough, and the lads from the end of the road handed it back to them in the return game. At Parry Sound it was said that about two hundred wild-eyed partisans piled on the ice at one point in the second half, and wanted to tear the Peterborough outfit limb from limb. Most of them were armed with bottles and to Peterborough they looked like an army of shantymen with axes. The North Star says:—"We do not intend to cry over spilt milk, but we do believe that the boys could have won out had they not been used up so badly in their match at Peterborough. Peard, who had his nose broken, was in no condition to be on the ice."—Toronto Globe.

North End Curlers Will Play South

Hunter Street to be the Equator in Selecting the Rinks.

All curlers are requested to be present at the Charlotte street rink this evening to arrange the rinks, which will play in the north and south end competition. This is the result of the challenge issued by the north end last week in the Examiner and accepted by Mr. T. Brightman of the south. Twelve rinks will be chosen in all and the contest which should be a keen one will likely take place early this week. With Hunter street as the dividing line many of the rinks which have played together previously this season will be broken up. This contest promises to be an interesting one and all lovers of this royal sport should assist by the presence this evening to have it a successful competition.

CURLING

Three rinks from Keene will be here this evening or to-morrow to play the return game with the locals. It will be remembered that last week two Peterborough rinks won from Keene by 16 up.

Mr. R. Neill made arrangements this morning with Mr. Wm. Read, of Bobcaygeon, for a three rink competition to be played in the latter town on Wednesday next.

BASEBALL.

It is time that steps were being taken to get the Peterborough baseball team under way. An early start means a great deal to a ball team and it is advisable that those interested in baseball in Peterborough should get together and organize the club. There should be no difficulty in getting a good team this year. Nearly all of last year's nine are available, including Rubbie Shea, the fast short stop.

Dear Sir.—How is it that so many drunks are not taken up. I'm obliged to come from work alone and have been badly frightened by drunks bidding me good night or a drunken "excuse me lady" when they run against me. Me thinks every man seen drunk on the public street, should be taken up or made go back where they got drunk and sober up and not scare sober people to death.

ONE WHO IS FRIGHTENED.

Editor Post Card Column:

Sir.—It would be interesting to know who wrote the letter signed Charles E. Milner in your issue of Saturday. It reminds one of a verse from Solomon's Song, "Honey and milk are under thy tongue" and does not read like the phrasing of Mr. Milner at all. The signature may be the hand of Esau but the letter sounds like the voice of Dav — oh, I mean Jacob.

CURIOSITY.

Editor Post Card Column:

Lovers of Angling will regret very much to learn that the Superintendent of the canal will find it necessary to drain off the water in order to have experts examine the bottom to ascertain the extent of repairs required. As nothing can be accomplished until the ice is broken up we would ask Mr. McClellan to defer letting off the water until then so that the fishery inspector and as many as will volunteer their assistance, can help to prevent the destruction of the small fry and prevent the hoodlums with pitchforks, rakes, etc., unnecessarily destroying our natural food supply.

Yesterday afternoon a number of boys got into the Market Building and made such a noise in the main hall that the ladies in the telephone office below were compelled to send for the police. P. C. The Commissioners of the City Trust should see that the gates on the stairway are repaired to prevent such people from making their way up to the Market Hall.

THAT OVER WORKED, PLAYED OUT FEELING AMONG WOMEN

There are thousands of females all over our land who are broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, overburdened with diseases peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young. Often they have pale or sallow complexion, hollow, sunken eyes, with a lifeless look; the face has a pinched and haggard appearance; they are weak, weary and trembling, often extremely nervous, starting at every little noise. Many are low-spirited, and some are fretful. Some are apparently bloodless, with cold hands and feet, while others are flushed by an unequal circulation of the blood, dizziness, and sometimes dimness of vision, loss of memory, and often loss of appetite and sleep, and are wearied with terrible dreams.

Palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, smothering and sinking spells, shortness of breath and the sensation of pins and needles are all indications of a weakened condition of the heart or nervous system, and should any of them be present we would strongly advise the use of

They bring health to the broken down, energy to the weakened constitution, tone up the tired, overstrained nerves, and strengthen the weak heart.

Mrs. Edward Jackson, Hall's Bridge, Ont., writes: "For a year I was greatly troubled with nervousness and loss of appetite, and could neither sleep nor eat. After taking a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was completely cured and can recommend them to all sufferers."

Our Missionary Opportunities In The Far East

An Interesting Missionary Address Given Yesterday in the Charlotte Street Methodist by Rev. Dr. Brecken, of Toronto —The Macedonian Call Compared to Present Situation—Some Encouraging Features—People of To-day are Not Visionary Enough.

MOMENTOUS THINGS IN STORE FOR US

St. Paul's call to Macedonia and the relation of that call to the missionary situation to-day, was the subject of a decidedly interesting sermon which Rev. Dr. Brecken, of Toronto, preached in the Charlotte street Methodist church yesterday morning, in connection with the anniversary services which were conducted in two of the Methodist churches in the city.

The missionary enterprises of the Methodist church have assumed very large proportions, and this branch is now looked upon as the most important, outside of the regular home work of the church.

In view of its importance special efforts are made each year to raise funds to help on the prosecution of the work, and with this in view yesterday Rev. Dr. Brecken and Rev. Dr. Cade, both of Toronto, visited the city and preached at the Charlotte street and George street churches.

The circumstances surrounding the call of Paul to Macedonia, and his answer to that call, were compared by Rev. Dr. Brecken to the present situation in the missionary enterprises of the Methodist and other churches.

Not only were the present situations compared, but the speaker referred to the prospects for the future. He predicted that this world was on the eve of great things. God was marching on, he said, sometimes as in the case of the late war between Russia and Japan, in blood up to the horse's bridle reins; but all these things were working out a more encouraging state of affairs.

The increasing self-consciousness and independence of the people of the East, for which the war was largely responsible, too, added a new element to the missionary situation. In India there would have to be very wise leadership. The people of that vast empire were, too, experiencing that feeling of independence, and as a result, their young men, instead of being sent to Yale and Harvard, and Cambridge and Oxford, to be educated, were going to the Tokio Colleges, where they could not only learn science as well as in the other institutions named, but they would be associated with men of their own religious beliefs.

The text from which the sermon was preached was Acts xvi, 9: "And a vision appeared unto Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying: 'Come over into Macedonia, and help us.'" The circumstances leading up to this vision, in which the call was heard were referred to by the speaker, and described.

These circumstances suggested the first inference, to which he wished to refer, viz., that our point of duty is given to us by a series of providences — one door shuts, another opens. This was applied to the operations of the Methodist church in Canada, in respect to the work in the Northwest. It was prosecuted further and further, as opportunity presented itself, until it reached the Pacific, but it did not stop there either, for there seemed to be a voice saying: "Come over into Japan and help us." And they went.

In China, too, there was a field in which little work had been done yet, but it was perhaps the most promising of them all.

Another inference which might be drawn is the fact that this call of help is never consciously uttered, and can only be heard by sympathetic ears. The reception which Paul met with in Macedonia was proof of the fact that the cry was not given consciously, and he met with opposition, even thrown into prison, in fact. This opposition is always found at first. It was seen in Japan. There they did not want Christianity, but by and by they began to want the results in civilization which Christianity produced, and they were led to accept the teaching.

The third inference was that we would not be inspired to do much without first having a vision, and this is true, said he, in material as well as spiritual things.

Columbus was a man who was referred to as a man who had accomplished much after he had seen a vision. Lord Clive and Cromwell were also men with visions, and practiced mysteries. The speaker was of the opinion that we were not visionary enough in these days. We are too matter of fact, and cannot see the great possibilities that open to us, but are too willing to perform the routine of duty.

He believed that we were on the threshold of momentous things, and spoke of the events which had transpired to inspire this belief.

Speaking of the encouraging features of the missionary work, Dr. Brecken stated that in Japan the converts to Christianity were largely among the warrior class, the leaders of the people. Other amazing signs were referred to, and the speaker concluded with an appeal to the people to give their loyal support to the missionary cause.

Favour Passing The Carpet Factory By-Law

There are prospects that at the meeting of the Council to-night, a deputation of citizens will wait on the Council in the interests of the carpet factory bylaw. Mar. D. W. Dumble is distinctly in favour of the passing of the bylaw, and will head the deputation in its favour. The impression has been spread that the Mayor is opposed to the proposition and that some of the members of the Council are of the opinion that the company is asking for too much land, and it is to impress the council with the fact that the citizens represented by them are in favour of giving the land asked for, that the deputation will do some lobbying to-night.

Mr. Dumble is particularly favourable to the scheme, and believes that if the city misses this chance to secure an industry which may develop into an immense concern, it might as well give up trying to get new industrries for the city.

Quarrel Began From Non-Payment

On Saturday evening, in one of the local hotels, a little quarrel attracted in a very short time a large number of spectators. Mr. Thomas Powers, a Dakota man, who formerly lived here, and who is now visiting in Peterborough, claimed to be a creditor of Mr. F. Kennedy of Otonabee, to the amount of some four or five dollars, and took an unceremonious method of collecting it. Mr. Kennedy received some facial injuries in the mix-up, and the police were informed of the affair. Although aggressive measures were taken to find Powers he has not been located, but is believed to be in the country.

Mr. Milner Did Not Write Letter

He Explains Something About the George Street Controversy.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Sir,—Having read the letter in Saturday's Examiner, bearing my signature, I wish to remove a wrong impression already having been made. In the first place, I did not write that letter, as it was already prepared by a prominent member of the Trust Board. I am only sorry I did not read it myself. Secondly, regarding the kind friends, I am confident I have the sympathy of the George Street churchpeople, but am extremely sorry I cannot extend that confidence to all the officials. I must say that with all the friendship, I have also received more insults, and seen more underhand business than in all my life in England.

Yours truly,
CHARLES E. MILLNER.

Cobalt District Rich Beyond Description

Mr. W. Bunton Tells of the Great Wealth of the New Region--Has Just Left to Conduct a Party of Capitalists There--One Car Load of Ore Brought $75,000 --Assayed as High as $3,000 a Ton--90 Per Cent. Pure Silver--Great Future for the District.

Cobalt's all right! That's what Mr. W. Bunton, city passenger agent of the G.T.R. says, and he should know. He has just returned from that region and left again at noon to-day to conduct another party of capitalists there. The Montreal Herald, of Saturday, has the following despatch from Cobalt, referring to the last party Mr. Bunton conducted there:

"Some twenty capitalists from different parts of Canada and the United States reached there yesterday afternoon in a special car. The party are in charge of the Douglas Lacy Company, Toronto, who have the management of the Silver Leaf mine, one of the richest properties of the district.

"Mr. Clank, the mine superintendent, took the pary out to the property in sleighs. They had a general look around and cursory examination. They will return to Toronto to-day.

"The Silver Leaf is stocked to the extent of $5,000,000. The mine is situated some three miles from the town and but little development has taken place. The ore taken from it assays $700 a ton."

To-night Mr. Bunton will leave Toronto with another twenty men, who will travel by the private parlour car "Columbia," attached to the midnight express for North Bay. Mr. Bunton goes with the party, as representative of the G.T.R. He is most enthusiastic over the prospects for Cobalt generally, and this mine particularly. He states that one car load of ore was sent to New York and the returns were $75,000. Every pound of ore in that car averaged 90 per cent. pure silver. At the present time the company is putting in $15,000 worth of new machinery, and with this installed will be in a position to work the mine much more commercially. The country there is simply rich, beyond description, says Mr. Bunton, and the fears of some that the silver would peter out seem to be unfounded, for the Government has drilled 1,000 feet down and there is still the precious metal in sufficient quantities to pay for working.

The G.T.R. is preparing for a great rush into that country this spring, about the middle of March three trains a day will be running to Cobalt, and there will be great difficulty in providing accommodation for the thousands who will want to go there. A large party from Butte, Montana, where they know silver when they see it, will shortly go to Cobalt, and this is but one of the evidences of the widespread interest which the great wealth of Cobalt is creating.

The Douglas, Lacy Mine, is according to Mr. Bunton's belief, about the best in the country. He states that when he was there on the former trip, prospectors, dressed in overalls, but with the coin, came into the car and wanted to buy stock in the company. The ore has assayed as high as $3,000 to the ton, which, of course is fabously rich.

Mr. Bunton will probably be away the greater part of a week.

TELLS BY THEIR SLEEP

"I can tell by my little ones' sleep when a cold is coming on" said a mother when speaking of the advance symptoms of colds in children. "They toss about, are restless, their breathing is heavy and there are symptoms of night sweats. The next morning I start with Scott's Emulsion. The chances are that in a day or two they are all over it. Their rest is again peaceful and the breathing normal."

Here's a suggestion for all mothers. Scott's Emulsion always has been almost magical in its action when used as the ounce of prevention. Nothing seems to overcome child weakness quite so effectively and quickly as Scott's Emulsion.

"Chalkalogue" By Bengough Was Enjoyed

"Faces and Fancies" the Subject of a Delightful Chalk-Talk by Toronto Artist—The 6th Y. M. C. A. "Pop" a Most Enjoyable Event—Large Attendance at Association Hall on Saturday —The Musical Numbers Were Well Rendered.

MR. T. E. BRADBURN OCCUPIED CHAIR

Another large audience was present at the Saturday night Pop in the Y.M.C.A. Hall. This entertainment was the 6th of the splendid series of attractions presented during the past six weeks. Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., occupied the chair in his usual happy manner and introduced the programme with a well worded speech.

Miss W. Gumpricht rendered a piano solo and proved herself perfectly at home at that instrument. Her selection was greeted with merited applause.

Miss Clara Belleghem was heard to good advantage in two solos, which captured the audience and she was obliged to respond to an encore. Miss Clarry played the accompaniment in a most satisfactory manner.

The entertainer of the evening was then introduced, Mr. Elvan J. Bengough of Toronto, who gave his "Chalkalogue" on "Faces and Fancies". He is a nephew of Canada's greatest cartoonist and promises fair to prove a worthy successor of his talented uncle, as he possesses much of the same characteristics as an artist and entertainer as well, of a very high order.

The chalkalogue was not only amusing, but very instructive as one section of it was devoted to an illustrative historical sketch of art from the early ages up to the present time.

Mr. Bengough has been an apt pupil of his uncle in the art of "evolution" in his sketches and such surprises delighted his audience. The school boys collection of "figures" for example, proved when finished to be a true portrait of the stern lady teacher. The graphic representation of the old poem, "The Old Oaken Bucket", was evolved into a picture of Tommy himself.

The two hand drawings were very clever and these productions were certainly works of art and as the lecturer pointed out might seem as conventional designs for doylies.

"Little Jack Horner" was recited appropriately illustrated, and several helpful lessons drawn therefrom.

One two hand sketch rapidly brought to view the Russian and Jap. The last sketch was of the automobile which was accompanied with a clever poem on "Otto's auto".

Then the automobile was transformed into a dragon, mounted on which was the St. George of the 20th century,—the automobile man.

When Mr. Bengough concluded he received very warm applause.

The programme concluded with "God Save the King."

The attraction next Saturday will be the great Canadian entertainers, Miss Pauline Johnston, Mowhawk author and reciter and Mr. Walter McRae, humorous entertainer. This attraction has been brought here at considerable expense. The reserve seats will be 15 cents and general admission 10 cents. Plan opens Wednesday at the Y.M.C.A.

COLD KILLS THE GERM

Lieut. Perry Says There Are No Bald Heads in the Arctic Region.

The people who come back from Klondike testify to the fact that no native bald heads are there. The evidence is that the cold climate kills the germs that eat the hair off at the root. Lieut. Perry, who went to the Arctic regions, gives the same evidence. Newbro's Herpicide has the same effect as the cold climate. It kills the germ that eats the hair off at the roots, and the hair grows again. Herpicide is the first hair remedy built upon the principle of destroying the germ that eats the hair off. Its phenomenal sale demonstrates the correctness of the scalp germ theory. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Here's a Good Investment for You.

Do you know that the demand for copper far exceeds the supply?

Do you know that, in the whole of Canada, there is only one copper refinery?

And do you know that we control that refinery and also the secret process of refining copper?

But our present plant is not large enough to supply the demand?

We've got to increase our output, and do it right away?

So we're disposing of a limited number of shares of the stock at $100 each.

Last year the business yeilded 17 2-3 per cent. of the capital stock.

We don't want you to take our word for this, investigate.

Let us send you our booklet—it gives full particulars.

Write, or better still, telephone to Main 1813, and we will make an appointment to meet you.

The Waterous People Want An Engine Test

Messrs. Hugh Cameron & Co. Deposit Cheque for $500 With City as Guarantee—They Also Offer $1500 for the Old Engine—In Part Pay for New Waterous Engine—The Whole Matter Now Re-opened—Fire, Water and Light Committee Given Power to Purchase.

At the meeting of the Council last night a letter from Messrs. Hugh Cameron and Company, selling agents for the Waterous Engine Works, was read. The letter was in reference to the challenge of the Waterous Fire Engine Company issued to the Canadian Fire Engine Company, and which, the letter stated, had not been accepted. It was not the intention of the writers to drop the matter, and therefore offered the city the sum of $1,500 for the second-hand engine as part payment for a new Waterous 1,000 U. S. gallon engine as per specification submitted, and further challenged the Canadian Fire Engine Company to hold a competitive test in Peterborough under conditions similar to those submitted for the proposed test in Montreal. Three experts to be appointed by the city, the selections to be made from McGill University, Montreal; the School of Practical Science, Toronto, and any professional expert obtainable from the United States. Each company is to deposit with the city treasurer $500 and an obligation to be prepared by the city solicitor to defray any expense incurred in the test in excess of $1,000, placed in the hands of the city solicitor, share and share alike. The challenge must be accepted by March 10, 1 o'clock p.m., and the test to take place within three months from date of challenge. The writers enclosed a marked check for $500 as evidence of their good faith.

The communication was referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee on motion of Ald. Adams and Ald. Johnston. In connection with this matter, the report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee was presented, recommending,

1. That J. E. A. Fitzgerald be paid $14 for a coal account.
2. That this committee be authorized to sell by auction the market tolls and charges for the year, beginning April 1 next, and to have the necessary papers executed to complete the sale.
3. That this committee be authorized to advertise for tenders for the erection of a new firehall.
4. That the matter of the purchase of a new fire engine be left in the hands of this committee and the chief of the fire brigade with authority to purchase one.

The report was adopted.

The original report of the committee provided that the purchase of the fire engine should be left in the hands of the chairman of the committee and the chief of the brigade, but in view of the new phase of the situation as the result of the letter of Messrs. Cameron, it was thought advisable to refer the matter again to the committee, which was given the power to purchase the engine.

Citizens Opposed To The General Tax

A Petition Presented Last Night to the Council—Object to Paying for Diversion of Creeks in Fifth Ward and in Wards Three and Four by General Tax—Regular Monthly Meeting Held Last Night—Many Matters of Importance Discussed—By-laws Printed—A Lengthy Session—Many Citizens Were Present.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held last night, and it was a lengthy session, lasting until after twelve o'clock.

There was a large crowd of citizens present, too, and they got the worth of their money. A number of important matters were discussed, and some warm discussions took place.

Those present last night were:—Mayor Best, Ald. Johnston, Tovey, Hicks, Mason, Graham, Elliott, Ball, Duncan, McIntyre, McWilliams and Adams.

The minutes of the last meeting were taken as read.

Communications.

Communications were read and dealt with as follows:

From J. E. Hayes, asking to be paid five per cent. additional on sewer contract. The request will be complied with.

From E. H. D. Hall, stating that the Peterborough Bill would probably come before the Private Bills Committee on Wednesday next, and advising the council to send a small deputation to Toronto to present the matter properly before the Committee. The City Solicitor also wrote enclosing Bylaws re Messrs. Brintons and Howard, and stating he had added a provision that the agreements were to be submitted to the ratepayers. He advised the council that there was no authority in the Municipal Act for this, the only provision being for submitting questions of this kind to the ratepayers at the annual municipal elections.—Received.

A. Stevenson, secretary of the Town Trust Commissioners, wrote enclosing the demand of the Commissioners for the year 1906. The amount asked for is $41,063.27.—Received.

Applications for sewers, on Stewart street, from London to Edinburgh; Bethune street, from London to McDonel; Benson avenue, from Smith street to the Dixon Park, were received.

Applications for granolithic walks on the west side of Park street in front of lots 1 and 2; and on the south side of Albert street, in front of lot No. 1, and on the west side of Bethune from Murray to McDonel, were also received, and referred to the Board of Works.

In connection with the application of the first mentioned sidewalk, Mr. R. C. Braund wrote asking that it be constructed inside the tree line.

An application was also received for a sidewalk on the south side of Parnell street from Park street to the C.P.R.

Mr. R. C. Braund wrote asking the council to give him sewer connection.—Board of Works.

Taxes Collected.

Mr. W. J. Green, tax collector, submitted a statement, as follows:

Total amount of taxes on roll, 1905...	$114,611.27
Amount deposited in bank	106,726.78
Balance...	$ 7,884.49
Amount collected during Feb.	$794.02.

Referred to the Finance Committee.

The Bell Telephone Company applied for permission to erect six poles on Romaine street between Park and Lake street.—Board of Works.

E. J. Hickey asked for a crossing on Stewart street.—Board of Works.

The communication from St. Joseph's Hospital, advising the Council that in future contagious diseases would not be accepted for treatment, was referred to the Committee of the Whole, on motion of Ald. Johnston and Ald. Adams.

Messrs. Buchener and Gunn, barristers, London, submitted copy of petition which will be submitted to the Legislative Assembly asking that power be given Municipal Councils to deal more effectively with the practice of dealers in Montreal and other cities, shipping furs, rugs, fancy goods, etc., to auctioneers in the smaller towns and cities to be sold by them at public auction or by private sale at the Christmas season and at other times. The petition pointed out the unfairness of the practice to the merchants and the loss of revenue to the city.—License Committee.

Foul Murder Was COMMITTED BY AN Aged Hastings Farmer

Fred Kleingbiel, aged 70 years, kills His Wife in Fit of Delirious Tremens—Awful Crime was Discovered by a Boy last night—Woman was Terribly Battered—the Murderer was a U. S. Veteran—Great Excitement in Belleville over the Affair.

Special Wire to The Examiner.

Belleville, March 6th. — Near this city last evening, about 9 o'clock, as the result of a quarrel, Fred Kleingbeil, a farmer, 70 years of age, beat his aged wife so severely that she died about eight o'clock this morning. The couple lived on the Thomas farm, about two miles from this city. The crime was discovered by a boy who went after his wages. Kleingbeil came to the door with blood all over his hands and arms, and the boy looked through the window and saw the old woman in a terrible state. The boy then informed the authorities. County Constable Duffin went out and arrested Kleinbeil, and brought him to the county gaol. The old man is said to have been in delirium tremens since Saturday last. He says that he and the wife had a quarrel and he beat her with his fists; but Dr. Yomans, the coroner, it is alleged, does not think the injuries could have been all inflicted with fists. Kleingbeil is 70 years old and his wife was about 72. The couple had two children, a son and a daughter. The awful affair has created great excitement in this city. Kleingbeil served in the United States army in the war of the rebellion.

The Goderich People Expect To Win Out

Special Despatch says Peterboro Team arrived There this Afternoon—Ice will be slow, but Game is bound to be fast—Great Interest in the Contest.

Special to The Examiner.

Goderich, March 6.—The Peterborough hockey team, with about twenty supporters arrived in town this afternoon, and are spending a few hours in "doing" the town.

The greatest interest is being taken in the game to-night, no contest in the history of hockey in town having created such excitement as that of to-night, and the prospects are that the rink will be packed to the doors.

The ice will be somewhat soft, the mild weather of the last few days having affected it considerable. The local team and its supporters are confident of the former's ability to overcome the lead of eight goals and win out, thus cinching the championship, and betting is being very freely done on this basis.

At any rate, which ever team wins the game will be the most closely contested ever seen here.

Gold Watch And Chain Presented To Otonabee Lady

To Miss Stewart with an Address Before her Departure for the West this Month—Many Speeches of Eulogy—Delightful Entertainment was Presented—Supper was Partaken of—Games were Enjoyed.

EVENING WAS A PLEASANT ONE

Last night the residence of Miss Georgina Stewart, River Road, Otonabee, was the scene of a delightful event. It was the occasion of the farewell to Miss Stewart and her brothers, who leave shortly for their new home in Southern Manitoba.

During the evening the hostess was the grateful recipient of an address of eulogy and also of a solid gold watch and chain as a testimony of the esteem in which she was held by the community.

The following address was read by Miss Mary Deyell, and the presentation was made by Mr. Gordon Savigny:

Dear Miss Stewart and Brothers:

On behalf of your friends and neighbours we desire to take advantage of this occasion to testify in some slight and inadequate manner our regret at your forthcoming departure from our midst, to take up a new life, and as we are sure you will do, make new friends in the far west. But no matter what new associations you form you will never find friends who hold you in higher esteem and affection than those now assembled to wish you God speed on your journey. We have all learned to respect you, not only for your excellent and commendable qualities as neighbours, citizens and friends, but also for the sake of your late respected father whose example of upright living and neighbourly kindness you have so faithfully followed. While we all deeply regret to lose you as neighbours and friends we all heartily join in the hope that the step you are taking may make for your worldly prosperity and happiness and we pray that a kind Providence will have you in his keeping when far away, as he has done in the past among the scenes of your childhood and maturer years.

In order that you may carry with you not only pleasant recollections of your old home but also something tangible to connect you with your old neighbours, we ask you Miss Stewart, to take this watch with the hope that it will mark for you only happy hours which we trust and pray you and your brothers may long live to enjoy. In conclusion we say that the Lord watch between us and you when we are absent one from another.

Signed on behalf of their Otonabee friends by the Misses Mary Hanbridge, Maud Stewart, Mary Deyell, and Messrs. Sandford Matchett, Gordon Savigny and Clayton Hanbidge.

Miss Stewart was taken completely by surprise and was unable to reply to the great honour done her. Mr. Wm. Hanbidge on her behalf thanked the kind friends for the great tribute bestowed upon her and for their many kindnesses of the past.

Short impromptu addresses in reference to the departure of Miss Stewart were delivered. All hoped that her future life in the Northwest would be one continued pleasant and happy one. Among those who spoke were Mrs. John Deyell, Mrs. Reid, Miss Maud Stewart, and Messrs. Geo. Stewart, W. B. Stewart, Edward Deyell, Frank Sisson, Roy Spiers, Sidney Bennett, Jack Deyell and Ernest Deyell.

After games had been enjoyed for some time refreshments were daintily served to the many assembled guests.

After supper, followed a pleasant programme presented by Mr. J. Monerief, who officiated as chairman in a very appropriate manner. The following were the numbers:

Chairman's address.
Solo, Mr. Bert Deyell.
Recitation, Miss Zetta Chambers.
Solo, Miss Ella Hanbidge.
Duet, Miss Annie and Mr. B. Deyell.
Solo, Miss Annie Deyell.
Mouth-organ duet, Messrs. Clayton Hanbidge and Roland Deyell.
Vocal duet, Misses Ethel and Elsie Deyell.
Recitation, Miss Danea Stewart.
Recitation, Mr. Wm. Hanbidge, jr.
Solo, Mr. Clayton Hanbidge.

The pleasant evening closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King."

Miss Stewart and her brothers leave on March 20 for Manitoba, and the good wishes of all their Otonabee friends go with them to their future home.

$50.00 PROFIT

ONLY $25.00 INVESTED

Do you want to make $50 profit by investing only $25 in a lot in beautiful Summit Park, Port Arthur, the great lake port town of N. W. Ontario.

Port Arthur is the County Seat of all Thunder Bay District, and is the lake terminal town of the three great transcontinental railroads, which empty their immense quantities of Western freight on ships bound for the East and Europe.

Port Arthur is the only real municipal ownership town in America, and made last year over $38,000 net profit out of its Street Railway, Electric Light and Powar, and Telephone Franchises.

Port Arthur has the largest grain elevator in the world.

Port Arthur doubled its population in the last 2 years and we believe it will double again in the next 2 years.

Port Arthur is the gateway between the East and the extensive West, and can have no competitor.

Summit Park is a high, level plateau, furnishing a beautiful view of Thunder Bay, and lots purchased in this park at present prices will bring big profits before many months.

New Public School In SOUTH END OF THE CITY Will Cost About $35,000

This Amount Includes Cost of Site—Architect Blackwell's Plans Submitted to the Board of Education Last Night —City Council to be Asked for the Necessary Funds for This Purpose.

An important meeting of the Board of Education was held last night at which it was decided to ask the City Council for $35,000. This amount is to be used in purchasing a site and erecting a new school in the south end of the city. The structure will have twelve rooms, four of which will be left unfinished, but in such a condition that they can be made ready for use at any time when needed. The lot which the Board has in consideration is that owned by Mr. C. McGill on the proposed extension of George street to the exhibition grounds. There were present last night Messrs. W. G. Ferguson, chairman; D. W. Dumble, H. F. Ackerman, W. H. Hill, John Crane, L. M. Hayes, Wm. Pringle, Robert Fair, Dr. Burnham and Dr. Morrison.

Sub-Target Gun.

A communication was received from the Deputy Minister of Education, stating that a number of sub-target gun machines have been purchased by the department for use of High School Cadet Corps, and that one of these will be shipped in a week or two from the makers to the local school.

In this connection it was moved by Mr. Hayes, seconded by Mr. Fair, that a committee consisting of Messrs. Hill and Hayes be appointed to take temporary charge of the gun.—Carried.

The New School.

Mr. Pringle, chairman of the Committee on Public School accommodation, reported as follows:

Your Committee beg leave to report that in accordance with instructions given by your Board, steps were taken to secure the services of an architect and Mr. W. Blackwell has been engaged. Your committee has had the architect prepare estimates for an eight-room school as suggested by your Board, and as it appeared to your committee advisable to provide for future school accommodation in this rapidly growing part of the city, estimates have also been prepared for additional rooms such rooms to be unfinished at present.

Regarding sites several are available and options have been secured on several properties but no particular choice has yet been made.

Your Committee would request definite instructions from your Board regarding the building and site in order that the necessary steps may be taken to secure through the City Council such funds as may be required.

WM. PRINGLE,
Chairman.

Mr. Blackwell's estimate of the cost of the proposed school was as follows:—

Eight-room public school, $24,000; twelve-room school, $31,000. If four rooms are left unfinished it would reduce the cost $2,800.

Mr. Dumble, in opening the discussion on the new school, said that it would be true economy to erect a twelve-room school. The southern portion of the city was growing very rapidly. By building an eight-room school the Board would be building only for the present and making no provision for the future.

Mr. Hill agreed with this opinion. He pointed out that the Monnies School would soon not be available to the Board and provision would have to be made for the pupils there. He was in favour of a twelve-room school with four rooms unfinished. As the number of pupils increased these rooms could be finished.

Messrs. Ackerman, Burnham, Crane, Hayes and Fair briefly expressed themselves as being in favour of a twelve-room school.

Dr. Morrison, while in favour of a twelve-room school was of the opinion that the City Council would not grant sufficient funds for that purpose. If too much money was asked for when the matter was brought before the people, there was every likelihood of its being voted down.

Mr. Dumble in reply said that voting money for a public school was different from voting money for a Collegiate Institute. Many people who would vote against the Collegiate Institute would approve of expenditure for public schools.

It was moved by Dr. Burnham and seconded by Mr. Ackerman that this Board ask the City Council for $35,000 for purchasing a lot and erecting a school in the south end of the city.—Carried.

In regard to the site Mr. Pringle read a list of lots upon which options had been secured. After a little discussion, on motion of Mr. Dumble, the Board decided to buy, if possible, the park lot owned by Mr. C. McGill, on the proposed extension of George street.

Mr. Hill's motion to change the date of meeting from the first to the second Monday carried.

The Board then adjourned.

POOR PACKAGE DYES MAKE Women Miserable and Cross.

Diamond Dyes

Have Made Millions of Wives, Mothers and Daughters Happy and Contented.

Women who buy and use any of the adulterated, weak and worthless package dyes put up in imitation of the reliable and never-failing DIAMOND DYES, must expect to meet with sad trials and disappointments in the home.

Crude package dyes with only fancy names to recommend them, and sold by some dealers for the sake of large profits, are the direct cause of much of the feminine bad temper and irritableness manifested in many homes.

If our women and girls would avoid trouble, loss of goods and hard cash, they must insist upon getting the DIAMOND DYES whenever home dyeing work is to be done. One ten-cent package of the time-tried DIAMOND DYES will always colour more goods than will two packages of other dyes, and give brighter, fuller, more brilliant and more lasting shades. Once used, DIAMOND DYES become the chosen dyes for all well-regulated homes.

Send your name and address to Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, P.Q., and you will receive free of cost new Dye Book, Card of Dyed Cloth Samples and Booklet in verse, entitled "The Lonjohns' Trip to the Klondike."

Big Real Estate Deal Completed

Mr. Geo. Ruth and Mr. Jas. Middleton, of the firm of J. T. BLOOD POISON

Of all of the terrible effects, blood disease is called the king of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, sickness of the skin, eruptions or blotches, sleeves in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old fogy" treatment—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Fakirs. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and eliminates all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. wrote enclosing conveyance from Dr. Greer of the lot purchased for the Fire Hall.—Received.

Mrs. Isabella Knox wrote stating that the outlet of the Queen street sewer had been stopped by the erection of the Cereal Company's mill, and asked that in the interests of those affected the council would attend to the matter at once.—Board of Health.

Object to General Tax.

One hundred and forty ratepayers signed the following petition, which was presented to council:

"We, the undersigned ratepayers do most decidedly object to that clause in the Bill about to be presented to the Legislature by this city, viz., To have the diversion of the waterways mentioned in said clause done and charged to the general ratepayers. The waterways referred to are in Wards 5 and 3 and 4."

Mr. R. Sheehy addressed the council in reference to the question, as did also James Murty.

Ald. Hicks moved, seconded by Ald. Adams, that the Bill be allowed to stand as at present.

It was moved in amendment by Ald. McIntyre seconded by Ald. Tovey, that the petition be endorsed and that the Bill be amended as requested.

Those who supported the amendment were Ald. Toves, Mason, Graham and McIntyre, and those opposed were Ald. Hicks, Elliott, Ball, Duncan, McWilliams and Adams. Ald. Johnston did not vote.

Mr. J. S. Robertson, secretary of the National Sanitarium Association, wrote asking for financial assistance. —Finance Committee.

Mr. H. L. Beal, secretary of the Peterborough Horticultural Society, wrote enclosing copy of resolution adopted by the society asking that the council be requested to have all road scrapings placed on the north half of the Central Park.—Board of Works.

From Mr. John J. Fair, township clerk of Cavan, acknowledging receipt of a copy of a resolution passed by the city council, in favour of the Cavan swamp drain.—Received.

From Dennistoun, Peck and Kerr, and W. G. Morrow, secretary of the Board of Education asking for the conveyance of lots 3, 4, 5 and 6, south of McDonel street and west of George street as a Collegiate Institute site as authorized by special Act of 1905. — Special Committee.

Mr. Weir applied to the council for permission to erect a coal shed along the G. T. R. tracks in the fifth ward, on the line of the proposed sewer.

It was decided to refer the matter to the Board of Works, with power to act.

By-Laws.

A bylaw authorising the execution of an agreement with Joseph F. Howard for the establishment of a stove and heater works in the city under terms as already outlined, was given its three readings and passed the council.

A similar bylaw authorising the execution of an agreement with Messrs. Brintons, Limited, for the establishment of a carpet factory here was passed. The terms of the agreement are those set forth in the report of the Committee of the Whole.

A bylaw amending that formerly passed appointing assessors to provide that the name of John Kincaid be substituted for that of Thos. McKee, was passed.

The Peterborough Shovel and Tool Company are to be given the land upon which their works are erected. The council passed a bylaw to this effect, the company having carried out the terms upon which the land was to be conveyed.

Says Divorce Is Polygamy

Strong Pastoral Letter by Bishop W. L. Stang of Fall River.

Fall River, Mass., March 5th. — The evils of divorce are dealt with in a pastoral letter by Bishop William L. Stang of the Roman Catholic Church Diocese of Fall River sent yesterday to the clergymen of the diocese.

The letter says in part: "The modern state has usurped the functions of spiritual authority and profaned the sanctity of the marriage state. Protestantism permitted polygamy, first openly, then covertly, by cloaking it with the mockery of the civil law. All good citizens are horrified by the practices of the Mormons but what is the difference between Mormons who believe in simultaneous polygamy and those legislators who authorize a husband or wife to separate and marry again during the lifetime of the other party? Is not the latter a successive polygamy?

"An attempted marriage of legally divorced persons (whose lawful partners are still alive) involves the hideous crime of adultery which no cause under heaven can justify and no gold or pearls can beautify. No legislature can grant a divorce, so that parties once really wedded can marry again without slapping God, the Supreme Lawgiver, in the face; without undermining the foundations of Christian homes socially, without imperilling the life of the nation.

"I call upon the Christian journals for the defence of the Christian home, which is destroyed by every divorce; and I entreat them, instead of regaling a sensational crowd with the unsavoury details of a divorce scandal, and tempting the sorely tried with evil suggestions, to manfully denounce all who co-operate in sundering what God has united."

For Completion of the Trent Waterway

Board of Trade Sends Circular Letter to Boards of Trade and Councils in Reference to the Deputation—Will Attempt to Make It Largest in History—The Great Importance of the Project.

The Secretary of the Board of Trade has mailed circulars in reference to the proposed deputation to Ottawa in connection with the completion of the Trent Canal. The circular was mailed to secretaries of Boards of Trade, Town and City Clerks and newspapers in Midland, Sault Ste. Marie, Port Arthur, Kenora, Winnipeg, Brandon, Toronto, Port Hope, Kingston, Belleville, Deseronto, Orillia, Barrie, Trenton, Campbellford, Beaverton, Fenelon Falls, Lindsay, Hastings, Bobcaygeon, Lakefield and Cobourg. The circular is as follows:—

Dear Sir,—Peterborough Board of Trade, acting in conjunction with the City Council, considering that the time has again come round when the attention of the Government should be called to the absolute necessity of completing this most important national means of transportation, has decided to unite with the Municipalities along the line of the Trent Waterway and send a large representative deputation to Ottawa to further this end.

The unprecedented development of trade and commerce in Western Ontario, Manitoba and the North west Territories, the universally acknowledged prospects of a speedy settlement of our Western agricultural possessions, and the present incapacity of our railways to handle the products of these farming lands for transportation to our eastern seaboard are three of the strongest arguments for an early completion of the Trent Canal, shortening, as it will, the distance between Port Arthur and Liverpool by 727 miles as compared with the route by the Erie Canal, and 215 miles as compared with that of the Welland Canal.

The cheap rates for water transportation would make the completion of the Trent Waterway a national benefit and would be felt and appreciated from the wheat-producing lands of the far west to the European markets. Moreover, the same barges which carried our grain to the seaboard could be laden on return with goods for the West.

The Trent Waterway has a shore mileage of over 1,600 miles, and every mile would contribute trade to and shipment by this route, which lacks but 32 miles of completion.

In consideration of the foregoing facts, our Board of Trade would ask our sister boards on the route of the Waterway, as also those in the West who would benefit equally by its speedy completion, to determine on the advisability of sending a large and representative delegation to wait on the Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals, in order to impress on him and his colleagues the supreme importance to the Dominion of its rapid completion and the consequent necessity of placing such a sum in the Estimates as will complete this long-desired means of transportation.

We are at present arranging with the railways for an excursion rate from Peterborough and points east, west and south to the Capital.

Will you kindly write me on immediate receipt of this the number of delegates who will go from your district in order to insure a favourable rate, and I will notify you at the earliest moment the date of interview, railway rate, etc., in order to give you as much time as possible to make your own arrangements to be strongly represented.

Yours faithfully,
T. Q. QUARTERMAINE,
Secretary.

Hon. Senator Cox Is A Prominent Financier

Toronto Globe Refers to One of Peterborough's Most Illustrious Sons--A Man Who Has Made a Great Success in Life--His Remarkable Rise in the World.

Under the heading "A Man of the Day," The Toronto Globe says: The powerful address delivered by Hon. Geo. A. Cox, Senator, at the annual meeting of the Canada Life Assurance Company last week, directs attention to one of the outstanding figures in the financial life of Canada. Senator Cox is a Canadian, having been born in Colborne, Northumberland County, May 7, 1840. His parentage is English. He attended the public and grammar schools of Colborne until February, 1856, when he entered the service of the Montreal Telegraph Company. After two years' service, and when only 18 years of age, he was placed in charge of the agency of Peterborough. He remained there for 30 years, and has still extensive interests in that city. He was mayor of Peterborough for seven years, being returned four times by acclamation. In 1871 he stepped into the Provincial Parliamentary field and won West Peterborough from W. H. Scott. The election was set aside, however, and in the following year he was defeated by a majority of one. In 1887 he again contested the same riding for the House of Commons, but was defeated by 16 by James Stevenson. In 1878 he became president of the Midland Railway, holding the position until 1884. During his term the amalgamation of the Grand Junction, Whitby & Port Perry, Victoria & Toronto and Nipissing Railways was effected, and the consolidated roads sold to the Grand Trunk. It was in 1884 that Mr. Cox became president of the Central Canada Loan & Savings Company, and in 1885 a director of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. In 1890 he became president of the latter. He is president of the Western Fire and Marine Insurance Company and the British America Fire and Marine Insurance Company. Senator Cox is a Methodist, a temperance man, Bursar of Victoria University, and president of the Ontario Ladies' College. In his capacity as president of the Canada Life he delivered the memorable speech referred to at the outset.

The Woman Of Present Century Is Superior

To the Sister of Eighteenth Century—Such was the Discission Reached by the Collegiate Institute Philomathean Society—A Very Enjoyable Literary and Musical Programme was Given and the Meeting was Very Profitable.

SOME VERY BRIGHT SPEECHES WERE MADE

An interesting meeting of the Collegiate Philomathean Society was held yesterday afternoon in the Y.M.C.A. Hall, with the president in the chair. After some business had been transacted, a very interesting literary and musical programme was presented.

Two recitations, "The Relief of Lucknow," and "Nobody's Child," by Miss Frances Stone, and Miss Mayme Halpine, respectively, were exceedingly well rendered.

The chief interest of the meeting, however, lay in the debate: Resolved that the Twentieth Century woman is superior to the Eighteenth Century woman. The affirmative was championed by R. Carlisle, M. McGrath, H. Sanderson, the negative by M. Lees, E. Kells and G. Yeamey. This debate proved very interesting, several splendid speeches being given. The judges decided in favour of the negative.

The music consisted of two piano solos by Miss K. Burgett and Mr. H. Brown, respectively and a duet by Misses Dowds and Merrill. All these were well rendered and won great applause.

The meeting was criticized by Mr. H. R. H. Kenner, in a very able manner, his many witticisms exciting great enthusiasm.

The programme closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Sidewalks Are Badly Needed

A King street resident called at the Examiner office to-day to enter a protest against the condition of that street between George and Aylmer street. There is, he states, no sidewalk fit to walk on, and since the opera house has been opened the traffic on this street has increased very materially, and those who travel there after dark run the risk of doing themselves bodily injury. There is also a great need of a light, and this need is accentuated by the condition of the walks.

The citizen referred to is strongly of the opinion that the Council should take some immediate action to construct a new walk in the interests of the residents of that street.

School children in Strassburg, Darmstadt, and other cities in Germany not only have their teeth treated free of charge, but are taught how to masticate food with the least injury to the teeth.

Torpid Liver Cause Of Fevers

The Surest Way to Prevent Disease is to Keep the Liver Active with

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Too frequently an external cause for fever is looked for, when the real source of trouble is from within the body itself.

To begin with the liver becomes torpid, sluggish and inactive, and poisonous bile in left in the blood to corrupt the whole system. The result is the overworking of the kidneys and the clogging up of the organs of excretion.

Food which should be digested is left to ferment and decay in the intestines, and inflammations and fevers are set up.

In such a condition the body is a regular hotbed of disease and is most susceptible to any ailment or infectious or contagious nature.

The best insurance against disease is the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to keep the liver active. This great medicine has a direct and specific action on the liver, and is wonderfully prompt and effective in awakening and invigorating this important filtering organ.

A healthy liver means pure blood, good digestion and the proper working of the bowels. A healthy liver ensures the onward passage of the food through the intestines and excretory organs, and so removes all chance of poisonous waste matter remaining in the body to produce pain, suffering and disease.

Mrs. R. C. Webster, Glenarm, Victoria, Co., Ont., writes: —"I gladly state my experience with Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in order that others may profit by it. About a year ago I was almost entirely used up with severe pains in my back and side the result no doubt of deranged liver and kidneys. Having tried several remedies which did not seem to do much good and hearing Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills highly recommended I sent for several boxes and can freely state that they did me a world of good. As I feel no need of further treatment, the cure seems to be thorough."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Clarke's a Reliable Fur Store

WE ARE BUSY SELLING FURS, ALTHOUGH THE WEATHER HAS BEEN FIGHTING US HARD

There are just as many people buying Fur now as there were early in the season. The reason is easily explained—Our Fur Stock is twice as large as it should be—the season is against us—we need money to buy our summer stock with. Our Fur Stock Must be Sacrificed to Get This Money. To sacrifice your stock means to put prices on the goods that will make them move out, and make people come and buy. The public are wise, they know Furs are cheap, and by buying now can save lots of money.

ASSESSMENT AND TAXES.

The Assessment Act, which first came into full operation last year, is on its trial, and whatever views may be had as to the equity of its provisions, it seems to be a tax-getter. At least it operates towards increasing the assessment, and it is not probable that municipal councils will take much advantage of an advanced general assessment to make a general reduction of the rate of taxation. The total provincial assessment for the year 1904 is given at $906,105,659, and the average rate of taxation for all purposes is given as 17.2 mills. For 1905, it is estimated that the increased assessment under the new Act amounts to $300,000,000., approximately 30 per cent. increase. It is not at all probable, however, that the rate of taxation will, if at all reduced, be reduced by one-third, which would bring the general average of the tax rate to about 11 1-2 mills.

To show, so far as returns made are available for estimating, what has been the effect of the new assessment act, it may be mentioned that statistics prepared from 72 municipalities in Ontario, which includes 11 cities, 28 towns, 15 villages and 18 townships, showed a total assessment of about $34,000,000, and under the new Assessment Act which came into force at the first of the year, this was increased to about $55,000,000. If the same ratio is maintained throughout the 761 municipalities of the province, the total increase will approach very nearly $300,000,000. On real estate the assessment shows an increase of 8 per dent. in cities, 15 in towns, 1 1-2 in villages, and 30 in townships. The business assessment is increased 45 per cent. in cities, 70 in towns, 45 in villages and 180 in townships.

WEDDING BELLS

CLARKE-FINLAY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday last at the residence of Mr. Jas. Clarke, Cavan, when his brother, Mr. Fred Clarke, and Miss Finlay, both of Cavan, also, were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Robeson, of Fraserville, the nuptial knot being tied under a beautiful arch of evergreens. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Miss Ada Fisher was bridesmaid and Mr. Albert Hunter, of North Monaghan, township, best man. The bride was beautifully gowned in an exquisite dress of cream duchess satin, trimmed with real lace and carried white bridal roses. The bridesmaid looked very pretty in a becoming dress of crepe de chine, trimmed with embroidered chiffon. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride was given given away by her brother-in-law Mr. Jas. Clarke. After the ceremony was performed the happy couple and the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding dejeuner.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold watch and to the bridesmaid a beautiful crescent brooch set with pearls. The Lohengrin Wedding march was most excellently rendered by Miss Maude Fisher. The bride was the recipient of numerous valuable and appropriate gifts, conspicuous among which were a very fine gold watch and an elaborate parlour suite.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will take up their residence in their handsome new home on the 9th concession of Cavan with the hearty wishes for a happy and prosperous married life from their many friends.

Interest Growing In Browning Class

Last night at the Browning Class the poem "By the Fireside" was studied.

Though there is a falling off in attendance there is a constantly increasing interest among those who do attend regularly. Mr. Earle speaks very highly of some of the answers given by the ladies last evening.

At the next meeting on Monday, "One Word More," "Prospice" and the "Epilogue to Asolando" will be considered.

Said Farewell To Brother Forester

Mr. Isaac Kerr is Leaving Bensfort for the Nortwest.

At a special meeting of Court Bensfort No. 541, C.O.F., held on Saturday night, the members said farewell to Bro. Isaac L. Kerr, who leaves next Monday to reside in the Canon District, Saskatchewan. Mr. Kerr is very well known at Bensfort, and his departure is regretted by the community at large. Bro. Kerr was presented with a well-filled purse and the following address:

Brother Isaac Kerr,—

We, the members of Court Bensfort No. 541, Canadian Order of Foresters, wish at the time to express our regret at your departure to another place of residence. It is therefore with a sense of personal loss that we view your departure from our midst, and yet, because of the advantages that the change brings to you, we cannot find it in our hearts to wish the old order of things to continue. It is no mere commonplace when we say that we wish you God speed and the success which earnest work will surely bring. We feel we cannot express our regret as we should do, but we ask you to accept this small gift as a token of the love and esteem which we hold for you. We hope that you will still prove faithful to the society and ever stand by its members.

Signed on behalf of the officers and members.

ROBT. BORLAND, C. R.
T. R. MORRISON, R. S.

Bro. Kerr expressed his thanks in an appreciative speech.

Ticket Holders Admitted Free

In order to correct an impression which seems to have gone abroad The Examiner is asked to state that to-night ticket-holders will be admitted to the Brock street rink as usual, and non-ticket-holders will be admitted on payment of the same admission fee as on other hand nights. The returns of the game are given free, no extra charge whatever being made for this additional attraction.

Mothers Everywhere in Canada Praise

Lactated Food

When a baby's life is saved, the grateful and loving mother is always ready to acknowledge the value of the agent that defeated sickness and death.

From all parts of Canada thousands of letters have been received from happy and thankful mothers, testifying strongly in favour of Lactated Food, all declaring that it saved their babies from sickness and death.

No other food offered in Canada has ever been so highly approved and endorsed by mothers and physicians. Lactated Food is now doing a grand work for weakly and ailing little ones. It quickly builds up flesh bone and muscle, and makes the babies bright and happy. Your Druggist sells it.

"Socialism" Will Be Topic

The bi-weekly meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Debating Club will be held on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Fred Ray will take the review of Current Events. The main feature of the evening will be an open debate on "Socialism," led by Mr. Wilfrid Shiner. All young men interested are invited.

Gained 10 Pounds.

"I was all run down and could not do my own work. Everything I ate made me sick. In nursing others I had seen the good results of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I resolved to to try it. As a result of this treatment I have gained ten pounds, do my own work alone and feel like an entirely different person."—Mrs. H. A. Loynes, nurse, Phillipsburg, Que.

The Stove Factory Proposition Accepted

Mr. J. F. Howard Agrees to Locate Here With His Stove Works and Will Also Bring Rolling Mills—Question of Power is an Important One—Agreement Authorized at Council Meeting Last Night.

Mr. J. F. Howard is prepared, according to his letter read at the meeting of the City Council last night, to proceed at once with the proposed stove works. At the meeting the letter from him to this effect was read. The letter stated that he was now prepared to establish the works on the site at an early date and that he already had designers and pattern-makers at work on the patterns for the stoves In reference to the establishment of a rolling mill apart and separate from the stove and heater works for the manufacture of bar iron and steel, etc., he stated that he felt more impressed than ever with Peterborough as a location for such an industry and was willing to invest in an undertaking to establish such an industry here, providing a suitable site is furnished on the understanding, of course, that he could secure sufficient electric power at a moderate price for operating the works. He considered that the present price, $20 per horse-power on three-year contracts, excessive and unsatisfactory, and advised the Council to use their influence with the power companies in the interests of the city and manufacturers, or to establish independent power plants. The communication was received.

In connection with the above a bylaw was passed at the meeting of the Council last night authorizing the execution of an agreement with Mr. Howard for the establishment of his works in the city upon terms set forth in the report of the Committee of the Whole.

His Ear Was Bitten Off

Frightful Injury Sustained in a Vicous Hotel Brawl.

It is stated that a fierce fight took place at a local hotel late last night when two lumbermen mixed it up in the most strenuous manner possible. Every means was resorted to by the combatants to win the laurels, and it was finally decided by one man biting off his opponent's ear, that member being completely severed from the unfortunate victim's head. Medical aid was hastily summoned and the injuries of the wounded man attended to. Unless blood poisoning sets in there would seem to be no impediment to his recovery. At present, although he is in a state of great pain, his condition is not particularly dangerous.

The Sail Gave Satisfaction

Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons have received the following letter from the Muskoka Sanitorium, Gravenhurst, which speaks for itself:—

The sail ordered by me arrived per express on Thursday 1st inst. We are highly delighted with it in every way, quality of material, workmanship and appearances.

We have, of course, no opportunity yet of trying it on the boat, but as it is right according to specifications we have no doubt as to its entire fitness.

Labour Council For Day Labour

Asks the City Council to Adopt the System.

A resolution passed by the Trades and Labour Council at the last meeting favouring the system of constructing sewers by day labour, and giving reason why, in the opinion of that body, this system is preferable, was presented to the Council last night, and in support of this resolution ex-Ald. Crowe addressed the Council. It was decided to refer the matter to the Board of Works, and that the petitioners be invited to be present at the next meeting of the Board, on motion of Ald. Johnston and Ald. McWilliams.

THE BEST STOVE CO

The New Organist An Efficent Man

Mr. W. E. McCann, who leaves London shortly, is appointed.

The London Advertiser, referring to the new organist in George street church, says: Mr. W. E. McCann, who has held the position of choirmaster and organist at the Askin street Methodist church for some time, has been appointed to a similar position in the George street Methodist church, Peterborough. His salary will be $700; here it is $500.

Mr. McCann leaves for Peterborough at the end of the month. While in London he has been regarded as a most capable and efficient organist and choirmaster, and his departure from London will be deeply regretted by very many friends. Mr. McCann is the son of a Methodist clergyman, and the nephew of the Roman Catholic Vicar-General of the same name, of Toronto.

Fine Programme Was Rendered

Literary Evening Under Auspices of St. John's Y. P. S.

The Young People's Society of St. John's church held a most delightful literary evening last night when a fine programme was rendered. There was a large attendance present and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The programme consisted of a piano duet by Misses English and Mulholland; comic speech by Mr. M. Drysdale on "The Relation of a Mosquito to the Human Family"; a paper on "The Rock of Ages," by Miss Lily Wesley; several solos by Miss. Devey, a reading by Mr. J. Bell, and a solo by Miss Daisy Sawers. That the programme was greatly enjoyed was shown by the hearty applause evoked by the different numbers.

Hockey Team Left for Goderich

Seven members of the Peterborough hockey club, accompanied by a dozen supporters, left on the 5.15 C.P.R. train last night en route to Goderich. The party stopped over in Toronto last night, and went on to Goderich this morning, arriving there at one o'clock this afternoon.

Crowley, who was unable to get away last night, left on the early train this morning and caught the team at Toronto. Twenty supporters left this morning, so that the team will have 25 or 30 rooters at the game.

OBITUARY.

MARY ANN STUBBS.

One of the best known residents of Peterborough city and county passed away early this morning in the person of Mary Ann Stubbs, wife of Mr. W. S. Northey. The deceased had been a resident of Peterborough for 13 years and was well known to many citizens. She was a native of Smith Township, where she was born 52 years ago. She was married at the age of 20 to Mr. Northey, and lived in Smith Township until 13 years ago, when they removed to Peterborough. Just a week ago Mr. and Mrs. Northey moved back to Smith Township, taking up residence on the Edgar farm.

The deceased had been ill only a few weeks with pneumonia. She was a faithful and devout member of the George street Methodist church, and her death will be a loss to the church and to the community as well. She is survived by a husband and three daughters, and two sons. They are Mrs. Joseph Succee, Peterborough; Mrs. J. E. Trennum, Smith; Mrs. R. C. Heard, Bridgenorth; Jas. H. and Whitfield Northey, Smith Township. Mr. Jas. Stubbs, George street, is a brother.

The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon from the late residence, Smith Township, to Bridgenorth cemetery. Rev. Dr. Crothers will conduct the services.

The Insurance Inquiry Asks For Co-operation

The Dominion Commission Invites Information.

MR. SHEPLEY, K.C., COUNSEL

Ontario Government Appointe as Counsel J. F. Helmuth, K. C., and Ald. Geary—Premier Whitney States Their Instructions—Mr. Helmuth Outlines His Point of View in Interview After Appointment.

Ottawa, March 6.—The Insurance Commission held an informal meeting yesterday and also had a conference with members of the Government. Subsequently they announced that the first business meeting would take place at the Court House here on Wednesday morning.

Invite Information.

They have decided to issue an invitation to those who have views to lay before them to lose no time in doing so.

The meetings will not be confined to Ottawa. The commission will sit in Toronto and Montreal. They want to cause as little expense as possible to the policyholders who may desire to be heard, and also to study the convenience of the insurance companies.

In the case of the companies it would cause far less dislocation of business to hold session where the chief offices are located, so that leading officials or members of the clerical staff may attend promptly with the necessary books and papers, and be released as soon as their examination is concluded.

It is safe to presume that one of the earliest matters to which the commission will devote themselves will be an examination of the methods of inspection by officers of the Federal Department of Insurance, in order to ascertain whether such are satisfactory and in strict accordance with the law.

Mr. Shepley, K.C., As Counsel.

It is understood that the position of counsel to the commission has been offered to Mr. G. F. Shepley, K.C., of Toronto, and the hope is expressed that he will accept. The learned gentleman is an eminent member of the Ontario Bar, and his opinion would in all cases carry weight.

Mr. J. W. Langmuir left last night for Toronto, where he has to attend an important meeting to-day, but he will be back again on Wednesday morning. In Mr. Langmuir's opinion the instructions to the commission are exceedingly broad; in fact, they give more scope than was enjoyed by the Albany Investigating Committee. He has no idea how long the inquiry will last, but thinks it depends to a very great extent upon the nature of the evidence ...ur nutre ath Wh mmo togthoseshin brought out. Whether the commission will take up the affairs of each company, and, if so, in what way, and how they will approach the different phases of the insurance question, remains to be determined.

MRS. BROWN'S DEATH.

Coroner's Jury Gives Verdict In Picton Shooting Fatality.

Picton, March 6.—The coroner's jury in the case of the death of Mrs. Brown, returned a verdict to the effect that Frank Nelson had not intended to cause injury, but that the permitting of minors to use firearms in the town limits was to be condemned.

Refuse to Leave Their Ship.

Machiasport, Maine, March 6—The wreck of the three-masted schooner Millie, of Parrsboro, N. S., and the probable loss of four seamen was reported yesterday, when Capt. A. H. Gibson, with his mate, second mate and cook, arrived here after a hard struggle. The men, it is said, refused to leave the schooner, believing she would withstand the strain, and are supposed to be lost.

Wheat Receipts.

Ottawa, March 6.—A return to the Trade and Commerce Department shows that receipts of wheat at Port Arthur and Fort William elevators for the first half of the present crop year, that is, up to the end of February, totaled 39,658,705 bushels, as against 23,831,383 bushels last year, and shipments of wheat, 34,794,323 bushels, as against 18,840,299 last season.

ONLY A Common Cold

BUT IT BECOMES A SERIOUS MATTER IF NEGLECTED. PNEUMONIA, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CATARRH or CONSUMPTION IS THE RESULT.

Get rid of it at once by taking

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

Obstinate coughs yield to the grateful soothing action, and in the racking, persistent cough, often present in Consumptive cases, it gives prompt and sure relief. In Asthma and Bronchitis it is a successful remedy, rendering breathing easy and natural, enabling the sufferer to enjoy refreshing sleep, and often effecting a permanent cure.

We do not claim that it will cure Consumption in the advanced stages, but if taken in time it will prevent it reaching that stage, and will give the greatest relief to the poor sufferer from this terrible malady.

Be careful when purchasing to see that you get the genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark.

Mr. Wm. O. Jenkins, Spring Lake, Alta., writes: "I had a very bad cold settled on my lungs. I bought two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup but it only required one to cure me. I have never met with any other medicine as good."

The Estimates Of The Province Are Submitted

What It Costs to Govern the Province Under Mr. Whitney.

FIVE AND A HALF MILLIONS

Large Supplemental Vote Promised For Education—Net Excess Over Last Year's Expenditure $80,000—Civil Service In Luck—Amounts Estimated In Profit-Making Departments—Summary of Vote.

Toronto, March 6.—In laying the estimates on the table of the Legislature yesterday Hon. Mr. Matheson moved to refer them to the committee on supply this afternoon, deferring his financial statement for some time as previously arranged. While there were considerable increases in the estimates, he remarked, these were not as large as would appear, and were chiefly a matter of bookkeeping. In the agricultural and in the Central Prison estimates apparent increases of $23,000 and $67,600 respectively, which were offset by receipts from these departments on earnings, the two items accounting for $156,900. Another $50,000 for clearing forest lands adjacent to the Temiskaming Railway right of way would be repaid by the timber cut. These reductions would reduce the apparent increase in the estimates by $260,000.

Public School Increases.

The public school estimates, Col. Matheson explained, were the ordinary vote, but the Minister of Education intended to bring down a bill in connection with which very large increases for educational purposes would be referred to the supplementary estimates.

Hon. Geo. W. Ross said he was glad the Government was returning to the custom departed from last session in the agricultural estimates, and resuming the practice for several years previously. He did not remember the practice in the Central Prison accounts, but the proper method was to show what were the entire receipts.

Premier Whitney—I understand we are remedying the condition of affairs we have found.

Hon. Mr. Ross—Not as regards the Ontario Agricultural College.

Over Five and a Half Millions.

The total estimates are $5,625,843.15, compared with a total expenditure last year of $5,296,016.74. The estimates include current expenditure for 1906, $4,980,338.15; on capital account, $452,805; other purposes, $212,410.

With the $200,000 accounted for by Hon. Mr. Matheson the net increase would be some $30,000.

Salaries bulk very largely in the increases. The estimates for civil Government in all departments show increases. The Attorney-General's secretary, Mr. Curry, gets an increase of $50, his salary being $1,650. The Deputy Minister of Education, Mr. Colquhoun, will receive $3,000, the former salary being $2,700, and the Minister's secretary gets an increase of $100, to $1,200. Several clerks are advanced on the pay-roll. There is provision for a secretary to the Minister of Lands and Mines, $1,600, not in last year's estimates, and the secretary of the department, Mr. Yates, gets an increase from $1,500 to $1,650. The chief clerk of woods and forests gets $200 added to his salary, and every other clerk in the branch is similarly favored.

Deputy Ministers' Increases.

The Deputy Minister of Mines, Mr. Gibson, gets $500 over last year. The Deputy Minister of Public Works is raised from $2,400 to $3,000, and $1,500 is included for a consulting engineer and architect, and $1,200 for an assistant architect. The deputy commissioner of fisheries, Mr. Bastedo, and the chief clerk, Mr. Webster, who are being "investigated," stay at the old salary, $2,200 and $1,400, respectively. The game warden gets $100 more. There are no changes in the labor bureau. The assistant treasurer goes into the $3,000 class, and the Minister's secretary gets $1,600. The provincial auditor, James Clancy, figures in the increase, receiving $3,000 in place of the former $2,500. There are two new clerks in this department at $700 each. Mr. Mulvey, assistant provincial secretary, gets an increase of $300. A hundred dollar bill is cut off the asylum inspector's stipend. Two other inspectors get $100 increases.

"Special investigations" in the Provincial Secretary's Department will cost $9,000. In the license branch, the chief officers do not benefit from the growing-time estimates, but the clerks are remembered.

Mr. Hodgetts' Gets Increase.

The deputy registrar-general and secretary of the Board of Health, Dr. Hodgetts, is to get $2,700 in place of $2,500, and a new office of inspector of district registrar's offices will take $1,300. The deputy minister of agriculture gets $3,000 in place of $2,700, and for the secretary of colonization and forestry there is a new vote of $1,500. The Official Gazette will cost $8,000, being $1,000 more than last year. Mr. Speaker's salary will be $2,500, not $2,000, as formerly. The clerk of the House gets no increase, but $100 is added to the salary of his assistant. The sergeant-at-arms is increased from $1,000 to $1,400. The four House messengers will cost $2,400, whereas they formerly cost $2,950. The various clerks of the committees, secretary to the Speaker and secretary to the leader of the Opposition are bunched at $5,800, the former charge being $5,200. There is a increase in the amount required for stationery, printing and binding from $40,000 to $50,000. The indemnity stands $101,000 and there will be no salary grab, unless provision is made in the supplementary estimates.

Administration of Justice.

In the administration of justice accounts, there is an allowance of $150 for artificial feet for the assistant housekeeper, Crown counsel prosecutions call for $11,000, an increase of $3,000, while there is an increase of $10,000 in the general administration of criminal justice in counties, the figure being $100,000. For repairs at Osgoode Hall, several items appear. The stipend of the magistrate at the Soo, Mr. Quibell, $600, is cut off, as well as those of the magistrate of Michipicoten ($1,000), Southern Nipissing ($1,600), Northern Nipissing ($750). Parry Sound gets $250 for an additional magistrate. Manitoulin $1,000 for a stipendiary magistrate. A police magistrate for Bridgeburg and Fort Erie will get $500.

Cost of Education.

For education the amounts required are:

	1905.	1906.
Public and separate school education	$521,000 00	$540,270 00
High school and collegiate institutes	145,200 00	152,150 00
Departmental library and museum	18,788 33	18,580 00
School of Practical Science	67,925 00	93,500 00
Public libraries, art schools, literary and scientific	68,000 00	69,450 00
Technical education	25,000 00	51,920 00
Superannuated public and high school teachers	62,200 00	62,200 00
Provincial University and mining schools	126,022 12	170,168 17
Maintenance education department and miscellaneous	16,000 00	22,696 72
Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Belleville	50,740 00	56,918 00
Blind Institute, Brantford	34,230 00	37,280 10
	$1,209,206 45	$1,299,416 99

For maintenance of public institutions, the treasurer asks for $1,168,459.66, against $931,427 last year. While the salaries of most of the officials have been increased, perquisites have been cut off, and there is a saving on supplies.

For agriculture there is a considerable increase in votes to various societies and farmers' institutes. Dairies will require $53,200, against $32,000 last year.

Government House will cost $16,000, an increase of $3,000; Parliament and departmental buildings, $69,460, against $59,330 last year.

Mining Development.

For mining development there is a new vote of $1,600 for a provincial inspector of mines; also new vote of $10,700 for exploring parties in New Ontario. The expense of the mining conventions in 1905 was $500.

Among the miscellaneous items there is one of $5,000, payment of wolf bounty, and of $372 for claims disallowed by auditor on account of irregularities. While elections cost $90,000 last year, only $10,000 may be required this year. There is an item of $10,000 for annuities and bonus to Indians under treaty No. 9.

Commissions cost money, and Ontario as two now working. The hydro-electric power commission is expected to cost $8,000, the university commission $7,200; and sundry investigations $5,000. Gratuities are reduced from $36,700 to $10,000.

Bills Introduced.

The only business yesterday outside of the estimates was the introduction of a few bills.

Mr. Downey had several bills containing amendments to existing acts. One asked that in every 100 acres of woodland 10 be exempt from taxation when maintained as such and not used for grazing purposes. By a change sought in the Public Parks Act members of municipal park commissions would be appointed by council instead of being nominated by the mayor. A proposed amendment to the Municipal Water Works Act would provide for a two-years' term for water works commissioners, instead of a single year.

Mr. Gamey introduced a bill to amend the Election Act to allow two polling subdivisions to be added to the north shore in Manitoulin constituency.

Where is Gamey's Money?

Mr. Gamey gives notice of the following questions for Wednesday:

"Is the Government aware that Chief Justice Falconbridge and Chancellor Boyd, acting as commissioners for the late Government investigating the Gamey charges, improperly impounded $500 cash and a marked cheque of Mr. Gamey's on the Traders' Bank of Sudbury for $1,500, and that they still have this money and cheque to their order?

"What do the Government propose to do with this money?"

Liquor Interests Deputation.

A deputation representing the liquor interests waited on the Government Monday afternoon. It was urged that a check should be put on municipalities voting year after year to reduce the licenses. The deputation asked that the license fee be not raised and that municipalities be deprived of power to reduce licenses at their will.

Crowds of people are constantly visiting the baby's home to get a peep at the tiny bit of humanity.

Russian Move Favours Claim Of The French

Delegate At Algeciras Makes Police Question Exposition.

BRITISH AND OTHERS CONCUR

Final Vote Relative to the Policing of Morocco May Be Greatly Affected by the Expressions Anent Russia's Active Part of the Mediterranean Powers—American and Several Others Did Not Express Views.

Algeciras, March 6.—Yesterday afternoon's sitting of the conference on Moroccan reforms was marked by an unexpected and important move on the part of the Russian delegates, who laid before the conference an exposition of the police question. The document, which minutely goes over the existing situation in Morocco, and analyses the position of the various powers, concludes with an argument for the proposition that France and Spain are the most fit to be entrusted with the task of controlling the police force which is about to be created.

The British, Spanish and Portuguese delegates expressed their concurrence in the Russian views. Italy, however, though inclined to favor the scheme, reserved final approval. Count Von Tattenbach, the junior German delegate; Henry White, the chief of the American delegation, and the delegates of the several neutral powers did not express their views.

Discussion of definite police proposals was postponed until Thursday, while the bank project will be argued on Wednesday.

The French and British delegates to the conference regard yesterday's expressions from the Mediterranean powers as likely to exert great effect on the final vote of the neutrals relative to the policing of Morocco.

Why Red Rose Tea is Economical

RED Rose Tea has all the good points of two good teas and none of the weaknesses of any. You never drank a cup of straight Ceylon or Indian tea that could compare in strength, richness, delicacy and fragrance with the "rich fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea.

Yet Red Rose Tea goes further and costs no more than either Indian or Ceylon teas alone.

Red Rose Tea is better than either Indian or Ceylon tea and is more economical because it goes further.

Red Rose Tea is good Tea

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed tenders, addressed to the undersigned, marked on the envelope, "Tenders for Construction," will be received at the office of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway at Ottawa, until 12 o'clock noon, on Monday, the 19th day of March, 1906, for the work required for the construction, in accordance with the plans, profiles and specifications of said Commissioners, for the following sections of the Transcontinental Railway, for said work to be completed on or before the first day of September, 1907, viz:—

(1) District "B". — From a point designated on the plans of the said Commissioners at or near the City of Winnipeg, to a point known as Pentiwa Crossing, near the junction point of the Fort William branch of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, a distance of about 245 miles.

(2) District "B". — From a point designated on the plans of the said Commissioners, at the north end of the Quebec Bridge and Railway Company's bridge in the vicinity of the City of Quebec, to a point near La Tuque, a distance of about 130 miles.

(3) A steel viaduct about 3,000 feet long across the Cap Rouge Valley, in said District "B", in the vicinity of the City of Quebec, the work to be performed in accordance with the General Specifications of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, and the General Specifications for steel bridges and viaducts of the Department of Railways and Canals of Canada, 1905.

Plans, profiles and specifications may be seen in the office of the Chief Engineer of the Commissioners at Ottawa, also in the office of the District Engineer at Kenora, Ontario, for the section of District "B", and for the section of District "B" in the office of the District Engineer at Quebec.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made in duplicate, and on the printed forms supplied by the Commissioners.

Separate tenders must be submitted for the work in each District.

Tenderers shall not be in any way entitled to rely upon the classification or any other information given by any person on behalf of the Commissioners, and before submitting any tender, tenderers should make a careful examination of the plans, profiles, drawings and specifications, and read the forms to be executed, and fully inform themselves as to the quantity and quality of materials and character of workmanship required; and are understood to accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions contained in the form of contract, specifications, etc., annexed to the form of tender.

Each tender must be signed and sealed by all the parties to the tender and witnessed, and be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank of the Dominion of Canada, payable to the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, for the sum of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) for District "B", and two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000) for District "B" and thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) for steel viaduct in said District "B". Any person whose tender is accepted shall within ten days after the acceptance thereof furnish the security required by the Commissioners for the due and faithful performance of the contract according to its terms, sign the contract, specifications and other documents required to be signed by said Commissioners; and in any case of refusal or failure on the part of the party whose tender is accepted to complete and execute a contract with the said Commissioners and to furnish the approved security within ten days after the acceptance of the tender, the said cheque shall be forfeited to the Commissioners as liquidated damages for such refusal or failure, and all contract rights acquired by the acceptance of the tender shall be forfeited. Cheques deposited by parties whose tenders are rejected will be returned within ten days after the signing of the contract.

Attention is called to the following clauses in the form of contract:—

"All mechanics, labourers, or other persons who perform labour for the purposes of the construction of the works hereby contracted for shall be paid such wages as are generally accepted as current for competent workmen in the District in which the work is being performed, and, if there be no current rate in such District, then a fair and reasonable rate; and, in the event of a dispute arising as to what is the current or a fair and reasonable rate, it shall be determined by the Commissioners whose decision shall be final."

"This agreement is subject to the regulations now in force, or which may at any time hereafter be in force during the construction of the works hereby contracted for, made under the authority of the Department of Labour, and which are or shall be applicable to such works."

"The contractor shall in connection with the whole of the said work, as far as practicable, use only material, machinery plant, supplies and rolling stock manufactured or produced in Canada, provided the same can be obtained as cheaply and upon as good terms in Canada as elsewhere, having regard to quality and price."

The contractor shall conform to the Fire Regulations adopted by the Commissioners, and also to the Laws and Regulations respecting fire in the different Provinces wherein the work is being performed.

The right is reserved to reject any or all tenders.

By order,

P. B. RYAN, Secretary.

The Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, Ottawa, 2nd February, 1906.

Newspapers inserting this notice without authority from the Commissioners will not be paid for it.

Smith Falls Hockey Team

A Line on the Seven that Will Try to Wrest the Stanley Cup from Ottawa.

A Smith's Falls despatch announces Federal League champions are in the very pink of condition for to-morrow night's game with the Ottawas. It also predicts the greatest battle the cup holders have had in defence of the Stanley trophy since Rat Portage swooped down here one year ago this month.

"One reason for this is," continues the despatch, "that the Smith's Falls men are said not to know just what they can do on ice. There is a feeling, not confined to their home backers, by any means, that they have a good deal in reserve, a good deal not even suspected by themselves, and that all that is required to call it into play is a match with some really great team like the Ottawas."

The record of the Smith's Falls team is a notable one. They played the whole series of games without a solitary defeat. Every man is a bona-fide resident of the town, and not a hired man on the team. They are a fine, clean lot of young fellows, three of them bank clerks, two of them mechanics, and two of them machinists. They are said to be in the pink of condition for their games with the Ottawas next week, and may be depended on to put up a big fight for the Stanley Cup. It probably would be too much to say that they are expected to lift the cup, and if there were any betting, it would be all the same a feeling has got abroad in some way that the games will be worth seeing.

The Smith's Falls boys certainly displayed a vast superiority over anything in the Federal League. The team is quite capable of tripping up many of the E.C.A.H.L. sevens. The line as composed of big fellows, all of whom will tower over the Ottawa's forward quartette. As speed skaters they will probably outstrip the champions without much trouble. However their prowess to work their favourite combination in the narrow rink at Smith's Falls, will probably not meet with hilarious success at Dey's. This team play consists of two men carrrying the puck to the defence, that passing to two who are on their heels. While Pickford and Moore will be looking after the leading pair, the Ottawa forwards will take care of the pass behind. The play works well in a space where it is hardly possible for more than three men to charge abreast. From the style of play the ohs leagers have shown this year, it is safe to say the Ottawa defence will have plenty of work out out for it. Ah the forwards skate with a very long stride and have an endless reach with their stick. They are adepts at working the puck with one hand and warding off opposition with the other, but will find that of little advantage when up against aggressive forwards like the Ottawas.

One of their long suits is to hold on to an opponent's stick, sometimes tucking the crooked portion under their arms so that it is impossible to break it loose. When Vics played in Smith's Falls, the home team worked this trick repeatedly on Jimmy Enright's men and had them protecting their sticks more than their bodies throughout the game. The Falls' defence is a pretty husky one, LeSeur, Brown and Armstrong all being men of big build. Both Brown Armstrong are fast and work with the forwards at intervals.

The series will bring out some pretty heavy play, and if the challengers prove unsuccessful it will be more through their failure to penetrate the Ottawa defence than having a large score run up against them.

Pill Pounders Win Their Third Game

The Pill Pounders appear to have an invincible team this season. They have played three strenuous games of hockey and have emerged victorious every time. Last night they went up against Richard Hall's seven and won by the score of 3-1 and had by long odds the best of the play. For the losers Seymour, Reilly and Doris were the most prominent, the latter scoring their only goal. Mann played his usual speedy game and scored two of the victors' goals and Fitzerald one. Quinn at cover and Davidson at point made a stonewall defence. Score at half time was 2-0. "Billy" Groom made an excellent referee and penalties were numerous. The teams lined up as follows:—

Pill Pounders.		Richard Hall's.
Huston	Goal.	Reilly
Davidson	Point.	Feeney
Quinn	Cover Point.	Gillespie
Darke	Rover.	Seymour
Mann	Centre.	Doris
Yelland	Right Wing.	Allan
Fitzgerald,	Left Wing.	Judd

Referee—Wm. Groom.

HOCKEY

Best's Happy Thoughts will play the Furniture Kings to-night in Brock street rink from 7 to 8. The game is to be played for rink expenses. Mr. Les Moore will referee. The Happy Thoughts will line up as follows:—

Goal, Archibald; point, E. M. Best; cover point, C. Folley; rover, E. Reid; centre, J. McNenn; right wing, Ed. Skuce; left wing, A. Weeks.

The Barbers' Apprentices challenge the Grocery Drivers to a game of hockey, the losers to provide the oysters and pay for the rink as well.

• • • •

"The Peterborough team spent last night in Toronto and incidentally took in Shea's. They are all fit and ready for their game to-night with Goderich in Goderich and expect to win the championship.

Peterborough admits that a lead of seven goals is none too many, as Goderich is extra good on her own ice.

Muir will referee to-night's game in Goderich.

This will close up the O.H.A. games for the winter unless the committee allows the goal that D. G. Darroch and Frank Nelson saw and orders Berlin and Agonauts to play over again.—Toronto World.

• • • •

"The Peterborough Examiner thinks the local team was not treated fairly in being compelled to play three games in a week, two of them at home and one at Parry Sound, but that frequently happens to other teams, and most of them are quite satisfied if they have to do it, for it means that they are journeying successfully towards the championship goal."—The Globe.

Wonder who wrote that, anyway? It sounds like an echo from dreamland.

• • • •

Judging from its tone, the Brockville Recorder doesn't wish the Smith Falls seven the best of luck in their coming games with Ottawa for the Stanley Cup. There is no love lost between the Falls and the Island City.

• • • •

"John Fay the miracle man, met the Stanley Cup holders in the Russell after the game. After reading their minds Fay made the startling announcement Smith's Falls would be unsuccessful in their endeavours to lift the cup."—Ottawa Free Press.

• • • •

The Pill Pounders hereby challenge the Cressman's Counter Hoppers to a game of hockey to be played at the earliest possible date at Brock street rink.

• • • •

The London Free Press seems to think well of Peterborough's chances to land the silver and says:—

"The Goderich intermediates have their work cut out for them to overcome that Peterborough lead of seven goals. The Sailors have done some terrific scoring in their own ice, but it is doubtful if they can hang it on the easterners to a sufficient extent. The Peterborough men are a heavier lot, individually, than the Goderich men have been wont to body about in their outlandish rink, and for this reason they will not have such odds in their favour as in the games with the teams they have hitherto met there. But the round is not lost yet by any means, and the west end" has hopes of two championships. It ought to be one of the games of the season.

• • • •

The Free Press has another think coming to them regarding the weight of the two teams. Individually Peterborough is not heavier than the Sailors, considerably lighter in fact.

• • • •

The Toronto papers don't say anything about the crowd that witnessed the Varsity-Marlboro City championship. 10 to 1 a great deal larger audience saw the Charlotte Street-Suburb game for the Peterborough City championship and the two latter teams are only kids, too.

• • • •

If Smith Falls do land the Stanley Cup there will be terrible weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth in the Senators' camp. The cup holders seem to be very confident of retaining the precious silverware and treated the Falls bunch with comparative contempt, but perhaps the Faye know best. They pick Smith Falls to lift the trophy.

• • • •

A big turkey was found out in front of the Examiner office this morning, left there presumably by the defeated Review hockey sepcette who apparently thought that by leaving the turkey they would be relieved of the obligations incidental to the oyster supper. The turkey is received with thanks and will be accepted, seeing that all means to persuade the "Tory" rubber chasers that it is their duty to furnish the shell fish has failed. But next year a distinct understanding will have to be arrived at beforehand.

CURLING

Mr. Angus McIntosh, the king of the ice makers has six beautiful sheets ready for the curler at the Charlotte street rink. Last night only three were in use and on all the games were close and interesting and the usual hilarity amongst the curlers was heard.

The following were the scores of last night's games:—

Do you call that "free seats", or what do you call it? What I would call free seats, is who ever gets into them first is at ease to sit there during the service.

An Assault Cost $9.50

Peter Johnston was Charged with Being Insane.

Thomas Powers pleaded not guilty at the police court this morning when charged with assaulting Frederick Kennedy last Saturday at a local hotel, although he admitted having struck him. The defendant claimed that Kennedy, at the time of the fracas, owed him some money concerning livery hire, and the latter disputed it. Powers then pulled off Kennedy's glasses and struck him, giving him a badly discoloured eye. He claimed that he had spoken to Kennedy a couple of times before about the money, but had received no satisfaction. The complainant struck back several times but his efforts to land on Powers were ineffectual. Considerable time was taken up in trying to establish whether or not any money was really owed.

"Even allowing that Kennedy was indebted to Powers, is that any reason why it should be collected by the means adopted by Powers?"

"It's a very usual method of collecting an account by banging a man in the eye," said Mr. Kerr who appeared for Kennedy.

When cross-examined by Mr. Kerr Powers admitted that he had engaged in several fistic contests before, and that to use a common expression, "he was pretty handy with his dukes."

The court found Powers guilty of assault, and imposed a fine of $5 and $4.50 costs, amounting in all to $9.50, to be paid forthwith. In pronouncing judgment His Worship said that the law in this country doesn't allow people to collect money with their fists.

Peter Johnston was charged with insanity, his wife being the only witness who gave evidence. Johnston's mother died last week and since her death this maid has wandered very much, and he has been violent and dangerous, at times threatening to kill his wife. He has, during the last few days, been talking very much to himself, and his mind has been taken up with the question of religion.

"That's not right," said the prisoner as his wife was giving her testimony. He appeared to be very nervous and shifted around a great deal in the prisoner's box. Johnston put up a strenuous defence and stated that his wife had been unfaithful to him.

The Magistrate sent him to gaol and told Johnston that his case would be satisfactorily investigated.

Mr. Manning Accepts The Call

To Become Pastor of Charlotte Street Church.

Dr. M. A. Morrison, Recording Steward of the Charlotte street Methodist church, received word this morning from Rev. H. M. Manning, of Clinton, accepting the call to that church, after the next conference, subject to the consent of the Stationing Committee of the Conference, and the transfer from the London to Bay of Quinte Conference.

This will be good news to the members of this church, who consider themselves fortunate in securing Rev. Mr. Manning.

Guild Held Fine Meeting

The Presbyterian Guild of St. Paul's church held a devotional meeting last night which proved of much interest and profit to those present. Rev. W. MacD McKay presided and there was a good attendance of members. Sheriff Hall gave a very interesting explanation of the books of the Old Testament, and Miss Effie Best sang a solo in good voice. Arrangements were completed for the concert on Friday night.

A Summer School May Be Held At Chemong Park

Subject Introduced by Rev. Mr. Clare at Epworth League Joint Meeting—Fifty Members from Peterborough Wanted—Other League Matters Discussed—Rev. J. G. Lewis was Chairman—Rev. Dr. Crothers Gave Address.

SIMILAR MEETINGS EVERY THREE MONTHS

The Sunday school room of the Charlotte street Methodist church was last night comfortably filled. It was the occasion of the joint meeting of the Epworth Leagues of the city, and, judging from the number present, the interest in the work of the leagues is worthy of consideration.

On the platform were the Rev. J. G. Lewis, chairman, Rev. Dr. Crothers, and Rev. Mr. Clare, of Selwyn, campaign leader.

Devotional exercises opened the meeting, after which a duet, "Nearer to Thee, My Saviour," was beautifully rendered by the Misses Chastys.

Rev. Mr. Lewis, in opening the conversation and discussion of the evening, thanked the committee in charge of the combined meeting for the honour of being the chairman. League work was one in which he always took a deep interest and was always glad to see it flourishing. After outlining briefly the objects of the Epworth League he called upon Rev. Mr. Clare, the campaigner of this district in connection with league matters to address the assembly.

Mr. Clare put great energy into his address and proved himself to be in harmony with the great work and undoubtedly, in his competent hands, the interests of the league will progress.

He pointed out the various purposes which the Epworth League existed for, and exhorted all connected with it to assist the pastor in all possible ways by showing an interest in the work.

The desirability of conducting a summer school at Chemong was introduced by the speaker. He asked each league to consider the matter at the earliest opportunity and hoped to see at least 50 pupils at the summer school, the purpose of which was education in league affairs.

Conversations were then conducted concerning the promotion of the Epworth Leagues, led by Mr. Byrd Miss Stone, Rev. J. G. Lewis, Miss Collins, Mr. G. Galley, Rev. Mr. Clare, Mr. Latimer, and Mr. A. S. Armstrong.

A resolution was finally passed stating that the vice-president of each league look after the appointment of one member to assist Rev. Mr. Clare in his campaign work.

Rev. Dr. Crothers then addressed the meeting. He had listened with much interest to the capable discussions of the different members and hoped that the league would progress more rapidly in the future than it had done in the past. The pastors, he thought, should take hold of the work.

A resolution was passed to hold a similar joint meeting of the Epworth Leagues once every three months.

The impressive and profitable meeting was brought to a close with an excellent vocal selection by the quintette, the Misses Wilson, Stanton, Lee, Mrs. Parsons and Mr. Clark.

Hear the returns of the Game at Goderich at the Brock Street Rink to-night. Special telegraph service. 57th Band will be in attendance.

The Carpet Factory

AGREEMENT RATIFIED

By the City Council

After Hours of Discussion the By-law Passed—The Matter will be Submitted to the Ratepayers—A Number of Citizens Addressed the Council Strongly Supporting the Proposal—Company's Solicitor Tells of the Plans of the Company—Looms are Already on the way to Canada—A Concern Which the City Should Secure.

There were "things" at the City Council meeting last night. The session opened at 8.30, and the hands on the clock stood at 20 minutes after the midnight hour when the mayor left the chair with an unsubmitted motion before him. It was not because there was any specially large amount of business transacted that the meeting was not concluded until the hour mentioned. A long discussion took place on the carpet factory question, which was finally passed in the form of a bylaw authorizing the execution of an agreement with the Messrs. Brintons, Limited, for the establishment of their factory here and providing that the matter shall be submitted to the ratepayers before the transfer of the land is made. A similar bylaw for the stove works was also passed.

The Council Chamber was crowded last night with citizens, and they had their fill of oratory. The mayor and aldermen talked until the numbers of the spectators gradually dwindled down to two or three.

After the routine business had been transacted, Ald. McWilliams presented the report of the Committee of the Whole Council, which was as follows:

Your Committee of the Whole Council beg leave to report and recommend as follows:

1. That an agreement be entered into with Messrs. Brinton, Limited, Kidderminster, England, for the establishment of a carpet factory here upon the following terms:

The company shall, before the first day of January, 1907, erect and equip buildings for the manufacture of carpets, to cost not less than $50,000 exclusive of machinery, and shall employ therein by the first day of January, 1908, not less than 125 hands.

In consideration thereof the said corporation shall grant to the said company a free site of 15 acres of land to be part of the Sugar Company property if secure, or instead thereof, other equivalent property; a fixed assessment for at term of 21 years at the purchase price thereof including buildings for manufacturing purposes; the right to connect with the sewers free of charge; the right to connect with and the use of a railway siding; in the event of the city undertaking the supply of electric power, a supply of same at the same rates as other manufactories; the conveyance of said lands to be on terms similar to those of the lands granted to the Cordage Company.

The above agreement to be subject to ratification or modification by the Legislature of Ontario, and to be submitted to a majority vote of the qualified electors.

2. That the city solicitor be instructed to prepare bylaws for submission to the electors embodying agreements with Messrs. Brinton and J. F. Howard for the establishment of a carpet factory and a stove and heater works, respectively.

In presenting the report Ald. McWilliams explained at length the provisions of the proposed agreement with the carpet factory people, and defended the action of the committee in closing with Messrs. Brintons, subject to the ratification of the electors. He pointed out the desirability of securing such an industry for the city.

The motion to adopt the report was seconded to Ald. Hicks, but before it was carried there was considerable cross firing between His Worship and Ald. McWilliams, the former stating that he would sign no document giving land to the carpet factory unless it were submitted to the people; and the latter protesting that he was not asking him to do so.

Ald. McWilliams suggested that since there were a number of citizens present they might be heard on the question. This was agreed to, and a number of gentlemen spoke strongly favouring the proposal.

As president fo the Board of Trade Mr. D. Hughes Charles addressed the Council. He was of the opinion that the city should make an effort to secure the concern.

Mr. D. W. Dumble also spoke along similar lines, strongly supporting the proposition, as did also Mr. Richard Hall, who said he was fully persuaded that it would be one of the best things the city could do to grant the small sum required to secure the industry. Mr. Robert Fair was also in favour of the passing of the bylaw. He had seen the works of Messrs. Brintons, Limited, and he was sure that if the aldermen could see them they would not hesitate to support the proposition. He strongly advised that immediate action be taken.

Mr. E. F. Osborne was of the opinion that the company was not asking more than we should give them in view of what they offered to give the city. Mr. W. H. Hill wished to endorse the position taken by Mr. Dumble and Mr. Hughes Charles.

Mr. S. J. Robertson, solicitor for the Messrs. Brintons, Limited, addressed the council giving the history of the negotiations which had led up to the present stage. The solicitor said that at the present time 24 looms were on their way to Canada, and another 24 were being built and would be shipped as soon as possible. This was evidence of the fact that the company was prepared to go ahead and transact business. Speaking of the character of the proposed works, Mr. Robertson said that only Brussels, Axminster and Wilton carpets would be manufactured in the Canadian factory, and that the retail price of the goods made here would not be less than $1 per yard. For each of the 48 looms there is one expert male tender; for every two looms there is a youth learning the business. The rate of wages paid in England for skilled carpet hands is $12 to $14 a week; a higher wage would have to be paid here. The 48 looms to be put into this company's Canadian factory will employ at least 100 hands, of which but 6 would be female help. This exploded the rumour that their employees would be mainly girls.

Mr. Whitehead, the Canadian representative, addressed the council, and said that his company had received much better offers than from Peterborough. One locality offered three-fold this city's inducements, and had wired that they would have everything in shape for their location by May. He said the company was not begging to come to Peterborough, but they were willing, in case the city agreed to the terms to locate here and establish their factory.

Mr. W. H. Meldrum also addressed the council briefly. He was in favour of the people voting on the question, but thought the city should use every effort to secure English capitalists to locate works here.

The report was finally adopted, and the bylaw authorizing the execution of an agreement with the company passed.

Goderich Game To Be Reported

Special Telegraphic Service at Brock Street Rink With Band.

There is a big programme on at the Brock street rink to-night. In the first place the 57th Band has been engaged to furnish music for skating, and the ice is in splendid condition for that purpose. Then in addition the management of the rink has made arrangements to secure a telegraphic report of the progress and result of the game in Goderich. Every goal scored will be reported, and the reports will be bulletined as soon as received.

CHANGING SENTIMENT

Oliver Goldsmith's "Deserted Village."

Goldsmith, in his "Deserted Village," spoke of a certain chapel where those who "went to scoff, remained to pray." So in life one often laughs at what he does not understand, and later, when he does understand, his laugh turns to praise. There were some who doubted the merits of Newbro's "Herpicide," the scalp germicide and hair dressing; but since they have tried it they are now among its best friends and strongest endorsers. Herpicide kills the germ that eats the hair off at the root, and the hair then grows again. As a hair dressing it is incomparable. Try it. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, Special Agents.

Wanted the Council to Recognize Team's Work

At the Council meeting last night Ald. McWilliams, in the small hours of the morning, suggested that, since there was a prospect that the Peterborough hockey team would be the intermediate champions of the O.H.A., and that, as a consequence, the city would be given a great deal of the very best kind of advertising, the Council should do something to recognize the work of the young men, all of whom were a credit to the city. He had not formed any idea of what would be a fitting way to recognize the work of the team, but thought something should be done, and moved that the matter be left to the Finance Committee to deal with. The mayor, however, thought that the Council had been in session long enough, and left the chair before the motion was submitted to the meeting, and as a result nothing was done.

Opposition To The City's Private Bill

At the meeting of the Council last night the mayor made the statement that he had just learned that the solicitor for the Peterborough Light and Power Company would go to Toronto to oppose the clause in the city's private bill, giving it the authority to purchase power plants and dispose of the power to manufacturers. Mr. Dennistoun, the solicitor for the company mentioned, stated to-day that he had never said that he would oppose it, but stated that the power companies generally were opposed to the repeal of the Conmee Act, and if the Peterborough bill was passed it would mean that so far as the city was concerned the Conmee Act would be repealed.

The position the power companies took was that if this act were to be repealed it should be abolished, and not in the case of the city alone.

County Councillor Menogue's Explanation

Mr. John Menogue, County Councillor, has written the following letter to The Examiner:

Referring to a letter in The Review some few days ago, I would ask you to place the following before the public.

In the letter signed by "Douro Ratepayer," he states that he was advised by somebody that the ruling of the warden so usurped my vote that I was left between the "Devil and the Deep Sea." The party that so informed Mr. Douro Ratepayer could not have been a member of the County Council for they all know me well enough to be satisfied that neither the warden nor any other member can influence me to vote against my convictions. I voted, as I stated to Mr. Buck in the morning, for the Smith site or the Preston property, believing as I said that I considered, after having gone carefully over farm and buildings, to be the best site I had seen in any locality.

I do not know how "Douro Ratepayer" was led to believe that I had any particular reason why I should vote for a "Douro" site, and would have him plainly understand I was voting for a site that would be in the best interests of the county and for the purpose for which it was intended.

It is not considered wise to pay any attention to letters over an anonymous name, but although I am correcting some wrong impression that he would throw out there, I have nothing but the friendliest of feelings and sympathy for "Douro Ratepayer."

Yours respectfully,
JOHN MENOGUE,
Chandos.

Rev. Canon Davidson Arrives in St. Louis

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of Saturday had, with an excellent photogravure portrait, the following:

Rev. Canon J. C. Davidson, of Peterborough, Canada, is to lead the downtown Lenten services at the Garrick theatre next week, speaking each week day at noon. To-morrow morning he is to preach at the 11 o'clock service at Christ Church Cathedral.

Canon Davidson is a native of Canada and received his theological training in England, having been ordained in St. Paul's Cathedral. He then served for two years in a London curacy. For fifteen years he has been rector of St. John's, Peterborough, one of the most important parishes in the Diocese of Toronto. In 1904 he was elected by the clergy Rural Dean of Northumberland and Peterborough, and in December of last year the Bishop appointed him Canon of St. Alban's Cathedral, Toronto.

He was invited to St. Louis chiefly through one of the Brotherhood men, Geo. H. Robinson, who met Canon Davidson while spending summer vacations in the north. Canon Davidson has published several booklets and pamphlets, the best known of which is "Features of our Faith, Position and Practice," a confirmation manual now in its third edition.

Canon Davidson will be the guest of Bishop D. S. Tuttle at the latter's residence in Vandeventer place during his stay here.

ROYAL WELCOME

To-night the Hockey Team Will be Given a Rousing Public Informal Reception at the Station.

Two Brass Bands are Engaged to Welcome the Champions on Their Return From Goderich Victorious.

An Informal Affair in Which the Public are Invited to Take Part—The Details of the Welcome.

We celebrated some last night, but wait till you see us to-night. If it doesn't put Mafeking night into the shade, call us—well, prevaricators. On the 7.38 C.P.R. train to-night the Peterborough hockey team, intermediate champions will arrive from Goderich, and the whole city will be there to welcome them. The officers of the Hockey Club are making the arrangements for this reception, which, in point of enthusiasm will likely surpass anything ever seen in Peterborough before.

Three bands, the 57th, T. A. S. and Salvation Army, have been engaged and they will be on hand when the train pulls in. But there will be others, too. The citizens will be there in full force, and the team will be escorted up George street to the Oriental Hotel, where they will be given an informal dinner. They have expressed a wish that nothing elaborate in the shape of a banquet shall be given them to-night, and their wishes will be respected.

This may come later, but to-night the reception will be purely informal.

It is understood that the firemen, through which body, the team has no more staunch supporters, will be out in full force, and they're spending some money for fireworks too, so that in spite of the failure of the City Council to fall in line with the suggestion made at the meeting on Monday night, that they should blow a few dollars in something to make a noise to welcome the boys, the fireworks will be there. There will be others there with the goods — fireworks too.

While the officers of the Hockey Club are arranging for this reception to-night, it is a citizens' affair. The officers are simply doing it because someone has to take the initiative, and every citizen, young and old, is asked to help in the welcome. Get some ribbon, blue and white are the colours. Get a horn—get some rockets—get anything, but be there and use your lungs—if you have any.

The procession will proceed from the C.P.R. station up George street to the Oriental Hotel, and the members of the team will be drawn in carriages there.

A general invitation is extended to citizens who have carriages to join the procession and those who have none, to go on foot. Be there anyway.

Whitcroft On All-Star Team

Toronto, Ont., March 7. — "M. J. Hutchinson, 'Examiner,' Peterborough. — Fred Whitcroft picked on All Star Team for Saturday night.—W. A. Hewitt."

The above telegram speaks for itself. It was received at three o'clock this afternoon.

Citizens Arrange For A Banquet

This afternoon at 2.30 o'clock a meeting of citizens was held in the Oriental Hotel to arrange for a banquet to the victorious hockey team on Monday night next.

It is felt by a large number of citizens that something should be done to show the team that their work is appreciated, and in this endeavour it was thought that a banquet would be a fitting climax to the successful season's work.

At the time of going to press the meeting is still in session.

House Of Refuge Question Again

County Councillor Moloney has written the Examiner a letter in reference to the House of Refuge site. He states that he was incorrectly informed as to the soil of the Preston lot and asks the Warden to have the matter re-opened. The letter written by Mr. Moloney will be published to-morrow.

Mrs. Riley Gave Talk On Missions

At the Meeting of the Willing Workers' Last Night.

The meeting of the Willing Workers of the Murray street Baptist church last night, was an exceptionally interesting one. There was a large attendance and a good programme was presented. Mrs. (Rev.) F. J. Scott presided, and after the opening prayer, Misses Quinn and Walker, gave a vocal duet.

Papers on mission work in India were then read by Miss Clara Kidd, Miss Minnie Ellis, Miss Edna Yelland, Miss Barrett and Miss Noble Ray. A solo was given by Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. Riley, who addressed the Circle in the afternoon, again gave a talk on mission work.

CHAMPIONS AGAIN—PETERBOROUGH TURNED DOWN GODERICH "SAILORS" BY 6 GOALS ON ROUND; A GREAT VICTORY FOR LOCAL TEAM

Last night was a memorable night in Peterborough. But to-night will be a greater. The final game for the Intermediate Championship of the O. H. A. was played in Goderich, and, while the figures for that particular game were, Goderich 5, Peterborough 4, the lead of seven goals which the local team secured on Friday night here was sufficient to give them the championship, the score on the round being Peterborough 14, Goderich 8.

The Peterborough team this season has just closed the most brilliant season's record in the history of hockey in Peterborough. Last night's game was the first scheduled game this season they have lost, and that by a margin of only one goal. Their record this season has been marked by a succession of victories, and they richly deserve the honour which has come to them as a result of their excellent work. They are a credit to the city of Peterborough and to the O. H. A., and nothing which can be done to impress them with the fact that the citizens appreciate their work and the incidental advertising given this city should be neglected.

The story of the game last night in Goderich is told in detail in the special despatches which follow. It was very closely contested, and at half time with the score 4—0 in favour of Goderich, things looked blue. But the second half told another story, and the visitors scored 4 goals to the home team's 1.

Hundreds of persons gathered at the Brock Street Rink and at the Oriental, where the returns were received, and when the wires told the story in the second half, when Peterborough was seen to be gaining on the town team, and when the final score was announced the enthusiasm reached the climax. Cheer after cheer rent the air and the scene was a repetition of the night in 1902, when they defeated Galt in the finals, for the Intermediate Championship.

THE PETERBOROUGH HOOKEY TEAM OF 1905.

With one exception this team is the same as that of this year—Whitcroft in place of Parnell. Moore, the extra cover point man this year, is also wanting in the picture.

PETERBORO' HOCKEY TEAM IN GODERICH LAST NIGHT OUTCLASSED THE SAILORS

Special Dispatch From Staff Correspondent to The Examiner Tells Story of the Game—It Was Replete With Swift Playing—Every Man on Peterborough Team Was a Star—Goals Scored Fairly Were Not Counted.

In First Half Visitors Were Feeling Their Way—And in Second They Carried Everything Before Them—Congratulatory Telegrams Poured Into to Captain and Secretary of the Team—Some Details of the Scores.

(Special Staff Correspondence)

Toronto, March 7th. — (With the Peterborough hockey team.) — The Peterborough hockey team are Intermediate O.H.A. champions. They reached here this morning on their way back from Goderich, where they played the runners-up, and although the official score was 5—4, two other goals were fairly scored, which would have put the visitors in the lead.

The game was the greatest in the history of hockey in Western Ontario, and was seen by a packed rink full of people.

Peterborough won the toss. The game proved to be a hard-fought one from start to finish. In the first half it appeared as if the Peterborough team was sizing up their opponents. The first goal was scored in a few minutes, and the Peterborough players claimed that it, as well as the third goal, were scored on offsides. Altogether the score in the first half was 4—0. Peterborough had almost as much of the play as Goderich.

In the second half Crowley started the scoring for Peterborough on a nice shot, and during the balance of the game Peterborough had them badly beaten. Cavanah poured shot after shot on McIvor, who handled them nicely. Morgan, playing a perfect centre game, scored the next two for Peterborough; and Glover, who went the length of the rink, and was bodied, handled the puck amongst a number of Goderich players and scored the last goal for Peterborough, and also got another goal that the umpire did not allow, but which was scored fairly. In this half Goderich only added one tally. Any shot that got past Watson was practically impossible to stop, and he played one of the hardest games he ever put up. Graham played a perfect checking game, and although he did not score it is conceded that he never played a more useful game. Whitcroft as usual, was the fastest man, but he was handicapped by the soft ice. Too much credit cannot be given him for his playing in the two games. It went a long way in getting and maintaining the lead. Crowley, at cover point, was responsible for breaking up the combination of the Goderich forwards time and time again, and his scoring of the first goal started the boys in good shape.

After the game a number of congratulatory telegrams were received by Captain Whitcroft and Secretary Graham, from enthusiasts at home.

Contrary to reports in the Toronto papers no Peterborough player had to retire, but all were going stronger at the finish than at any time during the game.

How The Peterborough Citizens---Young and Old--- Heard News Of Victory

A Wildly Enthusiastic Time—Hundreds of Cheering Citizens Thronged the Brock Street Rink and Oriental Hotel to Learn Progress of the Game—The Bulletins Received—Confidence Was Never Lost—Peterborough's Great Work in Second Half Pleased the People.

The supporters of the local team have been confident almost from the first of the season that Peterborough was going to be the resting place of the Dunlop Cup, emblematic of the intermediate championship for this year, and this belief was strengthened as the season progressed and the team began to pile up records. Parry Sound was the first hard proposition the team was up against this season, and results showed that they were not so hard after all. A good many people, however, thought they were up against the real thing when they ran against Goderich, Carr-Harris' team, the bunch that always piled up a score against the team that ran up against them at home. But even Carr-Harris' and his sailors were not to be denied them, and while the official figures show a defeat for the locals

Annual Meeting of The Board of Trade Was Largely Attended

The Old Officers Were Unanimously Re-elected And a Vote of Thanks Passed in Appreciation of Their Faithful Services—Reports Were Received Were of a Very Satisfactory Nature—Trent Valley Deputation.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trade was held last night in the City Council Chamber when the reports for last year were presented and officers elected. The attendance was satisfactory and the reports were of a very encouraging nature. The old officers were unanimously elected for another term, showing that the manner in which their duties have been performed has been to the entire satisfaction of the members of the board. There were present President D. Hughes Charles, in the chair; Col. E. B. Edwards, Messrs. R. M. Dennistoun, E. G. Patterson, W. H. Denham, A. A. Hollingshead, W. S. Dodds, F. D. Kerr, J. Coyle Brown, Jas. Kendry, K. Eardley-Wilmot, Col. Rogers, R. E. Wood, Wm. Rudkins, Arthur Stevenson, F. W. Dean and W. H. Meldrum.

The following communications were received:

From Mr. F. C. T. O'Hara, Superintendent of Commercial Agencies—Department of Trade and Commerce—re resolution, Mr. J. S. Larke's address.

RUNAWAY COUPLE

—WERE LOCATED IN CITY BY—

KINGSTON HUSBAND

Mrs. Connors, Wife of Prosperous Kingston Farmer, Eloped With Her Husband's Hired Man.

Mrs. Connors' Niece Accompanied the Couple, Who Were Found at the Temperance House.

Wife Was Persuaded to Go Back With Her Husband, While the Hired Man Disappeared.

A remarkable story of domestic infidelity has just come to light in Peterborough. Once again it is the old story of the wife leaving her husband to flee with another man.

It appears that on Monday night a well-dressed young man called at the Temperance House, owned by Mrs. I. G. Noble, Hunter street, and applied for lodgings for himself and two ladies. He gave his name as Miller and said that his party might be in the city only for a day or two, or might remain for a week or more. The prices quoted by Mrs. Noble were satisfactory to the man and he went away, returning shortly after with two well-dressed and good looking young ladies, whom he introduced as his wife and sister. "Mr and Mrs. Miller" were assigned to one room and Miss Miller to the room adjoining.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Noble was considerably surprised when P. C. Stewart called at the Temperance House and informed her that Mr. Parry Connors, of Kingston, was with him, looking for his runaway wife, whom it was believed was the woman passing under the name of Mrs. Miller. Mr. Connors was taken up to Miller's room, and identified "Mrs. Miller" as his wife and "Miss Miller" as Miss Connors, his niece.

Mrs. Noble ordered the party to leave her house at once, and Miller was ordered by P. C. Stewart to pay a week's rent for the rooms he had taken, or he would be arrested. Miller chose the former alternative.

Mr. Connors begged his wife to come home with him but for a while she steadfastly refused to do so. The niece began weeping and at once asked to be taken home. Miller left the house and has not been seen since.

Mr. Connors called at the police station and announced that a reconciliation had been effected. The husband, wife and niece left on the 9 o'clock G.T.R. train last night for Kingston.

It is learned that Mr. Connors is a prosperous farmer, residing near Kingston and that the young man Miller had been in his employ. The party were driven to the city from Port Hope and stayed for a day at the Munro House, where, however, the rates seemed too high for Miller and he decided to look for cheaper lodgings.

$50.00 PROFIT

ONLY $25.00 INVESTED

Do you want to make $50 profit by investing only $25 in a lot in beautiful Summit Park, Port Arthur, the great lake port town of N. W. Ontario.

Port Arthur is the County Seat of all Thunder Bay District, and is the lake terminal town of the three great transcontinental railroads, which empty their immense quantities of Western freight on ships bound for the East and Europe.

Port Arthur is the only real municipal ownership town in America, and made last year over $30,000 net profit out of its Street Railway, Electric Light and Power, and Telephone Franchises.

Port Arthur has the largest grain elevator in the world.

Port Arthur doubled its population in the last 3 years and we believe it will double again in the next 3 years.

Port Arthur is the gateway between the East and the extensive West, and can have no competitor.

Summit Park is a high, level plateau, furnishing a beautiful view of Thunder Bay, and lots purchased in this park at present prices will bring big profits before many months.

Rangers Decide To Visit Brantford

Officers at a Meeting Held Last Night Definitely Decided to Accept Invitation.

A meeting of the officers of the 57th Regiment was held last night in the Drill Hall to discuss the invitation of the Dufferin Rifles, Brantford, to visit that city on the annual visit this summer. The officers unanimously decided to accept the invitation and the regiment will go to the Telephone City on Saturday night, June 30, and remain over the holiday. Brantford is having a military tournament on that date, and a good time is assured for the Rangers.

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Montreal Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cure Her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

Mrs. M. O. C. Letellier.

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Soon after my marriage my health began to decline. My appetite failed me: I was unable to sleep, and I became very nervous and had shooting pains through the abdomen and pelvic organs, with bearing-down pains and constant headaches, causing me much misery. The monthly periods became more and more painful, and I became a burden and expense to my family instead of a help and pleasure. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. Soon after I began using it I felt a change for the better, and at the time of my next period I noticed a great difference, and the pain gradually diminished until I was well. I am stronger and look better than I did before I was married, and there is great rejoicing in the house over the wonders your medicine worked." Mrs. M. A. C. Letellier, 732 Cadieux St., Montreal, Quebec.

If you have suppressed or painful periods, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, pelvic catarrh, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, or some derangement of the organs. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mission Circle's Officers Re-elected

Annual Meeting Held and Address on Missions Given.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Mission Circle of the Murray street Baptist church, was held yesterday afternoon in the church, and was a most successful and encouraging meeting. There was a large attendance of members of the Circle.

The meeting was led by Mrs. Hunter, President of the Circle and after the opening exercises, a Bible reading was given by Miss Fisher.

Miss Nicholls, the Secretary, presented the report of the year's work, which was of a most satisfactory character.

Miss Fisher presented the financial statement for the past year, which also showed that the year had been a successful one.

Mrs. (Dr.) Scott gave the report of the Indian Fund, and Mrs. Miller favoured the gathering with a solo.

An interesting feature of the meeting was a talk by Mrs. Riley, on the State of Mission Work. This address was decidedly entertaining and instructive, and was thoroughly enjoyed.

Reports of the Mission Circles of Park street, St. Andrew's, St. Paul's and Charlotte street churches were given. After which the election of officers took place, resulting in the re-election of last year's officers, as follows:—

President—Mrs. Hunter.

1st Vice-President—Mrs. (Dr.) Scott.

2nd Vice-President—Mrs. Jas. Wood.

Treasurer, Foreign Mission — Mrs. Porter White.

Treasurer, Home Mission—Miss Aldridge.

Secretary—Miss M. A. Nicholls.

The prospects for this society for teh coming year are of the brightest.

Would Stop The Cigarette Sale

Lindsay Aldermen in Favour of Prohibiting It.

At the council meeting in Lindsay on Monday night Ald. Eyres brought up the cigarette "curse." It was, in his opinion, a matter that was not to be dealt with lightly. It was appalling when one considered the vast amount of cigarettes consumed in the Dominion of Canada. The alderman gave a few figures to emphasize his remarks. The cigarette evil was making rapid strides, and if allowed to go on it would be very hard to tell where it might end. Ald. Eyres did not think they were, as a body, doing justice in not abolishing it. He believed that is the question of prohibiting the importation, sale and use of cigarettes in Lindsay was voted on by the ratepayers it would be carried by 90 per cent. Those who used cigarettes haven't got a franchise, and those who did not, have. As far as the Council's ability went, they were in duty bound to deal with this subject, and Ald. Eyres begged leave to submit a bylaw—to be voted on at the next election—to prohibit the importation and sale of cigarettes, if such was in the Council's power. The habit was a very serious one to the rising generation, and should be nipped in the bud.

Rev. Dr. Torrance Nominated As The Moderator

Of Knox Church and of the General Assembly, London—Rev. Mr. Campbell, Lakefield, Resigned His Pastorate—Address by Dr. Milligan, of Toronto—Encouraging Reports of the Standing Committees—Y. P. S. C. E. an Important Factor.

THANKS EXTENDED TO CONGREGATION

The March Quarterly meeting of the Peterborough Presbytery was held in Cobourg Monday and Tuesday of this week. The meetings which were well attended by the members were held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Cobourg, of which Rev. W. Beattie is pastor. The other ministers who were present were the following reverend gentlemen:—A. E. Camp, Moderator, daveloes: A. K. McLeod, B. A., Brighton; Peter Duncan, Colbourne; C. S. Lord, B. D., Grafton; J. F. MacFarlane, B. A., Warkworth; A. C. Reeves, B.A., Campbellford; H. E. Abraham, B.A., Port Hope; Wm. Johnston, Harwood; J. M. Whitelaw, B.D., Omemee; Jas. Skene, Baltimore; Dr. Torrance, Peterborough; J. G. Potter, B.A., Peterborough; D. A. Thompson, Hastings. Among the elders present were, Wm. Black, Warkworth; S. Russell, Cobourg; Wm. Fowler, Peterborough; R. Harrison, treasurer, Peterborough, and Jas. Armstrong, Campbellford.

The Presbytery was convened on Monday night at 8 o'clock in the lecture hall of St. Andrew's church. The Rev. A. E. Camp, B.A., Havelock, Moderator, occupied the chair. The evening session partook of a conference nature which was opened to the congregation and a large assembly in consequence. The Rev. Dr. Milligan of Old St. Andrew's, Toronto, gave a very inspiring, instructive and forceful address, outlining the preparation needed for the pulpit and the preparation required for the pew.

The address which occupied about an hour was listened to with intense interest, delight and profit. At the conclusion of the public meeting a banquet was tendered Dr. Milligan and the members of the Presbytery by the Young People's Guild of the Cobourg church. Col. McNaughton in proposing the health of the speaker of the evening spoke in the highest terms of the esteem in which the whole church held him and emphasized the appreciation expressed concerning the vigourous address given at the public meeting.

The Presbytery met for business at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, when the report of Standing Committees were received and adopted.

The reports were of a most interesting and encouraging character, particularly that of the Committee on Statistics, which showed an increase of families throughout the bounds of the Presbytery of 775; those received into membership were 862, making a total membership of 5,846 in the Presbytery. There are 20 self-sustaining congregations, three augmented charges and four mission stations. There was paid out in ordinary expenditure $40,037. To mission schemes of the church $12,018 an increase of $2,000 over last year. The Women's Foreign Mission Society, contributed $2 902. The Women's Home Mission Society, which is of recent organization, contributed $214, and the total givings for all purposes was $64,820 an increase of $6,979 over the preceding year. There were paid on church debts during the year $4,040.

The Rev. Dr. Torrance, of St. Paul's church, was elected Moderator of Knox church, city and was also nominated as Moderator of the General Assembly, which meets in London in June. The Commissioners to the General Assembly will be, Rev. C. S. Lord, Rev. A. K. McLeod Rev. A. C. Reeves and Rev. E. F. Torrance, D. D., and Elders R. Harrison, Wm. Fowler, S. Russell Wm. Pritchard.

The Rev. C. A. Campbell, of Lakefield, resigned the pastorate of that congregation. It is understood that Mr. Campbell desires to devote his energies to the important and demanding work of the church in the West. The resignation will be considered at the adjourned meeting of the Presbytery to be held in St. Paul's church, Peterborough next Tuesday, March 13th, at 10 o'clock, a.m.

The J. M. Whitelaw, Convenor of the Committee on Church Life and Work in presenting his report strongly emphasized the need of systematic reading of the Bible in the home and of the revival of the family altar. He spoke in most encouraging terms of the important factor the Y.P.S.C.E. was in the development of Christian life in the church and in the fostering of the missionary spirit.

Rev. Mr. Abraham in presenting the Y.P.S. report, gave the interesting information that in the Peterborough Presbytery, the number of young men organized almost equalled that of the young women. The actual numbers are 900 young men to 950 young women.

Mr. Whitelaw presented a resolution which was heartily seconded, that the thanks of the Presbytery be extended to the congregation of St. Andrew's church, for the kind entertainment of the members.

During the hearing of charges in a London police court against several men for begging, the magistrate, Mr. Kennedy, observed that last year, 1800 persons were charged at that court with begging in the West End.

Charge Was Not Proven

Young Man Charged With Assaulting Woman Was Allowed To Go.

A young man charged with assaulting a woman, appeared before His Worship, Police Magistrate Dumble this morning and was acquitted on the charge. The only witnesses examined were the defendant and complainant, and as their evidence was very conflicting the court said there was no other course to pursue than to discharge the accused. The assault was alleged to have been committed on March 3rd. The complainant in giving evidence stated that her husband had come home drunk between 5 and 6 o'clock on the afternoon of the trouble, and said that he had been tossing money for the drinks at a local hotel in whose management the defendant is interested. She urged her husband to stay at home after he had had his supper, but he refused and went out, presumably to the hotel. She went to the hotel shortly afterwarrd and accused the proprietor of allowing her husband to gamble there and then the trouble commenced. The defendant, she said put her out and slapped her in the face. She admitted calling him an obnoxious name but said she afterwards apologized. The accussed gave evidence that contradicted the testimony of the first witness and denied the assault also stating that the language the complainant used was beyond description. The magistrate held that the offence had not been proven and therefore dismissed the case.

How The Citizens Heard The News

in the last game, the claim is made that the proper score was a tie, 5-5. But that's a minor matter after all. No one can deny them the championship.

The returns of the game were received at two places here last night, at the Oriental Hotel and at the Brock street rink, and at both places there were hundreds who waited anxiously for the returns, and when the final score was given and it was established that Peterborough were the champions the enthusiasm knew no bounds.

In the early stages of the game things looked discouraging, but after half time the locals evened things up and the people breathed easier.

The story of the game as it was told by the despatches from the Goderich rink to the Brock street rink, where a special wire was installed in one of the dressing rooms, was as follows:

8.35 p.m.—Goderich scores 1st goal. Game started sharp at 8.15. Score 1-0 favour of Goderich.

8.45 p.m.—One more for Goderich in 10 mins. Score 2-0 favour Goderich.,

8.46 p.m.—One for Goderich in two seconds. Score 3-0 favour of Goderich.

8.47 p.m.—One for Goderich in 3 mins. 4-0 favour Goderich. Quite a few Peterborough men ruled off.

9.10 p.m.—Half-time 4-0. Good, stiff game; very little rough playing; 1,200 attendance; first half ended at 9.08.

Second Half.

9.30 p.m.—Play resumed after half-time at 9.25. Peterborough pushing Goderich very hard.

9.35 p.m.—One for Peterborough. Now 4-1 favour Goderich.

9.42 p.m.—One for Goderich. Score 5-1. Game getting a little rough.

9.43 p.m.—One for Peterborough. Score 5-2 favour Goderich.

9.54 p.m.—One for Peterborough. Score stands 5-3 favour Goderich.

10.05 p.m.—One more for Peterborough. Score now 5-4 favour Goderich.

10.12 p.m.—Delayed — Full time 5-4 favour Goderich.

As this score, with the announcement that the game was finished, was bulletined, the cheers were simply deafening and congratulations were freely exchanged. For a short time the streets were lively, but the crowds soon went away home, doubtless to prepare for to-night, when the excitement will be renewed and when the team will be shown what a real, genuine welcome home is like.

Wood Was Taken From The Reserve

Trial Will be Held on Monday Next

County Constable Cochrane left today for the Chemong reserve with summonses for Alexander Nott, an Indian, and Jas. Gnary, a white man. These men were charged (without necessary orders) for having cut and removed timber from the Chemong reserve on or about February 20.

The information was laid by Wm. Macfarlane, Indian agent of Hiawatha and Chemong reserves.

The trial will be held on Monday next at 11 a.m., before His Honour Magistrate Edmison.

A Small Blaze This Morning

A small blaze occurred this morning behind Kennedy's meat market at about 2.20 o'clock, a pile of lumber catching fire in some manner unexplainable. The blaze continued for about twenty minutes before it was extinguished by the firemen. A plate glass window that had been taken from the back of the shop, and rested up against the building, pending improvements to the premises, was also cracked. Otherwise no damage was done. The loss is $100.

Something About This YEAR'S INTERMEDIATE Hockey Championship

Short Sketches of the Players Who Have Won the Honours for Peterborough--Most of the Men Have Been Playing Hockey for Long Time--Every Man Was Born or Learned the Game in Peterborough--Average Weight is 155 Pounds.

The Peterborough hockey team, which, as the result of last night's game at Goderich, are intermediate champions of the O.H.A., are an organization of which the city should be justly proud. They have not only covered themselves with glory, but have been the means of advertising Peterborough throughout the country. Their victory is all the more creditable because of the fact that they are all home-brews. Every man on the team was either born in Peterborough or has learned the game here, and they play hockey for the love of the pastime, and not for pecuniary reward, for, as everyone knows, no such recompense for their services is offered to or expected by the players.

The team is one of the strongest that has ever represented Peterborough, and, in the opinion of those who are well qualified to know, is fast enough for senior company. In fact, the team should be able to defeat any of the senior O.H.A. teams. They have a speedy, aggressive forward line with fast combination and accurate shooting, while the defence is a very strong one, combining skill on the defensive, with speed on the attack. In addition to all these qualities, the team is made up of experienced players, men who have had their mettle tried in many hard-fought contests, and who have the science of the game at their fingers-ends. It is the experience that has enabled them to win so many victories. The players are cool-headed and reliable in a crisis, and have thus been able to pull games out of the fire when inexperienced teams every bit as fast would have suffered defeat. In addition, the majority of the team have played together so long that they know every feature of each other's play and thus are able to work together very effectively.

The Examiner publishes below a short sketch of each man on the team. It will be noticed that all the players have been a long time in the game. The average weight of the team is 155 4-7 pounds.

ERNIE WASSON, the goal-keeper, is the veteran of the team, both in years and in experience. He was born in Warsaw, but has lived nearly all his life in Peterborough. He commenced playing hockey with the Peterborough juniors 16 years ago, and since that time has only missed two seasons. He played with the juniors in 1898 and 1905 when they won the championship from Toronto Granites. In 1897 he played his first senior game. He was with the Peterborough intermediates when they won the championship in 1901-2. Wasson is still a fine goal-keeper, and has pulled the Peterborough team out of many tight places. He weighs 146 pounds.

ROLLIE GLOVER, the clever point player, is a native of Peterborough, and has been playing hockey here for about eight years, missing one season in that time. He started with the Peterborough II. eight years ago and was captain of the intermediate team when they captured the O.H.A. championship. Glover is a fine defence man. He checks brilliantly, and, when necessary, can rush nicely. Although the lightest man on the team, he makes good use of his body. He is 28 years of age and weighs 138 pounds. In addition to being a hockeyist, he is also a brilliant lacrosse player.

WM. CROWLEY, the aggressive cover-point, is one of Peterborough's best known athletes, and besides being a hockey player, is a star in rugby and lacrosse. He was born in Otonabee not far from the city, and has been a resident of Peterborough for years. He first played hockey with the Lakeviews, a south end organization. In 1899 he played with the Peterborough senior O.H.A. team, at that time figuring on the forward line. He was with the T.A.S. team for two years, when they won the Trent Valley championship, and for the last two years has been with the Peterborough intermediates. This makes the twelfth champion-ship team on which he has figured. Crowley is the heaviest man on the team, but at the same time one of the fastest. His stubborn defence tactics have proved stumbling blocks to every forward line he has played against, and his speedy rushes are of great assistance to the forward line. He is 27 years of age and weighs 180 pounds.

FRED WHITCROFT, the captain and rover, it may be stated without detracting anything from the other players, is the most brilliant player on the team. In the opinion of F. C. Wagborne, the well known referee, he is one of the fastest players in Canada. He came here from Port Perry fifteen years ago. He started playing hockey in 1899 with the famous Colts, in which team Harold Armstrong learned the game. Whitcroft was with the Colts when they won the Junior Championship in the season of 1901-02, and with the Intermediates when they won the honours the succeeding year. The next two seasons he was also with the Intermediates and last year was with the Midland Senior O.H.A. team. He is a very speedy skater and a beautiful stickhandler. Some of his dodging rushes being truly marvellous. In addition he is a good close range shot. He is 23 years of age, and weighs 152 lbs.

HARRY MORGAN, the centre player, is one of the most useful men on the team. There is no better scorer in the O.H.A. He is a sure, fast shot Get both close and long range and figures in nearly every combination play. Morgan was born in Peterborough and started playing with the Colts in 1898. He played with that team when they won the Junior Championship and also the next year when they annexed the intermediate honours. He was captain of the famous 1903 Peterborough team, and has always played right wing or centre. He is 24 years of age and weighs 158 pounds. Morgan is also a good lacrosse player.

CHRIS GRAHAM, the right wing, is probably better known than any other Peterborough athlete. He is prominent in hockey, baseball, lacrosse and rugby and was also well known as a fine boxer. He was born in Newcastle, Ont., but has lived here nearly all his life. He learned to play hockey with the old Collegiate team in 1895 and 1896. In 1897 he played with the Peterborough Seniors and has been playing ever since with the exception of the season of 1900 when he was out of the game owing to an injury. He played on the championship team of 1902. Graham, up to this season played left wing, but has proved very satisfactory on the other side. He is a most aggressive forward and never lets up for a moment. In addition he is a splendid check and gives his man the time of his life. Graham is 27 years of age and weighs 145 lbs.

WM. CAVANAH, the left wing of the team was born in Blenheim, Ont., but spent most of his life in the Northwest. He came over six years ago, and started playing with the Colts. He figured on their championship team in 1901-02. He was away the next year and returned in 1903 and has played here since that time. He is a very speedy player, stickhandles nicely and has a most wicked shot from the boards which is the terror of most goal-keepers. Like several other members of the team he is prominent in lacrosse circles. He is 24 years of age and weighs 170 lbs.

MELVILLE MOORE, the substitute player, was born in Peterborough, and started playing hockey with the Junior O.H.A. team in 1902. He was with the juniors until this season. This year he has played several games with the seniors, when Crowley was unable to play, and has proved himself a capable substitute. He checks and relieves well and his dodging rushes are always dangerous. Moore is the youngest player of the team, 19 years of age. He weighs 152 lbs.

With New Blood In the Arteries

YOU WILL FEEL NEW VIGOR AND CONFIDENCE THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE BODY.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Do you know what it is to feel well — to feel young and hearty and vigorous—to feel full of energy and ambition—to enjoy work and to look forward hopeful and confident of the future.

This is the natural way to feel when your blood is pure and rich and your nerves are a-thrill with life and vitality.

This is the way you will feel if you revitalize your wasted and depleted nervous system by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Not in any miraculous way—not after the first dose or the first box, it may be, but when your system has been gradually built up — your blood enriched and new vim and vigour instilled into the nerves.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a wonderful medicine, but its wonders are accomplished in nature's way, by thoroughly restoring the elements lacking in a run-down body.

No other treatment for the nerves acts in exactly this way. Some relieve by deadening the nerves — some by excessive stimulation.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food brings about lastingly beneficial results by forming new, rich, red blood, and creating new nerve force.

Mr. George W. Lawson, a farmer living near Consecon and well and favourably known throughout Prince Edward County, Ont., writes:—

"About one year ago I was taken sick and felt myself failing every day. I consulted and doctored with several eminent physicians, but received no permanent benefit. In fact they told me they could do nothing for me except afford temporary relief, as it was a general breaking up of old age. My nerves were exhausted and my whole system completely broken up.

"I was just at death's door, and, thinking my time to die had come I gave up hope and resigned myself to fate. At this time my wife read in the papers about some of the wonderful cures being brought about by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I began using it.

"This treatment helped me from the first, and I continued to keep it up for about six months, when I was fully restored to health. To-day I am a well man and made so by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at a trifling cost. All this in spite of the fact that I spent a large sum of money with physicians only to be pronounced incurable. Though in my 75th year I feel as well as I did at twenty, and can walk as smartly as any of the boys."

There is lots of evidence of what this great food cure has done for others. Ask your neighbours about it. Fifty cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Fighters To Be Tried In Court

The recent fistic contests that have occurred recently in Peterborough will have as their aftermath police court cases that will shortly come up for hearings. The principals in the Murphy—McManus mix-up have been summoned to appear in court, as have also the combatants in the fight that occurred the other night in which one of the pugilists had his ear bitten off.

The President's Report.

President D. Hughes Charles presented his annual report as follows:

The first matter of importance which I have to mention in this, my third annual report, is that in July last Peterborough became a City, and although it is the youngest of the province, the citizens feel that it is not by any manner of means the smallest, and they are fully aware of the responsibilities resting upon them. For several years past Peterborough has been making steady growth but the year 1905 shows remarkable progress. About 250 new houses have been erected, most of them of a good class, and there have been considerable additions made to some of the factories. The total assessment of the city is now, $6,658,410, which is an increase for the year of $784,146. As the assessment upon our factories is purely nominal the foregoing figures do not give anything like the true value of the reality. Five miles of new cement sidewalks were laid, which makes altogether over twenty miles of modern sidewalks in the city. Contracts were let for about two and a half miles of new sewers, which when completed will make nearly fifteen miles of sewers in use, and the Board endorses the action of the City Council in making these permanent improvements.

Manufacturers.

Our manufacturers generally have had another prosperous year and there has been quite an increase in the number of hands employed and in the wages paid out. The Canadian General Electric Co., one of our largest industries, has been buying more land and we may consequently look for further additions to their already large buildings. The American Cereal Co. have made a large addition to their mill and although closed down for a short time during the year, owing to excessive railway freight on export goods, they are now employing a larger staff than ever. They have installed a 600 barrel flour mill, which we hope is only the beginning of the 5,000 barrel mill, promised on the completion of our canal. The Peterborough Cereal Co. and the Peterborough Shovel Co., both commenced manufacturing in 1905, and are meeting with good success.

Two smaller industries commenced operations, the Novelti Co., Ltd., and the Pre-payment Electric Metre Co., and they both have very encouraging prospects.

Commercial.

Our merchants are doing well as they have a growing city and a very large district to cater to; labour was well employed at good wages and the farmers had a good year. Their stores have a prosperous and bright appearance indeed, and judging from the goods exhibited in the windows, I do not think that it is necessary for any of our citizens to do their shopping outside of this city. In this connection I would like to point out to the storekeepers that it would be very much to the benefit of their employees, and more so for their delivery horses, if they could agree to close their stores at nine o'clock on Saturday evenings. The employees have to work hard from seven or eight in the morning until eleven o'clock at night and it must be a great strain upon them mentally and physically but they can complain if necessary, while the poor horses, who seven or eight in the morning until Sunday morning, cannot say anything. I think the Retailers' Association should take this matter up.

Trent Valley Canal.

I am glad to say that I think, and have good grounds for the thought, that the completion of our canal is near at hand. We had the honour of entertaining the Minister of Railways and canals, the Honourable Mr. Emmerson, some months ago, when he was making a tour of the Trent waterways and he expressed himself as very much in favour of the completion of it. We also had the honour of a visit of the Tariff Commissioners to our city, the Honourable Mr. Fielding, the Honourable Mr. Patterson, and the Honourable Mr. Brodeur, and they also, in talking matters of transportation over, expressed themselves as in favour over, expressed themselves as in favour of its completion. In conjunction with the city council, the Board is now arranging for a large delegation to wait upon the Minister of Railways and Canals in Ottawa shortly after the House opens, to urge upon him the necessity of having the two ends of the canal finished so that the benefit of continuous navigation between Port Arthur and Montreal may be felt, and it is to be hoped that a very large number will respond to our joint invitation. Except in and around the Trent waterways where the people know and appreciate what the opening of this Canal could mean both locally and otherwise, I do not think that the value of it as a means of transportation is known outside our radius and the work generally is treated as a sort of an electioneering dodge. No wonder this is so when it is taken into consideration that it is about fifty years ago since the canal was first talked about and work commenced. Fully $6,000,000 has already been spent upon the work and it will require $1,000,000 of $5,000,000 more to complete it and it is a great loss to the country there-

ONLY 1-50 OF A GRAIN

Fruit is good for you. Ripe figs are a splendid laxative to regulate the bowels. Prunes are good for stomach and liver. Orange juice is splendid for the nerves and sleeplessness. Apples heal the kidneys and increase the flow of urine. If apple juice be evaporated to a gray powder, 1-50 of a grain of this powder has the same action on the kidneys as half a pint of fresh apple juice. Two "Fruit-a-tives" tablets contain more than 1-50 of the medicinal part of apple juice, besides the healing, curative virtues of oranges, figs and prunes. More than that, "Fruit-a-tives" are concentrated and combined with tonics and antiseptics by a secret process which increases their powers over disease many times.

50c. a box. At all druggists.

for, not to have the work completed, not only on account of the interest on the capital already expended but the effect it would have on manufacturing and other interests.

When I consider that the transport facilities are not now equal to the requirements of our north-west trade, it is a marvel to me that the Government do not make up their minds to finish this work.

The total length of the Trent Waterways is 242.22 miles. The part navigable 170.19 miles, unnavigable, 39.66 miles and the unnavigable parts are unfortunately at both ends. The Trent Canal route, counting the return trip is 500 miles shorter than the Welland Canal route, and 1,500 miles shorter than the Erie Canal route. This means a great saving in time and money. The Erie Canal now carries barges of 240 tons burden, but the expenditure of $101,000,000 in the next few years will increase its capacity to 1,000 tons barges. The Trent Canal has a capacity for barges of 800 tons running at high speed. At the meeting of the Royal Commission held here in 1904, it was shown that the cost of carrying wheat from Fort William to Montreal would be only three cents per bushel by this route and I do not think this fact can be understood by the farmers in Manitoba and the north-west or by the Montreal Board of Trade, otherwise they would be standing by us shoulder to shoulder, helping us to bring this really national work to a finish instead of leaving us severely alone as they have done in the past.

I now mention these foregoing facts because I am satisfied that they are not generally known.

Duty of the Board of Trade.

I hold that it is the duty of the Board of Trade to aid and assist to their utmost ability the City Council in all matters that will tend to the welfare of the city and that the relations between the two bodies should be of a most friendly and co-operative nature, each having full confidence in the other. Speaking of our Board, I can safely say that we have at all times lived up to this rule, whether the city council have done the same is another matter, but I would like to remind them that "in the multitude of Counsellors there is safety."

Our Board is fully alive to the possibilities of this city and I think that everything points to it becoming a large railway and manufacturing centre. I am pleased to say that there has been more interest displayed by our members this past year in the affairs of the Board and I hope that this spirit will grow. We have exceptional railway facilities, we have cheap power, cheap light, a good system of water works and are in every way able to take care of many new industries but until the citizens make some effort to attract new industries our natural advantages will not count for much. The keen competition of other cities and towns must be met and we must do as they do, otherwise our city will get the go-by.

In conclusion I may say that I highly approve of the action of the Horticultural Society in their efforts to improve the beauty of our city by offering prizes for the best kept lawns. This is more in the interests of the city than holding small Horticultural shows.

D. HUGHES CHARLES,
President.

The secretary's report, presented by Mr. T. Q. Quartermaine, was as follows:

Mr. President and Gentlemen:—

I have the honour of presenting to you, as secretary, the 17th Annual Report of this Board:—

Meetings.—Since the last annual meeting we have held five meetings of the Board, viz:—on 4 April, 9 May, 22 June, 24 October, 1905, and 23 January, 1906.

Subjects under Discussion.—The following subjects have been duly discussed at these meetings:—"A Carnegie Library", "Licensing Commercial Travellers in British Columbia", "Lowering the Water Level on Stony Lake by request of 'Stony Lake Cottagers' Association'" and "Canadian Pacific Railway Extension to Midland."

Membership.—The number of members on the roll last year was 73, an increase of 4 on that of the previous years.

Attendance.—The average attendance of members was 12, an increase of 4 on that of the year previous.

Addresses.—On 9 May, 1905, Mr. James D. Allan, President of Toronto Board of Trade, addressed the Board on the subject, "The Growth and Expansion of Business Enterprises in Russia" and on 24 October, 1905, Mr. J. S. Larke, Canadian Commercial Agent to Eastern Australia and New Zealand on "Trade Relations between Canada and the Countries which he represents", when a special notice was forwarded to members of the Board. The meetings were much appreciated by the members who turned out handsomely on both occasions.

Deputations.—On 23 June, 1905, a Deputation from the Board waited upon the Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals, re Lowering the Water level in Stony Lake. On 20 December, 1905, a Deputation waited on the same Minister in the matter of "Wharfage and Dredging of the Otonabee River", and on 21 February, 1906, representatives from the Board joined hands with other bodies, municipal, educational, etc., and waited on the Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education, re re getting a Normal School at Peterborough.

Royal Tariff Commission.—On 28 November, 1905, a Commission composed of Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, Hon. Wm. Patterson, Minister of Customs and Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Inland Revenue, sat in this city and received evidence of individuals and deputations from the city and surrounding towns and counties on the Tariff question, of which a large and miscellaneous volume was tendered. At the close of the sittings the Hon. the Minister of Finance, Chairman of the Commission, personally complimented the President on the satisfactory manner in which the evidence was placed before the Commissioners and the smooth way in which the proceedings were conducted throughout.

City Council Chamber.—The thanks of the Board are due His Worship Mayor Best, the Board of Aldermen and City Clerk Armstrong for the use of the City Council Chambers during the past year.

Local Press.—The thanks of the Board are also due the Reporters on our three newspapers for the able manner in which the business of the Board has been reported.

T. Q. QUARTERMAINE,
Secretary.

Peterborough, Ont., 6 March, 1906.

Mr. K. Eardley-Wilmot presented the treasurer's report, which indicated a satisfactory condition of the finances.

The following resolution, moved by J. Coyle Brown, seconded by R. D. Kerr, was carried unanimously, That the thanks of the Board of Trade is due and is hereby tendered His Worship Mayor Best and the past and present board of aldermen for the use of the City Council Chambers.

It was moved by K. G. Patterson, seconded by Col. Edwards, that Messrs. D. Hughes Charles, K. Eardley-Wilmot and R. E. Wood be appointed a special committee to appoint the members of the Council of the board and strike off the standing committees for the ensuing year. Carried.

On motion of W. H. Denham, seconded by A. A. Hollingshead, Mr. McFarlane Wilson was appointed to audit the board's accounts.

President D. Hughes Charles said that he had made up his mind to retire from the office after three years' service, as he thought that a change would have a beneficial effect. He would, however, remain in office at the wish of his friends.

Col. Edwards said that he did not wish to let the occasion pass by without expressing his appreciation of the services of the officers of the board, especially Mr. Hughes Charles, whose time had been freely given to the board.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun expressed similar views, and a vote of thanks was unanimously carried.

Old Officers Re-Elected

On motion of E. G. Patterson, seconded by W. H. Denham, the old officers were unanimously re-elected. The officers for 1906 will therefore be as follows:

President, D. Hughes Charles.
Vice-President, B. F. Ackerman.
Secretary, T. Q. Quartermaine.
Treasurer, K. Eardley-Wilmot.

The council of the board will be named at the next meeting.

Trent Canal Deputation.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun brought up the question of the Trent Canal deputation and asked how it was to be headed at Ottawa. He referred to the recent deputation to Toronto in reference to the normal school as an exemplary one. Mr. Dennistoun suggested that the president, Mayor Best and R. R. Hall, M.P., get a suitable memorial prepared for the occasion.

The prospects for a successful year for the board are very bright as deeper interest is being manifested in the welfare of the board.

President Hughes Charles announced that an excursion rate of $4 had been secured per C.P.R. to Ottawa, and Mr. Hall, M.P., will return to the city in a few days, when a date can be arranged on which the deputation can go to Ottawa.

Secretary Quartermaine's long and faithful services were praised by the president, and this opinion was endorsed by those present.

VALUE OF "OZONE"

The value of Ozone (it is really liquid oxygen) is well known to medical science. It kills the germs of internal disorders. SCHOOL BOARD'S LARGE IDEAS

If the Peterbroough Board of Education had an unlimited command of money, that circumstance would hardly justify the proposal to expend the large sum of $35,000 in the construction of a ward school in the south part of the town. There is no denying that an additional school is needed. But one very easily question the wisdom of expending the large sum of $35,000 for the purpose, a sum very greatly in excess of the cost or value of any ward school in the city, except the Central Public and Collegiate Buildings. This $35,000 is a larger sum than the value of any three of the other ward school buildings.

The present needs of the southern district do not seem to demand, or justify, the erection of either an 8-room, or a 12-room, building. No doubt that part of the city will rapidly grow, but not so rapidly as to put into full use buildings of such a character, which, before they are needed by increase of population, will probably be antiquated and out of keeping with educational demands. Is it wise, then, to erect such a costly building on a site within less than 400 feet from the boundary of another municipality, which furnishes no school attendance?

So large an outlay, while not absolutely necessary, is inopportune. At the present time there is a demand for a considerable sum for the erection of a Collegiate Institute as urgent a necessity as a ward school. The erection of this building will place eight large rooms at the disposal of the Board for Public school purposes, sufficient for the central part of the town for years to come. Then money will be required in the interest of school repairs or enlargement in the west part of the city, and is it wise to put so many eggs in one basket, as represented by $35,0000 for a ward school in the south of the town?

The patience, as well as the pockets, of the ratepayers have a limit, and it does not seem probable that they would be willing to vote so large a sum as $35,000, though they would be perfectly willing to vote $10,000 or $15,000, which would build a school sufficient for the requirements of the district for years to come.

To make too big a demand would imperil the whole scheme. Besides the making of so large a demand would imperil the chances of obtaining money for the erection of a Collegiate Institute building. If the Board aims at too much it may fall short of the mark. The people will always fall in with a reasonable expenditure for Public school purposes, but will be inclined to draw the line at building too largely for future generations.

The Examiner recognizes the necessity of a new school in the South Ward, but it is to be borne in mind that it is wise to do what we can do, without losing right of other equally important interests. The people will, in the near future, have considerable requests for voting public funds in the public interests. They will be asked to vote upon bylaws to assist the Carpet Works, the Stove Works, and the Collegiate Institute, and if these are held up with another $35,000, some of these enterprises, all of which are in the interests of the city, may go to the wall. Then in view of the fact that the necessary expenditure for a South Ward school can be met by an expenditure of about one-third of $35,000, would it it not be wise for the Board of Education to moderate its demands, and modify its plans?

THE TREATING SYSTEM.

Mr. McNaught, the baby member, (for North Toronto,) of the Legislature, is taking a preliminary shy at introducing legislation. He proposes to introduce a feeler in the form of a tentative bill to abolish the system of treating as applied to the internal absorption of alcoholic drinks. He does not propose to treat treating seriously — he simply wants to get parliamentary opinion on the subject. Mr. McNaught might make a test of the feelings of his brother legislators in regard to the treating system, by suggesting an adjournment at his expense, to the little up-town hostelrie, known as "The Caer-dowell," a few steps from the Parliament Buildings, down the green lane called College avenue. He would get a practical answer. This might cost Mr. McNaught a little, but the other way will cost the province a good deal more, for no doubt the orators of the chamber will thirst to multiply words upon such a thirsty subject as anti-treating blue lawa. Whatever may be the opinions expressed at this "lone drink" symposium, there is no doubt that the treating system is very largely responsible for a great deal of the drunkenness which prevails. It makes men drink in the name of chumminess and good fellowship, who would not otherwise perhaps drink at all. The lone drinker is quite beyond the mateur stage of alcoholic indulgence. Many a man who can accomplish the great feat of overcoming himself in regard to strong drink, may easily succumb to the seduction of good fellowship. While in this country a great deal of drunkenness is charged against the treating system, it is to be noted that in European countries, where the treating system obtains to a far less extent, there is a tremendous amount of sodden drunkenness. It therefore appears that the drink habit has an appalling grip upon poor humanity. We attack, and, perhaps, partially overcome the evil in one direction, and it crops out in another. Like the hydra-headed monster of mythology, or the water hydra, cut off one head and another takes its place. In like manner when we overcome one phase of the drink habit another enters the arena to be wrestled with. The question seems to narrow down to the point of the individual. Make the individual to possess a sense of his responsibility to be a man, and not a beast, and the drink problem is solved. Let moralists and reformers, instead of lying in wait for the saloon keeper in order to catch him selling a drink after 7 o'clock on Saturday night, convince their brother that it is wrong and unwise to take strong drink to excess, and persuade him to live up to this conviction, and the drink problem is solved.

A NATIONAL BENEFIT.

The following is taken from the columns of the Weekly (Farmers') Sun. It appears under the heading "Spending $130 to get $1 Back."

Hon. Mr. Aylesworth is reported to have stated, at a recent meeting of North York Reform Association, that he expects work to commence on the Lake Simcoe Canal as soon as the frost is out of the ground. This work involves making the Holland River which empties into the southern end of Lake Simcoe, a navigable stream, and giving Newmarket and other places water connection with Lake Simcoe and the Trent Canal, which enters the lake near Gamebridge. The sum of $100,000 was voted last year for the purpose of starting the work, on which Mr. Aylesworth promises that work will begin this spring. How much more will be needed before the undertaking is completed it is impossible to say.

It will be interesting in this connection to learn how much of a white elephant the Trent Valley scheme, of which this Lake Simcoe proposition is a part, has already proved. The total expenditure in the construction of the Trent Valley Canal up to June, 1904, was nearly $5,000,000. The revenue from that work for the same year, was less than $1,400, while repairs cost over $21,000, and these charged with the work of operating the waterway received upwards of $7,000 in wages. If we calculate the interest on capital invested at 3 p. c. we will find that interest on investment, cost of repairs, and expense of operation come to about $175,000, as compared with less than $1400 in revenue. In other words the country pays out $130 for every dollar received back in income.

And the situation will simply be aggravated when Mr. Aylesworth has completed his little ditch through the Holland marsh. The total value of the freight traffic carried over that waterway will not equal the combined outlay in the interest on investment and the cost of operation. Still, if the member for North Wellington, heads another deputation to protest to Mr. Fielding against the enormous expenditure of the Dominion Government, he will be warned to get out of he way of the car of national progress.

Where does all the money go which the Dominion Government collects in Excise and Customs taxation? A good deal of it goes into such "works" as the Trent Valley Canal. Not a little of it goes to make up the millions which are being spent in militarism.

This way of arguing, if not dishonest, is deceptive. The Sun knows, or should know, that the Trent Canal is not completed, and, therefore, its usefulness is confined to the local traffic upon the internal section. The canal is uncompleted at both ends and, consequently, cannot begin to exercise its national usefulness. If what has been done had cost a hundred millions that expenditure would be comparatively useless, without sufficient additional expenditure to complete it. The very fact, as the Sun points out, that there has already been spent on the canal five millions, is the very strongest reason why more money should be spent to complete the canal, and thus realize the benefit of the money already spent, which will continue to be practically wasted, on the same principle as $10,000 spent by a man in partially building a house, without a sufficient additional expenditure to put on a roof, would be wasted. The Sun affects to stand for the farmers' interests; but in opposing the completion of the Trent Canal it stands against the interests of the Northwest farmer, which consists mainly in providing the best possible facilities for getting his wheat to market, such as the completed canal would afford. Not only would the canal as a carrying route benefit the country, in this national sense, but it would benefit the thousands of farmers living in the wide belt of country contiguous to its route, and develop the now undeveloped rich raw resources of a very wide area of country on either side. No class of the country would be so greatly benefitted by the completion of the Trent Canal as the farmers. If we have already spent five millions on the canal that is the very strongest reason for spending a little more to make that amount effective.

THEN AND NOW.

Judged by his utterances when in opposition, Hon. Mr. Matheson, Provincial Treasurer, in the Whitney Government, is making a mess of the Provincial finances. He is committing the same bookkeeping sin which he charged against the Liberal Government. He is treating revenue from forests not as capital revenue, but plain every-day revenue, and is spending it at a rate to make steady-going "Grits" dizzy. Mr. Matheson finds that the Liberal Government was right in its financial policy, and practice, and he shows this in the most flattering way, by following the example they set, even to accepting and utilizing Succession Duties, and other erstwhile financial heresies.

EDITORIAL NOTES

An American, Mr. Eckels, speaking before the Canadian Club, criticises the American banking system as "lacking elasticity." The consciences of some American bankers furnish ample compensation.

Some idea of the rapid manner in which the settlement of the Northwest is progressing may be formed from the fact that the homestead entries for February, 1905, were 2,044, as against 1,174 the same month last year.

The militia estimates for the coming session, are based upon the intention of placing all the rural regiments of the country under canvas this year. It is expected that those in the Third Military District will camp at Peterborough this year.

La Presse, Montreal, informs us of a proposition before the Quebec Legislature, to authorise the construction of a railway from some point in that province, to the coast of Labrador, at a point 1280 miles from Galway, Ireland, by which a rapid steamer could make the traverse of the sea from land to land in two or three days. La Presse speaks of this project hopefully, as one destined to make a short and rapid route from Canada to the Old Country. It is stated that the currents from the mouth of Hudson Bay send the ice bergs 400 or 500 miles from the shore. This project may be only idle speculation, but projects as visionary and unpromising have come to be practically realized and every day events.

Ladies Were Entertained

Ladies' Aid of George Street Were At Home to the Ladies Yesterday.

A very pleasant time was spent in the George street Sunday school room yesterday afternoon when the Ladies' Aid Society entertained the ladies of the church. The function was held to make strangers in the congregation feel more at home and promote a social feeling among the members. In these objects it was immensely successful, and those present were pleasantly entertained.

A short but enjoyable programme was rendered, opening with a splendidly executed piano solo by Miss Mattie Robertson.

A tableau by the children, representing an "at home," was very cleverly carried out, and the little ones were warmly applauded. Those who took part were Jessie Creasman, Josie Callander, Helen Miller, Willie Blewett, Guelph Isaacs, Ruby Sharp, and little Miss Knapman.

A violin duet by Miss Maude and Muriel Crothers, was a greatly appreciated number of the programme, Miss Muriel Crothers also contributed a violin solo that was well received and Miss Hazel Pentland gave a recitation in a finished manner.

The president, Mrs. S. R. Armstrong, and the other officers and members of the society are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts.

Peterborough Bill Before Committee

This morning Ald. McWilliams, chairman of the Legal Committee, Ald. McIntyre, Duncan and Adams, and Mr. E. H. D. Hall, City Solicitor, went to Toronto to represent the city before the Private Bills Committee. It is expected that the Bill for the city of Peterborough will come up before the committee to-day and the deputation is there for the purpose of giving the members of the committee any information they may desire in reference to the different clauses.

It is not anticipated that there will be any difficulty except in the clauses in respect to the purchasing of the land of the Sugar Company and the acquiring of the power at Auburn. Outside of these clauses it is not anticipated that there will be any trouble.

A very pleasing affair took place yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Palmer, 15 Wescott street, it being the eleventh birthday of their only child, Viola. A number of her young friends were invited to spend the afternoon and evening and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The tea table was set in the dining-room, covers being laid for 11. Those who sat down to tea are as follows: Misses Nettie McIntyre, Lillian Tranter, Viola Cuncannon, Geneve Carson, Verda Watt, Fern Gere, Stella Cuncannon, Eva Stewart, Geraldine Carson, Flossie Emerson. After tea, games, etc., were played, and all the children went in for a good time. The guests dispersed about 9.30 o'clock, certain that they never had a better time, and wishing their playmate and friend many happy returns. Miss Palmer was the recipient of many beautiful presents and made a charming little hostess. Master Cecil McIntyre contributed several piano solos.

Dear Sir,—On Monday night I strayed into what I thought was city council chamber and was a spectator of what I supposed was a meeting of the city council, but in all my attendance at the meetings of deliberative bodies, in all my experience as a municipal councillor, I never saw a presiding officer preside with less dignity nor treat with greater undignity, the members of the council—calling them by their ordinary names in disregard of all parliamentary usage and "shutting them up" like unruly school children. I wouldn't stand it, if I were an Alderman.

Claim Damages For Ejection From Church

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Macklin, Former Residents of Peterborough, Are Plaintiffs in Libel Suit—Defendant is Church Warden of St. Stephen's Church, Chambly—Case Being Tried in Superior Court To-day.

Special Wire to The Examiner.

Montreal, March 7.—Damages of two hundred dollars are claimed by J. G. Macklin and his wife, Emily Bell Hautain, from Benjamin Farrell, Church Warden of St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Chambly, in an action in progress in the superior court here to-day, before Mr. Justice Fortin. The joint plaintiffs are former residents of Peterborough, having been married on July 7th, 1886, in St. John's church. Mr. Macklin, who is a civil engineer and Mrs. Macklin have resided in Chambly for about four years and the latter, it is alleged while sitting in her pew with her daughter, mother and nephew, in St. Stephen's Church, was grossly insulted by the defendant, without justification, during service in the presence of the congregation. Farrell, it is further alleged, threatened to seize her by the shoulders and forcibly eject her from the pew because she had not paid pew rent. The damages asked are for injury to reputation.

Opposition Aroused

AGAINST LAND PURCHASE

Clause In City's Bill

Characterized by Chairman Carscallen as Worst Kind of Bonusing Scheme—Clause Was Left Over For a Week—Consideration of Peterborough Bill Before Committee To-da

Toronto, March 7.—The Town of Peterborough had before the Private Bills Committee to-day a bill to confirm bylaws for the issue of several sets of debentures payable in 30 years. An outfall sewer and septic tank at $12,000 an unmentioned amount for the purchase of the lands of the Peterborough Sugar Company and a $50,000 bylaw for the building of the Collegiate were included in the bill. Over the clause to purchase the Sugar Company's lands, opposition was aroused, the chairman, Mr. H. Carscallen saying it was the worst kind of a bonusing scheme. The object of the clause was to get power to purchase the lands and then by a vote of the council allot the lands to companies for manufacturing purposes. A slice had been promised to a carpet company. The clause was left over for a week's consideration.

Runaway Girl From Toronto Somewhere In City

Samuel Oliver is in Peterborough Looking for His Thirteen Year Old Daughter—She Disappeared on Saturday Night.

The police are on the lookout for Hazel Oliver, the thirteen year old daughter of Samuel Oliver, a Toronto painter, who disappeared from her home on Saturday night. The girl arrived in Peterborough on the midnight C.P.R. train and was driven to Mrs. Crossley's Boarding House on Water street, where she remained for the night. On Sunday morning she left the house and has not been seen since by those in search of her.

Mr. Oliver has been in the city since Monday night, but has not been able to find his daughter.

To a lady, who travelled with her on Saturday night, the girl said that she was going to visit an aunt in Peterborough, but Mr. Oliver says that she has no relatives in this city. Mr. Oliver is an old Peterborough boy, who left here thirteen years ago.

Had a Bad Leg.

"For twelve years I was a great sufferer from eczema on the inside of the leg. There was a raw patch of flesh about three inches square, and the itching was something dreadful. Dr. Chase's Ointment completely cured me, took away the itching, and healed up the sore." — Mr. Alex. McDougall, postmaster, Broad Cove Marsh, N. S.

Choral Society's Good Rehearsal

The attendance last night was greatly improved, and the work done was admirable. The various pieces tried gave evidence of decided progress. It is sincerely hoped that the attendance of members may be still further augmented at the next rehearsal. The part music practiced last night included Dinsuti's "Watchword," Barnby's "Lullaby," Garman "Volkslied," Lemmens's "Drops of Rain," Garrett's "Good-Night Farewell," and Bishop's "Now Tramp o'er Moss and Fell," (the two latter with soprano obligato by Miss Davies), and for the first time "Magnificat in C," the composition of Mr. Alfred Davies, the conductor of the society.

OBITUARY.

GEO. W. ARMSTRONG.

The death took place last night at his residence, 269 Charlotte street, of George W. Armstrong. Deceased, who was 60 years of age, was born in Clinkree, County Monaghan, Ireland. He came to Canada in 1845 and was married in 1869 to Miss Sarah Boyd, of Thorold, Ont., who, with four children, survives him. The children are Mrs. Jos. Kidd, Winnipeg; Miss Lizzie Armstrong, New York, assistant superintendent of Somerville, N.Y., Sanitarium; Addie Armstrong, nurse in training; Mr. W. H. Armstrong, Kingston Locomotive Works, and G. H. Armstrong, of the Canadian General Electric Works. Deceased was a lifelong member of the Church of England. His death was the result of a fall received at the American Cereal Works about 14 months ago. His recovery was only partial, and he suffered greatly from weakness and lameness. About 10 days ago a nervous collapse set in, coma developed and death ensued. Miss Lizzie Armstrong, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Armstrong, arrived before death. Misses Minnie and Addie arrived last night at midnight, and Mrs. Kidd is on the way. Announcement of funeral arrangements later.

New Physician For The East City

Dr. W. John Barber, M.D., L.R.C.P., Edinburgh; L.R.C.S., Edinburgh; L.F.P.S. and S., Glasgow, has taken up residence in East City. His office is at the residence of Mr. Alex. Fitzgerald, Hunter street, where he has opened a medical practice. Dr. Barber has recently returned from England, where he has taken post graduate work. Prior to his leaving for England he practiced for a year and a half in the Northwest. Dr. Barber is a graduate of Trinity College and Trinity Medical School, Toronto.

Parry Sound Paper's Account Of The Game

"North Star" Publishes a Wholly Erroneous Report of the Game in This City on February 26th--A Misrepresentation of Facts--The Belief That the Parry Sound Team Was Unfairly Treated is Without Foundation.

The function of a newspaper, is or should be, to give its readers the news, fairly and impartially but it appears that some journals hold an entirely different idea of what constitutes a newspaper. An evidence of this is furnished by the "North Star," of Parry Sound, in its report of the game here on Monday, Feb. 26th, when the home team won by 9—4. While it is natural, and, perhaps, commendable for a paper to champion the cause of its own team, and sometimes stretch matters a little to do this, but to misrepresent matters as the North Star did, is neither good newspaper practice nor is it manly. The Examiner quotes from the Star its report of the game here, not because it believes that what it says is true, but in order to allow the people to see what sort of rubbish a newspaper can publish, when it wants to.

The local team was treated in Parry Sound on the following Friday, much worse than the Parry Sound team was here, but there was nothing said about it, and nothing will be said.

Those who saw the game here, and who want to be fair will admit that while it was strenuous, it was not a game which should have called forth any such reports as that furnished by the Star.

The report in question is one which should never be given place in a reputable journal, but to show what lengths some papers will go to, the Examiner publishes it below:

"If referee Lou Burns, of Toronto was onto his job and had back-bone enough to have enforced his own ruling on the Parrey Sound-Peterborough hockey match at Peterborough Monday night the Parry Sound septette would have defeated Peterborough on their own ice. As it was the Peterboroughs had to do a lot of foul playing, slugging and shingey playing to win. It is said that they had the life half frightened out of Lou Burns before the game started by telling him that a river was all round Peterborough and if he did not give them the best of it he would be put in it. However, whether this story be true or not Peterborough certainly went to work as if they had the referee frightened and they did pretty much as they liked. It was not hockey but an exhibition of brute force backed by a howling mob nearly 1,000 strong. There was a contingent of spectators from Lindsay, Port Hope and other towns who tried to see that Parry Sound got fair play and applause, but their voices were as a murmer in a hurricane of noise. Our boys had to be up at 5 a.m. the day of the game, travel all day by train, only reaching Peterborough at 9 p.m., and then to be launched immediately into the mob of howling Peterborough enthusiasts and be attacked with hockey sticks and fists by the Peterborough players it is no wonder they were almost run off their feet in the first half when the score was 5 to 2 against them. In the second half they steadied down and gave Peterborough a sample of the game as it is played by Northners, and had they been given any assistance by the referee in the way of fair play they would have won out. Peart had his nose broken and a severe cut from his nose to his cheek bone. Mason had two cuts in his face and every other member of the team has the marks of Peterborough's "fair" play on his face or body. The referee sent Patterson to the fence for sitting on the puck, but he did not see Peterborough players slugging their opponents every time there was a rush or a corner play, nor had he sufficient courage to compel them to stay on the fence when ordered, nor even to keep off a Peterborough player who slugged him. All the Parry Sound boys played well and gave lots of hard checks for their slugging, but the Toronto press reports give Brogg and Patterson the chief praise. Of "Banty" Patterson it is said that he is the best in the business, but one Toronto paper says he has a bad habit of laying down in front of the goal when the puck looks dangerous. Parry Sound lost one goal while "Banty" was on the fence, and the only thing that Peterborough could do to score was to bunch the goal full at critical points. Under the circumstances our boys have done more than was expected of them and they certainly surprised the Peterborough people and club, who expected a walk over, betting being freely indulged in that the score would be 2—12, or even worse. The score was Peterborough 8, Parry Sound 4.

Happy Thoughts Victorious Again

Still another victory was added last night to the long list gained this season by Best's Happy Thoughts, when they downed the Furniture Kings by the score of 6-6. The half-time score was 2-2. Archibald in goal for the Happy Thoughts won great renown and saved the team time and again from the dangerous looking rushes of Ray. Reid, Weeks and McNeen for the winners also showed considerable ability and were always in the game. Ira Moore refereed very satisfactorily. The teams lined up as follows:—

Happy Thoughts.		Furniture Kings.
Archibald	Goal.	Drysdale
E. Best	Point.	Belleghem
Foley	Cover Point.	Galley
Reid	Centre.	McFadden
Weeks	Right Wing.	Ray

Referee—Ira Moore.

HOCKEY

Smith Falls were beaten in Ottawa last night in a Stanley Cup match by a score of 6-5. At half time the score was 3 all. A dispatch from Ottawa characterizes Harold Armstrong as a whirlwind.

• • • •

The Parry Sound paper that said the Sounders would have defeated the locals here had referee Lou Burns been onto his job—that was before the return game though. The northern journal probably changed its mind after the second game.

Order Of Procession From The C.P.R. Station

The procession which will be organized to-night to welcome the hockey team will be in some respects the greatest in the history of the city. It will leave the C.P.R. station on arrival of the 7.33 train and the order of the procession will be:

57th Band in uniform.
The Fire Brigade.
Fireworks.
Players and officers of the Club in carriages.
City Council in cabs.
Peterborough Press Club in busses.
Bugle Band.
Officers of sister sporting organizations.
Citizens in carriages and on foot.

The route will be up George to Murray, along Murray to Water, to Brock, to George and down George to Hunter, and to the Oriental Hotel, the officers of the Club will give the team an informal dinner.

By kind permission of Lt.-Col. Miller and officers of the 57th Regiment, the Bugle and Brass Bands will appear in uniform.

They will assemble at the hall at 7 o'clock sharp.

Two Keene Kinks Played Locals

The curling rink was again last night the scene of the usual hilarious time. The cares and troubles of the day were apparently all forgotten and the deepest interest and enthusiasm was noticeable in every player.

Four rinks were utilized last night. In two of these Keene was represented in their return game with the locals and were again defeated, this time by six points. At the conclusion of the games Keene rinks were given an oyster supper at McCallums' restaurant by the locals and a pleasant chat was enjoyed for an hour or more.

The following were the results of the games with Keene:—

Keene.	Peterborough.
J Moore	T Rutherford
Dr. McWilliams	T Brightman
J R McIntyre, sk 13.	C N Brown, sk 16.
R English	D Hall
W. Reid	E. Clegg
J Reid	T. Rutherford
A. St. A. Smith, sk. 8.	D. Davidson, 13.

The following games were played last night in addition to the Keene games:

C E Frost, sk 10. E Hilland, sk 5.
J Stanger, sk 8. R M Waddell, sk 12.

Two rinks went up to Dobcaygeon this morning composed of the following players:—

A P McDonald	D. Hall
H Foote	R M Waddell
T Rutherford.	W G Ferguson
C N Brown, sk.	J S Knapman, sk.

Arrangements are being made for a two rink game with Belleville here some time this week.

• • • •

The North and South End Competition games will likely be played off towards the end of this week.

BASKET-BALL.

It is said that Dr. Butler will abolish basketball at Columbia University. By the time he does away with basketball, rugby and a few other games, he will have all the students driven to some other college.

THE RING.

2,000 fight enthusiasts saw McGovern workout on Saturday in preparation for his championship fight with Battling Nelson. He displayed marvellously good form and his admirers are sure that he will defeat the wonderful little Dane when the two clash on March 14. He has still plenty of followers who are willing to back him and who, as the following clipping from the New York World will show, take great interest in the popular ex-champion's workouts:—

"After the room used as a gymnasium by Terry and his training company was packed with spectators, the disappointed ones filled the restaurant on the lower floor, crowded the plaza and overflowed to the sidewalk."

• • • •

This is why Marvin Hart still claims the championship in spite of the fact that he was defeated by Noah Brusso, the Canadian fighter, for heavyweight honours the other day:—

"He was whipped by Noah Brusso, but then, he Marvin explains, this does not count, as Marvin had not trained, was doped with an ounce bottle of carbolic acid just before the fight, was hit with four bricks concealed in Brusso's glove and was treated shabbily by the referee. Marvin, under the circumstances, still retains his claim to the title.—Detroit News.

• • • •

At Limerick, at one time an aspirant for the world's heavyweight championship, was probably totally blinded by acid in Buffalo the other night. He is the foreman at the Gould coupling works, where a strike is on, and it is thought one of the strikers threw the acid in his face.

• • • •

Abe Attell, the American champion bantam, and Joe Bowker, English champion, will fight 20 rounds before the National Sporting Club, of London, on the night of May 25 for a purse of $2,500, $1,500 to the winner.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

THE SHEPHERD KING.

Mr. Wright Lorimer and his production of the very successful romantic drama, "The Shepherd King," will appear at the Princess Theatre, Toronto, for one week, beginning Monday, March 12. Mr. Lorimer will be supported by his original company of 150 players, and the production will be given in its entirety in Toronto. "The Shepherd King" is one of the largest theatrical organizations in the country, and is under the management of Wm. A. Brady. Four 80-foot baggage cars are required to transport the scenery, properties and costumes.

Mrs. Paudash was the guest of honour at a banquet given her by the Ladies' Aid Society and others. Mrs. Paudash is the daughter of the late Rev. Robert Brooking.

A Good Number.

—It would be difficult to specify which of the twenty odd articles in the March issue of The Busy Man's Magazine is of most interest. The Debating In Legislature Was Vigorous Opposition Not So Weak As Their Numbers Would Indicate.

GOVERNMENT ON DEFENSIVE

Timber Sales by the Government by Treaty Instead of by Public Competition—Government Drawn Out re. Insurance and Loan Companies and Policy of Education Department—Debate Good-Natured.

Toronto, March 7.—The first general field day in the Legislature brought out the fact yesterday afternoon that the Opposition was by no means so weak as their numbers might have led some to believe.

In the discussion of the estimates the Government was put on the defensive on the sale of timber by private treaty instead of by competition, the palliation offered being that it was sold by the thousand feet and not in bulk, and that the lots were so small that cost of advertising for public tender would have eaten up the profits.

In the treatment of the insurance and loan companies and in the policy of the Education Department in excluding experts from its two chief offices the Government was drawn out, and manifested an explanatory disposition.

Hon. Frank Cochrane explained his bill to divide his department of Lands, Forests and Mines into two branches, each to be presided over by a deputy minister. Hon. G. W. Ross reminded the Government of its promise to appoint a separate Minister of Mines.

The debate was good-natured, and thrust and parry were very deft at times, causing much laughter and frequent applause. The lively aggressiveness of the younger Liberal members was quite worthy of their responsible future.

Some progress was made with the estimates, the votes for the Lieutenant-Governor's office, the office of the Premier, the Education Department and the Lands and Mines Department being agreed to.

Inspection of Loan Companies.

The inspection of insurance and loan companies doing business in Ontario by the insurance branch of the Attorney-General's Department came in for warm criticism in the Legislature yesterday during the discussion of the estimates. There is an item calling for $9,550 for this work, and Mr. Gamey questioned whether the department charged with this duty had the confidence of the people. Mr. Downey and others took part in the debate, urging Government action towards mending or ending the present state of affairs.

The Attorney-General replied that most of the insurance and loan companies had Dominion charters, and few doing business in Ontario came under its jurisdiction. As to what Mr. Gamey had said, it was true that public attention was now directed towards these companies. In view of the stand taken at Ottawa re insurance companies, it was a question whether it was necessary for the province to act, and how much of the cost the province should bear. It would have to go into the supplementary estimates. Whether an investigation should be made and an additional officer added were matters that would be dealt with at an early date. Mr. Foy would welcome communications touching these companies.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt suggested that even where Dominion charters had been granted when companies operated in Ontario, the province should have power to deal with them.

More Details Of Kleingbil's Awful Crime

Aged Farmer Beats Aged Wife's Head to Pulp.

LIVED TOGETHER 50 YEARS

Murderer Was Captured In Bed With the Dying Woman—An Awful Sight—Woman's Wounds Thought to Have Been Successive From Saturday Till Monday Night—How Fatal Quarrel Began.

Belleville, March 7.—The murder of his wife by old Ferdinand Kleingbell Monday evening is the topic of conversation. Yesterday a coroner's jury, with the Crown Attorney, and others visited the scene. No neighbors live within a mile of the place.

Kleingbell is a farmer, with 100 acres, and is prosperous. The hired man after doing the chores came to the house and opening the door, saw a woman lying on the floor with her face covered with blood. He came to the city and notified the police. Constable Duffin went out and arrested Kleingbell at 10.30 o'clock. He was then in bed with the dying woman.

Mrs. Kleingbell was not dead when the officers arrived, and Dr. Yeomans was called. The woman's head had been pounded into a pulp. Both eyes were closed, her nose broken and the body from head to waist, one black and blue mass. She did not regain consciousness and died at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

Kleingbell says he used nothing but his fists, but it is surmised some hard, blunt instrument was used.

A Pitiable Sight.

The remains presented an awful sight. The face being dreadfully swollen and disfigured. The neck and chest were also swollen and black. The post-mortem was held yesterday afternoon by Drs. Yeomans and Boyce. Last evening at 7.30 the taking of evidence was commenced before the coroner. The impression prevails that Kleingbell did not inflict all the injuries Monday, but that he had been abusing the woman since his return from the city on Saturday evening last. This view is borne out by the fact that the discolorations on parts of the woman's chest and neck appear to be deep and not superficial.

Before Police Magistrate Flint yesterday no charge was preferred, and he was remanded to jail for one week. E. Guss Porter, M. P., will defend him. Kleingbell remarked to Constable Duffin that he would soon have to die anyhow, and that it did not matter much how soon death came.

Mrs. Malcolm Dulmage, of this city, is a daughter of Kleingbell's and was at her mother's bedside when she died yesterday morning.

The dead woman, according to her daughter's statement, regained consciousness during the night and said: "Well, he cannot get married again."

How Quarrel Began.

Old man Kleingbell is said to be of a very quarrelsome disposition, and it was through the quarrelsome nature of his father that the son, Herman, left home. Kleingbell, especially when under the influence of liquor, would taunt his wife with the remark that Herman was not his son and would demand to know whose boy he was. This always brought on a quarrel, and the old man admits that this was the cause of the trouble Monday.

Both the murderer and his wife were born in Germany, both being in their 70th year. They were married when 20 years of age and had lived together 50 years. Kleingbell was a soldier in the Prussian army and fought in the war between Prussia and Austria. He distinguished himself at the battle of Koenningrats and was decorated with the Iron Cross by King Frederick. He was also a veteran of the American civil war.

True Bill For Murder.

Woodstock, March 7.—A true bill for the murder of Isaiah Wright of Ingersoll was yesterday returned by the Grand Jury against Ewart Bell, George Dennis, George Bowers and Wm. Wilson of Ingersoll. The crime with which the men are charged occurred last October.

Woman Pleads Guilty.

New York, March 7.—Bertha Claiche, the young Frenchwoman who has been on trial in the Supreme Court for several days on a charge of murder, yesterday withdrew her plea of not guilty and entered a plea of manslaughter in the first degree. Sentence will be pronounced March 10.

Banks To Be Probed.

Albany, N. Y., March 7.—The Senate finance committee by a vote of 7 to 5 yesterday afternoon decided to report a bill providing for a commission to inquire into the operation of the banking law, and to investigate any charge against the superintendent of banks which may be referred to it by the Government.

Held-Up In Montreal.

Montreal, March 7.—Detectives are investigating the story of an Austrian to the effect that he was held up on Craig street at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and robbed. He claims that many people saw the men going through his pockets, but not one of them would go to his assistance.

Five Years For Forgery.

Montreal, March 7.—Henri Quenneville, who was arrested a few days ago in the Sovereign Bank, while attempting to pass a forged cheque, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary yesterday.

Chemicals In Candles.

Victoria, B. C., March 7.—The Government act prohibiting the manufacture or sale in British Columbia of candles chemically colored so as to menace the health of children, has passed.

A Victory For The Liberal In The Best Election

Templeman's the Greatest in the History of Victoria, B. C.

ONLY A SMALL VOTE POLLED

People Looked on Contest as a Foregone Conclusion—The New Minister of Inland Revenue Emphatically Endorsed by the Capital City of British Columbia — Two Other Liberal Victories Elsewhere.

Victoria, B. C., March 7.—The vote yesterday afternoon was:—Templeman (Liberal), 1,553; Marcon (Socialist), 306; Beckwith (Conservative), 857. This gives Mr. Templeman about 700 plurality, the largest Liberal majority ever given in the history of the city.

Voting for the bye-election passed off quietly yesterday. About 2,500 votes were cast. The result was taken as a foregone conclusion, hence the vote was not heavy.

Liberals Rejoice.

The Liberal committee-rooms were the centre of a jubilant throng of voters last night, being attended by a great, cheering crowd, which was by no means limited to Liberals, there being a large number of prominent Conservatives, who supported Mr. Templeman throughout. For the first time in the history of the city the Liberals, ranged up solidly behind the candidate, were augmented by the business men of the community, irrespective of party. Towards the last the campaign became very fierce, engineered largely by Chief Commissioner Green of the Local Government, who was anxious to wipe out a score with Mr. Templeman's paper, The Times, owing to its aggressive attitude towards him on the Kaien Island matter.

HON. MR. TEMPLEMAN.

Features of the Campaign.

Mr. Templeman held few meetings, just sufficient to acquaint the electors with the issues, but contended throughout that the Government was not on trial, as the result could not effect the fate of the Laurier Administration, and that it was merely a question whether the west was prepared to reject the proffered portfolio. He had the assistance of nearly all the Federal Liberal members at different times, and of his staunch friend, Ralph Smith, throughout the campaign. Mr. Smith left for Ottawa last night, and the new Minister will follow in a few days.

The Opposition Attacks.

The campaign, so far as the Opposition was concerned, was remarkable for the virulence shown by the Beckwith speakers, who turned the disaster to the Valencia into a campaign issue, fiercely attacking the Government for alleged neglect to provide aids to navigation and lifeboat appliances. Captain Woolley, poet-pugilist, also made much of the alleged "looking to Washington" on the part of the Liberals, and quoted Sir Wilfrid Laurier as anti-British and disloyal.

A Great Procession.

The election wound up with a torchlight procession, in which Mr. Templeman, accompanied by Messrs. J. A. Macdonald, leader of the Opposition; Ralph Smith and John Oliver, were drawn through the streets in carriages by enthusiastic supporters. Behind them came a long procession of carriages filled with workers, while the whole was preceded by a band and a brigade of torch-bearers. A stop was made in front of The Times office, and finally at the committee room, where the candidate was loudly cheered in acknowledging the support of his hearers.

ANOTHER LIBERAL VICTORY.

Annapolis County Had Choice of Two Temperance Candidates.

Halifax, March 7.—In the local bye-election held yesterday in Annapolis County to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of Attorney-General Longley to the bench, O. T. Daniels, Liberal, was elected by over six hundred majority.

He was opposed by Rev. Mr. Gaetz, a retired Methodist clergyman, the candidate of the temperance alliance.

The Conservatives did not put up a candidate.

Daniels has been a life-long advocate of temperance, and a prominent member of the Sons of Temperance. Gaetz ran as an out and out prohibitionist. He was nominated by the Temperance Alliance, and was subsequently endorsed by the Conservative convention.

The local elections for the province will be held this year.

Liberal In Peace River.

Winnipeg, March 7.—The bye-election in Peace River for the Alberta legislature resulted in the return of J. Brech, Liberal, by 93 majority.

White Labor Best Chinese.

Victoria, B. C., March 7.—After ten years' experience with Chinese, the Victorian Lumber and Manufacturing Co., operating the big Chemainus mills, have decided to employ none but white laborers. There is no sentiment operating in the matter nor any dictation or suggestion from labor unionism. The company claims that white labor is the cheapest in the long run.

PETER CONNAL & SON.

FLEET IN AWFUL STORM.

Only 79 Out of the 300 Fishing Boats in Friday's Big Storm Have Returned.

Christiania, Norway, March 5.—Several steamers have been despatched to Gjaesl-Ingerne Island, from Trondhjem to the assistance of the fishing fleet, which met with disaster in a violent storm which recently raged over the islands.

Three hundred boats with 2,000 men put to sea Friday when the weather seemed most propitious, but the lines and nets were hardly cast when the storm broke with a violence never before seen by the hardiest of the Norse fishermen. The fleet immediately dispersed, discarding its tackle, the only thought being to reach the mainland. Steering was out of the question. The boats were tossed helplessly by the mountainous seas in a blinding snow squall, and the crews had no recourse but to await the end.

Only a portion of the 300 boats have returned, and vessels which have arrived at Trondhjem report that large numbers of the fleet have been seen floating keel upwards.

Altogether, 79 fishing boats, with their crews, have thus far reached different points of Flatenger and Roorvik islands, and large numbers are also arriving at Gjaslingerne Island, so it is hoped that the disaster will not turn out to be so great as at first feared.

Eleven boats and 33 lives are known to have been lost.

FINN FISHERS IN DANGER.

800 Fishermen Yet Adrift on Ice Floes In Baltic Sea.

Helsingfors, Finland, March 5.—It is feared that 800 fishermen with their families who are afloat on the ice in the Gulf of Finland, will perish.

A fortnight ago about 1,000 persons who had their horses with them were fishing off the east land, when the ice parted and was driven by a storm into the Baltic Sea.

Later the ice split and the wind changed to east, and Saturday a block on which there were 200 persons came ashore at Hoedenkisham.

The fate of the others is unknown.

Hurt by Bursting Fly Wheel.

Belleville, March 5.—Harry Anderson, a resident of Ameliasburg, near this city, suffered a severe accident through the bursting of the flywheel of a circular saw. A piece of one of the spokes struck him in the thigh, inflicting a serious wound.

Three Persons Injured.

Montreal, March 5.—A serious accident took place on the Montreal Street Railway at the corner of Bleury and Craig streets shortly before noon Saturday, in which three people were injured. An Outremont car descending Bleury street ran into a Amherst street car with considerable force, owing, it is believed, to the slippery tracks. There were four cars in all concerned in the wreck, one after another smashing into the preceding car. Besides one car struck an express wagon and injured the driver. The two people seriously injured are: Nellie Warren, 178 Hutchinson street, and William Killingby, 48 Murray street.

Women Die From Burns.

Toronto, March 5.—Mrs. Noah Pirnick, 71 Kuron street, who was so badly burned on Friday afternoon, died in Grace Hospital Saturday afternoon. Her four-year-old son Louis, who was injured at the same time, died Friday evening.

Dr. McConnell commenced an inquest in the undertaking rooms of the E. F. W. Matthews Co., 455 West Queen street, Saturday night.

The husband of the dead woman and child has not yet been located. He is a pedlar and is away from home.

Mrs. A. Wiley, 353 West King street, who was burned by the overturning of a lamp, died in St. Micnael's Hospital Saturday morning.

Bodies Recovered.

London, March 5.—The bodies of the two men drowned on Wednesday afternoon were recovered from the river on Saturday morning. The strong undercurrent had carried the bodies down the river.

Gen Gatacre Dead.

London, March 6.—The death is announced this morning of Major-Gen. Sir William Forbes Gatacre, aged 63 years. Gen. Gatacre served with distinction in the Soudan, but his persistent ill-fortune in the Boer war dimmed his reputation as a soldier.

CZAR WILL KEEP PROMISES.

Czar Will Not Withdraw Reforms Which, He Says, Are Progressing In Russia Without Deviation.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—The Emperor's determination to abide by his promises of Oct. 30, was announced finally and resolutely in answer to a reactionary delegation from Ivanovo-Voznesensk, which asked him to withdraw his manifesto and to govern the country as his fathers had done. The Emperor replied:

"The reforms promulgated Oct. 30 are progressing without deviation. While the rights accorded to the people remain unaltered my autocratic power will ever remain as it always has been."

Bomb Anarchists Seized.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—Two anarchists armed with bombs were arrested at a railroad station here Saturday as they were boarding a train for Tsarskoe-Selo, where the Emperor is at present sojourning.

Mutineers to Die.

Odessa, Russia, March 5.—Lieut. Schmidt, who headed the naval mutiny in June last at Sebastopol, was Saturday sentenced to be hanged, three other mutineers were condemned to be shot and 27 others were sentenced to terms of imprisonment.

Ten of the accused were acquitted. The condemned men have appealed to the court of cessation.

The executions are fixed for March 6.

Schmidt Pardoned.

Odessa, March 5.—It is announced from St. Petersburg that Emperor Nicholas has pardoned ex-Lieut. Schmidt, who commanded the Russian cruiser Otchakoff during the mutiny.

Suicides in Court.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—During a meeting of the Father Gapon organization, which was investigating the scandal involving charges of accepting money from the Government, an accused member dramatically committed suicide.

A Simple Cure for Piles.

Pile sufferers know that Ointments and other local treatments sometimes relieve, but never cure. They don't remove the cause.

There is a little tablet that, taken internally, removes the cause of Piles and cures any case of any kind no matter how long standing.

POLICE AND BANK.

Forward Ground Taken at the Moroccan Conference at Algeciras on Both Crucial Subjects.

Algeciras, March. 5.—The conference on Moroccan reforms took a most important step Saturday by deciding on the immediate discussion of the police question.

After Sir Arthur Nicholson, chief of the British delegation, had submitted this proposition, the Marquis Viscount Venosta, head of the Italian mission, actively seconded it, eloquently appealing for conciliation and asking for the abandonment of the absolute and unbending standpoints taken by France and Germany. His words were listened to with respectful deference. The voting showed that Germany had with her Austria and Morocco, while eight representatives of powers supported Sir Arthur. Belgium and Sweden announced that they would abide by the decision of the majority.

A Partial Agreement.

The delegates of the powers have partially agreed on the text of the Moroccan bank project. The organization is to be entitled the State Bank of Morocco. It will be chartered for forty years, and have a capital of $3,000,000 in gold, divided into parts equal to the number of the powers participating in the conference. Each power, directly or through a bank or group of banks, shall have the right to subscribe to its part of the capital. The powers will designate a director of the bank and furnish a portion of the employes. Disagreements between Morocco and the bank may be referred to an arbitration court at Lausanne, Switzerland. The question of the number of the French shares and other details, however, have not yet been settled.

IN HER LUXURIANT HAIR.

Russian Woman's Attempt on Moscow Governor's Life Frustrated.

Moscow, March 6.—A boldly planned attempt on the life of Vice-Admiral Doubassoff, Governor-General of Moscow, and member of the Council of the Empire, was frustrated yesterday. The would-be assassin was a woman, and her method was practically the same as that of the woman who attempted the life of Vice-Admiral Chouknin on Feb. 9. Representing that she came from personal friends of the Governor-General, she gained admittance to the chancellery, but her agitation attracted the attention of an aide, who noticed particularly the luxuriance of the woman's hair, which was coiffed high upon her head. When she was interrogated she attempted to flee, but was seized and searched, and a small bomb was discovered concealed in her tresses. The identity of the woman has not been established.

Russian Elections Begin April 8.

St. Petersburg, March 6.—An imperial ukase, issued yesterday, orders the elections to the National Assembly to begin April 8, in 28 provinces of Central Russia, to commence April 27 in 17 other provinces of Central Russia, and the Don regions, and in two other provinces on May 3.

The primary elections of the peasant class, of which there are four degrees, are in progress. The returns thus far indicate that the voice of the peasants in the provincial congresses will be conservative. But no charge has been raised thus far that the Government has exercised undue influence.

MR. R. L. BORDEN'S IDEA.

Opposition Leader's Method to Help Shorten the Session.

Ottawa, March 6.—(Globe Special).—Mr. R. L. Borden, leader of the Opposition, has sent a typewritten letter to several Deputy Ministers, in which he says:—"Having regard to the late date at which the approaching session is to begin, I have asked the members of the Opposition to send to me in advance an intimation of any information which they may desire for the purposes of the session. By giving to each department in advance an idea of what will be asked for or moved for, in the first instance, it is thought that some time may be saved, and that the duration of the session may be less protracted than would otherwise be the case. A copy of the enclosed has been filed with the Clerk of the House and will appear upon the order paper when the House opens. I am sending you a copy in order that the reply may be expedited."

COST A SINGLE LIFE.

That Cyclone In Oceania Not So Devastating As Reported.

Paris, March 6.—Minister of Colonies Clementel has received a cable message confirming the press reports to the effect that the French establishment in Oceania was devastated by a cyclone and tidal wave Feb. 7 and 8. Tahiti was particularly affected.

Three hundred and twenty-seven houses at Papeete were destroyed. Two relief ships sent to the scene of the disaster from the Tuamuto Islands have not returned. The governor of the colony has asked for aid.

One life was lost.

PRESIDENT LT.-COL. M'GILLIVRAY

Industrial Exhibition Board Meets and Elects Its Officers.

Toronto, March 6.—At the first meeting of the exhibition board after the elections last week, the following officers were elected: Hon. president, W. K. McNaught, M. P. P.; president, Lt.-Col. McGillivray; first vice-president, W. K. George; second vice-president, George H. Gooderham; members of the executive, H. R. Frankland and S. E. Briggs.

PARIS GREETS HIS MAJESTY.

French People Show King Edward the Utmost Cordiality.

Paris, March 5.—King Edward's visit to Paris is attracting great attention, enormous crowds cheering his early appearance on the streets yesterday. The cordiality of the greetings exchanged between the King and President Fallieres during His Majesty's official call at the Elysee Palace was much remarked. The conversation between the two lasted half an hour.

Later the President returned the call at the British embassy, where a state dinner was held last night. At the dinner President Fallieres and Premier Rouvier, with their wives, were among the guests. There were no speeches. Afterward King Edward, President Fallieres and M. Rouvier conversed for nearly an hour in the smoking room.

During the course of the day former Presidents Loubet and Casimir-Perier left their cards at the British embassy. The King invited M. Loubet to dinner on Monday.

The Princesses Beatrice and Ena of Battenberg, who lunched with King Edward yesterday, will leave for Biarritz to-day, where they will await the King's arrival. Later an interview between the Kings of England and Spain will take place there, at which official consent to the marriage of Princess Ena to King Alfonso will be given.

Nine Months' Estimates.

Ottawa, March 5.—The Cabinet Saturday put the finishing touches on estimates from July 1st, 1906, to March 31st, 1907. The idea of taking a vote for only nine months is because it is proposed to begin in November of the latter year the first of what may be termed the "all winter" sessions. Appropriations to carry the country along when the nine months in question have expired can be made for whatever period is desired at the short session, early in January, 1907, to precede the one commencing in November.

Suing For $50,000.

Brockville, March 6.—The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. of the United States, which, since the death of Senator Fulford, has been managed by W. T. Hanson of Schenectady, N. Y., yesterday entered an action against the proprietors of Colliers' Weekly for $50,000 damage for an alleged libel published in the magazine a few weeks ago.

Raise in Price of Glass.

Cleveland, March 6.—The American Window Glass Co. has decided on another raise of 5 per cent. in the price of window glass, effective yesterday. Several smaller manufacturers have followed suit. Dealers say another advance is expected.

COUNSEL FOR ONTARIO.

Government Appoints J. F. Hellmuth, K. C., and Ald. Geary.

Toronto, March 6.—The Ontario Government has appointed J. F. Hellmuth, K.C., and Ald. G. R. Geary counsel to attend the Dominion Government insurance investigation in the interests of the policyholders of Ontario. This was announced by the Premier at the conclusion of a short session of the Legislature yesterday.

Mr. Whitney was asked what instructions were to guide the counsel. He replied that they were to watch the investigation and take such action as they may deem proper in the interests of the policyholders.

Mr. Hellmuth will be chief counsel and Ald Geary his junior.

"I will enter the investigation with a perfectly free hand," said Mr. Hellmuth last evening. "I have no entanglements. I have had no connection professionally or otherwise with any insurance company except as a policyholder.

A Policyholder's Lawyer.

"My interests will be those of the policyholders, and my duty will be to the policyholders.

"I will be furnished with information which will enable me to call witnesses, and will be glad to receive any information from any policyholder or others who will throw any light on the subject or will establish any claim the policyholders may have in regard to fairer or better treatment at the hands of the companies.

"So far as a thorough investigation is concerned, I will do all in my power to accomplish that work."

Mr. Hellmuth was called to the bar in England in 1877, is a graduate of Oxford, although he is a Canadian by birth, born at Sherbrooke, Ont., and is a son of the late Bishop Hellmuth of the diocese of Huron. He was appointed K.C. in 1902.

Ald. Geary is a member of the firm of Macdonell, McMaster & Geary.

McCurdy to Return When Wanted.

New York, March 6.—It appears from The Herald that Richard A. McCurdy, former president of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., before sailing for Paris on Wednesday last, entered into a written undertaking with District Attorney Jerome to return to this country at any time his presence might be desired, and to return by Sept. 1 in any event. This is taken to confirm the report that the district attorney is preparing certain life insurance matters for the grand jury.

One By One They Go.

New York, March 6.—James Speyer of Speyer & Co., bankers, announced yesterday that he has resigned from the board of trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance Co.

Albany, N. Y., March 6.—Dudley Olcott, president of the Mechanics' and Farmers' Bank, has forwarded his resignation as a member of the board of trustees of the Mutual Life. He has been a trustee since 1880.

150 More Safe.

Cronstadt, Russia, March 6.—A block of ice from the Gulf of Finland, with about 150 fishermen on it, has been driven ashore here. The ice-breaker Ermack has gone to the rescue of the remainder of the fishermen.

Loss of Life, 50.

Trondhjem, Norway, March 6.—Besides eleven fishing boats already reported missing as a result of the recent storm, five others are unaccounted for. The total loss of life is estimated at fifty.

Old Time Publisher Dead.

New York, March 6—Patrick O'Brien, the Nestor of the Catholic publishers in America, is dead at his home in Summit, N. J., in his 74th year, having been born March 17, 1832, in Kilkenny, Ireland.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women

They are the prescription of a specialist.

This is an age of specialists,—men who give all their time, study, and practice to some particular branch of medicine. There are specialists of the eye, specialists in diseases of the lungs, specialists in diseases of women. It costs something to get a prescription from a specialist, but it is worth all it costs, when you get it.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women are the prescription of Dr. Hugo, of Paris, a specialist of forty years' experience in diseases of women.

It embraces the latest medical discoveries of the other skilled physicians in the world. It might be called a compound prescription of the world's best specialists.

No ordinary physician can prescribe such a remedy. The better the physician, the nearer will be his prescription to that of Dr. Hugo.

Thousands of women in Europe have paid $50 for a consultation with Dr. Hugo and got the same remedy. Considering the benefit they received from it, it was worth $50, but it costs women now only 50c. for six dozen tablets—enough for an extended treatment.

It is a compound remedy containing all the tonics and alteratives that any woman can need, no matter what her condition. For women suffering from a run-down condition, or any weakness peculiar to her sex, it is now acknowledged to be beyond doubt or question the best remedy available to-day. It makes healthy women.

WHAT THEY WILL FIGHT.

New York Life Companies State Proposals They Will Oppose.

New York, March 5.—The life insurance companies have decided definitely on the recommendations of the Armstrong committee which they will seek to have altered at the public hearing before the Legislature on March 9.

The program was determined at conferences held in this city Saturday. More than fifty life companies, in fact, every company of importance in the country doing business in this state, were represented at the meetings. Here are the recommendations which the companies will oppose:

What They Oppose.

1. The restriction of investments.
2. The limitation of the contingency reserve fund.
3. The proposition that there shall be no forfeiture of a policy so long as the reserve upon it justifies its being carried.
4. The prohibition of deferred dividend policies.
5. The standardization of policies, especially as applied to outside companies.
6. The restriction of expenses to the loadings on the premiums plus the mortality gain.
7. The proposition to make every violation of the insurance law a misdemeanor.
8. The limitation of business to $150,000,000 a year.

9 and 10. Other collateral recommendations relating to the curtailment of expenses and the restriction of business.

The Big Three.

Each one of these subjects will be taken up at the public hearing by an insurance expert who will represent all of the companies.

There will be no lobbying and no hired representatives. That was announced definitely Saturday. The presidents of the big three companies, Paul Morton of the Equitable, Charles A. Peabody of the Mutual, and Alexander E. Orr of the New York Life, will attend the hearing in person. The allotment of the subjects was made contingent on the approval of the outside companies.

Kills Wife and Suicides.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 5.—Henry L. Whitbeck, a dentist, killed his wife with a hammer yesterday and then literally blew his brains out with a Mauser rifle, loaded with a soft-nosed bullet. He recently came out of a sanitarium, where he had been treated for the drink habit.

Red Cross Founder Ill.

Geneva, Switzerland, March 5.—Dr. Henry Dunant, founder of the Red Cross, who was reported several days ago to be dying, is still alive and his relatives state that his condition is slightly improved.

Two Children Choke to Death.

Montreal, March 6.—One child swallowing a whistle and another a button caused death in both cases in this city within the past twenty-four hours. An 8-year-old girl named Tremblay, residing at Lachine, swallowed the whistle, and Alphonse Corney, residing on Dargenson street, 2 1-2 years old, swallowed a button.

Banwells Remanded For a Week.

Toronto, March 6.—Edwin St. G. Banwell and his wife were in the Police Court yesterday, and by an understanding between Crown Attorney and Mr. DuVernet were remanded for a week. Banwell went back to jail, and Mrs. Banwell's bail of $5,000 was renewed.

Experiments Successful.

Sault Ste. Marie, March 6.—An announcement was made yesterday of the successful termination of the experiments that have been in progress here in the electrical smelting of iron ore by Dr. Heroult, the French expert of the Dominion Government.

16 Perish in Fire.

Florence, March 6.—At the village of Fucecchio, 23 miles west of Florence, a house where a dance was in progress last night took fire. In the panic which ensued the floor gave way and 16 persons perished, while many others were injured.

When you plan your meals you never think of bread, yet you always have it, and if it is left off the table it is the first thing that is missed.

You can live without bread, but you can live without any other food with less hardship—think along these lines and the absolute necessity of bread comes home to you.

And because it is a necessity, its quality should be the best—quality in bread depends largely upon the flour.

Royal Household Flour

has convinced the women of Canada that it is the best for pastry as well as for bread.

Doomed to Bachelorhood.

A little five-year-old was in a dolorous quandary. He had just been told of the approaching nuptials of his Uncle Will, and he suddenly evinced a great interest in the subject of matrimony.

"Mamma," he said after pondering the matter for awhile, "can folks marry their sisters?"

"No," answered she; "they have to marry some one else's sisters."

"Well, can't they marry cousins?" persisted the youthful seeker after knowledge.

"No, not even cousins," said mamma.

"Then what in the world will I do?" wailed he. "Sister Margaret and Cousin Daisy are the only little girls I know."

Dancing Shoes and Periwigs.

An advertisement appears in No. 180 of the Tattler informing the public that a stagecoach runs from Nando's coffee house to Mr. Tiptoe's dancing school, adding a postscript: "Dancing shoes not exceeding four inches in height in the heels and periwigs not exceeding three feet in length are carried in the coach box gratis." This, of course, was a satire upon the mob caps, conical hats, flowers, feathers and representations in glass of butterflies, caterpillars and even miniature coaches and horses with which the fine lady of the day adorned her head.—London Mail

WIDOWS READ LITTLE.

Too Busy Enjoying Themselves to Give Time to Books.

After dinner the woman called on two friends. They were a married couple. They had not been married so very long.

The wife, who was suffering from a slight cold, lay on the couch among the pillows. She had on a red kimono. She was very pretty, with the red to match in her cheeks. In her hands was a book. It happened to be of the same color as her kimono, which was also pretty. Attached to her book was a tiny little electric light, with a shade. The battery lay by her side.

The husband reseated himself at the center table. By his side was an open book with a paper knife keeping the place for him. It was under the reading lamp.

"How long have you been married now?" asked the woman as she took her seat in a big armchair.

"About six months," said they simultaneously.

The woman, who had just come from a gay dinner party where she had laughed for two hours with a lot of friends, glanced quickly from one to the other, taking in the books, the lamps, their attitudes of repose, the quiet of the room, the air of having finished with fun altogether.

"I see," said she. "I know how it is. I used to be married. I read then, and read and read. I nearly put my eyes out reading. I read sometimes till 3 o'clock in the morning and after."

"I do that now," smiled the wife.

"Really," went on the woman, "I think there wasn't a book that came out then I didn't read. I devoured them omnivorously."

"And now?" said they.

The woman smiled serenely at them from the recess of her big armchair.

"Now," said she, "I never read a single book that's on the market. I don't know what's come out, and I don't care. I go by bookstands from one year's end to the other and never think of them."

"Why?" asked they.

"I'm no longer married," explained the woman. "I no longer vegetate and read and read and vegetate. I live now," she added.

That Was All.

Oldun—Then I may take it that you have sympathy for the old soldiers who are starving? Broke—My dear sir, I have nothing but sympathy!

WOMEN FROM ALL PARTS OF CANADA

GAIN NEW LIFE AND STRENGTH THROUGH THE USE OF PSYCHINE.

Every day, in fact every mail, tells of the splendid help Psychine is giving to suffering women everywhere. By strengthening the blood making organs, helping the stomach and clearing out any tendency to throat, chest and lung troubles, it is giving a new lease of life to thousands of Canadian women who have not known for years what it means to be really well. Listen to what some of them say :

MRS. ANDREW CAMPBELL, Coltonwood, N.W.T.

"I caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs and gradually led to consumption. I could not sleep, was subject to night sweats, my lungs were so diseased my doctor considered me incurable. Rev. Mr. Mahaffy, of Port Elgin, Ont., Presbyterian Church, recommended Psychine, and I started to use it, with the result that the night sweats and cough ceased. I am now perfectly restored to health. Psychine has been a god-send to me."

MISS ETHEL M. WOOD, Brownsville, Ont.

"Two years ago I was going into a decline. I could hardly drag myself across the floor. My father got me to use Psychine, and people soon began to remark my improvement. I am now full of life, while a few months ago I could not struggle to church, 40 rods from my home. Psychine did it."

MRS. GEO. VOGART, Gananoque, Ont.

"I cannot speak too highly of Psychine. I was feeling nervous, trembling and run down, and had a bad cough. Psychine helped me more than anything I ever tried, and I give it all the praise."

MRS. D. McKINNON, Ingonish, C. B.

"La Grippe left my lungs and whole system weak. After dragging along and growing steadily worse on other treatments, I tried Psychine, and found a complete cure."

MRS. E. V. BLAISDELL, Arnprior, Ont.

"I had felt miserable for a long time, had no appetite, couldn't get any sleep, and was unable to work or enjoy life. People said I was so old my constitution was breaking up, but by using Psychine I have proved this false. I am now well, and have been for the past five or six years."

These are only a few of the many, only a small part of the great volume of proof that Psychine is the greatest builder-up, tonic and germ killer of the age. It is doing a great work for the women of Canada. It cures consumption and all those conditions that lead to consumption. Psychine is 50c Per Bottle, Large size $1.00 and $2.00 Per Bottle, at all druggists.

HUMOR

REASONABLE ENOUGH.

Why She Did Not Care to Take Part in the Amateur Theatricals.

"I never was so exasperated in all my life," said Miss Elderleigh, "as I was yesterday when that impertinent Mrs. Morton came here and wanted me to take part in some amateur theatricals she is getting up for charity.

"Don't you believe in that sort of thing?" asked her fair young cousin.

"Not at all. There's no sense in it and no charity about it. Look at the money they waste for costumes and things. When they get through they generally find that most of the money has been used before charity is reached."

"Yes, that's true. Still, a great many people give money in that way who would never give at all if there wasn't some inducement, and I suppose if it could be figured up you would find that in spite of the expense charity gets much more out of it in the end than could have been raised for the mere asking. Don't you approve of amateur theatricals?"

"Not at all. I think they're very demoralising."

"I can't see how you get that idea."

"Married women are made love to by men who are not their husbands, and there are dozens of other ways in which things are done that oughtn't to be. If people want to act let them go on the stage and be professionals. There's no sense in this amateur foolishness."

"But some people think amateur theatricals have considerable value from an educational standpoint. People study and learn plays that are worth knowing, such, for instance, as 'The Rivals,' which is always a popular thing for amateur performances, and then the ones who take part acquire an ease of manner that they couldn't get in any other way."

"Pooh, that's all imaginary! People who can't read plays or acquire graceful manners unless they have to get them in that way aren't worth saving."

"I'm surprised to hear you talk as you do, for Mrs. Morton told me the other day that when she had first thought of the matter she had spoken to you about it and you were very enthusiastic."

"Oh, she did, did she? Well, the impertinent thing wanted to know when she came to see me about it yesterday if I wouldn't take the part of an old maid."—Chicago Record-Herald.

All the Difference.

A gentleman was walking up the stairs of a certain establishment just behind a prepossessing young lady. A little way behind the gentleman followed another member of the stronger sex, evidently not supremely light-hearted. Suddenly the lady came to a standstill, and the first gentleman, unable to stop himself in time, trod heavily upon the fair damsel's dress. In a frenzy of indignation she wheeled round upon the unfortunate young man and cried, "You clumsy brute!" Then quickly realising that the gentleman was an utter stranger she said quite sweetly: "Oh, I am so sorry! I thought it was my husband."—Tit-Bits.

It Had Its Points.

Polite Paris.

The French people are said—by themselves—to be the politest nation. A signal proof of this was afforded to a lady traveler from the "wild west." Entering a crowded omnibus in the gay capital, she saw just one seat vacant. She had nearly gained it when a fat Frenchman who had entered just behind her pushed her aside and captured the seat, saying, with a gallant bow as his stout form dropped into it, "Pardon, madam!"—Lippincott's Magazine.

WEARY DAYS AND SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Many men and women toss night after night upon sleepless beds until near dawn. Their eyes do not close in the sweet and refreshing repose that comes to those whose heart and nerves are right. Worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system that it cannot be quieted. Or, again, you have heart palpitation and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die; or perhaps you wake up from your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and rest leaves you for the night. Allow these conditions to continue and you will feel your health declining

It is the nerves and heart that are not acting properly.

They can be set right by the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They soon induce healthful, refreshing sleep, not by deadening the nerves, but by restoring them to healthy action and removing all symptoms of heart trouble, which is often the cause of nervousness and sleeplessness.

Mrs. Ennis Chambers, Massey Station, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with dizziness, weak spells and fluttering of the heart. I was so bad at times I could not lie down in bed at night but would have to sit up. I doctored for a whole year and got no relief. I took three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and was so completely cured I have not been troubled since. I cannot recommend them too highly."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or sent direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE WOMAN'S FAULT.

His independence made him proud;
He scoffed at double breasted coats;
Men who to Fashion's dictates bowed
He likened to a flock of goats
That followed where their leader went
And never knew what freedom meant.

He sneered at men and called them fools
Because they wore clothes a la mode;
He laughed at Fashion's foolish rules
And clung to shoes that were wide toed
And went around declaring that
A fool was under each stiff hat.

He boasted that he didn't care
What Fashion said was right or wrong.
He spurned the razor, and his hair
Was ragged and uncombed and long.
The linen collar he eschewed
As something only for a dude.

A lady smirked at him one day
And said a silly word or two.
He put his loose old clothes away
And dressed in fine ones that were new
Then got his hair cut and a shave,
And Fashion had another slave.

March Will Be Stormy Month, Says Irl Hicks

Middle of This Month Will See Some Bad Storms--This is His Prediction--Winter to Close With a Rough Period--Will His Prophecy Come True?

Rev. Irl Hicks, of St. Louis, has issued his forecasts for March, from which the following excerpts are taken:

The culminating days of a regular storm period fall from Thursday the 1st to Sunday the 4th of March. On and touching the 2nd and 3rd look for much higher temperature, attended by threatening fall of the barometer, ending in heavy to violent storms. In most parts these storms will at first be tropical in character—heavy rain and hail with lightning, thunder and local floods; but sudden and extreme change to colder will follow, bringing high barometer, snow squalls and fierce, cold winds from the northwest.

A reactionary storm period centres on the 6th, 7th and 8th. At this time the sharp cold that followed the previous period will relax, the barometer will fall, and renewed storms of wind and rain, turning to snow in the north and central region may be expected. This period is at the exact centre of the Venus disturbance, it is also under the influence of the Vernal Equinox, hence storms of great enenty and danger are possible and probable. A short, sharp cold wave may possibly come from the northwest behind these storms; if so it will soon break down in the oncoming of the period just ahead.

A regular storm period in central on the 13th, covering the 8th to the 16th. As early as the 10th a marked change to warmer will be spreading from west to east, the thermometer will be falling to very low readings in all western sections, threatening clouds will gather and general storms of rain, thunder and wind will take up their march eastwardly across the country. About Saturday the 10th, to Wednesday the 14th, these storms will make their transit from western to eastern extremes, bringing torrential rainfall to many localities, especially in Southern or Central parts of the country. Severe lightning, thunder and hail will visit many places, with great probability of violent, tornadic storms. Meantime boreal conditions will appear, advancing from the northwest, in the form of rising barometer, blizzards and tempestuous gales. These boreal storms will finally gain the ascendency over the entire country, bringing a decided cold wave for the season, which will make itself felt far into the south. In all probability heavy snow blockades will result in many parts of the west, north and northeast during this period.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 17th, 18th and 19th, with the moon at last quarter and extreme south declination. This period is near the centre of the earth's equinox and still under the influence of Venus perturbation. At this period look for return of falling barometer, higher temperature and more rain and snow—rain southward turning to snow in middle to northern States. The inevitable rise from the northwest will follow in the immediate wake of these storms, bringing cold, raw weather from about the 19th to 22nd.

A regular storm period is central with the new moon on the 24th. The Venus period still exists during the storm period, adding its influence to earth's Vernal Equinox, at its centre. The moon is also on the celestial equator on the 25th near its conjunction with earth and sun on the 24th. By the 23rd almost a phenomenal change to warmer will be noted in western sections. The barometer will fall rapidly to very low readings in the same sections. High winds will blow from the east and south, cloudiness will increase as these general storm conditions move eastward into the central valleys, and on the next to Friday the 23rd to Tuesday, the 27th, storms of marked intensity and violence will visit most parts of the country, moving according to the progressive law governing storms from west to east. Regular tropical, thunder, rain and hail storms will strike many localities, especially southward, during the eastward sweep of these disturbances; but no one should lose sight of the fact that severe March blizzards and a full-grown cold wave for the season will wind up this period from the northwest.

A reactionary storm period covers the last three days of the week. On these days there will be a general reaction to warmer weather, falling barometer, cloudiness and return to rain, with possibly snow squalls in many sections.

March as a whole will be rough and stormy about the average. The outlook is for heavy rain and snow causing floods and dangerous ice gorges, and impeding outdoor and agricultural work over most parts of the country.

Nothing Relieved His Kidneys Until He Tried

Bu-Ju

MARKHAM, Ont., Dec. 1, 1903

"I had suffered for seven years with kidney trouble. Could scarcely walk and was unable to attend to my farm. Saw "Bu-Ju" advertised, and after taking the first few pills, felt much relieved. After taking half a box, was able to do a full day's work. I know one box of "Bu-Ju" saved me $40.00 doctor bills.

"JAMES ABBOTT."

It costs only 3c a day to take "Bu-Ju"—the kidney pill that never fails.

All druggists have "Bu-Ju" or will get them for you.

Advantage was taken of the occasion to make a presentation to Miss Lottie Smith, who leaves here shortly to reside in Lakefield. The presentation of a very handsome cream and sugar set, mounted on a sterling silver stand, was made by Mrs. G. Taylor, while Mrs. A. D. Payne read the following address:

To Miss Lottie Smith,—

Dear Friend, — For some time you have associated yourself with us in our work, and having found the work thus made pleasant, we have learned to look upon you as a friend and helpful co-worker. We have always found you agreeable and willing to do the needed part. This is the part this world has, and ever will appreciate, and demand of us; hence those who are willing in this place to work will command the loving respect of the most thoughtful of their associates. This we may say of you, not that we would say more than is your due or have you cease to do the needed part; but to encourage and recommend you to other places of usefulness into which circumstances may guide you. We understand your intention is to make your home in another locality, and we may say that we regret our loss both of yourself and your father and mother, as the community will miss the pleasure of your association which has been so long extended. But it is of life to force or gently press its changes upon us and yet His way we all shall yield is best. Would you be pleased to accept this token of respect, and our sincerest wish for your future happiness in your new relation. We also wish your father and mother health and many years to enjoy the result of their honest industry while playing their part in this community. Our prayer is that Providence may daily guide you all until we each enter into His wonderful provision, the Land of Rest, and Eternal Home.

Signed on behalf of the Warsaw Methodist church choir.

Mrs. Geo. Taylor,
Mrs. A. D. Payne.

Miss Smith, who was taken completely by surprise, in acceptance of the gift, replied, thanking the donors.

Possibilities of the Postal System.

Cheap Mail Facilities One of the Chief Factors in Our Prosperity and Progress.

"Common is the commonplace." The most valuable of civil benefits is such a commonplace matter, that we scarcely give it a thought. It would take a writer on a whaler nipped in an ice floe to make us truly appreciable of the worth of the postal service. What a wonderful thing it is! Wonderful in its organization, with its vast machinery for the collection and distribution of letters, its railway mail cars, its route riders, the unfailing order and precision of its methods. Wonderful it is too in its results. It knits together families widely separated. It carries across the sea some tender lover's message or perhaps a little flower picked from the daisied grave of an English churchyard. Every hour of every day the mail bag is packed with words which waken love and laughter, and words which deepen the furrow in the cheek and dim the failing sight with bitter tears.

But with all this there is going on through the mail service a dissemination of human knowledge, a reaching out of human help which is one of the crowning blessings of our century. The correspondence schools led by Chautauqua, are sending to every village and hamlet the broader knowledge which is so eagerly craved by many who are shut in to the homely duties of a humble life. Without the mail system this plan of education would be impracticable.

Every mail, too, carries from the great centers, the advice of great physicians, which it would be impossible for the distant public to obtain were it not for the mails. Few people realize how many thousand people depend on the mail service for medical treatment. Not long ago when some postal affairs were being discussed in connection with the erection of the new postoffice building in Buffalo, N. Y., some light was thrown on this subject by the statement that the mail by Dr. R. V. Pierce amounted daily to something over 1,500 pieces. Of course this is not a common case, because Dr. Pierce's relation as chief consulting physician to Buffalo's famous institution, The Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, makes his advice and that of his staff of nearly a score of skilled and experienced specialists much sought after, especially by women, to the treatment and cure of whose special diseases Dr. Pierce has devoted over thirty years of almost constant labor. But though this example is out of the ordinary, it may serve as an evidence of the amazing benefits reaped by the public from the mail service. It puts every outlying hamlet in touch with the most advanced medical specialism of the day. It gives at a cost of a two-cent stamp, the skill and experience that it has taken years to acquire. Literally at the cost of a two-cent stamp, since Dr. Pierce invites sick women to consult him by letter without charge. And this would seem to be one of the most remarkable services rendered by the postal system, perhaps the supreme service of all. For while it is a splendid thing to be able to shop in New York while living in Kansas, and a grand thing to be able to command the learning of great professors while working in the Michigan woods, it is a still grander thing that by means of this cheaply supplied service, men like Dr. Pierce, who have the disposition to be helpful, are enabled to place their skill and knowledge at the disposal of those who are being dragged down by disease, without the possibility of help from those about them. When one contemplates the vast and far reaching benefits of the mail service, so briefly touched upon in this article, it makes the familiar gray uniform of the postman the most glorious of all uniforms, for it is worn by the soldiers of the army of peace. It makes one feel like taking his hat off to the on-rushing mail train, and cheering the work and wisdom of Uncle Sam.
